APPEAL ALLOWED BY PRIVY COUNCIL

Appeal of Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Limimited v. Dunsmuir.

London, July 3—The Privy Council today allowed the appeal of the Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Limited vs. Dunsmuir and dismissed the cross-appeal. These actions were concerned with the construction of an option to purchase mining property on Vancouver Island.

The action arose out of the purchase four years ago by Mackenzie & Mann interests of all of the interests held by the Dunsmuir family in the Canadian Collieries Limited. The purchase price was understood to be eight million dollars. Before final settlements were made numerous disputes arose between the parties. Among these were claims made by the purchasers of the colliery interests to certain colliers plying out of San Francisco, and two huge piles of coal which were stored on the C. P. R. wharves at Vancouver for use in strike or other emergencies. containing some thousands of tons. The buyers also claimed the amount of money standing in the bank account at the time the deal was arranged, but which was paid out by the declaration of a dividend to the former owners immediately before possession was given to the new owners.

Mr. Dunsmuir, on the other hand, claimed an accounting of all the profits during the time that elapsed from the time the collieries were sold until payment was made. The two cases were fought out at joint hearings in all the Canadian courts before going to the Privy Council. The judgement of the Privy Council establishes the right of the purchasers of the Canadian Collieries to the vessels and coal piles, which Mr. Dunsmuir had with-held on the ground that they were his private property, and not part of the colliey company's assets at the time the transfer was made. A sum of over a million dollars was involved in the dispute.

Mesher Bros. expects to have the opera house completed by July 15. This Stock Co. is now playing to crowded houses in Nanaimo.

DENIES STORY

On monday Premier McBride at Victoria gave an unqualified denial to the story that there would be an election in British Columbia in the autumn, probably in August.

"There is absolutely no truth in the story," declared Sir Richard.

This denial is taken to indicate that the government will adhere to its original proposal to take at least one more session and quite possibly two' It is not required to go to the electors until after the session at the beginning of 1916, although in certain quarters it was suggested that there might be an election in the autumn of 1915. At all events it is realized that a provincial redistribution bill will be passed before the next British Columbia election.

We are glad to find that Noah is in favor of church union. We think ourselves it would be a great saving in operating expenses and leave a larger surplus for widening the scope of the church — but we shall never agree to only one prayer, there must be at least a prayer for Noah.

Some men seem to think if they get into a "scrape" and the Editor mentions it in his paper, that he does it out of malice towards them. In nearly every case of this kind nothing could be farther from the truth than such a belief. It is the Editors business to publish local happenings, good or bad, and if a man furnishes material for a bad item he has no one to blame should it appear.

BOWSER ANSWERS FOSTER'S CHARGES

The Attorney General Explains Way Some Miners are still in Jail.

Before leaving on his trip through Northern British Columbia, Friday night of last week, Hon. W. J. Bowser made a statement to the Province regarding a complaint voiced by Mr. Robert Foster of the United Mine Workers before the Trades and Labor Council on Thursday evening. Mr Foster alleged that some of the miners sentenced after the riots in Nanaimo have been held in jail beyond the legal time. Mr. Foster said he had complained to the Attorney-General by letter but had received no reply.

"I have written to Mr. Foster but doubtlessly, he had not received the letter when he addressed the Trades Council," said Mr. Bowser last night. "I am quite sure there has been no mistake by the warden of the provincial jail," continued the attorney-general. "It is to our interests to get rid of the prisoners. We want to get them away. If an error was made it would be the easiest thing in the world to get them out on habeas corpus. I have no doubt that Mr. Bird, counsel for the miners, would quickly see to that.

"But apart from the legal side of it, I would like briefly to outline the facts. All the men sent to the provincial jail have been released except five. It wa agreed between Mr. Taylor for the crown and Mr. Bird for the miners, at the time sentences were passed that the terms for four of these men should be figured to commence on December 15th, 1913, so their year dated from that date, with two months good conduct time off. The fifth man started, I think, on September 13, so he comes out sooner. But these four have been out on bail from a date shortly after their arrests until their trials. Recently several men likewise sentenced to a year were released because they never were out on bail and were counted as serving the time they had already spent at Westminster during the autumn months before the trial. Here the misunderstanding has arisen. Some of the year men are out, why are not all out? Mr. Foster asks. The answer is that a man on bail can not be serving his term at the same time. If that were so a man might serve his whole year techically sentenced, but really enjoying freedom on bail. I have nothing against these men. I would be willing enough to see them released, but we could not allow one man to serve his term free of bail while his poorer fellow is actually under detention," concluded Mr. Bowser.

