THE DAILY COLUMBIAN

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 6, 1890.

POLL EVERY VOTE.

Too much stress cannot be put on the above exhortation. It is a fitting injunction on the eve of any election. Votes are intended to be polled. They are no good unless polled, and a voter who does not poll his vote is not much good either. Every male citizen, natural born or naturalized, of the full age of twenty-one years, who has resided in the Province twelve months and in the District where he is registered for two months, and whose name was placed on the list of applications two full months before the 18th of May last—when the register was made up for printing—and whose name now appears on the printed list of Provincial voters, is entitled to vote at the Provincial elections on June 13th; and, unless he is a craven or a sloth, or incapacitated from mental or physical causes beyond his control, will run, walk, ride or crawl, to the polling place, and cast his ballot as he may intelligently and conscientiously deem best, without fear, favor or affection.

If, ordinarily speaking, it is the high and bounden duty, as well as precious privilege, of every able bodied and sound-minded man to give practical effect at the ballot box to the voice which he, in common with his fellow-citizens, has in administering the affairs of the country, at such a time as the present—with the issues that are before the country—with THE ISSUE that has been raised above all other issues by the outrageous legislation of last session, and will never cease to be the most momentous issue until satisfactorily and justly disposed of—it becomes doubly important that every elector should do his duty by the constituency in which he lives, in which his interests are, and by the Province as a whole, whose prosperity and progress are intimately associated with the welfare, peace and contentment of the different parts.

Let every elector, then, charge himself religiously with the task of fulfilling his duty to himself, his family, and his country, on the 13th of June next, by attending his proper polling place and casting his ballot for the right, for reform in the Provincial administration of affairs, for real progress and prosperity, for equal justice to all sections of the Province. Let him do this, not only because it is urgently necessary to insure the reforms and the measures that are demanded, and because it is highly desirable to thus demonstrate our actual voting strength, but because it is a right, and patriotic and sensible thing to do. It is the exercise of that practical patriotism beside which shouting ourself hoarse, or getting drunk, on the Twenty-fourth of May or the First of July is as the counterfeit to the real coin of the realm.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The author of "The Deserted Village" has been giving our gullible Church street cotemporary some "guff" about the District election from an Aldergrove standpoint. The individual in question, whose identity is well known, says, among other things, that the people of Aldergrove "ought to be very thankful for our Provincial Government." "I don't know and I don't care anything at all about redistribution," says this grate-adorer of the "powers that be," "but I do know that neither I nor my neighbors are suffering from any material injustice." We have good reason for believing that Truth's "Aldergrove farmer" expresses only his individual views, and that he has personal grounds for looking through such narrow and unpatriotic spectacles.

Notwithstanding the Equal Rights agitation, which was the only factor that was expected to appreciably affect the standing of the Ontario Government, it will be seen that "the little tyrant" has been returned with nearly his old majority in the House. The returns to hand are nearly complete, so that the practical result of the elections will not be affected by the few counties to hear from. The Equal Righters themselves, it will be seen, only carried two constituencies. Party spirit is evidently too strong in Ontario to permit much breaking away from the old lines, when it comes to the practical test of an election. Premier Mowat has certainly administered the affairs of the "Banner Province" well, on the whole, and proved himself worthy the confidence of the people of Ontario, but a little shaking up would have done his party or the country no harm at this time, after the long lease of power which he has had.

At a recent sitting of the Surgical Congress at Berlin, Professor Gluck, of Berlin, gave an exhibition showing a most valuable advance in surgery, the successful substitution of catgut, ivory, and bone free from chalk, for defects in the bones, muscles, and nerve sinews. The juices of the body are sucked up in the inserted material, thereby establishing the junction of the separated ends, without any shortening of the part. He presented the cases of patients in whom there had been an insertion of from six to ten centimetres of catgut to supply defects in the leaders of the hands, to which complete mobility had been restored. This case has previously been impossible. In the case of another patient Professor Gluck removed a tumor from the thigh, causing a considerable defect in the bone. He inserted ivory, and no shortening ensued. In another case he removed a large piece of nerve in the groin and inserted catgut, and the functions remained completely satisfactory. These are considered wonderful achievements.

Victoria Times: If it was not for the census business the Hon. John Robson would be in a fearful plight in the presence of his angry constituents. To ward off the blows of a disgusted constituency, he contents himself with stating "that, should the result of census taking next year show such a preponderance of population on the Mainland, as I feel confident it will, myself and and colleagues stand pledged to obtain such further legislation as shall bring representation more into conformity with population." Now, if the Hon. John Robson feels confident that the census next year will show a population for the Mainland which will justify increased representation for that locality, he anticipates for the country a wonderful growth during the next twelve months. But the fact of the matter is, the Premier does not anticipate any such growth. The growth already exists. The tax list and the voters' list afford evidences of Mainland standing which cannot be gainsaid. Why then does the Premier interpose this census buffer? Does he expect that the people will swallow it? The Hon. John Robson will be under the sad necessity of representing Cariboo during the next legislative term, unless the electors of Westminster, like those of Lincoln, Ontr. [who have just returned the convicted boodler, Rykert] are too ignorant or too bigoted to distinguish their right hand from their left.

THE CHANNEL TUNNEL

Between England and France is Deemed Impracticable by Sir Michael Hicks-Beach.

A Band of Ferocious Arnauts Sack a Servian Village and Commit Horrible Barbarities.

Eyrand, the Parisian Strangler, is Being Tracked by French and American Detectives.

Not Practicable.

LONDON, June 6.—Sir Michael Hicks Beach, president of the Board of Trade, has been discussing the latest schemes proposed for a tunnel under the English Channel, and he has concluded that none of them are practicable. The British Government, therefore, will not encourage any plan for connecting England and France in this way. The Government will continue to strongly oppose any bill having this object in view.

