Wit and Humor.

There is an hotel in Springfield that only charges half price for lovers; and yet the proprietor says he makes more money out of this class of boarders than any other people about the house. Let a youth, he says, sit up with a yellow spencer and blue eyes on Sunday night, and he will feel so heavenly that he won't get down to pork and beans again till the latter part of the week.

The natives of Australia formerly believed that after death they were changed into some animal; but now they think that they return to earth as white men. "Never mind," said one of them, about to be executed at Melbourne, "I jump up white fellow—plenty of money."

A divine in Kent, seldom in church, but a rigid justice of the peace, having a va. grant brought before him, said, surlily, "I'll teach you the law, you vagabond, I warrant you."—"It would be much more becoming," said the poor fellow, "if you would teach the gospel."

"Won't you take half of this poor apple?" said a pretty damsel to a witty swain.—"No, I thank you; I would prefer a better half!" Eliza blushed and referred him to her papa.

A contemporary down east has seen a man who, upon a small capital, has made quite a fortune by minding his own business.

A New Orleans paper states, that there is in that city a hog with his ears so far back that he can't hear himself squeal.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—A Word of Promise.—All sufferers from sores, ulcers, scrofulous affections and skin diseases may confidently commence the treatment of their several infirmities with these healing and cleansing remedies. Under Holloway's well tried medicaments the worst cases will soon resume a more kindly aspect, and in the process of the cure the afflicted will neither be embarrassed by difficulties nor disheartened by failures. A little perseverance and moderate attention to the "directions for use" will envelop each packet of Ointment and Pills, will enable every invalid to cure himself, and to conduct his complaint to a successful issue; and he may feel assured that by following this simple but searching treatment his skin will be made sound, severe suffering spared, and health restored.

THE PEOPLE'S FRIEND—PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.—The Greatest Family Medicine of the Age.—Taken internally, it cures sudden colds, coughs, etc., weak stomach, general debility, nursery sore mouth, canker, liver complaint, dyspepsia or indigestion, cramp and pain in the stomach, bowel complaint, painters' colic, Asiatic cholera, diarrhoea, and dysentery. THE GREAT REMEDY OF THE AGE.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

The effect of the Ointment on the System

To the very core and centre of all diseases which affect the human body, this remarkable preparation penetrates. It disappears under the friction of the hands, as salt disappears when rubbed upon meat. The unguent performs its healing errand rapidly, safely, and without pain. Simple eruptions, open sores, hard tumors, scrofulous developments of all kinds, abscesses, cancers, old wounds, and, in fact, every species of inflammation and suppuration, whether in the skin, the flesh, the glands, or among the muscles, can be arrested in its destructive course, and permanently cured without danger by rubbing in this inestimable Ointment.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sores, and Ulcers.

In many Hospitals in Europe this celebrated remedy is now used for the cure of old wounds, sores, and ulcers; in Spain and Portugal, and in many parts of Italy, the first Physicians regularly prescribe its use. It is a sovereign remedy for bad breasts and bad legs; and likewise for all skin diseases. It is to be found in the chest of nearly every sailor, soldier, and emigrant.

Imprudencies of Youth;—Sores and Ulcers.

The above class of complaints is surely removed by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in this Ointment. Persons suffering from these direful complaints should lose not a moment in arresting their progress. It should be understood that it is not sufficient merely to smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be well rubbed in for some considerable time two or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove any hidden sore or wound as effectually as though it were palpable to the eye. Bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service. This is the only proper treatment for females in cases of cancer in the stomach, or for those who suffer from a general bearing down.

Piles, Fistulas, Strictures.

Blotches, analso swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills be taken night and morning as recommended in the printed instructions. When treated in any other way these complaints only dry up in one place to break out in another; whereas this Ointment will remove the humor from the system, and leave the patient vigorous and healthy being. It will require time, aided by the use of the Pills, to ensure a lasting cure.

Diphtheria, Bronchitis, Sore Throats. Any of the above class of diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day upon the skin covering the throat, chest, and neck of the patient. The unguent will soon penetrate the pores and give immediate relief. To allay the fever and lessen the inflammation, eight or ten Pills should be taken night and morning. The Ointment will produce perspiration, which is so essential for removing fevers, sore throats, and those oppressions of the chest which arise from Asthma, Bronchitis, and other causes.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following Cases:

Bad Legs	Corns (Corns)	Rheumatism
Bad Breasts	Cancers	Scalds
Burns	Contracted and Sore Nipples
Bunions	Skin Diseases	Sore Throat
Pile of Measles	Elephantiasis	Skin Diseases
and Sand-Flies	Fistulas	Scurvy
Goose-Lays	Gout	Sore Heads
Chicago-foot	Glandular Swellings	Tumors
	Rings	Ulcers
Chilblains	Lombago.	Wounds
Chapped Hands	Piles	Yaws

