Wit and Humor.

Simpson, the actor, would never take y medicine, and his medical man was en obliged to resort to stratagem to pose a dose on him. There is a play which the hero is sentenced, in prison, drink a cup of poison. Harry Simpn was playing this character one night, d had given directions to have the cup lled with port wine; but what was his ror, when he came to drink it, to find contained a dose of senna. He could ot throw it away, as he had to hold the oblet upside down, to show his persetors he had drained every drop of it. impson drank the medicine with the lowness of a poisened martyr; but he ever forgave his medical man, as was roved at his death, for he died without aying his bill.

RATHER FORGETFUL—There is a legend hat one day a woman went to Brigham Young for counsel touching some alleged ppression by an officer of the church. Brigham, like a true politician, assumed o know her; but when it became necesary to record her case, hesitated and said: 'Let me see, sister—I forget your name.' 'My name!' was the indignant reply, 'why, I am your wife.' 'When did I marry you?' The woman informed the 'President,' who referred to an account book in his desk, and then said. 'Well, I believe you are right. I knew your face was familiar!'

Recently, when conversing with Mr. Henderson, of the Prince of Wales Theatre, Liverpool, and one or two other gentlemen, Mr, Matthews said, incidentally, 'By the way, it is exactly sixty-two years since I made my first appearance in Liverpool.' A look of suprise passed over the features of those present, and at length one of them said: 'Dear me! in what character was that?' 'In the character of a baby,' was the reply; 'I was born in the next street just sixty-two years ago.'

'He has "honest man" written in his face,' said a friend to the late Douglas Jerrold, speaking of a person in whom Jerrold's faith was not so great. 'Humph,' replied Jerrold, 'then the pen must have been a very bad one.'

'The wind is getting round,' remarked Bibbs to his friend Buggins, the other day, when it changed from east to west. 'Glad of it,' replied Buggins; 'its been sharp long enough.'

Josh Billings says, 'There is two things in this life for which we are never prepared, and that is twins.'

FACTS vs. THEORIES.

"Give me a place to rest my lever on," says Archimedes, "and I will move the world." "Give me pure and unadulterated drugs," says Medicus, of the olden time, "and I will cure disease."

In one sense, both of these learned pundits were the veriest charlatans. They knew there was no place to rest their lever on, either to move the world or cure disease. Mechanism was in a backward state, and the medical profession was but another name for sorcery, and all the adjuncts of magic filters and charms of the "evil eye," &c.

But these latter days have borne unto us something more than even superstition and its crew ever dreamt of in their maddest philosophy. In these days of practical science, what was theory of yesterday is fact to-day, and all the old time notions become as bubbles in the sun, and burst and break with every breath we draw.

Let Archimedes shoulder his lever and we will find a resting place for it to move the world. Let mine ancient Medicus pant and toil no more for the drugs he so sorely needs, for we have them at our hand, ever ready to serve them at his beck.

Refined in the laboratory of Dr. Maggiel, the finest materials known in the medical profession are obtainable by any one. His Billious, Dyspeptic, and Diarrhœa Pills stand unrivalled, and his Salve operates with magical effect upon burns, scalds, and all sores and ulcers of the skin.

In fact, we think MAGGIEL'S Pills and Salve are the wonder of this century, and we are happy in the thought that many others of our brethren of the craft agree with us. We would earnestly counsel that all families provide themselves with Dr. Maggiel's Preparations at once, and keep them ready at hand, so as to use them at the most opportune time and as occasion serves.—Valley Sentinel.

THE GREAT REMEDY OF THE AGE.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

The effect of the Ointment on the System

To the very core and centre of all diseases which affect the human body, this remarkable preparation penetrates. It disappears under the friction of the hands, as salt disappears when rubbed upon meat. The unguent performs its healing errand rapidly, safely, and without pain. Simple eruptions, open sores, hard tumors, scrofulous developments of all kinds, abcesses, cancers, old wounes, and, in fact, every species of inflammation and suppuration, whether in the skin, the flesh, the glands, or among the muscles, can be arresteb in its destructive course, and permanently cured without danger by rubbing in this inestimable Ointment.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sores, and Ulcers.

