This will lead up to nnection of Harry Orchard with se, and the testimony of Orchard, it is expected, may be broached some time this week, will bring out the entire extent of the alleged plot.

Haywood has been suffering from the nervous strain of the case, and injudicious living, but this morning in spite of a slight return of indisposition appears to be in good condition.

Court opened at 9:40 a. m., and at 9:46 a. m. James H. Hawley began his address to the jury. He said that they expected to prove that the officers and and executive committee of the Western Federation ofMiners was responsible not only for the death of Steunenberg but of a score of others besides. The defence objected but the objection was overruled.

In reply to a question from the court Mr. Hawley said he expected to prove everything he said, and that in his opening statement he would keep "far within the scope of the evidence."

Hawley said the "inner circle" of the Western Federation of Miners always aimed at controlling not only the organization of the federation but the government of the different states where the organization existed. Mr. Darrow again objected on the ground that the statement was a "pure piece of rhetoric and no part of a statement of the case." Hawley said he would prove that the Western Federation of miners "left a trail of blood, traded in blood, hired paid assassins," and collected huge sums of money which they used and squandered to carry out the objects of the few men of the "inner circle." He said he would show that the inner circle" used this emergency fund to hire the best legal talent to defend those of their circle charged with crime.

Hawley, after describing Steunenberg's death and Orchard's arrest, said he would prove that after Orchard's arrest he received a telegram signed "L" which was followed by the presence in Caldwell of Mr. Miller, one of Haywood's counsel. Hawley said the prosecution would produce letters from Pettibone to Orchard when the latter was in jail. He also announced that Orchard had made a "full confession" to McPartland, and that Orchard and McPartland would be on the stand.

He reviewed events immediately preceding Steunenberg's death and told of the positions held by Haywood and Pettibone in the Western Federation of Miners. He said that Harry Orhcard was also a member of the federation, as was Jack Simkins, who has never been arrested. Mr. Hawley told the jury that while Haywood, Pettibone and Moyer are not specifically charged with having thrown or exploded the bomb, it is not the purpose of the prosecution to prove that they were even in the state at the time of the crime. Under the laws of this state, however, accessories before the fact are not recognized as such, but must be charged with the crime as principals.

"It is our purpose," the attorney for the state went on, "to show that the death of Steunenberg was the result of the conspiracy with the understanding and collusion between the leaders of the federation and other persons. We claim that the leaders of this union are responsible for this outrage and it will be our purpose to prove them such." Mr. Hawley then went into information of the federation, saying it was organized in 1893. The executive committee, he explained, was given almost absolute control of the body. He said the rank and file knew little of what was going on the few men and guiltless of the crimes alleged. "But we will show," he said, "that the leaders of this organization have been responsible not only for the death of Steunenberg but of a score of others besides."

Attorney Darrow, for the defence, here declared that "the death of scores of others" had nothing to do with the case. "The court cannot tell at this time whether the statement is objectionable or not. Objection overruled," said Judge Wood. Judge Wood asked Mr. Hawley if he expected to show by evidence the responsibility of the defendant in the federation's alleged unlawful acts and received a reply in the affirmative.

SEAL POACHER SEIZED

British Schooner Taken by American Revenue Cutter—Within Protected Waters.

Washington, June 4.—The secretary of the treasury has received a telegram from Capt. Ainsworth of the revenue cutter Rush, stating that he had seized the British sealing schooner Charlotta G. Cox, which was found illegally catching seals in fair weather grounds off Alaska. The Cox, it is said, evidently was taking seals during the closed season within the area of the award in violation of the articles of the Tribunal of Arbitration agreed to by the governments of Great Britain and the United States. She had 77 fur sealskins on board.

The department has directed the commander of the Rush to deliver the Cox to the British authorities at the nearest port in British Columbia, in accordance with the joint recommendations of the two governments in case of seizure. The Rush also reported the presence of Japanese sealers in the same vicinity with a large number of sealskins on board. The Japanese sealers, however, are not subject to seizure outside of territorial waters.

PASS AGREEMENT

Settlement Approved by Council

NO INTERVENTION YET

City Fathers' Protracted Meeting—Appeals for Library, Band and Motor Users.

The council meeting last night lasted over two hours. It was robbed of some of its promised interest by the non-appearance of W. P. Tierney. The provisional agreement with the West Kootenay Power and Light company was approved though it was agreed that the full text should not be published, for obvious reasons.