BRITISH COLUMBIA ELECTIONS.—The general elections are approaching in British Columbia, and great is the excitement among the aspirants for political honors. Mr. Fisher has declined to stand for New Westminster, and Dr. Black is out against Mr. Robson. The latter gentleman, as editor of the British Columbian, thus writes:—"No sooner was it known that Mr. Robson was to be a candidate than there was a perfect buzz of excitement in certain circles. Candidate after candidate was trotted out to oppose the People's Candidate; but they 'gracefully' came down, like Crockett's coon, without a single shot being fired. Robson had only to level his piece at them. They could not stand the smell of powder! Next came the valiant Doctor Black as candidate number four! The Doctor appears less timid, or, possibly, less modest, than his three predecessors. At all events he is still in the field, the only man, apparently, with pluck enough to break a lance with Mr. Robson."

FIRE DEPARTMENT.
A meeting of the Board of Delegates with the committees from the various companies was held last night in the Deluge Engine House. Twenty-seven members were present. Communications from the different companies in regard to the present state of the finances of the Department were read.
To the letter from the Colonial Secretary to the Chief Engineer, announcing that the Government could not appropriate any money to the support of the Department, Mr. Wm. Wilson, committee-man from the Deluge Engine Company, moved the following reply:
To the Hon. Colonial Secretary.—Sir—We hereby acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 31st; instant in reply to our application for aid to the Fire Department of the City of Victoria, informing us that the Governor sees no probability what ever of any sums being available this year for the support of the Fire Department out of the public Treasury:
The Fire Department whilst it appreciates the "extreme regrets" expressed by His Excellency, cannot but deplore the action of the Legislative Council, by which the laudable efforts of the House of Assembly to reduce the expenses of Government in accordance with the condition of the colony have been frustrated, and the existence of the Fire Department seriously imperilled.—Carried.

Whereas, The Victoria Fire Department have been informed by the hon. the Colonial Secretary that they cannot expect any assistance from the Government the present year; And where-as the several Companies of the Department have been advancing their private funds to keep up the current expenses of the Department in the faith of receiving the appropriation voted in the Estimates for this Department by the Colonial Legislature; And whereas, Unless such aid is immediately given the members composing the Fire Department will have to support their organization by an additional tax on their own funds or else disband: Be it therefore Resolved, 1st.—That the Board of Delegates and Committees which assembled to appoint a Committee to wait on His Excellency and request that some guarantee be given the Department that the amount now due since January, 1866, and the amount required to meet the several Companies' actual expenses from the present time until the voting of the Estimates by the next Legislative Assembly, will be placed in the Estimates.
Resolved, 2d.—That the Board of Delegates after obtaining such guarantee be requested to appoint a Committee to wait on the Insurance Agents and make arrangements to obtain advances to defray our expenses, and that they be repaid out of the first monies voted in aid of the Fire Department.
Resolved, 3d.—That in case the Governor refuses to give the requisite guarantee to the Department, that the above mentioned Committee wait on the several Insurance Offices and the public at large and solicit subscriptions for the support of the Fire Department.
4. That we, as representatives assembled by order of our respective companies, pledge ourselves, in compliance with their wishes, to continue in service and to use all honorable means to maintain our organization intact, to render our services on all occasions, and when duty calls to respond by our presence.
The President of the Board appointed the Chief Engineer and the President and Secretary of the Board of Delegates a committee to act in accordance with the resolutions, and the meeting adjourned till Wednesday evening next.

THE TEA MARKET.—The Foochow correspondent of the North China News sends an interesting account of the progress of the tea market at that port, but the large transactions which he reports, at rates so high as thirty-seven and a-half taels, bode ill for the purchasers. Taking into consideration the present monetary difficulties, it can hardly be hoped that sufficiently high prices will be given for the new teas to cover the rates paid. Shanghai may here again congratulate itself that intelligence of English commercial difficulties arrived in time to prevent large investments at similarly high rates.—Letter from China.

