NORTHPORT LOSS

Number Five Furnace Explodes and Is Wrecked.

HEAVY LOSS TO THE COMPANY

Unskilled Labor Working Havoc with the Smelter Plant—Did Not Reach Northport.

The news from Northport this afternoon can hardly bring much comfort to the manager.

Bela Kadish has done his level best to run furnace No. five but it stated the charge exploded last night and that the furnace was completely wrecked. This will cause the company a heavy loss in addition to the daily loss they are sustaining and have sustained since they inauguarated the lock out.

Number two furnace has frozen and will have to be taken apart before it can be worked again. The "skilled" labor now employed by the manager is attempting to start number four furnace without much prospect of success.

Yesterday the manager secured a car load of non-union men at Spokane and they were shipped north in a special car. Owing to the representations made to the men by a union agent, they all left the train at Marcus and went to work on the Republic railway. When the car arrived at Northport it was empty.

Secretary of War Says Report is Untrue and Unauthorized.

London, July 17.—Replying to a question in the house of commons yesterday afternoon, Secretary of War Broderick said the statement printed by the Daily News to the effect that Lord Kitchener had advised the government that it was now possible to withdraw the greater part of the infantry in South Africa and that the government was considering the question of replacing the infantry with mounted men who would act as a police force along the railway lines, was wholly unauthorized and was also inaccurate.

ECHOES OF YESTERDAY

Andy Reesbach's Roses---Features of the Parade and Picnic.

A notable feature of the parade was Fred Linburg's turnout, which was occupied by Messrs. F. D. Fortin, John Arthur, H. L. Nicholson and R. Anderson.

The union committee desire to thank Andy Reesbach for a box of beautiful roses taken from Andy's garden and supplied to the ladies at the ball last evening.

Harry McIntosh, of the Hoffman kindly supplied a box of cigars and a flag.

Lem Ward, of the Palm did a great business yesterday at the grounds in ice cream and soft drinks.

Annie Ferris and Edna Honey made a great success of their fruit and candy stand at the grounds.

B. R. Shed the president of the Northport union, who addressed the big audience at the grounds yesterday, returned to his post today.

The city firemen's turnout in the parade was a good one yesterday.

Gus Raabe won the 220 yards flat race and G. W. Ross the hurdle race yesterday. Both events came off on Columbia avenue in the evening.

LONDON IS SUFFERING

Apoplexy and Heat Prostrations Are Frequent --Great Drought.

London, July 17.—London is a great sufferer from the heat as the city has not been rain washed in weeks. Sunstrokes, apoplexy and heat prostrations are frequent and the hospitals are busy. The livestock market is unusually crowded, as owing to the absence of pasture, farmers are forced to sell their cattle.

A Fatal Explosion.

Stockholn, July 17.—An explosion occurred today at the Guttrop Powder Works, at Nora, province of Oreb, wrecking seven buildings. Four persons were killed and a number injured.

The Queen in London.

London, July 17.—Queen Alexandria will arrive in London at 9 o'clock tonight. She intended to come yesterday afternoon, but the journey was postponed on account of extreme heat.

RUMORS GALORE

Could Fill a Paper with Stories.

THE STRIKE SITUATION TODAY

Many Miners Are Leaving Town—Bernard Macdonald is in Spokane--Great Western.

Rossland is so full of rumors and fairy stories at the present time that a daily paper could be published with nothing but current yarns in it. Bernard Macdonald went to Spokane yesterday—not Australia or Alaska—but just to Spokane—probably for rest and change of air, or to cable London, or meet the new manager, or to get men for the smelter, or hunt up a new job.

The general manager did say at Northport on Monday that he might go to Australia and London. He did not meet Edwin Durant yesterday and that gentleman is believed to be still in London. Up to 4 p.m., this afternoon no offer of settlement of the strike had been made or suggested by any one.

It is stated that the Nickel Plate will be allowed to fill up to the 500-foot level. The electrical compressor has been closed down and power will be supplied from the Black Bear plant.

The loss so far incurred at the Northport smelter is referred to in another column. It is now more than sufficient to to have paid the increase asked for by the men for the next two years.

Everythina is quiet about the mines. W. H. Beatty head of the Toronto law firm of Beatty, Blackstock & Co., is in town, and has been at the War Eagle company's office all day. He will not talk for publication at present. Mr: Beatty is one of the directors of the War Eagle-Centre Star companies.

MARSHALL DESTROYED

Practically No Water---People Helpless--Town Is Doomed.

Kansas City, Mo. July 17.—Marshall, Mo, a town of 5,000 inhabitants on the Chicago and Alton railway, 90 miles east of Kansas city, is reported to be burning.

At. 1.30 p. m. the correspondent to the Associated Press wired. "The town is on fire and the people are almost helpless. There is practically no water." Not a drop of rain has fallen at Marshall in over a month. The temperature has remained at the hundred mark for ten days past and everything is as dry as tinder. All vegetation has been literally burned up.

