DAILY BRITISH COLUMBIAN.

VOLUME 2 — NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., SATURDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 19, 1887. — NUMBER 42

Daily British Columbian

Saturday Evening, February 19, 1887.

So far as we can divine, either from particular incidents or from the opinion of experts, appearances are rather adverse to the government. It must be remembered, however, that at present the government has a majority of about sixty in a house of two hundred and eleven, which is about equivalent to a majority of two hundred in the British house of commons. This is a very large margin, and to wipe it out nothing less than a complete revolution of national opinion would be required. We hardly see how such a revoloution is to be produced. The government will, of course, lose in Quebec, especially as patronage has passed out of the hands of their friends; though the alliance between Liberals and Roman Catholics is so unnatural that we shall not be surprised to see it partly collapse in the day of battle. But elsewhere the bulk of the electors appears likely to remain in the party lines, and to vote as it has voted before. Whatever there is of really independent opinion is fluctuating. On one hand, all good citizens long to be rid of the system of intrigue, robbery, and corruption under which we have been living, and of which the disgusting proofs are every day coming to light.—The Week.

The Toronto correspondent of the Montreal Witness, who is generally well informed, says: "The result, so far as Ontario is concerned, may be described as uncertain, with the chances rather in favor of the Liberals. It would not be incorrect to say that there chances are improving for there can be little doubt that the present tendency of the undecided residuum is towards Mr. Blake. The reasons are not far to seek. Every government makes enemies when it has been a few years in power, and Sir John Macdonald's is no exception. Every government does indefensible things, and in this respect the public have learned to regard the government's record as pre-eminently bad. Every government alienates classes by its failure to carry out private lines of policy, and Sir John's government has, in this way, alienated the temperance vote, the Catholic vote and the labor vote, all of which are powerful factors in the contest. Then the public are alarmed at the rapid growth of the public debt, the recurrence of annual deficits, the growing burden of taxation, the mismanagement of certain departments of the public service, and above all the admitted corruption of public men by the traffic in timber limits, colonization franchises, and railway charters. The result of the general tendency Blakeward has been to discourage the ordinary Conservative party workers, and to prevent recruits from coming to take the places of veterans or supplement their efforts. A prevailing cause of defection from the Conservative ranks is the fear that Sir Charles Tupper has been promised the revision of the party leadership. There is a general and apparently well-grounded conviction that the hour of Sir John Macdonald's retirement from parliament has almost come. He has himself admitted this on many a platform, and he repeats the admission in his election address to the people of Kingston. With all his faults Sir John has always been popular in Ontario, and the strength of his hold on the people has been increased by the impression that however much money he may have allowed others to abstract from the public treasury he never took any himself for his own use. The feeling is quite different with respect to Sir Charles Tupper. He is disliked and mistrusted in Ontario, and so far from enjoying the affection of the people he has not even their respect. Rightly or wrongly he is regarded as having made use of his opportunities to make money at the public expense, and is classed amongst the common herd of "boodlers," by whom Sir John is surrounded, and whom he allows for his own reasons to prey on the gullible public. In short, the contest is regarded as one between Mr. Blake and Sir Charles Tupper, rather than between Mr. Blake and Sir John Macdonald. The more general this view becomes, the more difficult it will be for the Conservatives to keep their forces intact, and for this reason the threatened defeat may yet become a general rout."

Geo. Dodge, sr., a well-known citizen of Emporium, writes that one of his men (Sam Lewis), whilst working in the woods, so severely sprained his ankle that he could scarcely get home, but after one or two applications of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, he was able to go to work next day.

Public Notice

New Westminster Public Library.

THE UNDERSIGNED (THANKS TO the kindness and generosity of the Mayor and City Council) have again re-opened the Public Library, and take this opportunity to once more invite the residents of New Westminster to pay them a visit. Papers and Magazines from all directions are received for public use; visitors and more will be added as soon as reasonable support is offered. The terms are 50 cents per month, or $5 per year, which will amount to a mere trifle to each, and the cost of one cigar for seven days, sufficient to see news from all over the world in the elegant books which may be obtained every 24 hours! There is no compulsion about this, but should you believe the principle is one worth supporting, and desire a decent fire with comfortable reading institutions, London and many other cities so doubtless all the parties who belong to Blue Ribbon will cheerfully support this and join this movement, which is for the benefit of their own children as well as one, and all interested are requested to call by one who can assist in the matter.

Yours Respectfully,

HENRY W. ROBERTS,

New West. Agent for Blue Ribbon.

Daily British Columbian

Saturday Evening, February 20, 1887.

During the debate on the defenses of British Columbia, which took place in the house a few days ago, it was clearly pointed out that not only Esquimalt and Victoria, but other parts of the coast must be placed in a proper condition for defense before the country could be safe from attack. Not one of the members endorsed the theory put forward by the Colonist some time ago, that the defense of Esquimalt and Victoria meant the defense of British Columbia. Such a theory could not be maintained, indeed, by any authority whatever, and the persistency with which the Colonist adhered to it shows clearly that it was influenced by narrow and sectional motives.

