Miss Lister Meets Untimely End

Miss Anna Lister, daughter of Rev. David Lester, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Nanaimo, met an untimely death at Summit Lake, nine miles from Revelstoke, when their car plunged 40 feet over an embankment, after dodging another machine. Miss Lister was the matron of the Revelstoke Hospital, and has many friends here, and is survived by her parents, one sister and four brothers, one being a student in a Pittsburg College. She was an exceptionally bright and cultured young woman of marked ability in her profession. During war days she was a sympathetic worker, and was later appointed to the responsible post of hospital matron of the Revelstoke Hospital.

18 HORSES DIE; THE CAR HAD NO VENTILATION

The mounted section of the force recently stationed at the mines in the Glace Bay district, loaded their horses in a box-car at New Aberdeen last week. The following morning 18 horses were found dead from suffocation. It is alleged no ventilation had been provided when the car was closed.

After a short honeymoon, spent on the Mainland, the happy couple will take up their residence at Primrose Villa, Selby St., Nanaimo.

These thin sweaters the flappers wear over nothing at all, also help to maintain the freedom of the "sees."

Recent Disaster at Cumberland

The recent disaster at the local mines, when so many volunteered their services to the Collieries Co, and also the generous response of the employees to report for work on Labor Day, has prompted the general superintendent of the Canadian Collieries, Mr. Thomas Graham, to write the following communication:

Cumberland, B. C., Sept. 6, 1922.

Mr. Editor,
The Cumberland Islander,
Cumberland, B. C.

Dear Sir,—

Kindly give me a small portion of your space to convey to the injured and the relatives of the dead in our recent deplorable accident, the sincere sympathy of the President, Directors and Management of the Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Limited.

To express the appreciation and thanks of the Company and its Official Staff to all who in any way rendered assistance and sympathy.

To those who volunteered their services, whether outsiders or employees, we feel deeply indebted.

To mention any one in particular, where so many responded and did so well, would be invidious, yet we cannot refrain from special reference to Miss Ballati, of the local Hospital Staff, who in keeping with the best traditions of her profession, forgot self, and entered the mine immediately following the disaster, and with the Medical Staff rendered such timely and signal First Aid to the suffering injured.

To our employees, we also desire to express our sincere appreciation of the hearty and almost unanimous response to the call for work on Labour Day.

Realizing that of all days in the year, Labour Day is especially your day, it was with deep regret, and only under most urgent circumstances that the call was made.

Your hearty response was another tribute to that spirit of toleration and co-operation that has dominated all of your relations with the Company during the past five years.

Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Ltd.
Per Thomas Graham,
General Superintendent.

Local motorists should take warning. Many children are now attending the Cumberland Schools, and a great many of them are in the infants' class. Good Attendance at Comox Fair

The annual Comox Fall Fair, held on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, was exceptionally well attended. The weather was never very favourable, but the rain managed to hold off until Wednesday afternoon, when a very heavy downpour occurred. There is no doubt that many hundreds were kept away by the unsettled state of the weather.

The fruit and vegetables exhibit should perhaps be given premier place, the display being an exceptionally fine one. In some instances the judge remarked on the extraordinary size of some of the vegetables. In the fruit section, pears and plums appeared to take premier place, an exceedingly fine showing being made by these two fruits. As to field produce, spuds took the premier place, and the entries totalled 32, as against 22 last year.

Among the attractions on the field was a baby show. Dr. Briggs undertaking the difficult task of selecting the most perfect from eleven specimens; the baby of Mrs. Herbert Foreman being awarded first place.

The Attorney-General of the province, the Hon. A. M. Manson, officially opened the Fair, amid great enthusiasm. He said that while B. C. had a great diversity of products they must never allow it to be forgotten that it was a great agricultural province; last year it came second only to lumber as a producer. Mr. Manson thought it was regrettable that last year they imported into the province $15,000,000 worth of agricultural produce from other provinces, and $5,000,000 worth from foreign countries, while they exported only $5,000,000. Last year there was a decrease in imports of 21 per cent, and he hoped that in the next five or ten years B. C. would be an exporting province in agriculture. This was his first visit to the northern end of Vancouver Island and he was very glad to get acquainted. He thought that if representatives at Ottawa knew by personal contact more of Canada as a whole and representatives at Victoria more of B. C. as a whole, they would have much wiser and better legislation.

