SCIENTIFIC MISCELLANY.

It is not yet known why the shell of the lobster turns red on being boiled.

The question is asked, why women always (with exceedingly rare exceptions) button from right to left and men from left to right.

A Vienna theatre has an electric organ, which is placed at the back of the stage and connected by a cable with a key-board in the orchestra.

Experiments have been made in Russia on the culture of minute parasitic plants for the destruction of injurious insects. Caterpillars feeding on the beet root were abundantly destroyed. Various such parasites have been known to produce epidemics in insects.

A tribe called Cafusos has sprung up in Brazil from crossing between the long, stiff-haired natives and the imported negro slaves. The admixture of such extremes has produced extraordinary hair, which rises perpendicularly in close curly masses, and forms an enormous wig.

MUCH SWEETNESS.—Prof. Gustav Gehring states that 5,038,000,000 pounds of cane sugar and 5,588,000,000 pounds of beet sugar are produced annually: All plants contain sugar, but only four others, the sugar palm of the Indies, the maple tree, the sorghum, and the sugar corn—are at all used industrially for its extraction; and from these four the total quantity of sugar obtained is comparatively insignificant.

THUNDER.—According to M. Hirn, the column of air suddenly heated and expanded by a flash of lightning—producing the sound known as thunder—is sometimes several miles long, and as the duration of the flash is not even a millionth of a second, it follows that the noise bursts forth at once from the whole column, though for an observer at any one place it commences where the lightning is at the least distance. The beginning of the thunder clap thus gives us the minimum distance of the lightning, and the length of the thunder clap gives us the length of the column.

REGULATION OF THE BODY'S FURNACE.—In a paper read before the American Neurological Association at Washington, Dr. Isaac Ott showed by cases of disease that there are points in the brain—on the surface and at the base—whose function it is to preside over and keep constant the heat of the body. He mentioned recorded cases of a bodily temperature as high as 128° F., explaining how nervous disease may produce such great changes. He described fever as a disease of the nervous system chiefly, resulting in increased chemical change in the bodily tissues, with consequent elevation of temperature.

MUSCLE FOR THE OCEAN FERRY.—In his address as president of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, Sir Frederick Bramwell considered the elevating influence of prime movers as a substitute for hand labor requiring no intelligence, and said: "Compare a galley, a vessel propelled by oars, with the modern Atlantic liner; and first let us assume that prime movers are non existent and that this vessel is to be propelled galley-fashion. Take her length as some 600 feet, and assume that place be found for as many as four hundred oars on each side, each oar worked by three men, or 2400 men; and allow that six men under these conditions could develop work equal to 1 h. p., we should have 400 h. p. Double the number of men, and we should have 800 h. p., with 4800 men at work, and at least the same number in reserve if the journey is to be continuous. Contrast the puny result thus obtained with the 19,500 h. p. given forth by a large prime mover of the present day, such a power requiring on the above mode of calculation, 117,000 men at work and 117,000 in reserve; and these to be carried in a vessel less than 600 feet long. Even if it were possible to carry this number of men in such a vessel, by no conceivable means could their power be utilized so as to impart to it a speed of 20 knots an hour. This illustrates how a prime mover may not only be a mere substitute for muscular work, but may afford the means of attaining an end that could not by any possibility be attained by muscular exertion, no matter what money was expended or what galley-slave suffering was inflicted.

P. M. Markell, West Jeddore, N. S., writes: "I wish to inform you of the wonderful qualities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. I had a horse so lame that he could scarcely walk; the trouble was in the knee; and two or three applications completely cured him."

A Ship Railway from the Bay of Fundy to the Gulf of St. Lawrence—Cremation Condemned by the Pope.

The Chinese Exclusion Bill Contested. The Pacific Mail Service Finally Arranged and to be in Operation in Eighteen Months.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

OTTAWA NOTES.

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—The coming social season promises to be unusually gay. Hon. Edgar Dewdney has purchased a residence on O'Conner street in the fashionable quarter of the city.

Mr. T. C Keefer, C.M.G., president of the American Society of Civil Engineers has received a cable from London announcing that the contract for the construction of the ship railway from the Bay of Funday to Baie Verte, on the Gulf of St. Lawrence, was finally settled yesterday and that Mr. Ketchum, the promoter of the scheme, sailed for Canada on the Etruria today. There is every probability that the first ship railway of the world will be built in Canada. Mr. Keefer is one of the provincial directors. The Chignecto Marine Railway Company works will probably cost $5,000,000.

An anonymous correspondent asks the department of justice if a Mormon elder can legally solemnize a marriage in Canada.

WILLIAM AND THE POPE.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The Chronicle's home correspondent says that the interview between the pope and the Emperor William was most cordial. The emperor assured his holiness that he would adhere to a conservative policy both social and religious. The pope replied that the purity and grandeur of Germany would gain much if the liberty of the Catholic church and the independence of the pontiff were assured in Germany or at least more effectually guaranteed. It was also necessary, he said, to the interest of European civilization that the Roman question should be settled satisfactorily. The pope was greatly pleased with the emperor's address.

PLOT FRUSTRATED.

VIENNA, Oct. 12.—It is reported that the anarchist plot to assassinate the Emperor of Germany during his visit here was only frustrated by the timely knowledge of the police of its existence.