KILLED BY HIS OWN MACHINE

Infernal, Death-dealing Bomb Picks out Inventor for Victim.

New York, July 6—In the ruins of the tenement wrecked Saturday by the explosion of a bomb, which, it is beleived, was intended for use against John D. Rockefellow or his son, the authorities found evidence today that Arthur Caron, who was killed with three others, had used his apartment as a centre for the distribution of inflammatory literature and that it was filled with death-dealing explosives.

A small printing press, revolutionary pamphlets and circulars an electric dynamo, two electric batteries, cartridges and bits of steel were among the articles uncovered, which tend, in the opinion of the police, to show an anarchistic plot. The demonstration, halted by the bungling of some one who was preparing an infernal machine for its mission, was planned against the Rockefellow family in Tarrytown is the theory upon which the authorities are working.

Two of those killed in the wrecked apartment were prominent agitators who were to be placed on trail at Tarrytown tomorrow on charges of disorderly conduct in connection with the demonstration inaugurated against John D. Rockefellow jr. as a protest against his attitude in the Colorado coal mine strike.

The body of the fourth victim of the expolsion was found today It was that of Charles Berg, known in I. W. W. circles as the "Big Swede," an 'associate of Caron. The other victims were Charles Hanson and Mary Claves The woman lived in an apartment next to the one occupied by Caron and his associates.

A gruesome, but suggestive proof of evidence uncovered was a severed hand which clutched two small pieces of wire and ready for connection. The authorities believe that the owner of this hand was in the act of making an electric connection for one of the bombs, and a battery when the explosion slew him.

SATURDAY, JULY 11, 1914.

Celebration of a Hundred Years of Peace.

The movement for celebrating the Hundred Years of Peace between the British Empire and the United States is, judging by a circular just issued by the Canadian Peace Centenary Association, taking rapid hold in Canada, Great Britain and Unitied States.

The general proposals contain four main features, (1) Monuments and other memorials, (2) Thanksgiving Services in the Churches, (3) Educational Propaganda, (4) Festivities.

The Circular enumerates various suggestions regarding the erection of monuments, and states that the matter has been referred to an International Committee.

February 14, 1915, has been selected for Thanksgiving Services in all the churches of the British Empire and Unitied States. This date is the nearest Sunday to February 17, 1915, the centenary of the ratification of the Treaty of Ghent.

The educational propaganada includes several important features, among which may be mentioned the preparation of a series of pamphlets dealing with the various treaties which have made the long peace possible, which it is intended to send to all the schools in Canada. Tableaux and masques are in course of preparation which will also be sent to the schools for production upon a date to be hereafter arranged. A somewhat unique proposal is that schools in Canada and the Unitied States in places bearing the same name should be invited to exchange Shields. It is intended to arrange for the writing of competitive Essays on Anglo-American relations, and provision is being made for Provincial and Dominion prizes.

About 100 centres have been chosen for special celebrations in Canada and strong local committees have been arranged for in a majority of these.

The circular also reports the progress made in Great Britain and United States and contains replies received last Christmas from World Rulers to a message sent in connection witn the celebration by the American Committee.

The Dominion Government has arranged for an appropriation to meet the preliminary organization expenses. In announcing this the Rt, Hon, R. L. Borden said: "The cause which the Canadian Peace Centenary Association and the corresponding bodies in the United Kingdom and the United States have set before them is one with which we are warmly sympathetic. It is a triumph of humanity that during a century of rapid development, despite the existence of serious international differences and problems, the British Empire and the United States have found wiser and more humane methods of adjusting differences than the arbitrament of war. We welcome the achievement of a century of peace, and hope that it will prove to be but the first century of peace, the forerunner of a long series stretching into the future as far as human anticipation can trust itself.

