My dear Mr Fry

I write only a word to thank you for your second most kind letter. I am glad that your poor dear Father's suffering are over, & that his end was so tranquil.

I have now before my eyes his bright face as a young man, so full of intelligence &

Your mother must have gone through terrible suffering during his long illness. My wife joins me in saying how deeply we sympathise with her. Pray believe me Yours very sincerely