YANKEE IMPERTINENCE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—In the senate a resolution offered yesterday calling for information in the matter of the trial, conviction and execution of Riel for high treason in Canada in 1885, was taken up and a long statement was made by Blair, who bases his resolution on the ground that Riel was a naturalized American citizen. The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign affairs.

TO-DAY'S DESPATCHES.

HANGED.

ENFALA, Ala., Oct. 13.—Pauline McCoy, a negress, was hanged yesterday for the murder of a half-witted white girl last February.

THE NOVA SCOTIA SHIP RAILWAY.

OTTAWA, Oct. 13.—It is announced by a cablegram from London that the contract for the construction of a ship railway from the Bay of Funday to Isle Verte on the Gulf of St. Lawrence has been finally settled at a cost of $5,000,000.

CREMATION CONDEMNED.

ROME, Oct. 13.—The congregation of the holy office has sent a note to the bishops of France in which cremation is condemned, and they are ordered to adhere to interment.

ANOTHER REVOLUTION.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Advices from Port au Prince, of Sept. 29th says: The elections of the members of the assembly constituante, to elect a president and revise the constitution of 1867 having resulted in favor of ex-Senator F. T. Legitime, General Seide Thelemaque, the other candidate for the presidency, attacked the Palais Nationale at Port au Prince on 28th Sept. at the head of about 4000 men who came with him as an army from the departments of the north. The provisional government defended the palace with regular troops and Port au Prince militia. Gen. Seide Thelemaque was killed during the attack, his troops were immediately disbanded and public order restored Gen. Legitime is now the only candidate and will be elected on the 10th inst. It is reported that the casualties to the force of Gen. Thelemaque amount to 100 killed and 45 wounded.

BURNED TO DEATH.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 13.—Winnie, the 7-year-old daughter of Harrison Boyd, of Mexico, Mo., was left by her parents in charge of her two baby sisters last night. Her dress caught fire and she was burned to death. The two babies were suffocated by smoke.

DISCOVERED A SHORTAGE.

TOPEKA, Oct. 13.—Jeremiah Fields, who at last election was elected to succeed his father, Joseph Fields, as treasurer of Wabansee Co., has discovered a shortage of $18,500 in his father's accounts, and has made the fact known to the authorities to-day.

THE STRIKE OVER.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—According to an agreement made last night the West division cars are all running this morning. Yerkes meets the committee at 11 o'clock to arrange the terms of settlement of the north side troubles. The cases of the men arrested for putting dynamite on the north side tracks was continued to the 20th inst. this morning. The work of the detectives resulted, it is asserted, in unfolding a serious dynamite conspiracy in which at least five persons are implicated. Attorney Furthman said this morning that two more arrests would be made to-day, and when these prisoners were brought in the police would probably tell the story of the plot. The 11 o'clock conference resulted in no agreement. Yerkes said: "The agitators on the west side adopted resolutions regarding the strike and brought into dispute questions which I cannot consider. We could not agree." The committee will return at 2:30 o'clock. There is but little prospect of settlement. Yerkes explained to the committee that the west side resolutions last might gave him new things to consider aside from what was agreed on in the mayor's office.

RENEWAL OF CONFLICT.

MADRID, Oct. 13.—There is a renewal of the conflict between Morocco and the United States. The latter demands that the authorities at Fez be arrested and punished for the arrest of the American consul's protege and that indemnity be paid.

WILL RESIGN.

PARIS, Oct. 13.—Premier Floquet declares he will resign if the project for the revision of the constitution is rejected or adopted through coalition.

ACTIONS AGAINST DR. M'KENZIE.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Dr. Bergmann, one of the Emperor Frederick's physicians will bring action for libel in the English courts against Dr. McKenzie owing to statements made by the latter in his book on the emperor's case. It is thought Dr. Bernhardt will also sue McKenzie.

RAILROAD STRIKE.

BRAINERD, Minn., Oct. 13.—All the Northern Pacific yardmen struck this morning for an advance of wages. This is the first trouble the company ever had.

SETTLED AT LAST.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Every detail of the Pacific mail contract is now finally settled between the imperial government and the Canadian Pacific. Tenders for their new steamers will be received within a week. The contract stipulates that the service commence within 18 months, the company receiving annually £45,000 from the imperial government in addition to £15,000 from the Dominion government for a monthly service of 10 years from Vancouver, not only to Yokohama and Hong Kong as at first intended, but also calling at Shanghai. Increasing anxiety is felt here to learn if the Dominion government realizes that the whole efficiency of the Canadian route east new depends on the Atlantic service.

CONTENDING THE EXCLUSION BILL.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—Attorney Riordan on behalf of the Chinese, argued the constitutionality of the Scott Act before the federal judges this morning. He contended that the act was unconstitutional because it deprives the Chinese of the rights conferred upon them by the custom house. He also contended that the 30,700 Chinese now holding certificates had a right to return and the United States was bound to admit them. The United States Attorney-General Carey did not reply to Riordan's argument, owing to the fact that during its delivery both judges clearly intimated that the cases would be decided against the Chinese.

HEAVY SUITS PROBABLE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.— Under the decision of the federal court in Philadelphia in the case of John Wanamaker, holding ribbons for trimming hats dutiable at 20 per cent. instead of 50 as has been the invariable practice, suits for a rebate to the amount of $5,000,000 or even $10,000,000 may be brought against the government.

