Refused Free Entry.

Johns, N. F., Oct. 16.—The co- ministry has refused the United s naval tug Potomac, which is at the Bay of Islands, free entry tores, in spite of the fact that this ession is accorded French war- ships in these waters. The Potomac has on board A. B. Alexander, chief of the statistics division and methods of the bureau of fisheries for the department of commerce and labor, who is studying the Newfoundland fisheries dispute.

DESPERADOES STARVED.

Escaped Prisoners Forced to Give Themselves Up by Pangs of Hunger.

Dawson, Oct. 11.—Hendrickson and Thornton, the escaped desperadoes, were captured Tuesday near Nation City, below Eagle, not far from where they escaped last week from the steamer Lavelle Young, while en route to Fairbanks and Seattle.

Both men had wandered several days through the woods without food, fire or dry clothing, and the bravado was all taken out of them, so they readily surrendered when confronted. The men stopped at the Montauk roadhouse once and secured a meal, but the people there had no firearms to make an arrest with.

Thornton was captured while alone by Villeneve, skirmishing for food. He made no resistance when covered Hendrickson was covered when attempting to take a small boat at Nation landing. William Gertz covered him. Villeneve and Gertz get $250 each.

Deputy Marshal Wiseman and Jack Robinson took the men in custody and bound them together with heavy chains and put them aboard the steamer Cudahy, which is due in Dawson tomorrow.

Governor McInnes says he will be slower in granting permission hereafter to the American authorities to take criminals through Canada and Yukon for fear lax methods will cause them to get loose, terrorize this part of the country and make greatly added police duty. Unless there is better handling by the Americans hereafter, the privilege may be withdrawn entirely.

Uprising in Morocco.

Paris, Oct. 16.—The imminence of a formidable native uprising in Morocco and Algeria is growing. The French military authorities in Algeria are in a state of apprehension. The commander of the troops in the district of Ains Efra has cabled to the minister of war saying that the preparations among the Moors for a holy war are proceeding energetically. Emoty Abou, a cousin of the sultan of Morocco, has visited all the tribes and induced them to cease their internal quarrels and prepare to take the field in the middle of November.

The Daily Killing.

Salisbury, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Burgess Fox and Bill Fraser, men employed in the Gold Hill mine, 15 miles from here, were killed last night by an explosion, both bodies being badly mutilated. As the cartridges are fired by electricity the accident is thought to have been caused by carelessness.

THE CARMI TRAGEDIES

Further Details of Terrible Shooting Affray—Murderer Escapes and Whereabouts Unknown.

(Special to The Daily Canadian.)

Greenwood, B. C., Oct. 16.—Additional details of the Carmi tragedy have now been received from the parties bringing the wounded man, "Scotty" Smith, to Greenwood for treatment. It appears that Goudreau and Celle took dinner at Dale's boarding house on Sunday evening. They had some difficulty with Dale. After dinner Celle went to Goudreau's cabin with Smith. About 9 o'clock Dale appeared at the cabin and began shooting through the window. "Scotty" was shot through his shoulder, Goudreau through the throat and Celle through the chest. The two last expired almost instantly.

Dale next appeared outside the postoffice, where several men were visiting with his uncle, and began promiscuous shooting through the window. Nobody was hurt. Dale barricaded himself in a neighboring cabin and was surrounded by villagers.

About 1 o'clock Monday morning he escaped in the darkness. His where abouts are now unknown. The authorities have been notified and his apprehension seems certain. Dr. Oppenheimer of Greenwood has removed the bullet from the shoulder of Smith and his recovery is probable.

Dale also shot at Baird Bubar, a freighter who went to the cabin to compose the bodies of the dead men. No good reason is yet apparent for the cause of the quarrel. Carmi is a small mining town on the West Fork of the Kettle river, about 50 miles from here.

Shot Her Husband.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—In the presence of her daughter and a party of children, Mrs. Sarah Alcopa shot and killed her husband early today at their home. Alcopa was chasing her around the house with a butcher knife and she ran into her bedroom, got a revolver and fired two shots, one striking the man in the left temple and the other in the lung. The man instantly fell to the floor and died. Alcopa was a cigar maker and was 39 years old. His wife is 39 years old and there are two children. Jealousy on the husband's part is said to have been the inciting cause of the trouble.

LONG DRAWN CASE

Employees of Quaiffe in the Box Today

EYE-WITNESSES' STORY

Macleod and Smith Ascribe Origin of Fire to West Fernie Townsite.

The cross-examination of Macleod and the examination of Smith, two of the men employed by Subcontractor Robert Quaiffe, took up most of the time of the court today. They differed slightly in a few estimates of distances, but agreed as to the big fire coming from north of Lever's house, not from the right of way, and as to their efforts to control it.

A. M. Lupford, engineer, gave expert testimony generally agreeing with that of Warrington and Hastie given yesterday, to the effect that winter clearing is impracticable, and summer clearing perfectly safe if proper precautions are taken.

An arrangement between counsel may allow for the admission of Quaiffe's evidence at the fire inquest. Mr. Davis expresses his determination to have it submitted.

Yesterday afternoon, after the cross-examination of Engineer Hastie, Phillip Macleod, one of Quaiffe's workmen, was called. He described the clearing operations generally. On the evening of July 22 he was working near Station 885 ,when he saw smoke about 600 feet away, beyond Lever's house. That fire apparently went out. Others started later. He described the efforts of Quaiffe and his force to stop all the fires, and the summoning of other men to aid in the work. He did not remember any firing on the right of way the morning of the 23rd. He saw no evidence of fire at 7 o'clock that morning.

This morning the cross-examination of Macleod by Mr. Davis was begun when court opened at 10 o'clock.

A dispute followed a question put by Mr. Davis asking the witness' opinion of a statement made by Mr. Prendergast that fire had been burning in the ravine for a week or ten days.

Mr. Bodwell objected that Prendergast's statement was not to that effect.