Speaking of the fishery dispute between the United States and Canada the St. Paul Pioneer Press, one of the most influential journals of the western states, says: "The only honorable or satisfactory way out of the difficulty with Canada is by the appointment of a commission to report upon the matters in controversy. Then, and not until then, will the people be qualified to express an intelligent opinion. And until that is done, all other congressional action might well be postponed." This is precisely the view taken by the COLUMBIAN, and it is the view taken and expressed long ago by President Cleveland, who recommended the appointment of such a commission. Congress refused, however, and made up its mind to attempt to bully Canada into giving up her fishing privileges.

There does not seem to be much prospect for the speedy adoption of the principle of woman suffrage in this province. The vote by which it was rejected in the house on Wednesday must be rather discouraging to its advocates. But there can be no doubt of the rapid and continuous growth of public sentiment in this direction elsewhere. In some of the United States women have been admitted to the franchise, and no evil results have followed. Judge Greene, of the supreme court of Washington Territory, has more than once given expression to his approval of the principle of female suffrage, and his conviction that it had worked in the public interest. The time will come, we believe, when the ballot will be in the hands of all women, both in Great Britain and on this continent.

The Montreal Herald (published by Hon. Peter Mitchell, formerly a member of Sir John's cabinet) thinks the probabilities are in favor of the opinion that the government will be defeated at the approaching election. It sums up a Liberal majority in every one of the eastern provinces except New Brunswick, as follows: Ontario 15, Quebec 15, Nova Scotia 7, Prince Edward Island 2. New Brunswick it divides evenly between the two parties, and it thinks the Liberals may with the utmost safety be given a clear majority of 39 east of Manitoba. If Manitoba, the Northwest and British Columbia all go straight Tory there would still be a majority. But it is almost certain that there will be several Liberals elected in the western provinces, and the Herald concludes that when it comes to be known that the Liberals have won, "the representatives from the Northwest and British Columbia will hasten to worship the rising sun."

During the past few days the river from this city to the straits has been free from ice and quite available for navigation. This has been an exceptional season, for although the period during which ice obstructed the river has not been longer than usual, the obstruction came somewhat unexpectedly, and the ice formed directly opposite the city instead of above it as heretofore. For a week or more before the cold dip, too, the weather was unusually stormy, and as the C. P. N. Co. had no steamer suitable for crossing in a storm, no Victoria steamer reached this city for about a week before the ice came. In consequence of this combination of evils we have been without a steamer now for nearly three weeks. This brings us back again to the question of the winter navigation of the Fraser. With railway connection it does not make so much difference if we are cut off from river navigation for a week or two during the severest weather, but there is really no reason why we should suffer from that disadvantage. An iron steamer, or a wooden steamer provided with ice plates about the wheels, would experience no difficulty in navigating this city at all times. There is not much probability of securing such a steamer for the companies now carrying on the steamship business in these waters, and the only sure remedy is for the people of this city to buy or build one for themselves. There ought to be energy enough and capital enough in the city to do this.

ELECTORS —OF— New Westminster District.

GENTLEMEN:—I have already announced myself as a candidate for the seat made vacant by the death of our late representative, and as no election has taken place to fill that vacancy, I now offer myself at this, the General Election.

As it is my intention to visit and hold public meetings in every settlement of the district before election day, I will merely in this address refer to the different subjects that are vital to our interests as a district and province, which will be discussed in addressing on the public platform, when I hope all aspirants for the honor of representing you in the Commons will be present and take part in the discussion, of which due notice will be given.

The following are some of the most important questions that will have my serious consideration:

The Improvement of the Navigation of Fraser River.—The New Westminster Board of Trade have, with the assistance of our late representative, been successful in obtaining a small appropriation for this purpose, which has been expended the past fall; and it will be the duty of your representative to secure such annual grants as will suffice to complete this important work, which will enable ships of the heaviest draught to navigate the Fraser river at all stages of the tide, and all seasons of the year.

Squatters' Claims.—With reference to this matter there has been gross neglect on the part of the Dominion Government, and I am of the opinion that those settlers who located their land under instructions from what is known as Mr. Trutch's pamphlet, should secure the title thereto free of charge—and the fact that settlers have been unable to secure their titles has acted very detrimentally to the interests of the province generally, and (if elected) I will be unceasing in my efforts to secure the adjustment of every claim in the district.

Railway South.—Another very important matter in connection with our district is railway connection with our neighbors south of the line. Several charters to connect this city and district with the American system of railways have been granted by our local legislature, but were unfortunately disallowed by the Dominion Government (doubtless through the influence of the C. P. R.) The position hitherto held by the Dominion House is now untenable, and the monopoly clause of the C. P. R. will have to be done away with. Should this be done there is no reason why railway construction should not commence in the near future, as our American cousins are ready and willing to commence work as soon as the way is open. I need only say that I shall use my best endeavors to obtain said railway connection and the abolition of the monopoly clause.

Railway Grievances.—The C. P. R. have maintained excessive rates for local traffic in this province and to points as far east as Winnipeg. This is not as it should be, and is one of the reasons why that great corporation should be taught that it is not the only power in the land, but that it must be made subservient to the interests of the people.

Telegraphs and Railways.—I am of the opinion that all telegraphs and railways should be owned and operated by the government in the interests of the people, as is partially the case in England, Germany and elsewhere, and shall (if elected) do all I can to bring about this very desirable state of things.

The Mails.—I shall use my best efforts to have all settlements on the south side of the river supplied regularly with their mails from Ladner's Landing by way of the Grand Trunk road to Chilliwhack and any other places not already supplied with mail accommodation.

