Pattullo's Expenses In Campaign From Provincial Treasury

DOINGS AT THE CAPITAL AS SEEN AND NOTED BY OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT

History was made in the Legislature last week when the Throne speech passed without challenge with seven hours' aggregate discussion, only the Opposition leader and the Prime Minister speaking, in addition to mover and seconder of the formal reply. Criticism of the administration was voiced by Mr. Pattullo only, an innovation in procedure for this province. The passage of reply in three short sittings establishes a record for expeditious despatch of business not approached in any parliament of Canada during the past decade, and a record for British Columbia since Confederation year, Reply being moved and passed during a single day in 1876. Last year fourteen days were consumed in debate on the Speech, at a cost on the averaged daily expense to the 1928-29 session of $45,956.54—this year's saving of the taxpayers' money being thus $36,103.71.

Leaders of both parties set an example of their followers in condensation, Mr. Pattullo speaking slightly more and Hon. Dr. Tolmie slightly less than two hours. On the admission of his own supporters, the Liberal leader's pronouncement was somewhat disappointing — marking retrogression since last session—apparently largely due to Mr. Pattullo during the recess having accumulated much small arms ammunition and devoting himself to comparatively trivial grievances, real or imaginary, rather than confining himself to major issues in recognition of his chieftainship. Difficulty that he had experienced in finding a parking place for his car on the opening day was, illustratively, scarcely rateable as a major matter of public concern. Otherwise Liberal deliverance was notable for somewhat sweeping denunciations and on mechanically political lines rather than dispassionate expose of maladministration, with adduced proofs.

"Reckless extravagance" and "rabid partizanship" were the main counts in the indictment of the Conservative administration. The former, Mr. Pattullo alleged, had necessitated the selling of short-term Treasury certificates at 99¾ "when financial institutions of the East were bulging with money"; raising $5,000,000 by Treasury certificates on another occasion; and incurring liabilities of $7,000,000, so that the province had "gone behind $15,000,000 during its first year in office and was financing from hand to mouth in order to protect its cheques."

Naturally he repudiated Liberal responsibility for the $3,500,000 deficit inherited by the present government from its predecessor, of which he was a member.

Taxes had been increased rather than dismissed; public works expenditures had run riot; responsibility had been delegated to commissions in series; pre-election pledges had been forgotten or denied; and the First Minister on the occasion of Hon. R. B. Bennett's visit had stultified himself by speaking at public meetings and promising support for the national Conservative leader.

"And were not you and your colleagues active in campaigning for the Liberals in the federal campaigns of 1925 and '26?", the Government leader inquired.

"I did no more than exercise my right of citizenship", Mr. Pattullo retorted. "I spoke, it is true, but in a private capacity."

Financial complications in which the province now found itself, in Mr. Pattullo's view pointed the force of the old saying "put a baker on horseback and he'll ride the steed to death." Apropos Hon. Mr. Maitland's declaration that British Columbia had now set a light in the window for provincial migrants to the United States to come home, Mr. Pattullo suggested that the government proposed to establish night clubs to lure the wanderers back

"If so", remarked the Premier smilingly, "I know no one more presentable in appearance and so exuding geniality as a candidate for head waiter than my honorable friend."

Hon. Dr. Tolmie in rebuttal proved a competent advocate of his party's cause. He also disclosed constant mental wariness and those invaluable attributes of a successful leader—unruffled calm in the face of interruption, impregnable good humor, and facility in the instant, effective come-back.

As to Mr. Pattullo's participation in federal election campaigning being legitimately within his prerogative of citizenship, the Prime Minister merely commented that Public Accounts disclosed that his expense in connection with these speaking tours were paid from the Provincial Treasury.

The Opposition leader had explained the heavy losses during the Liberal regime through immature and unscientific land schemes as necessitated in providing for the pressing needs of returned war veterans. The purchase of Frondeg Farm as a base for agricultural training for returned men had been cited an example, but the Public Accounts showed the payroll of the Frondeg Farm to be made up of Ah Sing, Ah Hong, Ah How and Ah San, which, as Dr. Tolmie remarked "did not suggest any M.M. or D.C.M. wearers."

"Are those the same Chinamen who now supply the vegetables to the parliamentary restaurant here?" demanded Mr. Ian Mackenzie across the chamber.

"I will answer you a little later".

