REV. HERBERT W. PIERFY.

The entertainment in the Town Hall, last evening was a great success. The hall was well filled and the following programme was well rendered: Song, "Heroes and Gentlemen," Dr. Woodley; "Our Italian Guide," Rev H. W. Piercy; song, "Daddy," Mrs. Lanning; "Sam's Letter," Rev. H. W. Piercy; song, "Out Where the Breakers Roar," Dr. Woodley; "Pigmaleon and Galatea," Rev. H. W. Piercy; song, "Two's Company Three is None," Mrs. Lanning; "Scene from Hamlet," Rev. H. W. Piercy; song, "Beauty's Eyes," Dr. Woodley; "A Week Away From Home," Rev. H. W. Piercy.

The hall had a much more attractive appearance, last night, than it usually has.

The Daily News, Westminster's new daily, made its appearance here on Tuesday last. The News is a nice newsy, eight-page, 7-column daily evening sheet which is, apparently, taking well in this portion of Westminster district.

Sunday will be Woman's Missionary Day in the Methodist church. In the morning a sermon on "Woman's Work" will be preached by Rev. A. McAuley. In the evening a platform meeting will be held when an address will be given by Mrs. C. Watson, of Vancouver, who is first vice-president of the B. C. Branch of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, on the work of the Society.

Mr. Steves, a wife of Winnipeg, man., are among our new arrivals. Mr. Steves takes charge of Delta Creamery.

A new industry is about to be installed here in the form of another Creamery under the management of R. C. Abbot, late buttermaker of the Delta Creamery.

The weather man promises excellent weather for to-day's game of Association football in the Charity Cup series. As the Vancouver City team is very fast a hard game will be fought.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

The entertainment given by the Riverside Mission Circle, in the Methodist Church, on Tuesday evening seemed to be much enjoyed by the large number present. The young ladies certainly acquitted themselves well. The programme was well sustained from first to last. A unique feature of it was in the telephone message received from head quarters during the evening, giving some facts in answer to the questions asked with regard to the work among the Indians in the Province of British Columbia, undertaken by the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church with which the Circle is affiliated. These answers proved most interesting as well as instructive. We shall hope to hear from these young ladies on some future occasion.

Special Lenten services in All Saints, Wednesday at 4 o'clock and Friday evenings at 7:30. There is an address every Friday evening.

The Vicar is, on Sunday mornings, preaching a course of sermons on the Lenten Collects. By special request he will again deliver on Sunday evenings two sermons delivered over two years ago, the subject being "In my Father's house are many mansions." The first will be preached to-morrow evening at the 7 o'clock service.

Two more youthful probationers for the boys' choir are under training. If found worthy they may be admitted to the choir in two months' time.

It is pleasing to note the increase of late in the congregations. Sixty-three at the morning service, a week ago Sunday, is a fair showing for a small parish. The Sunday school has also increased of late.

The Ladies' Guild meets next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Curtis, the vice-president.

Don't forget the Phanographic entertainments in aid of the Japanese Famine Relief Fund — East Delta on Monday and Oddfellows' Hall on Tuesday next.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10, 1906.

If the loan by-law should be turned down to-day, it would be well for the people to state what had better be done as to the raising or lowering the taxes.

Ontario is about to take up the question of abolishing the custom of treating. Delta already has a by-law prohibiting this system but we have yet to hear of a prosecution thereunder. How would it be for our Legislature to abolish first the treating system and then introduce legislation for the rest of the province.

What are you going to do about Westham Island's communication? A ferry should most certainly be put on there by the Council providing the government fails to contribute towards it. A bridge is out of the question, it would be a nuisance to many hundreds of fishermen besides being too expensive a luxury. We hope the taxpayers will look into this matter right.

VERY DESIRABLE.

The simple life has captured many society people in London. What with the Duchess of Marlborough turning vegetarian and teetotaler for the sake of setting a "good example," and the Duchess of Sutherland doing likewise, followed by Lily, Duchess of Marlborough, who says she has for "a long time considered society, as it is understood, a mockery, delusion and snare," while in the same category is the countess of Essex, it certainly looks as though frivolity, luxury and bridge were on the wane. Followers of the simple life have made a dead set upon light fantastic music, insisting that it begets levity. They will not be seen at a light opera, they won't listen to a band that performs breezy airs, and dancing is religiously omitted from their program, at least what is called "fast" dancing, which includes round dances, such as waltzes.

Alf Coleman is building a nice large barn and stable on his property on the Slough road.

A case of scarlet fever has developped in the East End, which has been quarantined by the M. H. O.

Through an advertence the surprize party for West McIntyre last week, was made to read at Mrs Devereaux's instead of John Follis.

The str. Transfer, Capt. Hunter, returned to her old route on Monday last. It was a good thing for the public that the Shearwater sent her into drydock as she has been thoroughly overhauled and fitted up in good shape which means much to the travelling public of this community. May she retain her good looks.