The Temperance Question.—Upon this question I feel very warmly and sympathize most heartily with all those who are anxious to do away with the evils caused by the liquor traffic and shall (if elected) give my hearty support to any measures that may be introduced to advance this very desirable object.

The Chinese Question.—With regard to to this question, I consider it an unmixed evil, yet at the same time one of the hard-problems that this nation has to deal with. I deem it of vital importance that our Legislatures, both Federal and Provincial, should adopt measures to discourage this traffic, and at the same time use all legal means in their power to get rid of those Chinamen who are already amongst us.

The last question that I wish to bring before you is that of Independence. I again reiterate the statement made by myself in the papers—

"In Politics, I am and will be thoroughly Independent."

Several of the B. C. papers have taken up this statement and have said a great many uncomplimentary things concerning me, such as "being on the fence," "a Grit in disguise," and so forth. I therefore deem it necessary to explain what I mean by being thoroughly independent. I consider any member sent to Ottawa from this Province pledged to support any particular party has allowed himself to be fettered. The greatest evils which threaten the usefulness of the governments of the United States and Canada spring from party politics, and in the United States at the last presidential election a number of the best men of both parties voted independently, and for what they considered the best interests of the country regardless of party.

As an independent I shall endeavor to vote and act (if elected), first, in the interests of my constituents; secondly, in the interests of the province, and lastly for the general good of the Dominion, pledging myself neither to Grit nor Tory, but claiming the right as a free born British Subject to use my influence and vote on the side where I consider your interests and the interests of the nation lie.

I take this opportunity of soliciting the vote and influence of all, and while I shall feel very much honored if you elect me as your representative, I trust that time will prove that your confidence has not been misplaced.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Yours respectfully,
dwfe12tc T. J. TRAPP.

To the Electors of the Electoral District of New Westminster.

GENTLEMEN:—Shortly after the lamented death of our late Representative, Mr. Homer, I was solicited by a number of my friends, to allow myself to be nominated as a Candidate for the Representation of the District of New Westminster in the House of Commons of Canada. The personal solicitation of friends, was shortly followed by requisitions so numerously signed, by prominent and influential Electors of the City and District, that I felt it to be my duty to place my services at their disposal. It is not therefore, Gentlemen, as a self-nominated candidate, that I ask for your support, but I do so in response to the request of over four hundred of your number.

To many of you, Gentlemen, who have known me for a long time, it is unnecessary for me to say, that I am perfectly familiar with the great and varied resources of this Province. My knowledge of its Mining, Fishing, Agricultural and Commercial advantages has been derived from actual experience, and will (if elected) enable me to place prominently before Parliament, the great resources of this Province, and the means necessary to be employed to aid in their further development.

It is impossible, Gentlemen, in an address such as this to do more than allude to some of the questions of interest and importance to you, which as your representative, I would consider it to be my duty to bring to the notice of Parliament. I will, however, enumerate a few matters of great importance to us all, in regard to which it will be my earnest endeavour to obtain beneficial legislation.

I will endeavor to have removed from the mouth of our noble River, every impediment to its free navigation, and have necessary lighthouses erected.

I will endeavor to secure to settlers and squatters an immediate title to their lands. This I consider to be a matter not only of justice, but also of expediency. Heretofore great injustice has been done to a valuable and deserving class of our population, to whom, had justice been done and facilities afforded for acquiring homesteads, the results of their industry would, ere this, have done much to develop the agricultural capabilities of this fine district.

I am aware, Gentlemen, that the number of representatives to which each province of the Dominion is entitled is based upon population, yet I believe that, owing to exceptional circumstances, such as the fact that this province contributes to the revenue of the Dominion a much larger percentage, according to population, than any of the other provinces; and also to the fact that large centres of population are rapidly being formed in this district—that it is entitled to a larger representation in the parliament of the Dominion, and which as a matter of justice I will endeavor to obtain.

I will also endeavour to obtain for the residents of this District better postal facilities, to which they are justly entitled.

I will use my best efforts to secure equitable rates on all railway and telegraph lines, and to have the same fixed by law.

The interests of British Columbia demand that every impediment in the way of constructing railways to our Southern boundary and other portions of this district be removed to aid in the development of our resources. I will endeavor to have this accomplished, and also to obtain aid for the construction of canals and the improvement of navigable streams.

I will also consider it my duty to render all possible aid to any legislation which seeks to simplify and render less costly the administration of justice, especially as between individuals and corporations.

My political platform is, in the first place, the interest of British Columbia, which I believe can be best served by my giving an independent support to the present government, which has not in the past been unmindful of the interests of British Columbia, and to whom we are indebted for the early completion of the railway, which has brought us into communication with the Eastern Provinces and Europe, and through the agency of which, we will in the near future, be placed in direct communication with Australia, China, Japan, and the Great Eastern Empire, which must prove to be of incalculable value to this province, and to this district in particular.

In conclusion, gentlemen, I have only to say, that I am prompted by a sincere desire to benefit this district and to aid in promoting its varied interests, and I ask your support only upon these grounds. It is my intention to see as many of you previous to the election as time and circumstances will admit of in the meantime.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Yours very truly,
dwfe8td DONALD CHISHOLM.

