ELECTION CARD.

To the Electors of New Westminster City and District.

GENTLEMEN:—At the urgent request of a large number of the Electors of the above Districts, I have consented to become a Candidate, and request your support and patronage.

My political banner is uplifted, and on it will be seen, printed in gold letters, "Straw Hats—good coverings for massive craniums; Men's Fancy Flannel Shirts; Balbriggan Underclothing; Summer Coats and Vests; Linen Dusters; Pique and Fancy Vests; White and Black Plug Hats;" all of which are very suitable wear for the present political campaign, which is liable to be very warm and close. (An endless variety of Men's and Boys' Suits, Felt Hats, etc.)

Electors, rally around this standard, and down with monopolists and—high prices.

I am perfectly sure I can give you better value for your money than any other candidate in the field.

Yours respectfully,

MILLIONAIRE GOULD

Does Not Care a Rap for Judge or Jury and Pays $500 Rather than Serve.

The Silver Bill Before Congress Will Likely be Vetoed by President Harrison.

Col. Baker is Elected for West Kootenay by a Majority of Three Over Law.

Gould Can Pay.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Jay Gould disregarded the summons to serve on jury to-day and the judge ordered that a fine of $500 be collected from him.

Ended His Life.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., June 19.—A man between fifty and sixty years of age committed suicide on the steamer Mexico yesterday afternoon a few minutes before she reached the wharf here. He shot himself in the head with a pistol. His name on the passenger list was David Strong. His ticket was from San Francisco to San Diego.

The Fruit Crop.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Some commission merchants say that the cold snap of March last, extending from Florida to Canada, taking in the eastern and middle states and nipping the blossoms of trees, will result in a large shrinkage of the fruit supply. The peach crop of New Jersey and Delaware, which last year amounted to considerably over a million bushels, will this year hardly reach 5,000 bushels, and these will be of inferior quality.

Passenger List.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—The str. Umatilla sailed for Victoria and Puget Sound ports this morning with the following passengers for Victoria: Mrs. Spencer, Miss F. Webster, Miss M. Popper, John Rice, Mrs. J. Hampton, K. Turnbull, J. R. Giscome, P. Graham wife and daughter.

The Silver Bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—The Critic publishes an article tending to show that Harrison intends to retire from public life at the close of his presidential term, and that he will have no hesitancy in vetoing the free coinage bill. It has been discovered that the silver bill that passed the Senate has been sent to the House Committee on coinage, weights and measures, instead of to the speaker's table as has been done always. The clerk of the House says this is the proper disposition of the bill under the new House rules. The silver men are suspicious of this move. They say it was advised by Speaker Reed and that the Coinage Committee may let the silver bill slip.

A Tyrannical Measure.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—R. Dunsmuir & Sons have positively refused to meet any committee from the Council of Federated Trades to arrange for the settlement of the troubles existing between the firm and the miners at the Wellington coal mines. It is reported that the Dunsmuir firm will begin evicting the families of the miners from their homes at the Wellington coal mines on July 12th.

Poor Old Juneau.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—The following is taken from a letter received from Juneau, Alaska, to-day: "This place is very dull. Capital seems shy of our low grade ore, as well as the richer rock. No one is making inquiry since the English and German syndicates have been buncoed into investing in the Bear's Nest. There are mountains of low grade ore in Alaska paying all the way from $2 to $8. Many claims can be had without cash down, if buyers only honestly agree to put up and work stamps. The continued prosperity of the Treadwell mine alone keeps Juneau in the hope that other careful men will come and take hold of other equally good fields, so abundant around lower Alaska."

Deserves Consideration.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—Irving M. Scott, president of the Union Iron Works, brought suit against the Iron Molders Union to-day. In his complaint he alleges that the union enticed competent workmen away from his shops, thereby damaging his business to the extent of ten thousand dollars, for which amount he sues.

Col. Baker Elected.

DONALD, B. C., June 19.—Complete returns from East Kootenay give Col. Baker a majority of three.

The Beautiful Prize Ring.

ARLINGTON, N. J., June 18.—Frank Brennen, who was knocked out in a prize fight by Wm. Gorman has become violently insane by reason of injuries inflicted upon his head.

Dishonest Census-Takers.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 18.—Seven census enumerators in Minneapolis have been arrested for padding the census returns.

The People Should Lynch Him.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 18.—A railroad disaster which occurred a day or two ago on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad near Ashland, and in which a number of persons were killed, was the means of saving Azero Polley, a desperado, from the gallows. Polley was under indictment for a criminal assault upon Julian Hester, the penalty for the crime being death.

King Cornegie in Trouble.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., June 18.—The extensive steel mills of Carnegie, Phillips & Co., at this place, shut down to-day. The rod mill bundlers struck last night for more pay and were discharged. No others could be got to take their places, and Supt. Dillon got angry and shut down the entire plant this morning. Three hundred men are out of employment, but all is quiet.

Youthful Criminals.

LOWELL, Mass., June 19.—Katie McNamara and Nellie Drury, each aged 14 years, were arrested to-day and charged with larceny of money, jewelry and women's wearing apparel from fifty houses in various parts of Lawrence. It was the practice of the McNamara girl to visit houses first, pretending to be deaf and dumb. If an opportunity offered she plundered the trunks, carrying with her a number of keys for this purpose. If there were indications when the McNamara girl visited the houses that the inmates were going away, she and the Drury girl subsequently entered the building by the rear windows. The McNamara girl was heard moving about in the upper portion of a house some weeks ago and surprised the occupants when they went up stairs by displaying a card inscribed "I am deaf and dumb, please help the unfortunate." Many articles of jewelry were found in her pockets and she was arrested. The case was pigeon-holed through the influence of friends. The two girls resumed operations at once, but escaped detection until to-day. At their homes the police found hats, caps, wallets and articles of jewelry.