Mrs. E. H. Perkins, Creek Centre, Warren Co., N. Y., writes: She has been troubled with asthma for four years; had to sit up night after night with it. She has taken two bottles of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and is perfectly cured. She strongly recommends it, and wishes to act as agents among her neighbors.

Daily British Columbian

Saturday Evening, Oct. 13, 1888.

The Empire is being taken to task by a portion of the eastern press for persisting in publishing Mr. Wiman's volunteered disclosures on the progress of commercial and political union in the U. S. senate, after he had sent another telegram requesting the withdrawal of the first. The Empire's critics, of whom there are also some in this province, maintain that the action of that paper was unjust to Mr. Wiman, on the grounds that he had been mistaken or rather misled when he telegraphed the information to the press of Canada; but, as Mr. Wiman said that "information had reached him of a reliable character," no doubt the the Empire (from its own knowledge of the circumstances) believed that the information was reliable, and concluded that the public should know what was going on in the secret chambers of the senate committee with regard to the ultimate destiny of Canada. This agitation, which is very much affecting the peace and prosperity of the whole Dominion, should not be looked upon as a party political question, and although the Empire may be the organ of a political party in Canada, and from a party standpoint may have been only too willing to publish what the opposing party would have preferred to keep secret, we still maintain that the Empire acted in the public good by publishing what appears to have been substantially the truth, if Mr. Wiman's own judgment be "reliable" in such matters. In upholding the Empire in this matter, we do not by any means endorse all that the Empire may do and say on that or any other subject. Political organs and papers, and individuals, that take sides in party politics are obliged to say and do many things contrary to, or beyond their own convictions, but sometimes they may be in the right and may serve the public interests, intentionally or unintentionally, as in the present instance. Mr. Wiman, it is true, is Canadian born, and although he has lived long in the United States and amassed a fortune in business without becoming an American citizen, he may, nevertheless, be working in this matter more in the the interest of America than of his native country. "Where the treasure is there will the heart be also," is pretty true of every relation in life. THE COLUMBIAN's attitude on this as on other questions is taken from a perfectly unbiased and impartial standpoint, with a sincere desire to get at the truth of the matter, for the truth's sake and in the public interest. THE COLUMBIAN does not care three straws for any party, nor for the opinions, public or private, of any party disciple, save in so far as they may contain a modicum of truth which can be sifted from the chaff of party prejudice and lop-sidedness.

The late Emperor Frederick is spoken of by his well-earned and universally conceded title of Frederick the Good. He bids fair to go down to posterity as Frederick the Great also. If the extracts recently published by a German newspaper as portions of the Emperor Frederick's diary be authentic, as they have every appearance of being, a revelation regarding the foundation of the German Empire has been made which will cause a revolution in the ideas of all men as to the importance of the actors in that great scene at Versailles. The Emperor William, Prince Bismarck and Count Von Moltke have not only been represented as the chief actors, but their's have almost been regarded as the only wills which brought abont the drama. During the nearly two decades that have elapsed since that time they have had all the credit due to men who have welded separate states into a mighty empire. There can be no doubt had it not been for the sagacity and dignity of the Emperor William, the energy, determination and diplomacy of Prince Bismarck, the army-constructing and strategical powers of Von Moltke, that the German Empire would not to-day have existed. But it is none the less true, if the diary extracts be true, that had it not been for the lofty wisdom and firmness of the Emperor Frederick, then Crown Prince of Prussia, the empire would not have been formed. King William was not only opposed to the attempt being made at that time, but it appears that he had no confidence in the project; he did not regard it as feasible, and was satisfied to be King of Prussia. Prince Bismarck was afraid that the South German states, and especially Bavaria, would throw themselves into the arms of Austria rather than come into the German Empire. Count Von Moltke had no opinion. The crown prince, it appears, after arguing with Prince Bismarck in vain, assumed an authoritative manner and compelled the chancellor to act. There have been those who have regarded Frederick as an amiable, well meaning, but rather weak man. It is a revelation even to those who knew that he was a strong man to find that he bent the will of the man of blood and of iron to his purpose and that he possessed the master mind which recognized the opportunity which might never have come again, and used King William, Bismarck and Von Moltke as instruments to form the German Empire. It appears that the crown prince was imbued with the idea of the feasibility of the foundation of the German Empire by his father-in-law, the Prince Consort of England, and it may be taken for granted that the Princess Royal of England, who had been carefully instructed in politics by her father, gave her husband full sympathy and support. Anything nobler was never recorded of a prince than that, while conducting a great and successful campaign and while planning an empire which should result from it, his chief thought was how best and soonest to establish liberal, constitutional and responsible government in that empire. That was to have been his life work. It would seem a misfortune for Germany, says an exchange, that the Emperor William did not die within a year of his triumph at Versailles. His work was then done, and his presence on the scene hindered, if it did not altogether prevent, the work of a far greater man. That the real founder of the empire and one who had such magnificent plans, should have only reigned a couple of months, and that in a dying condition, seems inscrutable. Had he been prevented by intrigue from ascending the throne at all, the people of Germany might well have been driven into revolution by the revelations of the diary, which would have showed the extent of the ingratitude of his son William and Bismarck who, it is said, were not unwilling that Frederick should abdicate. As is natural, the publication of this diary, with the disclosures it makes, has aroused the ire of Bismarck (whose prestige has been hurt) and his political supporters, who declare that it is a forgery. In the excess of their indignation they even descend to vilification of the late Emperor Frederick. Bismarck has obtained the consent of Emperor William to prosecute the publishers of the paper publishing the diary, for revealing state secrets (although if they are forgeries it is difficult to see how they can be considered state secrets), and an interesting time is expected.

