SHOULD CALL A MASS MEETING

General Feeling Strongly in Favor of the Move—Will the City Council Please Act.

It has been suggested in many quarters this morning that a special effort should be at once made to render a small portion of the city park available for a recreation and picnic ground.

The WORLD finds that all classes are desirous that some immediate action should be taken and the suggestion that the mayor and city council should call a joint public meeting of the council and citizens for tomorrow night, met with favor and enthusiam all round.

The city engineer has obligingly agreed to go over a portion of the ground in question tomorrow morning, so as to be able to report just what can be accomplished in the way of clearing up a few acres on short notice for immediate use. Offers of help in money and assistance were so freely given this morning that the WORLD suggests the calling of such a meeting to his worship as a very popular move.

Under the circumstances the expenditure by the city would be small. All that is wanted is some one to take the project up and carry it out promptly.

A Manifesto.

Messrs. Macdonald and Kirby have issued another manifesto to the working miners this morning. This time for reasons best known to themselves, the managers did use their own paper the Rossland Miner but adopted the plain every day hand bill. There was nothing particularly new in the announcement except a funny offer of "ample protection" which has caused a grin all round.

JUST HEARD THE NEWS

A Canadian Rip Van Winkle Living Up the Ottawa River.

Ottawa, July 10.—Jan. Caffery, who lives up the Ottawa towards Hudson's Bay, was on Monday informed for first time of death of Queen Victoria and of election of Laurier government.

Caffery, along with about twenty other souls live in the settlement. Each year Caffery or some other representative of the settlement comes to Ottawa and this is the only means they have of obtaining any outside news.

SHAMROCK II WINS AGAIN

Finished Ahead in Both Races Today--Won by a Mile.

Rothsay, July 10.—Another open water trial of the Shamrocks was started at about 11 o'clock this morning off Bogany Point, Isle of Bute.

The challenger allowed the older boat to get well away to the windward and several lengths ahead, thus permiting her to get the first of the fresher off shore wind, the Shamrock I maintained all her advantage to Kilcattan, but the challenger then picked up rapidly and passed the ex-challenger clear to leeward after a clever bit of sailing.

The cup challenger finished the race half a mile in the lead.

In the second race she started to leeward but worked out to windward and won by a mile.

Nakusp, July 10.—The Nakusp House, occupied by Mrs. Manuel, was completely destroyed by fire this morning. The building was owned by U. S. Thomas, the loss was about $1500.

A LARGE DEFICIT

Knights of Pythias Hold an Emergency Meeting.

FIGURES SHOW $225.267 GONE

Misappropriation of Funds by Past Officers Charged—Deficit Must Be Made Good by Them.

Chicago, July 10.—The endowment rank of the Knights of Pythias has a deficit of $225,267. This announcement was made by the supreme, commander Ogden H. Fethers yesterday to the supreme lodge of the order, which has been assembled in this city for the purpose of looking into the affairs of the rank. Mr. Fether's announcement was based on the official report of the insurance commissioners of Illinois, Connecticut and Kansas, who made an exhaustive examination of the financial condition of the order, and copies of these reports were placed in the hands of the representatives. Before the rank can legally contine doing buisness as an insurance institution, this deficit must be made good, and the question of how this is to be done and the greater one of how the funds of the organization are to be safeguarded in the future, occupied the attention of the supreme lodge officers and representatives all day yesterday, and far into the night.

That there has been misappropriation of the funds of the organization by past officers of the endowment was freely charged in the reports as well as in the meetings yesterday, and there was said to be liitle doubt that after the supreme lodge had finished dealing with those who are thought to be responsible, the evidence will be laid before the states attorney with a request that it be submitted to the grand jury.

New York, July 10.—At a meeting of the directors of the telephone, telegraph and cable companies of America yesterday, James W. Thomas, of Cleveland, Ohio, president of the Independent Telephone association of America was elected president. Mr. Thomas said, in discussing the plans of his company, that he had come here to take charge of the construction and operation of an independent telephone system in New York and Boston. Plans are also being laid for the construction of a long distance trunk line between the two cities. The construction of a system in New York and Boston will cost about $9,000,000.

HOW A WILL WAS FORGED

An Accomplished Scoundrel to be Prosecuted for Fraud in Vienna.

Vienna, July 10.—The public prosecutor has decided to abandon the charge brought up last spring against Albert Vogl, the Viennesse banker, who was extradited from London on the accusation of having poisoned George Taubin a rich and eccentric Russian who had made a will by which Vogl obtained a large sum of money.

While the capital charge will be abandoned, the public prosecutor will press the charge of obtaining the legacy by means of fraud.

At the time of Vogl's arrest it was asserted that he was an accomplished ventriloquist and that while supporting the dying Taubin in his arms, he uttered testamentary words himself deceiving the witnesses into the belief that Taubin was speaking.

COL. OTTER'S VINDICATION

Says He Did Not Act Bearishly in South Africa --Press Attacks.

Brockville, July 10.—Speaking at a banquet tendered by the 41st regiment on Saturday evening, Colonel Otter defied anyone to say that he had ever acted in a harsh or arbitrary manner while commanding the Canadian contingent in South Africa. He said a portion of the press had attacked him but he would never reply to them. There was a place at headquarters where all complaints could be heard and all wrongs righted, and there only would he make reply.