Continuing, the witness said he did not remember, and would not swear that there were not fires smouldering or actually burning at half a dozen points, even opposite Lever's house. He thought there were not, but would not swear.

The witness repeatedly qualified his answers by explaining that they were according to his recollection. There were very few questions put by Mr. Davis to which he would give positive and definite answers.

On July 23 they were all engaged in fighting fire. He and his partner, Smith, separated from Quaiffe. He did not see any of Welsh's men until about 12 o'clock. They were then fighting fires near Lever's house. The wind was not strong during the morning, but by 1 o'clock it was uprooting trees. He could not say what were the dimensions of the fire when it was first seen by Smith and himself. They did not try to put it out.

Re-examined by Mr. Bodwell, he said he thought it was wiser to go for help than attempt to fight the fires alone. By the time help was secured the wind was high and the fire spreading rapidly.

S. S. Fowler and P. Lamont asked why the witness and those with him early on the 22nd did not attack the fire as soon as they saw it? The witness explained that their hats were straw and would not hold water, and they had no other appliances immediately at hand.

A. M. Lupford, C. E., inspecting engineer, said he tried to get over the work once a month. He was there in June from the 27th to the 30th, and not again until August.

He knew Quaiffe's portion of the right of way. There was no firing there up to June 30.

He put in a map made by his assistants and certified by him as correct.

Mr. Davis objected that the witness could not swear of his own knowledge to any of the measurements on the map.

To the court the witness said there might be small inaccuracies, but he would swear, as he had certified, to its general correctness.

He had followed railway engineering since 1880 and had been in charge of over 1000 miles of construction. He was chief engineer during the construction of the Crow's Nest Southern railway, but now is in the employ of the Great Northern.

To the court Mr. Bodwell said that the Crow's Nest Southern is part of the Great Northern system.

Much of the construction done by the witness was in country exactly similar to that around Fernie.

He thought $65 an acre—the price paid Quaiffe—a fair price for such work.

He said the recognized rules of safe clearing—the safest he knew—called for the felling of all timber inwards to the right of way, the burning first of brush, then of logs.

He would disapprove of leaving either brush or logs along the right of way. It was not safe, on account of the usual roving crowd that follows a new road.

It was dangerous and also caused delay and inconvenience. Burning cannot be done in winter.

In dry weather burning, he said, should be done at night.

Mr. Davis had no questions.

To the court the witness said the method he detailed was perfectly safe if proper precautions were taken. Around Fernie he thought clearing in November would have been as dangerous as in July, except for the difference in the night dampness.

Mr. Bodwell asked if witness would think it surprising or evidence of lack of care if fire escaped owing to a violent wind?

Mr. Davis objected, but the question was put by the court.

The witness said that if a high wind arose after a fire was started, no precautions could then render the clearing operations safe.

Mr. Davis—Then you think owners of surrounding property must take chances on such winds, without redress in case of loss.

To the court Mr. Lupford said he knew of very few cases of fire escaping from right of way. When it did happen it was due as a rule to sudden wind.

He further said that "due regard to the safety of neighbors" would depend upon the nature of the ground, of brush, logs, old slashings, and other circumstances. He thought there should be at least four men to watch 400 feet of fire. Water was often unavailable. The usual method of fighting such fires was by shovelling earth, cutting and beating out with green boughs.

When court resumed at 2:15 Mr. Davis stated that he and Mr. Bodwell had arranged that Quaiffe's evidence at the inquest, and a statement made by him, should be put in.

Mr. Bodwell dissented. His offer made previously had not been accepted. He would now consider his learned friend's offer.

Charles W. Smith was then called. He began working for Quaiffe on June 30, 1904. He was cutting logs on the right of way north of Lever's house. The timber was green and thin. A few logs may have fallen there off the right of way. The logs were to be taken by a lumber company.

Some of the logs were left and burned in the big fire. He and Macleod were cutting on July 22 and 23.

Neither he nor Macleod did any firing north of Lever's house at any time. South of there they had done some firing on July 11.

He worked on July 21 with Macleod. They were cutting logs north of Lever's. He did not work on the 22nd, but began again the morning of the 23rd.

Three days before he had noticed fire on West Fernie townsite at about lot 6 in block 3, on the river side of the right of way.

They were evidently settlers' clearing fires. He had seen the same a week earlier.

Quaiffe accompanied Macleod and witness to their work the morning of the 23rd. They worked on the right of way near Lever's and were there when the big fire came on them from near the creek.

He told of the efforts made by Quaiffe, Macleod and himself to put the fires out. He was sent for help.

His evidence as to the condition of the right of way and the surrounding country did not differ from Macleod's. He said their instructions were generally to burn only a little at a time.

He said that neither he nor Macleod, nor any other of Quaiffe's men placed any brush on burning fire, nor set any fire north of Lever's house, on the morning of July 23, nor at any time previous. Nothing was ready for burning there at that time.

Mr. Davis then asked Mr. Bodwell's consent to file Quaiffe's evidence before the cross-examination. Mr. Bodwell promised to recall Smith later if Mr. Davis wished.

The cross-examination of Smith then began.

PRIZE PAINTING.

Negro Artist Wins on "Two Disciples at the Tomb."

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Henry Tanner, a negro artist, was yesterday awarded the N. W. Harris prize of $50 for the best painting at the nineteenth annual exhibition of American paintings, which will open at the art institute tomorrow. Yesterday, at the private exhibition the art commission of the institute carefully went over the large number of paintings hung and the decision on Mr. Tanner's "Two Disciples at the Tomb" was unanimous.

The picture shows the faces of Peter and John before the Saviour's tomb, with a fine light playing across their features, which are strained with expectancy, while awaiting the fulfillment of the promise that had been made them.

Signal Association.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 16.—The Railway Signal association, the only organization in the world treating exclusively of all signal matters as relating to railroads, began its tenth annual meeting in Washington today. The membership embraces 800 men who are actively interested in railroad signal work in America, Europe, Australia and Africa.