A Murderous Gang.

BELGRADE, June 6.—The attack of the Arnauts on a Servian village on the frontier proves to have been an unprovoked and brutal outrage. The inhabitants were drawn out of their houses in the dead of night by a false alarm of fire, and in their right and confusion they were fired upon by the Arnauts who were lying in ambush around the village, and who rushed in upon them. The barbarities which followed are too horrible to relate in detail. They resembled the Bulgarian atrocities; neither sex or age was spared. When they had finished their bloody work and fled across the frontier it was found that out of a population of 100, fifteen were killed and thirty-five wounded. The Ottoman authorities were notified of the outrage and have made a show of energy and arrested a number of emigrants near the border, but the murderous gang that perpetrated the atrocities have not been arrested.

The "Boss" Is Coming.

BOSTON, Mass., June 6.—Vice-President Lane, of the Union Pacific, will start for the west on Saturday for a trip over the Union Pacific Railway for the purpose of inspecting both the Oregon branch system and the Union Pacific, Denver and Gulf system. President Adams is expected to return to Boston on July 7th.

Found Guilty.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The general term of the Supreme court to-day handed down a decision affirming the conviction in the court of Over and Terminer of ex-sheriff James H. Flack and his son, William L. Flack.

Killed His Debtor.

DIXON, Col., June 6.—Charles M. Foster was shot and killed at Narrie, near Aspen, Colorado, this morning by Elmar E. Harris, 23 years of age, an employee of Foster. The trouble originated over the fact that Foster owed Harris $15. The murderer has not been arrested, but the sheriff is in hot pursuit. Charles M. Foster, who was killed at Narrie, Colo., this morning, was the father of Ned Foster, the proprietor of the Bella Union theatre, of San Francisco. He was a wealthy lumberman and cattle rancher of Colorado.

Evidently Insane.

MELROSE, Col., June 6.—As the west bound Salt Lake express stopped at the depot about 2 o'clock this morning, a man, about 28 years of age, stepped off, and pulling a pistol from his pocket, held it to his right temple and fired. He fell, and as persons, who heard the shot, rushed to his side they found him in the throes of death. He expired in a few minutes. It is thought he had some trouble with the conductor on the train regarding his passage, as a ticket to Salt Lake, which expired at midnight of June 3rd, and a note which reads, "The conductor will not bother anybody any more," were found on his person.

A Very Sad Case

GENEVA, N. Y., June 6.—Mrs. Chas. H. Richards, of Bridgeport, Conn., jumped from the fourth story window of the Hygienic Institute at this place, between two and three o'clock this morning, a distance of 45 feet; she died two hours later. Miss Herenden, her nurse was sleeping in the room with Mrs. Richards at the time and was awakened by the lady making a slight noise at the window, from the sill of which she was removing some plants. Mrs. Richards raised the windw and got almost entirely out when Miss Herenden reached her. The nurse grappled with Mrs. Richards and held her for some seconds in the air, but the unfortunate lady's night dress gave way and she fell to the ground.

A Crime of Paris.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Pierre Galliard Parisian inspector of police, who came over on La Bourgogne, accompanied by a New York detective, came to Washington last night and secured from the National Hotel a small satchel that had been left there by Eyraud, the Parisian strangler, several weeks ago. Eyraud's trunk, which had previously been found did not contain, as hoped for, any papers of the murdered Gouffe. It was discovered, however, by a fortunate accident that Eyraud had a small satchel of Parisian manufacture which he carried carried away with him, and by some clever detective work it was traced to Washington. In addition to the Gouffe papers it is said there was also found in the satchel some letters written by Gabrielle to Eyraud while he was passing as a Spanish merchant in Guayamas, Mexico.

A Thoroughly Rotten System.

NEW YORK, June 6.—It is said that ex-Chief Brooks, who had the place under Republican rule some years ago, would have been appointed before this to succeed John S. Bell, the lately dismissed chief of the treasury department secret service, had it not been for the opposition of Russell Harrison, who telegraphed his protest all the way from Texas. Several years ago, when Russell Harrison was filling a Government position in Montana, charges affecting the conduct of his office were filed with the secretary of the treasury. President Harrison was then a member of the U. S. Senate. Chief Brooks, who was at that time head of the secret service, was instructed to make a quiet investigation, which he did, submitting his report to the secretary, then fifth auditor, Alexander, now internal revenue collector for the Syracuse, N. Y. District. It was understood that he would do a little fine work on behalf of Gen. Harrison and demanded of Chief Brooks a copy of his report on Russell's management of his office. Chief Brooks refused to furnish it and his refusal to do so was communicated by Alexander to the Senator and his son, who have since been awaiting an opportunity to get even. Although Brooks has demonstrated his fitness, he has no chance of securing it.

Knights of Pythias.

Yesterday was a red letter day in the above lodge in this City, it being the occasion of the formal organization, by delegates from the sister societies in Victoria and Nanaimo. The local society met at their hall and in fours deep marched along Columbia street to the Hotel Douglas, where they were joined by the delegation from the Island, and after a few manœuveres escorted the visiting brethren to the hall by way of Mary, Front, Columbia and Lorne streets, where the services of the institution of Division 3 were performed by Sir Knight Col. A. Richardson of Nanaimo, assisted by Captain Benson and Lieutenant Plummer of Victoria. The following are the names of the officers of the new division in this City. Sir Knight James Harling, captain; Sir Knight T. Ackerman, lieutenant; Sir Knight J. S. Chisholm, herald; Sir Knight S. G. Tidy, secretary; Sir Knight N. Nelson, treasurer; Sir Knight L. Witt, guard; Sir Knight T. Gifford, sentinel.