ENORMOUS MINE LOSS

Compete Cessation of Mining Operations--Flooding of the Mines.

Scranton, Pa., July 17.—There was an almost complete cessation of mining operations today in the Lackawanna valley because of the strike of stationary firemen.

Less than half a dozen mines managed by individual owners and the group of Delaware, Lackwanna & Western Railway mines in the West Scranton district were the only ones in satisfactory shape for running when the whistles blew this morning. Only six Delaware and Hudson collieries are in operation.

Those idle involve 27,000 workmen. With the pumps idle, the flooding of most of the mines is threatened, involving a destruction of property that will be enormous.

SWINGING AROUND.

It is a great pity that every resident of Rossland who is opposed to unionism was not present at the recreation grounds yesterday to listen to the addresses given by Messrs. Wilks and Bulmer. There was an absolute want of rant, or appeal to passion or prejudice by the speakers, and in place of these a strong case was made out for the position occupied by the Rossland Miners' Union at the present time.

But away above this aspect of the views advanced yesterday, was the total absence of all bitterness, the plea for moderation, and the cheerful recognition that the mine manager's heavy responsibilities should be carefully considered in a dispassionate review of the situation, which constantly occurred in both speeches referred to. The speeches themselves and the manner of their delivery, cannot fail to deepen the good impression, now almost universal in Rossland regarding the stand taken by the union.

It is perhaps not altogether neccessary to make comparisons, but Mr. Macdonald and his publication the Rossland Miner do not show up very favorably in the fight so far.

The very aguments which aresupposed to be the stock in trade of all "agitators" are advocated by them alone. Whatever of bitterness or prejudice has been imported into the contest so far has come from them, and of answer or reply to the quietly preferred case of the union there has been absolutely none.

Violent, if thinly veiled attacks, on unionism will hardly induce the community to take up arms against the men who today are battling for justice and fair wages. Public opinion here is growing steadily in favor of the union cause, and as all the facts of the case become better known and understood this will become more and more the case. The whole result of yesterday's admirable demonstration has been to greatly strengthen and consolidate the cause of unionism in Rossland.

THE SCHOOL BUILDING.

It was announced this morning with rather a flourish, that the plans for the new school house had been prepared and approved of by the school trustees, and had been forwarded to the department at Victorta. The school board have also asked for tenders for the construction of the building although the approval of the department has yet to be obtained. The board has done the whole business, except naming the contractor and they might as well have done that while they were about it.

Who prepared the plans approved of by the board? Were competitive plans asked for? Has the city council approved, not only of the plans, but of the whole way in which the matter has been so far handled?

Is Mr. Dunlop the "competent architect" asked for by the government? If so, when did Mr. Dunlop cease to be a contractor and become an architect competent or otherwise?

Will the board of school trustees and the city council please explain the whole matter to the ratepayers, who will eventually own and maintain the school building in question.

The last act of the city council in the matter was to pass a resolution accepting the trusteeship of the government grant of $10,000 conditionally. The next move in the matter made public is the announcement which appeared this morning. An immediate explanation is in order.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The attention of Mayor Lalonde is especially directed to the announcement of the school board made public this morning. As a member of the board and as mayor he of course is in possession of all the facts in connection with the new school buildings and the ratepayers would like all details at once.

That the War Eagle-Centre Star manager should apply to the union executive for leave to proceed with exploration work with diamond drills during the strike and the prompt and ready acquiesence of the union would seem to imply that there was no great bitterness or bad feeling in existence at the present time between the managers and the men.

"We earnestly desire" said President Bulmer yesterday "to do nothing in connection with this strike which would injure the mines we hope to work in, or to make bad feeling between the managers and the men. When we go back to work we want to find every thing safe and in good shape, and good feeling prevailing all round" and the audience testified their approval of these sentiments by vigorous applause.

It was stated yesterday that the Barren declined all further responsibility for the situation here and has so reported to his directors.

Barney is now credited with having admitted making a tatical blunder in forcing the union at Northport. He is uuderstood to plead that he was advised that all non-union and many of the union men both at Northport and in this camp would refuse to follow the union leaders on a strike.

"It is the duty of an editor to interpret each item of news in such a way as may appear to his mind as proper and with appropriate headings.—Rossland Miner. Sure, but the statement implies the existence of something which everyone doubts.

THE STEEL STRIKE

The Men Have $200,000 on Hand.

HUGE DAILY COST OF STRIKE

Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars a Day—The Sinews of War—Combine's Loss.

Pittsburg, July 17.—According to figures compiled by the Pittsburg Dispatch, the steel strike is daily costing the companies involved $210,000, and the workmen $156,000.

