BULLION IN DANGER

A Fire in the United States Assay Office on Wall Street Today.

New York, Aprll 16.—Thirty one million dollars in silver bullion in the assay office at No 30 Wall street, has been in danger of being melted by a fire which burned in one of the basement rooms for two hours. None but the employes knew of the fire and they finally overcame it without assistance. Next door to the assay office is the public treasury where the government usually has from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000 stored. In some way fire in the silver smelting room was communicated to a barrel of lard mixture used in the smelting process.

There were 23 barrels of this mixture in the room and like a flash they were enveloped in a sheet of flames so intense in heat that it was feared the great treasure in a vault of the room would be melted. There was no time to close the steel door of the vault, as the flames from the barrels were so close that it was impossible for anyone to approach near enough to shut them.

Fifty employes in the basement, thoroughly drilled for such an emergency, were quickly to work despite the dense smoke. All windows and scuttles were closed to prevent the alarm being given to the public, and when after two hours work the last vestige of the fire had disappeared windows opening at the rear were raised to clear out the smoke.

LABOR PLATFORM

Twelve Planks Have Been Agreed Upon so Far.

MEETING WAS BUSINESSLIKE

An Important Preamble—What the Party Will Demand From Candidates.

Kamloops, April 16.—(Special)—The Labor convention transacted much business today. Twelve party planks were adopted and one or more will follow. A telegram was read from Mr. Hawthornthwaite, M. L. A., congratulating the convention and urging an independent stand.

An attempt to dominate the convention by the Socialists present was thwarted by the tactics of James Wilks taking the chair in the place of the regular chairman, Baker of Sandon.

There were prolonged discussions over the land tax, Sunday labor, which will be voted down, and smelter propositions.

The convention has been orderly and businesslike. The chief portion of the platform was a preamble setting forth that no candidate would be accepted and endorsed by the Independent party unless endorsing its platform, and then not until he had placed his written resignation, undated, in the hands of the nominating or endorsing labor body.

The planks adopted were:

2—Government ownership of transportation and means of communication.

3—Compulsory arbitration of labor disputes.

4—Reservation of portions of coal lands by the government absolutely. The insertion of a clause in coal leases governing coal prices.

5—Conservation of forest riches to produce perenial revenue and promote the pulp industry.

6—Insertion of a clause in all charters forbidding the employment of Orientals.

7—Compulsory scaling of all logs by government scalers.

8—Free transportation to members of the legislature and judges.

9—Gradual abolition of all taxes upon producers and their products, shifting the burden on land values.

10—Restriction of Oriental immigration on the lines of the Natal act, with a provision for re-enactment in case of disallowance.

11—The abolishment of property qualifications for public officers.

12—The establishment and operation of government smelters and refineries.

A dance was given in the evening to the delegates.

Later.

At the re-assembly of the convention the discussion of the platform was resumed and the following planks were adopted in addition to those passed previously:

13—The right to refer all franchises and subsidies to the electorate.

13—Declaration of election day as a public holiday with four hours reserved to allow all employes to vote.

15—Farm lands and implements to be exempt from taxation and wild lands to be assessed at the price asked by holders.

16—No land subsidies to be granted.

17—Ten per cent. of public lands to be set aside for a revenue for education, and that children up to 16 years be given free books and meals and clothing when necessary.

18—Municipalization and public control of the liquor traffic.

The chief arguments of the day centered around the referendum and the observance of Sunday which latter was opposed on the grounds of the undue length of the platform and the plank was refused admission.

If you want an apron for yourself or child, if you want an apron for your husband, if you want anything in the line of fancy or useful articles go to the Guelph block, next door to the Crescent, on Thursday afternoon.

The City Council.

Mayor Clute was absent from the regular meeting of the city council last night and practically no business of importance was transacted.

MONEY IN PLENTY

New British Loan Subscribed Ten Times Over.

THIRTY-TWO MILLION POUNDS

Morgan, the Barings and Rothschilds Have Secured About One-Half of the Loan.

