PAN-AMERICAN

Pleasant Weather and a Large Attendance.

FLAG DAY AT THE EXPOSITION

Mexican Building Opened with Elaborate Ceremonies—Daughters of the Revolution as Ushers.

Buffalo, June 14.—This was flag day at the Pan-American exposition. The day was pleasant and large crowds attended. The Mexican building was formally opened this morning with elaborate ceremonies in which Senor Manuel de Aasperoz, official representative of the Mexican government, who arrived here yesterday, participated. Later Senor Aasperoz reviewed the Mexican troops on the Esplanade.

The flag ceremonies were held this afternoon in the temple of music, the building being filled to overflowing. Daughters of the Revolution acted as ushers. The program included a number of patriotic airs and addresses.

NORTHPORT SITUATION

An "Inspired" Communication from the Seat of War to the Review.

The following is taken from a lengthy article appearing in yesterday's Review, purporting to have been sent that journal from Northport. It is evidently "contributed" for a special purpose. The union men at Northport know nothing about the commuhication, or the sender, but it is not difficult to see in whose interest the article is really written:

"It is believed here that the situation at Northport is not the outcome of an effort to rig the London stock market. It is thought to be the opening shot in a campaign inaugurated by the corporation that controls the smelter and the chief Rossland mines. The object is to increase the earning power of the properties by a reduction of wages more or less sweeping,

The mines have done all that is possible to reduce the cost of production by introducing modern machinery and labor saving devices of every description. The company is now credited with the plan of paying a lower scale of wages in the mines at Rossland as a means of earning profits impossible under the existing scale.

The battle in progress here is in itself a side issue as compared with the far reaching results which will attend a victory for either of the contestants. Those who have examined the situation carefully are disposed to believe that labor troubles on a far larger scale than the existing difficulty will be precipitated in Rossland as soon as the Northport matter is settled one way or the other.

If the corporation wins at Northport the smelter will be started and kept running at its full capacity for six months on the ore already piled up in the reserve dumps. Then the management, it is believed, can inaugurate a cut in the wages of the miners employed in the Rossland mines.

Fully 900 men would be affected, and as the union is strong a reduction will be followed by a strike, but with the smelter manned by a non-union crew and turning out matte to its full capacity the mine managers could snap their fingers at the miners for six months. In the meantime the union men could have been starved out and non-union men could have been brought into Rossland in such numbers as to dominate the situation.

The weak point in this scheme is that the smeltermen may win the fight here and a strike at Rossland would undoubtedly be followed by a sympathetic strike here. To close down mines and the smelter at once would not suit the management's books.

At Rossland the contract system in vogue in the big mines is anything but satisfactory to the miners. When the contracts were introduced last spring the men were granted a scale under which they were enabled to earn good wages without being driven hard. Since then, however, the contracts have been reduced from time to time, the total reductions to date being some 30 per cent. of the original scale. The statement is made that because of these reductions there are now only four contracts out of the scores in the camp that are worth having, and that on the balance the men are driven to their top speed to make a fair day's wage. The management is credited with contemplating a further reduction.

The interest that secures control at Northport has the ball at its feet and a settlement here will quickly be followed by the development of a real battle in Rossland."

FIVE WERE HUNG

Negro Execution in the Southern States.

NOT ONE DENIED BEING GUILTY

Sang in Their Cells and Marched to the Scaffold This Morning—The Crime They Committed.

Sylvania, Ga., June 14.—Augustus Arnold, Andrew Davis, Richard Saunders, Wm. Hudson and Sam. Baldwin, all negros, were executed in the yard of the county jail of Screven County this afternoon. At 12.20 the drop fell.

The necks of four were broken by the fall, the fifth died from strangulation. The negroes bore up well. They sang at the jail and then marched between a squad of soldiers to the scaffold. None of the negroes denied being guilty.

The crime for which they were hanged occurred last August. It originated in a quarrel between a young negro named Alexander and two young white men. A day or two after Meads swore out a warrant against Alexander, and being a constable, headed a party to effect the arrest of Alexander. As the white men approached Alexander's house they were fired upon from ambush by apparently a dozen guns and rifles. Constable Meads fell dead in his tracks. Herrington mortally wounded, crawled a hundred yards and died. Daniel was wounded but made his escape with Wade.

Upon the trial the five negroes admitted they were in the ambushing party, but claimed they were forced into it by others under threats of death if they refused. A conviction resulted and the men were sentenced to death.

THE B. A. C. DIRECTORS

Stormy Meeting in London ---How the Stock Went Down.

The members of the London Stock Exchange, who were entitled to receive shares in the Rossland Great Western and Kootenay Companies from the British Columbia Corporation, were invited to meet the directors of that corporation on May 30th. A London daily—The Financial News—thus comments on what took place:—

"The meeting, which was held yesterday, May 30th, proved to be of the stormiest and most turbulent kind. It was private and those who attended it consider themselves rightly or wrongly to be under a pledge of secrecy; but enquiries last night left no doubt that the language used was very free, and that charges of the most serious character were openly made against various persons who are alleged to have been concerned in the affairs of the corporation."