The Proprietors of Parmelee's Pills are constantly receiving letters similar to the following, which explains itself. Mr. John A. Beam, Waterloo, Ont., writes: "I never used any medicine that can equal Parmelee's Pills for Dyspepsia or Liver and Kidney Complaints. The relief experienced after using them was wonderful." As a safe family medicine Parmelee's Vegetable Pills can be given in all cases requiring a Cathartic.

A Creaking Hinge

Is dry and turns hard, until oil is applied, after which it moves easily. When the joints, or hinges, of the body are stiffened and inflamed by Rheumatism, they cannot be moved without causing the most excruciating pains. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, by its action on the blood, relieves this condition, and restores the joints to good working order.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has effected, in our city, many most remarkable cures, in cases which baffled the efforts of the most experienced physicians. Were it necessary, I could give the names of many individuals who have been cured by taking this medicine. In my case it has worked wonders, relieving me of after being troubled with it for years. In this, and all other diseases arising from impure blood, there is no remedy with which I am acquainted, that affords such relief as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.—R. H. Lawrence, M. D., Baltimore, Md.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me of Gout and Rheumatism, when nothing else would. It has eradicated every trace of disease from my system.—R. H. Short, Manager Hotel Belmont, Lowell, Mass.

I was, during many months, a sufferer from chronic Rheumatism. The disease afflicted me grievously, in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took several bottles of this preparation, and was speedily restored to health.—J. Fream, Independence, Va. ††

GREAT Real Estate Sale!

I HAVE RECEIVED INTSRUCTIONS to sell by Public Auction at the Colonial Hotel, on Saturday, October 13th,

AT 8 O'CLOCK, P.M.

THAT VALUABLE HOUSE AND LOT on Agnes street west, and known as Lot 9, Block XXXIII, New Westminster City. This is a full size lot with good six-room House, stabling for four horses, an excellent garden of bearing Fruit Trees, and a never failing supply of pure spring water. Terms, $1200 cash, balance at 8 per cent.

THE S. W. QUARTER OF SECTION 80, Group 2, 3¼ miles from New Westminster, with half a mile frontage on the Scott Road leading to Ladners Landing. This is an excellent chance to secure a good ranch within easy reach of the city. The growth is principally light alder, and the soil is of excellent quality. Terms, 25 per cent. cash, balance at 8 per cent.

THAT VERY ELIGIBLE LOT ON Agnes street, next the residence of Mr. Phillips, and known as Lot 36, Victoria Gardens; the size of the lot is 66 x 132 feet. This is one of the best situated lots on this street, and should meet with ready sale.

ANNAQIS ISLAND.

ALSO THAT VERY DESIRABLE PROperty known as "Annaqis Island." This island is situate about three-quarters of a mile below New Westminster City on the Fraser River. It contains 905 acres; a great part of which is prairie with a heavy growth of timber around the outer edge of the island, forming an excellent shelter and making it eminently adapted for a stock ranch. Some of the land has been cultivated, and it is upon this island that the best sugar industry was established. This property will be found worthy the attention of capitalists, as in the hands of competent parties this island could be conveniently cut up into small farms of say 50 acres each, and would bring in a handsome return for the investments. And parties locating here would be within easy reach of the city, and have the advantages of a ready and constant market for all they could produce.

ALSO SEVERAL CHOICE LOTS 66 x 132 in Lot 19, Block XIII, New Westminster suburbs; and in Lot 9, Block X, New Westminster suburbs, facing on the Douglas Road. Terms, one-third cash, balance in three and six months, at 8 per cent. interest.

LOTS 15, 16, 17, 18, 22, 31 AND 32, SUBdivisions of Lots 1 & 32, Block 7, New Westminster Suburbs.

Public Notice

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC is hereby directed to the "Provincial Health (small-pox) By-Laws, 1888," issued by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, under authority of the "Health Ordinance, 1869."

Having been appointed Provincial Health Officer for Districts lying south of Fraser River, I hereby give notice that the provisions of said By-Laws will be strictly enforced, and all persons are required to govern themselves accordingly.

Provincial Health Officer.

BY-LAWS ISSUED BY HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR-IN COUNCIL,

UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE "HEALTH ORDINANCE, 1869."

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of British Columbia, acting under and by virtue of the provisions of the "Health Ordinance, 1869," enacts as follows:—

1. Whenever small-pox is present in any locality without the boundaries of any Municipality, the Provincial Health Officer nearest to such locality shall at once cause the patient to be removed to an isolated hospital, tent or other suitable place, or cause such person to be otherwise sufficiently isolated, and shall see that he is properly cared for, and shall take proper measures for the disinfection, or, if necessary, the destruction of all clothing which may have been exposed to the contagion, and for the disinfection and purification of every conveyance, rail-car, steamboat, railway vessel, carriage, or other vehicle which may have been exposed to the contagion.

2. Such Health Officer shall have, in his discretion, full power to place in another building or tent all persons who may have been exposed to the contagion, and shall cause them to be supplied with all necessaries until the period of incubation of the disease shall have elapsed, and no such person shall go, or be permitted to go, abroad, until he or she has given satisfactory proof of successful vaccination within the preceding seven years, or shall have obtained a medical certificate of insusceptibility to the vaccine disease, nor until the clothing or effects worn or carried by or with him or her have been properly disinfected, if the same have been exposed to contagion.

