NOTES AND COMMENTS.

There was an agnostic funeral service in New York the other day, conducted by the celebrated Ingersoll. When they came to the place where singing should come, the fact that agnosticism has no hymns forced them to fall back on Newman's "Lead Kindly Light"—not a very happy selection. One finds it difficult to imagine what they supposed themselves to be singing about.

Among the papers read at the National Teachers' Convention at San Srancisco was one by the eminent educator, Dr. William T. Harris, of Concord, Mass., on the question, "Ought young ladies to read the daily newspapers?" And among the remarks made by Dr. Harris was this: "A young girl or boy who misses reading the daily paper misses the world's greatest opportunity of self-instruction." — This does not agree with the finding of our chief justice on the press.

The Victoria-New Westminster railway is, it appears, only part of a programme, with which the capital means to paralyse us all one of those days. This programme, when carried out, is to result in making Victoria "what nature designed her to be"—for the folks down at the Island city have always been in nature's confidence, you will understand, and have, therefore, got the inside track in that respect, even if the tide of commercial and industrial progress does seem inclined to swirl away from them a little.

The Toronto Empire (Conservative) says:—"The post-office authorities here think that British Columbian's are quite unnecessarily demanding their pound of flesh. According to the terms of the union, they can insist on the maintenance of an ocean mail service between Victoria and San Francisco, but why they should continue to insist on such a service when there is perfect communication by rail, is something the officials cannot understand."—Ask us something easy. Victoria is not British Columbia, but she can best satisfy the reasonable curiosity of the officials.

The position of editors of religious papers in the United States, in "presidential year" does not appear to be a happy one. Among their friends and supporters all, of course, adherants of both the great parties, and all naturally wish the paper to take their side. Just as naturally, too, they are mad as hatters if it takes the other side. The editor of the Interior declares that the chief concern of his life just now is to keep right along on the top of the fence, knowing that on each side "pious patriots" are waiting to salute him with a club. But he says he would dearly like to let loose just for once.

The post-office officials in British Columbia are in active mutiny. Hitherto it has been the custom to make an allowance to the Government officials in British Columbia, Manitoba, and the North West Territories, because of the increased cost of living there, compared with the older parts of Canada. This allowance has been discontinued, and when the post-office officials on the slope received their last monthly cheque, it was minus this allowance. Indignation runs high, and as the innovation was adopted by the late chief of the department, Mr. McLelan, an appeal will be made to Mr. Haggart, the new one.—Empire. We don't blame the P. O. officials for kicking. Who told the heads of the department back east that the cost of living in B. C. had suddenly got as cheap as it is in the older parts of Canada?

Now that the new emperor has had his innings; that the Parnell enquiry bill has passed, and the house of commons is about to adjourn; that the American senate is tangled up in a breathless death wrestle with the fisheries treaty, and even the Paris mobs seem inclined to take a breathing spell, the special correspondents are beginning to get in their work in a very creditable way on the Eastern question. It is Austria that is alarmed now. England is represented as indifferent about Russia getting hold of Constantinople, thinking it would divert her attention frrm Asia, and turn it on Europe; while Germany is supposed to share her indifference on the supposition that it would divert Russia's attention from Europe and turn it on Asia! Then we have what Napoleon said, and what Thiers said; and no doubt the shade of Peter the Great will be trotted out again in due time.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

MINISTER BOWELL'S MARRIAGE.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., Aug. 13.—The Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, who is spending a few days at the Sandbanks with his daughter, positively denies that he is to be married on the 15th of August to Mrs. Stevenson of Napanee. "It is true," he said to a confidential friend, "I paid the lady some attention on the occasion of my last visit to that town but the announcement of the wedding has been made without my consent."

KINGSTON, Aug. 13.—The announcement of the nuptials of the Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, the minister of customs, and Mrs. Edward Stevenson, of Napanee, created much consternation among his family and relatives and as a result it is officially stated that the engagement is off. The lady herself has given out that Mr. Bowell writes her that his family objected and consequently he could not marry her, but the end of the matter has not yet been reached. A special to the Whig says that Mrs. E. S. D. Stevenson is prostrated by the suddenness of the way in which her marriage with the minister of customs was broken off. Her friends are indignant and society is in a state of great excitement.

A GOOD MOVE.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—Mr. Parnell's move in prosecuting his suit against the Times in the Scotch courts is one which he could not by any possibility secure in any other part of the kingdom. The Scotch law does not require proof of publication as the basis of an action, as is the case in England, nor does it require that the jury should be unanimous in its verdict, a majority of three jurors being sufficient to determine an issue. The bringing of the action in Scotland meets the approval of all the Parnellities and most of the liberals. Concerning the matter, Mr. Parnell has retained the Right Hon. John B. Balfour, member for Clackmannan, and Mr. Alexander Asher, Q.C., the member for Elgin.

SIR DONALD'S RETURN.