Courtenay Lady Held Up; Robbed Of Sum of Money

WIFE OF F. V. HALL, MEMBER OF CUMBERLAND CRICKET CLUB, VICTIM OF TWO HOLD-UP MEN

About 11 o'clock on Thursday morning, Mrs. F. V. Hall, who, along with her husband and young son, resides on the Lake Trail road, Courtenay, was the victim of two hold-up men. Answering a knock at the door of her home, Mrs. Hall was surprised on being asked for money. She promptly told the men she did not have any, and being dubious, began to back into the house. The two men followed her in and obtained twelve dollars from a purse in Mrs. Hall's bedroom. The police were notified immediately and within fifteen minutes were scouring the bush close to the Hall residence. A good description of the two men was given to the police by Mrs. Hall, who have hopes of picking them up. Mr. Hall is well known in Cumberland being a member of the Cumberland Cricket Club. He was in Cumberland on Thursday morning, shortly before the hold-up occurred, the hold-up men probably being aware of his absence.

Mrs. L. Francescini gave her home for a whist drive and social given by the ladies' Altar Society of the Catholic Church on Wednesday evening last when seven tables of cards were in play. Ladies' first and second prizes went to Mrs. Ed. Boyd and Mrs. M. Davison of Camp 3, Headquarters. Mrs. J. Scavarda and Mrs. J. Wier were prize winners in the gent's section. A pair of lovely hand embroidered pillow cases donated by Mrs. Husband were raffled, the sum raised adding very materially to the proceeds. Mrs. W. B. Churchill of Camp 3, Headquarters, was the fortunate ticket holder. A very delicious supper was served.

They were fined $50.00 and $2.00 costs to be paid forthwith and in default 30 days in jail with hard labor.

Local Member Working for Road Improvements

NO DEFINITE PROMISE CAN BE SECURED UNTIL 1930 LOAN IS DTERMINED

Victoria, B.C., Feb. 6.—Although no definite promise of public works can be secured or expected until the extent of the 1930 loan in such connection is determined, three separate operations in the Comox district are being actively pushed by the local member, Dr. G. K. MacNaughton, with general expectation that his representations will be successful.

Completion of Highway to Menzies Bay.

First is completion of the highway from Campbell River to Menzies Bay, the extension being from the present road-head approximately four miles out of Campbell River town to the survey line terminal. Completion of this undertaking involves another six miles of construction, but this six miles will be less expensive than the four miles built last summer. Engineering difficulties are less obtrusive, and for the greater part of the distance it is quite feasible to utilize the deserted right-of-way of an abandoned logging railway, reducing the costs of grading and roadbed to the minimum.

Widen Highway from Campbell River.

The urgent necessity of widening and continuing the Island Highway from Oyster River to Campbell River also is being urged persistently by the district's representative.

Ferry Service from Buckley Bay to Denman.

Third in order among what Dr. MacNaughton presents as emergency requirements of his riding in the matter of public works is establishment of a modern ferry service between Buckley Bay and Denman Island, a water distance of about two miles.

Cricket Club To Prepare for Season

MEETING WILL BE HELD DURING COMING WEEK

The Cumberland Cricket Club intend holding their annual meeting during the coming week, but the exact date has not yet been set, states the secretary. At this meeting an endeavor will be made to devise some plan whereby the club can be freed from the debt incurred during the past season's playing. It takes a lot of money to run a cricket club and as the season's dues are not very high it comes rather hard on the members of the club. The executive of the club, however, is by no means discouraged as it is figured, now that the club is on its third year, it is well on its way to being permanently established. The expenses for the coming year should not be as high as the last one, several improvements being undertaken last season, which will not face the club again for some time. A cement practice pitch was laid down, sight boards erected and a lawn mower purchased. The matting is still in good shape and the practice net, donated by Mr. J. Idiens will last the club for years. Several of the members are looking forward to a good season as it is reported another team is being organized close to Cumberland which will give the local club a few games.

The Women's Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. J. Lockner on Tuesday night, three tables being in play. Mrs. A. Clark won the first prize, Mrs. Parkinson the second and the consolation went to Mrs. Gear. Refreshments were served during the evening by Mrs. Lockner and a most enjoyable evening had by all.

Home Economics Pupils Exhibit Their Ability

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

Pupils of Miss D. Cannon, home economics teacher, demonstrated their ability in the art of cooking on Monday night, when the members of the Cumberland School Board were entertained at a four course dinner held in the school. The affair was an outstanding success and many congratulations showered on Miss Cannon for the ability shown by her pupils, which undoubtedly showed the result of careful and painstaking instruction.

Acting as host and hostess were Edora Turnbull and Thora Keeler and dainty place cards had been painted by Muriel Harrison.