A SAFE COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

In buying a cough medicine for children never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and relief is sure to follow. It is especially valuable for colds, croup and and whooping cough. For sale by F. J. MacKenzie.

According to The Commercial, of Winnipeg, the visible supply of oats in the United States and Canada, east of the Rocky Mountains, is 25,033,000 bushels, compared with 16, 23[illegible]000 bushels a year ago.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by F. J. MacKenzie.

WONDERS OF THE NEEDLE.

Beautiful Work of the Artisans of Former Centuries.

The wonders of the needle were in ancient times in Egypt, India, Babylonia and Phœnicia mainly lavished by women on veils and hangings for temples. Connoisseurs consider the veil decorating the tomb of Mohammed at Medina, priced at 10,000,000 rupees, the most marvelous piece of embroidery ever made. Its pattern, a cunning interlacing of scrolls and arabesques, exclusively delineated with rare pearls and precious stones, produces, when exposed to the rays of the sun, a stupendous effect of coloring, soft and harmonious and equal to the bold gracefulness of the design. Linen, silks, leather and the richest stuffs were in turn beautified with the little insignificant tool, the needle.

Diaphanous Indian muslin charmingly embroidered with green beetle wings is still renowned, as well as examples of painted spangles and artificial pearls strewn amid devices wrought in gold. But where is now to be found the incomparable Decca muslin, thirty yards of which were once inclosed for a turban in an ordinary cocoanut incrusted with gems and presented by a Persian ambassador to his master, the shah. Other varieties known as invisible have also disappeared. The term originated from the fact that when dipped in water or spread out on the grass the material was lost to the eye through its extreme fineness.

The trained fingers have disappeared, and through modern competition customers are no longer willing to pay the real value of genuine hard work. This superiority of eastern craftsmen over their western fellows was recognized centuries ago, first by Portuguese, who were in the habit of sending satin to India to be embroidered by the natives after European designs, a fashion which at times renders somewhat puzzling the classification of the marvels of handiwork.

The French followed suit, since the majority of the Louis XVI. court sets, including coat, waistcoat and breeches in satin, velvet, plush or corded silk, so exquisitely adorned with delicate sprays and admirable borders wrought in satin and tambour stitches, are due to the skill and industry of the Chinese, who have reproduced the French devices with floss silk in such lovely and fast colors, which still appear in all their beauty, with a mellowness imparted by time which further adds to their charm.

BOOKS AND READING.

Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body.—Addison.

A home without books is like a room without windows.—Beecher.

To read without reflecting is like eating without digesting.—Burke.

Books are the best things well used; abused, among the worst.—Emerson.

Next to acquiring good friends the best acquaintance is that of good books.—Cotton.

Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed and some few to be chewed and digested.—Bacon.

Half the gossip of society would perish if the books that are truly worth reading were but read.—Dawson.

What is a great love of books? It is something like a personal introduction to the great and good men of all past times.—John Bright.

The three practical rules I have to offer are: (1) Never read any book that is not a year old; (2) never read any but famed books; (3) never read any but what you like.—Emerson.

What Makes Things Grow.

According to Maurice Springer, a French writer on the subject, the energy of growth is closely related to electric energy and may be identical with it. At any rate, growth energy is closely connected with the phenomenon called osmosis—that is, molecular pressure due to differences of density in adjacent liquid masses. Such molecular pressure in the cells of the body he believes to be the phenomenon that underlies the multiplication of these cells in growth, and osmosis has been shown by experiment to be closely connected with electricity. The writer referred to believes that we shall soon be able to measure growth energy as we now do heat or electricity and perhaps control it so as to produce tall or short families or races at our pleasure.—Success.

Backwoodsmen of China still use the bow and arrow as a weapon.

CHAMPION LINIMENT FOR RHEUMATISM.

Charles Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says, "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the store keeper here recommended this remedy and it completly cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by F. J. MacKenzie.

While he is about the work of lifting the sunken wrecks off Santiago Hobson might give the Merrimac a boost.—Detroit Journal.

It took Mr. Hobson a long time to make a raise. There are lots of people who are qualified to sympathize with Mr. Hobson. —Philadelphia Bulletin.

All that seems necessary is to mention to Lieutenant Hobson whether it is desired to have the ship come up or go down.—Washington Star.

Constructor Hobson has shown himself an engineer of the very first order. Yet under the foolish and antiquated system of our navy, being a staff officer, he can never be given executive command on board ship and has only nominal rank.—Philadelphia Press.

RAILROAD TIES.

There are 350 miles of street railways in St. Louis now, and they carry 100,000,000 passengers per year.

The longest stretch of straight railroad line in America is on the Lake Shore railway, beginning at a point three miles west of Toledo and running 69 miles without a curve.

At Russian railway stations "grievance books" are kept in which passengers may enter complaints. The books are sent to the central office once a month, and all complaints are then investigated.

An auxiliary step for railroad cars is mounted on two swinging bolts attached to the under side of the fixed steps, to swing downward and project the step beyond the bottom fixed step, where it is held by hoops engaging eyelets at either end.