After concluding the ceremonies at the hall, the brethren, repaired to the Hotel Douglas where a sumptuous repast awaited them. Sir Knight Col. Richardson rose and in a few words proposed the prosperity of the new division. The toast was drunk heartily by all, when Capt. Harling and Lieut. Ackerman thanked the Colonel. Speeches and songs were given by Capt. Benson and Lieut. Plummer of Victoria, and Sir Knights Dr. Cooper, P. Peebles, Sam Woods, J. L. Chisholm, Ogle, Randall, and Cohen, all of whom rounded off a neat speech. After singing "God Save the Queen" the whole company indulged in handshaking and bidding farewell to the visiting brethren, all of whom left for their respective homes this morning.

The Conversazione.

The conversazione, held last evening at St. Leonard's Hall, in connection with the congregation of Holy Trinity Church, was one of the most successful affairs of its kind ever held in the city. This spacious and well appointed hall was neatly decorated, being laid out with carpets and furniture which gave it a characteristic homelike appearance. His Lordship, the Bishop of New Westminster and Mrs. Sillitoe received the people heartily as they crowded in the main entrance, and in a short time the room was filled with the buzz of conversation, which stopped only when the entertainment given by the members of Holy Trinity choir was in progress, during the intervals between the pieces of which light refreshments were served by numbers of willing hands. Towards the close of the entertainment the Bishop, standing on the platform at one end of the hall, drew all to attention and in a few well chosen remarks expressed great pleasure at meeting so many of his parishioners and hoped that the present occasion would not be the last of its kind to be held in the hall. His Lordship gave an outline of the history as to how the hall was built, saying among other things that the donation of $1,000, by a member of the church, was a very tempting and encouraging gift, so, being accepted, the result was the neat building called St. Leonard's Hall. The Hall would be used for Holy Trinity Sunday School, Holy Trinity Club, The Choral Union, and for other meetings of the church. His Lordship finished his remarks by praising the work of Mr. Sharp, the architect, as well as that of Mr. Bonson, the contractor.

Mr. Sheriff Armstrong then addressed a few words to the audience, saying that every thing so far was satisfactory, but even more satisfactory would it be if a little debt hanging over the building were wiped out and that with the ever increasing congregation of Holy Trinity this would soon be an accomplished fact.

Mr. H. Fiennes-Clinton gave a financial statement, showing a very small deficit which a few of the wealthier members of the congregation could pay and never miss it.

This closed the evening's conversazione and all departed only wishing that such entertainments in connection with the congregation were more frequent.

SOLID THROUGHOUT.

Mount Lehman, Upper Sumas, Aldergrove and Langley as Well as Chilliwack, Maple Ridge, and Other Places Will Elect on the Independent Ticket.

(From Our Special War Correspondent.)

LANGLEY, June 5, 1890.—Leaving Mission on Wednesday morning, the candidates crossed the river to Mount Lehman, where a meeting was held at one o'clock. There was a good attendance of electors present, and the candidates were given an earnest hearing. Mr. E. W. King occupied the chair, and ably performed the duties pertaining thereto. The electors were distinctly in favor of the Independent ticket and were outspoken in their determination that Provincial rights, equal justice to all, and an honest redistribution measure are necessary to the country, and that such measures could only be obtained by electing such men to the House as are Independent and separate from all party ties. The meeting was most satisfactory, and our cause carried much the warmest share of the applause.

UPPER SUMAS SOLID.

The next place visited was Upper Sumas, which was reached late in the evening. By some miscarriage of Her Majesty's mails the notices of the meeting had not been received, and consequently only a few electors turned up. From all that could be learned, however, the settlement will go the Independent ticket almost to a man; possibly half a dozen will vote otherwise, but not more. THE COLUMBIAN was endorsed on all sides for the stand it has taken on the Redistribution measure, and its policy is endorsed on all sides, speaking for the sentiment exhibited all over the country so far travelled; I may say the people are wide awake to the danger they stand in from the policy of the Island Government, and they are determined that they will not submit to the bondage without a hard struggle for political freedom and their rights as citizens.

Alder Grove was the next place visited, but no meeting was held here, owing to the non-arrival of the posters to notify the electors. Talks with many of the electors, however, resulted in the discovery of the fact that the Independent ticket will be largely supported.

LOYAL LANGLEY.

Fort Langley was reached at 12 o'clock, Thursday, and the meeting convened at 1 o'clock. It was largely attended, and the audience was in strong sympathy with the Independent candidates, Messrs. Kitchen, Sword and Punch. Mr. Henry Harris ably filled the position of chairman, and Mr. Wilkie acted as secretary, performing this duty to the satisfaction of all. The important feature of this meeting was the complete "flop" made by the Government candidates. The meeting to a man almost was in favor of the Mainland Rights policy, and consequently the Government henchmen were either obliged to change front or lose all chance of even a small vote. Mr. Maxwell, Reeve of Langley, applied the council test in each instance, and always with the same result—the Government men "flopped." This is the way it was done:

Mr. Maxwell—Do you believe the Government sincere in its promise of Redistribution, and can that promise be depended on?

Mr. Kirkland—I do not!

Then the same test was applied to Mr. Henderson, who replied that he did not consider the Government pledged to a proper redistribution measure, and further that there was no sincerity in the promise.

Then Mr. Maxwell put the same questions to Capt. Thompson, who followed the tactics of the other Government supporters and declared his belief that the Government could easily evade the promise and get out of it without redeeming the supposed pledge.

Mr. Kitchen made a fine speech, and carried the audience with him. Messrs. Sword and Punch likewise made many friends and won lots of help to the cause.

