DAILY BRITISH COLUMBIAN.

VOLUME 2 NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., TUESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 22, 1887. NUMBER 44

Daily British Columbian

Tuesday Evening, February 22, 1887.

Interference with general intercourse by land would injure us quite as much as the Canadians, and perhaps more, and lodging the power in the hands of the president would have a disturbing effect, even if it should not be used. It is not wise to do anything which would have an unnecessarily exasperating effect and render an amicable settlement of the controversy more difficult.—N. Y. Times.

When the next war breaks out we will learn the result of the diligent secret experimentation in explosives, torpedoes, dynamite bombs and nitro-glycerine guns that has been going on for several years past in the armories and laboratories of Europe. The French have been particularly active in this business. They want to kill their neighbors, the Germans, not by platoons, but by regiments and brigades, and hints heard lately and then of terrible new engines to save General Boulanger and at his command. Even in this country a safe and effective gun for throwing dynamite and nitro-glycerine bombs has been invented, and we are delightfully assured that a shell containing one hundred pounds of the aimable compound now called nitro-glycerine, fired not at no-fuse, but in the air over a hostile army, "would kill or disable every man or horse within a quarter of a mile of the point of explosion." This would not be war, as we understand the term; it would be destruction, and it is not surprising to learn that our army officers are opposed to the introduction of air-guns and all the new chemical explosives, on the ground of barbarity. They have a warm affection for the familiar old friend, gunpowder. It is associated in their minds with stirring patriotic history, long sieges, strategy, field manœuvres and the general art of war, to say nothing of promotions and increased pay. There would be no military art in dynamite. Warfare with it would be unscientific and awful slaughter. And yet there is one merit in these improved agents of destruction. They are so terrible that human nature could not stand them—and they would force governments to abandon war entirely and seek some gentler and more sensible method for the arbitrament of disputes. Nitro-glycerine may prove to be a despotic peacemaker.—St. Louis Republican.

The popular idea that the lake cities of the United States are at the mercy of a hostile British fleet seems to have induced Congressman Lawler, of Chicago, to ask for information. The resolution which he presents calls upon the secretary of state for an answer to the question if by the treaty of Ghent the United States are prevented from maintaining an effective navy on the great lakes, and if the construction of the Welland canal by Canada was not a violation of that treaty, and, in case of war between England and America, a menace to this country. It will not take Mr. Bayard long to reply to these questions. As the treaties between the United States and Great Britain now stand neither is permitted to keep on the great lakes more than one war vessel. The ship which the American government maintains in these waters is the Michigan, not a very formidable craft, but quite equal to anything which the Canadians have thought necessary to equip and certainly strong enough to cope with any adversary likely to present itself in time of peace. In the event of war the Welland Canal would be a menace to the lake cities, but about how long does the gentleman from the second district imagine it would last after a declaration of hostilities? It would be blown sky-high in less than twenty-four hours after the beginning of the disturbance. The construction of the canal was not so much of a menace to the United States as the erection of the great forts at Halifax and Victoria, and, so far as violating the treaty of Ghent is concerned, its construction was no more in violation of that agreement than was the construction by the state of New York of the Erie canal. The Welland canal has been of inestimable value to Americans as well as to Canadians, and it will continue to be a benefit to both nations. If war should ever ensue the boys of western New York may be depended upon to take the measures necessary to make navigation by way of that ditch exceedingly difficult.—Chicago Herald.

Daily British Columbian

Tuesday Evening, February 23, 1887.

Our Indians.