The menu was: vegetable soup, roast veal, riced potatoes, creamed carrots, pineapple salad and spanish cream.

Pupils responsible for the excellent repast were Dilys Williams, Jessie Harvey, May McMillan, Edith Cavellero, Audrey Gear, Annie Brown, Marguerite Herd, Allison Ghekie, Madge Bryan and Lena Tomassi, whilst the waitresses were Beth Dunsmore and Chrissie Robertson.

Robertson won the ladies' first prize with Mrs. Bobba gaining the consolation. Mr. W. Shearer won the gent's first prize and W. Brown gained the consolation. During the evening refresments were served and a social time spent.

The games were thoroughly enjoyed and a fair sized gallery of spectators was on hand. Refreshments were served during the afternoon and in addition to the inter-club games several friendly games were played.

Tournaments Completed At Athletic Club

R. FREEBURN AND DICK COE HAVE BATTLE ROYAL IN CHECKERS' CONTEST

Two tournaments at the Athletic Club brought to a finish during the week, when the checkers was won by R. Freeburn after a very close contest with Dick Coe, in the final, Coe being awarded the second prize. The checkers contests this year have been very interesting, many members entering all contests staged this winter. winter.

In the seven up tournament, a record entry was received, being the first of its kind ever held at the club. Sid. Hunt and W. Warren eventually won the first prize with Arthur Boothman and Toni Pistoni gaining the second.

On Saturday evening at 7:30 a smoker will be held in the Band Hall for members of the club, but it is announced that no boys under the age of 21 will be allowed at the smoker. It has been decided to hold a celebration for the young members of the club at a later date, when something special will probably be staged. On Saturday night during progress of the smoker a halt will be called for 15 minutes to consider some of the rules governing the Athletic Club's bowling green.

Lady Crib Players No Match For Men

Interesting Games Played at Eagles' Home Wednesday

The result of the meeting of the lady crib players and members of the Nondescripts (Men's Club on Wednesday night at the Eagles' home proved conclusively that the ladies were no match for the men, the latter winning 47 games to 33 games for the fair ones. Of course, the ladies put it down to the fact that the men had it all over them, when it came to scoring, slippig the pegs over the holes on the crib board so fast that the ladies were left in a haze. One lady was heard to remark "why two holes for his nibs," and whilst listening to an explanation from someone at the next table, her opponent slipped the peg down the board for ten holes. During the course of the evenings play good natured sallies were exchanged and a real evening's enjoyment resulted.

Mrs. Littler was the lucky winner of the ladies' first prize with Mrs. Matt Stewart gaining the consolation. Matt Stewart won the gent's first prize and the consolation went to Rob. Bennie. The ladies served refreshments during the evenings which were thoroughly enjoyed.

It was decided that another meeting of the two sets of players should be held again in the near future, the ladies not being satisfied and claim they can clean up on the men quite easily now they have got wise to the pegging.

The Elite ladies' crib club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Gear, Dunsmuir avenue.

The sympathy of a host of friends will be extended to Mrs. Alex Cameron a pioneer resident who received a wire during the week containing the sad news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Christina Fraser of Lynn Mass. Mrs. Fraser leaves to mourn her loss two sisters and two brothers.

Disappearance Of J. Ramsay Causes Anxiety to Friends

NO TRACE FOUND OF WELL-KNOWN MAN; MISSING SINCE MONDAY MORNING

The incessant sounding of the fire siren on Monday about 5 p.m. drew a quick response from the members of the Cumberland Fire Department. Arriving at the fire hall it was discovered that it was not an alarm of fire, but a case of searching for a well known local man, John Ramsay, brother of Mrs. W. Hutton, of Minto. The missing man, according to information at hand spent Sunday with his relatives in the Valley, being driven to his cabin near No. 5 mine on Sunday night. Sometime on Monday morning he disappeared and all trace of him has been lost. He is between forty and fifty years of age and of very quiet disposition. He had charge of the logging horses used by Mr. Hutton and which are stabled near No. 5 mine. From the evidence at the stable and his cabin, it would appear that he had fed the horses, lit the fire in his cabin and prepared breakfast, then disappeared.

When he did not appear at work, Mr. Hutton investigated but could find no trace of him and felt no particular anxiety until later on in the day. Mr. Hutton continued his search for his brother-in-law, making enquiries all over the place, thinking the missing man might be vistiing someone, but failed to find any trace of him.

