Daily British Columbian

Friday Evening, March 18, 1887.

Judge Richard A. Jones has been installed into his new office as chief justice of the supreme court of Washington Territory, and successor to Judge Greene. We are sure every person who has observed the conduct of Judge Greene during his term of office will regret his retirement. His charges to grand juries, and his judgments will be remembered as the expression of a mind of high culture, keen discrimination, and animated by the loftiest purposes. It is said that Judge Jones is a most talented and exemplary man, but it is to be regretted that the wheel of political fortune ever should throw off such a man as Judge Greene.

Party Politics Again.

In yesterday's issue our correspondent "Lib. Con." returns to the discussion of the advisability of organizing a Conservative association in this district. Speaking for himself and W. J. W., he resents what he is pleased to call the "strictures" of the COLUMBIAN and endeavors to persuade our readers that the proposed association will be one of those innocent organizations which has for its sole object the advancement of the public good. If this is the object aimed at by our correspondents we should be very glad to give them every possible assistance, but we are afraid it would become necessary for them to revise their programme and adopt a name for their society less suggestive of partisanship. If it is really the purpose of this scheme to make the voters' lists as complete and per fect as possible, and to disseminate honest views on questions of political economy, let us have it by all means. The public mind needs enlightenment. Few persons are aware how limited is the political knowledge of the great mass of the electors, and it is plain that persons cannot cast their votes intelligently unless they have an intelligent apprehension of the principles and aims of the candidates in whose interest their votes are cast. But we have no reason to hope that the organization which our correspondents propose to set up will be any more patriotic or any less partisan than similar organizations in the east, where the chief purpose of them has been to devise and carry out schemes for the success of their party by means either fair or foul. It is very right and proper for a party association to see that the names of all its eligible friends and allies are placed on the lists, and that all names of its opponents which should not be there are struck off; but is there any guarantee that its endeavors will stop at that? Will not unscrupulous partisans, who too often obtain control of these organizations, go a step further and endeavor to strike off as many names of the opposite party as possible, and put on as many of their own as they can, without stopping to consider whether the extent of their manipulations is being measured by fairness or by force? That has been the tendency of party politics in the east; and we do not limit the application of these remarks to Conservative associations, as our correspondent intimated yesterday, but extend it to the associations of both parties. As a rule the leading spirits in these societies are persons who have some personal end to serve, or who are the tools of another who seeks to serve his personal ends through them; and the result is too often a kind of machine politics out of which eventually grow Tweed Rings and Pacific Scandals and timber limit grabs, and a host of other kindred evils. Our correspondent says we have party politics here already in the worst form. With this we do not agree. There certainly was very little of party politics in the late contest in this riding. One of the candidates came out as an "independent" supporter of Sir John and the other as "independent" of any party! Where, then, was the party politics! The lines were not drawn on politics any more than on questions of social reform. If we take the addresses of the two candidates as a fair expression of their views on other public questions, we find no disagreement at all. In Victoria party issues were squarely brought into the contest, and we are sure no person on the mainland wishes to import the kind of fishwife weapons by which the battle was fought there. Let us repeat: if the object of our correspondents is patriotic, let the organization be free from party, and let it charge itself with the duty of perfecting the voters' lists—putting on all names of persons entitled to vote, without respect to party—and with the equally important duty of furnishing the electors with materials by means of which they may keep themselves posted on the political questions of the past and the present, so as to enable them intelligently to cast their votes as they ought to cast them whenever the opportunity presents itself. Then our correspondents may call not only upon Conservatives, but upon all, to come to their aid—and they may count upon the COLUMBIAN's hearty co-operation.

1873. GRIP! 1887.

CANADA'S COMIC JOURNAL

GREAT IMPROVEMENTS FOR 1887.

THE AIM OF "GRIP" is to set forth, in an impartial and independent manner, the passing events of Canadian political and social life. Its Cartoons speak more definitely and more pleasingly than whole columns of editorial. In this pungent, easily appreciable, and artistic style of presenting a subject, the whole situation is revealed at a glance. The success of Grip shows how well this fact is appreciated—its Cartoons on the passing political events of the country being even more eagerly sought after than the chaste and humorous letter-press of the paper,—though the latter is equal to that of any similar publication on the continent.

