Saturday Evening, May 5, 1888.

From Halifax.

(Correspondence of the Columbian.)

HALIFAX, April 24.— The one thing we are looking for now is spring; but at the present writing it seems just as far away as it was last month. Last night the "beautiful" fell to the depth of about three inches. Surely the spring does here linger in the lap of May. People here say that this is the longest, hardest, and coldest winter they have known for years. In fact the thermometer has been down to zero so often this winter that zero is about worn out. In my walks around the city I noticed some workmen repairing a water main, and was greatly surprised to see that the frost had penetrated the ground to the depth of about four feet. Every season of the year has its own peculiar liar, and the liar of this season is the man who has seen and heard the first robin of spring.

The one interesting topic of conversation in the city and, in fact, in the whole province, is the celebrated Doyle murder case. The facts were briefly these:—Last October Peter Doyle, of Musquodoboit, was missing from his home. Searching parties were organized, and in about a week's time from the first alarm his body was found. He was sitting on a rock with another rock behind him. His pipe lay by his side. His gun was about eight feet away. The aorta and the lower part of the heart were torn away by a gun shot which had entered his back at an angle of about 35°. At first it was thought to be a case of accidental death, but gradually suspicion fastened on one William Preeper, a young man of about twenty years of age, who was Doyle's hired man. He was examined before the magistrates, but they did not think the evidence strong enough to warrant his being sent up for trial. But soon appeared another person on the scene—Emily Dillman, a girl of 14, and a sister of Mrs. Doyle, the widow of the murdered man. After a lapse of three months, she comes forward with a story strongly criminating Mrs. Doyle and Wm. Preeper. According to her evidence Preeper again and again in her presence acknowledged to Mrs. Doyle that he had killed Doyle. On this Preeper and Mrs. Doyle are charged as principals in the murder of Peter Doyle. At the trial Preeper is found guilty with a recommendation of mercy, but Mrs. Doyle is found not guilty as principal. Mrs. Doyle is then charged as accessory after the fact, but the jury disagreeing, she is let out on bail. In Mrs. Doyle's trial occurred a strange contradiction. Her father came forward and swore that he would not believe her sister, Emily Dillman, on oath; while her mother swore that Emily Dillman was thoroughly truthful and worthy of belief. Preeper's counsel are now moving for a new trial, or to arrest judgment. The arguments on the rule are not yet concluded. The ablest counsel in the city are engaged on the case. For the prosecution there are Attorney-General Longley, Otto S. Weeks, and Mr. Congdon, of the law firm of Russell & Congdon. On the defence are C. S. Harrington, of Harrington & Chisholm, and C. Hudson Smith. The general opinion in the city is that Preeper was convicted on too slight evidence. A subscription list has been opened at the Halifax Hotel to aid Preeper in his defence.

The local legislature was prorogued last week. It has passed about 150 bills this session. The bill which was introduced to do away with the legislative council passed the lower house with only four dissentient votes; but when it reached the legislative council it was summarily thrown out, although a great many who had been appointed to that house had expressly agreed to work for its abolition. Probably they found they were not patriotic enough to vote out of their own pockets $400 a year, which could be earned so easily. The Quebec resolutions passed the lower house without a speech from the opposition.

The Rev. Dr. Courtenay, bishop-elect of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, arrived in the city last night and received a hearty welcome from the representatives of his future diocese. He will be inducted to-morrow. The ceremony will take place in St. Luke's church on Morris street.

The results of the sessional examination of Dalhousie College (law department) are published in order of merit. The British Columbia boys have done very well. Robie L. Reid, formerly of Clover Valley, B. C., heads the first year in three subjects, is second in another and sixth in another. Mr. Reid's marks are the best which have been made in the college for some years. Fred. W. Howay, of Westminster, stands first in his year in one subject, is second in three others and sixth in another. These two are the only students of the first year who have made a first-class mark (75%) in all the subjects of their year. Richard McBride, also of Westminster, made two second-class marks (65 per cent.) and passed creditably on the rest. Out of a class of twenty there are nine or ten "snowed under."

I was highly amused the other day. As I was sitting in a room, a stranger came in who had just returned from British Columbia. He had only been there a fortnight, and the greater part of that time was spent in Victoria. Ignorant of the fact that I had ever been in British Columbia, he began to tell some marvellous "traveller's tales" of the Pacific province. It did not take long to see that the poor fellow had been most "awfully stuffed." By his talk one would be led to suppose that British Columbia is a perfect bonanza—a veritable Eden—a land where the streets are paved with gold and where a man could get rich in no time, Teamsters, he said, got $150 a month and board and lodging. I did not wonder, after hearing his stories, how it was that emigrants were often so miserably disappointed with British Columbia. The circulating of stories such as these can do the country no good—the plain, unvarnished truth is far better.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

THE SOO PURCHASE DENIED.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 4.—The reported sale of the Minneapolis, Sault Ste Marie and the Atlantic, Minneapolis and Pacific, and the Aberdeen and Bismarck railways recently consolidated, is authoritatively denied by H. H. Fletcher, the treasurer, and a heavy stockholder. He states that the Canadian Pacific interest in the "Soo" is limited to a traffic agreement, and that the recent consolidation of the three roads owned here, has no other significance. Notwithstanding these denials, the belief is current that negotiations for the sale of a controlling interest will be closed shortly.