A Change of Heart.

"I care for nobody,
And nobody cares for me."
Said Tommy at play, in the sweet sea bay
Where nobody could see.

So his mother made the tea,
And searched for the hen's nest,
While the sun from its place high overhead
Went sliding into the west.

She filled the water pail,
And picked the berries for tea,
And wondered down in her tender heart
Where her little boy could be.

Alone in the dimpled bay,
Tommy grew tired of play,
When the cows came home and the shadows fell
Over the new-mown hay.

So into the kitchen he ran,
With a noisy hi! yi! yi!
His mother had made him a frosted cake
She had made him a saucer pie.

So he gave her a loving hug—
"I will help next time," said he.
"I care for somebody,
And somebody cares for me."

Scarcity of Tin.

That the goldfields of the world are much more extensive than the tinfields is a fact which might strike the unscientific person with a curious feeling of surprise. The tinfields which are known to exist cover an area of less than 15,000 square miles, while the goldfields are something over 1,500,000 square miles. Therefore there are 132 square miles of gold bearing regions for every single mile of ground wherein tin is known to exist.

The importance of the tin industry is scarcely appreciated by those who have never made the subject a study. North America has no tin mines, South America but one, Asia has two, Peru and Bolivia contribute 4,000 tons a year, and Australia mines about 6,000 tons a year. While we are all practically familiar with what is called tinware, very few of us appreciate the fact that pure tin plays a very small part in the manufacture of these articles. The quality of tinware has within the past few years deteriorated with amazing rapidity, all of which is attributed to the limited supply and great value of tin.—New York Ledger.

Cause of Headaches.

Too little blood in the brain is a frequent cause of headache and may be recognized by the ache being on the top of the head, by constant dizziness and by noises in the ears. The best cure is a stimulant, such as strong tea or hot soup—anything which will start the circulation. People who suffer from these headaches should always sleep with their heads low.—Exchange.

Good For a Child.

A white potato, roasted, not boiled, should be the first vegetable given a child, but in summer time its diet must be watched. One of the most frequent sources of sickness with young children is giving them animal food indiscriminately and too often. Beef, mutton and chicken are the only articles fit for children.

Protecting Boiled Ham.

After a ham has been boiled and before getting entirely cold it will be found a good plan to wrap around it a long strip of thin old muslin, tied with a piece of string. This will be found as good as the ham is [illegible] it keeps the outside fat from [illegible] would be [illegible]

A Discovery.

Briggins made money in creameries in country towns and thought it was a mighty fine thing. Then creameries don't pay.

That's it. His agent works up a creamery enterprise in some small town and Briggins goes there the next year, buys up the machinery for a song, and sells it to some village where they have never had a creamery.—Chicago Times-Herald.

"Just by way of a test, you know, I told her she looked sweet enough to kiss."

"Well?"

"Well, she said that was the way she intended to look."

"And so"—

"Precisely."—Chicago Post.

Colds

It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and prepares the system for the more serious diseases, among which are the two greatest destroyers of human life, pneumonia and consumption.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

has won its great popularity by its prompt cures of this most common ailment. It aids expectoration, relieves the lungs and opens the secretions, effecting a speedy and permanent cure. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia.

VICTORIA.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Victoria, March 7.—Since my last, the Finance Minister brought down the Estimates. The only item for Delta constituency is one of $2500 (conditional) for completion of the River road.

The bill to give the C. P. R. 800,000 acres of land was fully discussed on second reading, Messrs. Cotton, Bowser and Hawthornthwaite supporting it. A curious fact has since leaked out that five government supporters signed a declaration to the Premier, to the effect that they would vote against the bill. Of these only one kept his word, namely Mr. Ellison, and now Mr. Houston has given notice of a motion for a committee to enquire into the means by which the Columbia and Western Railway Subsidy Act passed its second reading. Mr. Houston evidently being of the opinion that members do not sign a declaration pledging them to one course of action and inside a few days doing exactly the opposite without some substantial reason.

A bill to enlarge the provisions of the Settlers' Rights Act of last year was ruled out of order.

An act to amend the Master and Servants Act passed its second reading on the distinct understanding that it would be shorn of its objectable features in committee.

Amendments to the Municipal Clauses Act, the Municipal Elections Act and the School Act have been considered in committee and the bills stand for further amendments.

An Act to incorporate a Live Stock Association has passed two first stages.

There appears to be a disposition to side tract the bill to compel the printing of the forulma of compounds sold as patent medicines upon the bottle and package containing the same.

The debate on the estimates came to an end yesterday and the estimates have passed the committee stage.

The Dominion Election, to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Mr. Riley, passed off very quietly. The Minister of Inland Revenue receiving the largest majority given to any Liberal candidate, out of a very small vote polled.

Mr. McPhillips, late Attorney General is reported as stating in the Conservative Rooms, last night, that the rooms would be kept open day and night until after the next provincial elections, which he said would be inside the next three months.