Not long ago we mentioned that a deputation of Indians from the Northwest coast has arrived to interview the government and the Indian superintendent on the questions which have for some time been distressing them. We learn that two interviews took place, and a report of both these interviews has been printed and issued by the government in pamphlet form. At the first interview there were present Hon. Wm. Smithe, Hon. A. E. B. Davie, Hon. Jno. Robson, Dr. Powell, and Mr. O'Reilly. The Indians, who, by the way, seemed to be intelligent, and to have a fair knowledge of public matters, stated their grievances at considerable length, and they were received most courteously and patiently heard to the end. From the statements of these men it seems clear that they are laboring under a misapprehension with regard to their relationship to the law and the government, and there seems to be no real grievance among them that could not be easily removed. They complained they had not been treated as free men, but as slaves. They had reserves assigned to them, but they had been told that the possession of these reserves was not secure to them—that whenever the government felt so disposed it would take the land, and the Indians would be moved off. They also complained that the reserves were not large enough, and that they had no timber suitable for canoes or firewood, or for making boxes for the oolachans. The deputation said the Indians were anxious to adopt the habits and customs of the white men. They did not come to ask for money, but to ask for liberty, and for the same privileges that white men enjoyed. They had been told that an Indian could not take up land like a white man, that he could not take up a mining claim, and that he must not cut timber on the crown lands. One of them said also that they would like to organize some volunteer rifle companies. They had no hostile intention in these proposals, but wanted their young men to be up with the same points of accomplishments as the whites. During the interview the Indians were addressed by all the officials present, and had conveyed to them abundant assurances of the good will and good intent of both provincial and federal governments. It was pointed out to them that an Indian reserve could not on any account be taken away from the Indians without their consent, unless it was required for public purposes. In this respect it was as secure to them as any white man's possession. If any great public enterprise, such as a railway, required a white man's land, it would have to be surrendered, but he would receive a fair value for it, and the law was the same with respect to Indian reserves. Here the Indians and whites were precisely on the same footing. It was likewise pointed out that an Indian had just as good a right to take out a mining license as a white man, and he could also take out a timber license on payment of the usual fee. In fact Hon. Mr. Smithe stated that he had already issued timber licenses to Indians who were carrying on the timbering business up the coast. Hon. Mr. Smithe said: "You seem to be very desirous to be on the same footing as white men. You want, you say, to be free on your land the same as the white man. Now, I don't quite understand your position in this regard, because you are free, quite as free upon your land as white men are upon theirs. I endeavored to explain this to you before, and it is all nonsense if any one tells you that you are liable to have your land taken away from you and disturbed upon it. You are perfectly free to do so, and there is no more danger of your land being taken away from you than land being taken away from any white man." The deputation was also told that Indians, in common with white men, were at liberty to cut timber anywhere on the crown lands for fuel, or to build a house, or for fencing. Mr. Smithe also said that an Indian, when he became civilized, could pre-empt land the same as a white man, irrespective of his tribal connection. The provincial government had also power to enfranchise him by order-in-council when he could read and write and be able intelligently to take part in public affairs. Speaking of the Northwest coast Indians he said: "They can converse and the children are taught to speak English. My opinion is that they will one day have representatives in the legislature. I do not say it will be the day." Mr. O'Reilly stated that when he was up there he reserved for the Indians all the timber and every patch of agricultural land that was pointed out to him. [illegible] had been omitted from the reserves [illegible] tion. He [illegible] how well [illegible] how [illegible] ber will [illegible] sufficient timber land should be required.

—OF—
New Westminster District.

GENTLEMEN:—I have already announced myself as a candidate for the seat made vacant by the death of our late representative, and as no election has taken place to fill that vacancy, I now offer myself at this, the General Election.

As it is my intention to visit and hold public meetings in every settlement of the district before election day, I will merely in this address refer to the different subjects that are vital to our interests as a district and province, which will be discussed at length on the public platform, when I hope all aspirants for the honor of representing you in the Commons will be present and take part in the discussion, of which due notice will be given.

The following are some of the most important questions that will have my serious consideration:

The Improvement of the Navigation of Fraser River.—The New Westminster Board of Trade have, with the assistance of our late representative, been successful in obtaining a small appropriation for this purpose, which has been expended the past fall; and it will be the duty of your representative to secure such annual grants as will suffice to complete this important work, which will enable ships of the heaviest draught to navigate the Fraser river at all stages of the tide, and all seasons of the year.