A NOTABLE ANNIVERSARY.

To-day is an anniversary which should never be forgotten in the history of Canadian arms, for four years ago to-day the Hindenburg Line was first broken, and the Canadians had the honour of doing the breaking. It is a little difficult now to conjure up in imagination the rejoicing which this event caused throughout the Allied nations when the news was flashed world-wide by wire and cable. Six days ago The World editorially noticed the anniversary of the Battle of Arras, which was opened on Aug. 26 by the Canadian Corps, with the Second and Third Canadian Divisions in the line. These two divisions bore the brunt of the fight for the next three days, being relieved only on the night of August 28-29 by the First Canadian Division on the right, the Fourth Canadian Division in the centre and the Fourth British Division on the left. The Second and Third Divisions had lost heavily in fighting their way forward to the foot of the Drocourt-Queant switch, and the final operation fell to the Third and Fourth Divisions, together with the Fourth British Division, which had been placed under the Corps Command. The enemy fought desperately, continually bringing up fresh divisions and delivering violent counter-attacks on the afternoon and evening of Sept. 1, and there was frequent hand-to-hand fighting. All five of the Canadian Artillery Divisions engaged in the heavy and field artillery attack, and the tanks did fine work. There were literally fields of wire entanglements to be traversed. It was an infantryman's battle. Five thousand unwounded prisoners were taken and the Canadian infantry penetrated the enemy's defence to a depth of six thousand yards.

Thus, to-day, four years ago, breach was first made in the most formidable sector of this vast and elaborate fortified system, upon which for years every art of German military engineering had been lavished. It seemed that during the week from August 26 the Canadian Corps had fought itself to a standstill. For this reason the shattering nature of the final blow came as a complete surprise. It is not too much to say that this great victory, which, in the main, the Canadians may, with due modesty, claim as their own, started the demoralization of the enemy's fighting strength and constituted the beginning of the end.—Vancouver World, Sept. 2nd.

AUSPICIOUS OPENING THE CITY SCHOOL

The Cumberland Public School reopened on Tuesday morning with about 490 pupils in attendance. Trustees Mrs. T. E. Banks and Secretary McKinnon were present to welcome the teachers back to work.

Mr. A. H. Webb, the new principal, had the pupils assembled on the upper floor, where the partitions in the library have been made to fold back to accommodate them all. After wishing the pupils "Good Morning," the principal led the scholars in the Lord's Prayer, and then "O Canada" was sung.

Mr. Webb then addressed his charges. He welcomed them back to school and wished them the best of success at their work for the term. He encouraged those who had passed to work this term so as to again make the grade. He pointed out that the "repeaters had a harder row to hoe than the others, and urged them to do their best to get a step ahead next time promotions were made.

Cumberland Public School in 1920-21 stood next to the bottom among the City schools of B. C. in attendance, with a percentage of 74.9. With 25 per cent absent, how could they expect to do good work? To help improve matters, he promised to give the class making the highest percentage attendance each week, and also having no "lates," a full half hour's play during school hours. A shield is also up for competition for the best attendance for the month.

Two warnings were issued—one against bad language and the other against smoking. These offences will bring immediate punishment. The Principal then asked the pupils if they thought they were equal to the pupils at Bevan, Courtenay, Royston or Nanaimo. On receiving an affirmative answer in each case, he suggested taking on Victoria and Vancouver. Even this did not daunt the young folks, so they were asked to remember that to do a job like that they would have to "Play the Game," take the bad with the good, and when punishment was allotted to them (and almost all healthy boys and girls got into trouble at some time), to take their medicine without sulking and whining and set to work again as if nothing had happened. If they could do that they could get anywhere they wished.

They were asked to repeat: "Cumberland Public School—Our School—Second to None." This was done with a will. They were then reminded that Cumberland Public School did not stand for the present pupils only, but for a long line of splendid men and women who had passed through its doors during the past thirty years or so. For this greater body they were asked to give three hearty cheers, to which they responded in a real Cumberland way.