MONTREAL, Aug. 13.—Sir Donald and Lady Smith returned from England via New York this morning. Sir Donald, who has been very ill, is much better. He had heard rumors about the removal of the Hudson's Bay Company's headquarters to Canada, but did not believe they were true, because the company's charter will not permit them to be removed from England. In answer to questions as to how the Northwest is regarded in England, Sir Donald said: "The knowledge of the Northwest in England is not yet what it ought to be, but it is improving and there is no doubt that there will be an increased immigration and of the proper class of immigrants. The condition of the country there is not good, owing to the depreciation in the value of land. The government has authorized a commission to enquire into the question of immigration. The subsidy to the Pacific mail service is a matter of great importance, but it is desirable that we should have fast mail service on the Atlantic so as not to be at the mercy of New York. But we can't get everything all at once. Concerning the resignation of Sir George Stephen, Sir Donald said it is a matter which had occurred within the last few days and there might be more for it here than he could tell.

TO-DAY'S DESPATCHES.

DRIVING OFF YELLOW JACK.

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 14.—The city was alive with excitement last night, efforts being made to destroy the germs of the fever. The artillery began the work of testing the concussion theory and the work of burning pitch, tar and sulphur were increased. 250 lbs. of powder were provided for the battery, which fired 100 rounds, continuing through the night. Two newspapers have suspended, while the two that continue have great difficulty in issuing their editions.

LYNCHED.

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 14. — Bob Brown, colored, who shot and killed Dr. Halliday at Utica on Sunday night, was taken from jail by a score of citizens last night and hanged.

THE FORGER DISCOVERED.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—It is rumored that the forger of the Parnell letters has been discovered, and that the discovery had much to do with the Edinburgh suit. Parnell intends to prosecute his action against the Times in the Scottish courts with all possible speed, but in any case the trial of the suit cannot come on before November.

ESTABLISHING A CORDON.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 14.—Reports from the fever districts in Georgia are meagre. Specials from Savannah Waycross and Augusta say that extraordinary precautions are being taken in quarantining against Jacksonville and Manatee. Surgeon-General Hamilton spent all of yesterday at Waycross in the establishment of a station for the fumigation of mails from the south of the cordon. These stations will be established on all the roads leading from Jacksonville. Several hundred refugees have already taken up their residence at Bouleyne, the health station established in Charleston. Most vigorous quarantine is being observed. Four men, found endeavoring to land here from Jacksonville, were arrested and thoroughly fumigated and sent on. No signs of fever have been observed here.

FIRE.

WILLOWS, Cal., Aug. 14.—The residence of W. C. Murdock, banker, was burned this morning. The furniture was partly saved. Loss $10,000; fully insured. The cause of the fire is unknown.

NO WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

OLYMPIA, W. T. Aug. 14.—The supreme court this morning rendered a decision unanimously sustaining the lower court in its action in declaring the woman's suffrage law of this territory unconstitutional. Notice of appeal to the supreme court of the United States was given by the losing side.

ELEVATOR ON FIRE.

PEORIA, Ills., Aug. 14.—Elevator "a" an immense structure is all ablaze and likely doomed to destruction as there is scarcely any water owing to the breakage of two pumps at the water works this morning.

THE BLAINE TOUR.

BOSTON, Aug. 14.—The Blaine party left at noon for the railway station accompanied by Dr Burdet and Senator Southworth. There was no demonstration en route but great crowds at the station cheered lustily. Blaine stood on the car platform and bowed acknowledgements.

THE AMERICAN PARTY.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The American party's national convention was called to order at the grand army hall at 1 o'clock this afternoon. A hundred delegates, representing a dozen or more states, were present when ex-governor Isaac Sharp, chairman of the national committee, called the convention to order. Wiggington was unanimously elected chairman. After listening to a short address by Wiggington, and the appointment of a committee on credentials, the convention recessed until 4 p.m.

CROCKER'S FATHER DYING.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug 14.—A few minutes before 11 o'clock this morning, Colonel Crocker received a telegram from Monterey that his father was dangerously ill, and that he was not expected to live.

EMBEZZLERS.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Aug. 14.—Simon Bamberger, formerly manager of the San Pete Valley Ry., and F. K. Morris, his clerk, have been arrested, charged with embezzling ten thousand dollars of the company's funds.

STORM ON THE LAKES.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Aug. 14.—A heavy northwest gale prevails on the lakes, and yachts, schooners and other small craft are being washed ashore and wrecked. A yacht capsized at Charlotte and one man was drowned. Several hundred feet of the breakwater here was washed away. There is great anxiety for a number of schooners overdue or missing.

WANTS TO BACK KILRAIN.

PARIS, Aug. 14.—A well known New York sporting man publishes a letter here offering to back Kilrain against Sullivan or any other man in the world for $10,000 or more. The deposits to be held till September 30th. The fight is to be for the money and a championship diamond belt. The men are to fight not sooner than six months from the date of signing articles.

ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—Arrived str. Mexico, from Victoria; str. Arago, from Coos Bay; str. Williamette, from Seattle, and str. Antonio from Departure Bay. Sailed—Barkentine Amelia, Port Townsend.

DYNAMITERS AGAIN.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—A large gas pipe dynamite bomb was found this morning on the track on Sixteenth st. near the viaduct.