3. To assist the Health Officer, he shall have full power to employ persons to be nurses, sanitary policemen, and otherwise to aid in the prevention of the spread of the disease, and may himself give and enforce such reasonable directions for the same purpose as to him may seem expedient, and the next Government Agent shall see that all articles and necessaries required by the Health Officer are furnished.

4. It shall be the duty of every medical practitioner who shall attend upon, or give medical or surgical advice, to or about any person suffering from small-pox, to give notice forthwith after he shall have commenced so to attend or give such advice, to the nearest Provincial Health Officer. When a householder knows that a person within the house occupied by him is taken sick of small-pox, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the nearest Provincial Health Officer.

5. The Provincial Health Officer before mentioned is and includes any person appointed Health Officer under the "Health Ordinance, 1869," by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

6. The foregoing provisions shall have no effect within the limits of any Municipality, save as hereinafter mentioned.

7. In case the Council of any Municipality, whenever small-pox is present, or likely to occur therein, shall fail to make or carry out proper provisions to prevent the invasion or spread of small-pox within the Municipality, and complaint thereof shall be made to the Lieutenant-Governor by the Council of any adjacent Municipality, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, acting upon such complaint or in his discretion upon other information, to order that these regulations shall, until otherwise ordered, apply to and be in force within the Municipality in which such neglect occurs, and thereupon any Provincial Health Officer shall have, within and in respect of such Municipality all the authority with which he is clothed in respect of localities without Municipalities, and in such case all disbursements and expenses paid by the Province in the carrying out within such Municipality of the foregoing regulations, shall be paid by such Municipality.

8. These regulations may be cited as the "Provincial Health (small-pox) By-Laws, 1888."

Dated at Victoria, this 3rd day of October, 1888.

By Command,
JNO. ROBSON,
doc6m1 Provincial Secretary.

A TERRIBLE TROPICAL SNAKE.

Graphic Description of a Creature Whose Power To Destroy Is Awful.

There are eight varieties of him (the fer de-lance), the most common being the gray speckled with black, precisely the color that enables the monster to hide himself among the roots of the tree by simply coiling about them and concealing his triangular head.

Sometimes he is a beautiful flower yellow; then he may never be distinguished from the bunch of bright bananas among which he hangs coiled, or he may be a dark yellow, or a yellowish brown, or the color of wine lees speckled with pink and black, or a perfect ash tint, or black with a yellowish belly, or black with a rose belly—all hues of tropical mould, of old bark, of putrefying trees, of forest detritus.

The iris of the eye is orange, with red flashes; at night it glows like incandescent charcoal.

And the fer-de-lance reigns absolute king over the mountains and the ravines; he is lord of the forests and the solitudes by day, and by night he extends his dominion over the public roads, the familiar paths, the parks, the pleasure resorts.

People must remain at home after dark unless they dwell in the city itself: if you happen to be out visiting after sunset, only a mile from town, your friends will caution you anxiously not to follow the boulevard as you go back, and to keep as closely as possible to the very centre of the path.

Even in the brightest moon you cannot venture to enter the woods unescorted; you cannot trust your eyes to detect danger; at any moment a seeming branch, a knot of lianas, a pink or gray root, a clump of pendent yellow fruit, may suddenly take life, writhe, swell, scratch, spring, strike.

Then you will need aid indeed, and most quickly; for within the space of a few heart-beats the stricken flesh chills, tumefies, softens, changes color, spots violaceously, and an icy coldness crawls through all the blood. If the physician or the pauseur arrives in time, and no artery or vein has been directly pierced, there is hope, but the danger is not passed when the life has been saved.

Necrosis of the tissues begin; the flesh corrupts, tatters, tumbles from the bone, and the colors of its putrefaction are frightful mockeries of the hues of vegetable death, of forest decomposition, the ghastly pinks and grays and yellows of rotting trunks and roots melting back into the thick fetid clay that gave them birth. You moulder as the trees moulder; you crumble and dissolve as dissolves the substance of the balatas and the palms and the acomats; the Death-of-the-Woods has seized upon you!

And this pestilence that walketh in darkness, this destruction that wasteth at noonday, may not be exorcised. Each female produces viviparously from 40 to 60 young at a birth. The haunts of the creature are in many cases inaccessible, inexplorable; its multiplication is prodigious; it is only the surplus of its swarming that overpours into the cane fields, and makes the high road perilous after sunset, yet to destroy three or four hundred thanatophidia on a single small plantation during the lapse of 12 months has not been uncommon.

The introduction of the mangnouste (the ichneumon) may, it is hoped, do much toward protecting the workers in the cane fields and on the cocoa and coffee plantations, but the mangnouste's powers are limited, and the ocean of death is illimitable.—Harper's Magazine.

SUNDAY WORK IN GERMANY.

Its Results Do Not Favor Keeping People Busy Seven Days a Week.

The extent to which Sunday labor is carried on in Germany, as shown in a report of the United States consul at Leipsic, will probably surprise even those who have hitherto observed the tendency in this direction.

In the Prussian districts, from which the fullest returns were obtained, it appears that of 500,156 establishments, employing 1,382,591 hands, 288,931 establishments are kept open on Sundays, and 668,027 of the hands are employed on that day, the percentage of establishments kept open being 57.75, and the percentage of employes working on Sunday 42.23. In trade and transportation the report shows that 77 per cent. of the establishments are kept open and 57 per cent. of the hands employed.

