ONCE MORE IN THE LIMELIGHT

At a meeting of the unemployed recently held in Nanaimo Robert Foster and George Pettigrew, of U.M.W. of A. fame, again appear on the platform. On this occasion they are pleading for the relief of the unemployed in and around Nanaimo, and are asking the Provincial and Dominion governments to feed or give employment to those very same people whom they were directly instrumental and responsible for their present unemployment and destitue condition, whilst they themselves, for the last three years, have been travelling around in luxury, at the expense of the workers.

Residents of the Nanaimo and Cumberland centres for a quarter of a century previous to the invasion of the U.M.W. of A., with Farrington, Pettigrew and Foster, et. al., at the head, are well aware of the fact that there was never any difficulty in any and all men obtaining work and plenty of it, but these disturbers of the peace by their flowery language, have created the presence of these unemployed. They have brought them to starvation and destitution by persuading the employed to leave their employment and now Foster and Pettigrew, in their latest act, appear on the platform and complain of the Government relief. Ald. Young, one of the speakers at the meeting referred to, wisely said that Nanaimo would have been one of the most prosperous towns in British Columbia had it not been for the bunch of grafters who came in to destroy it. Cumberland today mourns that such men as Pettigrew or Foster ever visited this district. Had it not been for the so-called holiday the depression of trade would not have affected this city.

VICE-ADMIRAL SIR FREDERICK D. STURDEE,

Commander of the British fleet which sank the German cruisers Scharnhorst, Gneisenau, Leipsig and Nurnberg.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL

New Year greetings are greetings of good will. How they soften hard hearts, purify base desires, sweeten bitter thoughts, and make every deed purer and tenderer. Let hearts expand, sympathies enlarge, and goodwill reign. Let benedictions drop from lips, and substantial gifts fall from overflowing hands. Make cheerless homes radiant, hopeless hearts to thrill with unspeakable gladness. Forgive your enemies. Rise above the mean and petty resentments which you may have harbored against those who have not used you well. Be generous.

If you find it so difficult to keep your New Year resolutions, perhaps it would be a good idea to make a few bad ones this time, for a change. For instance: you might resolve to cross your wife (if you have one) every day during the year, and then give her gentle words and loving kisses instead. You can thus be consistent with your past record, and possibly be a better man when another year rolls around.

Happy New Year! What a blessed phrase! Speak it from the heart, and then strive to make every one's New Year a happy year, and then yours will be happy indeed.

The following announcement is made on behalf of the Dominion Council of the Canadian Boys Scouts:—

All over Canada Boy Scouts have been proffering their services in aid of both the civil and military authorities in the present emergency. At this stage it does not seem wise for the Dominion Council to advise as to the exact form or forms in which the organization as a whole can best take its part in the existing struggle. There is, however, so much to be done quickly in every locality that all Boy Scouts who are desirous of helping will find plenty of opportunities of doing so. In the British Isles their brother Scouts are assisting in the maintenance of the police, coast guards, and postoffice services, in guarding telegraph lines, as messengers for the Red Cross Society and in various other ways.

The Dominion Council is assured that Canadian Scouts will be found willing and prepared to lend a hand in the war preparations now under way, by doing whatever it may locally be in their power to do.

A "Cottage Meeting, under the auspices of Grace Methodist church, will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bertram, Derwent Ave., on Wednesday evening of next week at 8 o'clock.

The choir of St. George's Presbyterian Church will render a most helpful and inspiring programme of music, especially appropriate to the Xmas season, on Sunday evening, December 29th. Under the the combined efforts of Mr. C. Edwards, the able leader, and Mr. C. Parnham, the efficient organist, the choir has reached a high standard of excellence, which will be adequtely demonstrated in the three anthems that will be sung. Xmas solos will also be given, and a short message by the Pastor. A hearty invitation is extended to all to come and assist in making the service a means of grace to all.

CLOSING EXERCISES.