The line-up for the term is as follows:

I—28—Senior IV, Albert H. Webb.
II—32—Senior IV & Junior IV, Geo. Apps.
III—32—Junior IV, Miss Beckwith.
IV—28—4th term III, Mrs. Pearse.
V—35—3rd term III, Miss Colman.
VI—45—2nd term III, Miss Mordy.
VII—40—1st term III, Miss Bannerman.
VIII—48—Senior II, Miss McFadyen.
IX—40—Junior II, Miss Horbury.
X—37—1st Reader, Miss Richardson.
XI—36—2nd Primer, Miss Robertson.
XII—40—1st Primer, Miss Harrison.
XIII—43—Receiving Class, Mrs. Drader.

The Board of Trustees are considering the construction of a covered playground, the dimensions of which will be 30 x 100 feet.

Thomas Menzies, M.P.P., representing the Comox Electoral District, arrived in Courtenay on Thursday and motored up to Cumberland on Friday.

Mrs. J. H. Carson, of Vancouver, arrived on Wednesday. Dr. and Mrs. Carson are residing in the MacNaughton residence on Windermere Avenue during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. K. MacNaughton.

CONGREGATIONAL RALLY

The Grace Methodist Church will hold a Congregational Rally in the church on Wednesday, Sept. 13th, commencing at 7.30 p.m. Refreshments will be provided free, and a splendid concert has been arranged for. Everybody is heartily invited to be present at this church rally.

The Woman Who Walked Alone

The Honorable Iris Champneys agrees to a 'marriage of convenience' with the old Earl of Lemister. Iris makes the sacrifice so that her younger sister Muriel may be properly introduced in society and marry well. Muriel has a secret affair with Otis Yeardley, a penniless society blackleg.

In a mad chase to overtake and deliver a parting gift to some peasants who are leaving for South Africa, Iris meets Clement Gaunt, an American graduate of Oxford, who is working as chauffeur to gain money to go to Africa. His aid to Iris causes him to be late with the car, and he is discharged. Iris has put money in his pocket without his knowledge. He decides to use this as a loan. He sees Iris once more, as she comes out of the chapel a bride, and she throws him a rose.

The Earl becomes jealous and bribes the servants to spy upon Iris. A letter from Clem, returning the money, provokes a quarrel. In Africa, Clem's mining ventures fail and he goes north into the veldt and becomes foreman for a Boer rancher, Schriemann. The latter's wife, Hannah, forms an attachment for "Yankee Jim," as Clem is known. Faithful to his love for Iris, he evades her.

At a ball at Lemister Castle, is announced the engagement of Muriel to Sir Basil Deere, a wealthy young Englishman. Yeardley blackmails Muriel, threatening to give letters she has written him, to Sir Basil, unless she gives him, Otis, a large sum of money. Muriel hasn't the money, and goes to Iris, who agrees to get the letters for her. She gets the letters but a venal servants reports to the Earl, who makes a violent scene. Iris, unable to explain without endangering her sister's happiness, remains silent and the Earl orders her from the castle. The letters are burned.

First Soccer Game Of The Season

The first football game of the season in the Upper Island League will be played at the Recreation Grounds, Cumberland, on Sunday, Sept. 10th, when the crack Ladysmith eleven will meet the local team. The visitors are expected to have a stronger team this season than ever before, consequently a fast game is anticipated. Several new players will be seen on the local team. During the season Stewart, who played at right back for Cumberland, migrated to Nanaimo, but is back in town again, and in all probability will catch a permanent place on the team. Jock Irvine, one of the most consistent half-backs Cumberland ever had, will not be seen in the local colors this season. Jock is now located in Vancouver, and is reported to be lined up with the I. L. A. team.

The exact line-up of the visitors is not known at the time of going to press, but however strong a team they send up, the locals will make them play from start to finish of the game.

The following will do duty for Cumberland, and—on paper—appears to be a really fine combination: Goal Boyd; Backs, Stewart and Campbell; Half-backs, Brewster, Kenny (Capt.); Conti; Forwards, Patterson, Mulligan, Davies, Hitchens, Horne; Reserves: Faulds, Plump and James.