Squatters' Claims.—With reference to this matter there has been gross neglect on the part of the Dominion Government, and I am of the opinion that those settlers who located their land under instructions from what is known as Mr. Trutch's pamphlet, should secure the title thereto free of charge—and the fact that settlers have been unable to secure their titles has acted very detrimentally to the interests of the province generally, and (if elected) I will be unceasing in my efforts to secure the adjustment of every claim in the district.

Railway South.—Another very important matter in connection with our district is railway connection with our neighbors south of the line. Several charters to connect this city and district with the American system of railways have been granted by our local legislature, but were unfortunately disallowed by the Dominion Government (doubtless through the influence of the C. P. R.), the position hitherto held by the Dominion House is now untenable, and the monopoly clause of the C. P. R. will have to be done away with. Should this be done there is no reason why railway construction should not commence in the near future, as our American cousins are ready and willing to commence work as soon as the way is open. I need only say that I shall use my best endeavors to obtain said railway connection and the abolition of the monopoly clause.

Railway Grievances.—The C. P. R. have maintained excessive rates for local traffic in this province and to points as far east as Winnipeg. This is not as it should be, and is one of the reasons why that great corporation should be taught that it is not the only power in the land, but that it must be made subservient to the interests of the people.

Telegraphs and Railways.—I am of the opinion that all telegraphs and railways should be owned and operated by the government in the interests of the people, as is partially the case in England, Germany and elsewhere, and shall (if elected) do all I can to bring about this very desirable state of things.

The Mails.—I shall use my best efforts to have all settlements on the south side of the river supplied regularly with their mails from Ladner's Landing by way of the Grand Trunk road to Chilliwhack and any other places not already supplied with mail accommodation.

The Temperance Question.—Upon this question I feel very warmly and sympathize most heartily with all those who are anxious to do away with the evils caused by the liquor traffic and shall (if elected) give my hearty support to any measures that may be introduced to advance this very desirable object.

The Chinese Question.—With regard to to this question, I consider it an unmixed evil, yet at the same time one of the hard problems that this nation has to deal with. I deem it of vital importance that our Legislatures, both Federal and Provincial, should do their utmost to discourage this traffic, and at the same time use all legal means in their power to get rid of those Chinamen who are already amongst us.

The last question that I wish to bring before you is that of Independence. I again reiterate the statement made by myself in the papers that

"In Politics, I am and will be thoroughly Independent."

Several of the B. C. papers have taken up this statement and have said a great many uncomplimentary things concerning me, such as "being on the fence," "a Grit in disguise," and so forth. I therefore deem it necessary to explain what I mean by being thoroughly independent. I consider any member sent to Ottawa from this Province pledged to support any particular party has allowed himself to be fettered. The greatest evils which threaten the usefulness of the governments of the United States and Canada spring from party politics, and in the United States at the last presidential election a number of the best men of both parties voted independently, and for what they considered the best interests of the country regardless of party.

As an independent I shall endeavor to vote and act (if elected), first, in the interests of my constituents; secondly, in the interests of the province, and lastly for the general good of the Dominion, pledging myself to neither Grit nor Tory, but claiming the right as a free born British Subject to use my influence and vote on the side where I consider your interests and the interests of the nation lie.

I take this opportunity of soliciting the vote and influence of all, and while I shall feel very much honored if you elect me to your representative, I trust that time will prove that your confidence has not been misplaced.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Yours respectfully,
dwfe12tc T. J. TRAPP.

To the Electors of the Electoral District of New Westminster.

GENTLEMEN:—Shortly after the lamented death of our late Representative, Mr. Homer, I was Solicited by a number of my friends, to allow myself to be nominated as a Candidate for the Representation of the District of New Westminster in the House of Commons of Canada. The personal solicitation of friends, was shortly followed by requisitions so numerously signed, by prominent and influential Electors of the City and District, that I felt it to be my duty to place my services at their disposal. It is not therefore, Gentlemen, as a self-nominated candidate, that I ask for your support, but I do so in response to the request of over four hundred of your number.