In many Hospitals in Europe this celebrated remedy is now used for the cure of old wounds, sores, and ulcers; in Spain and Portugal, and in many parts of Italy, the first Physicians re-regularly prescribe its use. It is a sovereign remedy for bad breasts and bad legs; and likewise for all skin diseases. It is to be found in the chest of nearly every sailor, soldier, and emigrant.

Imprudencies of Youth;—Sores and Ulcers.

The above class of complaints is surely removed by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in this Ointment. Persons suffering from these dreadful complaints should lose no time in commencing the treatment in arresting their progress. It should be understood that it is not sufficient merely to smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be well rubbed in for some considerable time two or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove only hidden sore or wound as effectually as though it were palpable to the eye. Bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service. This is the only proper treatment for females in cases of cancer in the stomach, or for those who suffer from a general bearing down.

Piles, Fistulas, Strictures.

Blotches, as also swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills be taken night and morning as recommended in the printed instructions When treated in any other way these complaints only dry up in one place to break out in another; whereas this Ointment will remove the humor from the system, and leave the patien a vigorous and healthy being. It will require time, aided by the use of the Pills, to ensure lasting cure.

Diptheria, Bronchitis, Sore Throats,

Any of the above class of diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day upon the skin covering the throat, chest, and neck of the patient. The unguent will soon penetrate the pores and give immediate relief. To allay the fever and lessen the inflamation, eight or ten Pills should be taken night and morning. The Ointment will produce perspiration, which is so essential for removing fevers, sore throats, and those oppressions of the chest which arise from Asthma, Bronchitis, and other causes.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following Cases:

Bad Legs	Corns (Carns)	Rheumatism
Bad Breasts	Cancers	Scalds
Burns	Contracted and Stiff Joints	Sore Nipples
Bunions	Elephantiasis	Sore Throat
Bite of Moschettoes and Sand-Flies	Fistulas	Skin diseas
oco-bay	Gout	Scurvy
Chiegc-foot	Glandular Swellings	Sore heads
	Lumbago.	Tumors
Chilblains	Piles	Ulcers
Chapped Hands		Wounds

THE GREAT DRAMATIC FETE IN LONDON.—The Royal Dramatic College announce their annual fancy fair at the Crystal Palace on the 7th and 9th of July, when an attractive programme of novelties will be given for the amusement of the thousands of visitors who make a special point of attending this charming fete. A number of the most popular of the metropolitan actresses have signified their intention of holding stalls, and the indefatigable Toole and Paul Bedford will exhibit a collection of Chinese curiosities, many of which would astound the Chinese themselves. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Paul, whose beehive last year was an elegant and novel point of attraction, will on this occasion preside over a grotesque edifice representing a "Palace of Pincushions," for the sale of those useful little articles which the name of the structure indicates, and which it is hoped will yield a goodly sum of pin-money to the treasury of this excellent charity. Instead of Wombwell's show, which for years past has done good and profitable service, a mock Spanish bull-fight is talked of, in which basket horses, sham matadors, and property bulls will engage in comic combats of the most sanguinary yet harmless character.

LARCENY.—John Clerihue, charged yesterday by W. W. Gibbs with stealing a box containing $5 25, was brought up on remand this morning. Prisoner, on advice of Mr. Bishop, pleaded guilty. The magistrate in sentencing the prisoner gave the prosecutor, Gibbs, a very severe lecture, telling him that his conduct in the matter was highly reprehensible. He was professing to hold out the hand of friendship to the prisoner and to give him charity, and at the same time laying a trap for the unfortunate man, and bringing this serious charge against him. In reply to the magistrate, Gibbs denied having had any previous transactions with the prisoner, but Inspector Welsh stated that Gibbs had made a bogus bill of sale to Clerihue on a former occasion, and both had tried to deceive the police. The magistrate said in consideration of the relations that had existed between the parties, and the present reprehensible conduct of the prosecutor, he would inflict a very light sentence. He would, therefore, as the prisoner had already been confined two days, gave him 24 hours imprisonment.