Grants were made to the city library and the city band.

A report from the board of works was received and some sidewalk construction was authorized.

His Honor Judge Wilson presented a request for a settlement of his account in connection with the W. K. P. & L. case which was referred to the city solicitor.

The council met shortly after 8 with Mayor Gillett in the chair, others present being Aldermen Hume, Selous, Annable, McMorris, Irving and Rose. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

Rev. J. T. Ferguson, who, with F. *Starkey, appeared on behalf of the pub*lic library, asked for a guarantee of $500 for the current year, expressing the hope that the whole of that amount would not be required, as the directors *had still a small balance from the pro*ceeds of the Kirmess.

The delegates were promised consideration at the next meeting.

F. J. Deane asked that the electrical engineer be instructed to give definite information as to the kind of motors required by users of electric power. He had already secured motors but found that they could not be used.

City Electrician Smith explained that the 110-volt motors with one-horse power would not be satisfactory; they must be 220 or 440 volt. He also thought it very bad policy to couple lighting and power service on one circuit. The only three circuits he would recommend are 220, 440 and 2,200 volts.

Mr. Deane was assured that he could be accommodated temporarily in any event.

The finance committee then reported recommending payrolls of $117.25 and $204.30 for streets, sidewalks and electric lighting and a bill of $1,060, the second payment to the Nelson Land and Improvement Company.

Chief Deasy presented the report of the fire department for May. There were no fires, the usual drills and inspections, and one change on the staff, already reported.

Alderman Selous asked as to the ownership of firemen's uniforms when the wearers left the service. He was told that the city paid only a part of the cost. Sometimes, as in the latest case, the early resignation of the members made recovery difficult.

The resolution of 1905 that a fireman leaving the service within 60 days of receipt of a new uniform pay half the cost was read, and the clerk was instructed to furnish the chief with a copy.

City Medical Health Officer Dr. Arthur reported the result of his anti-dandelion experiments—which were not a success. The report was filed.

The board of works reported recommending extensions of sidewalks: West side of ward, Latimer to Hoover, and from C. H. Ink's residence to Observatory street; grading of alley between Ward and Stanley, and alley between Hoover and Observatory; Ward street, east side, from Houston to Richards; south side of Richards street, provided debris be removed by property owners; and also that property owners be ordered to remove debris deposited on the streets.

The report was discussed clause by clause and adopted, with the addition to the last clause of "to the satisfaction of the city engineer."

Alderman Hume also suggested that a bylaw be passed ordering that all vacant lots be cleared.

Alderman McMoris drew attention to the condition of the sidewalk on Latimer street near Cedar, and also to the defective street lighting.

Chief Jarvis asked to be relieved of the duties of sanitary inspector, as they prevented such efficient performance of his duties as chief of police as he wished to gve.

The mayor reported that he had already engaged E. McGregor, an experienced man, for the duty at $100 a month.

On Alderman Selous' motion, seconded by Alderman Hume, the chief's request was granted and the mayor's appointment confirmed.

Attention was drawn to the stabling of cattle within the city limits.

Chief Jarvis stated that he intends to have the premises examined by the health officer.

The mayor reported that the park pa*vilion will be moved to the new site* as the water rises.

Attention was drawn to a camp on the city's park and it was agreed that the campers be given notice to quit.

A letter from the executive of the city band asked for a grant of $500 in consideration of public concerts. The letter was accompanied by a largely signed petition.

It was agreed to grant $25 a month towards a bandmaster's salary, and a grant of $100 for incidentals.

A letter from City Solicitor W. A. Macdonald, K. C., assumed responsi*bility for all acts of H. C. Hall, acting* city solicitor.

A letter from Judge Wilson, former city solicitor, asked whether he should present his bill in the W. K. P. & L. *company case, taxed, or confer for ad*justment with the present city solicitor. The letter was referred to the city solicitor.

A letter from J. Waixel presented an *offer for firemen's insurance. It was re*ferred to the fire, water and light committee.

A letter from the Union of British Columbia municipalities reported the success of all its applications to the provincial government, asked for the early payment of the city's fees, and for the presentation of further suggestions.

The memorandum of suggestions made by the Union to the government for the amendment of the Municipal Clauses Act was read. It reported endorsement of requests from Nelson, Rossland, Victoria, Vancouver and other places, and that all such requests had been acceded to.