FIRES IN NEW WESTMINSTER.—Two fires occurred in New Westminster on Thursday night last. The first broke out about twelve o'clock, in the shed on Liverpool wharf, among some hay, but was speedily extinguished by the firemen. No damage was done save to the hay and to some telegraph insulators. Almost immediately after the first fire was put out, another broke out in the stables belonging to Mr. Moody, Merivale street, which were soon burnt to the ground, it being impossible to get the fire-engine near the spot. The firemen, however, managed to prevent the flames from spreading. The loss was small.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—We are requested to state that there will be no service in the Presbyterian church, Pandora street, this morning. Divine service will be held in the church at half-past six o'clock in the evening, when Rev. E. White of New Westminster will preach, having kindly consented to supply the place of Rev. D. Duff, the latter gentleman being prevented from being present by having to preach the funeral sermon on the child of the late Mr. McKicking, recently drowned in the Fraser.

AN ISOLATED CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY.—Late China news says the British ship Fire Queen, which arrived from Adelaide, reports having visited Raven Island, one of the Car line (New Philippine) group. The inhabitants, who do not number more than seventy, are Christians, and can read and write English. A foreign ship had not approached the island for two years, and the Fire Queen was therefore eagerly welcomed. The only trade is in tortoise-shell and beche-de-mer, and is carried on with the neighboring groups.

THE RIFLE MATCH.—The competition between the 20 best rifle shots of the Volunteers terminated to-day. The following members will represent the Corps at the coming match with the Fleet:—Corporal Pele, Private All-op, Corporal Englehardt, Private Scar, Sergeant Woolcott, Private John Wilson, Private Newbury, Sergeant Neustadt, Lieut. Vinter, Lieut. Pearse.

After the stone had been laid by the President, General Dix delivered an oration on the life and character of Douglas, concluding with his last words, "Tell them to obey the laws and support the Constitution of the United States."

SECURE A HOMESTEAD.—We call attention to the large sale of real estate advertised by J. P. Davies & Co. this morning. Property now must have reached its lowest ebb, and parties investing a few hundred dollars at present can hardly fail to reap a handsome reward in a very few years.

BASE BALL.—The preliminary game was played yesterday afternoon on Beacon Hill with very satisfactory results. A meeting for the election of officers will take place on Wednesday evening, at the Turn Verein Hall, when those wishing to join the club had better attend.

HONORARY FIREMEN.—Capts. Irving and Fleming were elected honorary members of the Hyack fire company, New Westminster, last week.

SALE OF A STEAMER.—The steamer Henrietta, recently the property of Mr. Dodge, was sold at New Westminster on Wednesday last, for $1,000, to Capt. Fleming.

OUR FUTURE PROSPECTS.

A little while ago it was absolutely dangerous for anyone in Victoria to say or predict anything of the country that did not tend to raise the price of real estate. The truth was not to be told, unless one was willing to risk being called a "croaker" or something even more invidious. It is needless to say that the day of shams has passed away, and that the truth, however unpalatable, must be told. No fiction will keep men long in any country, because nature has fortunately or unfortunately ordained that men cannot live on air. If real estate is to rise, we must have population, and if we are to have population we must have employment for those who are willing and able to work. All the theories in the world cannot overturn these two positions. But what are the prospects of an increase to our population? What is the chance of employment to the immigrant? We think we are safe in saying that as things present themselves no satisfactory answer can be given to the one query more than the other. There is no hope of an immigration and no hope of employment to either the skilled or unskilled workman. There is really nothing before the country, and we say it advisedly, but ruin, hopeless ruin, unless the inhabitants look for relief in a very different quarter from that which has hitherto engrossed their attention. We do not wish to under-rate the mineral resources of the neighboring colony, but we ask the merchant and the property owner of Victoria if a thousand actual miners, and we do not believe Cariboo can at this moment boast of more, are going to support four or five thousand people in Victoria as well as the numerous settlements on the Fraser? The thing is surely beyond all reasonable anticipation; and yet it is on this small resource the people of both colonies are principally depending.

There are in all countries two classes—the producer and the distributor of commodities. In Vancouver Island the latter is almost entirely dependent on the former; for the foreign exports of the Island are a mere fraction of the commerce or trade of the country. On Cariboo, as we have said, the people of both colonies are really depending, and the result is failure. Nothing can possibly prevent it. So long as a colony relies on a precarious source of wealth—on a thing that will employ five or six thousand men one season and only one thousand the next, it is certain to meet some day with the most decided collapse. Had we mines extensive enough, like California, to employ one or two hundred thousand men, we might have some sort of an excuse for resting our prosperity on a throw of the mining dice; but we have not. The productive population of British Columbia to-day is not sufficient to give profitable employment to two thousand people. The bubble now is at its bursting point, and it is this fact, long foreseen, that has tended so much to destroy public confidence in the country.