A HEARTY LAUGH DISLOCATED HIS JAW

Throwing his whole soul into an ecstatic yawn, with outstretched arms and head thrown back, Michael Riordan, miner, Nanaimo, opened his mouth so wide that he could not close it again. His jaw was dislocated. His mouth was agape, but in anguish, when Dr. T. J. McPhee adjusted the trouble. Mr. Riordan will be all right in a few days.

Exciting Race in Big Moore Picture

Hydro-aeroplane and Sea Sled Broadway III, Compete in Mid-Ocean.

The fastest craft now afloat is the sea sled, and this was unquestionably proven when during the filming of "Reported Missing," the Owen Moore picture, a 100-mile race between the Sea Sled Broadway III and four of the pick of the New York Yacht Club's fleet of high powered motored boats the sled won by a margin of four miles. Following this test a race was staged between the sea sled and a hydro-aeroplane, and again the Broadway III was victorious. This latter race was made part of the picture, and the unusual manner in which it was photographed, gives the spectator the impression of flying in the plane and sailing in the motor boat at alternate moments. The picture, made by the Selznick Company, is showing at the Ilo-Ilo Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday.

Papa very proudly took little Ethel in to see her new sister. A short, ecstatic inspection, and then:
"Oh, papa! I s'pose oos just dying to know who sent baby?"

ALL LAST WEEK'S SPORTS POSTPONED

Explosion Causes a Temporary Suspension of Various Events.

The various events in the sporting life of Cumberland, which were due to be held last week-end, were all postponed. Those interested in the various dates which were arranged previously, had little desire to carry out the events.

The Labor Day Sports which were scheduled for Monday, after great preparations, had to be dropped. The football season was due to be opened on Saturday, but this game was postponed. In the baseball line, the Japs cancelled the fixture with Bevan, and the Cumberland and Union Bay game was also cancelled. Several tennis dates were also set back, but it is likely the finals will be completed this week-end.

Pithy Pars

All last week-end fixtures were cancelled.

Our sincere sympathies to the Japanese team, who lost two players.

There is some talk of the locals dropping their chance for the cup in the Intermediate League.

Victoria Elks beat Ladysmith 16-3 in the Island Baseball Championship last week-end.

They now have the right to play the winners of the Ioco-Hanbury game for the Provincial honors.

FOOTBALL MEETING.

The Upper Island Football Governing Board will hold a meeting on Saturday evening, Sept. 9th, at Nanaimo, to discuss the new constitution and general business. A special general meeting of all the clubs in the district will be held immediately after the Board meeting, to consider and pass the new constitution.

A meeting of all Junior clubs in the province will be held in Vancouver on Saturday evening for the purpose of organizing a Junior Football Association; such an association to control junior football throughout the province.

HUSBAND KICKS KITTEN WIFE SHOOTS HERSELF

Because her husband kicked her pet kitten, Mrs. Rose Sipeos, aged 27, died last week in a Cleveland hospital from a bullet wound self-inflicted on Thursday last.

Sipeos was fondling the kitten when it scratched him. Mrs. Sipeos became angry and fired a bullet into her abdomen.

U. S. ARMY CUT TO 125,000 MEN

After months of reduction and reorganization, the enlisted strength of the regular army of the United States has now been reduced to a mere 125,000 men, as provided for in the Army Appropriation Act, which the President, Secretary of War, General Pershing, and many public-spirited citizens resisted.

TENNIS NOTES.

FINALS—MEN'S SINGLES.

The final in the men's singles of the tournament promoted by the Cumberland Tennis Club, produced a real good game when R. P. Christie and Allan R. Nunns met to decide who should be champion. Nunns was expected to just about take the measure of Christie, according to the know-alls. Christie, however, upset all the dope, and playing a magnificent game ran out a winner, the scores being 6-4, 6-3.

The Drawing for the various prizes in connection with the Cumberland United Football Club, that was to be held in the Ilo-Ilo Theatre on Wednesday, Sept. 6th, has been postponed to Wednesday, Sept. 13th.

SAFETY FIRST.

"Safety First" is a good maxim in most things, but particularly so in relation to the investment of money. The rich may afford to speculate and to take the risks attendant on high rates of interest. Those whose means are moderate must be careful to see that there is absolute security in their investments. For such people there is no other form of investment which takes such a high rank, combining absolute security with liberal interest, as the bonds of the Dominion of Canada. Holders of Dominion bonds bearing five and-a-half per cent, maturing December 1, 1922, can re-invest their money at the same rate of interest by exchanging the old bonds for new ones running either five years or ten years, as the bondholder may prefer. Arrangements for carrying out this exchange can be made through all the chartered banks.