CHAMBERLAIN'S THIRD PARTY.

LONDON, May 4.—Joseph Chamberlain, at a reception given by his brother, Richard Chamberlain, to his constituents yesterday evening at the Queen Anne's Mansion, London, declared he would never again ally himself with his former colleagues. Mr. Chamberlain, in the course of his address, spoke of the organization of a new party to be called the unionist or national party which through its titular suggestion and the strength of its leader would unite the dissident liberals and the tories. The tory party, he declared, was dead, therefore the radicals need not and would not scruple to join this new party, more particularly as the Gladstonians had become Parnellites pure and simple and had not advocated a single liberal measure. Mr. Chamberlain declared that he would be the last man to join such a party as the Gladstonians now were, and earnestly besought the radicals to follow his example in cutting the last tie that bound them to the sinking vessel.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES.

CONKLING'S WILL.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The will of the late Roscoe Conkling has just been discovered. It is dated Utica, May 1867, and leaves the entire estate, valued at a hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to Mrs. Conkling.

SCULLIONS AND GROOMS FOR BOULANGER

PARIS, May 5.—President Carnot said to-day that his tour in the south was the most satisfactory thing in the history of the third republic, and was proof absolute that the country holds to the parliamentarian system. Boulanger was the feeblest soap bubble, scullions and grooms apparently being his only supporters. Boulanger, when spoken to regarding the tour, said: "Nothing can be said of the manifestations, many cheered and many hissed. I believe that nothing but the prestige of the presidency enabled the president to secure one voice. The press has greatly underrated or ignored the counter manifestations."

FLOODS IN WISCONSIN.

ST. PAUL, May 5.—The Eau Claire and Chippewa rivers are still coming up. The city water works at Winona are flooded. The rains of the past 24 hours in Wisconsin have caused the river to rise again, and there is much danger now of a loss to loggers.

THE COWBOYS WIN.

MANCHESTER, Eng., May 5.—The international race of 10 miles, between the "Wild West" cowboys and horses, against English horses, was won by the former in 21 minutes.

BUCKET SHOPS KILLED HIM.

NEW YORK, May 5.—James P. Hunting, a well-known Wall street speculator, shot and killed himself yesterday. The cause is recent losses in the bucket shops.

A WARNING TO SMOKERS.

OMAHA, Neb., May 5.—A verdict of accidental death has been rendered by the coroner's jury in the case of seven persons who were burned to death early yesterday morning in a barn on the Freeze farm, near Arlington. Louis Grateluschen, who was employed as a laborer on the farm and who perished, was a great smoker and it is thought the fire caught from a spark from his pipe.

FIRE.

MILAN, O., May 5.—Fire has destroyed a large part of the town. Loss, $125,000.

BLAINE AND THE PRESIDENCY.

PITTSBURG, May 5.—Chairman Jones of the Republican National committee said to-day that he had no direct knowledge that Blaine had reconsidered his letter of declination, and had given his assent to the movement for the presidential nomination as stated by the Philadelphia Times. He believed every word he wrote in his letter.

DESERVES LYNCHING.

LOUISVILLE, May 5.—Jim King, a negro, charged with firing a trestle on the Newport & Mississippi Valley railroad, whereby a freight train was wrecked and the conductor killed, has arrived at Paducah in charge of the sheriff. There is talk of lynching King is a discharged section hand.

BLAINE'S DENIALS.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Congressman Milliken, of Maine, speaking to-day on the statement from Philadelphia that Blaine will not refuse the nomination, said: "It is an absurd sensation. It is wholly without foundation. I shall be surprised, and disapointed as well, if Mr. Blaine writes another letter regarding the political outlook prior to the meeting of the Chicago convention.

THIS AFTERNOON'S DESPATCHES.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., May 5.—In the sculling match to-day, over the Parametta course, between Peter Kemp, Australian, and Edward Hanlan, Canadian, Kemp won by 5 lengths.

FOR LIFE.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Thomas Bateman, private soldier, who shot and killed Sergeant Sophar at Presidio last August, was this morning sentenced to imprisonment for life in the state prison at San Quentin.

IMPROVING.

BERLIN, May 5.—The emperor is stronger to-day, and walked in the orangery. The fever is lessened, but doctors say they do not expect it to subside entirely.

IRISH LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

DUBLIN, May 5.—The Belfast Whig states that Gladstone gave an audience to three Parnellite members of parliament Thursday. Lord Rosebury was also present. The subject discussed was a proposal to draft an Irish local government scheme as a stepping stone to home rule.

LIMITING PAPAL INTERFERENCE.

DUBLIN, May 5.—At the request of Catholic members of parliament the Lord Mayor of London convened a meeting to-day for the purpose of discussing the pope's rescript resolutions adopted, traversing statements by which the pope justified rescript, and assuring the pope of unalterable attachment to him in his spiritual capacity, but firmly, respectfully and emphatically refusing to recognize his right to intervene in Irish politics. Meetings will be held throughout West Clare to-morrow to protest against the papal rescript, on the ground that the pope is ignorant of the sufferings of the people of Clare.

