Dear Miss Pfefferkorn :

Your manuscript is being returned to you today by first class mail and will I hope reach you in good condition. I am sorry to have kept it so long but I was anxious to read it carefully in conjunction with my own so that as far as possible I could modify certain passages in my own job that seem to need clarification. I don't think there is any need to omit your reference to Dr Sabin unless you yourself prefer to do so. I am pretty well satisfied that there will ^{be} very few meaningless repetitions.

Thank you for returning my rough draft. I am glad that you have access to that copy of my material which has been tentatively accepted by the History Committee and shall be glad to furnish any other data which may be helpful to you.

With kind regards,

yours very sincerely

(Ethel Johns)