FORCED GIRL OF TWELVE TO BE MARRIED.

May Bono, now aged 14 years, filed a suit in the Circuit Court at Detroit, last week, for annulment of her marriage to Fred Bono, declaring that her mother coerced her into marriage at the age of 12. Bono, who is many years older than his wife, and Mrs. Muratovi, the girl's mother, had long favored the alliance, Mary charges, and finally forced her into marriage.

Representative citizens of Vancouver met Hon. John Oliver and Hon. Dr. Sutherland on the arrival in Vancouver last week, and took up with the ministers the question of B. C. representation in England when the big steel manufactory project is being taken up with the Imperial authorities and the British steel manufacturers who are interested.

To most people, the connecting or disconnecting of a Telephone seems a simple operation of installing or removing the instrument. As a matter of fact, in every case it necessitates changes in the cables and wires overhead or underground. It also necessitates changes in Central Office wires and switchboard fro mopen wires or cables. The problems of station connections; in subscribers' accounts and directory listings; and frequently requires new "drop" lines from open wires or cables. The problems of station movement are among the large problems of telephone service. Because of the double operation of disconnecting and reconnecting, the work involved is often twice as great as in the case of new subscribers.

Cascade BEER

THE BEER WITHOUT A PEER

Vancouver-made Product is put to acid test on most difficult foreign markets in the world, and comes off with flying colors.

Cascade Beer has made good in India. This is the most trying climate in the world, and yet Cascade Beer kept there for more than a year had the same pleasant tang and was just as fresh and pleasing to the taste as when it left the Vancouver Breweries.

There is no less an authority for this than H. A. Chisholm, trade commissioner for the Dominion Government. Writing to the Commercial Intelligence Journal, published by the Canadian Government, under date of May 13, this year, Mr. Chisholm says in part:

"The last consignment reaching Calcutta is said to have been a shipment of 'Cascade' from Vancouver, landed in March, 1921.

"It speaks well of this brand of Canadian Beer that, although it has been in store for over a year in one of the most trying climates in the world, its quality has not deteriorated and none of it has gone bad. Its 'crown caps' seem to have protected the contents better than corks have the German lagers. The writer was informed that this brand of Canadian Beer, although not as heavy as English Ale, produced a pleasant stimulating effect on the stomach that German lagers could not produce. According to many informants, this particular quality in Canadian Beer is just what is demanded in the tropics."

Can there be a better endorsement than this for a hot-weather drink? Here is Cascade—a Vancouver-made product—that can be shipped to India, held for more than a year, and when opened prove to be more palatable and better adapted for a tropical beverage than beer manufactured right in India or imported from other famous breweries of the world. Stick to "Cascade" this hot weather.

UNIVERSITY OF B. C.

The publicity campaign being carried on by the students of the University of British Columbia with the object of acquainting the people of the province with the adverse conditions under which they carry on in the temporary site in Vancouver, received a big boost during Exhibition week in Vancouver, when 3,500 signatures were secured to the petition which asks the Government for "a definite and progressive policy towards the University of British Columbia," and that "immediate steps be taken to erect permanent buildings on the chosen site of the University at Point Grey."

The students established stalls in the Educational and Manufacturers' Buildings at Hastings Park, and actively solicited signatures from the visitors to the Fair. Miss Marjorie Agnew, B.A., secretary of the student campaign committee, was in charge, and she was assited by many students who were in Vancouver for the week. Douglas Pollock, of Arts '25, was the originator of the idea, and the college stands were decked out with signs giving salient facts about the University and setting forth the objectives of the campaign.

"During the week we secured nearly 4,000 names to our petition, and we spread a great deal of useful information about the University," declared Miss Agnew. "Many out-of-town visitors did not know much about the college, and they were surprised to learn that we have the second largest number of students in the faculty of arts in the Dominion of Canada, and that we had no permanent buildings at Point Grey."