MAKING WAR PLEASANT.—The Italian government have given orders for the manufacture of cuirasses of aluminium for their cavalry regiments. A series of experiments made under various conditions demonstrate that a cuirass of this metal, while possessing the great advantage of being as light as a coat, cannot be pierced by a musket ball at the distance of forty paces, nor by the thrust of a bayonet. It has also been ascertained that cuirasses of this description can be manufactured for as low a sum as 25 francs.

NAVAL MOVEMENTS.—The gunboat Forward left Esquimalt this morning for San Juan Island, Nanaimo, and Metlakatlah, carrying up the Rev. Mr. Doolan to the Church of England mission at the last-mentioned place. H. M. S. S. Sutlej and Scout also steamed out of the harbor, at 10 o clock, for a cruise up the inside of the island.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—We are requested by the Managing Committee of the Presbyterian Church to state that arrangements will at once be made to keep the church open, and to hold regular services therein; also, that no time will be lost in taking the necessary steps to have the pulpit permanently occupied.

GYMNASTICS—The classes at the gymnasium on View Street commenced last night, and were well attended, thirty aspirants to muscular honors being present. They were formed into two classes by Mr. Dechent, the teacher, and a regular course of instruction at once commenced.

NEWSPAPERS IN FRANCE—Three hundred and fifty political papers are published in France, of which 63 are printed in Paris and 267 in the departments. 703 non-political papers are daily printed in the metropolis and 604 in the departments, besides the political organs above enumerated.

FROM PUGET SOUND.—The steamer Josie McNear arrived to-day at half-past one o'clock, having left Olympia yesterday at 9:30 a.m. She brings 21 passengers and a small freight of stock and produce valued at $1940. The McNear will sail for Olympia on Thursday at 3 a.m.

SUMMARY COURT.

[BEFORE CHIEF JUSTICE NEEDHAM.]

The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

W. H. Alexander vs. D. Prindible.—Action for goods sold and delivered. Judgment by default for $44 33.

Alexander vs. E. Kelley.—Action for goods sold and delivered. Judgment by default for $23.

James Fell vs. J Tarte.—Action for balance of claim for 800 lbs. potatoes supplied defendant last winter. Defendant pleaded that three bags of the potatoes were frost-bitten. Plaintiff proved that it was a cold frosty day when defendant took away the potatoes. Judgment for plaintiff less the value of the damaged potatoes.

James Carswell vs. W. H. Huskinson.—Action for three months' rent of premises corner of Fort and Langley streets. Judgment for plaintiff for $135.

Wren vs. Babson.—Defendant, by Mr. Courtney, appeared to answer a commitment summons for $158. The answer to the claim was that the defendant had received his discharge in Bankruptcy. Mr. Bishop contended that this was no answer, the debt having been contracted between the adjudication and discharge. His lordship reserved his decision on the points raised.

CORMORANT STREET ROWS—The police court was occupied some time this morning in settling disputes among the hybrid denizens of Cormorant street and "the ravine." A meek-looking "Celestial" entered a complaint against a burly hydah klootchman for invading his domicile, and took his "davy," after the usual Chinese fashion of writing his name on a slip of paper and burning it, that she forcibly broke in his door and entered his premises. The dusky offender pleaded that she was "hiyou patlamb," and the magistrate fined her $10 or 14 days' imprisonment.—Another case, where one Indian accused another of breaking a canoe occupied some time, the accused Siwash vehemently defending himself, and addressing the bench, accusers and the police with looks and tones of outraged innocence; the moment sentence was passed on him, however, his whole demeanor changed, and he marched out to prison in the most jaunty devil-may-care manner imaginable, doubtless well knowing that his tillicums were waiting outside ready to pay his fine of $10, which they at once did, and in "good red gold," instead of the customary "sitkum dollars."

