Why the Citizens Have Not Been Canvassed.

THE TENDERFOOT FINANCIERS

Excellent Prospects for the Coronation Festivities—Tonight's Meeting.

A joint meeting of the general and finance committees on the Coronation day celebration is called for this evening at 8 o'clock in the library building of the firehall.

The purpose is to get down to business at once and get round and make an active canvass of the city to see what money can be raised, and then instantly to send out one or more men and as actively placard the whole Kootenay country with posters and bills notifying the surrounding districts of the fact that Rossland is waking from its lethargy and will celebrate in its old hospitable and warmhearted fashion.

The cause of this meeting is that too much time has wasted already in preliminaries. Last night knots of excited citizens could be seen scattered all along Columbia avenue discussing in no measured terms the action of one or two would be "Its" who thought they were the whole committee themselves and without consulting their colleagues or even the chairman of the general committee had declared that the whole ce'ebration should be cut down to a miserly $600 or $700 and make the affair a local one. No canvass had been made of the city, one or two gentlemen had been seen who threw cold water on the scheme, and that was to be the end of it.

It cannot be too emphatically said that either the Coronation day festivities have got to be worthy of the city or that they should be dropped altogether. Rossland is no village. It is the centre of the most important mining districts in the Kootenays. The citizen who does not recognize that fact has no place on a celebration committee and further his fellow townsmen would not miss him from his seat in their councils.

The sum proposed by the general committee, $1200 is a very very conservative amount and not one cent too much for what will be needed to do things properly. In fact it is too little and more should be raised and a longer program drafted. It is all nonsence to say that the money cannot be raised. When the proposed Sunnyside races were to be had three or four merchants in the city had already promised to subscribe $100 apiece.

When the late banquet was got up 80 gentlemen found no trouble in finding $5 each and raising a sum of $400. There is not one of those merchants, not one of those gentlemen who would not dig up an equal amount at least for an object which is for the benefit of the whole community. There is no doubt that the mines would at least equal in the present their past munificence. The managers are practically the same and are imbued with the same spirit. They tell us that Rossland is entering upon an unprecedented era of prosperity and the WORLD underscores their statement and doubly underscores it. There is absolutely no reason for any mean spiritedness about the matter. It is either a question of hundreds of Rosslanders spending $10 and $15 outside this town at Grand Forks or Nelson, or at least an equal number of Grand Forks, Nelson, Trail and the citizens spending an equal amount here. The money raised for the purpose will be spent in the city and for every dollar so expended two, three and five dollars will be spent in this town by the visitors.

The general committee has done its part well and it is up to the finance committee to do as well. If they can not hold up their end let the general committee appoint four canvasssers, good men and capable who will do the trick while the others are dreaming about it and getting discouraged at the first moan of the first bellyacher they happen to drop across.

The WORLD could nominate four men who would raise the beggarly $1200 wanted in three days.

GUNARD LINERS

Form the Point of Attack Today.

ALL BRITISH SHIPPING COMBINE

Canada is Thoroughly in Sympathy —Gerald Balfour is Working.

London, June 10.—There is still no definite information here respecting the formation of a British shipping combination with the Cunard line as the central and strongest link. Canadian officials are sanguine in their forecasts of the ultimate success of the movement, and Lord Strathcona is zealously supporting it, but it is not yet clear whether the Admiralty and the Board of Trade will commit themselves to the policy of paying subsidies on a greatly enlarged scale.

Sir Christopher Furness and other shipowners are making strenuous efforts to induce the Cunard Company to break off negotiations with Mr. Morgan and to assume the leadership in national shipping interests, but neither are the elements for a powerful combination yet in sight, nor has an organizer of sufficient force been discovered for a determined fight in defence of British maritime interests.

The co-operation of the Dominion Government is confidently predicted by Canadian officials if the British government will pledge itself to take up in earnest the cause of an independent commercial marine. Mr. Gerald Balfour is displaying more interest in the matter than Lord Selborne.

THE BISLEY PRIZES

Special Prizes Which Will Mark the Coronation Year.

The revised program for the Bisley rifle meeting has been received at Ottawa.

The King's prize will consist of 600 cash prizes, amounting to a sum of £2420, and the St. George's, 28 prizes, aggregating £950. These prizes are of the usual value, but the special donations to mark the coronation year have been arranged in a series of prizes as fol-

Coronation prize, 1st prize, 25 guineas; Fletcher's trophy, 50 guineas and £100, highest scorer in any navy or marine.