The letter was filed and payment of fee of $12 authorized.

Ald. Rose moved that the agreement between the city and West Kootenay Power and Light company, entered into on May 22nd, be approved.

Ald. Rose was informed that the company would submit plans for the dam and raising of the walls to the city for approval.

The mayor remarked that while he had no wish to have any proceedings behind closed doors, it was not expedient always to have details of negotiations published.

Ald. Selous strongly endorsed the latter part of the mayor's suggestions, and thought that tentative agreements should not be published.

After a long and general discussion on the subject of the expediency of publication of the agreement Ald. Selous moved, seconded by Ald. Annable, that the council go into committee of the whole, which was carried, Ald. Irving dissenting.

The agreement was then read in committee and reported.

Ald. Rose's motion of approval was then seconded by Ald. Selous and adopted.

Ald Rose said he understood that the present caretaker of the cemetery was keeping no record of interments. He urged that the cemetery be plotted accurately and full records kept.

The city clerk said that he had a record of all interments in the public plot but not of those controlled by churches, lodges and societies.

Compliance with Ald. Rose's suggestion was agreed upon.

Ald. Rose also drew attention to the curbing at the corner of Hall and Baker streets.

Ald. Rose was informed that A. McKenzie had been dismissed from the tramway service for disobedience of instructions in the matter of carrying unstamped parcels.

The mayor reported having been interviewed by union delegates on the subject of David Woods' salary. The council had raised its laborers' wages to $3.00 a day. Woods had been excepted. He was satisfied at first, but some persons had instigated him to demand the raise and he had left. A younger and abler man had been engaged at $3.00 a day.

The union delegates had admited that they could not take Woods into their union. They had declined the mayor's invitation to address the council on the subject.

The mayor reported that Mr. Johnston, a new employee, had been placed in charge of the car barn, and E. Bishop put on in McKenzie's place.

The expense of tramway operation for the first four months has been very heavy on account of repairs to roadbed and rolling stock.

The mayor reported that he had had two dolphins put in to protect the city wharf, at a cost of $80.

The council then adjourned to June 17th.

POWER OF PULL

System of Civil Service Appointments

TRENCHANT CRITICISM

Writer in Ottawa Periodical Tells How Position and Promotions Are Secured.

Ottawa, June 4.—A recent article in the Monthly Calendar of St. Patrick's Church has caused a sensation. The authorship is credited to Rev. Father Whelan. The subject is that of "pull in the civil service. The writer states that competency and qualifications do not count. It is a question of "pull" as to getting in the service and promotion within. Political "pull" is the last of all necessities to getting on now. It is the friendly or personal "pull," and above all the sporting "pull." The Capital lacrosse team is instanced as a prominent example, and sarcastic references made to its amateurism and British tour.

The article is as follows: Space forbids examination into the individual merits and evils of these "pulls," but there is one of them in particular that deserves special notice, because it seems to be so easily operated, and because those who have succeeded by it have such a good time afterwards. It is the sporting "pull." As a single example is often time more instructive than a whole essay, we will draw from the Capital lacrosse team, which has recently been enjoying a royal old time and triumphal march throughout Great Britain. The members of this team are, of course, amateur players; it is only the lacrosse they play that is professional. The name of the team is a misnomer; it should be called the Civil Service team of Canada, for, if we are correctly informed, all but one of the members are civil servants. Sport, if it be of a right kind and under honorable conditions, is both useful and admirable; *but this grand tour of the Capi*tals to the Mother Country lacks both the propriety and independence that are wont to grace clean amateur sport. If the members of this team are public servants, should they not be at their desks doing their work, or is lacrosse a branch of some of the departments of the public service? Their leave of absence is currently said to be three months. Who are doing their work during this time? Or is their work of such small importance that it can be permitted to fall behind, or be dispensed with altogether? Are they receiving government pay during their absence? In fine, are these young men to be regarded as civil servants of standard merit and usefulness, or merely as national athletes fed and favored by the government? With their salaries running on and the emoluments derived from playing lacrosse, these exponents of Canada's national game are doing pretty well—for amateurs. Who, then, can doubt or deny the power of the sporting "pull?" Young men and women, pass the qualifying examinations if you like, but get the "pull."