London, April 16.—It was said that J. Pierpont Morgan, the Barings and the Rothschilds have secured an aggregation of £16,000,000 of the new British loan of £32,000,000. The remaining £16,000,000 will be offered to the public.

There was a tremendous rush to subscribe to the new loan of thirty-two million pounds today at the bank of England. It was estimated this evening that the loan had been ten times oversubscribed. The lists will probably close tomorrow.

HAWKINS DOWNED

Dal Made a Game Fight But Was Counted Out in the 14th Round.

Seattle, April 16.—Dal Hawkins went down to defeat before Perry Queenan at the armory after one of the prettiest fights ever pulled off in Seattle. The end came with startling suddenness. Both men were fighting fast and going strong in the 13th round, when just at the close Perry caught Dal a terrific blow in the stomach The old fighter bent nearly double and the bell saved him from going out in that round.

Dal was plainly worried when he came out of his corner for the fourteenth round but went to defeat with gameness. Perry ripped a terrific right to Dal's body, Dal swayed and saved himself from going to the floor only by spreading his legs. Queenan was after him like a tiger. He sent a long right to the jaw and followed with a right to the same spot. Dal went to the floor with a crash. His head struck first and he was counted out.

COLLINS' TRIAL

Further Proceedings in Police Court.

JUDGMENT WILL BE RESERVED

Charges of Sending a False Letter and Telegram Inquired Into Today.

The charge of forgery against W. W. B. Collins was concluded about 5.30 last evening and the magistrate reserved his decision in the matter.

Today the charge of sending a false letter was concluded and a third charge of sending a false telegram is in progress as the WORLD goes to press.

The informations in today's proceedings are based upon section 429 of the criminal code of Canada which provides that every one is guilty of an indictable offense and liable to two years imprisonment who, with intent to injure or alarm any person, sends, causes or procures to be sent any telegram or letter or other message containing matter which he knows to be false.

There was a fair attendance of spectators in court today. It is probable that the police magistrate will reserve his decision again. He will either release the prisoner holding that a prima facie case has not been made out or he will send Collins for trial at the Nelson assizes which will open on the 6th of next month.

Ice cream and cake, sandwiches and coffee will be served by the ladies of the Methodist church in the Guelph block tomorrow afternoon.

CHINESE AMBUSHED

Two Thousand Imperialist Soldiers Caught by the Rebels.

Hong Kong, April 16.—A courier who arrived at Canton yesterday reported that over 2,000 imperialist soldiers sent by Marshal Su against the rebels were ambushed in a narrow defile and were all killed or captured.

Later.

The situation in the rebellious districts of southern China is increasingly alarming. The viceroy of Canton has telegraphed to Pekin urging the immediate forwarding of reinforcements there. Lack of news from General Ma and Marshal Su is taken to indicate that the rebels have surrounded the imperial troops and cut off communication with these troops.

ALEXANDER DICK.

Our old friend, Alexander Dick, now assistant to the general manager of the Dominion Coal company has just got back to Halifax after an extensive tour about the world in the interests of his company. We confess a feeling of relief to learn that Alexander is on this side of the ocean once more, and hope that he may find time to visit us in Rossland before long.

Mr. Dick thinks that we should build and present a cruiser to the home government, following the example of Cape Colony.

Speaking of the coal trade abroad Mr. Dick said he had made a number of new contracts in Scandinavia and Denmark, and was hopeful that the large ones would be closed when the shipments to the St. Lawrence markets ceased.

While on his travels Mr. Dick suggested to the British royal commission on coal the desirability of including colonial trade in the sphere of its investigation. English people are interested to a great extent in Canadian affairs, especially the future of shipbuilding. A number of English colliery proprietors and mining managers are about to visit Nova Scotia to study improved methods of mining.

NOVA SCOTIA MINING.