MURDERER LYNCHED.

ST. HELENA, Cal., May 5.—John Wright, who shot and killed Budd Vann on the 22d ult., was taken from jail and lynched this morning. About 1 o'clock a crowd of masked men went to the house of Justice Elgin, who had charge of the keys of the jail, and compelled him to give them up. They proceeded to the jail and quietly removed Wright, who quaked with fright, and in fifteen minutes Wright was standing on Main street bridge, which was to be his scaffold. The leader called for a rope and one of the men drew a large coil from under his coat with the noose prepared. The noose was tightly drawn around the murderer's neck and the next instant his lifeless body was dangling at the end of a rope. Young Vann was returning home with some friends on the morning stated above, and, when opposite the house occupied by Wright's sister, one of the party threw a rock through one of the windows. Wright, who happened to be in the house at the time, picked up a revolver and fired into the crowd, killing Vann.

OPEN PORTS AND CHOLERA.

LIMA, May 5.— The government has declared Peruvian ports open to Chilan traffic, with the exception of the ports between Valparaiso and Antofagosta, in which some cases of cholera are still reported.

DEFENCE BILL.

LONDON, May 5.—The British national defence bill which the government will offer in parliament provides for facilitating the summoning of yeomen and volunteers, and gives the government precedence on railways for naval and military purposes, without being obliged to go to extreme steps of taking possession of roads. It also empowers them to make requisition for horses and vehicles, for which county courts shall determine the recompense.

CHOLERA EPIDEMIC.

MADRID, May 5.—An epidemic prevails in this city. It is feared the disease is of choleraic nature. Its spread is attributed to the extreme heat and impure milk.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

Daily British Columbian

Saturday Evening, May 5, 1888.

When it was announced some months ago that 2,000,000 people had been drowned in China by the overflow of the Yellow River, the figures were so astounding that many people believed there had been some mistake. Advices by mail, however, confirm the first report. The breaking of the river over an embankment flooded thousands of miles of low lands which were thickly populated. Some large cities, and hundreds of smaller ones, were entirely swept away, and deep lakes now stand where fertile fields and busy industries a few months ago gave promise of solid prosperity. Since the terrible disaster the work of repairing the great breach has been going on; but so great are the obstacles, and so large is the undertaking that it is now announced as probable that there is very little hope of completing the enterprise before the floods of the coming summer. The failure of this work will result in a large part of the most fertile and valuable district of Honan being left to the mercy of the flood, as nothing towards restoring these tracts of land to cultivation can be done until they have been secured against a repetition of the disaster. Late advices also contain details of the earthquake which was reported to have occurred at Yunnan in March, the bare fact of which was transmitted by telegraph to THE COLUMBIAN at the time. This disaster was also on a large scale, and is said to have been one of the severest ever known in China. The earthquake covered an area 170 miles in length by sixty in width, and it is officially stated that 4,000 lives were lost. When they go in for any excitement in China they are apt to do things on a pretty large scale.

We believe very few of our citizens have any idea of the extent to which building operations are being carried on in this city at the present time. Our business men go to and from their places of business from day to day, and seem to have no time to observe the changes which are taking place. It would be worth while for our citizens to excuse themselves from duty once in a while long enough to take a tramp through the streets and suburbs. Some of them would open their eyes with wonder. Everywhere one goes there are new buildings in course of erection, both small and great, and the sound of the hammer, the saw and the plane, greets one at every turn. A person standing on the public school lot can see eighteen houses in course of erection, all of which will be very respectable additions to the city. Away in the suburbs, also, new residences are rising up among the trees, and new streets and roads are demanded so as to enable people to reach their new homes. When it is remembered that this is the beginning of May it will be admitted that the indications of a very extensive boom in building operations this season are abundant. There is no lack of confidence in the future of our city. It is quite certain that as soon as the weather becomes fairly settled a large number of new brick stores will be commenced on the principal business streets. At present it is impossible to obtain bricks for building purposes; but the brick yards are already at work, and it may be expected that the demand for building materials of all kinds will very soon be supplied. Any person who considers the situation and surroundings of Westminster must come to the conclusion that our citizens have nothing to fear from their competitors elsewhere if they use well the advantages which nature has given them. It is a fact worth remembering and repeating that almost all great commercial cities in the world are situated on fresh water—almost all of them on rivers. The large cities on salt water may be counted on one's fingers. We have frequently mentioned the reasons why a fresh water harbor possesses so many advantages over salt water harbors, and these reasons need not now be repeated. There are two very important schemes now on hand which will add greatly to our commercial and material resources. The first and most important is the deepening of the mouth of the river so as to enable all classes of vessels to reach this city without inconvenience. The second, and scarcely less important, is the construction of the Westminster Southern Railway, and the erection of a railway and traffic bridge across the river at this city. We believe both these schemes will be carried successfully to completion within the near future; and the new stimulus which will thus be given to this city cannot be overestimated. There is no place in British Columbia more favorably situated for manufacturing than Westminster, and when we have ocean steamers coming right up to our wharves and trains from Puget Sound and California connecting here with the C. P. R., we shall speedily become the great provincial center of commerce and trade.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

Late Canadian News.