The publishers of Grip are making extensive improvements for 1886. The old cover is to be discarded, and the journal will hereafter comprise 12 pages, and be printed on heavy toned and calendered paper,—every number being so artistically executed as to compare favorably with the best papers on the continent. The advts. will be compressed and more systematically arranged; while similar improvements will be made as to the letterpress. A new and handsome design will adorn the title page; while the Cartoons will certainly not suffer from extensive improvements in the artistic department.

The price of Grip will hereafter be $2 a year, which is lower than that of any paper of its kind in America,—most of them selling for $5. Single numbers of Grip will be 10 cents.

Twice a year, at Midsummer and Christmas, a beautiful special number will be issued, the number of pages being increased, and pleasing features introduced, particulars of which will be given in preceding issues. These numbers will be presented to subscribers without extra charge.

JUSTICE FOR IRELAND.

Gladstone on the Question—The Chance the Conservatives Lost—Why He was Defeated in His Plans

Cherishing the Hope that all Would be Right.

LONDON, Mar. 17.—Gladstone delivered a speech at the dinner to-night, given by the Yorkshire members of the house of commons. He began by referring to the fact his belief was that favor of home rule was growing even among its former opponents. He counselled Lord Salisbury to waken from his sleep if he wished to waken from his nightmare. The premier, however, said Gladstone persisted in sleeping. Gladstone maintained it was impossible to deal with other questions until the Irish question was cleared out of the way. He said· "I wish to say a word regarding what I conceive to be my obligation toward different parties and sections we have to deal with. In starting we agreed that if the Irish should ask effective self-government in affairs properly and exclusively Irish, subject to the unquestionable supremacy of the Imperial parliament, should she extend her demands beyond this limit? I frankly tell you I would no longer promote her cause, but so long as the demands she makes are just, and within bounds and moderation, I will stand fast to her cause in what remains to me of political life. (Cheers). It was our duty to acknowledge whatever approaches the Conservatives made to recognition of the real state of the facts and of the prospects before us. Major Saunderson recently said the settlement of the Irish question was eminently satisfactory. It approves in the minds of the extreme men their movement in the right direction. We should leave open the way for Conservatives to pursue the right policy in this matter. I hoped they would deal liberally with Ireland, but they missed the chance when they had it. I know they received our suggestions of assistance as insults, but lessons of all great reforms teach them they ought to receive our well-meant offer to assist them, against the refractory members of their party, with patient tolerance." Referring to the defeat of his measure in parliament Gladstone said: "As regards the main proposals we had in view of the futile talk of receding but as regarding those improvements it should be a pleasurable duty to seek them. I cherish the hope the variety of points on which improvement might be made on proposals we submitted to parliament, and that these points will multiply as we draw near to the time, probably still distant, when we can be in condition to give any practicable effect to our political views. One point which helped our defeat and especially caused difficulty among our best friends, was the proposal for the use of Imperial credit by the Irish landlords. Well, let me say this: "I have the firmest conviction we never proposed to risk sixpence but that does not decide the case. My duty is to consider whether the proposal is essential to any sound plan of policy for Ireland. I at once tell you this, and make confession, that in our proposal in behalf of Irish landlords we went to the furthest point in their behalf and upon two grounds: partly because we knew they had been petted children of England who now, as it were, was turning on them, in some degree, and partly because we wished to give our opponents every inducement for a great and speedy settlement of the question. I cherish the hope it will be perfectly possible to devise a plan for the safe purchase of estates in Ireland.

The charges made by the Philadelphia Times against the city editor of the Press of that city, A. H. Hoeckley, whom the Times accuses of receiving a weekly bribe from gamblers, has created a big sensation in newspaper circles there. Hoeckley wrote a letter to the editor of the Times in which he says: "I am astonished to see in the Times charges affecting my character. They are absolutely false."