In the making of promotions, too, the same disregard for the provisions and spirit of the Civil Service Act prevails. Efficiency, length of service, and just order of succession are of little account when up against the "pull." Thus, the promotion examinations have been brought into contempt and deprived of their value and effect. The saying is common among civil servants with regard to these examinations, and those who conduct them: "Oh, if you are to be promoted you'll pass." Men who have given years of efficient service are passed over by new men who have the pull, while capable servants who have not the pull are superannuated to make place for those who have.

The newly appointed civil service commission is now sitting. Other civil service commissions have sat before, and that was about all they did in addition to drawing their salary. It is to be hoped that this one will get down to solid work, and bring about a measure of relief and contentment to that long-suffering body, the civil servants in Ottawa. It is further to be hoped that the report of the commissioners on the increased cost of living and present conditions will afford the opportunity and data for the city to open negotiations with the government, with a view to a more equitable financial understanding, and on a fairer basis than that which at present prevails. The fact that the civil servants here are citizens of Ottawa gives the city a right to take an interest in their affairs, and at the same time to forward its own interests, which are theirs as well.

It is said that the order-in-council under which the commission is appointed gives it very wide powers; but these wide powers do not appear to extend to the questions of how appointments to positions in the civil services are made. And yet this may reasonably be considered the beginning of all the trouble, just as the questions of salaries and promotions are the continuance of it. The service is made up of an aggregation of appointments, and these appoint*ments honor or discredit the minister* who makes them, just as they are in accord with the provisions of the Civil Service Act, or in violation thereof, and just as they are efficient or incompetent. It is the appointments that give tone, complexion and action to the whole service, and for them the ministers themselves must be held solely responsible.

But how are many—would it be too much to say most?—of these appointments made? Any schoolboy or schoolgirl in Ottawa will tell you you can get into the service if you only have the "pull." But which "pull?" There appear to be so many. To mention those most frequently in operation, there is the social "pull" gradually coming to be recognized as the exclusive property of a section of the fashionable set who are desirous of serving their country; there is the sporting "pull," which supplies the brawn and sinew deemed necessary in certain ministerial circles to wield a pen, thump a typewriting machine and handle the more ponderous matters in the departmental offices; there is the personal or friendly "pull," the last resource of the time-servers and sycophants, and there is the "pull" political, which of late years has come to be regarded as the weakest "pull" of all. It is a fact notorious that positions in the service are continually secured by one or other of these pulls, or by some adroit combination of them, and this utterly regardless of the requisite qualifications or technical knowledge. Graduates from the civil service examinations are legion, but the positions go to those who have the "pull." As for political or party service, the only time when it seems to have any show at all is during the exciting and promising days that immediately precede an election.

SCHEDULE IS CHANGED

Revised Programme of Meetings of Farmers' Institute in Nelson District.

A change has had to be made in the programme of meetings of the Farmers' Institute of West Kootenay.

G. G. McLaren, secretary has received a letter from J. R. Anderson, deputy minister of agriculture, revising the dates to read as follows:

Monday, June 10th, Slocan City; Tuesday, June 11th, New Denver; Wednesday, June 12th, Nakusp; Thursday, June 13th, Nelson; Friday, June 14th, Tarrys; Saturday, June 15 th, Nelson; Monday, June 17th, Procter.

An accompanying letter from Mr. Anderson gives information and makes suggestions as follows:

The first three meetings will be attended by W. S. Fraser of Brantford, Ont., and myself. Mr. Fraser is an expert on the following subjects: Noxious Weeds, Seed Selection, Clover, Sheep, Hogs, Cultivation of Soil and Under-Drainage,all of which are more or less of interest to your people. I will speak on institute matters and on fruit. The other four meetings will be attended by Mr. Fraser and the Rev. W. E. Dunham of this place, who is far and away the best poultry man we have ever had, and for whom I bespeak a good reception. You should give these gentlemen an opportunity for outdoor demonstrations. Mr. Dunham is particularly good in demonstrating how fowls should be killed and dressed for market.

FRENCH STRIKE OVER.

Sailors Expected to Return to Work at Once—Agitators Fail.

Paris, June 4.—The seamen's strike is regarded as being virtually ended and the men are everywhere expected to resum work within 24 hours. The navigation companies have accepted the government recommendations and will restore the officers and men without insisting on any penalties.