It would, of course, be interesting to know what correspondence there has been between seven-day labor and the production and trade of the empire for a series of years.

The attempt to dispense with one day of rest in every seven days has often been made in the past, but never with success, although a temporary advantage has been gained in increased production. Inferior workmanship, however, has been sure to follow, and it is doubtful if Germany's experiment in the face of the experience of the world will ultimately succeed.

THE WISDOM OF CHILDHOOD.

An Effective Rebuke of a Heartless Son.

An old grandfather had become quite feeble, and his hand shook so that he could hardly hold a dish. Frequently it slipped from his trembling fingers and was broken. His son harshly scolded him for what he called such carelessness.

One day the latter's little boy came into the room to find his father at work on a block of wood, and asked him if he was making another pig's trough.

He replied:

"I am making a trough for an old hog to eat out of. The fact is, it is for your grandfather. He's broken so many dishes that I must stop it or we'll all go to the poorhouse. Now, my boy, run away and play."

But the boy hesitated, and slowly said: "Father, hadn't I better stay and learn how to make it, so when you get old and break up the dishes I can make one for you to eat out of?"

The trough wasn't finished.—Hartford Herald.

While There's Life There's Hope.

"As you can only be a sister to me," he said, in broken tones, "will you let me kiss you good night?"

She shyly said she would.

Then he folded her in his strong arms and gently placing her head against his manly breast, he kissed her passionately.

"Mr. Sampson," she said softly, "this is all so new to me, so—so different from what I thought it to be, that if you will give me a little time to—to think it over, I—I may——"

But let us withdraw from this sacred scene.—New York Sun.

No Hypocrite.

Husband—"I think we had better give up our pew in the church, my love."

Wife—"Why?"

Husband—"I am going into the coal business and I hate hypocrisy."—Binghamton Republican.

Constipation

Is a universal and most troublesome disorder. It causes Headache, Mental Depression, impairs the Sight and Hearing, destroys the Appetite, and, when long continued, causes Enlargement of the Liver, Inflammation of the Bowels, and Piles. Constipation is speedily cured by Ayer's Pills.

For a number of months I was troubled with Costiveness, in consequence of which I suffered from Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, and a disordered liver. My eyes also troubled me. I was compelled to wear a shade over them, and, at times, was unable to bear exposure to the light. I was entirely three boxes of Ayer's Pills. I have no hesitation in pronouncing this medicine to be the best cathartic ever made.—James Eccles, Poland, Ohio.

I suffered from Constipation, and, consequently, from Headache, Indigestion, and Piles, for years. Ayer's Pills, which I took at the suggestion of a friend, have given me effectual relief. I commenced taking this remedy two months ago, and am now free from Constipation, the removal of which has caused my other troubles to disappear, and greatly improved my general health.—W. Keeler, Amherst, Mass.

I suffered from Constipation, which assumed such an obstinate form that I feared a stoppage of the bowels. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills cured me, completely.—D. Burke, Saco, Me. tf

AUCTION

PROVINCIAL

Government Lands

—ON—

NORTH ARM OF FRASER RIVER, AND ADJACENT LANDS, NEW WESTMINSTER DISTRICT.

TUESDAY, 23rd OCTOBER

AT 11 O'CLOCK, A. M.

I have been instructed by the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works to sell by Auction

AT VANCOUVER, B. C.

Several parcels of fine agricultural lands, situate on or near the North Arm of Fraser River, being sub-divisions of Lots 325, 326, 329, 330, 331, 332 to 339, 149, 150, 156, 175, 166, 155, 162, 163. The subdivisions of these Lots contain from 27 to 172 acres each; the location of these lots is shown on the present maps of the District.

The farms in the immediate vicinity of these Lots are considered the finest agricultural properties in British Columbia. Some of the lots front on the North Arm, and others are in the immediate vicinity of the same.

Steamers run daily from New Westminster and Vancouver, past these valuable properties.

ALSO,

Lots 628 to 670, and Lots 700 to 756.

All situate between the North Arm of Fraser River and Vancouver City. The North Arm Road from Vancouver runs through these Lots, and there are other roads laid out that will give access to each of them. This property commences about 2¼ miles south of Vancouver City and is bounded on the west by the C. P. Railway Land Grant, and is surveyed into lots containing from 4 to 5 acres each, maps of which will shortly be ready for distribution.

All the lands to be sold are well adapted for agricultural, dairy or orchard purposes, and on account of their close proximity to the markets of Vancouver and New Westminster cities, will be desirable properties for families seeking a home or for investment.

The C. P. Railway are now constructing a fine wagon road from Vancouver to the North Arm of Fraser River and Lulu Island. They are also surveying a line of railway through these properties with a view of connecting with the United States system of railways at Seattle.

These lands may fairly be considered as the most valuable ever offered for sale by auction in British Columbia.

It is learned on excellent authority that Messrs. Lowenberg and Harris will build a fine 2-story brick block on the ground now occupied by the Maple Leaf and Gem Saloons. The building will extend from Columbia to Front street and will be both handsome and substantial.

In another column will be found the announcement that Messrs. James Ellard & Co. have commenced a great clearing out sale of $35,000 worth of dry goods, etc., at cost price. The stock is exceptionally fine and has been carefully selected, which ought to be a strong inducement to intending purchasers.