Last Friday the Cumberland Public Schools closed for the Christmas vacation. Most of the rooms had been tastefully and suitably decorated for the occasion with evergreens and holly, and the closing exercises were bright and cheerful, in anticipation of the holidays and the festive season so close at hand. Wm. Potter, the faithful and energetic janitor of the schools, had a surprise in store for the pupils by presenting each room with boxes of oranges. Mr. Potter, imbued with the spirit of the joyous Christmastide—the spirit of making others joyous and happy—had solicited the different merchants in town to join with him in this worthy object. The pupils fully enjoyed and appreciated the kindly gift. The following merchants contributed:

J. E. Aston, 1 box; Campbell Bros., 2; S. Leiser & Co., 2; C.H. Tarbell, 2; Mr. Potter, 2; Joe Demonte, 2; Joe Walker, 2; Comox Co-operative Society, 2; A. H. Peacey, 2; A. S. Henderson, 2; Wm. Thomson, 1; T. E. Bate, 2; Charles Dalton, 1; Frank Dallos, 2; Marocchi Bros., 2; Alex. McKinnon, 1; Wm. McLellan, 2; J. A. Halliday, 2; A. Stenhouse, 2; The Ideal Store, 2; making a total of 36 boxes of oranges.

Christmas Sunday will be observed in Grace Methodist church to-morrow. The session of the Sunday School will be an open one, with a Christmas address to the children. The evening service will be throughout in line with the ideals and cheer of Christmas. Special music will be rendered.

Mrs. George Brown won the turkey at the Comox Co-Operative butcher shop. The weight of the beef was 408 1-2 pounds, and Mrs. Brown guessed it exactly.

August F. Frendberg leaves for Paris, Ky., this morning, to resume his duties with the L. & N. Ry.

Mr. E. T. Johnson, the Station Barber, left for Vancouver Thurs day morning.

W. Wilson, of the electric substation at No. 7, left for Vancouver Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lockner left for Ladysmith on Thursday.

RESPONSIBILITY ENTIRELY EVADED

Messrs. Pettigrew and Fosert were two of the principal speakers at the meeting of the unemployed held on Monday. In one sense they had first claim to speak. They were not present in the category of the unemployed. They did, however, put all the others out of employment. Incidentally, they put themselves into steady and congenial employment. This is a tribute to their good management. Still it is as well to keep to cases. Messrs. Pettigrew and Foster began their careers in Nanaimo with the avowed object of putting the city "on the hog." They succeeded in their object. The men they were addressing were the men they called away from their work. The men there represented the fruits of their handiwork. The other men whom they invited to discuss the solution of this problem of their own creating were the men on whom when they set out on their self-imposed mission of wrecking the city, they poured all kinds of abuse. The governments to whom they would now appeal are the same governments they damned and cursed in the sight of heaven for every political crime in the calendar. It is not surprising that they left the question of responsibility severely alone, but it was all the same a surprising spectacle of pure undiluted gall. —Nanaimo Herald.

CARD OF THANKS.

To all those kind friends who by their sympathy and kindness helped me in my recent sad bereavement, I wish to express my appreciation of their kind efforts.

Synopsis of Coal Mining Regulations

COAL mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,500 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or sub Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns shall be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10.00 an acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior.

SISTER SUSIE:

Sister Susie's in the kitchen sewing on a Singer,
There's miles and miles of flannel on the floor and on the stairs,
And father says it's rotten getting mixed up with the cotton,
And sitting on the needles that she leaves upon the chairs.
When you knock at our front door, Ma whispers, "Come inside."
And when you ask where Susie is, she says with loving pride,
"Sister Susie's in the kitchen sewing shirts for soldiers,
Such skill at sewing our skillful Susie shows.
The soldiers send epistles, say they'd sooner sleep in thistles,
Than the saucy, soft short shirts for soldiers Sister Susie sews."

To the Electors of the City of Cumberland, B.C.:

I have the honour to present myself as a candidate for Mayor at the forthcoming elections.

I devoted my time and energy serving your interests as an alderman, and I assure you should I be your choice as Mayor I will, to the best of my ability, and in a consciencious manner, advance the welfare of the municipality.

Yours sincerely,

Charles Parnham.