To many of you, Gentlemen, who have known me for a long time, it is unnecessary for me to say, that I am perfectly familiar with the great and varied resources of this Province. My knowledge of its Mining, Fishing, Agricultural and Commercial advantages has been derived from actual experience, and will (if elected) enable me to place prominently before Parliament, the great resources of this Province, and the means necessary to be employed to aid in their further development.

It is impossible, Gentlemen, in an address such as this to do more than allude to some of the questions of interest and importance to you, which as your representative, I would consider it to be my duty to bring to the notice of Parliament. I will, however, enumerate a few matters of great importance to us all, in regard to which it will be my earnest endeavour to obtain beneficial legislation.

I will endeavour to have removed from the mouth of our noble River, every impediment to its free navigation, and have necessary lighthouses erected.

I will endeavor to secure to settlers and squatters, an immediate title to their lands. This I consider to be a matter not only of justice, but also of expediency. Heretofore great injustice has been done to a valuable and deserving class of our population, to whom, had justice been done and facilities afforded for acquiring homesteads, the results of their industry would, ere this, Have done much to develop the agricultural capabilities of this fine district.

I am aware, Gentlemen, that the number of representatives to which each province of the Dominion is entitled is based upon population, yet I believe that, owing to exceptional circumstances, such as the fact that this province contributes to the revenue of the Dominion a much larger percentage, according to population, than any of the other provinces; and also to the fact that large centres of population are rapidly being formed in this district—that it is entitled to a larger representation in the parliament of the Dominion, and which as a matter of justice I will endeavor to obtain.

I will also endeavour to obtain for the residents of this District better postal facilities, to which they are justly entitled.

I will use my best efforts to secure equitable rates on all railway and telegraph lines, and to have the same fixed by law.

The interests of British Columbia demand that every impediment in the way of constructing railways to our Southern boundary and other portions of this district be removed to aid in the development of our resources. I will endeavor to have this accomplished, and also to obtain aid for the construction of canals and the improvement of navigable streams.

I will also consider it my duty to render all possible aid to any legislation which seeks to simplify and render less costly the administration of justice, especially as between individuals and corporations.

My political platform is, in the first place, the interest of British Columbia, which I believe can be best served by my giving an independent support to the present government, which has not in the past been unmindful of the interests of British Columbia, and to whom we are indebted for the early completion of the railway, which has brought us into communication with the Eastern Provinces and Europe, and through the agency of which, we will in the near future, be placed in direct communication with Australia, China, Japan, and the Great Eastern Empire, which must prove to be of incalculable value to this province, and to this district in particular.

In conclusion, gentlemen, I have only to say, that I am prompted by a sincere desire to benefit this district and to aid in promoting its varied interests, and I ask your support only upon these grounds. It is my intention to see as many of you previous to the election as time and circumstances will admit of in the meantime.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Yours very truly,
dwfe8td DONALD CHISHOLM.

A BAD MEMORY.—The Victoria Times published an article headed "From Cradle to Grave." Strange to relate, it forgot to give credit to an eastern journal for the production. CHINESE GAMBLERS.—Three Chinamen were arrested last evening in the swamp on [illegible] dangerously wounding a fellow countryman. It appears that the four Chinamen had been gambling in one of the cabins near the R. C. P. Mills and one of them having won considerable of the others' money and on being asked to give it back he refused, when the other three assaulted him, giving him some very severe cuts on the head and face. When found by the officers the unfortunate man was lying in a pool of blood [illegible]. The prisoners were brought before Capt. Pittendrigh, [illegible] and were remanded until Monday next, bail being fixed at $200 each. Two other cases were attended to also. Mike Frie was fined $15.50 on a charge of drunkenness and the case of Indian Bob, charged with stealing a gun from a Chinaman was discharged with costs.

The Cheapest medicine in use is Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, because so very little of it is required to effect a cure. For croup, diptheria, and diseases of the lungs and throat, whether used for bathing the chest or throat, for taking internally or inhaling, it is a matchless compound.