The football club is practising steadily for the match with Vancouver, which takes place in this city on the 27th inst. The practices have not been very well attended so far, and if Westminster wishes to keep the football championship the members of the club will have to work hard between now and the date of the match.

The salmon run last night was not better than the daily average of the past two weeks. The canners are of the opinion that the run is over for this year, and have already commenced reducing the fishing staff. Unless a decided improvement takes place in the run the majority of the canneries will be shut down during the coming week.

The Dominion Illustrated, published by G. E. Desbarats & Son, Montreal and Toronto, and furnished to subscribers for the low figure of $4 per annum, is an institution that is well worthy of patronage by every Canadian. Its illustrations of Canadian subjects, public men, etc., are unique as works of art, besides being instructive and entertaining in an unusual degree.

The competition for the Fleming cup took place this afternoon on the Brownsville range. About fifteen militiamen took part in the match. The Victoria corps also fire for the cup today, and the highest individual score made in the competition wins the cup. Several of our best shots took part in the match, and it is hoped Westminster will be successful in carrying off the prize.

Holy Trinity church has been most handsomely decorated with fruits, grains, and other products of the soil, for the church harvest festival, which will be celebrated to-morrow. The services will be conducted by the Venerable Archdeacon Woods, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Scholfield and Rev. Philip Woods. The harvest offerings and collections will, as usual, be devoted to the Royal Columbian Hospital.

Last night about 9:30 Chief Stewart and his assistants made a raid on the house of Mee-Woo, who keeps the noted Chinese gambling den on Dupont street. When the door was forced there was a general scramble, but the policemen captured three Chinamen on the run, seized the gaming outfit, and took all along to the police station. When searched no money was found, and only 25 cents was found in the box under the table. The boodle was evidently carried off by those who escaped.—News-Advertiser.

"Blessed are the Pure in Heart."

The minister of customs was startled out of his usual calm and matter-of-fact humor yesterday by the receipt of the following letter: "Enclosed please find twenty dollars for duties on goods purchased during the past two years for my family use. I did not have invoices so could not enter them officially here. I did this to the end that He (Jesus) may 'stablish my heart, unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints," 1 Thess., III, 13. "The pure in heart shall see the Lord," Matt. 5, 8. Mr. Bowell should describe his feelings on receiving this letter.—Ottawa Free Press.

British Columbia Appointments.

Mr. Reid, M. P. for Cariboo, has been called to the senate in place of Mr. Nelson appointed lieut.-governor of British Columbia. Mr. Reid succeeded "Cariboo" Thompson in the commons, and during the seven years he has been in parliament has earned a reputation for steady-going attention to his duties. Although not occupying much time in speech-making, Mr. Reid was very popular among his brother members, and is the unanimous recommendation of his colleagues from British Columbia for the senatorial vacancy. Senator Reid was born in the county of Ottawa, just across the river from the parliament buildings. He went to British Columbia in 1861 and has been very successful there as a business man.—Empire.

Rock Creek Mines.

Alex. Cameron, a Rock Creek miner, arrived in this city yesterday from the interior and brings the latest news concerning the Rock Creek mines. He says the ledges are undoubtedly rich and will pay well when developed, but as the capital necessary for working the claims could not be obtained the majority of the miners have been forced to turn their attention elsewhere for the present. There are now only 12 miners on Rock Creek. The discovery of a very rich silver quartz ledge within a short distance of Keremeos has caused great excitement among the prospectors and a rush is now being made for that vicinity. The ledge discovered is 14 feet wide and gives promise of wonderful richness. An effort will be made to secure the necessary capital for its immediate development.

Good News.

An official report from the Walworth settlement last night brings the good news that all real danger from the small-pox is at an end. The patients whose lives were still in danger when the last report was sent in have now passed the critical period, and are on the fair road to recovery. No new cases have developed, and, with the exception of two, the patients are convalescent. Mrs. Van Luren, the lady who has worked so heroically for the afflicted family, and who it was feared would be attacked by the disease, has recovered her health and bravely sticks to her dangerous post. Dr. McLean and Mr. James Ellard are in good health and feel confident they have the epidemic under full control. Apart from the precautions taken by the government the municipality of Surrey has enforced strict quarantine and there is little or no chance of the disease spreading beyond the Walworth settlement.

A Melancholy Accident.

Several weeks ago a miner at Toad mountain named J. Armstrong, and two friends went out hunting for cariboo. They separated, and one of the party shortly afterwards saw what he supposed to the head of a cariboo and fired. It was Armstrong, however, who fell forward, having been killed instantly. His friend had mistaken the brown fur felt hat and check shirt of poor Armstrong for a cariboo and killed him. This sad occurrence took place ten miles from camp, to which the dead man was conveyed and buried amidst general mourning. The deceased was about 35 years old, and a magnificent specimen of manhood, tall and broad-shouldered and of a kindly disposition. He was respected by all who came in contact with him. He was a lumberman by trade, and originally came from eastern Canada, though he had worked for many years in Michigan, and lately at Colville, W. T. He had been prospecting during the summer, and at the time of his death was engaged in getting out timber and making shingles for the house being built in camp.—Colonist.

Westminster at the Toronto Show.

(From an Occasional Correspondent.)