We do not wish to add to popular dejection or discontent. It is rather with a view to turn the public mind from the unprofitable channel in which it has been so long directed to one that will not only lift us out of our difficulties, but place us on the high road of prosperity that we speak thus, it may be disparagingly, of the gold mining interest. It is needless to recur to the value and diversity of those resources which are at our very doors. Every one is aware of them. Like Tantalus, however, our very proximity to that which we desire only makes our inability to take advantage of it the more galling. With almost everything a country could wish—with a fertile soil, a magnificent climate, coal, iron, copper, lumber and fisheries inexhaustible, we are steadily going to decay; and all because we have the misfortune to be treated by our American neighbors as foreigners. Let the heavy duties, which at present meet our productions in American ports, be removed, and providing we have a civilized Government in the colony, no place on the Pacific coast would be more prosperous than this Vancouver Island. Population would immediately flow into the country, real estate would quadruple its value in less than six months; and the clang and hum of industry would resound from every part of the coast. The only question for the people to consider is—can these two things be obtained? Can Vancouver Island gain those privileges, commercial and political, which are so rapidly building up the Pacific portions of the American Republic. We think she can. We are indeed firmly convinced if the inhabitants go vigorously and unitedly to work, they will find but few obstacles in their pathway. The matter is all-important to every person who has an interest in the country; for as things go at present, with the most mischievous mismanagement in the Government, and a decline, which promises to continue, in the population, there is nothing before us but a total collapse. Before our condition reaches that point which destroys hope in the breasts of even the most sanguine, let the population come forward and devise means to retrieve past. We have said the thing is feasible, and we are prepared to prove it—nay, more, we are prepared to show that by following out a certain line of action, we shall obtain every advantage we desire before the termination of the ensuing session of the British Parliament. On the one hand stands certain ruin; on the other unexampled prosperity—the destiny of the country lies in the people's hands.

CHINESE WEDDING.—The following account, given by a traveller some years since, will be especially interesting, being the first time the marriage rite was solemnized by an English clergyman in an English chapel. The groom was a graduate of an English missionary school, and in addition to conforming to the customs of his country, desired to be married in the Christian fashion. Every point had been explained and interpreted to the parties, which they seemed fully to appreciate.—The nuptial procession was headed by a band that discoursed anything but music to my ears; then came the sedan and boxes containing the marriage feast, all of them painted red, and their bearers wearing red jackets. In this train of luxuries were a dozen eggs roasted whole, a goat also roasted, and so arranged that its head was constantly nodding. Following these were members of the family, before whom strutted the groom. Then came an old man, bearing a huge umbrella to protect the bride when she enters and leaves her sedan; behind him came boys bearing lanterns and banners; then the trays, displaying the bridal tresser, and lastly, an elegant red sedan chair, in which was the bride. Usually she is locked in by some relative, and the bridegroom sees his wife for the first time upon reaching his own house; but this one soon entered the church in company with the groom and attendant ladies. She was dressed in red crape, Chinese style, and a veil of the same material concealed her features. Very pretty embroidered shoes covered her little feet, and her hair was elaborately ornamented. The service, which was performed in the Chinese language, was solemn and imposing. Immediately after the knot was tied, the bride was conducted to her sedan, and taken to her husband's house, who received her with the attention becoming her position; he presently took off the red veil, and in accordance with Chinese customs, they pledged each other in wine, the cups being joined by a thread, as an emblem of constancy, and this ceremonial was ended by the newly-wedded pair worshipping their ancestral tablets, and saluting the members of their family. The band struck up, and the assembled guests, the men in one apartment, the women in another, sat down to the marriage feast.

THE BEAUTIES OF VALENCIA.—The Calls de la Constitucion is one of the central streets that run from the Gran Plaza at Valencia, as straight as a die, on and on, till the houses begin to be interpolated with gardens and orchards, and at last cease altogether, and one finds oneself in the green valley which bounds Valencia to the east. At the opposite or south-western angle of the Plaza there is another long straight street, which runs on till it merges in the road to Nagua. The houses in each of these streets near the square are large and fashionable, and they grow smaller and smaller as one approaches the outskirts of the town. It was not, however, the houses that interested us; for, indeed, nothing can be uglier or less attractive than the outside of a Venezuelan house, with its low one-story-high facade of plain brick. But at this hour every window was open, and in every window sat the ladies of the house, some lovely, all more or less good looking, for the plain and antiquated kept in the background on these occasions. "I always wonder," said I to Hayward, "what becomes of the men at this time of day at Valencia. It may be true, as I have heard said, that there are five women in the place to one man; but still, what becomes of that one? He is nowhere to be seen. Whether it is that the men are riding, or walking, or congregating to smoke, I know not; but whatever the reason, the fact remains that the women are left all alone, and can indulge in any amount of flirtation they like. Now mark me, the white Creoles live at this end of the street, near the Plaza; lower down we shall come to the triguenas, or 'brunettes'; and beyond these we shall find mulattos and mestizas, and we shall finish up with some beauties of a downright black, who are not so much to be despised as you would imagine."—Dicken's "All the Year Round."