A search party was organized on Tuesday under the direction of Constable Dewitt, but darkness came on before much could be accomplished. Search parties went out again on Wednesday morning but no trace could be found of Mr. Ramsay. Constables Dewitt and Donahue of the Provincial Police force, acting on information, journeyed to the Dollar Camp and thought they had traced him to that camp, out from there the trace was lost again. Messrs. W. Hutton and J. L. Brown went down to the Dollar Camp on Thursday morning to check up on the story that the missing man was in that vicinity, but failed to gain any information. Every little camp and settlement down the Island Highway was visited and persons who knew Ramsay questioned, but there was not a single person found who could say they had seen the missing man or anyone resembling him. It is surmised now that the information given out that Ramsay had travelled on the stage as far as the Dollar Camp was a case of mistaken identiay.

Messrs. Brown and Hutton arrived back in Cumberland about 2:30 on Thursday afternoon after a fruitless search.

Annual Reunion Of Pioneers Was Most Successful

ACQUAINTANCES FORMED IN EARLY DAYS RENEWED; LARGE THRONG ATTENDS

There was an exceptionally large attendance at the sixth annual reunion of the Cumberland Pioneers held at the Ilo-Ilo Hall on Friday last and many from outside points attended, renewing the acquaintances formed in early days of what was known as Union. The bad state of the roads undoubtedly kept some of the older pioneers away, but every part of the district was represented. Old time dances, with old time music supplied by members of old time families was thoroughly enjoyed, many of the younger generation entering into the mysterious square dances with a great deal of interest.

The grand march, ably led by Mrs. John Bruce and her son Mr. Len Piket was a memorable scene and was entered into with great enthusiasm by every old timer in the hall. The grand march finished up with a set of lancers which was topped off by a waltz.

Mayor Alex Maxwell, as chairman of the Pioneers welcomed all to the sixth annual reception and regretted very much that some of the honorary guests were prevented through business from attending, Dr. MacNaughton, M.L.A., who was at Victoria, doing battle for this district, sent his regrets as also did Mr. A. W. Neill, who stated that owing to so much snow and being busy getting ready to return to Ottawa he would be unable to be present. Mr. Thomas Graham sent his regrets, being prevented by business from attending. The Mayor congratulated the pioneers on the success of their annual reunion and compared the success of the pioneers' re-union held recently at Courtenay with the Cumberland re-union. Our friends at Courtenay have the advantage over us here in Cumberland, said the Mayor, their annual affair is sponsored by an organization, the Native Sons, whilst we here in Cumberland had to rely on individual effort. On looking round the hall, continued the Mayor, the result of that individual effort was most marked, the gathering having every appearance of being a most happy one. He paid tribute to the pioneers who had passed to their reward since the last re-union and expressed the hope that all would be able to be present next year and for many years to come.

About midnight bounteous refreshments were served by an energetic committee. The room was cleared of all dishes and dancing again indulged in until three-thirty Saturday morning.

Music for the dance supplied by Mrs. W. Hudson, piano; S. L. Robertson and J. Lockner, violin; J. Hill, trombone; Bert McLellan, saxaphone H. Murdock, cornet; J. Bannerman, drums.

Amendments To Motor Vehicle Act

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS DEVOID OF ACRIMONIOUS CONTENTION

Victoria, B.C., Feb. 6.—If, as not unsuspected, the Opposition hoped to catch the government unready with legislation in agreeing to drastic curtailment of the King's speech debate, it was itself betrayed into a strategical mistake. Abundant business offered to keep the sessional mill grinding, and mostly these early measures are on such simple and acceptable lines that the controversial element intrudes but exceptionally.

The second unique feature of the present session as it has thus far progressed, prompt adoption of Reply being the first, is found in the unprecedented "fishing' 'for party ammunition by Mr. Pattullo and his supporters via the question paper, no fewer than 235 interrogations being listed, a record number for any British Columbia session, the majority quite obviously arrows shot into the air, the archers hoping somehow to transfix a ministerial shortcoming capable of capitualization.

As all these questions must be carefully answered and their repeated printing is not without cost, the general public not concerned with the game of politics may question whether they are not thus required to pay unduly as ammunition gatherers for the loyal opposition.

To date House proceedings have been wholly devoid of acrimonious contention, an isolate exception being offered as to the status of an amendment to the Workmen's Compensation Act proposed by Mr. Pearson (Nanaimo), the oustanding feature which is contemplated retention of compensation for a convalescent workman adjudged capable of light employment until he has actually secured work within his diminished powers.

This bill was refused consideration

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT CUMBERLAND, B.C.

