GOD SAVE THE KING

BUILDING PROGRESS

The bui,ding permits for 20 representative cities in the Dominion of Canada for the month of March this year show an advance of over $5,812,260. These returns indicate that the country in general is in a swirl of increasing activities and that operations in all sections are being carried on on a stupendous scale, both in point of investment and in the volume of work undertaken.

NO CHANGE IN STAMPS

The post office department will make no change in the stamps in consequence of the King's death for six months or so yet. The supply on hand at present is sufficient to last till near the end of the year and meanwhile a new design will be prepared with the head of King George on the stamp instead of King Edward.

SALMON INDUSTRY

That the salmon industry in British Columbia is growing to one of vast proportion is evident from the preparations that are being made in every fishing district of the province for the season's catch. Fifty-six salmon canneries will be operated on the British Columbia coast this season and the packers have made preparations for a catch of between 500,000 and 600,000 cases of fish. Of the plants in commission nearly one-half will be on the Fraser river, arrangements now being made for the running of no less than twenty-two canneries on that stream. Of the remaining canneries worked the majority will be on the Skeena river at Rivers Inlet and the Naas, with a scattering few at outlying points. Canners expect some curtailment in the catch of fish on the Skeena owing to the limitation of fishing boats by the provincial government. The boat rating is not expected to greatly affect the catch at other points.

George V, King of Great Britain. Born June 3rd, 1865, Ascended the Throne May, 1910.

Edward VII, King of Great Britain, 1901-1910. Born November 9th, 1841; Died May 6th, 1910.

A NEW G. N. R. FERRY

The Great Northern Ry. Co. is preparing to handle the increased business between New Westminster and Vancouver Island. At present the company has one ferry, the Sidney, which carries six or eight cars. The new ferry which will be added to this service will be considerably larger and will carry from nine to twelve cars. The increased service is necessitated by the growth in business between New Westminster and the island, the lumber shipments from Vancouver island to the prairie provinces having increased largely of late. The G.N.R. ferry slip at New Westminster is being improved in order that the new service may be accommodated without waiting for the tide.

PRACTICE MATCH

The practice game of lacrosse which came off last evening between the North Vancouver team and the Squamish Indian team, resulted in a victory for the latter by a score of 5 to 3. The game was fast and closely contested throughout. The local boys showed greatly improved form and were at one time in the lead by three to one.

PICNIC

The Young People's Society of St. Andrew's church and their friends are arranging for a picnic to be held on the 24th of May at the home of Councillor Lawson, West Capilano. The picnickers will leave on the West Vancouver ferry which leaves the ferry wharf at the Vancouver side of the Inlet at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning and will be landed at Hollyburn wharf about 11 o'clock. The grounds and territory in the vicinity of Coun. Lawson's place present an ideal location for a day's outing and particularly so for a church picnic, as a great deal of the land is cleared and will afford an excellent opportunity for games of all kinds. Everybody is welcome to attend.

DELEGATE RETURNS

W. Cummings, one of North Vancouver's delegates to the Methodist convention at Nelson, returned last evening. He expressed his delight at the enjoyable trip. Rev. B. H. Balderstone, who has been transferred to another circuit by the stationing committee, is expected back on Sunday.

The Dead King

LONDON, May 18.—Kipling has in this morning's Standard a poem entitled "The Dead King," the argument of which is summed up in the line "Our King asks nothing of any man more than our King himself has done."

We accepted his toil as our right, none spared, none excused him
When he was bowed by his burden his rest was refused him.
We troubled his age with our weakness, the blacker our shame,
When he heard that his people had need of him, straightway he came
To us. As he received so he gave nothing grudged, naught denying,
Not even to the last gasp of his death when he strove for us, dying.
For our sakes without question he put from him all that he cherished.
Simply as any other servant he served and he perished.
All that Kings' covet was his, and he flung it aside for us.
Simply as any that died in his service, he died for us.

The poet in an envoi bids him:

"Who in the realm today has the choice of an easy road or hard to tread
And would sell his soul to remain in the sun to depart nor look on our dead?"