Havre, June 4.—The only discord appears to be at Bordeaux, where some of the delegates, notably a man named Buscailles, finding that the local organization is discontented with the proposed compromise arrangements, are attempting to secure a reverse of the decision to resume work but apparently without any chance of success.

Democrat Elected.

Portland, Ore, June 4.—Harry Lane, Democratic and Independent candidate, was re-elected mayor of Portland yesterday by about 1,500 majority.

ASKING FOR ROAD

Ymir District Unanimous in Request

SHEEP CREEK VALLEY

Petition Presented to Government Agent for Better Means of Transportation.

The project of building a good wagon road into the Sheep Creek valley has been mooted for several years. Its advantages are obvious and the only good reason for delay so far has been the necessity for the most rigid economy in provincial expenditure.

The agitation is up again ,this time in very tangible form. A petition was presented yesterday to Harry Wright, government agent, by R. C. Alexander of Salmo, signed by every business man of Ymir, Salmo and Erie.

The Sheep Creek valley contains already such well-known developed and shipping mines as the Queen, Yellowstone, Kootenay Belle, Mother Lode and Nevada. There are scores of other prospects still undeveloped because they are more remote, and the cost of getting in machinery for development is greater than the present owners can afford.

But there has always been, for the last three years, a very considerable force of men employed in the valley. Their means of communication even with Salmo, the nearest point on the railway line, are inadequate.

The interest of Nelson in the enterprise is greater than at first appears. The trade of the Salmon valley belongs to Nelson. No arrangement of transportation service can take it away. The whole district from Ymir to the American boundary is rich in minerals, tim*ber and agricultural lands. The district* is capable of great development and every gain it makes will be a gain to Nelson. Nothing will contribute more effectively or more immediately to such development than adequate means of communication and transportation among its various parts.

There is a special reason why a road should be built through the Sheep Creek valley, which stretches towards the American line, and which might, if neglected from the Kootenay side, become commercially tributary to Northport and Spokane.

The petition of the business men of Ymir, Salmo and Erie deserves every support that the business men of Nelson can give it, and will undoubtedly receive favorable consideration from the provincial government, which has already dealt most generously with other parts of Ymir district.

RUMOR DENIED.

Britain and France Said to Contemplate Exchange of Colonies.

Paris, June 4.—A report has been in circulation on the continent that negotiations were in progress between France and Great Britain for the exchange of the New Hebrides in the Pacific Ocean, having New Caledonia on the south and the Fiji islands on the east, which are administered by a mixed commission of French and British naval officers, for Sierra Leone, the British colony on the west coast of Africa, which extends as a narrow border strip from French Guinea on the northwest to Liberia on the southeast. Inquiries made on the subject at the foreign office today elicited an absolute denial of the report.

OUR ANNIVERSARY.

With today's issue The Daily Canadian enters on its second year of publication.

The past year has been one of varying fortunes but on the whole a successful one.

The Daily Canadian entered the world of newspaperdom at a time when many doubted if Nelson were big enough to support one daily newspaper. The great majority were quite certain that a second daily could not possibly survive three months.

Its first year has demonstrated that there is in Nelson a field for a live newspaper that will furnish accurate and reliable news of the world.

The year has been one of vicissitude and stress. There were times when the financial horizon was not free from clouds, when circulation was uncertain and advertising patronage fluctuating. But those times are past. The last three months of the year have shown a great improvement in the paper's prospects. It now enjoys a substantial and wholly legitimate patronage both in circulation and in advertising. Its patrons in both respects express entire satisfaction.

The first aim of The Canadian is to assist in promoting the welfare of Nelson and of Kootenay by every legitimate means. Usually that purpose may be followed with offence to none, but when the interests of Nelson and those of other cities or districts conflicted, we have not shrunk from vigorous championship of Nelson's cause.

Because we believe that the interests of Nelson coincide with the larger interest of British Columbia and of Canada, and believe that the interests of British Columbia and of Canada will be best served by the success of the policies and ideals of the Conservative party of Canada, and for no other reason, we have given, and shall continue to give, consistent support to that party so long as we are able to approve of its policy and leaders.

At all times our aim has been to give to the public, at the earliest possible date, all news of public interest, accurately and as fully as the public interest demands and to comment upon current events and tendencies intelligently, fairly and without prejudice or malice.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

We print today a despatch from Ottawa containing a summary of a trenchant article on the corruption of the Canadian civil service. By a peculiar coincidence our local contemporary printed this morning an editorial from the Toronto News on the same subject. The latter is almost wholly expository, showing how the civil service might be made clean and efficient, and citing as examples the successful efforts made in other lands.