N. McRae, Wyebridge, writes: "I have sold large quantities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil; it is used for colds, sore throat, croup, &c., and in fact for any affection of the throat it works like magic. It is a sure cure for burns, wounds, and bruises."

The following Business Directory relates only to persons whose advertisements appear in the DAILY COLUMBIAN. WHAT PHYSICIANS SAY ABOUT THE STARR KIDNEY PAD.

"Treatment by Absorption has for some time been recognized by Medical Men to be the most simple and effectual means of conveying to Diseased Organs, "Curatives," but in cases of Kidney Disease and Complaints attendant thereon, successful treatment was practicably impossible until the introduction of the Starr Kidney Pad. It costs less than a single prescription and is immeasurably more decisive and effective than any quantity of internal Medicinal dosing. Worn immediately over the seat of Disease, its curative properties become absorbed by the diseased and enfeebled Organs, continuously and directly, as required to insure in return their healthy action and original vigour. It is comfortable to the patient and pleasant in its effects, and cures when nothing else can. The Starr Kidney Pad accomplishes positive, decisive results. A more valuable discovery as a true remedy for Kidney Diseases was never made.—Medical Gazette

The Starr Kidney Pad, manufactured in Toronto, is a permanent sure cure for diseases, disorders and ailments of the Kidneys, Bladder and urinary secretive system, or attendant complaints, causing pain in the small of the back, sides, etc., producing urinary disorders, such as too frequent, scanty, difficult, painful or copious micturition, inability of retention and sedimentary urine, dropsical symptoms, etc., denoting the presence in the system of diseases common to the urinary secretive organs—known as gravel, catarrh of the bladder and passages, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, piles, nervous debility, etc. Send for pamphlet to LANGLEY & CO., Wholesale Agents, Victoria. MR. G. ROBERTSON,

Representing Goldie & McCulloch,
Galt, Ont.

SIR.—We the undersigned having witnessed the terrible fire which wiped out of existence the young city of Vancouver, on the 13th inst., have, after the fire, examined the safes sold by you, some of which were put to the most severe test, having been surrounded by large quantities of lard and bacon, and we are pleased to testify to the remarkable manner in which every Safe sold by you preserved its contents, not only books and papers, but also thousands of dollars in paper money were taken out in perfect condition. We can, therefore, with the greatest confidence, recommend them as thoroughly fire proof:

THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN Printing Company

(LIMITED.)

ON THE 10TH OF JANUARY, 1887, the COLUMBIAN Newspaper and Printing Concern was purchased by a joint stock company composed of citizens of New Westminster, to be known as the "British Columbian Printing Co., Limited." The concern has been for nearly a year owned and controlled by the British Columbia Stationery and Printing Company, of New Westminster, Victoria and Vancouver. The object of the new company is to continue the publication of the BRITISH COLUMBIAN newspaper and carry on a general printing and publishing concern, controlled entirely by those whose individual interest it will be to promote the development, especially of the Mainland. There will be no slackening of the energy hitherto displayed in the management of the establishment, and its patrons may rely upon receiving full value for their money. The COLUMBIAN will continue to be entirely independent in both Dominion and provincial politics, and will devote itself to the advancement of such schemes as may be considered in the public interest. The concern is now entirely separate from any other business, the book and stationery establishment in this city having been taken over by Mr. T. R. Pearson, who will continue to carry it on in his own name and for his own benefit. It is desirable that a daily newspaper should be maintained in this city, and the new company asks for public patronage on the ground that it is engaged in an enterprise calculated to promote the public welfare. It asks that the COLUMBIAN be judged on its own merits and supported only so long as its policy is consistent with its professions. In consequence of this business change all accounts due the concern must be settled without delay so that the books of the former company may be adjusted and closed. A HOME COMPANY.

This Association merits the confidence the Public is reposing in it from the following FACTS:—

The Security offered to policy holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada,

It has no schemes of insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.

Its policies are indisputable after three years, and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.

Liberal Conditions as to Residence and Travel.