"The directors, in fact, are understood to have admitted that the corporation is the holder of 60,000 Le Roi No. 2 shares o which only £2.10 has been paid, and if this is so, the amount of the liability on these shares alone is £150,000."

It is further claimed that with an alleged liability to accept delivery of stocks in Rossland Great Western and Kootenay shares to the amount of about £1,000,000. The corporation had a bank balance of £157.

The News adds: "The further fall in British Columbia shares was the outcome of the meeting."

The position of the British America Corporation formed the sole topic in the mining market yesterday," (May 30th.)

ROBBERS ESCAPED.

Pittsburg Thugs Try to Burn Up a Woman --Saved Just in Time.

Pittsburg, June 14.—Four thieves who saw Mrs. Sadie Fowler draw some money from the Keystone bank yesterday, followed her for five hours to her home and at 2 o'clock this morning beat her into insensibility, robbed her and then set fire to her home. When she tried to escape from the burning building the men held the doors, but the arrival of neighbors saved her from being suffocated. The Robbers escaped.

A SPECIMEN DISPATCH

Important News from New York of Vital Importance to Us All.

New York, June 14.—The World says: "Wooden dummies wearing metal chest protectors and representing the crowned despots of Europe are to be set up in Liberty park, Ridgewood, L. I., next Sunday for anarchists to shoot at. This occasion will be the grand annual love feast of the anarchists of Greater New York. Johann Most will be marshall, chief patron, and honored general. The anarchists a year ago passed resolutions declaring that the war which they had made upon capital and power had not met with success. So they organized themselves into a rifle club and bought the wooden dummies. Because of their fear of the police, the anarchists refused to admit that the dummies represent any one. They say they are anonymous dummies, but it is understood they stand for the Czar of Russia, the German Emperor, and other agents of power.

Six hundred anarchists have promised to attend and blaze away at the wooden tyrants.

Herr Most it is said will be one of the sharpshooters."

UNION RECOGNITION.

Messrs. Dunsmuir and Faulds, of the Alexandra coal mine at Nanaimo, early in the week met a committee of the miners to discuss a scale of wages which would be acceptable to the men. Sixty-six cents a ton of 2352 pounds was finally agreed upon. The men in mass meeting confirmed the agreement made by the committee and now the mines will be re-opened at once.

An incident occurred in the conference, however, which has a bearing of its own on the outlook for labor unions in this province. Lionel Terry, the secretary of the union at Nanaimo, was introduced to Mr. Dunsmuir just outside the hall, but Mr. Dunsmuir said, "I do not want to see the man at all," and later he declared that, while he had no objection to meeting a committee of his own workmen, he did not want to meet a delegation from the union. He was prepared, he said, to employ union men, but declined to have anything to do with Mr. Terry, so that official retired and the agreement mentioned was come to.

Mr. Dunsmuir is the premier of British Colnmbia, the head of the provincial government and his attitude towards labor is therefore of interest. We do not know if there had previously been any feeling between the union and the premier or if his objection is the usual one formulated by managers and the executive heads of industrial corporations whenever a conference is asked for or suggested.

Why could not Mr. Dunsmuir confer with the union as a body? Would it result in any loss of dignity on the premier's part? or would it bind him thereafter to anything he could object to—as a precedent?

Where compulsory arbitration has been worked out satisfactorily, not only is the union recognized, but its system forms a part of the whole scheme. If unions were recognized and dealt with by capitalists and managers a great deal more than they now are, it would save a lot of unnecessary friction and in the long run prove undoubtedly of immense value to both parties concerned. Wherever it has been tried it has seldom, if ever, been found to do otherwise than work well and satisfactorily to all concerned, and the neglect of it has at times been responsible for protracted and useless contentions.

By all means recognize the unions and hold them responsible for what follows.

NORTHPORT.

The communication to the Spokane Review from Northport, which we reprint today, and the extracts from the Financial News, both make interesting reading at the present time. Neither the union men or the general public have been mislead by the attempt of the manager and his newspaper, the Miner, to cover up the plain issue at Northport. People seem to understand very well that if the manager really meant what he stated about the poor, threatened foreman at Northport, as the sole ground for the move made, he would have taken entirely different measures than he did. Nothing would have been easier, had the management so desired, than to get rid of a few objectionable men on some pretext or other. Everyone knows this is done here every day. Instead Manager Kadish starts out with the statement that the union is to be broken up and that certain of the men will be taken back provided they abandon the union.

It is evident that the management wanted trouble and wanted it known far and wide. No other understanding is at all possible. Exactly why this was so we do not know nor are we at the moment concerned, but the Miner and Mr. Macdonald, now that they are both "out of the woods," must think out a better and more plausible explanation of the situation at Northport today if they want the public to believe their statements.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The following appeared in the London Financial News of May 29 last. It is a perfect gem in its way: "We recently published a cable from a Rossland correspondent with regard to a rich strike in the Le Roi mine. It is now stated that the ore at the 900-foot level has been measured up and is estimated to be of the value of $10,000,000. The rumors of a strike at the Le Roi are apparently based on a misrepresentation of facts. There is, it is true, some difficulty with hands employed at the smelter, owing to a reduction of wages imposed, but no actual strike is anticipated; and even if one should take place, it would not be likely to interfere with the working of the mine or machinery, as, according to a correspondent, the 'labor conditions are most favorable.' Moreover, the Le Roi smelter is on the American side of the mine." And yet there are people who say there is no connection between the situation at Northport and stock manipulation in London!