The Mighty C. P. R.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 18.—Latest reports concerning the proposed Toledo & Western Railroad are to the effect that the Canadian Pacific are behind it. It is said they are not content with having to rely for their business on the mere traffic arrangement with the Wabash. President Hadley says that the road is sure to be built. He states that he has three million dollars cash and can get whatever additional sum is required. This is said to be the real secret of the aggressive policy that the Lake Shore Road has recently assumed in regard to east-bound rates. While it is nominally fighting the Grand Trunk on differentials, its war is really being made on the Canadian Pacific. The same policy is to be pursued toward it as the New York Central followed in regard to the West Shore.

Massacred By Indians.

EL PASCO, Tex., June 18.—A freight crew which arrived over the Southern Pacific railroad to-day reports that when they arrived at Separ station, just this side of Lordsburg, N. M., that place was in a commotion over the arrival of a cowboy, half-naked, bare-footed and with feet covered with cuts and blisters from having run ten miles from a ranch north of Separ where he and ten other men were camped. He stated that about ten o'clock last night a band of Indians surprised them and shot them down as they jumped up to run. He thought there were about 25 or 30 Indians in the band. The cowboys had been in bed a short time when the attacks was made. Some of them were armed, but did not have their guns handy, not expecting to find Indians on the warpath in that section. He saw three men drop and thinks all except himself were killed. Armed bands were formed at Lordsburg and Deming this forenoon to go out and hunt down the Indians. Separ is 13 miles west of this city.

Atlantic Steamship Service.

OTTAWA, June 17.—The conditions of the new Atlantic steamship service which the Government is asking, provide that vessels employed shall not be of less tonnage than 6,500 gross register, and provide for an average speed of not less than 18 or 19 knots. The English port of call is Plymouth or Southampton and the French Cherbourg or as may be agreed. The ports in Canada are to be Quebec in summer and Halifax and St. John in winter, the contractor to have the right after landing the mails to send steamers on from the terminal ports to other ports in England, France and Canada. The date of commencement of service is April 12, 1891, or as soon after as possible and to last ten years.

AN INTERESTING VISITOR.

Visit of the Lord Bishop of Qu'Appelle to New Westminster---Brief Description of His Work in the Northwest.

Our City is about to be visited by the Right Rev. the Hon. Adelbert J. R. Anson, D.D., Bishop of Qu'Appelle, who will preach at matins and evensong in Holy Trinity Church on Sunday, and afterwards attend the New Westminster Diocesan Synod next week.

The bishop, who is a member of a distinguished English family, of which the Earl of Lichfield is the head, resigned in the year 1884 a valuable and important living at Woolwich in order to take upon himself the onerous duty of organizing the newly-founded Diocese of Assiniboia, as the present See of Qu'Appelle was then called. He thus gave up present preferment and high prospects of future clerical advancement at home in order to promote the cause of religion in what was then a very wild and sparsely settled district of the Northwest Territory.

The See, it may be remembered, was at that time, as indeed it still is, scantily endowed, and a diocese that made and makes heavy calls in many ways upon its administrator. Bishop Anson has, since his appointment, worked very vigorously, and like other settlers in the Northwest, and perhaps more than most, in consequence of his necessarily frequent wintry peregrinations, endured much in his good cause. His diocese, which comprises the district of Assiniboia, contains an area of no less than 96,000 square miles, and has probably to-day a population of 30,000. It is wholly agricultural, and mainly peopled by hardy British settlers, amongst whom the Bishop is as a thoroughly good fellow and very popular.

One of the most useful works in which the bishop is actively engaged is the management of a church farm at Qu'Appelle, which provides a temporary home and a place of preparation in the agriculture of the country for young settlers. It also serves as a college for candidates for Holy Orders who are willing, like St. Paul of old, to work with their hands to earn their own living. The farm, too, gives employment to men who, forming a brotherhood of labor, are willing to help the work of God by the devotion of their lives and the skill of their hands. Attached to the farm is a school for the sons of the settlers.

This remarkable institution has, as may well be imagined, a marked influence for good over an immense district of the North-west, even if the farm and school be regarded only from a secular point of view; for they greatly tend to the promotion of that skilled and thrifty agriculture on which the fortunes of Assiniboia must for a long period of the future be wholly dependent.

It is understood that the offertories at Holy Trinity next Sunday will be devoted to church missionary purposes in the diocese of Qu'Appelle.

Kootenay Projects.

There is important news, says the Times, concerning the wonderful silver district. Some days ago Mr. Adrian, a distinguished expert, representing the Northern Pacific Railway Company, went to Kootenay to propose to the mine owners a branch of that line from Kootenai, Idaho, to a point a few miles below Bonner's Ferry, and he has gone away confident that $250,000 can easily be raised among the capitalists interested. The line and an ice boat running down the Kootenay river and lake will secure access at all seasons to the mineral camps. Great encouragement is thus given followed by Mr. Wheeler's company, operating nineteen claims at the Warm Springs, deciding to put in at once pumping machinery to clear the Skylight and Kroo, and this will be followed probably before the end of the season by an electric power plant on Coffee Creek which will go far to develop the country. There appears to be little doubt that Hendry's company will build a big smelter at the Bluehill mine. A mine with two eighty feet ledges cannot prevent being a bonanza sooner or later. But the best news is that a company is being formed of Spokane capitalists now in camp, with two million dollars. They are going to push work on eleven claims now in their hands and the result will be a very big one. Within a few years a mining town of the calibre of Butte and Leadville will spring up on Kootenay Lake.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

SALISBURY'S SURRENDER

Of British Rights to Germany is Not Likely to be Ratified by Parliament.

Female Conspirators and Political Offenders in Russia Suffer Further Indignities.