THE CONVENTION.

The adjourned meeting of the convention to select a ticket to be upheld by the electors in support of the Mainland Rights policy, was held immediately after the political meeting. Reeve Maxwell occupied the chair. Delegates from several municipalities and settlements were present, duly accredited. Reeve Maxwell made a grand speech on the liberty of the subject, our just rights, and his determination to uphold the same through thick and thin, until the good cause was successful. His remarks had a telling effect, and were received with the wildest enthusiasm.

The following resolution was then put and carried unanimously: Moved by Mr. Haney, seconded by Mr. Sim, that we, the duly accredited delegates from the various municipalities and settlements, heartily support the strictly Independent candidates who are pledged to the platform of the Mainland Association and who are residents of the District.

Several delegates spoke on the burning questions, and their remarks all ran in the one strain, Mainland Rights and justice to the District.

The meeting then adjourned.

A LIVELY BRUSH.

Capt. Thompson Steals a March on the "Straight" Independents and the Ministerialists at Langley Prairie—Our "War Correspondent" Steps Into the Breach, the Independents Come Up, and a Complete Rout is the Result.

(From Our Special War Correspondent).

LANGLEY PRAIRIE, June 6th.—Following the meeting at Fort Langley on Thursday, another was announced to take place the same evening at Langley Prairie. By some strange misunderstanding the candidates were not posted as to the place of meeting, some going to one school, a few to another and only one, Capt. Thompson, reaching the proper place, namely, Murray's Hotel, at the hour named for the meeting. There was a large number of people waiting for the candidates, and not to disappoint them, Capt. Thompson opened fire and poured in broadside after broadside of red hot Government policy, private policy, etc., into the ranks of the electors present. For half an hour this sort of think continued, and the Captain was getting along swimmingly, elated at having the field to himself and probably counting between sentences the vast number of votes this meeting would add to his list on election day. Your correspondent arrived some time before the remainder of the candidates, and rather disturbed the unanimous harmony and one-sided character of the meeting.

Capt. Thompson had repeated a few of the Government pledges, which he felt certain would be carried out to the letter. By the way of divertisement your correspondent asked the speaker to explain how it was he had such confidence in the Government and Hon. John Robson, when only two hours before, at Langley, he had plainly stated on the platform that the Hon. Premier was not sincere in his promises, and did not intend to fulfill them. This rather staggered the Captain, and he endeavored to deny it, but was not permitted to do so, Mr. Sim, a gentleman present at the Langley meeting, bearing out to the letter the statement of your correspondent.

At this point the lost candidates arrived in a state of dripping perspiration and high indignation, and Capt. Thompson closed his remarks. Up to this point the meeting had been very one-sided, and it was boasted that the sentiment of the people lay strongly in the Robson direction. The candidates now took their turn in addressing the electors, and soon a change of opinion became apparent. Mr. Sword surpassed all his former efforts, and made a telling speech, and Mr. Punch gained lots of favor by his straightforward independent address. Finally Mr. Kitchen took the stump and gave the best speech of the evening, ripping the Government's policy to shreds, and advising the electors to use the franchise to obtain free and independent members in Parliament. His remarks were cheered to the echo and the cause was greatly advanced by his telling and convincing arguments.

Several well known settlers then addressed the meeting, and pointed out the abuses they suffered under in the way of roads, bridges, etc., and the manner of collecting taxes. After this your correspondent was loudly called for, and he responded to the best of his ability, and had the satisfaction of observing that almost the entire meeting was in accord with the sentiments he expressed. At the close of his speech a gentleman in the crowd called for three cheers for THE COLUMBIAN and they were given by the crowd in a manner that left no doubt as to the earnestness of their feelings. Mr. Henderson then made an attack on THE COLUMBIAN, accusing it of being straight Opposition, but your correspondent sent him back again to his seat with a flea in his ear, and heartily jeered by the crowd.

This meeting was one of the very best held in the canvass, and it did more real good in opening the eyes of the Government supporters than any of the previous gatherings.

SPRING ASSIZES.

(Before the Hon. Mr. Justice McCreight.)

Mr. Blake, for the defence of Lakinitze, cross-examined the Indian witness Billy at great length yesterday afternoon without shaking the evidence a particle.

Mary, the klootchman of the deceased Anmut, on being sworn, gave practically the same evidence as the previous witness, she also being an eye-witness to the murder, and a cross-examination failed to bring out facts other than those which have already been published.

Scharsmidt, a medical student, who performed the autopsy upon the body of the murdered Anmut, was sworn, and gave evidence regarding the nature and extent of the injuries, any one of which would have produced death. There was no appearance that the man had been drowned.

This concluded the evidence in the case, and neither counsel wishing to address the jury, His Lordship went over the facts which had been clearly proved, and instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of manslaughter, there having been no evidence of malice aforethought. The jury therefore returned a verdict of manslaughter without leaving their seats and the prisoner was remanded for sentence. The court then adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

Court resumed this morning at 10:30 o'clock, when the case of Regina vs. Wilson, for larceny at Vancouver was called.

The following jury was then impanelled: W. Cascallen, H. Morrison, J. Armstrong, R. Blake, W. H. Calder, David Nevin, J. Cash, H. Bruce, J. B. Burr, A. Campbell, Thos. Robertson, S. Calbeck (foreman).

