MINES OF KOOTENAY

The first complete week of the new year shows over 10,000 tons shipped and milled by the mines of this camp. This includes eight days, and is at the rate of 460,000 tons for the whole year, a very material increase over the aggregate tonnage of 1903. But it is likely that as soon as the other concentrators get in their work that the weekly average will be much increased, and therefore the total for the year to come, will more nearly approximate a half million tons smelted and

TERRIBLE SHIPWRECK

S. S. Clallam Lost With Fifty Lives Off Port Townsend--Fears for the Safety of the Hon. R. Green.

Vancouver, Jan. 9.—[Special]—In the fierce westerly gale which raged yesterday along the North Pacific coast, the passenger steamer Clallam, plying between Seattle and Victoria, received such damages, that, drifting helplessly with the hurricane toward the jagged rocks of Smith Island, she filled by the skylights and foundered, fifty passengers and members of the crew perishing, while but thirty-two and Captain Roberts, master of the ill-fated craft, were picked up by the rescue tugs Holyoke and Sea Lion, and by these vessels landed this morning at Port Townsend.

The Clallam, a comparatively new vessel, left Seattle yesterday on schedule with upwards of forty passengers. She reached Port Townsend without misadventure and at 1 o'clock started therefrom to cross the open straits in the teeth of the gale blowing in with unchecked fury from the wild Pacific.

About one hour out from Port Townsend the Clallam's rudder gave way and in a moment she became a plaything of the storm, drifting at full fifteen miles an hour in the direction of reef guarding Smith Island, despite all efforts to secure steering way by means of making sail out of the restraining forces of sea anchors and mattress drags.

Her distress was reported by the little tug Mystic running for shelter to Port Angeles and the tug Sea Lion at once left Port Townsend in pursuit.

Meanwhile, having blown down to a point off Discovery Island, the heavy seas broke through the Clallam's skylights and the unfortunate vessel began rapidly to fill. She was already settling low in the water when dusk drew on, and watchers caught a glimpse of her off Clover Point and Trail Island, within sight of Victoria and but a few short miles from safety. Thence she was carried back toward Smith Island by the wind and tide, being caught up with about 10:30 by the Holyoke which succeeded in getting a hawser aboard and began to towing to the nearest point of safety. In the raging tempest Capt. Roberts could not make known to his would-be rescuers, the growing seriousness of his condition and it was not until the second relief tug Sea Lion ranged alongside that the truth was known.

The Sea Lion immediately passed word to the Holyoke that the passenger steamer was sinking and the towlines were immediately cut both tugs standing by to save life. Meanwhile the women passengers had been placed in the boat which owing to the tremendous sea, had barely left the davits ere they were capsized, their human freight being swept away with the rapidity of thought.

This was at the midnight hour and by one this morning the Sea Lion had succeeded in getting aboard twenty-two survivors including Captain Roberts and the Holyoke nine, these 33 being landed at Port Townsend this morning.

No passenger list being taken either at Seattle or Port Townsend the principal ticket sale being on board ship, names are not yet obtainable. It is, however, known that Mrs. A. J. C. Galletly, wife of the Victoria manager of the Bank of Montreal is among the lost, as also is her daughter. Captain Thompson, a well known explorer and surveyor is a third victim, Miss Camusa of Victoria a fourth, while it is feared that Hon. R. F. Green, Provincial Minister of Lands and Works, was also among the passengers—and the dead.

milled. The Le Roi No. 2 concentrator should contribute some 16,000 tons to this total and the War Eagle three times that quantity, without considering the other concentrators and mills which will be going up as the year waxes older. Altogether the outlook is extremely bright.

The Elmore part of the Le Roi No. 2 mill has closed down for today, owing to the non-arrival of a long delayed shipment of oil which has, however, already reached Nelson and should be on hand soon so as to permit of the mill starting up full again on Sunday or Monday. The delay will play havoc of the month run test which was contemplated, and probably the management will take another month in which to make it.

GOLDWIN SMITH.