THE LILY COMING WEST.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Mrs. Langtry, accompanied by Fred. Gebhardt, departed for the west this morning on the Erie express.

FLEEING FROM FLORIDA.

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 14.—At Tampa are three cases of yellow fever in a house where one death occurred last month. There is one case at Plant City and at Manatee two. The alarm at St. Augustine continues. Two thousand persons left there this morning.

AT LYNN.

LYNN, Mass., Aug. 14.—On reaching Lynn Blaine met an enthusiastic reception, and, being introduced by Cabbot Lodge, made a short speech.

PRINCE JOSEPH DEAD.

BERLIN, Aug. 14.—Prince Joseph, of Saxe-Coburg Gotha has died of inflammation of the lungs.

A LAW AGAINST TRUSTS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14. — Senator Reagan to-day introduced a bill to define trusts and provide for the punishment of persons connected with them. In the course of the discussion as to its reference, Sherman said he had had given some attention to the subject in order to see how far it was within the constitutional power of congress to prohibit trusts and combinations in the interest of trade. It is very clear there was no such power to raise and collect taxes. It was a power which might be exercised by each state for itself. Similar laws had been enacted in England and other countries. Whether such laws could be engrafted by national authority on the statute books of the United States, under its peculiar system of government, there was some doubt.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

Daily British Columbian

Tuesday Evening, Aug. 14, 1888.

Alas, poor Alaska! The New York Graphic can see no good in hanging anarchists. It is afraid there will not be enough lamp-posts in Chicago upon which to suspend the score or so of miscreants that shall be taken in a plot some of these days after their murderous work has been accomplished, and hanging them wouldn't restore the thousands of lives and millions of dollars destroyed in their fiendish escapades. The best way to destroy the anarchists, the Graphic thinks, is to send them into exile, and Alaska, it believes, would be just the place. "Why not let these men just caught in Chicago form the nucleus of a penal colony in Alaska? The legal difficulties in establishing a penal settlement in Alaska, by the government, for anarchists could be removed by making their crimes punishable by the United States instead of by the states in which their acts were committed. There ought to be little objection to such a proposal. Nobody likes to kill snakes. The advantages of a penal settlement in that bleak region are many and obvious, if not quite conclusive. Cut off from personal communication with their allies and the stimulus of depraved praise, these desperate men would be apt to take more wholesome views of their relations to society. They could not hasten by their arguments the arrest of their still undetected friends. Distance, solitude, the barren desolation surrounding them, the apprehension that would follow of all civilization meant for good and all the gospel of destruction meant for evil would be more likely to tone up their moral natures than solitary confinement in a populous jail. No court fireworks, no jail theatricals, no red fire, no mob at the door, no chess, no notoriety would attend their exile. Their banishment would simply wipe them out. They would be as if they had never been. Would not this be a proper recommendation for the next presidential message? And would not Senator Farwell be willing to introduce an adequate bill in the senate and Frank Lawler a similar one in the house? The thing is worth discussing."

Another example of the folly of delivering a "snap judgment" on a country from viewing it on the fly, through a car window, is furnished by the contrast between such a judgment and the actual state of the case with regard to that large extent of country lying between the Lake of the Woods and the settled portions of Ontario, and principally to the north of Lake Superior. This region, from the accounts of travellers, has become almost synonymous for barrenness and worthlessness. Its looks are certainly against it, but, according to the Winnipeg Commercial, it contains resources of its own, as will be found to be the case with almost any country, if given a fair show. In passing through this vast country by rail, says the Commercial, it certainly does not present a very inviting aspect, and many travellers are led to believe that it is an utterly worthless portion of the earth's surface, fit only to be classed with the great African Sahara. Parties who have travelled over the C. P. R. from the east to Manitoba are often heard to make remarks as to the worthless nature of the country through which they have passed. They have judged, however, only from surface indications as seen from the car window. They have seen only the rocks and muskegs which cover the surface of the country, and have not investigated its mineral and other resources. True the country has yet been but very imperfectly explored, but enough is known to make it certain that the region possesses great mineral wealth. Gold, silver, copper and iron ores are found at various points throughout this "waste" region. The latter two minerals are known to exist in practically unlimited quantities, the iron being of the very best quality. The silver mines have already been worked to a considerable extent, and vast wealth in silver has been extracted from a limited section of country in the Thunder Bay region. More recently attention has been drawn to the discoveries in the Sudbury district, and it is likely that a great deal of capital will soon be invested in working the mines there. It is said that $1,500,000 will be invested at once in establishing a smelter and other works at Sudbury. The copper mines of the district are certainly very rich, and the reports concerning them are simply marvelous. When the great region is more thoroughly explored, it is certain that many more wealthy finds will be made. But the resources of the region do not consist entirely in mineral wealth. Notwithstanding the unin viting nature of the country as seen from a car window, there are districts which will support quite an agricultural population in time. The arable portion of the country is not large, in comparison with the entire area, but it nevertheless comprises some considerable tract of good land, which will be sought out and settled upon, as the population increases and the price of land advances in the more favored portions of the country. The "waste" country is also covered with a forest growth which is in itself of considerable value. In some sections the timber is heavy enough for sawing, and a good deal has already been manufactured into lumber, whilst the lighter timber ensures a bountiful fuel supply.