Intelligence has been received in Portsmouth, England, of the supposed loss of a Japanese cruiser, which was carrying two 35-ton guns built in England for the Japanese government. The death of Capt. Eads, which took place lately, may have the effect of killing his great scheme for the construction of a ship railway across the isthmus of Panama. For many years the captain devoted his best energies to this scheme, and he succeeded in working out the details with remarkable clearness. It is to be hoped some capitalist may take up the project.

The steam yacht Namouna, belonging to James Gordon Bennett, of New York, passed through the Suez canal on the night of January 29th in 13 hrs. and 52 mins. It had the electric lights and being a yacht was exempt from the rule limiting the speed to 16 kilometres an hour. This rule makes 16 hours the minimum time for ordinary vessels and passages of 17 hours with electric lights are now frequently made. The yacht arrived in Singapore last week.

THROUGH FREIGHT. — The first through freight arrived yesterday in the shape of a car of sundries from Montreal and a car of flour from Winnipeg. This freight was blockaded a short distance west of Revelstoke by some smaller slides and consequently arrived ahead of the mails.

ADOPTED.—Mr. T. Davie has presented in the legislature a report on the New Westminster and Southern railway bill which has been adopted.

HOME RULE. — Mr. W. Norman Bole, M.P.P., has given notice that he will introduce a motion relating to memorializing the Imperial government in favor of home rule for Ireland.

FOR THE EAST.—Senator McInnes left Victoria for the East to-day via the Sound and the Northern Pacific. Parliament is summoned for the 18th April and the Senator wishes to be present.

A BELLICOSE COUNCIL.—The Victoria council at its last two meetings has terminated rather abruptly. At the last meeting the members objected to the ruling of the chair and rushed from the meeting room.

A BAD PLACE.—There is a short piece of Begbie street, south of Columbia street, that ought to receive the immediate attention of the council. For months it has been, and it is now, in a frightful condition. It ought to be gravelled.

A CREDITABLE ISSUE.—To-day's COLUMBIAN is indeed a creditable issue. By reference to its columns our readers will find over 3000 words of the Associated Press telegraphic report, which is more than any other paper in the province publishes.

SEEDS AND PLANTS.—Attention is called to the advertisement of G. A. McTavish, North Saanich, which appears in another column. Flowers, shrubs and plants grown in British Columbia will be found equal to those produced anywhere else, and the offers made by Mr. McTavish are certainly very liberal.

FISH.—The continuous cold nights are proving very detrimental to the salmon fishing. The catch this week is behind the average so far, considering the time of the year. On Tuesday night some of the boats captured fourteen fish, but since then they have caught none. Last evening was very unfavorable. Many of the fishermen suffered intensely from the frost which prevailed, which some of them say was so severe as to stiffen their nets the instant they were lifted above the water.

BREVITY.—In these days, when so many duties are crowded into one brief life, the value of abridgment has come to be recognized, and the tendency is everywhere toward brevity. There are very few persons living in this city, or, indeed, in the province, who have not had reason to regret that the city's name was originally made so unnecessarily long. If it had been Westminster without the qualifying adjective, it wouldn't have been so bad; but "New Westminster," when one comes to write it many times in a day, seems to be longer at every repetition. We beg to suggest that the adjective be dropped, and that the name become simply "Westminster." There could be no confusion occasioned by the change, for there is no other place of the same name in the province, or, we believe in the Dominion. It would be a very great comfort, we are sure, to all persons, if the suggested abbreviation were generally adopted.

RIVER MAILS.—Persons coming from up-river complain that all last week they were without mails from any direction whatever, and very much dissatisfaction exists on that account. During the time when no mails were going on the cars, the str. Adelaide made two trips up the river as far as Chilliwhack, but took no mail. Persons residing along the river think that the post-office authorities ought to have sent at least one or two mails by the steamer. The cost would have been very trifling in comparison to the accommodation that would be afforded. The post-office authorities say, however, that they were in daily expectation that the railway would resume the mail service, and did not feel at liberty to employ any outside service without definite information as to the length of time the blockade would continue. But it seems to us the inspector ought to have demanded definite information from the railway people, and seen that the mail service was not unnecessarily interrupted.