Thirteen Fresh Cases of Asiatic Cholera Reported in the Province of Valencia.

Salisbury's Surrender.

LONDON, June 18.—Lord Salisbury's surrender to Germany is the main topic of discussion, and its ratification by Parliament is somewhat doubtful. The objections to the Premier's concessions, however, are by no means consistent. The radicals, for instance, admit that they themselves advised the cession of Heligoland in return for German concessions in Africa, but they declare their inability to see that Germany has made any concessions. It is probable, however, that they would be just as blind for political purposes if Germany had surrendered her entire interest in Africa, and withdrawn her last man from that territory. The Liberals are little less inconsistent than the Radicals, but will stoutly oppose the agreement when it comes before Parliament, for purely political reasons.

Placed Under Surveillance.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—Madame Tshebrikona and fifteen others have been removed to a remote village at Yarensk, Department of Vologoda, in the northern part of Great Russia, where they will be placed under surveillance. Madame Tshebrikona is the woman who recently wrote a remarkable letter predicting for the Czar the fate of his predecessors, Peter III., Paul I. and Alexander II., unless his reactionary policy was modified and the rigors of the treatment accorded to political offenders were abandoned. The letter was found in the private apartments of the Czar, and subsequently very generally published throughout Europe and the United States.

Spread of the Cholera.

MADRID, June 18.—Thirteen new cases of cholera were reported at Puebla de Rugaro yesterday.

Turkish Quarantine.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 18.—In consequence of the outbreak of cholera in Spain, the Government has established quarantine against all vessels from Spanish ports.

A Poultry Deal.

BERLIN, June 18.—The Emperor has conferred the Order of the Black Eagle upon Caprivi.

Royal Accouchement.

LONDON, June 17.—The Duchess of Fife (Princess Louise of Wales) was delivered of a stillborn male child yesterday. It is probable that the child will be buried with royal honors as being a member of the family of the Prince of Wales.

The African Question Settled.

LONDON, June 17.—Lord Salisbury's dispatch to Sir Edward Malet, British ambassador to Berlin, containing England's agreement with Germany, declares that Germany's claim that where one power occupies a coast, another power may not without consent of the first power occupy unclaimed regions in the rear, cannot be allowed in cases where such country is occupied by Englishmen. Where there are no English settlements Lord Salisbury admits there is no English title. The agreement is that England retains Stevenson road, which is to be the boundary line between the English and German spheres. The line stretches from the mouth of the Bakura west from Lake Nyanza to the mouth of the Kilambo south, and from Lake Tenganyika northward. Germany retains the region as far as the Congo state, along the first degree of south latitude. The boundary diverging around the western shore of Nyanza so as to make the frontier meet the territory covered by Stanley's treaties. The agreement also accorded a mutual free passage for English and German subjects through the respective territories. Germany's concession of Vitu with the plains of Somali, Mander and Patta, comprises a coast line exceeding 200 miles. England is endowed with an exclusive protectorate over Zanzibar and Pamba. Heligoland is ceded to Germany subject to the consent of parliament. The statu quo is to remain, pending a ratification of the agreement.

DOMINION CANDIDATES.

The Three Candidates for Parliamentary Honors Expound Their Views Last Night.

There was a very small crowd in the Opera House last night when Mayor Brown was voted to the chair. The hall, however, was well filled before the first speaker had finished his remarks. The chairman briefly bespoke for Messrs. Ladner, Townsend and Corbould, the candidates for election to the House of Commons, a fair and patient hearing and limited them to 40 minutes speaking each. He then introduced Mr. W. B. Townsend, who was saluted with hearty applause. Mr. Townsend said his reason for coming out as a candidate was simply and solely ambition. He had done fairly well for himself and he now wanted to see if he could not do something for the people, besides getting a little glory for himself. He then charged Mr. Ladner with being the nominee of a Victoria clique and said he could prove it. He had nothing against Mr. Corbould, but that he was the nominee of the C. P. R. and he, the speaker, could prove that, too. He could not boast of a legal education, but he had been head boy in the greatest charity school in England and if he had staid there he might have had as good an education as Mr. Corbould. Mr. Townsend said his address had been published a fortnight before any of the others, and the addresses of his two opponents were merely condensed copies of his. He was a free trader on the principles of English free trade, and he exhaustively explained that system. He was also an advocate of reciprocity on all articles that can be raised here and he would modify the tariff on all articles we have to bring in. On the Fraser river mail subsidy question he knew that if Mr. Chisholm had been alive the Dominion Government would not have dared to take away the subsidy. Mr. Ladner, he thought, was rather unscrupulous in many matters and he charged that gentleman with misquoting him on several occasions. He thought Mr. Ladner was pushed forward by the canners and told a story about some land-grabbing in which some relative of Mr. Landner had been engaged. Mr. Townsend then went into the details of the immigration, timber lands and fishing license questions and pointed out where they needed amendment and how he would do it if sent to the House. He had always been a consistent anti-Chinese man, but had to employ Chinese sometimes when no white men were to be had. He then charged Mr. Ladner with having temporised with this matter in the House. He closed his address by exhorting his hearers to put down monopoly and give workingmen a show.