The Victoria press has been giving THE COLUMBIAN considerable free advertising lately by circulating utterly groundless reports that ex-Senator Canfield was going to sue THE COLUMBIAN for libel. Having exhausted that subject, a commendable spirit of emulation appears to have possessed our cotemporaries as to how they could honor their columns by mentioning THE COLUMBIAN in some other connection. Accordingly, the Times in a recent issue imagines, in a general, loose, sort of way that "the promoters of the Westminster Southern Railway," in conversation with a representative of that paper, had told him, among other things, that "THE COLUMBIAN had shown of late a great deal of hostility to the Canadian Pacific, which they did not approve of." "The promoters of the West minster Southern Railway" (we shall mention no names, as the Times did not see fit to do so) deny this story utterly. The real facts of the case are quite amusing. In a short interview in the Driard hotel, in which THE COLUMBIAN was not even mentioned, except in the way of praise, "the promoters" aforesaid took the Times to task for some mischievous utterances of its own, and incidentally outlined the course which they would be pleased to have it pursue in the future. The Times, naturally a little chagrined, slyly relieves its pent-up feelings by substituting the name of THE COLUMBIAN and transferring to it the odium resting upon itself. We did not think it worth while to notice this before, nor the equally absurd statements about the intention of Senator Canfield to enter an action for libel against this paper. But we don't like to see our innocent and rather "inexperienced" friend of the Vancouver News led astray by the scandals and false statements of the bold bad newspaper men of the island city. We regret to observe by this morning's News that our cotemporary has foolishly got himself into trouble by rashly founding an untruthful and vicious attack upon THE COLUMBIAN on the baseless and false statements of a Victoria cotemporary. However anxious the News may be for a pretext on which to attack THE COLUMBIAN, we would advise our cotemporary to learn to look twice before he leaps. Experience teaches, it is said, and our cotemporary may yet outgrow some of its follies. With regard to the remark which the News seems to imagine the backing of the "big battalions" justifies it in making on its own account, "that scarcely an issue of THE COLUMBIAN appears that does not contain abuse, more or less vicious, of that company (i.e., the C. P. R.)," we would advise our cotemporary to amuse itself compiling and publishing a few of the references containing the abuse complained of. The fact of the matter is there has been no such abuse. The real secret is, that THE COLUMBIAN, unlike the News-Advertiser, is not a creature of the C.P.R., nor of any other corporation; but can, when necessary, stand up for the rights of the people. When grievances exist, the citizens of Westminster do not, as in the case of Vancouver, have to resort for redress to the press of Victoria. THE COLUMBIAN has no ill-will towards the C.P.R., and so far from abusing it, has often refrained from expressing itself as severely as the circumstances called for. Any corporation purporting to give public service will receive the same independent treatment at the hands of this paper, and, at the same time, to give credit, where it is due, we shall always consider a more pleasant duty than censuring the delinquent.

Mr. H. McCaw, Custom House, Toronto, writes: "My wife was troubled with Dyspepsia and Rheumatism for a long time; she tried many different medicines, but did not get any relief until she used Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. She has taken two bottles of it, and now finds herself in better health than she has been for years."

'TWAS ALL A MISTAKE.

Was it all a mistake? Ah, fold your arms closer,
And press my head nearer your breast,
For my brain has grown weary with thinking and weeping,
And my sad heart is longing for rest.
Was it all a mistake when, within your dear hand,
You clasped mine with quickening breath,
And vowed before God that, forsaking all others,
You would love me and keep me till death?

Was it all a mistake? Is there any one dearer
For whom your man's heart cries aloud?
Is there any "sweet hope" lying dead in your bosom
That your marriage vow hides like a shroud?
Was it all a mistake when I thought I could cheer you
And brighten your pathway through life?
Do you dream of a face that is fairer than my face?
Of a name you hold dearer than "wife"?

Was it all a mistake? Are you longing for freedom?
Ah! I pray that release may be near;
That Death's arms may take me and bear me to Heaven
To await—what was that? Not a tear!
Ah, my own, you are weeping! You're sorry you said it?
'Twas anger that made those words fall?
Then take me yourself, dear, and don't let Death have me,
For I don't want to die after all.

MEDICINE AMONG SAVAGES.

The Medicine Man—Music, Dancing and Suction as Healers—The Mind as Its Condition Affects the Bodily Health.

Let us inquire as to the condition of medicine among savage and barbarous nations of recent times.

Here we find that the priests are usually the physicians or medicine men, but there are other persons, often women, who treat diseases with simple and natural remedies. The essential remedies are incantations, steam baths, proprietary offerings, etc., and removal of the evil spirit by suction.