Canadians have never doubted the possibility, but under present circumstances they may be pardoned for scepticism as to the probability of any serious attempt being made.

Reform of the civil service was one of the pre-election pledges of the Canadian Liberal party, but, alas! so was "Free Trade as they have it in England," so was Retrenchment and Economy, so was Purity in Elections, so was the Sacredness of Provincial Rights.

When all the other pledges have been trampled under foot without remorse or shame, there is no ground for the expectation that Civil Service Reform will have any different fate under Liberal auspices.

On this, as on other subjects, it is open to politicians of the Fielding and Emmerson type to retort that they are not the only sinners.

Conservatives must sorrowfully admit that the civil service had under their regime been used for the purpose of rewarding party service.

But there are depths sounded by the Liberals to which Conservatives never sank.

One instance has lately been referred to by Prof. Goldwin Smith, the degradation of the bench by the appointment of inferior lawyers with no other qualification but party service.

Another use of it is even more dangerous and more humiliating. It has been made a haven of refuge for convicted criminals, bribers, personaters, perjurers, ballot-box stuffers and manipulators, ballot-switchers, and wholesale corruptionists generally.

The first step on the way to reform will be the cleansing of the service. Raising it above the influence of party may come after.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Chief Jarvis has been relieved after nearly two and a half years' service of the extremly onerous addition to his duties involved in the office of sanitary inspector. During that time the sanitary service has been made efficient, and has been made also more than pay for itself. This is a highly satisfactory condition. But the saddling of one faithful servant with the duties of two such offices was utterly unjustifiable from the start, and the act of the council in lightening the burden is entirely commendable.

Yesterday we conveyed to the public a request from the executive of the Nelson Boat Club for such accommodation to practising crews as is possible. The request suggests more. It is greatly to be regretted that at all regattas, local and of the N. P. A. A. O., held on Nelson harbor great difficulty has been experienced in keep the course clear. It is, of course, not due to malice, but to thoughtlessness, and therefore the slightest suggestion should effect a remedy.

The decision of the city council to assist the Nelson band will undoubtedly be approved by a majority of the citizens. Free musical concerts are, or may be, a factor in popular education. The allocation of a specific amount for the payment of a competent instructor was a wise move, made at the instance of Alderman Selous. Possibly this is an opportune time to suggest to the executive of the band that "rag-time" airs have no educational value for either musicians or audience.

PRAIRIE FARMERS ANXIOUS.

Success of Crop Depends on Favorable Weather.

Winnipeg, June 4.—F. W. Haultain, of Regina, ex-premier of the Northwest Territories, speaking of the crop outlook in the West, stated that the general conditions had experienced a great improvement during the past week because of the favorable weather and the abundance of rainfall.

The farmers of the older, settled districts, while not disposed to look upon the situation with alarm, are well aware that matters have been formerly unfavorable, and that practically everything depends upon the conditions which will exist during the next few weeks. iWth everything favorable for rapid growth from now on, however, it is generally conceded that the possibilities for a good crop are as favorable as could be expected. While no growth mentionable has as yet taken place, this same condition existed in numerous instances in practically all other years, even when the grain had been sown three weeks before it was this year.

The farmers do not look for any growth worthy of mention before the last week in May or the first of June. As it is, Mr. Haultain says that the prospects are very favorable.

London, June 4.—Edna May, the American actress, was married this morning at the registry office at Windsor to Oscar Lewison, son of Adolph Lewison of New York, in the presence of a few relations and intimate friends. The honeymoon will be spent in a motoring tour on the continent.

Mexico City, June 4.—The trial of Morana D. Morales, charged with assassinating former President Barillas of Guatemala, will begin today. Interest in the proceedings is so great that it has been found necessary to issue tickets of admission and already every seat in the court room has been allotted.

DOMINION DAY PLANS

Provisional Programme Drawn Up by Sports Committee—Water Carnival a Feature.

The sub-committee on sports for the Dominion Day celebration held its second meeing last night in G. P. Well's office. The following members were present: W. R. McLean, G. P. Wells, R. G. Webb, F. A. Starkey, H. Wright, A. T. Walley, A. Thomas, T. Deasy, W. A. Ward.

