II, xiv

Dear Mr Darwin,

If the alterations
as I have made them
seem to you sufficient I think we may make them without Consulting any of those who has already signed, for they involve no change even

of words — only change

of order & arrangement.

The changes are

however sufficient

I think to avoid

risk of Mrs Constitution

I am afraid that

I shall not be at home

tomorrow after 10.30

but I will come and see you before that

hour or at one o'clock

if it appears to you desirable. If in passing you will leave a card for me

with the hour on it
I will understand.

Very truly yours

J. B. Sanderson