Lord Strathcona presided in London on March 24th at a lecture on Nova Scotia, delivered at the Imperial institute by Mr. John Howard, agent-general for Nova Scotia. The lecturer stated that the coal fields of Nova Scotia embraced an area of about 4000 square miles, and the estimated deposits available were 40,000,000-000 tons. In proportion to the entire output of the whole of Canada the province was responsible for 60 per cent of the coal raised. The increased output last year had been 50 per cent, and extended markets were being opened up in Europe for the trade. Iron ores of the richest description had been discovered in great abundance in Nova Scotia, and being in close proximity to large coal fields, and contiguous also to limestone, it was only natural that the establishment of the iron and steel industry should follow. With these advantages it was stated that the works at Sydney, Cape Breton, could produce steel at $6 a ton lower than Pittsburg, which was generally considered the cheapest producer. Gold was found scattered all over tthe province, the auriferous area being 3000 square miles, extending principally along the southern shore. Low grade ores were met with in wide belts in many districts, and were profitably worked. Gold mining had not long been systematically developed which accounts for the comparatively small returns reported.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

St. Thomas' labor unions are protesting against the acceptance of a Carnegie gift for a public library.

Parliament will be asked for a further sum of $75,000 to build an addition to the printing bureau at Ottawa.

Do the Boers really desire peace, or do they merely wish to save themselves from molestation during the winter season, when the veldt is bare of grass and they can neither move about nor fight? Is the negotiation which is in the air the submission of a beaten foe, or is it merely the last play for respite of a cunning one?

A clergyman was questioning a class in his Sunday school about the man who fell among thieves on the way from Jerusalem to Jericho. Bringing the story to a point, he asked: "Now, why did the priest and the Levite pass by on the other side?" "I know," said a lad; "because the man was already robbed."—Ex.

Notwithstanding the fact that the production of open-hearth steel in the United States was greater last year by more than a million and a quarter tons than the year before, it has fallen far below demand. The greatest difficulty today in every industry of which steel is a principal raw material is to secure from the manufacturers an adequate supply, or even any assurances that future orders will be filled within any reasonable time.

Some of the Ann Arbor professors and instructors are conducting experiments on a new peat-drying process, with the probability of great success. It is expected that the process will enable them to produce peat for fuel purposes at considerably less than the price of hard coal. One pound of dry peat gives the same heat as three-quarters of a pound of coal, and the only refuse is ashes. The process consists of the use of rollers, by which the water is squeezed out. The peat is then dried and pressed into solid blocks of the density of bituminous coal.

The Toronto Telegram says the Laurier government has violated the provincial rights of British Columbia in order to keep the door open to Chinese and Japanese laborers, and twits Ralph Smith and other British Columbia supporters of the government with not being sincere in their clamour for relief. "Eastern Canada," says the Telegram, "is not to blame for the evils which follow the influx of Asiatic labor into British Columbia. The people of British Columbia are not in earnest on this question. The Asiatic labor question is a text for vote-making speeches. Imperial reasons do not prevent the states of the Australian Commonwealth from legislating against Chinese and Japanese laborers. Imperial reasons should not prevent any province of the Dominion from protecting its own people against Asiatics. British Columbia elects partizans who trifle with the question. When the people of British Columbia learn to display their earnestness at the polls, Eastern Canada and the Laurier government will listen and give them what they want."

The fifth annual meeting of the shareholders of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal company was held in Toronto on March 7th.

The net profits of the year after paying all operating expenses and all charge of every kind, amounted to $207,848.39. After paying a dividend at the rate of ten per cent per annum, a balance of $28,142,.89 was carried forward to the credit of profit and loss.

This company's assets are their coal mines and the townsite of Fernie. Four years ago this company had no transportation facilities, and their stock sold as low as eleven cents per share. Today their stock is selling at $90.