QUEBEC, Apr. 30.—The s.s. Vancouver arrived at Indian Cove, Levis, yesterday. The ice in the river is so heavy she was unable to come up to the city. It is feared she may not be able to get here for a couple of days. She has nearly 1000 passengers on board, most of whom will be taken off in tugs.

The senate private bills committee to-day reported the petition of W. H. Middleton for divorce from his wife on the ground of adultery with Hamilton, the six months notice required having expired on Saturday. The bill will be introduced this afternoon, read a first time and then stands for two weeks. The necessary six months in the case of Mrs. Middleton's petition does not expire for three weeks yet.

The government organ this morning said: "The Missisquoi election was carried by anti-Catholic and anti-French fanaticism. Mercier is consequently justified in refusing to give a seat in the cabinet to the English Protestant element which persists in rejecting the candidates of the national party."

KINGSTON, Apr. 30.—Knight and Vance, charged with passing counterfeit money, were committed to jail to stand their trial at the assizes. Both men have confessed. Out of work, they accepted a scheme for passing off counterfeits. They bought in Detroit $500 in stocks for $150. Kingston was the first place visited. Here and in Toronto they passed off all their green goods.

MONTREAL, May 1.—The Allan str. Circassian was towed into Quebec disabled to-day.

The Protestant insane asylum will be commenced next month.

TORONTO, May 1.—A deputation from Port Hope have examined H. M. Arthur's designs for a monument to the late Col. Williams and report favorably. The statue is to be of bronze, eight feet six inches in height, on a pedestal of gray granite. The design is very spirited and shows Williams leading the men to the charge, his right hand holding a raised sword and his head turned to the left urging the men to victory. The monument will cost $5,500, and will be publicly unveiled on Oct. 6th at Port Hope.

They Never Fail.—Mr. S. M. Boughner, Langton, writes: "For about two years I was troubled with Inward Piles, but by using Parmelee's Pills, I was completely cured, and although four years have elapsed since then they have not returned." Parmelee's Pills are antibilious and a specific for the cure of Liver and Kidney Complaints, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Headache, Piles, etc., and will regulate the secretions and remove all bilious matter.

Pimples, Boils,

And Carbuncles result from a debilitated, impoverished, or impure condition of the blood. Ayer's Sarsaparilla prevents and cures these eruptions and painful tumors, by removing their cause; the only effectual way of treating them.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has prevented the usual course of Boils, which have pained and distressed me every season for several years.—G. Scales, Plainville, Mich.

I was badly troubled with Pimples on the face; also with a discoloration of the skin, which showed itself in ugly dark patches. No external treatment did more than temporary good. Ayer's Sarsaparilla effected and I have not been troubled since.—F. W. Boddy, River st., Lowell, Mass.

I was troubled with Boils, and my health was much impaired. I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in due time, the eruptions all disappeared, and my health was completely restored.—John R. Elkins, Editor Stanley Observer, Albemarle, N. C.

I was troubled, for a long time, with a tumor which appeared on my face in ugly Pimples and Blotches. Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me. I consider it the best blood purifier in the world.—Charles H. Smith, North Craftsbury, Vt.

TELEGRAM.

OTTAWA, 27th March, 1888.

TO LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR OF BRITISH COLUMBIA,
VICTORIA.

Your Government should issue public notice cautioning persons going on Sealing expeditions to refrain from assertion of their rights by force, and from taking on board arms and ammunition in excess of their usual requirements. The whole matter is engaging the attention of Her Majesty's Government and forms the subject of diplomatic negotiations now in progress. Any intemperate action in the meanwhile would be most detrimental to British Columbian interests and might lead to serious complications and be followed by grave consequences to those concerned.

This Association merits the confidence the Public is reposing in it from the following FACTS:—

The Security offered to policy holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada.

It has no schemes of insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.

Its policies give superior advantages over three years, and more favorably after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.

What Drunkenness Will do for You.

If you wish to be always thirsty, be a drunkard; the oftener you drink, the oftener you will want to.

If you wish to prevent your friends from raising you in the world, be a drunkard, and that will defeat all their efforts.

If you would effectually counteract your attempts to do well, be a drunkard, and you will not be disappointed.

If you wish to repel the endeavors of the whole human race to raise you to character, credit, and prosperity, be a drunkard, and you will most assuredly triumph.

If you are determined to be poor, be a drunkard, and you will be ragged and penniless to your heart's content.

If you wish to starve your family, be a drunkard, and then you will consume the means of their support.

If you would be imposed upon by knaves, be a drunkard, for that will make their task easy.

If you wish to be robbed, be a drunkard, and the thief will do it with greater safety.

If you wish to deaden your senses, be a drunkard, and you will soon be more stupid than an ass.

If you are resolved to kill yourself, be a drunkard, and you will hit upon a sure mode of self-destruction.