Goldwin Smith has been writing to Old Country papers informing them that Canadian speakers now in England helping Joseph Chamberlain in his propaganda on the preferential tariff and its imperial aspects are not voicing the true sentiment of Canada. Goldwin Smith is master of style. He is a college professor who has tried England, the United States and Canada. He cannot be called a successful man. He has voiced every sentiment of opposition to the will of the people that has ever come up in Canada. He may be a great Liberal but he is a very faddy one. From the days when as a literary writer in the Toronto Globe, he criticized Charles Reade for prurience in his novels, to receive in return so well merited a flagellation that the honesty of his literary criticism has ever afterwards been doubted, to this his latest craze it would be difficult to point out that he has ever been in unison with popular sentiment. If he were one who stood upon the mountain tops and saw the light before the valley dwellers, the acceptance later, as the sun of truth rose higher, of his utterances would have shown him in this light as a man before his times. But such endorsement has never been accorded and if he is to be judged, therefore, according to the proverb of the shrewd old Romans, vox populi, vox dei, then, indeed, his position would not be that of a dweller on the mountain tops but rather that of a prehistoric troglodyte. The WORLD will venture to say that this latest assertion of Goldwin Smith will meet the same fate as his previous vaticinations and will be condemned by Canada as well as by the Liberal party, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, was the first to pass a preferential tariff; undiscouraged, he augmented the advantage given; persistent, at the first Colonial Conference in London he wanted it extended so as to embrace the Empire; farseeing, he has lessened the burthen of postage, when a red tape ridden British department, untaught by the lessons given by Sir Rowland Hill, sixty odd years ago, still works departmentally to the disadvantage of the Empire. Acts speak louder than words. This is Canada's record and it is also the record of the Liberal party to which Goldwin Smith is supposed to belong. Influential Canadians speaking in England on the advantages of the Chamberlain policy are not only speaking the sentiment of Canada, as shown again in the utterances of the Boards of Trade scattered over the vast Dominion, but they are endorsing Sir Wilfrid Laurier. No less also is the instinct of the Conservative party strongly imperialistic. For were the Liberals to discard the wisdom of Laurier and repudiate the preferential tariff, especially at a moment when its advantages will be given to us in return, the Conservatives would sweep into power with a directness and a celerity which would astonish the followers of a false prophet. Goldwin Smith believes in the ultimate destiny of the United States to absorb Canada. Naturally he objects to any scheme which would destroy the last shred of hope of his absurd theory. But nowadays, if ever there were, there are no annexationists in the Canadian nation.

RECRUITS FOR JAPAN

Many Englishmen Will Aid the Empire's Ally

London, Jan. 9.—The party of marine engineers from the Clyde district, engaged by the Japanese government sailed for Japan yesterday via St. John, New Brunswick. Another draft of Scotch engineers left Govan quietly and unexpectedly for Japan a week ago.

A detachment of 120 British naval pensioners and naval reserve men and 10 British officers started for Genoa, Italy, today, to assist in the navigation of the Japanese warships Kasaga and Niasin, purchased of the Argentine republic. The railroad station was crowded with sightseers, who manifested the greatest enthusiasm. There were repeated cheers for "gallant little Japan."

THE ORO DENORO

Will Ship 150 tons Daily to Hall Smelter

The Hall Mines smelter people have made arrangements with Smith Curtis whereby they will in future control the entire output of the Oro Denoro mine, in Summit camp. Such ore as has heretofore been shipped from that property has been treated at the Hall Mines smelter. Hereafter the ore will be shipped to the Granby smelter by arrangement with the Hall Mines people. The shipments will be at the rate of 150 tons a day, to be increased later on.

BOUNDARY.

This week the Granby mines have been sending out 70 cars of ore daily.

At the Athelstan mine the force of employees has lately been increased and now numbers nearly 80 men. Ore shipments are also being increased.

Most of the 4800 feet of steel required for the completion of the Brooklyn and Stenwinder spurs, has been laid. The work will be finished in a few days.

This week a large strike of ore was made on the Dom Pedro, in Providence camp, which is being developed by the Chicago British Columbia Mining company in charge H. H. Shallenberger. This ore was found at a depth of 30 feet in the new shaft, the ore growing more solid and of better grade. If it keeps on improving, this property will soon rank among the best mines of the camp. Ten tenders have been put in this week for sinking 100 feet, and have been transmitted to the head office in Chicago.

POPLAR

A deal for the sale for the Buffalo group has been put through at Poplar. The purchasers were Campbell & Finch of Spokane, and the vendor August Buffalo. The price is stated to be $15,000 and 100,000 shares of stock in a company which is to be formed to operate the property; $2000 was paid down $5000 is to be paid on March 1st, 1904, and the remaining $8000 on June 1st, 1904.

SLOCAN

The Alamo concentrator will start up in a few days.

Last year the Slocan mines shipped 15,239 tons of ore.

The long crosscut on the Soho has broken into 18 inches of galena.

Joe Purviance has secured a sublease on the Dayton and started work last week.

Operations have been resumed on the Whitewater Deep, with a force of seven men.

Additional improvements are being made to the Ivanhoe mill, so as to treat the zinc.

A rawhide trail has been broken to the Republic and the ore will likely move next week.

A carload of ore from the Neepawa has been brought down from Ten Mile and forwarded on to Nelson.

Creditors of the Neepawa when it was worked a year ago under C. Sandiford are suing to Northwest Mining Syndicate for supplies furnished.

A very rich strike was made last week at the Soho. In running a 250 foot crosscut to catch the main lead 15 inches of solid ore was encountered in a vein which has never before been developed.

SOUTH EAST KOOTENAA.