DEATH AMONG THE SHEEP—Wolves or plundering dogs have been very destructive among the sheep recently in the vicinity of Victoria. Eleven have been killed at Cloverdale, Dr. Tolmie's farm, and sixteen in one night at the H. B. Co's. farm of Uplands, the latter doubtless by wolves, as six of the sheep were found with the blood sucked, the rest being carried off bodily. There should be a large reward offered for the heads of wolves killed on the Island, as proposed by Dr. Dickson in the House last session.

OPPOSITION STEAMERS.—The Eliza Anderson having been thoroughly overhauled, refitted and re-painted, is again at her old berth at Brodrick's wharf, and will sail for Olympia on Thursday morning. Captain Finch says he intends to carry passengers cheaper than the opposition boat if he has to take them free, so we may expect between the two a much greater influx of visitors from the Sound than usual, and a corresponding benefit to trade.

FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—The annual election of officers for the Fire Department takes place next month. Mr. Thos. J. Burnes, the present Assistant Engineer, and one of the most active and enthusiastic firemen in the department, is again a candidate for the office.

RETURNING—Mr. Drake, of the firm of Drake & Jackson, has arrived in San Francisco and telegraphed to his friends here. He will be up by next steamer, which will sail about Saturday next.

ADJOURNED.—The sittings in bankruptcy have been adjourned till to-morrow fortnight, the 19th inst.

TELEGRAPHIC.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING TELEGRAPH.

Last Night's Despatches.

The Second Cable.

HEART'S CONTENT, Sept. 2.—The news of the successful picking up of the Atlantic Telegraph cable of 1865, reached here at forty-five minutes after 6 o'clock this morning. The expedition with the Great Eastern had been out 24 days, and all hope of success had been abandoned by the telegraph people here. The news reached Valentia at forty minutes past five o'clock, one hour and five minutes before it was received even here. Signals are sent through the cable with perfect accuracy. They are talking with the Great Eastern every moment via Valentia, Ireland, In a few hours after the recovery of the cable, a splice was made with the cable stowed in the main tank of the Great Eastern. The reeling out of the cable into the sea immediately took place and the big ship is now paying out the wire and approaching Heart's Content on her return, with the same speed she maintained on the late expedition. She was distant 700 milles when she began to pay out. The Telegraph fleet is expected here next Saturday.

Eastern.

NEW YORK, Sept 1.—The Pioneer steamer of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's line to China, leaves here on the 1st of October.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—The President arrived at Niagara Falls, at half-past four yesterday afternoon.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept 2.—The Southern Unionist Convention meet to-morrow; about six hundred delegates have already registered their names. Indications show that it will be fully attended.

European.

PARIS, Sept. 1st—The Emperor Napoleon, in a letter written to King Victor Emanuel on the 11th of August, rejoices that the era of peace has returned; he says he accepted the cession of Venetia from Austria in order that the people of that country might be enabled to choose their own destiny. The Emperor adds that he has framed his influence in favor of humanity, and the best interests of the people of Venetia and Italy.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 1st—The Russian Government, prior to the negotiations for peace in Germany, proposed to the French Emperor and other powers that neutrals should participate in the territorial changes occasioned by the results of war. It was not supported by France, and the Czar refrained from officially moving in the matter, reserving, however, liberty of action to himself in the future. No local news of interest.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 1—Noon—The Royal Mail steamship China sailed to-day for Halifax and Boston with £153,000 in gold for the United States.

LONDON, Sept. 1st—Evening—Consols closed at 89½; 5-20's 73¼.

The London Times, in a review of the questions arising between England and America, growing out of the recent war in the United States, and more recent raids by Fenians into Canada, urges the British Government to take into immediate consideration the feasibility, if not necessity, of so extending the provisions of the neutrality laws as to hold the different governments to strict account for all acts in defiance of that law committed by the subjects of each.

PRAGUE, Sept. 1— The terms of peace between Austria and Italy are in rapid progress toward settlement; it is generally believed that peace will be finally and fully consummated between these powers in ten days.