If you would expose both your folly and your secrets, be a drunkard; they will run out as the liquor runs in.

If you think you are strong, be a drunkard, and you will soon find yourself subdued by so powerful an enemy.

If you would get rid of your money without knowing how, be a drunkard, and you will do it effectually.

If you are hated by your family and friends, be a drunkard, and you will soon be more disagreeable.

If you would be a pest to society, be a drunkard, and society will avoid you as an infection.

If you would smash windows, break the peace, get your bones broken, tumble under horses and carts, and be put in the lock-up, be a drunkard, and it will be strange if you don't succeed.

If you wish all your prospects in life to be clouded, be a drunkard, and they will soon be dark enough.

If you would destroy your body, be a drunkard, as drunkenness is the mother of disease.

If you wish to ruin the soul, be a drunkard, that you may be excluded from heaven.

The Drink Evil.

The Chicago Western Catholic says: In the Catholic parishes and amongst the Catholic people, the wrong of drunkenness is more apparent than in any other place or amid any other people. In the first place, the Catholics as a mass are poor, and the money used for drink is the money needed for the necessities of life. When the man or woman drinks, the children go without shoes or clothing, and, being ragged, are not fit to go to school or to church. The result of this neglect of education soon shows itself in want of self-respect — evil associations are formed and then crime follows. The Catholic man and woman who bring a faithful child into this world—and then take the money necessary for making that child's life beautiful in every sense—corporally by proper food and clothing—and spiritually by education, fitting for this life and the next, and spend it in satisfying their own low, grovelling taste for liquor, are worse than any other being created by God—worse, infinitely worse than the devil who tempted our first parents, for he set no bad example: he simply advised an intellectual being to sin, whilst they trained an unformed intelligence to walk in the paths of hell.

Voices From the Past.

The following statements of two of the noted characters of former times are worthy of notice: "Dr. Johnson," says Boswell, "Recommended me to drink water only, for you are then sure not to get drunk, whereas if you drink wine you are never sure." "Except thou desire to hasten thy end," said Sir Walter Raleigh, "take this for a general rule: that thou never add any artificial heat; and the sooner thou dost begin to help nature, the sooner she will forsake thee and leave thee to trust altogether to art."

At a recent meeting in Lexington, Ky., the large opera house was filled to overflowing to hear Mr. Geo. W. Bain lecture in his own home, where he has lectured many times before. A prophet is not without honor in his own country.

The Astors, of New York, who own five hundred houses and large real estate, have recently decided not to rent to liquor dealers. The great Trinity church is also free from the curse. Prohibition is marching on.

A BROTHER'S STRATAGEM.

There is no lovelier village in the Empire State than Franconia, though this is not its real name, neither shall I give the real names of the characters who will figure in the following story, though they are real people and yet upon the stage of action.

"I am so sorry, mother, that Mary is so deceived in young Morton," said Henry Golding, as he came into Mrs. Golding's pleasant parlor one summer evening.

"What do you mean, my son?" asked the mother, looking up from her sewing. "I had always supposed that Mr. Morton was a gentleman. He certainly belongs to one of our best families."

"That is true, mother dear, but this 'gentleman' of 'one of our first families' is at this very moment half-drunk at the hotel and acting like a fool."

"O Harry! are you not misinformed?" said the mother, looking up with a horrified expression.

"My eyes do not deceive me, mother," the son replied. "I have known Morton's failing for a long time, but Mary is as firm as a rock. She will not believe anything to the prejudice of her lover."

Mrs. Golding was sorely troubled.

"Drunkenness is such a shameful vice," she said. "When a man once degrades himself so much, what can restore him? To think of our sweet Mary a drunkard's wife. Oh! I cannot, cannot bear it." And the tears fell plentifully. "Do not distress yourself, mother," said the young man. "Perhaps we can save her."

"Sister Mollie!" he called up the stairway, for Mary was writing in her room. "Won't you please come and walk with your poor, tired brother this evening? The moon will be soon up, and the air is delightful."

"Yes, Harry, I will come," said the young girl, tripping down the stairs with a scarf thrown lightly about her shoulders. "Poor boy! He confines himself to closely to his business."

The brother and sister sauntered slowly down the village street.

"The moonlight is so beautiful upon the water, sister. We will go down to the river-side. See, Luna is just peeping above the tree-tops. How beautiful!"

But something else just then attracted Mary Golding's attention.

They were passing the hotel, and she heard her lovers voice amid the drunken clamor which filled the air.

Could that be Clarence?

In the glare of light she could see distinctly a tall, graceful young man tossing glass after glass of brandy down his throat. She heard profane and ribald words, such as she had never heard before, spoken in his well known voice. "O Harry! Do you you hear?" she gasped, clutching his arm for support. "Merciful Heaven! can that be Clarence Morton?"

"My dear sister, this is no new thing," said her brother, clasping his arm about her. "I have seen this too often to be surprised. Poor Clarence! What can he be thinking of to destroy himself?"

"And not only that, but do you see the young men about him? I am sorry, dear brother, but I must go home." And Mary Golding turned her steps homeward.

The moonlight upon the water was forgotten, and Harry Golding was singing a glad Te Deum in his heart that at last his loved sister saw her lover as others saw him.