Mr. A. St. George Hammersly, the Crown prosecutor, then addressed the jury, giving the circumstances of the case which are virtually as follows: Several men were at the Albion saloon, Vancouver, and among the number was the prisoner, Wilson, and the principal witness, Roach, from whom the money was stolen. Harry Roach had American notes and money to the amount of $100 or over, while it was known that prisoner had none. Roach became intoxicated, and a witness, Jamieson, observed prisoner put his hand in the left hand trowsers pocket of Roach, who went to sleep on a table in an adjoining room, and take something out. Roach had the money when he went to sleep, and all the contents of his purse were taken. In the meantime the prisoner was spending money freely, though but a few moments before he had none. Complaint was made to the police, and next day the prisoner was arrested, having the purse in his possession.

Harry Roach was the first witness called, and gave evidence to the effect of his having lost the money, and complaining to the police, with the result that the prisoner was arrested.

Jameson, the next witness, said that he was bartender at the Albion, and upon the night in question, when going out to draw beer, saw Roach asleep on the table with prisoner by his side. Saw him (prisoner) pull his hand out of Roach's pocket very quickly and put his hand in his own pocket. Saw little of him that evening, and thought the two men were friends.

Officer Haywood, of Vancouver, upon being sworn, said that he had searched the prisoner and found about $17 on him.

Wm. Jones, the next witness, who works on the Premier, said that prisoner came as a stowaway from Seattle to Vancouver, he having no money. He gave prisoner 25 cents to get a meal with shortly afterwards.

Montague, another witness, saw prisoner in the Tivoli that night and changed a $20 American note for him.

Frank Lytton, a prize fighter, said that the prisoner had a quantity of money on the night in question and wanted to lend him some.

This closed the case for the prosecution.

Mr. Gaynor, for the defence, then charged the jury, making an eloquent plea for his client, after which His Lordship summed up the case, putting the facts plainly and fairly before the jury, when, after retiring for 10 minutes, they brought in a verdict of "guilty."

The prisoner was remanded for sentence.

The court was then adjourned until 10 o'clock on Monday morning.

Open Doors Wanted.

A meeting of the school trustees will be held this evening at which a complaint of Mr. Bland against the teacher, Mr. Kaye, for whipping the former's boy will be considered. It is to be hoped the court of inquiry will sit with open doors. These are not wanting who attribute the very unprofitable school controversy, in which blood, religion and education were badly mixed up, to the bad practice of a public body in barring its doors and pulling down the blinds before proceeding to business.—Wednesday's Colonist.

A Providential Escape.

TROY, June 5.—Six ties were fastened with ropes across the Delaware and Hudson tracks just below the trestle work at Waterford, at eleven o'clock last night, with the evident intention of wrecking the north bound midnight sleeper. The engine attached to the pay car struck the obstruction and broke the ropes without leaving the track. No damage was done.

THE DAILY COLUMBIAN

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 6, 1890.

CORRESPONDENCE.

MAKE HASTE WITH THAT FERRY.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN—Sir: Having read a good deal about your Ferry vs. Bridge discussion between Westminster and the Surrey side of the Fraser, I yesterday had the pleasure, or I should rather say the terror, of crossing the river on what is known as the K. de K. ferry boat. There were three teams and about one dozen passengers besides the crew and some dogs, every possible space on the old scow was packed with something or somebody, the old water-logged thing was down to the water-edge, the least untoward movement would have launched every body and thing into the whirling foaming current. I have traveled a good deal and I never yet saw such ferry accommodation on such a river.

TO THE ELECTORS OF

New Westminster District

GENTLEMEN:—I beg to announce myself as an Independent candidate for the Legislative Assembly at the coming election.

As most of you are aware, I am an old resident of the District, and largely interested in its growth and prosperity.

I am in favor of the division of the District into ridings, and shall insist upon our having our fair share of representation, according to our population and resources, in the Legislature.

As this District contributes very largely to the revenue, it is clear that, subject to large appropriations for public works, and substantial grants to the various municipalities.

I am a strong advocate of a free traffic bridge across the Fraser at Brownsville, and should urge that the Government subsidise that work, and I should also press for the construction of a bridge across the Pitt River.

I am utterly opposed to the immigration of Chinese, and their employment on public works of any character.

I am strongly in favor of borrowing the money necessary to develop the agricultural country by opening up roads along the section lines.

I should advocate any reasonable assistance to a railway from Hope down the south side of the Fraser, as such a line would give a vast impetus to the development of our District.

If you do me the honor to elect me I shall do my best to advance our interests in these and other matters.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours sincerely,
JAMES PUNCH.
Brownsville, Surrey, May 31, 1890. jn2dwtd

TO THE ELECTORS OF

New Westminster District

GENTLEMEN:—I offer myself as a candidate to represent you in the Provincial Legislature, on the platform suggested by the Mainland Association, free from any pledge to either party.

I hold myself at liberty to give an independent support to any Government that may be chosen by the people. As an elector, I think the District would make a mistake should the electors condone last session's Redistribution Bill, by returning either the Hon. Mr. Robson, or candidates hampered by pledges to support his Government, as representatives of this constituency.

Mr. Robson is standing for Cariboo as well as for Westminster District, so there is no need to fear that the Province will be deprived of his services should the majority of the electors agree with me on this point.

I am in favor of dividing Westminster District into ridings.

Any measures that appear to me to be for the benefit of the Province would have my support, and I think that some safe scheme might be devised by which the credit of the Province might be lent for local improvements.

The contract system ought to be more strictly carried out.

I should also like to see some modification of the municipal system, by which localities outside of municipalities might have more direct control of the expenditures in their neighborhoods, so as to secure the most economical and efficient disposal of such funds and relieve the Central Government from the invidious task of deciding between different claims.

Speculation in wild lands, whether lumber, agricultural, or mineral, should be discouraged.

Should you elect me I will do my duty to the best of my ability, and trust you will give me credit for honesty of purpose, even should you dissent from my judgment.