Buchanan Cup, value 25 guineas; highest scorer in volunteers.

Gale and Polker Cup, value 25 guineas, highest scorer among civilians.

Daily Express Cup, value 25 guineas, higest scorer from the colonies.

London and Rider Cup, value 25 guineas; highest retired volunteer scorer.

Cash prizes £161 to £822. All cups in the coronation championships are to be won outright, and the total value of the competition is £1072, or next in value to the King's Five hundred and twenty-six pounds of the money prizes is contributed by the London Stock Exchange. The distances are 200, 300 and 600 yards; seven shots at each distance. Entries close June 23rd.

MORE JOBBERY

The Pacific and Omineca Railway Co.

WELLS GIVES AWAY MINISTRY

Attack by Smith Curtis Upon the Government Land Grants.

Victoria, June 7.—In a debate upon the railway Mr. Curtis attacked the provision that the contract should be made only with the Pacific & Omineca railway company without any security being put up. He thought that the line with the Coast-Kootenay was the most important before the House, and he coupled with those two the Alberni railway.

If the Island railway were prolonged to the north end of the Island and the road built from Kitimaat to Hazelton, it would do more for Victoria than that from Bute Inlet to Yellowhead Pass.

Yet how inconsistent was the government's position! It had clapped a reserve on all the land from Kitimaat to Hazelton, thus shutting out the settlers whose industry would create trade for the railways. It had been locked up for the purpose of giving these lands to railway grafters and speculators, who would put up money for elections.

Already Messrs. McKenzie & Mann had got a big block on Kitimaat Arm. Why was that land locked up? He knew positively that it was for the purpose of giving that land to railway speculators as soon as the government could get enough support in the House to give it away.

Hon. Mr. Wells said that on the contrary it was locked up for railway purposes and to keep out speculators.

Mr. Curtis replied that was the very confession that the lands were for railway purposes. Yet there were men in the House who were opposed to land grants, and were yet abetting the Government in this course.

ANOTHER ORGANIZED BODY.

The Carpenters and Joiners of Kamloops Form an Union.

The Carpenters and Joiners of Kamloops have formed themselves into an organized body which will hereafter be known as the Carpenters and Joiners Union, No. 1, of Kamloops. The first president elected is J. H. Vautin and the secretary A. C. Taylor. Vautin is an old time Rosslander and was very popular during his sojourn here.

POSTAGE RATES

Undue Leniency of Canadian Government.

PRECLUDES GENERAL REDUCTION

How Newspaper Rates are Being Monopolized by Trade Journals.

Ottawa, June 10.—The Post Office department is determined that no opportunity shall be given to American newspapers and periodicals, publishers of trade journals and issuers of circulars to take advantage of the Canadian postal rates by sending their packages over to Canada to be remailed into the United States and save the larger rate of postage imposed by the United States postal authorities.

The United States authorities recently discovered that large quantities of circulars were mailed from England to thousands of addresses in the United States, taking advantage of the low rate for circulars posted in England in contrast with the high rate imposed by the United States.

All attempts to gain advantage of the Canadian postal rates are aggravated by the information that some American trade journal purpose either printing editions in Canada or sending editions for Canadian publication in bulk to Canada so as to take advantage of the newspaper rate granted to newspapers in the Dominion.

A prominent publisher in discussing the matter today claims that daily and weekly newspapers of Canada were deprived of a large amount of revenue by the trade journals which claim to send the announcements of advertisers direct to the customers, the argument used by the trade journal being that it could afford to do the work because it was enabled to take advantage of the daily newspaper rate. This gentleman spoke of at least seven publications in Canada, weighing from eight to twelve ounces, sent out by the ton every month at the newspaper rate, and that he was astonished that the department should not follow the rates adopted in England and the United States, shutting out such publications from the advantage of the newspaper rate.

Before you get that new spring suit come and see us! we know that we can please you, both in price and quality of goods. Comerford & Cameron the leading tailors.

KRUGER'S FATE.

None could wish him a worse fate. Three years ago Oom Paul Kruger was president of the Transvaal with vast possibilities for good or ill. He regarded himself as an interpreter of the Divine will and precipitated a conflict which has ended with the loss of the state's independence; the homes of his people largely devastated with Rachaels weeping for husbands and sons who will never return; his own sons deprived of the franchise in the land of their birth; the wife of his youth laid to rest to await the unfolding of the mysteries of time in the light of eternity, and himself an exile in a strange land, not allowed a voice in the councils that determined the future of his former kingdom, awakened from his slumbers to learn the news of the peace which disturbed his quiet and extorted the cry: 'My God, it is impossible!" What enemy would add a drop of bitterness to that cup!—Ottawa Citizen.