Among the American Indians the word medicine refers in general to that which is extraordinary or supernatural, and the medicine man is one who possesses a knowledge and control of such matters. Every Indian has his own peculiar medicine charm or talisman, and sometimes there is also a tribe medicine, usually some animal or reptile, indicated by a badge or token. The medicine man is much more than a physician; he is a priest, rain-maker and minister plenipotentiary of the supernatural powers, both good and evil.

Major Alvord says, in relation to the Oregon Indians:

"In some of these tribes any child may be trained for the position of medicine man, but among the Nez Perces the position is inherited from father to son."

All the tribes have great faith in their medicine men and believe that they have the power of killing by charms and enchantments, and when, as sometimes happens, a man becomes possessed with the idea that the medicine man is hostile to him and is "making medicine" against him, he will pine away, refuse to eat and die of hypochondria and melancholy. In consequence of this implicit faith, when a death occurs it is often attributed to the doctor, and the relatives of the deceased avenge his fate by killing the supposed murderer.

Among savage nations we meet with peculiar diseases in which equally peculiar medication is of service. Examples are seen in the trances of the Cossack women, the peculiar fever found in Abyssinia, which reduces patients to skeletons, and can only be cured by music and dancing. The very general use of suction as a remedy among savage tribes is curious and not easy to explain. It may possibly be connected with the animal instinct of licking.

The power of belief, faith, imagination or expectant attention to affect the material organism of the body is well known.

Jaundice has been produced by anger, and also by grief. The sudden change of color in the hair from black to white, under the influence of fear or sorrow, is well authenticated. How often does it happen that a person suffering violent toothache finds his pain disappear as he enters the door of the dentist? All surgeons of large experience know how unfavorable a sign it is when a patient declares that he will not recover. What is known as "homesickness"—the "heimweh" of the Germans—is a well-recognized form of disease in recruits, which in some cases may prove fatal, either directly or by leading to suicide.

But if the emotions can produce disease, they can also sometimes cure it. Charms which act on the mind of the person charmed always have some effect; in incantations commonly a mischievous one.—Boston Herald.

SOME FAMOUS BEAUTIES.

The Variety of Taste Shown in the Appreciation of Female Loveliness.

The beauty of Catherine of Russia, it is said, consisted in her green eyes.

A damask cheek, history says, is about all that was required to captivate the poet Cowper.

Queen Elizabeth had red hair—not the gorgeous Titian red, but an out-and-out carrotty red.

Lucretia Borgia was the model of beauty in her time and is said to have had scarcely any neck at all.

A belle of Kamtchatka is four feet high, and one of Patagonia ranges anywhere from six to seven feet.

Lady Jane Grey had a long, thin neck and a multitude of suitors who were always discoursing on her beauty.

The Circassian beauty is a young woman with dark, piercing eyes and kinky hair, standing out straight around her head.

Ben Jonson was inspired to write of a beauty with "flowing hair, a sweet neglect and a face marked with simplicity."

The beauty Byron dwelt on most is said to have had glossy hair, slanting eyebrows, glowing cheeks and constant blushes.

Solomon, the Wise, sang that his love (one of his loves) was comely but black, and there are also black beauties away down on the Congo.

This is the way Spenser, they say, described his beautiful lady:

"Her eyes are like sapphires, teeth like pearls, hair like gold, and her hands are of silvery whiteness."

Helen of Troy had a long nose, ending in a good deal of a tip and running down in a straight line from her forehead. Yet both by Menelaus and Paris, and indeed by the entire Trojan and Greek nations, she was considered one of the handsomest women of the age.

Cleopatra's loveliness, it is said, made a great impression upon both Mark Antony and Cæsar, but if the Queen of Egypt was like the rest of her race, as shown in tables, tomb and monolith, well—there is room for a difference of opinion.

Husband (despondently)—"Things look tough, my dear, but the world owes me a living."

Wife (impatiently)—"Well, for heaven's sake, John, brace up and collect it!"—New York Sun.

WHAT "LUNCHEON" REALLY MEANS.

Some Recommendations to Those Who Give Them, and to Those Who Eat Them.

To mention the word luncheon is to call up a picture of rest and quiet and homelike peace.

Within the home where peace and order reign, the cloth is neatly spread and the dishes tidily arranged for even a morsel of toast and a cup of tea. Perhaps a cloth of yellow or pink or crimson is provided for this meal with napkins to match. In that case the dishes ought to be white.

Porcelain, by the way, is a matter of choice with the housekeeper. Fashion changes; beauty remains the same. Numberless forms and combinations of color are always to be found, the choice depending upon extent of taste no less than of purse. Every year there is a larger variety, since skilled native workmen are becoming more skillful still, and our American wares now vie in every respect with the imported and are less expensive.

Stamped patterns of the wild rose or daisy, or grass, or of conventional forms, on ware of a good quality, can be purchased very reasonable, with the comforting certainty that anything broken can be readily duplicated. As for nicked dishes—those horrors of a sensitive eye—a fine piece of china had better be broken and thrown away than be degraded to kitchen service. The fitness of things forbids such desecration.