PAPAL TROUBLES

French Cabinet Will Re-Attack Vatican

FORMULATING CHARGES

Conspiracy With Monarchists to Overthrow Republic---Allegations Denied.

Rome, Oct. 15.—The Oservatore Roma publishes a semi-official article saying the French cabinet is preparing to attack the vatican at the reopening of the chamber of deputies by accusing it of conspiracy with the monarchists to overthrow the republic, and giving the following statement:

"That the royalist press which opposed the late Pope Leo approves of Pope Pius.

"That the pope granted an interview to the royalist organ, Aulois."

The Oservatore answers these allegations by stating that Pope Pius, like Pope Leo, loyally accepts the republic, as the former has repeatedly affirmed action confirming his statement, in his recent encyclical of the church and state separation law, and challenges anyone to quote a word uttered by the pope or to adduce a fact showing that the pontiff is an enemy of the republic.

"The proofs to be referred to by the French government," the Oservatore adds, "are not serious. The royalists support the pope, either as good Catholics or for political aims. In the latter case it is not the vatican's fault, the responsibility resting upon the republic and resulting from the anti-religious measures adopted in opposing the church under the guise of carrying out Republican ideas."

CONCILIATION INVITED.

Letter of Fernie Miners' President Throws Light on Situation.

The following, which is part of a letter appearing in the Fernie Free Press, will serve to show our readers where responsibility for at least part of the serious trouble now existing in Fernie must be placed. It is evident that the real struggle is between Sherman, the official head of the U. M. W. of A., and the management of th collieries. With the local president in favor of conciliation an end of the struggle should not be far off. Following is the extract:

"Now, it is evident that we as miners have some grievances against the company and that the management have some against us, but what is the difference? Have we no remedy, and have thousands of men, women and children to suffer without any attempt made to have these differences put right? Surely in this, the twentieth century, men can meet together and have clear understanding and make strikes a thing of the past. Wherever the fault lies, let it be brought to light, and as one who believes in conciliatory measures, I would suggest that a board of inquiry be appointed from the two locals to enquire into this trouble and demand that the two parties involved explain their position. If either of these parties are afraid to agree to this course, we can come to no other conclusion that that the party who is afraid to do this is in the wrong. Let no one be led away by sentiment, but plain facts, and let our motto be as one that adorns many of the trades union banners, viz., "Come, let us reason together," and by so doing some good may be done and difficulties overcome and let us stand for right, whether it be for us or against us.

(Signed) "W. M. DICKEN,
"President Fernie Local Union."

Schism in Army.

New York, Oct. 16.—The schism in the ranks of the Salvation Army grows apace. The insurgents, who style themselves "The Salvation Army of America," have unfurled their banner and are daily recruiting their ranks. The commander-in-chief of the loyal army has issued a manifesto calling on the insurgents to return to their allegiance without effect and the unedifying spectacle was recently witnessed of two contending battalions of the Soldiers of the Cross belaboring each other for the possession of a profitable street "pitch." An ultimatum is shortly expected from the general and it is the opinion of the brigadier general and officers of the field staff that if the insurgents do not lay down their arms or banners and Bibles—war will be declared.

Mrs. Davis Dying.

New York, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis, who has been ill of pneumonia at the Hotel Majestic, was still alive early today, but her death, it is said, is not far off. Mrs. Davis took a sudden change for the worse last night, and her physicians said the end was only a question of hours. Her only surviving daughter, Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, and other relatives remained near her bedside during the night. Mrs. Davis is 80 years old.

RUSSIAN JUSTICE.

A Few Taunts Sufficient Excuse for Brutal Murder.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 16.—After investigating the killing of Mlle. Somenova, the young medical student confined in the central prison of St. Petersburg who was shot dead by a sentry on September 10, when she showed herself at the window of her cell, overlooking the courtyard, the commander of the St. Petersburg prison has thanked the soldier who killed the girl and has given him a reward of $5.

In addition the soldier is upheld as an example to his comrades for the faithful performance of duty. The prisoners claimed that the sentry shot without any warning or provocation, while the sentry said he ordered Mlle. Somenova four times to leave the window, as some of her companions were taunting the regiment with the part they had taken in the suppression of the revolt at Moscow, which resulted in the assassination of General Min, who was formerly colonel of the regiment.

Missionaries Meet.

Buffalo, Oct. 16.—The Foreign Christian Missionary society opened its session today at Convention hall. The announcement of committees and of annual reports were followed by addresses and the introduction of several missionaries. The Foreign Missionary Society of the Disciples of Christ which was organized in Louisville, Ky., October 11, 1875, and incorporated under the laws of Ohio, has property in the foreign field valued at $500,000, and has an annuity of 205,000. It employs nearly 200 missionaries and over 300 native evangelists, teachers and helpers, distributed in Africa, China, Cuba, Hawaiian islands, India, Japan, Philippine islands, Scandinavia, Thibet and Turkey. It also sustains a publishing bureau.

The Carmelina Sighted.

New Pork, Oct. 16.—The steamer Carmelina, on which Manuel Silveira sailed from Havana on October 2, ostensibly for New York, but which has not since been reported until today, was sighted by Captain Claussen of the Danish ship Hjorthoim, from Havana for New York, who kept in communication with her for two days. The Hjorthoim arrived in New York Saturday and was today anchored off Ellis island. Captain Claussen said that he thought the Carmelina proceeded southward. The departure and alleged defalcation of Silveira was the reason given for the assignment of J. M. Ceballos & Co. of this city.

CATCHING THE FEVER

Prairie Cities' Delegations Meet to Organize Professional Baseball League for the Northwest.