Mr. Ladner, in coming forward, said he had a cold and did not feel in good trim. Of all the political speeches he ever heard anywhere Townsend's "took the cake." At the beginning of the campaign Townsend had come to him and said, "Bill, if you can outlie me this trip the cake is yours." But he had no intention of matching himself in a game of this kind against a gentleman of Mr. Townsend's abilities. Mr. Ladner then sarcastically dealt with the assertion of Mr. Townsend that there were to be no personal remarks in his canvas. He then refuted the statement of Mr. Townsend that he was the nominee of a Victoria clique. He disclaimed all knowledge of any such people, and never solicited any support in Victoria. As to the land-grabbing done by his relative he could only say he himself had nothing whatever to do with it; he was not his brother's keeper. Mr. Ladner then described how the electors of Sumas have to travel away out of their own district to get to their assigned polling place, and said this must be remedied. He charged this poor arrangement on a partner of Mr. Corbould's and said if the legal gentlemen could not do any better in the House than that they had better keep out of it. The speaker then said he had been misreported in the Westminster COLUMBIAN and in the Victoria Colonist. The report in the former paper concerning the meeting at Langley, was grossly unfair and the very opposite of what he was reported as having said on the Chinese clause is what he did say. He would, if elected, give the Dominion Government a free and independent support. On the timber lands, fishing license and Chinese questions, the speaker was of the same mind as his predecessor. He thought it would be well if all immigrants were met by agents on their arrival in this country and directed where to find homes, as is done in the United States. Mr. Ladner concluded by urging the voters to go to the polls and vote for someone, and if they wanted an old and tried servant they could safely vote for him.

Mr. Corbould then stepped to the front. He thought he could safely apply Mr. Ladner's remarks about Mr. Townsend to their own author, as his remarks had been most personal. Mr. Townsend had said the addresses of the other two candidates were merely condensed copies of his own, but he would leave that to the judgment of the electors, as he thought the statement was absurd enough to provide its own refutation in the mind of every reader. The mail service wanted looking after, especially up river. At Langley the people got mails very irregularly and it was very hard on the settlers, and only wanted to be brought to the notice of the Government to be rectified. On the fishing regulations there was also wide room for improvement. As the thing stood at present injustice was done the individual fishers. Not a license had been taken away from the canneries. There was one thing the other speakers had failed to mention at all, and that was the Fraser River traffic bridge. This was one of the important things to be brought before the Dominion Government. He did not think the Dominion Government would make appropriations for our roads, but hope could be held out as far as bridges were concerned. Manitoba and the Northwest had received appropriations, and there was no reason why this Province should not. If the matter were properly brought before the Dominion Government we ought to get both the bridge to Brownsville and that across the Pitt River. Mr. Ladner had refrained from making mention of the bridge across the Fraser because the people of Ladner's Landing do not favor such a bridge at all, as it would take away a good deal of trade from them. Mr. Corbould then touched upon the questions of representation in the House of Commons, Chinese restriction, and the charge against him as being a nominee of the C.P.R., in detail. He said he had nothing whatever to do with the C.P.R. beyond being their solicitor here. They had not nominated him, and he was as free to take action against the C.P.R. as any man in the assemblage before him. In the matter of immigration he said it was really sad to see the carloads of immigrants arriving at Vancouver all the time, and nearly every one of them bound for Oregon or Washington. Something should be done to retain those settlers here as there was plenty of land for them. The energy and enterprise of the American agents might be emulated with profit by this Province. He would also like to see the snag boat put to better use than it was at present; also a system of receiving boxes for letters all over the city. In regard to the North Arm mail service the Government ought to subsidize it and not have the people going to private enterprise and industry to get their rights. As to the land surveys, people are coming here ahead of the surveys; there is not land ready for them and this matter should be remedied immediately as it is a vital one. Mr. Corbould hoped every elector would go to the polls and vote and give the winning candidate a good round majority.

Senator McInnes then spoke for a few minutes. He was sorry there was no Independent or Opposition candidate in the field. He made a very good speech which was enjoyed by the audience.

At the conclusion of the Senator's remarks the audience dismissed in an orderly manner.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN WYOMING.

THE House of Representatives passed in April a bill admitting Wyoming into the Union as a State. By this act woman suffrage is declared to be not antagonistic to the constitution of the United States. How Wyoming came to occupy the privileged position of being the pioneer state in the women's movement has recently been told by Mr. Horace Plunkett. In the pages of the Fortnightly Review he gives some facts relating to twenty years of women's suffrage in that region, and his article is full of valuable and interesting information. The bill granting female suffrage was passed more in a joke than in earnest, but with the truly American eye for attractive advertising.

As an advertisement the passage of the act proved a success. At first women were decidedly apathetic in exercising their privileges, but this soon changed. The officials insisted upon females serving as jurors, and familiarity with this obligation soon aroused a more than usual interest upon their part in public affairs. As grand jurors, women speedily interested themselves in putting down gambling, enforcing the Sunday observance laws, and making presentments in regard to the liquor traffic. Female jurors were found to be just even to severity (one authority terming them "blood-thirsty"). Once convinced of a prisoner's guilt, they dealt rigourously with him, in many cases failing to temper justice with mercy.

Attempts have been made to deprive the women of the suffrage, but without success, the Repeal Bill being refused the Governor's assent. In Wyoming about eighty per cent. of the electorate go to the poll, and about one-third of these are women. There is less illiterary in that state than in any other in the Union. It is noticeable that the married women exercise citizens' privileges to a greater extent than their unmarried sisters. Strange to say, no woman has yet run for office, although every position is open to both sexes. It is found that the female element in the electorate is opposed strongly and bitterly to vice and depravity of all kinds, and in dealing with houses of ill repute, it is insisted that offenders of either sex shall be dealt with equally severely.

It is generally conceded that the entrance of women upon public life in Wyoming has had an elevating effect, and none of the evils so freely anticipated from their admission to citizens' rights have been felt. The case of Wyoming should form a good example, and it is only reasonable to expect that, inasmuch as woman suffrage has been a positive advantage to that State, it might, and probably would, be equally beneficial if more extended.

UTILIZING WASTE MATERIAL.