"I take only one English weekly paper, The Spectator, and one Canadian, The Week, and as a rule I should be puzzled to say which I should miss most."—From a letter by Thomas Hughes, author of "Tom Brown's School Days."

The Week:

A Canadian Journal of Politics, Society and Literature.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, AT $3.00 PER ANNUM.

Independent in politics, THE WEEK appeals by a comprehensive Table of Contents to the different tastes which exist within the circle of a cultured home.

An average of fifteen short, crisp Editorials is given in each number upon CANADIAN, AMERICAN, and ENGLISH POLITICS and LITERATURE.

Amongst the regular contributors is Professor Goldwin Smith; and a distinguished public man in London has kindly undertaken to supply regularly an English Letter. Paris and Washington Letters will appear at regular intervals.

In addition there are special contributions from some of the ablest writers in the Dominion and the United States.

THE WEEK has now entered upon its third year with most encouraging prospects, and with many new features.

Hiss Sarah Holloway's Corn Cure! It has no equal for removing those troublesome excrescences, as many have testified who have tried it.

DEAD.—One of our old citizens, Christopher Lee, died this morning about 3 o'clock. Deceased was one of the old pioneers of the city. The flags throughout the city were hoisted [illegible] at half-mast in mourning for his death. He will be buried to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock in the Masonic cemetery. In Monday's issue we will publish a history of his life.

WESTERN CULTURE.—It was at the firemen's ball last evening. During the period while a number were at supper the remainder amused themselves by dancing to music rendered by C. [illegible] Bole and L. P. Eckstein. [illegible] Two young ladies of our upper crust, the last of whom did not know Mr. Rhodes, had listened attentively to Mr. Rhodes' chest the first young lady turns to her companion: "Wasn't that inspiring? I think it was an allegro movement of Beethoven's." Second young lady: "Just splendid, and isn't Mr. Beethoven himself lovely! Such a nice moustache! How I wish he would play again!"

Use the safe, pleasant and effectual worm killer, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator; nothing equals it. Procure a bottle from your druggist.

AT THE BALL.—First Westminster dude: "Did you make a mash Charlie, or get mashed yourself?" "Yes, I got mashed, W. Norman Bole put his foot on me."

POLICE COURT.—Antonio Rodregis was brought up this morning on a charge of vagrancy. He was sentenced to four months' imprisonment with hard labor.

COMMONS ELECTION. We are authorized to state that Mr. Donald Chisholm is in the field as a candidate for the seat in the House of Commons rendered vacant by the death of our late lamented representative, Mr. Homer. dwoc25tc

THE WEEKLY COLUMBIAN.—The publishers are desirous to make all subscriptions for the WEEKLY COLUMBIAN end with the year. This will enable subscribers to know precisely when their subscriptions expire, and it will greatly simplify the book-keeping. Persons sending new subscriptions during the year will, therefore, be good enough to send, as far as possible, the amount that will pay to the end of the current year. The paper costs, as nearly as may be, 17 cts. a month, and the sum required to pay to the end of the year may be easily calculated. If it is not possible to obtain the correct amount, send $2, and the change will be returned in stamps from this office.

HE GOT LEFT.—W. R. Lewis, of this city, has during the past month taken especial precautions to prevent any of his chickens being stolen by the "heathen." He went so far, in fact, in his precautionary measures as to build, as he imagined, a non-burglar proof hen house. Of late, while numerous other citizens have been losing their fowls from the midnight depredations of the Chinamen, Mr. Lewis has been silently chuckling to himself on the safety of his own invented non-burglar-proof-hen-house. No Chinaman could enter that new patented construction of his! This morning, however, on his visiting his fowl house, he was astonished to find 12 of his chickens missing, while a small opening, cut in his non-burglar-proof window, revealed that Mr. Lewis, with all his invention, is no match for the subtle intellect of the Mongolian.

TOO RICH FOR HIS BLOOD.—He walked into the Colonial last evening with a look of importance. He had on a black Texas hat and a corduroy suit. He might have passed either for an Egyptian mummy or a Port Moody fakir, so calm and stolid was his unshaved face. As he passed in through the hall the newsboy accosted him: "Daily evening COLUMBIAN?" He looked at the boy, slowly put his hand down into his trouser pocket, and queried: "How much?" "Five cents," answered the boy. He drew his hand slowly out of his pocket, and, holding a coin in his hand, said: "Here's ten, have you got five cents?" The boy answered, "No, get change at the bar." The would-be purchaser slowly walked to the bar, and, putting down a ten cent piece, asked for "two fives." It was now Archie's turn to make change, and he replied with intense agony in his voice, "We have no small coins." And the British Columbia man sadly lifted his eyes from the counter and, raising them slowly, caught a sight of the reflection of his own lean countenance in the looking glass, and turning round looked at the boy with the papers and then at the ten cent piece, and walked over and picked up a Victoria Times of three weeks ago and was soon deeply buried in its contents.

Personal.

Thos. McRae, of Donald, arrived today.