No other meal so well shows the care and thrift of the housekeeper as the family luncheon. A little forethought provides a savory stew or soup from the bones and remnants of meats and gravies, and stewed fruits and patties, or the old-fashioned baked turn-overs served warm on a cold winter's day, when the children rush in from school crying for something savory. This is the case, where, unfortunately, circumstances compel a late dinner, or the father or other members find it impossible to be at home at the midday meal.

Let the table be ever so perfect, the success of a luncheon depends on the congeniality of the guests. It is essentially a woman's repast. Those who know each other too well are bored in being brought together in a formal way. Generally some one whom it is designed to honor becomes the cause of a conventional lunch party, and no more charming way can be found to introduce a friend into a social circle.

The cup that cheers loosens thoughts and sets the tongue in motion, and she is not a woman who does not enjoy conversation. The plane of the conversation will be upon the level of her thought, but that, thanks to the progress of intellectual and moral culture among women, is yearly taking a higher tone.

Those of mightier mold, who look down disdainfully on a feminine lunch party, would be surprised enough could they listen, unseen, to many a modern talk around the dainty board. Science, ethics, philanthropy, art and sociology have here found eloquent exposition from those whose lips are sealed in mixed gatherings, or when unexhilarated by the contact with those in whose society they feel free from restraint and critic...

HOW TO PLANT TREES.

Explicit and Valuable Instructions as to the Best Ways of Transplantation.

It is always better to plant small trees than large ones. They are more easily and cheaply moved, recover sooner, and grow more rapidly. A transplanted tree two or three feet high will soon overtake and surpass a much larger one, and will grow into a more vigorous and beautiful specimen. A vast amount of money and a great deal of time is wasted every year in trying to transplant large trees.

It is not essential in digging up trees to preserve a large ball of earth about the roots. A very heavy mass of earth often breaks the tender roots, and is, therefore, a danger rather than an advantage to the tree. It is essential, however, to preserve as many of the small feeding roots as possible, and care must be taken in digging a tree not to unnecessarily break or mutilate them.

All broken roots should be carefully cut away with a sharp knife before the tree is transplanted.

Care must be taken not to expose the roots to the drying influence of the sun and wind. They should be covered as soon as the tree is dug with a piece of cloth or matting, or they may be dipped in wet mud until they become thoroughly coated.

The secret of successful transplanting is to have the soil brought into close and immediate contact with the roots. It is better, therefore, to plant in dry and not in wet, rainy weather. The coating of mud not only protects the roots from drying, but helps the earth thrown about them to adhere more closely.

Two men are required to plant a tree. The hole should be twice the width of the mass of roots, and the bottom should be worked fine with a spade. One man should then hold the tree erect, with its roots carefully spread out in all directions in the hole, while the second man should break the soil taken from the hole, so as to make it as fine as possible, and then let it fall from the spade down upon the roots, while the first man should lift the tree gently up and down that the fine earth may penetrate and fill all cavities about the roots.

When the hole is nearly filled in this way, the earth should be pressed down with the foot, beginning at the outside of the hole and working in toward the stem of the tree. The hole may then be filled and the soil rammed down solid.

Tall trees should be carefully and securely staked as soon as planted. The operation is then finished.

It is not uncommon to see water poured into the hole while it is being filled up. This practice does harm rather than good, as it washes the fine soil away from close contact with the roots.—Garden and Forest.

Dismal Humorists.

We have rather too many dismal humorists in literature just now.

The success of a few genuine humorists has tempted whole flocks of dullards into the fields of fun, and they are fast converting it into a literary cemetery, peopled with the ghosts of departed pleasantries.

If funny lecturers and funny sketch writers would only give us the dead jokes of long ago in their habits as they lived, the resurrection would be more tolerable; but they dress them up to suit their own conceits, and in so doing take all the laugh out of them.—New York Ledger.

A Popular Title.

"Well, Bobbie, did you enjoy your visit to the museum?"

"Yes, mamma."

"Did you remember any of the nice things you saw?"

"Oh, yes; I remember lots of them."

"And can you tell me what they were called?"

"Yes; most of them were called 'Hands off.'"—Detroit Free Press.

A Sluggish Liver

Causes the Stomach and Bowels to become disordered, and the whole system to suffer from debility. In all such cases Ayer's Pills give prompt relief.

After much suffering from Liver and Stomach troubles, I have finally been cured by taking Ayer's Cathartic Pills. I always find them prompt and thorough in their action, and their occasional use keeps me in a perfectly healthy condition.—Ralph Weeman, Annapolis, Md.

Twenty-five years ago I suffered from a torpid liver, which was restored to healthy action by taking Ayer's Pills. Since that time I have never been without them. They regulate the bowels, assist digestion, and increase the appetite, more surely than any other medicine.—Paul Churchill, Haverhill, Mass.

INVIGORATED.

I know of no remedy equal to Ayer Pills for Stomach and Liver disorder I suffered from a Torpid Liver, and Dyspepsia, for eighteen months. My skin was yellow, and my tongue coated. I had no appetite, suffered from Headache, was pale and emaciated. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills, taken in moderate doses, restored me to perfect health.—Waldo Miles, Oberlin, Ohio.