THE ICEBOAT.—Our readers will remember that at a public meeting held about a week ago resolutions were passed and telegraphed to the minister of public works, Ottawa, asking the use of the snag boat for the purpose of breaking up the ice in the river. Yesterday Mr. W. A. Duncan, secretary of the meeting, received the following reply from the secretary of the public works department, dated Ottawa, Feb. 21st: "Having reference to your telegram of 5th inst., giving resolutions passed at a public meeting at New Westminster, to the effect that the snag boat should be used as an ice breaker to keep the Fraser river open, I have to inform you that inasmuch as all the ministers are away in their counties this matter can not be taken up by them until after the close of the elections. In the meantime the matter is being investigated by the chief engineer, who will lay the whole facts before the ministers in a few days." We presume the answer will come about the time of roses, when our Italian skies have come back to us.

Orion Catlin, 49 Peal Street, Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I tried various remedies for the piles, but found no relief until I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, which entirely cured me after a few applications." Since Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has become celebrated, unprincipled persons are imitating it. Get the genuine.

The Late Christopher Lee.

The late Christopher Lee was born at Grassington, Yorkshire county, England, in the year 1819. When 10 years of age he came to America with his father and settled in Brownsville, Pa., in which place he was apprenticed as a machinist in the "Showdrius" iron works. After having learned his trade he removed to Pittsburgh, where he held the position of foreman of a machine shop. In 1850 he traveled overland to California and entered the employ of the Southern Navigation company as an engineer, in which capacity he remained until 1853, when he emigrated to this province and became engaged as chief engineer on one of the Fraser river steamers. In 1859, in company with the late Capt. Irving, he made the first successful trip by steamer to Yale, on the steamer Governor Douglas. In 1860 he took up his residence in this city, where he remained until his death. During his residence here he has acted as engineer on all the river steamers of any note, and was first engineer on the government snagboat. At the same time he made many friends both in the city and district, who deeply mourn his demise. He leaves a widow and daughter to mourn his death. He was buried in the Masonic cemetery on Sunday last, many following the remains to the grave.

CENTREVILLE METHODIST CHURCH.—Last Wednesday night the Sabbath School at this church gave a musical and literary entertainment for the laudable object of procuring a library for the use of the children, Rev. C. Bryant presiding. There were recitations—some of them very well rendered indeed—by Clarinda and John Stevenson, Roberta Stevenson, Johnny McCutcheon, Lillie and Emma Knight, Ernest Vedder, Herbert and C. Charlton, Nellie Danville, Bertha Rickwell, Arthur Henderson, Carrie Lapum, Cath. Gibson, Master R. Powell, Mr. John Maynard, and Mr. J. T. Wilkinson; a dialogue by Misses Toop and Hooper; readings by Mr. Lapum and the chairman. The musical selections by the S. S. choir, which mustered in strong force, accompanied by Miss Gertie Ripplen the organ, were given in spirited and splendid style. There were also songs by Masters Albert and Anson Knight, Minnie Kipp, Master Arthur Kipp, Miss S. McCutcheon, a duet by Nettie Charsley and Nellie Kipp, and another by Miss Branch Glover and Mr. C. Evans. The proceeds amounted to $37.50.

During 1886 the United States imported of flax, jute, hemp, cordage, and bagging to the amount of $21,807,890; nearly 27,000,000 of glassware, $41,630,688 iron and steel, $6,688,195 leather, $20,596,836 of silk and dress goods, $7,914,84 of sugar, molasses, and confectionery, nearly $7,000,000 of wines, $17,403,009 of wool, and of the manufactured articles from wool, $43,095,512. In fine, the importers' bill footed up for all articles in 1886, $703,416,845, while the total value of imported articles amounted to $699,519,250. A fraction over $72,000,000 of these imported articles only were moved by American vessels.

LIKE ALL STERLING REMEDIES, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure deserves a fair trial. It would be absurd to suppose that this or any other medicine of kindred nature could produce instantaneous effects. For the thorough removal of Chronic Dyspepsia, Constipation, Liver Complint, and other ailments, to which it is adapted, its used should be continued some time, even after the chief symptoms are received. Then these effects complete cures is a fact established by ample and respectable evidence.

Job printing of all kinds neatly done at the COLUMBIAN office. Prices will be found lower than at any similar office in the province.—Adv.