FIRE NORTH LONSDALE

Mr. G. K. Brown, assistant engineer in the District of North Vancouver and Road Foreman Bell were the timely preservers of the house of Chas. Musson, North Lonsdale Ave. on Wednesday about 11 a.m., when the roof of the house caught fire supposed to be from a flying ember. The flames and smoke were noticed just in the nick of time for had they got but a few minutes more start nothing could have saved the building from almost total destruction. When the smoke was first noticed it was coming out through the shingles. Ladders were procured and the two men scrambled up and into the attic. Already a pile of old clothes and other odds and ends were beginning to be ignited and the timely scattering of these was probably the means of saving a conflagration.

THE INDIAN RESERVE QUESTION

The Songhees Reserve question is interesting the citizens of the Capital in no small degree. The contention in some circles is that it is beside the question to think of ousting the Indians without remuneration after their 50 years' undisturbed possession. It is stated that two years ago the Indians were willing to sell out their possessions for $300,000. Now it turns out that they will get $500,000 by the process of subdividing, auctioning the lots and paying them the proceeds. The proposed plan of settlement is as follows: That the whole of the reserve—about 90 acres in all—be subdivided into lots and sold—provision being made for all necessary streets—at current market prices; fifty per cent of the proceeds to be handed over forthwith to the members of the Songhees tribe and fifty per cent to be held in trust by the Dominion government for the heirs and successors of the tribe. It is estimated that the amount which would be realized from such sale would be at least $500,000, figuring that the 90 acres would subdivide into 540 lots, and allowing forty lots for the area which would be consumed in laying out the necessary streets and lanes.

Correspondence

North Vancouver,
May 17th, 1910.

Editor Express:

Dear Sir,—I notice in your issue of this date that Miss Heard has, unfortunately, been obliged to resign the position to which she was elected as a result of the recent May Queen Contest.

This will, presumably necessitate a new election and I venture to suggest that this time it should be left entirely to the children themselves to choose their Queen.

If ballot boxes could be placed in each room of every school in North Vancouver (city and district) and each pupil allowed one vote, we should arrive at something much nearer the true choice of those interested. than is possible except by the merest accident, under the system of plural voting and purchasing ballot coupons, which prevailed in the Express contest.

This is peculiarly and emphatically a children's celebration and might surely be kept free from the least taint of commercialism.

I am not arguing that Miss Heard and the other candidates were not correctly placed as regards their respective popularity, perhaps they were, but we have no means of knowing it and certainly it cannot be claimed that every child had an equal voice in the matter, as should be the case.

I have no interest in the matter, beyond a feeling which I believe is shared by very many in North Vancouver, that the one celebration and everything connected with it ought to be kept pure and free from the all-pervading commercialism of the present day and the nearer we can come to maintaining the old fashioned childishness of the "Children's Day" the better.

Therefore, without in any way implying the motives which prompted the inception of the late contest and without questioning the absolute fairness of the award, I beg to repeat my suggestion that the election of the Queen of the Children should be held by the children and that every child should have one vote and one only.

Yours truly,
W. L. BOULT.

Lacrosse Match

The first public appearance of the North Vancouver lacrosse team will be made Saturday afternoon at the athletic grounds, when they will meet the team of the Squamish Indians, the champion Indian team of the province. The North Vancouver line up will be as follows:

Goal—J. Campbell
Point—Tyson
Cover Point—Thomas
1st Defence—D. Campbell
2nd Defence—Dent
3rd Defence—Woods
Centre—Munday
3rd Home—Bullied
2nd Home—Doyle
1st Home—Martinson
Outside Home—McMillan
Inside Home—Page
Reserve—Hamilton and Huff

The ball will be faced off at 3.30 o'clock and it is hoped that this initial effort of the local team will be largely patronized by the public, for the encouragement of the national game at North Vancouver.

POET LAUREATE'S TRIBUTE

What darkness deep as wintry gloom
O'ershadows joyous Spring;
In vain the vernal orchards bloom,
Vainly the woodlands sing.
Round Royal shroud,
A mournful crowd,
Is all now left of one
But yesterday a King.

Thrones have there been of baleful fame,
Reared upon wanton war,
He we have lost still linked his name
With peace at home, afar.
For peace he wrought, his constant thought
Being how to shield his realm
Against strife's baleful star.

So let us now all seek to rest
From fateful feuds release,
And, mindful of his wise bequest,
From factious clamors cease.
Treading the path he trod,
The sacred truth of God;
The path that points and leads
To patriotic peace.

