Dear Mrs McVicar :

I hope that by now you will have had time and opportunity to go over my manuscript in its present form and that you will soon be in a position to send me any further material which in your judgment and that of the Editorial Committee would facilitate a final revision. I have already received a number of corrections and valuable suggestions from Miss Pfefferkorn and before long hope to give the manuscript another extensive and thorough examination.

With all good wishes for the New Year,

yours very sincerely

Ethel Johns