LIKELY TO BE SUSTAINED.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—The Tribune's Ottawa special says: Deep interest is being created in federal elections which take place to-morrow. Conservatives express hopes of being sustained by a greatly reduced majority. It is likely that the premier Sir John Macdonald will lose 7 or 8 seats in Ontario with worse prospects in the province of Quebec where the cry is raised over the execution of Louis Riel, leader of the late Northwest rebellion. The government hopes to gain seats in New Brunswick and one in Manitoba. Its majority of 70 will be reduced to 15 and it is a possible supposition that it will be swept away entirely. Since the arrival of Sir Chas. Tupper, Canadian high commissioner, the condition of affairs in the maritime provinces has greatly improved. He is appealing for support for Sir John on the ground that the latter urged a generous policy with reference to the fisheries.

AFRAID THE TRADE WILL GO TO B.C.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22.—The Call's Washington special says: Claud Speckles arrived yesterday. Mr. Speckles is very much interested in securing an allowance for mail service of ships owned by him engaged in Australian and New Zealand trade. These vessels are granted a subsidy by the colonial governments and there is every indication that the British government will offer to give a bounty to ships sailing from Victoria. In that event Mr. Speckels thinks this trade will go from San Francisco to British Columbia. He informed the president of the situation but he has no hope that congress will take any action in the matter at its present session.

TRIUMPH OF THE SOCIALISTS.

BERLIN, Feb. 22.—From present calculations Bismarck will barely obtain a majority. He required forty votes; he has already won twenty. The remainder are almost certain that the government will not obtain a majority sufficient to adopt the monopoly bills. The total socialist vote shows an increase of five hundred thousand. National-liberals have gained nearly as many seats as they have lost. The socialists have carried the first and second divisions of Hamburg and Altona and Nuremberg. They have lost Gleauchan, Brunswick, Chemnecz, Schneiberg, and Zeuich.

COMPLETE RETURNS.

BERLIN, Feb. 22.—At this hour the results are known. The candidates elected include 17 conservatives, 5 imperialists 43 nationals, 14 contrists, 4 new German liberals, 6 socialists, and 14 Poles. In 30 districts new elections will be required. So far 103 candidates have been definitely elected, including 66 septennists and 37 opponents of the government.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Private advices received in this city state that the Canadian Pacific railway has completed arrangements with the Cunard Steamship Company to transfer three of its fast steamers to the Pacific Ocean. Steamers will ply between New Westminster, Yokohama and Hong Kong. In order to obtain a share of the Shanghai tea shipments and Indo-Chinese steamer company, a British concern, will cooperate with the C. P. R. company. Vessels of that line will meet the big Cunarders at Yokohama and transfer their cargoes. It is expected that the Cunard steamers, the Bothnia, Gallia Scythia, will leave England via Suez canal about April 1st, their destination being Hong Kong, so that they will reach China in time to load new tea.

A REVIEW OF THE TRADE RETURNS LAST YEAR

Decline in Imports and Exports.

The trade and navigation returns for 1886 have been printed, but can not be laid before parliament until after the house is called, some time in April. The Ottawa Free Press, however, published a review of the returns as they are printed, and from such review we glean the following facts. The total value of goods exported from Canada in 1886 was $85,251,314, of which $77,813,235 comprised Canadian products and $7,438,079 the product of other countries. The exports declined four per cent. last year as compared with 1885, and the imports four per cent. The total amount of custom duties collected in 1886 was $19,448,123, compared with $19,133,558 in 1885. The imports for last year amounted to $104,424,561, as compared with $108,941,486 in the preceding year.

THE COAL BUSINESS.

The total amount of customs duties collected on coal in 1886 was $1,072,392 compared with $1,072,161 in 1885. The following is a statement of the quantity of anthracite and bituminous coal imported in 1886 and 1885:

	1886	1885
Anthracite [tons]	1,010,875	969,121

Communications.