Your Obedient Servant,
C. B. SWORD.

TO THE ELECTORS OF

Westminster District.

GENTLEMEN:—At the earnest request of a large number of the Electors of New Westminster District, I have consented to become a candidate to represent you in the Provincial Parliament.

I will endeavor to briefly present to you some of the principal points in my platform.

I am in favor of representation by population and will consider it my first duty to secure a fair and just representation for the Mainland.

I am in favor of dividing the District into ridings.

I will endeavor to increase the grant to municipalities from $1,000 to $3,000 per annum.

I would also be in favor of raising the tax on lands to such an extent as would prevent speculators from holding large tracts of land to the detriment of actual settlers.

I am in favor of the Government adopting a public works policy and borrowing a million dollars, and expending the same on roads and bridges throughout the District and also on some one for the reclamation of overflowed lands.

I would strongly urge upon the Provincial Government the necessity of urging the City of Westminster in the immediate construction of a Traffic Bridge across the Fraser River.

I would also use my best endeavors to have a railroad constructed from Popcum to the Fraser.

To repeal clause 9 of the Public Schools Act.

The cutting of a Canal from Mud Bay to the Fraser, thereby draining a large portion of the Delta, and avoiding the dangers of Point Grey.

To the erection of a Traffic Bridge at Pitt River and the extension of the Westminster road through to Agassiz.

I shall also endeavor, if elected, to visit all portions of the District prior to the meeting of Parliament to learn your wants, so as to be in a position to discuss the same intelligently during the session.

In conclusion, gentlemen, I would ask you for your votes, confidence and support at the approaching election.

I remain,
Yours faithfully,
my31td ARTHUR M. HERRING.

TO THE ELECTORS OF

New Westminster City.

GENTLEMEN:—In response to a requisition, numerously signed, which has been presented to me, I beg to offer myself as representative of this City in the Provincial Legislature.

I frankly confess that, aside from the great question of the just distribution of legislative power, I would scarcely care to be a candidate. If you do me the honor to elect me I shall make that question my first consideration at all times, and in order to do this it is essential that I keep quite free from any entangling alliances with either Government or Opposition. But to the people and the advocacy of the rights of the people, in this matter and in all others, I can fully and freely pledge myself; and with those, be they on what side of the House they may, who are animated by a similar spirit, I will work cordially.

The present crisis demands special treatment. We of the Lower Mainland are denied our just share of legislative power, and so long as that is the case our true policy, in my opinion—may be the policy which our own self-respect compels us to adopt—is to return no man to the Legislature who will not make the righting of that wrong his first business. It may safely be assumed that those who shall be found willing to do right in this matter, will be the most likely to do right in others also.

Notwithstanding the utmost devotion to this first question, your representative will have to deal with many other matters, and perhaps it will be sufficient now to say on this point that I believe there is room for a good deal of work before the administration of public affairs can claim to be what it should be—government by the people for the people. I should earnestly endeavor to do my share of that work.

I believe I may safely assume that you need no assurance of my deep and abiding interest in everything that makes for the prosperity of New Westminster City.

I am, Gentlemen,
Very truly yours,
dmy16tc J. C. BROWN.

TO THE ELECTORS

—OF THE—

Westminster Electoral District.

GENTLEMEN:—As it is difficult to arrange to see each individual elector before election day, I wish to put before you the platform on which I stand whilst seeking your support.

Up to the introduction of the Constitution Amendment Act, I should have supported the present Government, but I now stand independent of all parties on that measure, pledged to obtain a fair and just Redistribution Act immediately after the publication of the census returns; such act to be based as nearly as possible upon population, the abolition of the balance of power and the division of districts into one member constituencies. Outside this pledge I claim the privilege of being allowed to support any legislation of a just and beneficial nature which may be introduced by the Government.

I will endeavor to impress upon the Government the necessity of the utmost liberality in the expenditure for the opening up of all agricultural districts and even, if necessary, to borrow money for this purpose.

The conservation of all public lands for actual settlement, and the abolition of all sales of land in large areas, will be one of the chief objects I shall hold in view, and to also assist in the greatest amount of land being brought into cultivation. I would advocate the Wild Land Tax being raised to 25 cents per acre.

It will also be my endeavor to impress upon the Government the absolute necessity of taking steps to assist in the reclamation of the large area of land subject to overflow by the Fraser, so as to render it all fit for cultivation, feeling sure that any money spent in that direction will be a good investment, as the lands will be greatly enhanced in value for assessment.

From the above you will see I stand as a supporter of the Government, except on one measure, and feel sure that you will see that as I am a resident farmer in the district our interests are identical, and I hope to be able to materially advance the interests of the district should you honor me as your representative.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours Obediently,
LIVINGSTON THOMPSON.

Mr. Johnston, the agent of the C.P.R. in this city, is sending a novel kind of present to some friends in the east. The gift takes the form of a fifty-pound box of fresh salmon packed in ice by Mr. W. H. Vianen. There can be no doubt that such a gift will meet with the heartiest appreciatiation by those who receive it.

Victoria is all torn up over the corporal punishment in schools question. We have heard a great deal about the "bloody shirt" in the United States, but in Victoria the complainants, according to the Times, are waving the "bloody trousers" of the victim and eliciting loads of sympathy. The newspapers are literally stuffed with communications on the subject.

At the Victoria Board of Aldermen meeting on Wednesday night, says the Times, it was unanimously carried that in the future nine hours shall constitute a day's work for all corporation laborers. This is as it should be, and the employees are to be congratulated on the success of their appeal to the civic fathers for shortening the hours of labor. The aldermen, too, are to be complimented for the sensible and business-like view taken of the matter, for, as one of them very truly stated, "faithful work of nine hours will accomplish more than grudged work of ten."