A tall, broad-shouldered young man passed them as they walked silently along.

"Whither away, Barton? An armful of books, as usual," said Henry Golding. "Do you never rest?"

"Never before I am weary," replied the young man, bowing respectfully to Miss Mary. "I hope to graduate this term."

"A splendid young man," said Henry Golding to his sister when Mr. Barton had passed out of hearing. "He will make his mark in the world."

But Mary's heart was too full to heed her brother's words.

The studious young man had shown her marked attentions, but her heart had been pre-occupied and she scarcely knew him.

Clarence Morton was greatly astonished when, at his next visit to his betrothed wife, she gave him back his ring, saying:

"All is ended between us. I saw you last evening at the hotel."

He know too well that remonstrance or entreaty was useless, and left, growling that it was "deuced hard if a young fellow couldn't have a bit of fun."

The "bit of fun" lasted through Clarence Morton's worthless life, and he died unlamented and scarcely known, while the penniles young student has been for years one of the leading citizens of Franconia.

Mary Golding has for more than a score of years been the happy wife of Judge Barton, and has never ceased to be grateful for the success of her brother's stratagem.

Overworked Pall-Bearers.

There are men in Atlanta who carry a helpless arm at their sides as the result of acting as pall-bearers at the funeral of a friend. A metallic casket weighs about five hundred pounds; with a man's body enclosed over six hundred pounds. The handles by which the casket is carried are awkwardly placed and cruel to the hand. Pall-bearers as a rule are men of sedentary life and unaccustomed to lifting heavy weights. By carrying unevenly, the larger weight of the coffin is often thrown on one man. He will not drop it, and the result is an arm permanently sprained. It is notorious that two or three pall-bearers at each funeral suffered from the effect of it for days afterward. What should be done is this: Every undertaker should have four trained men to carry the coffin. These could do it easily and without the delay incident to the present method. The pall-bearers, wearing badges and crape, could follow the coffin walking, as testimony of thir love for the deceased and sympathey for the family. The change might be a shock at first, but the undertaker who inaugurates the custom will prevail at last.

Macaroni and Cheese.

Break the quantity of the macaroni needed for the family into hot water, and boil about fifteen minutes; then pour off the water, and put a layer into a deep dish; then a sprinkle of cracker crumbs, and some bits of broken or shaved (not grated) cheese. Season with salt, and so fill the dish, leaving space for a last or top layer of the cracker crumbs. Pour over all enough milk to moisten, and bake slowly for three-fourths of an hour. It is a dish fit for a king.

The grave air of patronage and superiority with which little children often regard babies is something delicious. A child whose age is to be counted in months seems very, very young to one who has reached the dignity of years. Said a visitor to a certain little girl:

"And how is the baby to-day, Flossie?"

"Mamma thinks he is a little better."

"Then he is not much better?"

"No, ma'am. He couldn't be very much better, you know, because he's such a little bit of a baby."

"It Saved My Life"

Is a common expression, often heard from those who have realized, by personal use, the curative powers of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. "I cannot say enough in praise of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, believing as I do that, but for its use, I should long since have died from lung troubles.—E. Bragdon, Palestine, Tex.

About six months ago I had a severe Hemorrhage of the Lungs, brought on by a distressing Cough, which deprived me of sleep and rest. I had used various cough balsams and expectorants, without obtaining relief. A friend advised me to try

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

I did so, and am happy to say that it helped me at once. By continued use this medicine cured my cough, and, I am satisfied, saved my life.—Mrs. E. Coburn, 18 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for over a year, and sincerely believe I should have been in my grave, had it not been for this medicine. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, for which I had almost despaired of ever finding a remedy.—D. A. McMullen, Windsor, Province of Ontario.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life. Two years ago I took a very severe Cold which settled on my lungs. I consulted physicians and took the remedies they prescribed, but failed to obtain relief until I began using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Two bottles of this medicine completely restored my health.—Lizzie M. Allen, West Lancaster, Ohio. ††

The steamer Rainbow left for Victoria this morning with fifteen tons of farm produce and a number of passengers.

It is now stated that the sculling contest between Paine and Ball will take place in Esquimalt harbor instead of Shawnigan lake.

The str. Irving arrived down from Chilliwhack this afternoon with 138 bales of hay, 31 packages butter and eggs, 7 calves and 20 passengers.

A lady writes: "I was enabled to remove the corns, root and branch, by the use of Holloway's Corn Cure." Others who have tried it have the same experience.

The chaingang has very nicely graded the lot on which the old gaol stood, and it is greatly improved. It is now ready for the erection of the new city hall.

A dispatch from Ottawa says that Judge King, of New Brunswick, is mentioned as probable successor to the late Judge Henry, of the Canadian Supreme court.

It is stated that a syndicate has purchased the Victoria Standard and will make it an independent evening paper. An independent paper is greatly needed in Victoria.

The fish market was supplied with a greater variety of fish to-day than for some months past. Among the display made at Vianen's were crabs, salmon, halibut, oolachans, trout, sturgeon and salmon trout.