The Duty of the Electors.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN:—Taking all the circumstances into consideration, the most important if not the only issue before the electors of this district in the present election for the commons is the question of temperance and moral reform generally. I do not mean to say that [illegible] are the only questions that [illegible] as a community. Undoubtedly there are a number of other very important questions, though true statesmanship must ever give these a second place when compared with measures for social and moral improvement. (Pardon me for trespassing on your space with truisms.) To avoid unnecessary argument, and to arrive as quickly as possible at the point aimed at in this communication, I would submit as an obvious proposition (which Mr. Chisholm's partisans certainly will not wish to challenge) that the two candidates soliciting our suffrages on this occasion are equally competent and eligible to attend to our commercial and political interests at Ottawa. But here comparison ends, and the two candidates can only be viewed in contrast, Mr. Chisholm as candidature, although not necessarily intended as such, can not be regarded as much short of an insult to the temperance and moral sentiment of the community. This statement will not appear extravagant when it is remembered that he has been a whisky-seller in this city for years, and though he has ostensibly withdrawn from the business for the last few months, doubtless for political effect, he has given ample evidence that he is still in perfect sympathy with the liquor interests. Mr. Trapp, on the other hand, both by his private life and business and political principles, is thoroughly qualified to represent the best elements in the community, all the covert and malicious misrepresentations of whisky partisans and temperance soreheads to the contrary notwithstanding. Whether the temperance and right-thinking people of the district properly appreciate the fact or not, the issue of temperance and moral reform is forced upon the electors in this contest, and cannot be evaded, although the responsibility may be criminally shirked. This responsibility becomes still more binding when it is remembered that the man whom we elect now must be our representative for the next five years, and supposing there is anything in the argument advanced by some that the country is not at present prepared for any radical temperance reform, what progress and advance we may not expect in this respect in the next half a decade, if temperance people and Christians are true to their principles; and in view of these circumstances we certainly cannot afford either now or in the future to have a wet blanket on the temperance movement like Mr. Chisholm at Ottawa. The temperance people ought to congratulate themselves that the perils of nomination day are over and that they have got only one candidate whom they can conscientiously heartily support to represent [illegible] interests of the community, and in whose hands all the interests of the district and the province will be fairly safe. The utmost efforts, however, will be made to return Mr. Chisholm, and unless the right-thinking portion of the electors accept the situation and stand together they will run great risk of losing the day. Not of course, inevitable that there are a number of temperance soreheads who must be allowed the questionable luxury of biting off their own noses, and these will do considerable mischief with their plausible sophistries, etc.; but no elector who has the cause of temperance and moral reform at heart can excuse himself before his own conscience if he neglects his duty or shirks his responsibility in this matter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—The Chicago Times' Ottawa, Ontario, special says: Advices received here by the government from Newfoundland state that a large number of fishermen who have been living in a state of destitution in that island for the past year are preparing to leave and settle in British Columbia early in the spring. It is hoped in this way to relieve the great distress that so frequently prevails in Newfoundland and at the same time to [illegible] British Columbia.

The Chinese bark Kwong Twong was sold by the U.S. marshall to-day to Adolphus Bichard for $4400 in order to satisfy a claim for wages. The vessel came into this port in distress last December while on her way from China to Victoria, B.C. Six sailors left the vessel because the captain could not pay their wages for which they brought suit, resulting as above.

MORE SNOW.

TRUCKEE, Cal., Feb. 21.—Snow is still falling here and indications point to another blockade.

THE NEW REICHSTAG.

BERLIN, Feb. 21.—The exact strength of the government in the new reichstag will not be known till one or more votes are taken. It is anticipated that some members of the centre party who opposed the septennate in the old reichstag and who have been converted by counsels from the vatican will be turned to the new reichstag. How many is not known.

THEIR DECISION.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—The Gladstonians have decided to make a proposal in favor of cloture by simple majority but will not make an amendment embodying the proposals.

A NEW ELECTION NECESSARY.