PARIS, Sept. 2—The Minister of Foreign Affairs, M. Druyn de L'Huys, has resigned. M. Montholon succeeds him.

BERLIN, August 31—Evening—The Grand Duke of Darmstadt refuses the Prussian treaty, and Upper Hesse is likely to be annexed to Prussia.

A Curious Specimen of Law-making.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EVENING TELEGRAPH —SIR—It will no doubt appear very presumptuous in me who am not a professional man, to offer an opinion on the construction of a section of a law-bill, but I am willing, in the name of common sense, to risk a reproof. There was so much embarassment in the Court yesterday, on reading the following section of the Bankruptcy Act 1862, that the case which was involved in it was adjourned, that the matter might have due consideration. The section referred to (CXIX) read as follows: "After the order of discharge takes effect, the bankrupt shall not be liable to pay or satisfy any debt, claim, or demand proveable under the bankruptcy, or any part thereof, or any contract, promise, or agreement verbal or written, made after adjudication; and if he be sued upon any contract promise or agreement, he may plead in general that the cause of action accrued pending proceedings in bankruptcy, and may give this act and the special matter in evidence."

As the section reads, it is sheer nonsense, because by it no man would be liable to pay any debt contracted by him after he had been adjudicated a bankrupt, by pleading that the cause of action accrued pending proceedings in bankruptcy!!!

A pretty kettle of legal fish—and yet by the simplest process, correction of an error in punctuation, the section may be made perfectly intelligible, and to accomplish the object for which it was intended: the comma instead of being placed after the word "written" should be inserted after the next word "made"

They say "blessed are the peacemakers," but I am afraid we cannot say as much of the law-makers, for extremes meet in their productions; you may drive a coach and four through some of them, while others present a stumbling block at every step.

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 4, 1866.

WISDOM IN HIGH PLACES.

In our yesterday's issue we had only space to allude to the ignominious as well as ludricous position assumed by our morning contemporary on the dispute between the House of Assembly and the Legislative Council. To-day we will endeavor to show that the members of the Upper House know just as much about constitutional rights and are just about as far advanced in political opinions as that institution which we yesterday designated, and we think appropriately, as the Council's "poodle." We are informed by the Colonial Secretary and the Attorney General, and the same idea is necessarily broached subsequently in the editorial of the Chronicle, (showing the source from which our contemporary draws his inspiration) that the Assembly of this colony is subject to the Governor's Instructions—that we have in fact no constitution, beyond that document which His Excellency receives from the Colonial Office for his guidance, and which the House of Assembly has been refused even a sight of. The Colonial Secretary's opinion on matters of law we do not expect to be very profound; but for the legal adviser of the Governor and for even the Chief Justice to acquiesce in so monstrous an absurdity as this is almost beyond belief. Supposing for a moment, and we can readily admit the proposition, that the legal gentlemen are ignorant of the manner in which colonies are constituted, can there be a more fallacious position than to assume that the people of a colony possessing representative institutions must be governed by a secret document—that their legislative acts must be in accordance with a guide they never saw, and are precluded from seeing by the Governor's express refusal? One would think that ordinary prudence would prevent men who occupy such important positions as those we have named from risking their reputation on so apparent an absurdity; but prudence, if it ever did exist among the Governor's advisers, would seem to have been ruthlessly discarded, and nonsense that ordinary men would feel ashamed of uttering is spoken by these officials without the faintest semblance of a blush.