Medicine Hat, Oct. 15.—The Western towns have caught the professional baseball fever. Regina also had a bad attack, and from all accounts, Moose Jaw, Lethbridge, Wetaskawin and Red Deer are in danger of becoming affected with the same malady. Calgary and Edmonton are responsible for the outbreak and this city and Regina seem to be especially hard hit, owing to the enthusiasm which the delegates from the two aforementioned points unbottled at a meeting which was held in the hall today for the purpose of taking the preliminary steps in forming a professional league. The delegates present were from Calgary, Regina and Medicine Hat.

The various details of organization were thoroughly discussed, the delegates being in session all day. It was decided to organize under the name of the Western Canada League of Professional Baseball Clubs and to join the National association. Calgary, Medicine Hat, Edmonton and Regina will receive franchises and two others will be issued, either to Lethbridge and Moose Jaw, or Wetaskiwin and Red Deer.

A monthly salary list of $1200 was practically decided upon and the delegates meet again on November 5 to complete organization. The meeting was characterized by unbounded enthusiasm and confidence in the success which will attend the introduction of league professional baseball in the Northwest.

Tragic Death.

Fort William, Ont., Oct. 16.—Wilbur Williamson, 18 years of age, the son of a farmer residing near Murillo, is dead here, the victim of one of the most peculiar accidents which ever occurred in this district. He was holding the belt on a wood saw in place with a short stick, when the stick caught in a wheel and was thrown against the boy's head with such force that it pierced his brain. He died six hours later without regaining consciousness.

Vancouver Puts Foot on Hindu Immigration

APPEALS TO LAURIER

Ottawa Government Sends Evasive Reply---Telegrams to Colonial Secretaries.

(Special to The Daily Canadian.)

Vancouver, Oct. 16.—The city council has upheld the mayor's action in refusing the last party of Hindus arriving here permission to leave the C. P. R. detention sheds. The police have been instructed to absolutely prevent their dispersion. Mayor Buscome read the letter to the council which he had sent to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the premier's reply.

Then he had telegraphed to Sir Wilfrid as follows: "City of Vancouver will not further stand for any dumping of East Indians here. A mass meeting has been called to consider taking active measures for the prevention of any further such immigration unless definite and authoritative assurances are given by your government that it will prevent the importation of these undesirable immigrants."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's reply was also read, as follows. "With reference to telegram, government not prepared at this moment to take action, but will wait for further communication in the matter."

The mayor has also wired to Winston Churchill, the colonial secretary, and to Hongkong. The big mass meeting will be held tomorrow evening.

AUTOMOBILE EXPLODES.

Crashes Into Trolley Pole With Probable Fatalities.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 16.—An auto, while running at a high rate of speed on Detroit avenue, struck a trolley pole at Kenilworth avenue, Lakewood, a suburb, early today and exploded. Every one of the four occupants of the car were injured and two may die. The injured are Miss Anna Schmitte, burned about the arms; Miss Helena Ackerman, burned about the legs and back, condition critical; Benjamin Camera, burned about the head and hands, and George Hartman, right eye gouged out and skull fractured.

The car was owned by M. J. Kaulbaum, a banker ,a relative of Camera, who was driving the machine when something went wrong and it swerved across the road and struck the trolley pole. The collision and explosion seemed to be simultaneous.

Will Send to Eaton's.

(From Cumberland News.)

A young business man of the town, who believes in strict business ethics, and consequently deplores the practice so commonly followed in this place, of sending away for goods which can be procured here, was one day approached by a settler in a manner suggestive of its being quite acceptable, should aforesaid young man see fit to pay attention to said settler's daughter with a view to matrimony. Business, however, is the young man's creed, so to avoid complication and to forestall what seemed to threaten an actual proposal, he said: "I am not a marrying man, at least not at present. You have cows and things to sell; I have goods; when I want a wife, I shall send to Eaton's for one, just as you now send there for the goods I carry." That settled the argument.

Yukon Boundary Fixed.

Victoria, Oct. 16.—By the flashing of telegraphic signals from Fort Egbert, Alaska, and from Vancouver, Canada, the exact boundary line between the United States and Canada at the Yukon river has just been determined. A shaft of granite will be reared at the point agreed upon by the observers, and with it as a basis the long boundary stretch on the 141st meridian in the wild and unexplored country from the Arctic ocean southward will be marked out at some future time.

Laid Foundation.

Dublin, Oct. 16.—Lord and Lady Aberdeen today officiated at the laying of the foundation stone of the new municipal technical institute in Londonderry.

Miners All Rescued.

Durham, Eng., Oct. 16.—All the miners who were entombed as the result of an explosion yesterday in the Wingate colliery, near here, have been rescued.

Spokane, Oct. 16.—Reno Hutchinson, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was shot and killed in the best residential section of the city last night by a highwayman.

IMMIGRATION ANOMALIES.

The Canadian is in receipt of a copy of "The Law of Canada Respecting Immigrants and Immigration," issued by the superintendent of immigration at Ottawa with the request that it be read carefully and preserved for future reference. We have done both and appreciate the brochure as a clear setting forth of the immigration laws of the Dominion and to some extent the manner in which they are to be interpreted.

Section 30 of the act would seem to promise us an easy solution of the danger that threatens British Columbia through the immigration of hordes of Sikhs who are now infesting the coast camps and cities. It reads as follows: "The governor in council may, by proclamation or order, whenever he considers it necessary or expedient, prohibit the landing in Canada of any specified class if immigrants, of which due notice shall be given to the transportation companies."

It would appear therefore, that all that is necessary for us to do is to call the attention of the Dominion immigration office to the intolerant attitude of this entire province toward the Sikh invasion and establish the fact that the Sikhs are an undesirable class of invaders. The power conferred by section 30 is apparently absolute and unequivocal.

The Canadian however wishes to call the attention of its readers to several anomalies that attach themselves to the present situation. The act from which section 30 as above is quoted was assented to on the 13th of July of the present year. It has therefore been in force for a period of three months. It is only during these last three months that the country has been threatened with the Hindu invasion and it would seem that even so many as are present in the country could have been kept out under the provisions of the act.