D. L. Reid, of Clover Valley, is in the city.

T. W. Gray, of Vancouver, is at the Colonial.

D. R. McLean, of Calgary, is at the Colonial.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The Fire Company.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN: There seems to be a feeling among the members of the Hyack company that they are not as liberally dealt with as they deserve, and I agree with them. The members of the company are always ready, and willing when required to give their time and best efforts in saving buildings from being destroyed, and with little thanks for all their labor and care. They expose themselves to every danger, soil their clothes, give their time without remuneration, and very often are subjected to abuse. I do not think the city is prepared to pay a staff of men to run the engine, but the council could at least prepare and furnish a room in the Hyack hall and pay a man at least $25 per month to sleep there and be always on hand in case of need. John Kelly would do, if acceptable, the best person to fill that place, and at the tap of the bell he could light the fire and have the engine ready in a few minutes, as he understands all about the engine. Something must be done to make things more satisfactory than they are at present, or before we know there will be no Hyack company—and then where will be our fire wardens? CITIZEN.

The Fireman's Ball.

PRESENTATION TO MR M'COLL

The Hyack fire company gave its annual ball last evening, in the drill shed. Quite a number were present, including some members of the Vancouver brigade. At about half-past 11 the members of the Hyack company presented William McColl, ex-chief engineer of the company, with a handsome silver water pitcher and the following address:

"TO WILLIAM MCCOLL, Esq., Ex-Chief Engineer, New West. Fire Dept.:
—DEAR SIR: Your friends and comrades of the Hyack Fire Company have appointed us to present to you our hearty and sincere congratulations on your marriage, and to offer to yourself and your bride our best wishes for your happiness and prosperity in the coming years. Working with you shoulder to shoulder at the brakes, and serving under you for some years when you were chief engineer of this department, we have learned to respect you very highly as an officer and as a comrade; and we trust therefore that you will accept the little gift which accompanies this address as a wedding present from sincere friends and earnest well-wishers. Signed in behalf of the Hyack Fire Co.,

"JOHN MCMURPHY, Jr., Capt.
"JOHN MCMURPHY, Sr., Sec.
"W. J. CORBETT, Asst. Eng."

Mr McColl made a very suitable reply, thanking the company for its kindness, and hoped that it might continue to prosper. Supper followed, and then dancing was resumed up to a late hour this morning. By the way, one or two young gentlemen especially distinguished themselves in dancing. "No spots on Port Moody is there"? By reference to our personal column the names of the Vancouver visitors will be found.

Mr. R. C. Winlow, Toronto, writes:—"Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery is a valuable medicine to all who are trouble with indigestion. I tried a bottle of it after suffering for some ten years, and the results are certainly beyond my expectations. It assists digestion wonderfully. I digest my food with no apparent effect, and am now entirely free from that sensation, which every dyspeptic well knows, of unpleasant fulness after each meal."

Considering the Inter-State Commerce Bill—Report of the Committee.

ANOTHER RAILWAY ACCIDENT—SEVERE STORMS IN THE STATES.

The Polygamy Bill Passed—Summing up the Bahle Murder.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The senate to-day by a vote of 37 to 13 passed the anti-polygamy bill. Dolph and Mitchell voted in the affirmative. As passed to-day by the senate and as it goes to the president the bill makes a wife or husband a competing witness, but does not compel them to testify. It disapproves and annuls all laws reorganizing the capacity of illegitimate children to inherit a share of the estate of a father. It annuls all acts incorporating the perpetual emigrating fund, and Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints. It dissolves those corporations and provides for the winding up of their affairs. It provides that widows shall receive a third of the income of an estate as the dower. It directs for the prosecution for bigamy, adultery, &c., and makes it the duty of an attorney-general to institute proceedings to escheat to the United States all property of corporations obtained or held in violation of the act of July, 1862, and provides that the proceeds of such escheat be applied to the use and benefit of the common schools of the territory.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—A heavy wind, rain, and thunder storm prevailed here all day. Telegraph and railway communication was interrupted to a great extent. The storm appears to have started in California and to have travelled eastward. In Colorado on Wednesday night and yesterday a destructive gale is reported, several trains being blown from the track. Half-a-dozen people, more or less, were injured and a number of dwellings wrecked. From Dakota, Nebraska, Missouri, Minnesota, Illinois, Ohio, and other states information says the gale was very severe. Electrical disturbances accompanied the storm and lightning did considerable damage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—Superintendent Freemore states that all through trains on Central and Southern Pacific Railways will arrive here to-night. The snow on Central Pacific has been cleared away and washouts on the Southern Pacific have been repaired. This has been the first clear day in this city for a month. Enough rain has now fallen throughout the state to assure a full average crop.

NORTHFIELD, Vt., Feb. 19.—An accommodation freight train on the Vermont Central collided near here this morning. Both engines and four cars were wrecked. Baggage master Moody was seriously injured. The blame rests on engineer Ward of the freight, who pulled out of Montpelier Junction while the conductor was in the telegraph office getting orders. Several people who were injured in the terrible White River disaster were on the train. This is the third accident within a month.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—An explosion occurred in the Cath colliery at Rhondda, Wales, to-day. Fifty two men are entombed, most of whom are believed to be still alive, as voices can be distinctly heard by those outside, who are working hard to reach the imprisoned miners. The scene about the mouth of the shaft is piteous in the extreme. Wives, children, and others, relatives of the unfortunate men, are there in large numbers, and their lamentations fill the air.

BERLIN, Feb. 19.—The German reserves, recently called out, have been notified that their attendance at their respective military depots will not be hereafter necessary.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Both sides summed up to-day in the trial of Unger for the murder and subsequent butchering of August Bohle at 4:30. The case was given to the jury at 11 p. m. The jury, still unable to agree, were locked up for the night.