BERLIN, Feb. 21.—The elections in this city resulted unfavorable for all government candidates in four of the six divisions Second ballots will be necessary, as in each of these divisions the anti-septennate candidate has at present a majority. In the first division Klotz, the new German liberal, has 4882, and Zeidlitz Neukirch, septennist, 7008. A second ballot is necessary in the 2nd division, Kirschowa, new German liberal, received 16,439, and Wolff, septennist, 16,108. Another ballot is necessary in the 3rd division, Munickle, new German liberal, received 10,045 and Christenson, socialist, 9,800. There will be another ballot also in fourth division. It is reported that the socialist, Singer, is elected, but official returns from this division have not been received. In the 5th district Foumbach, new German liberal, has 10,076 and mayor Blume, septennist, 7,009. In 6th division Hasenclever, socialist, is elected by a large majority over Grellin, new German liberal, and Holtz, septennist.

THE GREAT STRIKE AT AN END.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—The longshoremen of Jersey City and Hoboken have formally abandoned their strike and started out this morning individually to get work where they could. Coal handlers at some points have asked to be taken back in a body, which was refused. They too will make individual application for work to-morrow.

THEY WILL REPRESS IRELAND.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—The temper of conservative conference to-day was directly in favor of Irish repression and this was only appeased by Lord Salisbury's promise that as soon as the new procedure rules were adopted coercion would follow. The leading argument of the others was that the adoption of the procedure rule was the first step towards putting a stop to Irish obstruction tactics in parliament and strengthening the action of the executive in Ireland. Chaplain and others, who are opposed to such proposal threatened to revolt but were cowed by Lord Salisbury's declaration that the ministry would resign unless the Conservative party continued solid. The vote of the conference resulted in an absolute subordination to the leaders.

DEAD.

The death is announced of Edward Doumes Dekker, the Dutch author. He was born in Amsterdam in 1820.

BURNED.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Feb. 21.—The large and complete training stable of the Maples property of Messrs. John T. Stewart and son was burned Sunday night.

THE RESULTS.

BERLIN, Feb. 21.—In the fourth division in this city Singer, socialist, received 28,958; Evers, septennist, 11,971, and Prof. Hemel, new German liberal, 9,242. In the sixth division Hagenclover, socialist, received 30,457; Pallts, septennist, 18,981; and Grettin, new German liberal, 1,768. The net result of the Berlin vote is as follows: socialist, 90,107; gain of 22,000; septennist, 69,878; new German liberal, 85,884. The government parties have gained thirteen thousand votes and the new German liberals have lost 50,000. The returns from the provinces show losses by the new German liberals. Herr Richter's organ, the Freisinnig Zeitung, consoles the party by declaring that the socialists profited by the radical disasters.

A TORY CONFERENCE.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—A conference of the conservative party was held here to-day at the foreign office. The conference was largely attended by members both of the house of commons and house of lords. The meeting lasted half an hour. Salisbury was accompanied by Goschen. Both were cheered heartily when they entered. The premier in his address to the conference referred to the late Iddesleigh and the loss the government incurred by reason of his death. The marquis also dwelt on the secession from the government of Churchill, which the speaker described as "a considerable loss to the party." Goschen's acceptance of office under the present government, Salisbury said, had strengthened the conservative party. "After marking time for a month," continued the marquis, "we have arrived at serious business." He then said he hoped the government would be able by reforming the rules of procedure to restore to the commons its capacity for work and its reputation for courtesy, after which he added, "We shall be able to deal with the question of local government in Ireland." (Loud Cheers.) "I hope," he said, "that the present law will be sufficient to enable the authorities to cope with disorder in Ireland. In any case all bills will be postponed until after the conclusion of proceedings for reform of procedure rules. The government expect to present the budget during the first week in April. The marquis predicted a long lease of office for the conservatives. Several members urged the government to introduce a local government bill for England, Scotland and Wales, provisions of which should be extended to Ireland. Edwin Delisle, conservative, spoke saying that as a Roman Catholic conservative, he denounced the conduct of Archbishop Cooke of Cassen, Ireland, in openly encouraging the conduct of Irish national league and said he would like to have the archbishop tried for his conduct by a jury of English Catholics in London. This statement provoked great enthusiasm in the conference.