PRESBYTERY OF COLUMBIA. — This presbytery held an adjourned meeting in the Presbyterian hall in Vancouver Tuesday, Rev. R. Jamieson, moderator; T. G. Thompson, clerk; Thos. Scouller and Alex. Tait, ministers, with Fitzgerald McCleary, elder. The congregation of Vancouver having petitioned the Presbytery for separation from Richmond congregation and to form a separate charge, and being cited to appear as delegates at this meeting, Messrs. Dalgleish, Sanders, Munroe, Burns, and Baker from Vancouver, and H. Boyd, W. Stewart and J. Ferguson from Richmond, spoke in reference to the petition, and the Presbytery agreed to separate in terms thereof, and appointed Rev. Mr. Sanders of New Westminster to preach to the congregation of Vancouver on March 28 at 7 p. m. and moderate in a call to a minister. It was also agreed to apply to the Home Mission committee for a minister for Richmond, and for a grant of $3000 per annum. Rev. D. McRae was appointed a member of the Synod Committee on bills and overtures.

Personal.

Rev J. A. Wood came up from Ladners this afternoon.

Jas. Z. Hall came in from Vancouver last night, and returned this afternoon.

At the Colonial: John Wilson, Victoria; Jas. A. Clark, Port Moody; M. Bovill, Monday; J. Sirr, North Arm.

At the Holbrook: John Boyes, Langley; J. D. Paris, Clover Valley; R. B. Lester, Surrey; I. D. Blakely, Glacier; Eli Lander, Ladners; J. Bonson; J. Karrencross, Mud Bay.

AT LAST.

Arrival of the Delayed Eastern Mail.

A through letter mail from the east arrived in this city over the C. P. R. about 4 o'clock this afternoon. These letters are packed over the blockaded portion of the railway a distance of nearly twenty miles. It is reported that the road is nearly dug out. By Monday the portage will be reduced to about two miles, and it is proposed to transfer passengers and mails over this distance in the meantime. It is expected that through passengers for the East will leave this city on Sunday. It will probably be two or three weeks before traffic has been regularly resumed, but it is expected that passengers and mails will now go through without serious interruption. It is just three weeks since we have had an eastern mail until to-day.

The C.P.R. Blockade.

No Trains for a Fortnight.

Special Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Mar. 18.—A special from Winnipeg, Manitoba, printed here says: The blockade on the Canadian Pacific in the Rocky Mountains is complete and there will be no through trains for a fortnight. Snow has blocked the roads and a mud tunnel has caved in. The passengers who went west two days ago have returned from the mountains, having been unable to get through, and went south to reach the Pacific coast via the American lines.

Mackay and the B. & O.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—To a reporter of the Associated Press, who called on John W. Mackay this afternoon to ascertain if the report were true associating Mr. Mackay with the B. & O. telegraph deal that gentleman pronounced the story without foundation. "As far as I am concerned," said Mr. Mackay, "no proposition for the acquirement of the B. & O. R. R. or the B. & O. Telegraph Co. has been made by me, or to me, and no negotiations are pending. I know nothing of the matter except what I have seen in the newspapers."

St. Patrick's Day in Rome.

ROME, March 17.—A public consistory was held to day in the Sola Regia. It began at 10:20 o'clock and concluded at noon. The procession was headed by the consistorial advocates with attendants, arrayed in crimson robes and ermine caps. They were followed by the cross bearer, cameriars, prelates, bishops, arch-bishops, and cardinals. Then came the Pope, who was borne on the sedia gestoria flanked with flabelli or white peacock feather fans. He was accompanied on each side by noble guards in blue swiss, guard officers in purple and crimson robed attendants. When the Pope descended from the sedia he ascended the throne which had been covered with purple cloth and cloth of gold for the Lenten season. The canopy over the throne was backed by tapestry of perino del vaga, depicting Faith, Hope and Charity. At the base of the throne were two moons conchant, bearing red banners with cross keys. The cardinals occupied the benches arrayed in a long parallel line in front of the Pope. The consistorial advanced to the centre and read the "instance for the beatification of persons under consideration." This concluded, 16 cardinals left the hall to bring from the chapel 8 new cardinals. Arch Bishop Gozales, of Toledo; Mgr. Aloisa Mazella, ex-nuncio at Lisbon; Arch-Bishop Taschereau, of Quebec; Arch-Bishop Gibbons, of Baltimore; Arch-Bishop Bernadon, of Zens; Arch-Bishop Place, of Rennes; Arch-Bishop Giordani, of Ferrara. Each new cardinal was accompanied by two others. Cardinal Taschereau was accompanied by Cardinals Melchero and Mozella. They proceeded and bowing twice kissed the Pope's foot and hand, and received the Pope's double embrace and thence retired. They again advanced to the Pope to receive the hat which was brought in on a silver salver.