The Similkameen Valley Coal company, limited, assets are coal mines, timber, water power, agricultural and horticultural land, city water works, electric light plant and the townsite of Ashnola, surrounded by the following resources: gold, copper, silver, lead, iron, lime, fire clay, platinum, and a fine stockraising country, and it is the smelting center of the Similkameen valley, with a climate that is all that could be asked, You can secure an option on this company's stock by paying 10c per share down, and ten cents per month until fully paid, with non-forfeiture clause. This price is subject to twenty-five cents advance without notice as soon as transportation is assured. The present price is $1.10 per share. Do not wait until it is too late, but get in on the ground floor, and make a handsome profit. A purchaser of one hundred shares now, may gain a profit of $8,990. Crow's nest shares as an example. This would be a fair profit on an investment of ten dollars per month for eleven months. We invite the fullest inspection of the company's affairs by intending purchasers. NOTES ON LABOR

Items of Interest to the Workingman.

PRINTERS JUBILEE IN AUGUST

To Keep Out of United States Politics—Prices Going Up in Toronto.

The Laundry Workers' union of Vancouver has 70 members.

Marine firemen of Vancouver have had their wages raised from $45 to $50 a month.

The Toronto Barbers' association is talking of raising the price from 10 to 15 cents for shaving, and 20 to 25 cents for haircutting.

At the Carnegie steel works a few days ago 35 out of 50 carpenters who asked for an increase of wages was discharged therefor.

The painters of Toronto have declined a compromise of 28 cents an hour. They insist on 30 cents an hour and eight hours a day.

The convention of the Typographical union to be held at Cincinnati in August will mark its golden jubilee, the union being 50 years in existence.

Instead of paying conductors and brakesmen by the hour, the Erie railway officials have decided to pay conductors three cents a mile and brakemen two cents.

By a referendum vote, the local unions comprising the big labor organization of Chicago, the Federation of Labor, have declared that that body shall keep out of politics.

The Halifax Longshoremen's union, composed of 700 members are striking for an increase in wages from 20 to 25 cents an hour for day work, and from 25 to 30 cents for night work.

The Toronto Ministerial association has declined to hold a joint conference with the Trades and Labor council of that city on the relations between the churches and the workingmen.

The grievances of the maintenance-of-way men of the C. P. R. are to be submitted to arbitration. The trackmen will elect one arbitrator, the company another, and these two will select the third, or judge.

Close upon 4,000,000 working days were lost in the United Kingdom during 1901 as the result of strikes. One-third of these strikes were settled in favor of the employers over a third were compromised, and above 27 per cent resulted favorably to the workmen.

Montreal labor unions using a label have concluded that the only way to secure legal protection for the union label is to become incorporated under the provincial laws when the violation of any contract regarding the label entered into by a manufacturer and a union could be dealt with legally.

After faithfully serving the city of Toronto for twenty years, a horse that had outgrown its usefulness was sold to a rag picker, and the newspapers are raising Cain about the ingratitude. Many a man's a subject of a similar situation, and no newspaper gives them a line—but men and horses are different.

In some instances it is not so much the demands as the manner in which demands are made that rouses the employer to fight his employes. Rude speech, though unintentional, may injure a cause as much as premature action. The employer is entitled to fair treatment, and his views should command the same consideration of workmen as they expect of him for their views of a question. On the other hand, an employer gains nothing by being rude to his employes. Many strikes and lockouts with their attendant bitterness and loss to both sides, have been caused through hasty words or actions. There are but few differences which arise between employer and employe that cannot be imbued with with a spirit of conciliation. The lockout and strike should never be resorted to while there is a possibility of settlement by any other honorable means.

KIPLING'S TRIBUTE

A Poem That Was Read at the Burial of Cecil Rhodes.

The London Times published on Thursday last a poem of four stanzas, by Rudyard Kipling, which was read at the burial of Cecil Rhodes. There has been cabled to this country a portion of the poem, beginning with the second stanza, which is as follows:

Dreamer devout, by visions led
Beyond our guess or reach,
The travail of his spirit bred
Cities in place of speech;
So huge the all-mastering thought that drove,
So brief the term allowed;
Nations, not worlds, he linked to prove
His faith before the crowd.

Then describing the dead waiting in the granite tomb at Matoppo hills, in fulfillment of his vision, the poem concludes:

The immense and brooding spirit still
Shall quicken and control;
Living, he was the land, and dead
His soul shall be her soul.