EDWARD W. BICKLE

FOR THE BOYS

THE YOUNG MAN who is always around the street corners and who spends his evenings in drinking and gambling, will never amount to very much. It is contrary to the natural order of things. The boys who spend their precious youth in this manner are the ones who will take the place of our day labourers; they will live in poor houses, wear poor clothes, and when they come to die they will be followed to their graves by a few friends.

It was a sad sight in the Cumberland Police Court on Wednesday morning to see three young boys hailed before the magistrate charged with drinking in a public place. They all pleaded guilty and were fined the minimum fine of $50.00 or in default 30 days in jail with hard labor. All three boys have the makings of real good citizens.

O, that the young men of our land might awaken to a knowledge of their situation. There is an opportunity for every young man to become an honored citizen, and yet many, O, so many, precious boys are allowing themselves to be carried along apparently caring but little about their future. We do admire a manly boy, one who tries his best to become a man, and we always feel like helping him along. The boy who steps out from among evil asosciates, has within him the true grit and deserves to be helped. It takes considerable courage to turn one's back upon those with whom he has been associating, and we admire the pluck of any one who does so. Our country needs grand and good men, and to become a grand and good man one must be a grand and good boy. It is a wrong idea that every boy "must sow his wild oats". When you sow a crop of wild oats, you must take time to harvest a crop; and the crop is never anything but chaff. "Wild oats" need never be sown. The time spent in "sowing wild oats' 'is worse than lost; for the time could be spent in sowing a crop that would yield a golden harvest. Be careful about the kind of seed you sow, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

If the country editor were to snap at all the inducements held out he would soon become a millionaire. If he ran a paper according to popular notion he would be in the poorhouse. If he published all the items that were sent to him he would be in jail half the time and in the hospital the other half.

Some men seem to think if they get into a "scrape" and the editor mentions it in his paper that he does it out of malice toward them. In nearly every case of this kind nothing could be farther from the truth than such a belief. It is the editor's business to publish local happenings, good or bad, and if a man furnishes material for a bad item he has no one to blame but himself.

Parties visiting a printing office should bear in mind that it is just as ill-mannered to look at the proof sheet or read the type as it is to go into the kitchen and look into the pots and see what they are going to have for dinner.

on the familiar rule that a private member may not initiate legislation affecting crown revenues, without first securing ministerial sanction for such course. It is usual in such cases for the speaker's ruling to issue on the suspect measure receiving first reading and being distributed. On this occasion Speaker Jones did not wait; hence the storm of protest from Mr. Pearson's colleagues.

Of administration measures now progressing, a number are for the correction of disclosed defects in minor acts. Stricter control is contemplated by license of collection agencies and private detectives, the former, notably American high-pressure organizations, being shown to have perpetrated frauds on the merchant community; while disclosed irresponsibility or worse on the part of so-called private detectives challenged action for their control.

More important in principle are amendments to the Motor Vehicle Act and new legislation for control of brokers. The former removes a variety of trifling vexations in requiring reports of accidents, and makes for greater public safety by providing simple tests for sight, hearing, etc., for all license drivers, also the grading of chauffeurs in recognition of differentiating responsibilities in handling heavy equipment, both freight and passengers. At present British Columbia leads all Canada in ratio of motor vehicle mischances.

Before this bill leaves committee steps also will be taken to terminate present duplications of licensing by province and municipalities.

The Marriage Act amendment bill legalizes existing marriages technically challengeable, and requires the clergymen hereafter to register if undertaking to perform marriage ceremonies.

Limitation of stock exchange membership to individuals and partnerships is contemplated, thus preventing unscrupulous brokers shielding themselves behind company organization in frauds, there being nothing in present law to prevent brokers holding exchange seats as individuals and as companies transferring their seats to the United State, and leaving the provincial public holding the bag, without recourse against ostensibly responsible individuals.

"The bill is drastic no doubt", Attorney General Pooley concedes. "It is un-British to a certain extent and interferes with private business, but it is necessary and supported by public opinion—devised for an expediting action without regard for technicalities when action is necessitated in the public interest."

WHY A STOCK EXCHANGE?

MARKETS are older than civilization. From the dawn of history markets have served to facilitate exchange of cattle, money and merchandise. Through the ages a babel of shouting voices resounded in Babylon, Pekin, Nischni Novgorod, Calcutta, Carthage, Rome, Berlin, Paris, London, New York.

Organization of joint stock companies more than 150 years ago as a means of raising capital for business enterprises created a necessity for a market for stocks. The first exchange was organized in London in 1773. It steadily evolved through cumbersome methods to an efficient system. This experience stands behind trading systems now practiced in exchanges like London, New York, Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver.