Mrs. A. Nelson, Brantford, writes: I was a sufferer from Chronic Dyspepsia for a eleven years. Always after eating, an intense burning sensation in the stomach, at times very distressing, caused a drooping and languid feeling, which would last for several hours after eating. I was recommended by Mr. Popplewell, Chemist, of our city, to try Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, and I am thankful to say that I have not been better for years; that burning sensation and languid feeling has all gone, and food does not lie heavy on my stomach. Others of my family have used it with best results.

CANADA AND THE U. S.

Full Reciprocity Between Each Country or Else Line the Boundaries With Soldiers and Pickets.

CONCESSIONS SHOULD BE MUTUAL.

An Interesting Letter by B. Butterworth, Member of Congress for Cincinnatti.

TORONTO, March 17.—The Mail this morning contains a letter from the Hon. Benjamin Butterworth, member of Congress from Cincinnati, who introduced the bill in the last congress for large reciprocity between Canada and the United States. The following are extracts: "You are familiar with the details and provisions contained in the bill introduced in the closing days of the last congress, that closer commercial relations or ugly, and possibly permanent estrangement between Canada and the United States must in the near future occur. It seems too clear to need argument to sustain it. It is the inexpressible logic of the situation. That closer and freer commercial relations are desirable from every point of view is apparent, and it seems equally clear there is no measure of reciprocity short of that, which is full and complete, that can meet the obvious requirements of the situation. I repeat, the way out of the present entanglement will lead to most happy and valuable, in every sense, unity of commerce and social interests between ourselves and our neighbors and kinsmen in the north, or an alienation and estrangement which would be, alike discreditable to our statesmanship and our humanity. Either we will take down the partition which forces our commerce back upon ourselves, stops its flow along the natural channel which it unceasingly seeks, and give it full scope so that trade between the United States and Canada will be as free as it is between New York and Ohio, or we will line our northern border with evidences of retrograding civilization—forts on land and cruisers on lakes, picketing 3700 miles of our frontier with custom officers and spies. Such a condition of things is alike unnatural and unwise. I have not time nor inclination to increase the length and enlarge the scope of this letter by canvassing the resources of Canada, which we need, and ultimately must have mutual dependence, one country upon the other. Suffice to say that no intelligent person, who carefully investigates the facts, will hesitate to pronounce in favor of the fullest and most complete reciprocity. Fortunately Canada is as free and clothed with as full power to conclude arrangements as is the United States. The former, by such a course, will in no wise disturb her relations with the mother country. The ties that bind her to England are not commercial. They are those which reach from hearthstone to hearthstone, and could only be destroyed by the mother country in an effort to interpose insuparable barriers in the way of the prosperity and happiness of her citizens on this side of the Atlantic. This England will not do, of course, in case of full reciprocity as proposed in the bill to which I have called your attention. The internal revenue system of Canadians would require some modification, but this relates to matters of detail and presents no serious obstacle worth considering. Our tariff customs, knowing, this would possibly involve little sacrifice of pride, but the act would be met on this side by a like spirit of compromise and adjustment. In other words, concessions would be mutual.

INDISCRETIONS IN DIET bring on dyspepsia and irregularity of the bowels. Eat only wholesome food, and if the trouble has become permanent—as it is very prone to do—try a course of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. The combined effects astonish and delight the sufferer, who soon begins to digest well, regain functional regularity and improve in appetite; the blood becomes pure, and good health is restored.