TRADES UNIONS.

"A discussion on whether the Trades Council, "says the Victoria Colonist," could take part in the new Provincial Progressive party as a body was unnecessarily prolonged at Wednesday night's meeting. The bylaws provides that the Council shall not, under any pretence whatever, introduce or discuss religion or party politics. A like provision may be found in by-laws of the majority of the trades unions sending delegates to the Trades Council. The time is not yet when party politics can, with any safety, be introduced into the average trades union. There is heaps of work yet left for trades unions to occupy their time, without having to busy themselves with partv politics in the union meeting. If it is advisable for trade unions to take independent political action, let it be outside the union. There is no reason why as good results cannot be achieved through a distinct and separate body from the union. Too much care cannot be exercised in avoiding the rocks on which trade unions in the past have split on and gone to pieces."

"Timeo Danaos et dona ferentes" said the old Trojans at the siege of Troy. Fear the Greeks and the gifts they bear. The saying is as true today as 3000 years ago. If the Colonist is eager that trade unions should not enter into politics it is a particularly good reason why they should.

But the real reason why trade unions should enter politics is that both the "historic parties" are alike in one thing and that is they oppose all interests of labor. Whether the stripe of man at Victoria, at Ottawa or in London is Liberal or Conservative, he is opposed to the trades union bill, he is opposed to shorter hours, he is opposed to enforcing labor legislation, even when with difficulty it has been passed. For these reasons these "historic" parties have created a third. It is said that there is no room for a third party. That is quite true. There never is any room for a third party. This is the lesson of the past and there is no reason why the future should contain in its womb offspring unlike their forbears.

But this is only half a truth. It is also self evident from a perusal of the past to show that every party in existence had its origin at some time or another and that when it springs into existence there was already in the field two other parties. Then what becomes of axiom that third parties cannot exist? The solution is simple. The experience of the past shows that either the new party swallows one of the old ones or that the new party stands alone and the old parties fuse together. The first was the case when the Whig party of England, at the close of the seventeenth century, swallowed the Puritans of the Commonwealth while the old Royalists merely altered their name to Tory. The latter was the case when the Grits of Canada sprang into existence and the Liberal Conservative party, a fusion, was formed. Practically today the Populists have been swallowed by the older party, the Democrats, in the United States, but not without a great alteration for the better in that "historic" party.

Whether the future of the Progressives will be enrollment in the ranks of either the Liberal Conservatives or the Conservative Liberals, whether the Grits will be swallowed by the new party or the reverse, or whether the Liberal Conservatives once more open their arms and welcome in the more conservative of their pretended political opponents, time alone will show. One thing is certain and that is that Trades Unions are going into politics or going out of existence.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Mr. Seddon of New Zealand has paraphrased the turning of the sword into a ploughshare by making the more practical suggestion that South African blockhouses be turned into creameries and butteries.

In the year 1680 a member of the house of commons remarked that the high wages paid in England made it impossible o- our textures to maintain a competition with the produce of the Indian looms." That sounds somewhat like modern talk.—Vancouver Independent.

The Victoria Colonist is now advocating reenactment as the mildest and best remedy that can be applied to the disallowance of provincial acts, having special reference to those acts which contain clauses against the immigration or employment of Orientals. This is a falling from grace Smith Curtis advocated these very things three years since, adducing the example of Queensland as a precedent but was promptly called down by the Colonist and other papers of the same class as a wild eyed, impractical visionary. Really it would seem as if what Curtis thinks today the rest of the people will be thinking next year. Down at the coast they are apparently somewhat slower.

TRIUNE OPENS FOR THE SEASON

Much Work Had to be Done to Open up the Trail.

The management of the Triune, says the Lardeau Eagle, have had men at work for some days putting the trail to the mine in condition to enable a pack train to get through with supplies and they were also putting the cabins in repair to accommodate the men to be employed at the mine. The trail was found pretty clear of snow but considerable work had to be performed in cutting out fallen trees. Pack animals can now be taken through to the cabins, and on Thursday Mr. S. Daney's pack train made a trip with the first lot of supplies. On the same day a fore of fourteen men left town to begin operations at the mine.