More than 500 petition forms have now been returned to the central committee, and others are pouring in rapidly from all parts of the province. Each petition form is signed by twenty-five electors, so that the total number of voters pledged to support the University is rapidly reaching an encouraging figure. It is expected that more than 25,000 will sign the petition before it is presented to the Provincial Government in the Fall.

Mr. W. Sutcliffe, B.A., 1919, who is now an instructor in economics at Simmons College, was one of the Exhibition visitors, and he immediately offered his assistance, spending an entire afternoon soliciting signatures. He was president of the Alma Mater Society in his final year at college and a member of the International debating team on two occasions.

"We have been trying for many years to get some action out of the Government, but have had little success so far," he declared. "This campaign, however, seems to be accomplishing things, and I wish my fellow-students every success in the Fall when student speakers go before the people."

Mr. W. O. Banfield, B.Sc., 1922, who was treasurer of the Alma Mater Society last session, addressed the final meeting of the summer school students at the University, securing their support in the campaign.

In addition to these activities, a circular letter has been sent out by the central committee to all students, urging continued work in the campaign in preparation for the more general appeal in the Fall.

The miners of the Hillcrest district, a portion of District 18, have returned to work after having been assured by the operators that the five non-union men objected to would not be hired until all union men who had been on strike had been given employment.

Cumberland & Union Waterworks Co., Ltd.

NOTICE

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY ALL WASTE OF WATER MUST STOP.

Owing to the prolonged dry weather we find that it is necessary to restrict the use of water, as if we allow the present enormous consumption to continue the town may, in the event of no rainfall for the next two months, be faced with a water famine.

In YOUR interests and for the protection of YOUR property in the event of a fire, we find it necessary to bring into effect immediately the following regulations:—

(1). Water must not be used for sprinkling or irrigating purposes except—FOR ONE HOUR ONLY—from 7 a.m. to 8 a.m.

(2). The practice of using water for the purpose of watering sidewalks, streets, etc., must cease. Persons using water for these purposes are liable to have their services disconnected until such time as we can install a meter on their supply.

(3). Leaking taps, toilets, pipes, fittings, etc., must immediately be brought into good repair as any premises on which water is found wasting from these causes will be disconnected without further notice.

There is absolutely no desire on the part of this Company to curtail the use of water when same is used in a proper manner for domestic purposes, but in a large number of cases we find this privilege being abused and should the abuse continue we shall be forced to consider the installation of water meters, which would make the cost of water much heavier for the same consumption.

We once more draw to your attention the fact that this is being done in YOUR interests as every leaking tap or pipe or sprinkler used unnecessarily lowers the water pressure and consumes water that may be needed in a few weeks more for household purposes or may be needed TODAY to extinguish a fire on YOUR property.

Thanking you in anticipation of your co-operation in this matter, we are,

Yours truly,

ALMOST.

Almost may be one of the saddest or one of the most encouraging words in the language—saddest if you almost win and give up—but intensely encouraging if you almost fail and don't give up.

Almost a winner is good—but it doesn't win the race.

This world is full of people who become almost great. They tought their way on and up, but just at the moment they were about to come into their full and justified possessions they began to lose heart and to slip back.

With you, let it be not almost—but wholly.

There are also people who almost fail—but don't. They are the people who make up the bone and sinew of character of this world—the people who are never whipped, never defeated, never wholly and completely discouraged.

Never quit a good proposition or a right cause because it is almost bad.

PERFECT FRIENDSHIPS.

Every good and honourable characteristic enters into friendship to make it purer, finer, and more worthy. The reason why perfect friendships are so rare is that character is so imperfect. The man who is unjust or oppressive in his business dealings, unkind or neglectful in his family relations, selfish or underhanded in his political life, cannot be a thoroughly good friend, however much he may wish or try to be one, for he lacks the needful qualifications. Let him first purify himself from dishonour, and thus fit himself for the privilege.

A START.

There's art in a start.

Every good thing has waited for years, perhaps for ages, and only for a starter.

The good things in our life have waited in the same way, perhaps are still waiting.

The art of a start is this: Just begin!

Don't wait to feel like it, for you won't.

Don't wait till it is easier, for it never will be.

If the thing ought to be done, start it, and start it now.