Ayer's Pills are a superior family medicine. They strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, create an appetite, and remove the horrible depression and despondency resulting from Liver Complaint. I have used these Pills in my family, for years, and they never fail to give entire satisfaction.—Otto Montgomery, Oshkosh, Wis.

Chronic derangements of the Stomach, Liver, and Blood, are speedily removed by the active principle of the ingredients entering into the composition of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. These Pills act specifically on the deranged organs, stimulating to action the dormant energies of the system, thereby removing disease and renewing life and vitality to the afflicted. In this lies the great secret of the popularity of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills.

For the first time since the change in the running time, something over a month ago, the local train yesterday was composed of a regulation baggage and passenger car. This is satisfactory, but an additional car is necessary to bring the service up to the proper standard. The addition of a smoker to the local train would be a great convenience to passengers, and it would also do away with the unpleasantness of being packed amongst Indians and Chinese when the car is crowded.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

No Need to Worry.

The chief towns in British Columbia quarrel a good deal on paper. The columns of their respective newspapers are pretty well taken up with discussions about the relative importance of Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster. The future of all these places is assured, and they need not worry themselves or each other about falling off in trade, general decadence and so forth.—Toronto Empire.

Presentation and Address.

This evening at 8 o'clock, at the Bishop's palace, a deputation of citizens will present Rev. Father Horris with an address and a well filled purse. Father Horris leaves to-morrow by the midday train for Ireland, where he goes to seek rest and health. He has been in this city and amongst the Indians in the district for a quarter of a century, and always has been most popular among all classes. THE COLUMBIAN wishes to see Father Horris restored to health and soon home again with his old friends in the royal city.

Hardened Wretches.

Hen Cook and Ah Youe, who were sent up yesterday, for trial at the next assizes, were laboring under the impression that the magistrates' examination was the trial on which their lives rested. When the examination was concluded and they were sent up for trial they thought a verdict had been found against them, and that the hanging would take place instanter. Although convinced that they must die within the hour neither of them seemed to feel the least bit nervous, and took the matter as stoically as an Indian. When informed their trial for life or death would not come on for a number of months they took the news as indifferently as they did the idea of hanging, and marched to the gaol apparently careless to everything.

Getting Married Under Difficulties.

This week a Donald man took his sure-enough girl up to Rogers Pass, a point 2,000 feet nearer heaven than Donald, there intending to wed her On arriving at the Pass, he found that he had forgotten to bring the license along, and that very necessary document could not be procured in the town of which Mike Carlin is mayor. The d.m. was in a dilemma. The train on which he expected the minister was due in less than four hours, and the event could not be postponed. But as he is from the county of Peel, back in Ontario, he is a man of resources. A railroad tricycle was hunted up and got on the track, and he covered the distance to Donald and back, 68 miles, in less than three hours. That man will overcome difficulties in any country.—Truth.

The "Banner Show."

Sells Brothers' Royal Roman Hippodrome, Circus and Menagerie. The patrons of tented display will find ample field for the gratification of their tastes by a visit to their justly celebrated show which is to be here on Friday, Aug. 17th. There is much to be seen in this exhibition that can not be witnessed elsewhere, and from beginning to end the programme is a succession of attractive and strictly novel features. The hippodromatic display finds precedents only in those of ancient Roman days and are characteristic portraitures of the turf and gladiatorial sports of that period. The recently added attractions of the wizard marksman of the west and champion wing shot of the world, Capt. A. H. Bogardus, and his four equally remarkable sons, will find a host of admirers.

Bonanza Mine—Cayoosh Creek.

Mr. H. Harvey, who arrived from Clinton on Sunday evening, brings the latest news from the Bonanza mine. Work is progressing on location No. 1, with the most satisfactory results. The ledge shows up at a width of twelve feet and presents a splendid quality of free milling ore. Several pieces taken promiscuously from the face show gold plainly. Several persons have visited the mine, and all are loud in their praise of what is bound to prove a most valuable property when properly developed. The company are making arrangements to open the mine in the most favorable place with a tunnel. The ledge can be cut at a depth of 150 feet by a tunnel of 200 feet, which will determine to a great extent the value of the mine. The present indications prove that a very rich and extensive lode cuts the mountain for over a mile. The Bonanza is considered the richest mine so far discovered in British Columbia, and proves the existence of extensive free gold deposits in the Cascade range.—Colonist.

Keeping Pace with the Times.

Alderman Thos. Ovens has plans and specifications prepared for a large machine and carriage shop, and tenders are being asked for the erection of the same. The building will face on Douglas street and extend back to Ewen street, having an entrance from both streets. It will have a frontage of 33 feet, a depth of 66 feet, and will be 3 storeys high. Mr. Ovens intends putting in lathes, planers and a shaper, besides all other machinery usually found in a first-class machine shop. Blacksmithing will also be carried on as at present and carriage-making will be added. If the increase in business warrants, a foundry will also be added to the establishment, which will make it as complete as any in British Columbia. The building is to be completed by October 1st and the new machinery will be here and ready to put in place by that time. The rapid growth of business in New Westminster has decided Mr. Oven's in branching out so extensively, and there is no doubt but his enterprise will prove most profitable.