The list of members is a most representative one and contains the names of all the Lieutenant Governors, all the Ministers of Education and nearly all the Premiers in Canada. Among those prominent in this Province, who have identified themselves with this movement may be mentioned His Honour Thomas W. Paterson, Lieutenant Governor; The Hon. Sir Richard McBride, Hon. Sir Charles H. Tupper, K.C.M.G., etc., etc.

The President of the Canadian Peace Centenary Association is Sir Edmund Walker, of Toronto, and the Honorary Secretary, Major C. F. Hamilton of Ottawa.

◈

A Delusion.

From The Pacific Coast Mechanic.

We are all human; and, being human, we are all foolish. The general run of labourers are no exception to this rule. It seems to us that labour has fallen a victim to a few delusions.

It has always been a question in the minds of many, what the object could be of the large number of labour journals continually calling the attention of their readers to the faults, real and imagined, of the employers and filling their columns with suggested reforms. It is the employers who are the oppressors of labour, it is they who are responsible for everything wrong on this earth. These statements are repeated so often and talked about so much that after a time these papers really have a large number of labourers deluded into believing that they are right.

The same is true of the labour agitators and orators; with loud talk and vehement language they hurl curses upon all who employ.

Now, the question is, why do they do this. It is mostly because they like to talk and delight in playing upon the passions of their hearers, but there is a deeper motive than this. They know that as long as they are able to sidetrack the mass of labourers, to turn their attention to some other field, and make them believe that all the troubles of this earth can be traced to the employers, there is little danger of them paying attention to their own officials.

It is an amusing sight, when the working men keep raging helplessly at those who employ them and disregard those loud talking officials who are oppressing them much more than any employer ever dared to or even dreamed of doing. While they are intently watching the foes without the enemies within the ranks carry on their little work unobserved and unsuspected. This is one of the reasons why so much is done to keep the attention of the members focused on employers so that they have not time to investigate the acts of their own officials.

Let labour first direct its attention within its own ranks; there it will find plenty of oppression, and a group of men who are responsible for many of the hardships imposed upon labour.

It is a significant fact that those great labour leaders who are worthy of respect and are pointing the way to real progress, are those most tolerant in their language when speaking of those with whom they disagree. It is only these small men, working in the dark, that resort to vituperation.

"Noah"

Old Noah is still with us, and despite his hoary age, which should indicate the accummulated wisdom of years, it is more than ever apparent that there's truth in the adage "there's no fool like an old fool." In a maundering communication which he has contributed to the "News" this week he seeks to justify speculation by pointing to "Rockefeller dabbling in oil shares, Vanderbilt in New York real estate and Dunsmuir's reckless boring for coal." Noah should know by this time that there's only one Rockefeller, Vanderbilt and Dunsmuir. He knows these names are great exceptions and he ought to know also that when we seek to prove the truth of a general hypothesis we do not look to the exceptions to demonstrate it. We infer from our biblical knowledge that Noah, in olden days, devoted his energies to pastoral and agricultural pursuits—probably hoeing "spuds" and such like. It is a nice occupation and singularly appropriate, and the knowledge always comes in useful, but on a hot July day with the sun beating down on one's aged shoulders it is not surprising if even Noah's mind should wander off to the flesh pots of Egypt and dream visions of suddenly acquired wealth, when "spuds" will only be known with their jackets off and served in recherche style as pomme de terre. But a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush, so stay with "spuds" Noah. We fear the winter of your discontent is not yet ended.

Our Town.

In all probability this district will become thickly populated. We believe we are peculiarly well situated to be caught up in the tide and ride proudly forward on the topmost wave of prosperity. We should have strong faith in its possibilities and pull together with even and steady stroke. An important feature is to advertise the city, speak good concerning it and show forth its excellencies. save your money and when you spend it, spend it at home. Some of it will be sure to come back to you. When able to build, build at home and encourage your friends to do the same. Encourage everyone to come and live with us. During the past few months many strangers have settled with us through the encourgement of friends here. They are good citizens; they will build or buy substantial homes, and take an active interest in the general welfare of the town. Keep your business to the front, and every interest of the town on the observatory, to be seen by the world.