The Victoria Times believes in the principles of compulsory arbitration of labor disputes. It concludes a lengthy article thus: "The courts settle the merits of the controversy and throw the responsibility upon the proper shoulders. Compulsory arbitration has proved a success in New Zealand, and if the courts are properly constituted there is no reason why they should not accomplish the objects for which they are intended in every country. The men who are honestly anxious for a settlement will invariably abide by their verdict."

BURGLARS ESCAPE.

Sawed Their way Out and Killed the Sheriff--Will Be Lynched

Fort Morgan, Colo., June 14.—Three meen named Harry Simmington, Stacey and Givens held in the county jail on a charge of burglary with the aid of confederates on the outside sawed their way out near midnight. Simmington had secured a revolver and ammunition. As they were leaving the jail they were discovered by Sheriff Clavert. who tried to stop them and was shot through the body by Simmington. He will probably die.

Deputy-Sheriff Nelson raised a posse and soon recovered Stacey and Givens. But Simmington eluded his pursuers. The authorities have sent to Pueblo for bloodhounds. Lynching is threatened if the man is caught.

What the Manager Said Last Month to His English Directors.

General manager Bernard MacDonald's report on the general outlook for the mine up to the 1st of last month states: "The development of the ore bodies during the month has been very gratifying indeed. The stoping has shown that the ore shoots have increased considerably in extent, or maintained the averge dimensions recorded in the previous month's report. The tonnage shipped during April was 4,469, as against 3,400 dry tons shipped during the month of March an increase of 1,069 tons for April. The gross value for April shipments was $72,173 as agsinst $55,419 for March, an increase of $16,735. Good progress is being made in sinking the three compartment shaft on the No. 1, and the three compartment shaft on the Josie, both of which have attained quite respectable depths. Every thing is running smoothly about the properties.

MINOR MENTION.

The new palatial office of the chief of police at the city hall is completed.

The synod of the diocese of Kootenay will meet in Nelson on Wednesday and Thursday, June 19th and 20th.

The mill at the Arlington mine, near Erie, has commenced crushing and is now working smoothly, says the Tribune. It is a purely crushing plant without amalgamation. The plant consists of two steam stamps, jigs, Wilfey tables and frue vanners. The nominal capacity of the plant is 30 tons per day, but it is expected this will be greatly exceeded on the Arlington.

Harry Mackintosh and family are back from a fortnights visit to Halcyon Springs.

Remember the Trail Odd Fellows excursion to Deer Park on Monday. The special train will leave here at 6 a.m.

John S. Clute, a Rossland mining barrister, who is here recuperating from the effects of a siege of pneumonia, is almost recovered. He expects to leave for his home in a day or so.—Review.

What does this item in yesterday's Spokesman mean? "Bela Kadish, manager of the Northport smelter, is here arranging for a residence. He expects to move his family here."

HONOLULU AFFAIRS.

Investigating the Home Rule Party—Like New York.

Honolulu, June 7, via San Francisco, Calif., June 14.—Judge A. S. Humphreys, of the circuit court, has ordered the grand jury to investigate the acts of the Home Rule party for the purpose of ascertaining where their campaign funds came from and for what purpose they were spent. This action was taken as the result of the claim that the Home Rule members of the legislature partook of luncheon at a well known restaurant, and permitted the owner of a street car line which was after a railway franchise to pay for the meats.

A NEW YORK DROWNING

Fate of a Professional Diver—Pumps Were Clogged.

New York, June 14.—Martin Anderson, a professional diver, lost his life while at work in the East river today. Anderson went down this morning to clean out some blast holes which had been cut in a rock ledge it was desired to remove, and to place dynamite cartridges in the drill holes. While he was at the bottom of the river the air machine pumps became clogged. When the pumpers found they could get no response to their signals they drew Anderson to the surface. Upon opening the diving suit it was found that he was dead. The contractor, George Rogers, was arrested and remanded to the custody of the coroner.

The Waragraph Coming.

On Tuesday and Wednesday, June 18th and 19th, in the Miners' Union hall, the Celebrated Waragraph Company of London, England, will present their excellent reproduction of the British-Boer War, with many other colored and beautiful subjects.

The company left Halifax over a year ago and has met with wonderful success throughout Canada, and are booked in Vancouver and Victoria for the first two weeks in July. The company comes to Rossland very highly recommended by the Halifax, Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg press. Besides moving pictures, the company carries mechanical effects which makes each subject very fine and realistic, and adds wonderful effects. No doubt there will be a crowded house both nights next week. Seats are placed on sale at Roll's Drug Store.