"IN" AND "OUT" OFFICE.—It is often observed that the Princes of Wales are sure to be Whigs and to turn Tories when they succeed to the crown, and the example of George IV. is always adduced as a case in point. But in the days of Walpole and Pelham, though Whigs and Tories held, on the whole, the same principles as they do now, their relative positions were totally different. If any class could be called disaffected and revolutionary, it was that of the Tory squires and Tory members of Parliament. If any party formed the bulwark of the throne, the reigning dynasty and the cabinet, it was that of the Whigs, who voted on the hustings that they never had been, and never would be, "patriots." Each suffered a strange metamorphosis: the Tory ranged himself in the Opposition ranks, full of factious spleen, with the language of a demagogue on his lips; while the Whigs from the Treasury benches; lectured on the royal prerogatives, and the duty of submission to the powers that be, in terms that might have suited a supporter of Strafford or a non-juring divine.—"English Premiers, in The Month."

BRITISH PERIODICALS.
The London Quarterly Review (Conservative).
The Edinburgh Review (Whig)
The Westminster Review (Radical)
The North British Review (Free Church)
—AND—
Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory)
The four Reviews re-published by Messrs. Scott & Co., are generally considered as the Great Reviews, and Blackwood has been justly placed in the same rank. Whoever dispenses with reading publications of this class, whatever may be his general information, will soon be altogether behind the time in which he lives—and in these times a man may soon get very far behind. They may be read and studied with advantage by the people of this country, of every creed and party.
BLACKWOOD is unusually attractive at this time to Americans, not only for its serial articles by distinguished writers of fiction, but for the account of the late civil war now being written by Col. Von Berke, a German officer, chief of staff to Gen. J. E. B. Stuart, of the Confederate army.

THE ONE THING WANTED.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.
The Blood.
These famous pills are so composed that they operate wholesomely on the stomach, the liver, the bowels, and other organs; by correcting any derangements in their functions; whereby a steady supply of pure materials for the renewal of the Blood is furnished, and a constant abstraction of effete products is effected. This perfect circulation thus becomes the very fountain of health and life, and overcomes all form of disease wherever its situation.
General Disorders of the Liver and Stomach.
All who ever indulge at table, either in eating or drinking, should take about ten of these famous pills at bed time, from which will result a clear head and good stomach the following morning. Thousands of Ladies are always complaining of sick headache, want of appetite, want of energy, and want of strength, to correct all these evils, three or four of these Pills should be taken twice a week, when they would give the invalid the health and appetite of a ploughman.
Females of all Ages and Classes
Obstructions of any kind, either in young or those between forty and fifty—the most critical period of life—may be radically removed by using these Pills according to the printed directions which accompany each box. Young persons with sickly and shallow complexions may have the bloom of health restored by their corrective, which purifies the blood and expels all gross and impure humors from the system. Beware then of the critical age from forty to fifty, as it sends many thousands to premature grave—these Pills should be taken at that period of life two or three times a week
Want of Strength and Energy.
Persons of sedentary habits, or those troubled in mind, working in Factories or Coal Pits, who cannot obtain that amount of fresh air and exercise which nature requires, suffer from weakness and debility, lowness of spirits, and want of appetite. All such should take a dose or two of these Pills every three or four days, as they act gently and effectually on the system and impart vigor and energy to the body, which is always followed by a good appetite, sound and refreshing sleep, and a high flow of spirits.
For the Cure of Dropsy.
The efficacy of Holloway's Pills in Dropsy is extraordinary. They act with such a peculiar effect upon the system, that the fluids causing this direful complaint, are perceptibly carried off and prevented from any further accumulation. The sufferer regains a buoyancy of spirits, and rejoices in a completely renovated constitution. It is indispensably necessary that the Ointment should be most effectually rubbed into the complaining parts during the whole course of treatment.
Children and their Ailments.
In no country in the world are more children carried to an early grave than in Great Britain. Coughs, Measles, Scarlatina, Fevers, and other diseases attack the little sufferers, and death, but too often, follows at a rapid pace; yet if at the first stage of these complaints, parents were to have recourse to Holloway's Pills, all danger would be avoided, for the stomach and bowels would be gently but effectually cleansed by this mild aperient; the depraved humors corrected and the secretions duly regulated. A perfect cure would soon be effected, and the little patient restored to sound health.