We presume that every citizen of our town is, or ought to be, desirous to see it advance in all the interests that pertain to a town of thrift and enterprize. Again we assume that if you, who live in Cumberland, make no effort in this direction, who, if there are any benefits accruing therefrom would be the recipients thereof, we do not believe that our neighbours, who have no particular interest in our welfare, would be so very mindful of us as to give us a boost by investing a few thousand dollars for our good, or start any enterprize that would be for the upbuilding of our town. If a town is ever built up and placed in a growing condition it will be directly or indirectly due to those who live in it, and if you wish to know the steps to be taken we will cite a few. Talk it up, its interests, its facilities and various adaptibilities to different branches of industry. Write about it, beautify its streets, invest your money in it, patronize its merchants and every enterprize started as far as it is at all consistent, elect good men to office, advertise in its newspapers, be courteous to those whe come among you and never let an opportunity to speak a good word about it pass. Remember that every dollar you invest in a permanent improvement is that much money at interest and is that much towards building up your town.

There is no quicker way to take the life, growth, and energy out of a town than for its citizens to be constantly holding up the dark side of the picture to the gaze of the inquirer. There is nothing like confidence to make a success.

The Price of Success

Big business is not an accident—it is a result. It is the fruit of purpose, energy, persistency and ADVERTISING.

You know the story of Rip Van Winkle—the man who went to sleep for 20 years and who, when he awoke, expected to find the world the same as it was when he entered slumberland.

There are men today very much like Rip Van Winkle—their point of view and their practices are those of a generation past. They do not believe in advertising.

To succeed in these modern days one must be in accord with the spirit of today. For a merchant this means that he must advertise, if he would prosper.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC

Where are you served best and most pleasing? The answer is almost sure to be—"Where we are invited and made welcome. At those shops which prize our custom enough to seek it, and who ask for it every week through the medium of advertisements in the ISLANDER.

TO AMEND THE ELECTION ACT

Proposal to Extend Hours for Voting on Election Day.

It is not improbable that when the next general election is held the polls will not close at 5 o' clock, but will remain open until 7 or 8 o'clock in the evening, The committee of the House which last session considered amendments to the Electoral Act took up this question as well as the proposal that election day should be a holiday.

There are some objections to the latter proposal because it is feared that it would lead towards disturbances. The possibilities are that the prosposal to make election day a holiday will not be adopted, but that the hours for voting will be extended. This will give an opportunity to employees of factories and offices to vote after working hours if they are not given an opportunity to do so earlier in the day.

HINDUS LOSE APPEAL CASE

Victoria Decision of Court of Appeal is Unanimous in Dismissing Appeal.

Victoria, July 6--The Court of Appeal this morning unanimously dismissed the Hindu appeal and upheld the validity of the steps the immigration officials took in preventing the landing of the Komagata Maru passengers.

The test case which the Court of Appeal gave a decision on this morning was that of Munshi Singh. The court has upheld the validity of the orders-in-council followed by the immigration authorities in attempting the deportation of Munshi Singh on the following grounds [1], That the Hindu is a native of India, an immigrant of Asiatic race, and does not posses, in his own right, $200; [2] That he is an immigrant who has come to Canada otherwise than by continuous journey from his native country; [3] That he is an unskilled laborer.

The court further ruled that except in the case of persons who are Canadian citizens or have a Canadian domicile, there is no power in any court to reveiw or quash any order made by a board of enquiry, as set out in section 23 of the immigration Act.

On all these points the five members of the court—Chief Justice MacDonald, Hon. Justices Irving, Martin, Galliher and McPhillips—were unanimous.

Dr. D. E, Kerr, dentist, will be in Cumberland July 15th to 25th. Appointments may be made before arrival at Peacey's Drug Store.

COLUMBIA GRAFONOLAS

THE recent advance in the science of the reproduction of sound waves has been so revolutionary that you cannot possibly realize the true musical quality of these late models of the Columbia until you have heard one of them.
There is a Columbia that conforms to every requirement of cost or surrounding. Between $25 and $650, the price you wish to pay, is matched by an instrument that gives you the money's worth, even if measured by its intrinsic value. Measured by its musical quality, and its capacity for bringing you "all the music of all the world" the money value is multiplied beyond any computation.