C. P. R. STRIKE.

After waiting for a settlement of their troubles with the C. P. R. for several weeks, the sectionmen of the big railway in Rossland, Nelson and throughout the Kootenays have today gone out and joined the army of strikers in the field. The demand of the men for a living wage, particularly in the western country where the cost of living is high, has appealed to the community which cannot have failed to notice the tactics adopted by the railway corporation in endeavoring to block the move of the men in support of their demand. A strike means war of course, and in war "everything is fair," but among civilized nations there are certain recognized restrictions even in the game of war, and so far as the C. P. R. is concerned their persistent circulation of untruthful reports about the strikers and the strike, through the accommodating medium of the Associated Press, will hardly convince the onlooking public that the men are unreasonable and the railway in the right in the struggle.

In a great many instances the Canadian press has shown an inclination to stand in with the railway as against the men, as evidenced by the manner many of these colored dispatches have been presented to the public by the papers referred to.

If the editors deny the inference, the only alternative conclusion that is possible can hardly be satisfactory to them, because it means the most grossly careless editing on their part and an ignorance which a twenty-four hour old reporter on his first shift would be ashamed of.

Notwithstanding the daily statements that the men have all returned to work, or that others have been got to take their places, the strike drags on and the going out of the men in this section of the country will be a sharp reminder to the public of the utter unreliability and untruthfulness of the published dispatches to date.

The schedule of the men's wages now paid and the one they have asked for, which was published in the WORLD two weeks ago demonstrates the real issue at stake.

The whole business forms an object lesson in favor of compulsory arbitration and if we mistake not will go some distance at least to induce Canadian voters all over the Dominion to insist on such legislature as will in future prevent the possibility of such a state of affairs as now exist, and the one enactment so far suggested that offers a hopeful solution of the problem is compulsory arbrtration.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Less than a fourth of the men actually employed at mining in Southern British Columbia work in the mines at Rossland. Outside of Rossland there is no trouble between miner and mine owner. The managers and superintendents and foreman everywhere, except in Rossland, are apparently on friendly terms with the miners; and the miners, somehow, are not accused by any of these managers and superintendents and foremen of an unwillingness to do a fair day's work. Is it possible that the miners at Rossland are different from the miners in other camps in British Columbia? Or is it possible that the men in charge of the mines at Rossland are not constituted as are other mine managers in the province? The Tribune is of opinion that there will be no permanent peace, and consequently no permanent prosperity at Rossland until there is a change in the management of the War Eagle and the Le Roi mines—and the sooner the change is made the better it will be for British Columbia.—Tribune.

Now, after months of the most rabid agitating, the Miner has the gall to read the miners' union of Rossland a double-leaded lecture on the evils of "agitating." All disinterested observers will agree with the Tribune that the agitators who are damaging the country are not members of the Rossland miners' union, but, instead, are the three men managing the Le Roi and War Eagle mines and the Rossland Miner. The two former are the agitators-in-chief; the latter is merely their puppet.—Nelson Tribune.

The creator, in making so many kinds of people, naturally made some that have immense ambition and desire for work, physical and mental. Authors, writers and brain workers are generally hard working people. Frequently they exhaust vitality so fast that they cannot rebuild. So say the quack advertisements. The editor of the Rossland Miner has reached the latter stage, and the Eagle will pay for the first six bottles of a tonic which will bring the poor man back to his normal condition. —Ferguson Eagle.

An Open Letter.

DEAR CHARLES—
I'm a writin' you a letter,
For I can't think
What the 'nation is the matter
Of your new job.
You've got a funny notion,
With a tin cup
You're goin' to bail the ocean.
And it seems like
You're in a tight position;
For you struck quite
A tough old proposition
When you fell foul,
In the columns of the "Whiner,"
Of the "pure quill"—
The real Amurkan miner.
He's a cute cuss;
You can't catch him with blarney,
Or the same stuff
You used to "butter" Barney.
Of his good name
He's just a trifle jealous,
And when you claim
They all are worthless fellows,
You may be sure
You'll strike a raft of trouble;
And its right here,
A comin' on the double.
If, as you say,
You had no bad design in
What you wrote, pray
Where's the need for all your whining?
And squealin' jest
Like a rat that's taken pisen?
You had must best
Talk straight apologisin'.
What do you know
Of miners or of mining?
You're at home, though,
With buttons, thread and lining.
Sitting cross-legged,
You're nimble with your stitches,
Quite a slick hand
At making coats and breeches.
You're a ninth part
Of man—a simple fraction—
Which accounts for
Your derned simple action.
You may tell us
You're not entirely crazy;
But, as Pat says,
Just "break it to us aisy."
You may look sane
When walking stiff and stolid;
But your wee brain
Is addled—good and solid.
Better you hang
Than taunt a friendly nation;
Though in each case
'Twill stop your circulation.
Charlie! go slow,
Or else you'll bust the "Whiner."
From your friend—foe—
which you please,
A YANKEE MINER.

A communication was read from the Spokane brewers union regarding certain differences existing between members of that organization. The secretary was instructed to reply.

The committee appointed to investigate the difficulty between the brewers and their employes were unable to make their final report on account of all the correspondence in connection with the matter not being available. The secretary was instructed to write to head quarters of the brewers union for instructions.

Labor day celebration brought forth some discussion in which it was pointed out that other towns of the Kootenays were going to celebrate that day and in view of that fact, the following committee was appointed in which all of the unions are represented. Arthur, McLaren, O'Brien, Prest, Woodside, Lester, Hennigar, Klooman and Muller.