THE triumphs of invention and discovery, meaning thereby the conquest which science and mechanism are constantly making over the forces of nature, are often dwelt upon. And it is indeed wonderful how many of nature's raw materials enter into the manufacture of articles used to satisfy man's daily needs and comforts. But the wonders of production, as has been truly remarked, are not confined alone to minerals dug from the earth's bosom, or to the organic life which flourishes upon its surface. On the contrary, man's inventive skill has perfected the art of utilizing waste materials, so that the residue of former arts furnishes the substance upon which new workers expend their labor. Illustrations of this do not have to be sought alone in stores for second hand clothes and furniture, but rather where new and costly commodities are bought and sold. It is necessary to specify only a few representative manufactures where the raw materials are waste products to see the extent to which they are carried on. For instance, millions of bushels of cotton seed have been thrown away in the various States of the South. But now it is utilized in the manufacture of oleaginous products, and promises to be the chief source of many kinds of oils. The slag of furnaces for many years was dumped into ravines and piled upon vacant fields until it had accumulated in vast quantities, but now it is being mined again, resmelted in some instances, made into asbestos and used in balasting roads. Paper is made mostly from waste materials, and it enters into the composition of a thousand things, from a cigarette wrapper to a car wheel. Blood is manufactured into door knobs, shutters and doors are made from wood pulp, sawdust is a most useful article, dust and dirt are transformed into multitudinous building materials, while the waste products of the gas house are more valuable, if possible, than the original substance. It was formerly supposed that clay was useful only for embankments, for making bricks or pottery. But now a most useful and beautiful metal is extracted therefrom, and clay banks, rich in aluminum, will soon be as valuable as iron mines. And so the catalogue might be extended indefinitely, but this is sufficient to show the variety of uses to which waste products are put, and also as showing a tendency to economy in manufacture, which is one of the hopeful signs of the time.

Lessons in Decorative Art.

Mrs. I. L. Dias is prepared to give lessons, at the Russel House, to a number of pupils, in decorative art, landscape and flower painting, point lace and various kinds of embroidery. Work can be seen at Ogle, Campbell & Freeman's and Jas. Ellard & Co.'s. *t6

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A House Committee at Washington, reporting favorably upon a bill to prohibit aliens from acquiring title to or owning lands within the United States, declares that it has ascertained with reasonable certainty that European noblemen, principally English, have acquired and now own about 21,000,000 acres of land in that country. It states, moreover, that European capitalists have invested millions in American railroad and land bonds, covering something like 10,000,000 acres, the greater part of which, under foreclosure sales, will probably before many years become their property in addition to their present princely possessions. The country is therefore threatened, the report says, with the evils which attend absentee landlordism, and the aim of the bill is to ward off these evils. It declares all foreign-born unnaturalized persons incapable of taking any title to lands in the United States, except a leasehold for not more than five years, and it further provides that all present alien landowners shall cease to be such or become citizens of the United States within ten years.

AN American merchant, a resident of Newburg, N. Y., who has had large experience in advertising, gives his experience of the value of newspapers, based on circulation. He claims that the true value of newspaper circulation is very imperfectly understood by advertisers. For instance, take a newspaper with a bona fide circulation of 20,000 copies, the subscription list of which is composed of people in the lower grades of life—those who take a paper for the purpose of "keeping posted" on the subject of murders, prize-fights, police reports and matters sensational, and whose minds run in channels which the better-thinking people abhor, and then compare this publication with that of another which has not more than one-quarter of that circulation, but which goes among the middle and better classes, who take a paper for general news and want nothing that has a tendency to demoralize the minds of young readers. Now, to the advertiser, which of the two will serve his purposes better? The first named would certainly have an advantage, if the number of subscribers was all that is to be taken into consideration, but if value of readers is considered, the advertiser would surely pay more for space in the newspaper with the smaller circulation. "I have tried all sorts of advertising," he adds, "in all sorts of publications, and, from experience, which has cost me considerable money, have been taught to always enquire, 'what class of readers is your subscription list made up from?' and I have met with greater success in my business by patronizing those papers which I know to have good family circulations than those which cater to large circulations of the flash order—much of which consists of street sales and the balance going among the residents of the tough neighborhoods." His closing advice to advertisers is to demand the quality of the circulation.

THE DAILY COLUMBIAN

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 19, 1890.

The "Mischief's" Mission.

During the last few weeks, says the Colonist, a considerable quantity of correspondence has appeared in the Portland and San Francisco papers, under the head of Victoria Special Correspondence, relative to the mission of the steam schooner Mischief to the north. It was stated that Victoria sealers were bound for a raid on the seal islands; that she went prepared to resist seizure in Behring's Sea, and that she intended to defy the cutters and do diverse other rash and foolish things. Naturally Victorians took offence at this distortion of facts, evidently for the purpose of prejudicing British interests in the Behring's Sea dispute. Enquiries were made as to the identity of the correspondent, and it was finally ascertained that he had no existence. Not one of the despatches published, as from Victoria, ever passed through the telegraph office here, and were evidently manufactured in some American city to suit the ends of certain wire pullers. The Mischief has not gone on an illegal mission, but simply to bring back the catch of the sealing schooners. Her intentions are fully understood by the American authorities, and they have done all they can to expedite her trip.

From Kootenay.

Col. James Baker, of Kootenay, who is still in doubt as to the result of the election in his district, arrived in Victoria on Sunday evening, says the Colonist, and will remain there for a week or ten days. He says that the published reports in regard to the vote in East Kootenay have been incorrect in one very important particular—Mr. Law's majority, with Cranbrook, Fort Steele and Windermere to hear from, was FIFTEEN, not forty-five. The three places whose votes are yet to be recorded contain 58 voters, almost every one a Government man, and should give the colonel a majority. If defeated he will attribute it to the fact that his friends were so sure of his success that they did not think it necessary to vote.