Furthermore, it is but a few days since Mr. R. G. McPherson returned from Ottawa and told his constituents that he had impressed upon the authorities at Ottawa that the West is determined to keep this a white man's country. He even went so far as to tell his constituents that there is nothing in the present machinery of the law to keep out the Hindus but as a result of the pressure that he had brought to bear on the heads of the departments, special legislation would be enacted at the next session, otherwise almost immediately.

Accepting Mr. McPherson's statements at their face value, let us ask since this act was assented to on the 13th of July, why does Mr. McPherson say there is no machinery in the present law to provide against Sikh immigration? Or to put the case another way: If Mr. McPherson did so much to impress upon the authorities at Ottawa that the West is to be kept a white man's country and if—as he said—he received positive assurances that legislation would be enacted, granting that section 30 means what it says, why did not the authorities call his attention to the said section and show him the law as it stands?

We are more than ever convinced that Mr. McPherson had but one end in view when he took to himself such fulsome praise for his patriotic attachment to the interests of the white man in the West.

The new Liberal party slate hints that Mr. McPherson is to step down out of the arena of Dominion politics—where he has not been too happy nor exhibited even scintillating brilliance—into the sphere of provincial politics to take the place of Mr. McDonald who is—obviously—to be promoted to the bench. Mr. McPherson needed a rallying cry in British Columbia, and he thought he found it in his claim to such rigid determination to keep it for the white man. But what are these pretensions worth when the governor in council can cancel the rights of the Sikhs to come to British Columbia by the stroke of his pen?

Let us go still deeper into this little Liberal plot for it will bear still further investigation. Dr. Munro is the Dominion immigration agent and health officer at Vancouver. As such he must have been aware, since the 13th of July, of the existence of section 30 which would make possible the exclusion of the Sikhs by order of the governor in council.

What has he done? He has been the most stalwart champion of the Hindus; he has defended them against what he has called the calumnies of the laboring men who have protested against their invasion. He has, without doubt, reported to Ottawa, to just the same effect as he has spoken in Vancouver. It is to him, more than to anyone else that Ottawa will look for the reports upon which to base its decision as to the exclusion of the British Indians.

So we have Mr. McPherson tearing his hair at the invasion and affirming that his influence alone, against the malversations of the Eastern Conservative press, has pledged the government to the exclusion of these people, while all the time the agent of the Dominion government has been loudly calling out that injustice is being done when their exclusion is asked for. Without a suspicion that there can be any collusion these anomalies are among the many funny things by which the dust has been thrown into the eyes of the people till it has been too late for them to see.

A COMPLICATED CASE.

In the Controverted Elections Act case now being held in Regina, Mr. Haultain has advanced arguments which, if the court agrees with them, will cause a tremendous upheaval in Saskatchewan, says the Winnipeg Tribune.

When an election protest came before Judge Prendergast, some months ago, the judge decided that the Controverted Elections Act was not in force in Saskatchewan since the Autonomy Act came into effect. This, he claimed, made it impossible for him to hear these cases.

It is the appeal from this decision that is now being heard in Regina—and in that appeal Mr. Haultain has argued that the Controverted Elections Act is as much in force in Saskatchewan as is the Elections Act itself. Thus, if neither of these acts be in force, there is no lawful government in Saskatchewan.

If the court should take this view of the case, a situation unprecedented in Canada would at once be created. The Scott government would cease to exist and new elections would have to be ordered by the crown.

The possibility of such an event gives the case now being heard in Regina an exceptional interest.

The outcome of it should be closely watched by all who have followed the devious course of the Scott government and the Saskatchewan courts since the passing of the notorious Autonomy bills. It should also be closely watched by all interested in constitutional government in Canada.

[The above case has since been referred to the full court of Saskatchewan, which will sit within a month.—Ed. Canadian.]

Query—If the Houston Conservatives of Nelson are going to vote for Dr. Hall, who are the Houston Liberals going to vote for?

POWER RATES ACCEPTED

Replies From Principal Customers Express Satisfaction—Proceedings of Council Meeting.

The city's prospective customers for electric power generally express entire satisfaction with the rates suggested in the circular letter sent to them by order of the council. They have been collectively further assured that they will be given ample time and notice to enable them to make all necessary changes in equipment before the water power service is discontinued.

At last night's meeting of the council the question was gone into again for the satisfaction of a few motor users who appeared to ask for information.

Alderman Selous' bylaw amending the present water rates bylaw, received its third reading and will be finally passed and adopted at the next meeting. Negotiations regarding the sale of the last debentures, and the taking over by the city of the old courthouse building were concluded. The latter will be placed on the corner of Ward and Front streets on two lots leased from the C. P. R. company.

The meeting was held shortly after 8 o'clock. There were present Mayor Gillett, in the chair, and Aldermen Selous, Irving, Rose and Annable. The minutes of the last regular and special meetings were read and adopted.

The finance committee recommended the payment of an estimate of $222 on J. H. Ringrose's contract and a pay roll of the electric light department. The report was adopted.

The fire, water and light committee reported recommending the building of stalls in the fire hall for an extra team, as recommended by Fire Chief Deasy. The report was adopted.

The city clerk read two replies to the communications sent out by him. P. Burns & Co. applied for 25 horsepower; W. H. Kreyscher applied for 15, to be increased lated to 40. The letters were filed.

Alderman Selous reported that B. Isaac had stated that he was satisfied with the proposed rates.

J. W. Holmes addressed the council in person in reply to the communication. He complained that the information contained in the circular letter was indefinite as to the time of service and the method of charging.

Several other questions were asked, as to whether the proposed charge of $3 was for nominal or actual horsepower; whether the $3 did or did not include the service rates.

After tentative replies by Aldermen Rose and Irving the mayor informed the motor users present that the matter was not yet definitely settled; that a sliding scale had been proposed, but not yet adopted, and that the method of charging was not settled.