Every method is practiced to insure fairness to investors and prevent unethical manipulation of prices. The system of trading is recognized as fair and equitable throughout the world. The Vancouver Exchange operates under a Charter passed and approved by the Provincial Parliament on April 25, 1907.

A market place for the buying and selling of stocks, the Vancouver Stock Exchange is essential to commerce. If foreign capital is to flow freely in developing Western Canadian resources, the prestige of this institution must be maintained. The Exchange brings buyer and seller in contact with each other, sets a recognized current price for listed stocks and is a barometer of the success of individual enterprises.

An Exchange is a disinterested party in transactions between selling and buying interests of the public. Fluctuations take their course in accordance with buying and selling orders. When the public gives buying support to certain stocks, prices rise. When support is withdrawn, prices fall. Predictions as to possible values is a matter the client alone can decide for himself.

And as a piece of business machinery, the Stock Exchange attracts capital to mining undertakings or industrial enterprises which otherwise might never come into being. An Exchange is a Public Institution performing an age-old service of great value to Western Canada.

This advertisement is published by Members of the Vancouver Stock Exchange in order to disseminate information concerning the functions of a Stock Exchange and the Business of Buying and Selling Securities.

Now you can see one of the strangest phenomena of the talking screen. Jack Mulhall in the first dual role talking picture. Upper world and underworld merge in a wonderful love story. Cop and crook—brothers—vieing for the hand of abeautiful girl—with fate forcing them both into a dark street from which only one can return.

SEE and HEAR Jack Mulhall as a cop talking to Jack Mulhall as a crook. You wont' believe your ears. Surprisingly different! And it tells one of the most appealing stories to reach the screen in years. One of the best all-talking pictures we have shown this season.

THE TODDLER

Neglect, or comparative, has been the lot of the child after he has been weaned when he is no longer so entirely dependent upon his mother. The need for special care of the infant is generally recognized, but what is not so universally understood is that the pre-school years of life are all important in laying foundations for the good health habits which must be established if adult health is to be attained.

After weaning, the child cannot become one of the family in the sense that he can eat the ordinary family diet. The feeding of the child at this time requires special care, and the mother needs to give time to the proper selection and preparation of the young child's food. There is, beyond doubt, a close relationship between physical fitness and proper food. Eating habits are established during the second and third years of life. It therefore stands to reason that these years are the most important in starting and developing desirable habits in connection with the use of foods.

Young children suffer considerably from colds, tonsilitis, bronchitis, pneumonia, and other diseases of the respiratory tract. These diseases take a heavy toll of young lives each year and, naturally, it is a matter of great importance to know the reason for this if the condition is to be prevented. In searching for an explanation, we find a condition that apparently is significant and to which attention should be drawn. Mothers, as a result of the knowledge they have acquired concerning the care of the infant and the value of fresh air and sunshine, now put their babies out of doors a great deal. After the first year, however, this becomes difficult because the young child requires constant supervision unless he can be left in a place that is absolutely safe. As a result, the child is kept indoors, possibly going out with the mother when she goes shopping, which means that most of the time is spent in stores. Thus, the child does not get the fresh air which he requires and this lack of fresh air is one reason why young children suffer so frequently from diseases of the respiratory tract.

The health of the young child demands fresh air. It may require considerable planning to make sure that he gets it, but the effort is well worth while.

TEETHING

During the years when the baby teeth are coming through the gums and the child is said to be teething, it is a common belief that any one of the numerous ills from which the young child may suffer can be fairly put down as being due to teething. If a rash develop, it is called a teething rash. The young mother is told that the cold in the head, the crying the restlessness, the upset stomach are all due to teething, and that there is no reason for ther thinking anything else. In some cases, this simple explanation has led to serious results. We try to prevent diarrhoeas in children by proper feedings, but, if the condition does occur it is know by those who have the responsibility of caring for such cases, that prompt treatment, right at the start, is needed, and that delay in securing proper treatment early exposes the child's life to danger. The delay which occurs in seeking treatment is very often explained by the mother on the grounds that she thought, she had been told by friends, that attacks of diarrhoea were to be expected as a result of teething, and that the condition would clear up, of itself, when the tooth was cut.

Teething is a normal event, and most babies go through the period in an easy manner and with so little evidence of what is happening that the parent is surprised on seeing the white point which is baby's tooth. Some children do suffer evident pain, and such children are apt to be fretful and to suffer from broken sleep, with the result that they are not up to their usual standard of fitness.