Between Wild Horse Creek and Sheep Creek a new quartz ledge has just been discovered by Mr. David Griffiths. It shows copper and silver which assay very high, and is large enough to satisfy the most fond expectations. Development has already commenced, and great things are looked for from the new claim. A Government trail has been made to follow the ledge round, and when the Crow's Nest Railway comes in it will pass very near to it.

The Government has also had a trail made up the Bluewater, and there is every prospect that the country thereby opened will be found rich in minerals. That it is a valuable district is shown by the large quantity of float containing minerals always to be found on the creeks. Hitherto the country has been literally inaccessible.

Drinking the Stirrup Cup.

The Canadian boys will soon be on their way to represent Canada at Wimbledon, at least what is called Wimbledon merely from old associations. Their leader hails from British Columbia, and he was wished godspeed last evening with military honors by the B. C. B. G. A. There was a good muster of both officers and men, and a grand march was taken up to Col. Prior's residence last evening. Col. Prior met them on their arrival and welcomed them. He said that he fully appreciated the honor of leading the Wimbledon team this year. Canada's team had always borne a high reputation in England, both for their skill with the rifle and their thorough good-spiritedness and social qualities. It was not his intention by any means to let the standard fall this year, so far as his ability as leader went (cheers). In fact he would endeavor to excel her reputation (renewed cheers).

Col. Wolfenden bade him good-bye in a neat speech, in the course of which he congratulated the B. C. B. G. A. on having their colonel leading the Wimbledon team. There was, however, no reason why British Columbia should not have some competitors on the team, as well as the leader. They could do it if they liked just to settle into work and try for it. Perseverance alone was needed, and British Columbia boys had that quality if it were only supplemented by a decent range in Victoria. Three cheers were given for the colonel and three more for Mrs. Prior to compensate her for the staying at home. A parting cup was then drunk to the departing leader.—Tuesday's Colonist.

The wet weather last night prevented the usual lacrosse practice. To-morrow night, however, if the weather permits, there will be a good practice.

All danger of damage from high water is over for this season. The early flood this year probably saved the Lower Fraser country from serious loss.

The friends and supporters of Mr. F.C. Cotton, M. P. P., have invited him to a banquet at the Imperial Opera House, Vancouver, on Friday evening, 17th inst.

Alderman Gifford was kept busy to-day receiving the congratulations of his many friends. Ald. Gifford will take his seat in the City Council on Monday evening next.

At the Y. M. C. A. rooms to-morrow evening the Ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will give a literary entertainment and strawberry festival. A good time may be expected.

If lay delegates attending the meeting of the New Westminster Diocesan Synod, to be held in Vancouver next week, will bring with them a receipt for railway fare they can procure return tickets at one-third rate.

A prominent advocate of the single tax theory gives a lecture in the Opera House to-morrow night. The Sons of Crispin should turn out en masse to hear this able lecturer. He is said to be a fine speaker and debater.

The saloons were all closed—in front—to-day and the druggists had quite a number of spiritus frumenti prescriptions to fill. Everybody says it was the quietest election ever seen here. A great many people didn't seem to care a rap which of the candidates went in and a large number did not vote at all.

Building operations have been hindered to a large extent during the past two weeks by the wet weather. Street work also has received a set-back, and many men have been forced to remain idle for several days at a time. However, the weather has brightened up again, and if it remains fair the lost time will soon be made up.

At the weekly meeting of the Hyack Fire Company, held last night, Mr. W. H. Vianen was elected captain in the place of Mr. Geo. Scoullar, resigned. Mr. Vianen is one of the veteran members of the gallant Hyacks, and the chief office of the company could not have fallen on more worthy shoulders.

A man named Charles Brown was fined $5 in the police court this morning and ordered to pay $6 damages for battering in Miss Bella Moore's door on Wednesday evening last. Brown was also drunk and disorderly on the occasion mentioned. He paid the fine and damages and thus escaped the one month's imprisonment in default, that accompanied the sentence.

The scaffolding, which withheld the architectural beauties of the Powell Block from view, has been torn away, and the fine structure now stands revealed in all its handsome proportions. In a few days the street opposite the block will be cleared of the unsightly pile of rubbish which has disfigured it so long, and then the beauty of the new structure will be made fully apparent.

It is said that a masked man entered a house of ill-fame last night and stole money to a very large amount, besides jewelry and trinkets valued at a considerable sum. The thief, it is thought, entered by a window in the rear of the house and committed the burglary in his stocking feet, no marks of boots being visible on the floor. The crime was perpetrated by someone who was intimately acquainted with the plan of the house.

The Election in Ward 4.

Our figures yesterday re the civic election in Ward 4 were received by telephone and were scarcely correct. The total vote was considerably larger than we gave it, being 50, instead of 32, and out of this vote Mr. Gifford, the successful candidate, got 31, and Mr. Colbick 19. The voting was very creditable for such an unpleasant day as yesterday, and Mr. Gifford is to congratulated on his handsome majority.

Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M.

The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M. of British Columbia commenced at Vancouver this afternoon at 3 o'clock, Most Worshipful Grand Master, J. S. Clute, presiding. There was a very large attendance of delegates from the lodges throughout the Province, and of visiting brethern. The reports of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer were read, and other routine work transacted. This evening the brethern will attend Divine service at St. James Church, in full regalia, and the sermon will be delivered by the Grand Chaplain, His Lordship Bishop Sillitoe. The proceedings of the Grand Lodge will be concluded to-morrow evening.

A Promising Association.