Alderman Selous objected to any such questions being answered in the absence of the city's electrical engineer.

After some further inconclusive discussion Mr. Holmes stated that his firm would probably require 10 horsepower.

W. P. Dickson then arrived and explained that any ordinary voltage required could be arranged and the transformers would be arranged where necessary.

The visitors were instructed generally to seek their information as to details from the city electrician, instead of directly from the council.

A letter from H .& M. Bird stated that the two lots applied for (on Front street at the corner of Ward) could be leased from the C. P. R. company at the rate of $5 each per month on a five years' lease, for the purpose of placing on them a building to be used as a courthouse and afterwards as a library.

The mayor explained that he had conferred with the Messrs. Bird on the subject and the letter was the result. He had also asked for an option of purchase, but no reply was received. He understood that the lots were not for sale.

The city clerk had also written to the provincial government accepting the offer of the courthouse building on the terms suggested by Commissioner Renwick. The agreement was approved and the building would be at the city's disposal immediately at the close of the assizes now in session.

The offer of the C. P. R. company was accepted, Alderman Rose dissenting, as he objects on principle to placing city buildings on leased ground.

A letter from the union of British Columbia Municipalities was read, urging that Nelson be represented at its annual meeting, to be held in Kamloops, beginning October 24.

The mayor thought Nelson had held aloof long enough and should now join, as the city was interested in all the questions to be discussed, which includes proposed amendments to the Municipal Clauses Act.

It was resolved that Nelson join the union and that mayor either go or appoint one of the aldermen as delegate.

A telegram from the Dominion Securities company of Toronto announced that the debentures were satisfactory, and were accepted.

In moving the third reading of Bylaw No. 172, Alderman Selous explained that it was merely an amendment to the Water Rates Bylaw, to adjust the rates for the purpose of preventing waste of water. The bylaw was then read a third time, and Alderman Selous gave notice of motion to adopt.

The city engineer reported that good progress was being made on the installation of machinery at the power plant. He thought it would be ready for operation by December 1.

The council then adjourned to October 30.

MERCHANT TAILORS ARE ALARMED

AT THE PROGRESS MADE BY SEMI-READY TAILORING.

The Company Have Now 69 Semi-ready Wardrobes in Canada, Where There Were But Three Eight Years Ago.

Referring to the progress made by the new art of men's tailoring a New York journal recently prophesied that in a few years the old-time journeyman tailor would be as scarce as a brevier compositor in a daily newspaper office. Semi-ready tailoring has made such strides in recent years that the tailoring journals are advising organization and action on the part of merchant tailors to combat the new idea. In bold type the National Fashion Bulletin recently issued "Confidential Circular No. 1," to the custom tailors, and quoted a prominent speaker at the merchant tailor's banquet, who said:

"Unless we combat the Semi-ready houses our profession will in a few years be in the same condition as the custom shoe trade is now. A few will pay big prices for custom-made. The rest will wear Semi-ready."

The strides made by the Semi-ready tailoring in Canada have been remarkable. In Toronto recently two new Semi-ready Wardrobes were opened, Ed. Mack, one of the prominent merchant tailors, having secured the agency. In Montreal three new Semi-ready agencies were opened. A. M. Campbell, a manager of the Merchant's Bank, joined forces with R. C. McLean, a merchant tailor. The third was opened by F. X. Bourduas, a merchant tailor who has been in business for 19 years.

From three wardrobes in 1898, the Semi-ready Company announce in their new booklet, just published, entitled "Manners and Modes for Men," that there are 69 Semi-ready Wardrobes in Canada.

The Winnipeg house of the Semi-ready Company is to be in charge of William T. Peace, who for fifteen years conducted the most prosperous and high-class custom tailoring business in that city.

In every town and city the Semi-ready Company seem to have no difficulty in getting the best agencies. While a merchant tailoring experience is not absolutely essential, the system upon which Semi-ready tailoring is based appeals more quickly to a man of practical experience. A practical tailor grasps the idea at once.

J. A. Gilker, the pioneer merchant of Nelson secured the agency for the incomparable Semi-ready tailoring.

IMMIGRATION ANOMALIES.

The Canadian is in receipt of a copy of "The Law of Canada Respecting Immigrants and Immigration," issued by the superintendent of immigration at Ottawa with the request that it be read carefully and preserved for future reference. We have done both and appreciate the brochure as a clear setting forth of the immigration laws of the Dominion and to some extent the manner in which they are to be interpreted.

Section 30 of the act would seem to promise us an easy solution of the danger that threatens British Columbia through the immigration of hordes of Sikhs who are now infesting the coast camps and cities. It reads as follows: "The governor in council may, by proclamation or order, whenever he considers it necessary or expedient, prohibit the landing in Canada of any specified class if immigrants, of which due notice shall be given to the transportation companies."

It would appear therefore, that all that is necessary for us to do is to call the attention of the Dominion immigration office to the intolerant attitude of this entire province toward the Sikh invasion and establish the fact that the Sikhs are an undesirable class of invaders. The power conferred by section 30 is apparently absolute and unequivocal.

The Canadian however wishes to call the attention of its readers to several anomalies that attach themselves to the present situation. The act from which section 30 as above is quoted was assented to on the 13th of July of the present year. It has there fore been in force for a period of three months. It is only during these last three months that the country has been threatened with the Hindu invasion and it would seem that even so many as are present in the country could have been kept out under the provisions of the act.

Furthermore, it is but a few days since Mr. R. G. McPherson returned from Ottawa and told his constituents that he had impressed upon the authorities at Ottawa that the West is determined to keep this a white man's country. He even went so far as to tell his constituents that there is nothing in the present machinery of the law to keep out the Hindus but as a result of the pressure that he had brought to bear on the heads of the departments, special legislation would be enacted at the next session, otherwise almost immediately.