It is the purpose of the management to prosecute work most vigorously and all the men will be put to work that the available room will accommodate.

WANT NO STRIKES

Is in Favor of Compulsory Arbitration.

TRADES AND LABOR CONGRESS

Opinion of the Vice President—The Deputation on Minister Muloch.

"There is no doubt that the Compulsory Arbitration bill introduced into the Dominion house by Minister Muloch, meets with the approval of the organized workers of this city and of Canada. In fact the trades and labor congress of Canada, a body representing trade unions from Sydney to the Klondike, to voice the views of working men, asked the government to adopt legislation along these lines only a month or so ago."

This was the reply of J. T. Fontaine, vice-president of the trades and labor congress of Canada for province of Quebec, when asked his opinion of the minister of labor's bill to introduce compulsory arbitration into Canada.

At the last session of the congress the following resolution was adopted: "That in view of the recent disastrous trackmen's strike, the time has arri ved when the Dominion trades congress should formulate some practical scheme of compulsory arbitration, and press the government for its adoption."

When the labor delegation waited on the government in March, they laid this resolution before the ministers, requesting that an act be passed applicable to railways, and industries receiving government subvention and that it be given a fair trial.

"I remarked at the time," said Mr. Fontaine, "that I thought this matter of compulsory arbitration was the most important question we had discussed with the ministers, and that it was likely to have a greater effect than any other measure we asked for. The labor delegation did not have a draft of a bill to present, but I think Mr. Mulock's bill embodied all the suggestions we made to him at the time.

"To my mind it is the most important measure the Dominion house has yet discussed, and if enacted into legislation I am convinced that its operations will be to the satisfaction of the corporations, their employers and the public in general.

"Personally, I am not in favor of strikes at all; I have never seen any good come of them. I would like to see the principle of compulsory arbitration applied in all industrial difficulties, as in New Zealand and other places."

Development Work Prosecuted on Rover Vein.

On Saturday last, says the Fort Steele Prospector, the Rover vein was cut by what is known as the Estella tunnel at a depth of 600 feet.

The principal development work on the Estella group has been the exploiting of the Rover vein. The ore is a galena in a concentrating form. The Rover tunnel is now in over 1000 feet, following the wall, the vein having a width of from 12 to 18 feet.

The Estella tunnel, which is in 1050 feet, crosses the Rover tunnel at nearly a right angle, at a depth of 200 feet below the level of the Rover tunnel. It is at this point that the vein has been encountered, and found to have a width of six to eight feet. The ore is similar in character to that found in the Rover tunnel.

ON THE COMSTOCK GROUP

Work to be Commenced at Circle City This Season.

The Comstock Co., of Cleveland, O., has instructed its local manager, S. Shannon, to proceed at once with development work on the Comstock group just above Circle City. A contract will be let to continue the present tunnel another 50 feet, at which point the ledge will be crosscut from wall to wall.

It is the intention of this company to thoroughly prove their property this season.

If you want first-class bottled goods go to the International Family Liquo Store.

FIGURES TALK.

The fi th annual meeting of the shareholders of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal company was held in Toronto on March 7th.

The net profits of the year after paying all operating expenses and all charge of every kind, amounted to $207,848,39. After paying a dividend at the rate of ten per cent per annum, a balance of $28,142,.89 was carried forward to the credit of profit and loss.

This company's assets are their coal mines and the townsite of Fernie. Four years ago this company had no transportation facilities, and their stock sold as low as eleven cents per share. Today their stock is selling at $90.

The Similkameen Valley Coal company, limited, assets are coal mines, timber, water power, agricultural and horticultural land, city water works, electric light plant and the townsite of Ashnola, surrounded by the following resources: gold, copper, silver, lead, iron, lime, fire clay, platinum, and a fine stockraising country, and it is the smelting center of the Similkameen valley, with a climate that is all that could be asked, You can secure an option on this company's stock by paying 10c per share down, and ten cents per month until fully paid, with non-forfeiture clause. This price is subject to twenty-five cents advance without notice as soon as transportation is assured. The present price is $1.10 per share. Do not wait until it is too late, but get in on the ground floor, and make a handsome profit. A purchaser of one hundred shares now, may gain a profit of $8,990. Crow's nest shares as an example. This would be a fair profit on an investment of ten dollars per month for eleven months. We invite the fullest inspection of the company's affairs by intending purchasers. For further information apply to the