CORRESPONDENCE

[To the Editor of the ISLANDER]

FOOTBALL

SIR,—

Of course Bevan was supposed to play the Cumberland team, but judging from the following team we think that Bevan versus Vancouver Island would be nearer the mark, seeing that their team was as follows:—

Cumberland Team

P. Darie (cap,) full back, Courten'y
T. Sutherland, o. l., Courtenay
R. Brown, c. f,, Qualicum Beach
G. Green, o. r., Nanaimo
T. Hurd, f. b., Bevan
G. Bowen, i. r., Cumberland
J. Walker, goal, "
S. Jones, c. h., "
F. Slaughter, l. h., "
E. King, i. l., "
M. Rogers, "

Out of the above eleven players five of them are not even residents of Cumberland, so we fail to see how it could be a Cumberland team.

The following is the list of the Bevan team:—

Bevan Team.

W. Parsons, goal, Bevan
T. Dewsbury, l. b., "
W. Booth, r. h., "
J. Eiliott (cap), c.h., "
S. Sullivan, l. h., "
J. Olliver, o. r., "
J. Forrester, i. l., "
J. Robinson, c. f., "
R. Strachan, i. h., "
C. Minton, o. l., "
C. Jewitt, r. b., "
H. Tappin, V. Rogers, reserves.

We would like to draw your attention to the above team and you will notice that they are all residents of Bevan and all but one Employees of the C. C. We have written for the ruling on this dispute from the highest football authority in British Columbia which when answered we would ask you to allow it to appear in your columns,. Should you see fit to publish the above, we feel confident that the public will agree that we took the only course open under the circumstances.

Thanking you in anticipation, we are sir.

Yours sincerely,

H. MURPHY,
Secretary, Athletic Association,
Bevan, July 2nd 1914

David Leith, Esq., President,
MainlandAmateurFootball Ass.
Vancouver, B.C.
Dear Sir,—

Knowing you to be an expert judge in football matters, I am taking the liberty of an old friendship to ask your decision on a dispute which occured yesterday at the Union Bay sports.

There were four teams entering the football competition, namely Union Bay, Bevan, Extension, and Cumberland. Union Bay and Bevan played the first match, Bevan scoring three goals to nil, with one man, James Forrester, injured in this game. Extension and Cumberland played next, Cumberland scoring four goals to nil. This left Cumberland and Bevan to play in the final.

The time set for the said final was 5 p,m. The writer on getting the team together, found that James Forrester, the man injured whilst playing against the Union Bay team, was unable to appear on the field to play the final with Bevan (his own team) against Cumberland, and one of the reserves (Harry Tappin) was put on the field to take his place. The Cumberland team immediately refused to play, claiming that Bevan had no right to put a reserve man to take the place of Forrester. The writer and the captain of the Bevan team, invited the referee and sports committee to examine the injured man, but this they refused to do. Bevan refused to start with less than eleven men, or was willing to play ten men on each side, but Cumberland refused this,

I may state that there were no specifications laid down, outside the ordinary football rules, to be guided by.

Now the point is:—Is Bevan's contention correct?

Thanking you in anticipation for a detailed and open report on this, which will be greatly appreciated by,

Yours truly,
(Signed) Hugh Thornley
Manager Bevan Football Team.

Hugh Thornley. Esq.,
Bevan, B.C.
Dear Sir,—

Replying to yours of July 2nd, re dispute Union Bay Sports.

In the absence of any particular rules to govern the eligibility of players, and unless it was specifically stated that only those playing in the qualifying rounds would be permitted to play in the final, the ordinary Football Cup Rules would govern, and the Bevan F. C. should have been allowed to play the reserve man.

Of course, the objection made by Cumberland was probably on account of the fact that the reserve man was in better condition through not having taken part in any previous game that day, and such objection would in a manner be justffied.

However, as previously stated, in the absence of any specific rules to govern such a competition, the ordinary Football Cup Rules should hold good,

Yours truly,
(Signed) David Leith.
President.

Synopsis of Coal Mining Regulations