Ayer's Pills are the best cathartic for correcting irregularities of the stomach and bowels. Gentle, yet thorough in their action, they cure constipation, stimulate the appetite and digestive organs, and strengthen the system.

The steamer Dunsmuir arrived from Nanaimo this afternoon with thirty tons of coal and Mrs. Mordon, Miss Willis, J. Engley, J. Hamilton, J. Nicholson, J. Buie, J. McLean, Lord, Sullivan, Ketchem, J. Elliott.

The provincial government is offering a bounty of $5 for the head of every wolf or panther killed in a settled district of the province. From July, 1883, till the first of this month the bounty was $2.50 for each head.

That feeling of weariness, so often experienced in the spring, results from a sluggish condition of the blood which, being impure, does not quicken with the changing season. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, by vitalizing and cleansing the blood, strengthens and invigorates the system.

The juryman, whose loss we chronicled yesterday, has recovered all the missing articles with the exception of the weather prediction. A diligent search is being made for the latter, and there is still good prospects for its recovery.

We have received from Messrs. Palmer & Rey, the well-known San Francisco dealers in printers' materials, a copy of their specimen book for 1888. The book is got up in excellent style, and shows a great variety of beautiful faces and forms.

Our enterprising contemporary, the Vancouver News, appears this morning as a six-page paper. The sheet has been considerably reduced in size, and the additional two pages add altogether something over a column to its aggregate dimensions. The News is certainly one of our most enterprising provincial exchanges. The COLUMBIAN wishes it abundant success.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

Col. Hamilton's Eccentricities.

A few days ago an item appeared in this paper stating that Col. P. S. Hamilton had been placed in charge of an officer at Winnipeg under the belief that he is insane. Rev. W. B. Seccombe, who left several days ago for the east, happened to be on the same train as the colonel, and from Fort William (head of Lake Superior) he writes as follows under date of April 30: "Col. Hamilton has been a source of considerable trouble to us. At Wapella he got off, and they had to stop the train and go back for him. He refused to get on, but the conductor collared him and put him on by force. At Moosomin the conductor got one of the mounted police to take charge of him on the train. Several times he grabbed his valise and coat and wanted to get off the train and walk, believing that he could walk faster than the train was going. We had to watch him all the time. The poor fellow looks most wretched." Mr. Seccombe says he found snow still on the ground about Fort William, and Thunder Bay, at Port Arthur, was frozen solid.

Seal Fishing.

Mr. Thos. Mowat's trip to Victoria resulted in his obtaining much valuable information anent the seal fisheries, and the results of his investigations will, no doubt, prove of much assistance to the fisheries department in the negotiations being carried on at present in connection with the Behring Sea seizures. The most of the information obtained cannot be made public at present, being very important and the publication of which might do more harm than good. Mr. Mowat could not find any positive proof that the sealers are arming to resist the United States revenue cutters, though it is reported some of the schooners have laid in a stock of dynamite shells. They will carry the usual number of men and arms, but beyond that nothing definite could be learned. The sealers who have returned from the west coast of Vancouver Island report the seals to be more numerous than for many years past, while a few declare they have never been so plentiful. The claim of the Alaskan Commercial Company, that all seals go to the islands of St. George and St. Paul to pup, has been disproved by the positive information from different sources that the pups are numerous during the season from Cape Flattery northwards to Behring Sea. The pups are frequently washed ashore at Cape Flattery after a storm, and the Indians often capture and rear them. The American government is endeavoring to arrange a close season for seal fishing, which, if accomplished, will, in the opinion of British Columbia sealers, practically kill our seal fishing industry, as the season opens much earlier in the waters along the coast of Oregon, Washington Territory and British Columbia than in Behring's Sea. All sealers clearing from Victoria are warned by the custome authorities that operations in Behring Sea will be carried on at their own risk during the coming season, or until the negotiations in progress between the two governments are ended.

Worms derange the whole system. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator deranges worms, and gives rest to the sufferer. It only costs twenty-five cents to try it and be convinced.

The Queen at the Hot Springs.

Special to the Columbian.

ST. ALICE HOTEL, May 5.—Capt. Cooper's steamer Fairy Queen, from Westminster, arrived at the Hot Springs all right last night. She will be quite an addition to the attractions of British Columbia's great watering place.

From Surrey.

(Correspondence of the Columbian.)

The ranchers are picking up courage again and think they will make a fortune out of their farms yet, and several speak of getting married next fall if crops turn out good; some of them are going to wait till they make a stake out of the railway that, in the near future, will pass through "this Surrey of ours." But one road in particular is getting so well trumped down that it looks as though we may have a wedding before a hundred years.—Our custom house officer, Mr. Chantrell, has been doing his duty towards one or two of the settlers who were found carrying American goods into British Columbia.—Mr. Alex. Murchison has purchased a first-class outfit and will run a stage between Aldergrove, Langley and Westminster, leaving the former for town on Monday and returning on Tuesday. We all hope Alex. will do well, as he tries to have everything as comfortable as possible for travellers.—Miss Gussie DeBeck, of Westminster, was visiting friends in Elgin and Clover Valley last week. Miss Dora and Maudie Haines, of the city, are visiting in Aldergrove.