Reports from Frank indicate that the mines have been closed down for an indefinite period. The closing down was owing to the withdrawal by the C. P. R. of its orders for coal. The railway now gets 400 tons per day from the Lillie mines.

YMIR

J. T. Price has just completed his annual assessment work on the Iona group, consisting of three claims. Mr. Price brought to town some fine looking ore and reports that the ledge is three feet wide. The ore carries iron and galena in a blue quartz and is certainly promising looking. The strike was made in the breast of that tunnel 63 feet underground in the tunnel which is being driven to tap and cross out the main lead. Assays already made of the ore reveal that it runs from $10 to $15 to the ton.

AT THE SKATING RINK

JANUARY 14th

Preparations should be made well in advance

MINOR MENTION.

J. S. Carter is in the city.

Maxey is waxey, next year he will pay his road tax.

E. Mastin is to reopen the Kootenay Hotel.

The meeting called for the Winter Carnival has been postponed until Monday next.

It is possible that the Olympia Opera company will play a one night stand here on Monday week. The Sacred concert rehearsal has been postponed from tonight to Monday at 7:30 in the Courthouse.

Miss Florence Griffiths returned yesterday, after an extended visit to Vancouver.

The Olympia Opera company have been asked to produce "The Chimes of Normandy" on their return visit to the camp.

The Whites and the Blues scored a couple of goals each last night at the hockey match. The rink was crowded by their admirers.

The Rossland Miner has no opinions apparently on the municipal election. The paper is not published by Rossland men apparently.

T. Dunn beat A. B. Mackenzie's rink last night by a score of 18 to 4 and will now play off with Dr. Kerr for the President's Cup.

The World wishes to congratulate the Returning Officer on his taking its hint and publishing the names of those who have been disfranchised.

The owners of Paddy, Pincher, Minto and Terry, those estimable dogs, may yet be disfranchised owing to their animals drinking water at Father Pat's memorial.

Some of the lady members of the Olympia Opera company, who had never seen snow before, were enjoying themselves yesterday afternoon by coasting on Columbia avenue.

Police Magistrate interpretation of householder may be right, but it is the first time it has been so read and interpreted in Rossland. The act is no new one.

Thomas Stout and P. R. Macdonald inform the World, that they are not deserting their ticket for any other. But if the other side were to endorse then also it shows them to be pretty good men.

It is just possible that some of the people who have been refused franchise by amateur interpretation of the law will bring actions against the city, in which case Rossland will again be thankful that it was so supremely wise as to elect John Dean as mayor.

The National Anthem was omitted last night at the dropping of the curtain. This was probably a win to the really tasteful remarks made by our contemporary about the way it was sung on the previous evening. When the Olympians are wise to the camp, they will take no notice of the Miner's nasty remarks. But it can't help it.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE

An Even Better House Greeted the Olympia Company Last Night

There was a crowded and an enthusiastic house to greet the production of Olivette last evening and every point was appreciated by the audience which divided its time between applause and laughter.

The opera is one of the prettiest played and full justice was given it. The umbrella act of Lottie Kendall was appreciated. It was novel and extremely cleverly executed. The Countess of Roussillon (Eleanor Jenkins) was excellent and Olivette's maid (Corene Uzzell) played up well indeed.

The tenor, Carl Haydn appeared to advantage as Valentine and Coquelicot (John E. Youny) was the signal for laughter every time his red nose appeared around the side scenery.

The first impression upon meeting a stranger is always the most lasting, it means considerable to you to go about neat and stylish, it will pay you to come in and see our new suitings. Taylor & McQuarrie, the Fashionable Tailors.

The discriminating dresser will fully appreciate the individuality of our full dress appeal, the swag set of the broad shapely shoulders and the snug fit of the collar, all of which emphasize the fact that our clothes are up-to-date. Taylor & McQuarrie, the Fashionable Tailors.

DISASTER AT FERNIE

Six Men Lose Their Lives
by An Explosion
Yesterday.

Michel, Jan. 9.—A disastrous explosion occurred in No. 3 mine, operated by the Crows Nest Pass Coal company, yesterday evening, whereby six miners were instantly killed. The victims of the explosion were:

D. Roberts.
William McAllister.
Jack Sale.
William King.
Burkett Dean.
Tom Evans.

Two other miners were seriously injured, but it is thought, not fatally.

A miner named D. Thomas is missing and a relief party is hard at work trying to find him.

Several miners in the relief parties were overcome by gas and were continually being brought out of the mine for air. Their places were speedily filled by willing volunteers.

The accident has cast a terrible gloom over this little community.

Coroner Trites is holding an inquest to day on the six bodies recovered.

Several miners had narrow escapes, being overcome by gas when rescued.

There is nothing definite yet as to the cause of the accident.

Mine inspector McGrogan, of Nelson, has been wired for.