British Columbia soon becomes home to one who lives there. The scenes of other lands have no power to efface from the mind her scenes of beauty and grandeur. At the mention of her name the mind flies back across the vast prairies, scales the stupendous Rockies, rushes through the mighty canyons of the Cascades, descends her slopes to the shores washed by the waters of the great heaving Pacific, and there feels the kiss of the warm breeze that comes with reviving power to her resplendent vales. In thought those vales are walked again, while on every hand the snow-capped towers stand like giant sentinels to guard the enchanting land. These thoughts arose when British Columbia's exhibit was spoken of by Toronto papers. But the picture faded as the exhibit was seen. The exhibit may have been all right; but it did not represent British Columbia. There is a mystery in regard to that even yet, after much study and thought. The impression was that Vancouver is a big place. The puzzle is to explain the phenomena of its rapid growth. It may be that all the people who formerly lived outside of the city, in other parts of the province have moved into the city; or, if not, then the citizens must have extended the city limits so as to include the whole country. If it be the latter way, the first hint that the outside world had was at Toronto's show. Neither of these satisfy, for New Westminster must still exist as a separate institution, because she was represented by twenty-four bottles of lager beer. Well, what about the beer? It looked so lonely after coming so far, the effect was depressing. Several bottles had wandered from their weeping companions as if seeking protection. Or, may be, some sympathetic visitor tried to console them and forgot to put them back. That infant industry should have been provided with a special nurse by the city fathers. It was also in stone bottles, and could not be seen. Were there no glass bottles, or was it too poor to show? Visitors were warned not to touch it. It could not be seen or tasted, only smelt, and it smelt like ratz. If the exhibitor had been liberal and had sent a few hundred barrels with taps and glasses the effect on the visitors' spirits might have been very different. But, as it was, the effect was very sad and depressing. There is no doubt in some minds but what Vancouver was trying to boom at New Westminster's expense. There were twenty-four cans of salmon by Ewen & Co.; but these were put up six miles from the city. If Vancouver is the Phœnix that rose from her own ashes she cannot hinder New Westminster from being what she is destined to be. Her inherent vitality is even now manifesting itself by breaking the shackles which may have bound her in the past, and she will soon demonstrate to the world that she is a city on a hill and cannot be hid. She sits on the fairest spot of the queen province of the Dominion, and even Van Horne cannot outwit or crush her. Even now her doors are opening to the commerce of China, India, and the great republics stretching across two continents to the south. Those who are interested in Toronto's great show, and did not see it, will have already learned from the daily papers, that it was a success. They have reported it well, and it is not necessary to attempt to describe it in a letter. But, in justice to New Westminster, it seemed necessary to say something. She can show more than twenty-four bottles of beer if she tries. A VISITOR.

Our correspondent, who is a former and well-known British Columbian, adds the following in a private note, which we take the liberty of publishing:

It seemed as if the Vancouver people were trying to gobble up everything and boom their own town at the expense of New Westminster. There are others who do not think all was fair. I went to Toronto's fair mainly to see what B. C. sent, but was disappointed to find things as they were. Vancouver had a very nicely written pamphlet which was scattered around among the exhibits. Vancouver was written in bold letters across the cover and it would naturally lead many to think many of the things which were not labelled were from that city. Fruit that never grew in Vancouver had these looks alongside of it. Fair play is all right, but I do not believe this was. Minerals marked Vancouver were shown, but surely they must have been from Vancouver Island.

Police Court.

Before T. C. Atkinson, P. M., and P. McTiernan, J. P.

Capt. George, a Harrison river Indian, was charged with being drunk within the city limits. The captain is a noted character and has long held the honored position of special constable and detective to the various Indian tribes along the river. George was also noted for sobriety and a general horror for anything in the shape of strong drink, but in a weak moment the tempter induced him to indulge in a glass of beer, and now he mourns the loss of self-respect and good character. The captain admitted being drunk, but said he had only taken four glasses of beer and six glasses of whisky—a most moderate allowance in his opinion. Considering the previous good character of the accused the court imposed the small fine of $10 which was promptly paid.

John Donough, charged with supplying intoxicants to Indians, pleaded not guilty. The evidence adduced clearly proved that Donough was guilty of the act charged, and, despite his protestations of innocence he was ordered to pay a fine of $12.50 or go to jail for 14 days. John decided it would be more profitable to serve 14 days than pay the fine.

Annie, a Harrison river Indian woman, charged with being drunk, pleaded guilty and was fined $5.

Johnny, a Fort Langley Siwash was charged with having an intoxicant in his possession, but as the evidence against him was not conclusive the case was dismissed.

Holloway's Corn Cure destroys all kinds of corns and warts, root and branch. Who then would endure them with such a cheap and effectual remedy within reach?

Late Canadian News.

TORONTO, Oct. 11.—Edward Card, a stone-cutter, was found guilty at the assizes of a criminal assault upon his 10-year-old daughter, Jennie. The testimony of the girl was anything but in her favor. She admitted that she was known among the neighbors as a forward girl, given to lying and pilfering, and she was known in the rescue home. Judge Galt said he would dismiss the case were it not for the fact that the father violated the daughter over whom he exercised special control. For this reason he allowed the case to go to the jury.

OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—The government returns show that the cattle ranching interest in the Northwest is worth $5,000,000. The cattle exceed 100,000 in number.

The candidature of Mr. Frank S. Barnard in Cariboo is likely to be endorsed by the government.