Accepting Mr. McPherson's statements at their face value, let us ask since this act was assented to on the 13th of July, why does Mr. McPherson say there is no machinery in the present law to provide against Sikh immigration? Or to put the case another way: If Mr. McPherson did so much to impress upon the authorities at Ottawa that the West is to be kept a white man's country and if—as he said—he received positive assurances that legislation would be enacted, granting that section 30 means what it says, why did not the authorities call his attention to the said section and show him the law as it stands?

We are more than ever convinced that Mr. McPherson had but one end in view when he took to himself such fulsome praise for his patriotic attachment to the interests of the white man in the West.

The new Liberal party slate hints that Mr. McPherson is to step down out of the arena of Dominion politics —where he has not been too happy nor exhibited even scintillating brilliance —into the sphere of provincial politics to take the place of Mr. McDonald who is—obviously—to be promoted to the bench. Mr. McPherson needed a rallying cry in British Columbia, and he thought he found it in his claim to such rigid determination to keep it for the white man. But what are these pretensions worth when the governor in council can cancel the rights of the Sikhs to come to British Columbia by the stroke of his pen?

Let us go still deeper into this little Liberal plot for it will bear still further investigation. Dr. Munro is the Dominion immigration agent and health officer at Vancouver. As such he must have been aware, since the 13th of July, of the existence of section 30 which would make possible the exclusion of the Sikhs by order of the governor in council.

What has he done? He has been the most stalwart champion of the Hindus; he has defended them against what he has called the calumnies of the laboring men who have protested against their invasion. He has, without doubt, reported to Ottawa, to just the same effect as he has spoken in Vancouver. It is to him, more than to anyone else that Ottawa will look for the reports upon which to base its decision as to the exclusion of the British Indians.

So we have Mr. McPherson tearing his hair at the invasion and affirming that his influence alone, against the malversations of the Eastern Conservative press, has pledged the government to the exclusion of these people, while all the time the agent of the Dominion government has been loudly calling out that injustice is being done when their exclusion is asked for. Without a suspicion that there can be any collusion these anomalies are among the many funny things by which the dust has been thrown into the eyes of the people till it has been too late for them to see.

A COMPLICATED CASE.

In the Controverted Elections Act case now being held in Regina, Mr. Haultain has advanced arguments which, if the court agrees with them, will cause a tremendous upheaval in Saskatchewan, says the Winnipeg Tribune.

When an election protest came before Judge Prendergast, some months ago, the judge decided that the Controverted Elections Act was not in force in Saskatchewan since the Autonomy Act came into effect. This, he claimed, made it impossible for him to hear these cases.

It is the appeal from this decision that is now being heard in Regina—and in that appeal Mr. Haultain has argued that the Controverted Elections Act is as much in force in Saskatchewan as is the Elections Act itself. Thus, if neither of these acts be in force, there is no lawful government in Saskatchewan.

If the court should take this view of the case, a situation unprecedented in Canada would at once be created. The Scott government would cease to exist and new elections would have to be ordered by the crown.

The possibility of such an event gives the case now being heard in Regina an exceptional interest.

The outcome of it should be closely watched by all who have followed the devious course of the Scott government and the Saskatchewan courts since the passing of the notorious Autonomy bills. It should also be closely watched by all interested in constitutional government in Canada.

[The above case has since been referred to the full court of Saskatchewan, which will sit within a month. —Ed. Canadian.]

Query—If the Houston Conservatives of Nelson are going to vote for Dr. Hall, who are the Houston Liberals going to vote for?

POWER RATES ACCEPTED

Replies From Principal Customers Express Satisfaction—Proceedings of Council Meeting.

The city's prospective customers for electric power generally express entire satisfaction with the rates suggested in the circular letter sent to them by order of the council. They have been collectively further assured that they will be given ample time and notice to enable them to make all necessary changes in equipment before the water power service is discontinued.

At last night's meeting of the council the question was gone into again for the satisfaction of a few motor users who appeared to ask for information.

Alderman Selous' bylaw amending the present water rates bylaw, received its third reading and will be finally passed and adopted at the next meeting. Negotiations regarding the sale of the last debentures, and the taking over by the city of the old courthouse building were concluded. The latter will be placed on the corner of Ward and Front streets on two lots leased from the C. P. R. company.

The meeting was held shortly after 8 o'clock. There were present Mayor Gillett, in the chair, and Aldermen Selous, Irving, Rose and Annable. The minutes of the last regular and special meetings were read and adopted.

The finance committee recommended the payment of an estimate of $222 on J. H. Ringrose's contract and a pay roll of the electric light department. The report was adopted.

The fire, water and light committee reported recommending the building of stalls in the fire hall for an extra team, as recommended by Fire Chief Deasy. The report was adopted.

The city clerk read two replies to the communications sent out by him. P. Burns & Co. applied for 25 horsepower; W. H. Kreyscher applied for 15, to be increased lated to 40. The letters were filed.

Alderman Selous reported that B. Isaac had stated that he was satisfied with the proposed rates.

J. W. Holmes addressed the council in person in reply to the communication. He complained that the information contained in the circular letter was indefinite as to the time of service and the method of charging.

Several other questions were asked, as to whether the proposed charge of $3 was for nominal or actual horsepower; whether the $3 did or did not include the service rates.

After tentative replies by Aldermen Rose and Irving the mayor informed the motor users present that the matter was not yet definitely settled; that a sliding scale had been proposed, but not yet adopted, and that the method of charging was not settled.

Alderman Selous objected to any such questions being answered in the absence of the city's electrical engineer.

After some further innconclusive discussion Mr. Holmes stated that his firm would probably require 10 horsepower.

W. P. Dickson then arrived and explained that any ordinary voltage required could be arranged and the transformers would be arranged where necessary.

The visitors were instructed generally to seek their information as to details from the city electrician, instead of directly from the council.