The point which we wish to make is simply this—it is not safe to assume that teething is responsible for whatever happens to a child during the teething period. Conditions that arise during the teething period are to be dealt with properly ,and are not to be considered as being of no particular importance. A realization of this will save a misunderfrom neglect through a misunderstanding of the actual facts.

ARCHIE DICK DEFENDS OUR MODERN MAIDENS.

The following is an extract from "The Uubyssey", the semi-weekly chronicle of the Uuiversity of British Columbia, issued January 24:

"The first debate of the year's inter-class debates between the Freshmen and their traditional enemies the Sophomores will decide for Varsity whether of not the woman of the twentieth century is inferior to the woman of the last century. The debate, which will be held at 12:15 on Tuesday in Arts 100, is between Mr. Frederick Jakeway and Mr. Edwin Stener of Arts '32 and Mr. Archie Dick and Mr. Milton Owen for Arts '33.

"Great care is being taken in the preparation of the debate, especially by the Sophomores, as the members of the teams realize that the success of their social life is at stake. Mr. Jakeway and Mr. Stener, who will try to prove that the nineteenth century woman was superior to 1930's flapper, are seasoned debaters. Mr. Jakeway has gained experience through the Arts'32 Oratorical Club and Mr. Stener represented Arts '32 in debate last year. The hope of the modern woman rests with Mr. Dick and Mr. Owen whose natural chivalry will not tolerate attacks on the fair sex of today. Archie Dick is an experienced debater, a candidate for election on his class executive, while Milt. Owen is a member of the 'Boys' Parliament' and his class executive.

"As this is the first debate of a series all those who wish to take part in these inter-class forensic combats are asked to notify their literary representative. The Arts '30 and '31 teams will discuss the subject, "Resolved that limitation of participation in non-academic activities is in the best interests of the students.' "

Since the debate we have learned that Mr. Dick and Mr. Owen were successful in defending the modern woman, the judges awarding a two to one decision.

Pattullo's Expenses In Campaign

the Premier promised promptly proceeding with his speech.

Ten minutes later he redeemed the promise.

"I have ascertained from the caterer contractor," he informed North Vancouver's member, "that all vegetables used by the restaurant are bought from the Ryan-Wilson Company of this city. Those don't sound to me so much like Chinese names."

"Who then is the Chinaman that comes around to the restaurant in the mornings?", Mr. Mackenzie persisted.

"I am informed by the caterer", replied Hon. Dr. Tolmie, "that only one Chinaman comes about the place. He comes after the swill and garbage. Perhaps that is how my honorable friend has made his acquaintance?"

Hon. Dr. Tolmie's major references were to the government plans for redemption of the Pacific Great Eastern from the red—control of waterpowers and safeguarding of public interests in hydro-electric services and charges, by perfection of the Water Act and its application if possible, and if not by Public Utilities legislation—efforts to secure the establishment of a Coast smelter and refinery—progressive expansion of the home fabrication of forest products—and highway improvements and extensions in general, and in particular proposals for an Alaska road connection for stimulating tourist traffic and nidustrial expansion, arrangements pending for investigation by a tripartite committee (American, federal and provincial) of the feasability and estimated cost of such a highway ,and the equitable apportionment of costs.

"Will the government leader give us his definite assurance here and now that it his policy to build this road?", Mr. Kergin (Atlin) twice demanded.

"I would not seek to make myself so foolish", Dr. Tolmie smilingly retorted—"after just saying we are proposing to investigate the elements of practicability and probable cost. That is clear enough I think?"

"Shall the motion pass?", intoned Mr. Speaker Jones, the Premier having resumed his chair and the House taken as read the formal resolution "in reply".

"Aye!", came in chorus from both sides of the House.

Followed the usual calm in the wake of storm, during which the leader, rank and file of the Labor Party slipped quietly into his seat, glanced questioningly about, and, misapprehending the situation, took the course of courage—

"I move the adjournment of the debate", said he, a motion drowned in a sea of laughter, during which a near-by seat-mate conveyed to Mr. Uphill the position of affairs.

"Well I'll be good josh-hanged!", he predicted emphatically.

Nor had he quite recovered from the shock of major surprise when the House rose for the week-end, warmed by self-consciousness of a good deed well done.

Late Mrs. Gartley Resident Of B.C. For 38 Years

RESIDED ON VANCOUVER ISLAND 23 YEARS, RETURNING TO VANCOUVER IN 1905

Nearly fifty-eight years ago when settlement started on the south shore of Burrard Inlet and the little town of Moodyville was in its heyday, Mrs. George Gartley, a bride from Fredericton, N.B., arrived with her husband. Her death on Wednesday of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. Tellefsen, 1745 East First, marks the passing of one of the foremost links with the history of the province and the termination of a career which has witnessed the transformation of a few scattered settlements to the dignity of a province.