THE LANGLEY CONVENTION.

By the report of our special correspondent, in another column, it will be seen that the meeting of delegates at Langley yesterday unanimously passed the following resolution: "That we "heartily support the strictly Inde- "pendent candidates who are pledged "to the platform of the Mainland As- "sociation, and who are residents of "the District." The choice of the convention is, by this resolution, made so clear as hardly to require notice. The three Government candidates, Messrs. Robson, Henderson and Kirkland, are, of course, counted out by the terms of the resolution, to begin with, and, in the second place, the clause "who "are residents of the District," bars the two candidates from this City who are seeking election in the District. In the third place, Captain Thompson, who is generally understood, and who has proved on several occasions, to be as much or more of a Government supporter than an Independent, is disposed of by the words "strictly Inde- "pendent candidates," and the choice falls of necessity upon the only remaining three, who, as everyone knows, are "the strictly Independent candi- "dates," and "residents of the District" besides—Messrs. Kitchen, Punch and Sword. These three are the unanimous and wise choice of the convention, and will undoubtedly be the choice of the free and independent electorate as well, one week from to-day, on Friday, the 13th of June.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. met yesterday afternoon and decided to hold a strawberry festival on Wednesday, June 18th, for the purpose of raising a little money with which to assist in the building enterprise. Just what they will do is not decided, but the money will be expended in some way that will add to the attractiveness of the rooms.

It does seem as if the Government organ on Church Street could not get anything straight. In copying the item from THE COLUMBIAN regarding Messrs. Bovill and Turner's new 20-ton sloop being built by McPhee Bros., it has to go and call the sloop a steamer. There is not a particle of truth in the assertion; the boat is meant to go with sails, not with steam.

The contract for the construction of the boilers and engines for the extension of the Victoria National Electric Tramway Company's plant has been let to the Albion Iron Works. When these are completed and in position, the company will have a motor force of 500 horse-power, or sufficient to operate the Esquimalt and Park extensions or any other extension which may be considered necessary the next few years.

Mr. Wheatley Bovill requests us to explain that although the 20-ton sloop which is being built for him by McPhee Bros. was constructed after ideas of his own, the plans and models are to be credited to McPhee Bros. They perfected the model and modified or expanded the suggestions of Mr. Bovill, as was deemed necessary. The finished model is a beautiful specimen of marine draughtsmanship.

Word comes from 'Frisco about a trick played on the famous Harry Bethune. This noted sprinter was outwitted by some sporting men at Fresno, Cal., recently. He won $4,000 from the sports, and they, learning the race was a "job," planned to get even with him. They regained his confidence, and then they induced him to bet on a horse at the Sacremento race. He lost all he had won. Bethune is now in Denver penniless and disgusted.

Yesterday afternon the presence of several peculiarly attired Indians caused no little curiosity and amusement. One of those gentlemen had a huge pile of furs around his hat, and although the weather was very warm, was muffled to the nose in heavy coats and wraps. Several of the others were similarly dressed and did not seem to mind it at all. The shop windows and their contents seemed to posses a very strong fascination for Messrs. Lo & Co.

Wants to Drown Herself.

It was reported around the streets last night that a woman living in the western part of the city had drowned herself and two children. On enquiry it turned out that the woman had merely threatened to do so, but had not possessed the necessary determination to carry so fell an intention into operation. It is understood that domestic infelicity is the cause of the unhappy woman's moody threat, she has vowed to carry her purpose into effect some time soon and she will accordingly be carefully watched.

Chinese Stabbing Affray.

Last night about ten o'clock news was brought to the police station that a Chinese stabbing affray was in progress somewhere in the swamp. Officer Sawyer at once set out for the scene of the feud and after a good deal of hunting around discovered and entered the house where the cutting had occurred. He found a Chinaman with his face badly cut and bruised. The delinquent was pointed out and promptly arrested and taken to the station. His case came up in the Police Court this morning and he was sent up for trial.

Of National Interest.

An Ottawa dispatch says: "At an Equal Rights meeting last night the announcement was made by an Englishman from Manchester named Schou, that in his capacity of secretary of the Manchester Conservative Association, he knew Balfour, Irish secretary, and was convinced from his knowledge of him that the Imperial Government would readily amend the British North American Act when requested to do so by Canadians. Mr. Schou is on his way to take up his residence in British Columbia and has been in the city several days." Mr. Schou is at present staying in this city, and it is his intention to take up his residence here permanently.

Scottish Sports.

It is not improbable that one effect of the late revival of the ancient and honorable Caledonian and St. Andrew's Society in this city, may take the form of an early morning practice club for the keeping up of Scottish sports and games. The subject is being animatedly discussed, and no doubt we shall soon see many of the members in hard training at putting the shot, throwing the hammer, tossing the caber and other of Scotia's hardy games; besides running, jumping and vaulting with the pole. This would be well, if only to bear out the lines of the "wizard of the north," that

"Some remnants of the good old time
Still linger in our northern clime."

A Grand Cricket Match.

Two teams of cricketers, captained respectively by Mr. Brine and Mr. Raymond, will play that long deferred match at the Queens' Park to-morrow afternoon. These teams were picked about a month ago, but bad luck has dogged them ever since, and on account of bad weather and other causes they have not been able to come together on the field. The following are the names of the two teams, and it is easy to believe that a splendid exhibition of skill will be witnessed to-morrow when they meet: Mr. Brine's team: Clinton, Irwin, Newington, Ransom, Hamber, Bell, Woods, Parkes, Powers, sr., Barry, Poindester, McFarlane, Webb, Cross. Mr. Raymond's team: Coulthard, Wyld, Townley, Vidal, Malins, Greame, Gifford, Read, Powers, jr., Armstrong, Lewis, Walker, Riley, Wilson.