The Oil Refining Industry.

The refining of lubricating oils from salmon refuse, which was commenced some months ago by Messrs. Discoteau & Defontaine on a small island near the mouth of the river, has been attended with as much success as was anticipated. In establishing the refinery it was the intention of the firm to confine this years' output to certain limits as it was necessary to create a market for the oil, but the quality of the first hundred gallons was such that a large demand instantly sprung up and the refinery has been working to its fullest extent ever since. According to law the canneries are prohibited from throwing away the salmon refuse as long as a refinery is in working order and can use the refuse. In this way the refiners have an opportunity of securing material at a very small cost and the only real expense is in extracting and refining the oil. So far this season 2000 gallons have been refined, and 3000 gallons more will be made before the season closes. Had the salmon run been good this year these figures would have been doubled or trebled. Two grades of oil are refined and both are admitted to be exceedingly fine lubricators.

School Board Meeting.

Upon notice from the chairman, a meeting of the school trustees was held in the council chambers last Friday afternoon. Present, His Worship Mayor Dickinson in the chair, and Messrs. W. B. Townsend, Wm. Johnstone, J. A. Calbick, Wm. Ross, M. Sinclair and J. Mackenzie—the two last-mentioned having been duly returned at the last election.

On motion Mr. G. W. Grant, government superintendent of the new building under construction, was invited to suggest improvements in the sanitary arrangements, and upon being heard, Messrs. Calbick and the secretary were authorized to act in the matter, and to submit Mr. Grant's recommendations, plans and specifications for the consideration of the government, together with an urgent request that these improvements be immediately carried out.

Communications with respect to supplying hot water heating apparatus from Messrs. Strickland and Carroll were read and filed.

On motion, Mr. Calbick was appointed a committee of one to attend to general repairs of the school buildings, etc.

An account amounting to $21.02 from THE COLUMBIAN for advertising was referred to the secretary with instructions to pay it if found correct.

Five applications for the position of caretaker were read; and on motion Mr. William Miles was appointed caretaker of the school buildings at a salary of $25 per month.

Mr. Townsend having stated that time did not permit of his acting as secretary Mr. W. J. McKenzie was on motion appointed to that office.

Moved by Mr. Johnston and seconded by Mr. Ross and carried—That Mr. G. M. Dockerill, 1st assistant of the boys' school be granted leave of absence to recruit his health, upon obtaining a substitute, Mr. Dockerill named Mr. A. C. Brydone Jack, M.A., as his substitute.

On motion the secretary was instructed to ascertain from the government what provision has been made as to seats and desks for the four new rooms.

The thanks of the board having been tendered Mr. Townsend, the retired secretary, the meeting adjourned to the call of the chairman.

The council met last night at 8 o'clock for the transaction of business. Present, Aldermen Elliott, Shiles, Calbick, Hoy, Ovens, Herring and De Beck.

Robinson, clerk of Langley council, stating that council had not received any reply to their letter stating they would not allow more than $50 towards the cost of the folders; also stating if that offer was accepted the council would send in the matter to be printed. Referred to finance committee.

ACCOUNTS.

The financial statement for July was read and adopted.

Moved by Ald. Hoy, seconded by Ald. Ovens, that the workshops and foundry by-law and the ferry service by-law be reconsidered. Carried.

The by-laws were reconsidered and finally passed and the seal of the corporation ordered to be attached thereto.

The applications of Messrs. Edmonds and Webster for water lots were laid over.

Ald. Herring called the attention of the board of works to some holes in Prevost street which should be filled up at once. Referred to board of works with power to act.

Mr. Wintemute's offer anent the Clarkson street bridge was laid over.

On motion of Ald. Hoy the mayor and clerk were instructed to make another application to the provincial government for the addition of a certain portion of Surrey to the city limits.

Ald. Calbick reported that some one was sinking a large tank on St. George's square, but did not know who was building it.

Mr. Wintemute, who was present, said he was building it by permission granted by the council last year.

The matter was referred to the board of works with power to act.

His worship reported that arrangements had been with Capt. Grant whereby he would give the railway company the privilege of running a ferry across the river for the sum of $1,000, or he would sell the charter outright for $4,000. It was decided that the latter arrangement would be accepted, but not for a short time yet. In the meantime Capt. Grant would continue to run the ferry. The purchase of the charter would be a good thing and would not cost the city one cent. Report adopted.

The council then adjourned till to-night.

For the City Fathers.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN.—Permit me dear sir, through the space of your valuable paper to complain of the incessant screaming and noises made each night by the inhabitants of a Chinese gambling house in the east end of the city. Last night it was nearly 3 o'clock before this tumult ceased, and I as well as a number of others, unfortunately for the welfare of our repose, have rooms above on Columbia street. If such noise occurred after midnight on Front street or Columbia, it would soon be put a stop to. Perhaps the city fathers will take some steps to abate this nuisance and thus confer a great boon on many sufferers as well as WORKINGMAN.