Mrs. Gartley was well-known on Vancouver Island, where she resided a number of years, as well as in Vancouver where she had made her home for the past twenty-five years. She was long active in circles of the Presbyterian Church.

One of a family of fifteen, she was born at Fredericton. In her home town she married George Gartley and the young couple were soon attracted to the West and arrived at Moodyville in 1872.

Here Mr. Gartley established a logging busniess and supplied logs to the Moodyville sawmill . After several years in the mill town they moved to Vancouver Island and took up residence on a promontory near Comox, later known as Gartley's Point. The next twenty-three years were spent on the Island and it was here that Mrs. Gartley witnessed and participated in the privations and hardships of pioneers. Her trip to Vancouver Island was made in a rowboat.

About 1905 she came to Vancouver with her husband.

Mrs. Gartley is survived by Mrs. Tellefsen and two daughters, Mrs. William Dornberg, Mrs. Douglas Grant, both of Vancouver, and five sons, Albert, Ernest, Byron, Howard and Nelson. Numerous grandchildren also survive. Mr. Gartley died twelve years ago.

The remains of the late Mrs. Margaret J. Gartley were laid to rest in the family plot, Nanaimo cemetery Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Impressive services were conducted at the D. J. Jenkins Ltd. chapel by the Rev. J. McTurk including the singing of two favorite hymns of the deceased "Sands of Time", and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus", with Mrs. Fred Nash, an intimate friend of the family, presiding at the organ.

The following acted as pall-bearers including two sons: A. G. Gartley, H. Gartley, D. Grant, T. L. Wilson, T. Tellefsen and W. Griswold.

PRESIDENT OF UNITED W.M.S. PRESENTED WITH LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Presentation of a life membership pin to Mrs. James Hood, the president, was an outstanding feature of last week-end's session of the Victoria Presbyterial of the United Church W.M.S. Miss Mitchell of Nanaimo, who made the presentation, referred to the splendid work accomplished by Mrs. Hood during the time of Mrs. Hoods pastorate in Cumberland, a period of fourteen years. Mrs. Hood was deeply touched and feelingly acknowledged the compliment paid her by the Presbyterial.

Reports Encouraging.

Mrs. W. R. Welch of Nanaimo, mission band, secretary, presented her report, showing the progress made in this branch, in which there are now nineteen bands and four new bands. Reports of the various bands were presented by the little delegates in a business-like manner. Miss Fullerton, literature and library secretary, announced the distribution of 1,450 pounds of magazines, 500 parcels of Sunday school pages, 674 books, twenty three pounds of Cristmas cards to Trinidad, as well as much sent to lumber camps and lonely settlers.

Highest Percentage by Cumberland Auxiliary.

Mrs. W. A. Guy, for the Christian stewardship department, reported good progress in this department, with a marked increase in the number of those giving systematically. Mrs. M. J. Little, supply secretary, reported the total value of the supplies distributed $515, and cash $72.11. Mrs. George Guy, reading the corresponding secretary's report in the absence of Mrs. L. A. Young, remarked the note of optimism in the reports of the Auxiliaries, Cumberland auxiliary, in proportion to its members, made the highest percentage during the year. There were now twenty-two auxiliaries, with a total membership of 665. A letter of appreciation will be sent from the gathering to Mrs. Young, who is at present in California.

The youthful bride was prettily attired in a gown of georgette flat crepe, with trimmings of georgette in the same shade and hat to match. Miss Agnes McIntosh, of Vancouver, an intimate friend of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing an attractive gown of blue georgette with hat in matching tones. Speaking of a bounty on cougar, there seems to be a chance for some fortunate hunter to bag a "cat" as one was reported seen on a recent morning on one of the main streets of the city.

A truck came along just in time

A touring car had crashed into a telephone pole, a mile south of the New Westminster bridge, smashing the pole and tearing down two Vancouver- Ladner. ..A telephone repairman was soon on the scene but a real problem confronted him. ..The broken pole would not bear his weight, and the wires were dangling in mid-air, far beyond his reach.

Luckily, just as he was wondering what to do, a telephone truck, carrying a three-ton cable reel, came along. The truck was backed under the wires, and by climbing on top of the cable reel, the repairman was able to reach the broken lines and mend them.