The institution of Lodge “Rose of Columbia, No. 115,” of the order of Sons of England, in this city, yesterday, was a most gratifying success for the indefatigable promoters of the society. Over 120 members are enrolled on the books of the lodge, and at its initiatory meeting last night, in Temperance Hall, before the banquet, 85 of these were initiated. The following officers were elected and duly installed by the Grand Lodge representative, Rev. H. B. Hobson, of Vancouver, District Deputy S.O. E.B.S. for B.C.: Worthy President, Robert Allan; Worthy Past President, F. Davis; Worthy Vice-President, J. E. Phillips; Worthy Secretary, Gerald H. Cross; Worthy Treasurer, Edmund Ogle; Worthy Chaplain, Rev. G. H. Tovey; Inner Guard, Mr. Male; Outer Guard, Mr. Smith; Surgeon, Dr. E. Walker, Managing Committee, Messrs. Walker, Pelly, Blake, Wise, Baker, and Mellie; Lodge Trustees, Messrs. Latham and Brenchley; Auditors, Messrs. Chartris, Burchell, and Wever. Judging from its successful inauguration, the Sons of England lodge in this city is destined to be a very strong and flourishing society.

Single Tax.

The Tax Reform Association of this city, which has a large and ever-growing membership, has arranged with Mr. B. H. West, of Victoria, to deliver an address on the single tax to-morrow evening at Herring's Opera House. The chair will be taken by Mayor Brown, M.P.P., at 8 o'clock. No admission fee will be charged, the object of the meeting being to spread the doctrine all over the country by means of free literature and free lectures. The meeting to-morrow night will attract a large audience, as many people who have a very indifferent idea of the single tax theory are curious to hear it explained.

Return of the Favorites.

On Monday evening, June 23rd, Harry F. Keene's Company of players, who played a successful two nights' engagement in December last, and gave good satisfaction, will again appear at Herring's Opera House. The company has been materially strengthened since last here, being now headed by the famous actress, Miss Caroline Gage, who is celebrated as being the youngest as well as one of the handsomest ladies on the American stage. The company will open their engagement Monday evening in the beautiful five-act society drama “Queena” or the life of an actress, by the great playwright, Tillottson. The sale of reserved seats has opened at Hall's book store, at the usual prices.

A Coming Attraction.

The Westminster Lacrosse Club has made arrangements with Prof. Connery and Mr. Chas. Kelly to give an entertainment in Herring's Opera House on the evening of the 27th inst. Prof. Connery is known beyond the Rockies as the “Celebrated Irish elocutionist, humorist and dramatic reader,” and has won considerale fame throughout Manitoba and the Western Territories. Mr. Chas. Kelly is spoken of by the press as the “famous basso cantante and solo guitarist.” Both gentlemen come highly recommended by the press, and their entertainment should be of a very high standard. That the affair will be a success financially goes without saying; the lacrossists have taken it up, and whatever they support is sure to result successfully.

DOMINION ELECTION.

The By-Election is Conducted Peaceably and Without a Trace of Excitemennt.

Long before the polls opened this morning small knots of electors gathered on the streets and discussed the probable results of the contest. The fact that the labor associations had decided to throw their support in favor of Mr. Townsend caused much comment, as this action had not been expected by the friends of the other candidates. Mr. Ladner made this City his headquarters, and directed the movements of his share of the fight from here. The friends of all three candidates worked hard, but with all their efforts only a small vote was polled, and the interest in the election was not at any moment of the day to be compared with the Provincial contest last week. Carriages were brought into requisition and the “free and Independents” who were disinclined to dirty their boots on the muddy streets, were cheerfully driven to the poll in a handsome barouche or laudau or a hack. But there was no excitement, no banners, no favors, and no fire water. All bar rooms were closed during the day; closed so very hermetically that not even a drop of the “crattur” could be made to squeeze through the chinks in the partitions. It was a dry day to a good many people; more parching than they have experienced for several years. After 4 o'clock few votes were cast, and all parties relinquished their efforts, to await the report from the polls.

It is expected that the full returns will be in by midnight, but the returning officer will not make an official declaration until the 26th inst.

SONS OF ENGLAND.

The Rose of Columbia Lodge Enjoys a Fine Banquet at the Queen's Last Night. Loyal and Patriotic Songs and Speeches.

The Sons of England did not have their grand street parade last night as they had arranged, owing to the disagreeable weather and the appalling condition of the streets. Later in the evening, however, they assembled, some 150 strong, at the Queen's Hotel, where a fine banquet had been set forth by Mr. Walker, the genial proprietor. The banqueting hall, with its long tables covered with snowy cloths, silver ware and crystal, and its many brilliant lights presented a very handsome appearance. The assembled guests sat down and when all had been accommodated with seats the room was filled to nearly its utmost capacity. The chair was taken by Bro. R. Allen, President of the Lodge, which numbers 120 members. There were present about twenty invited guests and visitors.

The following programme was carried out in a most enthusiastic manner:

“The Queen and England” was responded to by Rev. H. F. Clinton and was followed by a song from Mr. Campbell.

“The Governor-General and Lieutenant-Governor,” elicited an able speech from Mr. S. H. Webb. Mr. Sharp then sang a song which was much appreciated.

“The Province and the Dominion” was responded to by Messrs. G. E. Corbould and W. Townsend, and called forth a song from Mr. Blacker.

“The Grand Lodge,”—Rev. Mr. Hobson, and a song by Mr. Lewis. “The Rose of Columbia Lodge”—Mr. Allen, and a song by W. S. Walker. “The Army, Navy and Volunteers”—Captain Peele, and a song by G. H. Cross. “The Clergy,”—the Rev. Mr. Tovey. “The Learned Professions”—Dr. E. Walker, and a song by Mr. E. Ogle. “The Visitors”—Mr. Nickle. “The Press”—Mr. Geo. Kennedy. “The Ladies”—Messrs. Ogle, Poingdestre and Sharp, and a song by Mr. Cross.

This meeting was one of the finest of the kind ever held in this city. It was a complete success in every particular and the society is to be congratulated on the auspicious inauguration of the order in this city. It was four o'clock this morning when the festivities finally came to a close with the singing of “God Save the Queen” and every man went home feeling that if anything was solid and assured of prosperity in this city it was the Rose of Columbia Lodge.