Begin to-day that long-deferred task; enter upon that spiritual undertaking; assume that responsibility from which you have shrunk; launch out upon that far journey from which you have held back.

That is half of the art of life: start!

A SUNSHINE FACTORY.

A useful provision for meeting the worries and troubles of life is a sunshine factory. Nature's production of this article is brilliant, but rather scanty, and not always available when most needed. With a little attention, however, you can manufacture out of the raw material of hope and cheerfulness a small, but sufficient supply for yourself that will be always on hand, and of great benefit to yourself and others. Why not install a plant at once? It costs less than electricity, requires no fixtures, and is worth much more.

HARVEST TIME.

The farmer is a greater gambler than any stock broker on Wall Street for the farmer gambles with Nature, while the Wall Street broker gambles with his fellow-man. To the city chap who goes into the country on his vacation, the harvest time is full of poetry as he views the ripening grain, or sniffs the scent of new mown hay. The whirr of farm machinery acquires a musical note as it echoes across the field. The shouts of the workers have a pleasant suggestion of good cheer and manly strength. The harvest scene suggests the abundance of Nature and the sure reward of toil to those who labor diligently.

The farmers of the Comox Valley do not think much of these poetic aspects, however, for they have too much on their minds while the city chap is joy-riding under the harvest moon. While Nature is abundant and on the whole fruitful, her ways are mysterious and oft-times peculiar. The work of the farmer is more of a gamble than that of any other of the great industries, except, perhaps, mining.

The farmer may do his level best with hard labor, early and late, and just when the result seems sure, his hopes may be blasted by the sweep of a tempest, the scorch of a drought, or the destroying blight of some insect. The final ingathering must bring a profund relief to every rural home. No one need be surprised if the huskings get very hilarious and that the farmer's home takes on a reckless joyousness when "the frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder is in shock." If the farmer were not reserved by nature, he would dance a jig with high kicking when the leaves begin to fall and he finds all his crops safely harvested.

"Reported Missing" is Starring Owen Moore—Is Eagerly Awaited Locally.

Hailed as a hurricane of melodramatic comedy, the showing of "Reported Missing" next Wednesday and Thursday at the Ilo-Ilo Theatre, is who like their pictures full of thrills, romance and laughter. Owen Moore is starred in this production which deals with the attempt of a Far-Eastern capitalist to obtain possession of a huge fleet of ships owned by an American shipping company.

The high lights of the picture are a race between a hydroplane and a land-aeroplane, a shipwreck, a rough and tumble fight in the villian's house, a series of comedy scenes made truly as Henry Lehrman, master of laughter, knows how to make them, and the gowns worn by the statuesque Nita Naldi and the flapper-like Pauline Garon.

"Reported Missing" is a moving picture that moves every minute. It is crowded full of action and excitement. It assays a real, honest to goodness laugh a minute. It is one of those amusement mediums which lift people from the dull drab of everyday existence into a world of laughter and romance.

Tom Wilson, as a valet, gives the comedy performance of his career. The scenes in which he attempts to wreak vengence on a group of Oriental schemers operating against his master are masterpieces of comedy. Tom surely wields a wicked razor. He could trim The Three Musketeers single handed by just shaking his weapon in front of their faces.

The man who deserves success is the only one who can afford to lose it.

When you refuse, refuse finally; when you consent, consent cordially; when you punish, punish good-naturedly; often commend, never scold.

A famous doctor says that gossip is a form of insanity. If so, some places we know of might be described as a lunatic asylum.

A skinny girl in an evening dress, shows more backbone than a man.

We are given to understand that Premier Oliver and his Cabinet have been approached by Cranbrook officials, who laid statistics before them showing that Cranbrook was the logical place for any large steel works erected in B. C. The Premier was told that Cranbrook has on one side the vast coal resources of the Crow's Nest Pass, and on the other side, enormous iron ore deposits which have been scarcely scratched. Lying between these two essential products, it is the ideal place for a steel mill, Cranbrook people declare. The Comox district is even better situated than Cranbrook, as we have right in our midst and in large quantities, the finest coal on the continent, and iron ore deposits. In addition, Union Bay is an ideal shipping point, first-class wharves are already built, and which the largest steamers on the Pacific can easily approach.