Practically no stocks have been carried and the consumption has kept pace with the production for some little time past. About 700 tons of the 1000 tons daily produced by the American Sheet Steel company is being lost and this represents a loss each day to the combine of at least $50,000. In addition to these losses the many and varied industries crippled now and in prospect represent losses to the men of large sums that cannot be computed now.

The amalgamated men are said to have a fund of over $200,000 with which to keep the strike going, and the many amalgamated men employed in the various mills operating will go a great way toward keeping the sinews of war in good condition.

PROGRESS OF THE WAR.

Successful Operations by the British Around Kimberley.

Cape Town, July 17.—The British column which started from Kimberley some time ago has returned to that place after successful operations in the neighboring districts. The column brought in 50 prisoners, a large number of refugees and considerable cattle. The Boer invaders are still roaming all over the upper part of these districts, in the neighborhood of Richmond.

ENGLAND IS ANXIOUS

Steel Strike Attracting Much Attention in the Old Country.

New York, July 14.—The steel strike in America is attracting much attention in England generally, and while long articles are being printed in the newspapers on the subject, no comment is made in the editorial columns, according to the London correspondent of the Tribune.

John Burns has been less reticent for he forecasts an American Armageddon with the revival of the old anti slavery feeling and the transformation of trusts into state organizations by the political power of hordes of workmen.

Financiers watch the quotations from Wall street, and are unmoved by socialistic tirades. Combinations are felt to be on trial in America and if they survive the great conflict with organized labor concentration of capital will be promoted in England.

ARE FILLING WITH WATER

Preventing the Importation of Non-Union Men from Philadelphia.

Pittston, Pa., July 17.—The mines in this section which are idle, owing to the stationary firemen's strike, are said to be filling up with water despite the efforts of officials who are themselves in the engine rooms endeavoring to keep the boilers warm.

The operators are discharging the stationary engineers who refuse to take the striker's places.

The firemen have posted pickets about the mines to prevent a threatened importation of non-union men from Philadelphia.

A PLAIN STATEMENT.

The Facts of the Case as Presented by the Executive Committee of Rossland Miners' Union, No. 38, W. F. M.

Rossland, B. C., July 12th, 1901.

To the Citizens and Business Men of Rossland and Vicinity and to the General Public:

The business and social interests of a community are so closely interwoven in a community like Rossland, that any dispute among the industrial elements forming the social structure, is often more disastrous to the business or non-combattant class around which the labor and capital elements revolve, than to the actual combattants themselves. Thus both labor and capital are morally obligated to strive to adjust their disputes, to protect the social structure of which they are separate parts.

For this reason this union deems it well to make a careful statement of all the reasons leading us to precipitate this industrial strife at this time. Since the agreement between the big corportations of Rossland and Rossland Miners' Union in April, 1900, this city has apparently enjoyed industrial peace; yet all who are conversant with the industrial affairs of Rossland for the past fifteen months know there has been a secret warfare waged against this Miners' Union, which has been nearly as destructive to the business interests of the community as an open struggle between the two industrial forces, and worse in that there is no apparent end to be seen.

We have given long and careful consideration to this matter and have reached the conclusion that the foundation of the trouble rests on the fact that nearly one-half of the employees in the mines of this community receive about 20 per cent less wages than the same class of labor in surrounding camps, many of which camps have a lower grade of ore and are less favorably situated than Rossland. We believe that it is to continue to enforce this unjust scale of wages that so many annoying practices have been introduced to undermine the prestige of this Miners' Union of Rossland.

First.—An annoying system of espionage and blacklisting by which many of our ablest members have been compelled to seek employment in other localities, althought of unquestioned ability in their trade.

Second.—By revoking a time honored privilege of the Secretary being allowed to solicit members among the non-union employees of the companies who might be off duty on the premises of the companies, a privilege guaranteed us by the last half of Article 15 of the agreement of April, 1900; thus preventing us from refilling our ranks depleted by loss of members compelled to seek employment in other fields.

Third.—By connection with bogus employment agencies seeking to flood the overcrowded labor market with cheap foreign labor.

Finally.—By the largest corporation in this vicinity openly seeking and striving to crush a sister union at Northport, Wash.

We believe all these efforts are mainly to enforce this unjust scale of wages and to prevent all efforts towards an increase. Therefore we have fully resolved that there can be no industrial peace in Rossland and vicinity until this wage question is finally and satisfactorialy settled. Then will this fair city enjoy the prosperity for which nature has so evidently intended it.

For this result we ask the moral aid and support of the many diverse bodies making the general public of this city.

Especially we ask your aid in maintaining order, without which we cannot succeed.

There can be no permanent settlement but a just settlement, and to this end we will use all our power as an organization, and all the assistance of the Western Federation of Miners.

We have right on our side and must surely win.

EXECUTIVE BOARD
ROSSLAND MINERS' UNION No. 38, W. F. M