A letter from H .& M. Bird stated that the two lots applied for (on Front street at the corner of Ward) could be leased from the C. P. R. company at the rate of $5 each per month on a five years' lease, for the purpose of placing on them a building to be used as a courthouse and afterwards as a library.

The mayor explained that he had conferred with the Messrs. Bird on the subject and the letter was the result. He had also asked for an option of purchase, but no reply was received. He understood that the lots were not for sale.

The city clerk had also written to the provincial government accepting the offer of the courthouse building on the terms suggested by Commissioner Renwick. The agreement was approved and the building would be at the city's disposal immediately at the close of the assizes now in session.

The offer of the C. P. R. company was accepted, Alderman Rose dissenting, as he objects on principle to placing city buildings on leased ground.

A letter from the union of British Columbia Municipalities was read, urging that Nelson be represented at its annual meeting, to be held in Kamloops, beginning October 24.

The mayor thought Nelson had held aloof long enough and should now join, as the city was interested in all the questions to be discussed, which includes proposed amendments to the Municipal Clauses Act.

It was resolved that Nelson join the union and that mayor either go or appoint one of the aldermen as delegate.

A telegram from the Dominion Securities company of Toronto announced that the debentures were satisfactory, and were accepted.

In moving the third reading of Bylaw No. 172, Alderman Selous explained that it was merely an amendment to the Water Rates Bylaw, to adjust the rates for the purpose of preventing waste of water. The bylaw was then read a third time, and Alderman Selous gave notice of motion to adopt.

The city engineer reported that good progress was being made on the installation of machinery at the power plant. He thought it would be ready for operation by December 1.

The council then adjourned to October 30.

MERCHANT TAILORS ARE ALARMED

AT THE PROGRESS MADE BY SEMI-READY TAILORING.

The Company Have Now 69 Semi-ready Wardrobes in Canada, Where There Were But Three Eight Years Ago.

Referring to the progress made by the new art of men's tailoring a New York journal recently prophesied that in a few years the old-time journeyman tailor would be as scarce as a brevier compositor in a daily newspaper office. Semi-ready tailoring has made such strides in recent years that the tailoring journals are advising organization and action on the part of merchant tailors to combat the new idea. In bold type the National Fashion Bulletin recently issued "Confidential Circular No. 1," to the custom tailors, and quoted a prominent speaker at the merchant tailor's banquet, who said:

"Unless we combat the Semi-ready houses our profession will in a few years be in the same condition as the custom shoe trade is now. A few will pay big prices for custom-made. The rest will wear Semi-ready."

. . . . . .

The strides made by the Semi-ready tailoring in Canada have been remarkable. In Toronto recently two new Semi-ready Wardrobes were opened, Ed. Mack, one of the prominent merchant tailors, having secured the agency. In Montreal three new Semi-ready agencies were opened. A. M. Campbell, a manager of the Merchant's Bank, joined forces with R. C. McLean, a merchant tailor. The third was opened by F. X. Bourduas, a merchant tailor who has been in business for 19 years.

From three wardrobes in 1898, the Semi-ready Company announce in their new booklet, just published, entitled "Manners and Modes for Men," that there are 69 Semi-ready Wardrobes in Canada.

The Winnipeg house of the Semi-ready Company is to be in charge of William T. Peace, who for fifteen years conducted the most prosperous and high-class custom tailoring business in that city.

In every town and city the Semi-ready Company seem to have no difficulty in getting the best agencies. While a merchant tailoring experience is not absolutely essential, the system upon which Semi-ready tailoring is based appeals more quickly to a man of practical experience. A practical tailor grasps the idea at once.

J. A. Gilker, the pioneer merchant of Nelson secured the agency for the incomparable Semi-ready tailoring.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL

The Wholesalers' association will meet in the board of trade rooms tonight at 8:30.

Al Gray of Kokanee has returned from a two months' trip to his old home in the east.

The metal quotations remain at yesterday's figures, with the exception of London lead, which is reported six points lower.

Thursday being a public holiday and Thanksgiving day, The Canadian will not be issued. Advertisers please govern themselves in the change of their ads.

Mrs. J. Lawrence has moved into her new home on Victoria street and will be At Home tomorrow afternoon and afternoons on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month.

All changes for advertisements must reach The Daily Canadian business office not later than 10 o'clock in the morning in order to insure insertion in the issue of that day.

The members of the cricket club have begun decorating the Armouries for Thursday evening's dance. The invitations have been issued to men only. Each guest is entitled to bring two ladies. Over 100 acceptances have already been received.

People who are willing to give or lend flowers, plants, shrubbery, fruit or vegetables for the decoration of St. Saviour's church for the Thanksgiving day services are requested to bring or send them to the church tomorrow—Wednesday—morning.

The contract between the 20,000 club and W. G. Cranston was signed this morning. As announced yesterday, grand opera will be produced in Agricultural hall the evening of October 31 under the auspices of the 20,000 club. The stage will be raised, the lighting improved, seats provided and heating arranged for.

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

Local Churches Will Unite to Celebrate on Thursday Next.

The evangelical churches of the city have combined to hold a union service on Thursday in celebration of th eday of national thanksgiving. The service will be held in the Methodist church at 11 o'clock in the morning and Rev. E. H. Shanks, the Baptist pastor, will deliver the address, while Revs. J. T. Ferguson and R. Newton Powell will assist in the order of service. The usual annual collection will be taken in aid of the Children's Aid Society of British Columbia.

The decorations which were in the church for last Sunday's Harvest Festival will remain, the flowers of course being renewed. These decorations were the admiration of every one at the church, which was so crowded on Sunday evening that many persons had to be turned away.

The male quartette of the Methodist choir will sing selections at Thursday's service.

Mining Records.

Certificates of work were issued to D. Nichols, on the Willow, Grouse and Blue Grouse; to O. A. Lovell on the Yankee Girl; to W. Connolly on the Gracie R. and Rossland; to Minnie T. Webster on the Minnie; to F. S. Clements on the Black Pine.