The executive committees of the trunk line pool and central traffic association met in joint executive session here to-day to consider the inter-state commerce bill. Commissioner Fink presided. The measures of the bill were discussed and it was finally agreed that the bill in no way affects the present system of changing passenger and freight rates. It was admitted that no combination of rates can be made and pro rata divisions declined and that passes can be no longer distributed to any but employees. The question whether the law as retrospective on through rates was considered. It is tho't the rates are not affected in any way. Tickets from New York and San Francisco can be sold and equitable division of the proceeds made between the roads over which the passengers travel in the manner that now exists. As to freight each company can charge what it deems a just and reasonable rate, and if a difference of opinion arise, the matter is to be subjected to a board of railway commissioners. The meeting was harmonious and those present seemed pleased with the prospect of the law going into operation. They seem to think that more competition will be avoided and additional revenue accrue from the failing of former deadheads. Fink appointed freight and passenger committees to revise the rates to conform with the law and to formulate rules and regulations to secure uniform appreciation. As soon as the committee is ready to report another meeting will be called.

A HOST OF BODILY TROUBLES are engendered by chronic indigestion. Those, however, as well as their cause, disappear when the highly accredited invigorant and alterative, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspepsia Cure, is the agent employed for their removal. A regular habit of body, and a due secretion and flow a bile, invariably result from irom its persistant use. It cleanses the system from all irregularities, and restores the weak and broken down constitution to health and strength.

The Confederation Life.

The annual report of this solidly prosperous Canadian institution will be found in another column. The facts revealed in the accounts and the Directors' report thoroughly justify the ecomiums which the shareholders present bestowed upon the management. Thanks to the resolute manner in which the Company has declined to embark upon extravagant methods of procuring business, the working expenses of the company bear to the total income the very small ratio of between 17 and 18 per cent. A point attesting the soundness of the finances of the Company is the fact that the interest income is sufficient to pay the death claims—which in a company of the age of the Confederation Life is something to be proud of. The ass ts and liabilities are set forth in minute detail, and the tables show that, after making allowance for all possible contingencies and providing for every debt, there is a surplus of $282,199 over liabilities and capital combined. The increase in the assets in the last year was $260,390. So much for what can be done by rigid adherence to what the President defined as the true policy of the Company, viz:—"To keep its balance sheet right and avoid unnecessary, unwise, or extravagant expenditure for the sake merely of increasing new business." —Toronto Globe. T. R. Pearson & Co. are agents for this company in British Columbia. m19tc

WHITE BRONZE MONUMENTS.—White Bronze is a comparatively new substance, and has come into large use, rapidly, for special purposes in this country. It has been found to be so well adapted for statuary and monuments, that companies have been for some time established at Bridgeport, Conn., Detroit, Mich., Des Moines, Iowa, and St. Thomas, Canada, who are making monuments of all kinds and styles. From experiments made by these companies, it has been found that the material will stand exposure for an indefinite period—it is practically indestructible. White Bronze being noncorrosive and unchangeable, it is stated to be equal to gold, silver or platinum, and superior to copper or antique bronze, which throws off a verdigris. The monuments are cast from refined zinc, and are given their sparkling appearance by the sand blast, sand being blown against the work under a high pressure of steam, which cuts the surface, but does not adhere to it. A thin film of oxide which forms on this bronze is indistructible by the elements; it cannot be dissolved by water, and air cannot penetrate it, although the film is so thin as to be immeasurable. No corrosion, it is affirmed, can take place.—Boston Journal of Commerce. Chas. J. Robson, New Westminster, is agent for the White Bronze Monuments in British Columbia. Poetry.

"Honesty is the Best Policy."

Sweet, I must confess me:
If 'tis wrong to kiss
Beauty when she's sleeping,
I have done amiss.

"Who," your eyes are asking,
"Was the one who slept?"
You. Ma Miet the anger
To your face that leapt!

When I saw you lying
In the orchard there,
Fair and flushed with slumber,
How could I forbear?

Now, if you encourage
Me to take to-day,
How I'll love your forehead
Rosy-red I'll kiss.

Now I want your fiat:
Either—it is plain—
You must keep my kiss, or
Give it back again.

If the first, why, surely
I should grateful be,
For, to prize my kisses,
You must—value—me.

Yet I think I'd rather—
Is my meaning plain?
You would—do you mind much?
Give it back again.

Or, if you will lend it—
Sheer want makes me borrow—
I will surely pay it——
Shall we say—to-morrow?

A "cop" once attempted to knab
A man who another did kstab,
But the chap made a run
And his liberty won,
By getting away in a kcab.

For driving he had quite a knack
So he took his girl out on the ktrack,
But the upset the sleigh,
And the horse ran away,
And the maid promptly gave him the

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 16.

Mr. Bole presented a petition on behalf of the New Westminster Board of Trade for the incorporation of the New Westminster Southern Railway.