Mr. G. W. Macully, Pavilion Mountain, B. C., writes: "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is the best medicine I ever used for Rheumatism. Nearly every winter I am laid up with Rheumatism, and have tried nearly every kind of medicine without getting any benefit, until I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It has worked wonders for me, and I want another supply for my friends, &c."

Personal.

Miss S. Bowes, of Vancouver, is in the city.

H. Shuttleworth, of Hope, is a guest at the Colonial.

J. A. Webster is expected to return to the city to-morrow.

C. G. Major returned from Victoria via Vancouver last evening.

Capt. Smallfield came over from Victoria last night on the steamer Rainbow.

H. V. Edmonds went over to Vancouver this morning and returned this afternoon.

Dr. DeWolf Smith returned to day from Victoria where he has been attending the meeting of the medical council.

Miss Martin came over from Vancouver this afternoon to spend Sunday with her mother, Mrs. F. X. Martin, who is still undergoing treatment at St. Mary's hospital.

Mrs. J. L. Stamford and children, accompanied by Miss Steele, left today for a three months visit to their former home in Dundas, Ont. They were accompanied to the junction by a number of friends.

Mr. Alex. Ewen greatly enjoyed his visit to Ottawa but returns more pleased than ever with British Columbia. He says Mr. Chisholm has been in good health all winter and is looking well. Mr. Chisholm has been working hard in the interests of this district generally and the city of Westminster in particular, and his efforts are expected to prove of much benefit to the whole constituency.

Col. McGregor, who has been spending the past two weeks in Victoria, turned up rather unexpectedly this afternoon and set at rest the various conflicting rumors of which the street has been full for some time. The colonel returned alone, and refuses to be interviewed with respect to the secret mission which took him to the provincial capital. His many friends will be glad to learn that he comes back robust in all his mental and physical powers.

The cheapest medicine in use is Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, because so very little of it is required to effect a cure. For croup, diphtheria, and diseases of the lungs and throat, whether used for bathing the chest or throat, for taking internally or inhaling, it is a matchless compound.

Late Despatches.

PARNELL'S WISHES.

LONDON, May 4.—The Dublin Freeman's Journal says that Mr. Parnell will make an important address at the Eighty Club dinner on the 8th instant. Mr. Parnell believes, it says, that the agrarian movement in Ireland may be conducted with sufficient effect without a collision with the religious feelings of Irishmen. He desires that the Irish people shall give due weight to the wishes of the vatican in matters of faith and morals, while at the same time insisting on their claim that politically Irish opinion and judgment must be supreme. Mr. Parnell's health, the paper says, is improved, though it is still necessary for him to be very careful. He hopes to be fully restored in a few months.

AN INSULT TO RUSSIA.

PARIS, May 4.—The directors of the Comptoir d'Escompte have failed to negotiate the proposed Russian loan of 500,000,000 roubles, the Russian authorities having indignantly refused to accede to the demand for special security which has hitherto been demanded only in the case of Turkish applications for loans.

A BLIGHTING MONOPOLY.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Secretary Vilas to-day sent to congress a report from the governor of Alaska giving the result of his inquiries into the operation of the Alaska seal and fur company, the Alaska Commercial Company. Governor Swineford shows that the fur trade is practically monopolized by the Alaska Commercial Company, which corporation, he says, had not confined its operations to the seal islands leased to it by the government, but has gathered to itself about all there is valuable in the fur trade in the whole country. He describes how the natives, on pain of starvation, are kept at the mercy of the company, and how the paid agents and lobbyists of the corporation are kept at the national capital to oppose any and every effort which may be made to promote the welfare of Alaska, and says there has been a flagrant violation of the law and executive orders in regard to the importation and sale of breech loading firearms.

The government, Governor Swineford adds, is responsible for the wrongs which are being suffered by the inoffensive natives, the people of the Aleutian Islands, and the whole of northwestern Alaska, and if it cannot legally be rescinded, the lease to and contract with the company ought not to be renewed. In the opinion of the governor it would be better that every fur seal be exterminated than that such a blighting monopoly should be perpetuated. Secretary Fairchild has informed the house that the lease of the right to take fur seals in Alaska for a term of 20 years from May 1st, 1870, was made on January 31st, 1870, to the Alaska Commercial Company, a corporation of California, and that the records, so far as he is advised, don't show any violation of the terms and conditions of the lease.

Mr. T. C. Berchard, public school teacher, Norland, writes: "During the fall of 1881 I was much troubled with Biliousness and Dyspepsia, and part of the time was unable to attend to the duties of my profession. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure was recommended to me, and I have much pleasure in stating that I was entirely cured by using one bottle. I have not had an attack of my old complaint since, and have gained fifteen pounds in weight."

A SUCCESSFUL RESULT.—"Sirs, I was troubled for five years with Liver Complaint. I used a great deal of doctor's medicine, which did me no good. I was getting worse all the while until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters. After taking four bottles I am now well. I can also recommend it for dyspepsia." Miss Hattie L. Swick, St. Williams P. O., Ont.