CORRESPONDENCE.

MR. ROBSON CHALLENGED.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN: Sir—Would you kindly insert the following extract from the Hon. John Robson's speech at Chilliwack, as reported by the World:

“Now, as regards the Big Prairie, I have repeatedly stated that the Government was prepared to meet your council in a liberal spirit in this matter. I so notified your reeve, Mr. Kitchen, and Mr. Reece, when they waited upon me in Victoria last winter, on the subject. I advised them to submit a definite proposition to the executive so as to enable us to form a data whereon to work, and that answer would be sent in due course.”

If the above is a correct report of the Hon. John Robson's speech, we must say his memory is very defective. When in Victoria the Hon. Mr. Robson told us that the Government did not wish to establish a precedent by improving the Seminault Creek, and that if the council would undertake the work the Government would give them an equivalent on the roads. We so reported to the council and the settlers.

Yours respectfully,
THOMAS E. KITCHEN,
JONATHAN REECE.

Chilliwack, June 16, 1890.

MR. TOWNSEND'S REFUTATION.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN: Sir—Allow me space to refute the assertion of “Nova Scotian” in this morning's Truth. From first to last, in my printed address and from the platform, I stated most distinctly that “owing to the long continued sickness of the late much respected D. Chisholm, our interests have suffered.” If, as “Nova Scotian” asserts, I omitted it at last night's meeting, it was owing to the hurry and excitement, for I certainly meant to say it. Mutual friends of Miss Chisholm and myself feel hurt that the matter has been placed before the public in the manner it has, for it was never in my mind to cast a reflection on my old friend “Doc.” If this is electioneering, it is not my style. WM. B. TOWNSEND.

New Westminster, June 19, 1890.

TAX EXEMPTIONS.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN—Sir: At the last meeting of the City Council an application was made by Mr. W. H. Keary for the Sisters of St. Ann, asking exemption from taxation of the lot on which the Convent stands. Does that explain the “Catholic vote” at the election last week for member for the city? It looks like it; and it looks, too, as if they were not willing to trust Brown or his committee very long for their part of the bargain. However that may be, surely we ought in this Province to be warned by the unfortunate state of affairs in the other provinces and in other countries on this matter of tax exemptions. If we are to have peace and good will amongst us there ought not to be a semblance of connection between church and state by indirect endowments of religious sects. We are happily free from a separate school question, and now when it is so easy to do so, if we have public men of principle and backbone, we ought to keep free from entanglements which are continually breeding strife in other places. The exemption asked for is in itself a very small matter just now to either givers or receivers, but the principle is all important; and when all the various religious sects begin to scramble for exemptions and favors we know the unhappy and deplorable consequences. I have great respect for the clergy in all the churches and for the institutions which they organize for increasing their strength and influence, but it would in my opinion be better from every point of view if we had no tax exemptions or favors by either the Government or municipalities on the ground of any man's religion or irreligion. When any one is exempted others have to pay more than their fair share of the common revenue. It may be especially difficult just now for the member elect and his supporters in the Council to do what they know to be right and for the welfare of the whole community, but I hope there are enough of them guided by principle and not selfish expediency, and that they will get sufficient support from the press and the public to perform a difficult and unpleasant duty. That a thing is done in Victoria is a very poor argument for its being done in New Westminster or any where else. PEACE.

PERSONAL.

Mr. John Chisholm left for Ottawa to-day.

Judge Bole returned from the Capital yesterday.

Mr. Thos. E. Kitchen, M. P. P., left for home this morning by the steamer Irving.

Bishop and Mrs. Sillitoe and Miss Pelly have returned from Harrison Hot Springs.

Mr. H. McGregor, who has been suffering in health of late, went up to Harrison Hot Springs to-day for a weeks' rest.

Mr. W. H. Ladner was in town to-day looking after his interests in the election. Win or lose, Mr. Ladner was just as cheerful and happy as ever.

A Faith Healer in Trouble.

Many British Columbians will remember John Alex. Dowie, the “faith healer.” Mr. Dowie according to the San Francisco Examiner is in trouble. For two months past there have been rival camps of “faith healers” in San Francisco, and excitement has run high. Mrs. Anna J. Johnson, a healing evangelist from New York, and a rival of Mr. Dowie's, has come under the ban of that gentleman's displeasure. She complains that Mr. Dowie has stigmatized her as a fraud, as an impostor, and as a Jezebel, and on the strength of these complimentary allegations she has sued him for $50,000. Mr. Dowie, in reponse to newspaper inquiry, says: “I have no animosity against Mrs. Johnson. I was introduced to her several months ago as a stranger who had come here to teach divine healing as I was teaching it. Shortly afterwards I went to Fresno, and while there a gentleman showed me one of her works entitled, “The Healing Voice.” Afterwards I sent for others of her works, and an examination of them showed me that we had among us a dangerous form of impostor, and knowing the terrible mischief wrought by the Woodward delusion I felt it my duty to warn the gentlemen leading the Divine Healing Association here. “In the complaint against me she says I called her a fraud and an impostor, which is probably the case. She also says I called her a Jezebel, but I only used that term in a quotation from the scriptures, Revelations, II, where a false prophetess is spoken off as “that woman Jezebel, who calleth herself a prophetess and seduces my children.” etc. I had long before applied that term to the Woodwardites and used it in the scriptural sense.”

Mrs. Johnson, on the other hand, asserts that she has at least 300 witnesses to Mr. Dowie's language, and on the strength of this formidable array will prosecute her case. If Mr. Dowie should be convicted of the charge against him, the way he will have to pass that hat among the faithful will simply transend any previous efforts of his in this direction.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