In moving the second reading of the bill to extend the franchise to women, Hon. Mr. Robson said that as the principle of the bill had been fully discussed at previous sessions he did not think it necessary to speak to it now at any length. By increasing the voting power of the province, its importance would be correspondingly increased. In considering this matter there were higher questions to be taken into account. It was of the greatest importance that British Columbia should take a high moral stand, and it was safe to say if women were enfranchised they would always be found on the side of morality. The privilege given them of voting at the election of school trustees had produced most desirable results, and a new, healthy interest in the schools in the province dated from that time. It was nonsense to say if the franchise was extended to them they would not take advantage of it. He explained that in bringing in this bill he did so as a private member. Mr. Dunsmuir had supported the enfranchisement on one occasion, but he had changed his mind and did not think now that the ladies should have a vote. Mr. Allen said the ladies did not want a vote. Mr. Higgins said that he intended to vote for the second reading, but he wished the promoter of the bill to understand that if the measure reached the committee he would move a clause to compel women to sit on juries as well as in the legislature. He did not believe in half-way measures. If women did one thing they must do the other thing. If they were made citizens they must accept all the responsibilities of citizens. He did not agree with people who thought the average woman was not as intelligent as the average man. Mr. Semlin did not see why this measure should be brought forward at this time, but he was nevertheless in favor of the principle. He pointed out that Queen Victoria afforded an excellent illustration of a woman discharging all the duties of high office without neglecting domestic demands. Mr. McLeese said he had at one time opposed this measure, but he had changed his mind, and intended to give it his support. Mr. Davie did not believe this bill was desired by those whom it aimed to enfranchise. Nothing was said about the question at the last general election and he believed it would be out of place for the house to pass the bill. The enfranchisement of women had been found to work disastrously on the American side, and he would oppose it in British Columbia. It would bring out the most undesirable class of women to the polls. Mr. Bole said the class of ladies who were always found in the vanguard of this movement were those who in the ordinary course of events had been unable to obtain husbands. He claimed that if the ladies were to be given a vote they should also be allowed to sit in the legislature, and as the bill would not grant this right he would oppose it in its present form. Mr. Turner thought the women of the province should have been given the chance to say whether they desired the innovation or not. On the American side he was informed they would get clear of the woman's franchise as soon as possible. Mr. Prior had a rather extended acquaintance among the ladies and knew they were satisfied to leave politics to the men. He moved that the bill be given a six months' hoist. Mr. Ladner seconded the amendment. Mr. Orr was a bachelor, but would have no objection to sitting in the house with a member on each side dressed in petticoats. Mr. Anderson put in a protest to the bill. Mr. Beaven, on the general question of female suffrage, was aware that much could be said. The privilege of voting at the election of school trustees had had a salutary effect, and it was apparent that women were more competent than the men to decide anything relating to the education of her child. He was, however, not prepared to vote for this measure now, feeling that the matter had not been discussed in public and that the ladies should be consulted at the election which had taken place last year. He would support the motion to give the bill a six months' hoist. Hon. the Speaker was sorry the honorable member for the district had become a convert. He found him now opposing a measure which he had so forcibly, eloquently and logically supported in 1884, 1885 and 1886. What was right in 1886 could not be wrong in 1887, and he did not believe there had been a corresponding change in public sentiment. The contention that only the most undesirable class of women would take advantage of the franchise was not a rational conclusion. All men who went to the polls were not respectable, but the large majority were, and there was no reason to suppose that it would be otherwise with the women. He was not forcing the franchise upon them. If they did not desire to vote they would no more be compelled to register their names than men were. In conclusion he would say that in moving in this matter he believed he was doing his duty and acting in accordance with the wishes of those who had sent him here, and that the bill would become law in a few years he had no doubt whatever. On division the motion for the six months hoist was carried by a vote of 17 to 5, Messrs. Robson, Higgins, McLeese, Semlin and Stenhouse voting against it.

Mr. McLeese gave notice of motion for a return showing the expenditure incurred and liabilities unpaid in erecting a residence and lockup at the 150-mile house, Cariboo district, showing the names of all persons to whom money has been paid or to whom money is still due in respect thereof.

Mr. Higgins, to introduce a bill to amend the act to consolidate the public act, 1885.

Mr. Allen to introduce a bill to amend the act to provide for the better protection of cattle ranges.

Mr. Ladner to move for copies of all correspondence between the government, or any member thereof, and the corporation of Surrey concerning the letting of a contract for the Campbell river bridge in Surrey municipality, New Westminster district.

Mr. McLeese to move for all documents relating to the appointment of a mounted constable in the Cariboo-Lillooet district.

Mr. Mason to move for an address asking the Dominion government to admit quartz mining machinery free of duty.

Mr. Thompson to move that the federal government be urged to induce the imperial government to assist the extension of the Esquimalt Nanaimo Railway to the north end of Vancouver Island.

The house adjourned until Monday.

Emperor of Millions.

THE RULER OF CHINA TAKES THE REINS.

LONDON, Feb. 9—Advices from Pekin say that the emperor has assumed the government. Small-pox carried off Tung-che, the late emperor of China, at the age of 18, on Jan. 12, 1875. It is the custom in China for the sovereign to appoint his successor from the members of his family of a younger generation than his own. This Tung-che had neglected to do. The widow of his predecessor, Hung-fang, joined with Prince Ch'un, her brother-in-law, and brought about the election of Tsai-tien, the son of Prince Ch'un, as emperor, and for the first time in the annals of the T'sing dynasty the succession to the throne passed out of the direct line. The dowager empress herself became regent. She was a woman of great tact and skill, and had been regent after the death of her husband during the minority of Tung-che.