A provisional programme was drafted as follows:

Monday, July 1—Morning grand parade; children's and Caledonian sports; pony races and lawn tennis; afternoon, lacrosse and water sports; evening, hose races on Baker street.

Tuesday morning—Junior baseball, Kaslo vs. Nelson and cricket match; afternoon, football and lacrosse matches, lawn tennis; evening, water carnival,, grand illumination and fireworks.

Other sports will be included if the number of entries received warrants the necessary expenditure. Among them are: Rock-drilling, log-chopping, log-rolling.

Trap-shooting contests will be held under the auspices of the Nelson Gun Club.

It has since developed that is is very doubtful if arrangements can be made for an association football match.

A special feature will be made of the water carnival, for which Nelson has unique advantages among all the cities of the province, and which will be an admirable method of advertising the city's scenic and climatic attractions. It will be remembered that in the celebration of Dominion Day in 1899, one of the best ever held, the water carnival under the direction of H. B. Thomson, was unanimously admitted to be the star attraction.

LITTLE BERTHA PLANS.

Contract Let for Continuing Shaft—Grand Forks News.

(Special to The Daily Canadian.)

Grand Forks, June 4.—At a meeting of the shareholders of the Little Bertha Consolidated Gold Mining company just here is was unanimously decided to let another contract for the continuation of the shaft sunk on that property. At this meeting it was also stated that through the energy of Mr. F. H. Knight, the general manager of the company, Nebraska capital from the city of Omaha, has recently been interested in the property to the extent of some $30,000. It was therefore decided to invest this amount of money in developing the property and building a tramway. It is also stated that a cyanide plant will be erected as soon as matters are in readiness. The Little Bertha property is situated on the line of the Kettle Valley railway, some 12 miles up the North Fork river from Grand Forks.

Last Friday evening the well-known Club saloon went out of business for good, which the was the result of a deal whereby a syndicate of local hotel men have purchased the license and good will of the proprietors of the Club saloon.

Awarded on Foul.

New York, June 4.—In a most unsatisfactor 10-round bout, Harry Harris of Chicago, defeated Tommy Murphy, "The Pride of Harlem," in the eighth round on a foul, before the National Sporting Club at Lyric Hall last night. Murphy was disqualified for using his head while in a clinch. Whether the foul was intentional or not, the spectators could not decide, but Referee White declared it was and made the announcement from the ring.

Americans Beat British.

London, June 4.—In a boxing carnival at the National Sporting Club tonight Sam Langford and Sammy McVey, Americans, easily got the better of their British opponents. Langford knocked out Jeff Thorn in the first round, and McVey put away Ben Maylar in the third round. Jim Driscoll defeated Joe Bowder, the bantamweight fighter in the 17th round.

Poaching Sealer Seized.

New York, June 4.—A despatch from Washington says: "It was reported last night that a British sealing vessel has been captured by the United States revenue cutter Thetis in the Behring Sea while poaching. Capt. Ross, chief of the revenue cutter service, was seen at midnight, but declined to discuss the story.

Recovered Heavy Damages.

Arthur Dutton has been awarded $5,000 damages in Vancouver in his suit against Kenny Brothers & Mitchell. Dutton was injured severely while working for Kenney Brothers & Mitchell on a building for which they had the contract. Dutton was formerly a resident of Rossland. In 1894 he ran for the provincial legislature for Victoria.

Illicit Still.

A Japanese named Ochamara has been arrested for illicit manufacture of whisky on a small island in the Fraser river near New Westminister. His still was seized by the excise authorities and 2,000 gallons of whisky dumped in the river. Besides the liquor, which is said to go 30 per cent. above proof, there was a large quantity of rice and a flat pale yellow bean, much resembling an ordinary garden pea in taste. Both of these are used in the preparation of the liquor, but just how, the officials could not tell.

Baptist Social.

The Conversazione in the K of P. ball last night under the auspices of the Baptist Ladies' Aid was a great success. Standing room was at a premium. The only item of the published programme not presented was the solo of Mrs. Briggs, who was unable to be present. The other soloists acquitted themselves well, as did Miss Boyes in recitation. The Living Melodies was a novel feature and very pleasing. Six vocalists sang in turn, with only their heads visible. The musical programme was followed by refreshments, and a very pleasant evening resulted. The net profit of the ladies' enterprise is over $100.