Leaving aside, however, this fallacious position, these men—these Legislative Councillors — should know something about constitutional law. There is no excuse for ignorance on the head we have written; for even if the members are not versed in Hallam, Macaulay or May, they know that every year emanates from the Colonial office in London a publication which gives in a very few words the constitution of the various colonies. By this publication they are informed that the Crown in giving representative government to a colony cannot give it any other constitution than that modelled after the constitution of England. Parliament can make any constitution, but the Crown by orders in Council is confined in its powers. When men talk, therefore, about the Governor's Instructions being our constitution, they are simply exhibiting the most deplorable ignorance—all the "Instructions" in the world, if they came from twenty Queens or twenty Secretaries for the Colonies, could not take away a single constitutional right which we possess by virtue of having representative Government. The very working of our constitution would teach these uninformed people, if anything can teach them, how utterly absurd is their ground of argument. They know that the House of Assembly has the power to stop the supplies—to bring, in fact, the Government to a standstill.—This is really the greatest power that any branch of the Government can exercise; for it virtually decides whether there shall be a Government or not; yet we are profoundly told that although our Assembly has this power—the greatest that even the House of Commons possesses—it has not the minor one of saying how the money which it votes shall be spent! We give a man authority over our lives, but he dare not say what clothes we shall wear. Why, ordinary reasoning would show if the greater power is possessed the minor powers must be embraced in that possession, from the simple fact that the power of total destruction can, if carried to its limit, force all the other demands. Is it not, then, something bordering on the audacious as well as ludicrous, to see these Legislative Councillors, these officials who are dependent on the people's representatives for the bread they eat, talk of the powers they possess if they chose to exercise them, and is it not beyond all belief that the Treasurer should be so silly as well as so impertinent as to say the Governor would be justified in not calling another House of Assembly—that is to say, that the Governor would be justified in setting the constitution as well as the people at defiance, and collect and spend the public money as he pleases? The breath of the House of Assembly has given this man bread, but he is disposed, like his brother dependents on public bounty, to quarrel with his benefactor. Like them he no doubt feels the sword of retrenchment; but he may probably feel with them, before many months shall have expired, the sword of extinction. It is hard enough for the public of Vancouver Island to be obliged to sell their property, to deprive themselves in many instances of even the necessaries of life, to support official idleness, but when official insolence is added to the burden, the thing becomes absolutely unbearable.

CANDIDATE

Assistant Engineer,

T. J. BURNES.

se 4

LEECH RIVER, VANCOUVER ISLAND,
August 23d, 1866.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EVENING TELEGRAPH

—SIR,—I have heard of the appearance in your paper recently of a paragraph containing some remarks on the prices of accommodation at the Mount Ararat Hotel, and for the benefit of intending visitors, I will give, with your permission, the rates of Fare, together with the market prices of the principal articles of diet on the creek:

RATES OF FARE.

Meals, from ..... 75c to $1 25
Single Beds 75c
Double do 1 50

MARKET PRICES.

Flour, per sack $4; do per barrel $16; brown Sugar, per lb 20c; Hams, per lb 37½; Butter, per lb 62½; Potatoes, per lb 4c@5c; Beef, per lb 15c; Beer, per gall. $1; Brandy, per bottle $1; Sherry, per do $1; Orange Bitters, per do 75c; Barley for feed, per lb 5c; and other things in proportion.

On Saturday last four gentlemen on horseback arrived who were furnished with 15 meals up to Sunday afternoon and three beds, their horses also receiving 16 meals, and the following items were also included in the bill: Beer, 2½ gals; Brandy, 3 bottles; Sherry, 1 do; Orange Bitters, 1 do. Horses—97 lbs barley; 12 bundles hay, $1 50.

It may be as well to state, in case there should be any disciples of Father Mathew in town, that the party were assisted in the war against John Barleycorn by sundry acquaintances of theirs amongst the miners, but as I have only during this week sent down an application for a license I could not, as a matter of course, obtain any profit upon the liquor supplied.

Having given the above items, I will leave the public to judge whether or not they received the full value of their forty dollars.

Hoping speedily to receive the license above alluded to, I shall in future be able to supply gentlemen with liquors from the bar, which will doubtless be a more agreeable arrangement for both parties.

Whether there is or is not any ground for the charge of Cariboo prices, which I am told has been made against me, I leave the readers of the above to determine, and will only say in conclusion that the rates of fare will always be as low as the state of the market will allow.

I remain, yours, &c.,
R. H. JOHNSON, Manager.