Tsai-tien, who succeeded under the title of Kwansaen, or "Succession of Glory," is the ninth emperor of China of the Tartar dynasty of T'sing, which succeeded the native dynasty in the year 1644. The surname of the family is Gioro, that is golden, and according to tradition was given to their first ancestral chief, Aisin Gioro, because he was the son of a divine virgin. About the year 1130 the tribe of Tartars to which the family belonged drove out the native rulers and occupied the northern provinces of China. Pekin was their capital for many years and in the course of time the present T'sing dynasty of emperors was founded by them. The word "T'sing," which means pure, was adopted as a surname to signify what would be the character of the administration which they set up.

Tsai-tien was born on the 15th of August, 1871 He was therefore a little more than three years of age when he was carried, "cross and sleepy as he was," into the presence of the conclave of Manchu Princesses and the Dowager Empress and the Empress Mother, who met in one of the secret chambers of the palace and there solemnly declared Tsai-tien as the Hwangti.

The emperor was vaccinated when an infant, before his high destiny was thought of; otherwise it would have been difficult to vaccinate him, for his person being sacred when emperor, no lancet can touch him. His mother, the Princess of Ch'un, who is a sister of the Empress of the West, was raised to the rank of Empress Dowager when he became sixteen, and his father was made Tai Shang Huang. On the 18th of April, 1881, the Empress Dowager died, leaving the principal governing authority in the hands of her colleague, the Empress Mother, Taze An, by whom the regency has been conducted up to the present time.

Under the tender care of his instructors the emperor learned the noble art of how to govern China. It was a part of his imperial training that a hahachuize, or "whipping boy," was appointed to suffer for the faults of his imperial master. In matters of pleasure the wants or wishes of the youthful ruler were not overlooked. Attention was paid to his exercises and sports.

He was married in April, 1886, to the daughter of a mandarin, named Tao-Tai, who, on celestial authority, is a great beauty. He selected her from over a hundred girls who had been gathered from all parts of China for his inspection.

Orpha M. Hodge, Battle Creek, Mich., writes: I upset a tea-kettle of boiling hot water on my hand. I at once applied Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and the effect was to immediately allay the pain. I was cured in three days.

WHAT PHYSICIANS SAY ABOUT THE STARR KIDNEY PAD.

"Treatment by Absorption has for some time been recognized by Medical Men to be the most simple and effectual means of conveying to Diseased Organs, "Curatives," but in cases of Kidney Disease and Complaints attendant thereon, successful treatment was practicably impossible until the introduction of the Starr Kidney Pad. It costs less than a single prescription and is immeasurably more decisive and effective than any quantity of internal Medicinal dosing. Worn immediately over the seat of Disease, its curative properties become absorbed by the diseased and enfeebled Organs, continuously and directly, as required to insure in return their healthy action and original vigour. It is comfortable to the patient and pleasant in its effects, and cures when nothing else can. The Starr Kidney Pad accomplishes positive, decisive results. A more valuable discovery as a true remedy for Kidney Diseases was never made.—Medical Gazette

The Starr Kidney Pad, manufactured in Toronto, is a permanent sure cure for diseases, disorders and ailments of the Kidneys, Bladder and urinary secretive system, or attendant complaints, causing pain in the small of the back, sides, etc., producing urinary disorders, such as too frequent, scanty, difficult, painful or copious micturition, inability of retention and sedimentary urine, dropsical symptoms, etc., denoting the presence in the system of diseases common to the urinary secretive organs—known as gravel, catarrh of the bladder and passages, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, piles, nervous debility, etc. Send for pamphlet to LANGLEY & CO., Wholesale Agents, Victoria. THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN
Printing Company
(LIMITED.)

ON THE 10TH OF JANUARY, 1887, the COLUMBIAN Newspaper and Printing Concern was purchased by a joint stock company composed of citizens of New Westminster, to be known as the "British Columbian Printing Co., Limited." The concern has been for nearly a year owned and controlled by the British Columbia Stationery and Printing Company, of New Westminster, Victoria and Vancouver. The object of the new company is to continue the publication of the BRITISH COLUMBIAN newspaper and carry on a general printing and publishing concern, controlled entirely by those whose individual interest it will be to promote the development, especially of the Mainland. There will be no slackening of the energy hitherto displayed in the management of the establishment, and its patrons may rely upon receiving full value for their money. The COLUMBIAN will continue to be entirely independent in both Dominion and provincial politics, and will devote itself to the advancement of such schemes as may be considered in the public interest. The concern is now entirely separate from any other business, the book and stationery establishment in this city having been taken over by Mr. T. R. Pearson, who will continue to carry it on in his own name and for his own benefit. It is desirable that a daily newspaper should be maintained in this city, and the new company asks for public patronage on the ground that it is engaged in an enterprise calculated to promote the public welfare. It asks that the COLUMBIAN be judged on its own merits and supported only so long as its policy is consistent with its professions. In consequence of this business change all accounts due the concern must be settled without delay so that the books of the former company may be adjusted and closed. A HOME COMPANY.

This Association merits the confidence the Public is reposing in it from the following FACTS:—

The Security offered to policy holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada.

It has no schemes of insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.

Its policies are indisputable after three years, and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.