Sun-dogs and Meteors.

Yesterday morning about 7 o'clock an astronomical phenomenon of rare interest was witnessed by a number of persons. It consisted of two false suns, one on either side of the sun. The strange and beautiful appearance of these solar attendants was much admired. In the western territories these phenomena are termed "sun-dogs," and are the infallible precursors of stormy weather. They have a peculiar appearance; a kind of conglomerate of color, like a circular piece cut out of a rainbow and endued with particular brilliancy. On Wednesday evening those who staid out late were so fortunate as to witness the magnificent career of a great meteor through the heavens. The beautiful spectacle was seen by many of our citizens. It rose to the north and sped in a grand arc across toward the south, filling the whole sky with splendor, and sinking at last out of sight near the moon. It is thought that the meteor and false suns are in some degree related in their almost simultaneous appearance in the sky. Westminster is not often favored with these aerial eccentricites, and it is to be hoped these mentioned do not portend any serious elemental disturbance.

Royal City Market.

To-morrow morning the Royal City market is to be opened to the public, under the management of Mr. J. Reichenbach, who is too well and favorably known to the Westminster public to require extended notice here. The opening of the market will mark an era in the progress of this city and is only another sterling evidence of how fast Westminster is advancing on the path of modern progress. The market has been fitted up in a manner at once artistic and substantial. Imported marble slabs cover the space between the chopping slabs, which are three in number and of native timber. A triple row of steel hooks right around the store, give evidence of the very large stock that will be kept on hand at all times. Immediately behind the salesmen's counter is the clerk's office, where the receipts can be conveniently passed in and change made expeditiously A very comfortable general office adjoins the clerk's office, and is fitted up in elegant style. A fine imported beam scale for weighing heavy orders is placed in the store. The establishment will maintain two large delivery wagons and a light cart, and all orders will be delivered by this means. The boys who will run these vehicles have instructions to take orders for meat, fish, game and vegetables, which will be delivered free of charge in any part of the city. The wagons and cart are very tastefully finished and painted and will give quite a gay appearance to the streets, dashing along with their spanking teams. Five horses will be kept to run the delivery part of the business; and, like the vehicles, they will be a credit to the city. Mr. Reichenbach will be assisted in the market by three experienced and courteous assistants; and he intends to keep always on hand a stock of the finest beef in British Columbia, and everything else for sale on the premises will be strictly first-class. Mr. Reichenbach says he is determined to handle nothing else. He has made arrangements to occupy the large wharf nearly opposite his premises, and the work of building a large shed on it will be commenced next week. On the wharf will be stored all the supplies for the establishment, hay, oats, ice, etc. The popularity of the genial manager of the Royal City market makes it tolerably certain that he and his assistants will be kept busy to-morrow.

Solemn Obsequies.

Long before nine o'clock this morning the vast seating capacity of the Catholic cathedral was filled almost to its utmost capacity. Many of our most distinguished citizens were noted in the great throng; among others, Hon. John Robson, Mayor Brown, Mr. Justice McCreight, Dr. C. J. Fagan, W. L. Fagan, G. A. Kelly, several of the City Council and many other well-known personages. The cathedral was handsomely draped in black and white crape festoons. Over the entrance was a scroll, reading, "He was beloved by God and men, his memory is in benediction." At the hour appointed the funeral cortege marched slowly down from St. Charles' church to the cathedral, to the solemn strains of the dead march in "Saul," beautifully played by the Indian band. The pall-bearers were Messrs. McNamara, McDonald, McDonough, W. R. Lewis, C. Fitzsimmons and P. McTiernan. The magnificent casket was borne to its temporary resting place on the catafalque fronting the altar, and the glimmering light of many candles shed a soft subdued lustre upon its flashing silver and polished wood, and the wreaths of flowers resting upon the top of the coffin. Then solemn Requiem mass for the repose of the soul of the great departed was begun. Bishop Durien sang the mass assisted by Bishop Lemmens, of Victoria. The singing of the Agnus Dei was particularly impressive, and visibly affected the great congregation. Clergy from all parts of the Province were present, as also many private persons who had come to pay the last tribute of sorrowing respect to the well loved prelate. A great many Indians from various portions of the Province were also present and took a deep interest in the proceedings. By them the dead bishop was almost worshipped, and it was affecting to witness the true and heart-felt sorrow of those humble people at the loss of him who had done so much for them. Throughout the city flags drooped at half mast on nearly every flag staff, and all classes and denominations seemed to have united in doing honor to the memory of the deceased bishop. Shortly after 12 o'clock the funeral procession was formed to march to the depot. Several carriages and a number of members of the priesthood, friends and visitors followed the hearse, and a vast crowd of natives followed on foot. A immense multitude assembled at the station to see the remains placed on board the special train which consisted of five coaches. The coaches were all well filled by those who went to witness the interment of the remains at the Mission. This last duty will be performed with all the solemn rites and ceremonies of the Roman Catholic Church.

Sought Davy Jones' Locker.

On Tuesday afternoon, a petty officer named Davie, belonginging to H. M. S. Amphion, jumped off the drydock into the water and attempted to drown himself. The splash was heard by one of his comrades who immediately ran to the rescue and, without waiting to rid himself of his clothes, jumped in after his drowning friend. After some trouble the would-be-suicide was rescued and taken to shore, and thence to the naval hospital, where at latest accounts he was doing well. No cause can be assigned for the attempt at self-destruction, although it is rumored among the crew that the man has frequent insane fits, one of which probably possessed him when he jumped into the water.—Times.