CHIEF MATHIAS TO SPEAK

CANADA'S STOCK OF CEREALS AND CATTLE

The census and statistics monthly give the following figures:

At the end of March the quantity of wheat in farmers' hands in the whole of Canada was about 18.28 per cent. of the crop of last year. This is 30,484,000 out of 166,744,000 bushels, as compared with 20.23 per cent. or 22,747,000 bushels out of the harvest of 112,434,000 bushels in 1908. Of oats there was 40.03 per cent or 141,499,000 out of 353,466,000 bushels, as against 43.62 per cent. or 109,222,000 out of 250,377,000 bushels last year. Of barley there was 29.81 per cent or 16,517,000 out of 55,398,000 bushels, as against 33.56 per cent or 15,692,000 out of 46,762,000 bushels last year. Of buckwheat there was 1,835,000 out of 7,806,000 bushels, being 23.50 per cent, as against 29.03 per cent or 2,078,000 bushels out of 7,153,000 bushels last year. Of corn, which was nearly all produced in Ontario, there was on farms at the end of March 3,604,000 bushels out of a total crop of 19,258,000 bushels. Of potatoes there was 43,289,000 out of 99,087,200 bushels or 43.68 per cent, as against 44.10 per cent or 32,542,000 bushels out of a crop of 73,790,000 bushels last year. Of turnips and other roots there was 15.93 per cent, being 17,166,000 out of 107,724,600 bushels, as against 39.18 per cent or 39,671,000 bushels out of 101,248,000 bushels last year. Of hay and clover there was 23.51 per cent, being 2,793,000 out of 11,877,100 tons, as against 34.51 per cent or 3,952,000 tons out of 11,450,000 tons of the crop of 1908.

It is estimated that 95.87 per cent of the wheat crop of the Dominion in 1909, equivalent to 159,868,000 bushels, was of merchantable quality; of oats 90.86 per cent, being 321,190,000 bushels; of barley 92.87 per cent, being 51,449,000 bushels; of rye 89.98 per cent, being 1,543,000 bushels; of buckwheat 57.42 per cent, being 6,825,000 bushels; of corn 81.04 per cent, being 15,606,000 bushels; of potatoes 79.86 per cent, being 79,140,000 bushels; of turnips 86.17 per cent, being 92,833,000 bushels of the total yield. Three of the crops were over 90 per cent in quality, four ranged from 80 to 90, and only one was under 80 per cent.

In the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta the quantity of wheat on farms at March 31 was 18.90 per cent, being 26,682,000 bushels out of a total product of 147,482,000 bushels, as against 17,391,000 or 18.93 per cent out of 91,853,000 bushels last year. Of oats there was 45.44 per cent, being 84,254,000 out of 185,439,000 bushels, as against 44,425,000 or 45.93 per cent out of 96,718,000 bushels last year. Of barley there was 37.68 per cent, being 10,818,000 out of 31,358,000 bushels as against 7,722,000 or 33.68 per cent out of 22,928,000 bushels last year.

The report of the department of Trade and Commerce shows that there had been inspected at Winnipeg and points west for the seven months ending March 31, 69,514 cars or 74,032,410 bushels of wheat, 12,154 cars or 23,092,600 bushels of oats, and 3,118 cars or 3,741,600 bushels of barley. At the same date last year the figures were 61,098 cars or 64,152,900 bushels of wheat, 9,152 cars or 16,473,600 bushels of oats, and 2,576 cars or 3,091,200 bushels of barley.

Of the total production of wheat in the Northwest provinces last year 96.48 per cent was merchantable, of oats 95.13 per cent, and of barley 95.44 per cent. Manitoba shows the highest percentage of merchantable wheat, oats and barley, being 98.83 for wheat, 97.59 for oats and 98.13 for barley. In Ontario there was at the end of March 3,017,000 bushels of wheat as against 4,550,000 bushels last year, of oats 37,780,000 as against 44,715,000 bushels, of barley 4,920,000 as against 7,144,000 bushels, of potatoes 13,224,000 as against 10,026,000 bushels, of turnips and other roots 11,658,000 as against 32,757,000 bushels in 1909. In Quebec at the same date there was on hand of oats 13,677,000 as against 14,000,000 bushels in 1909, of potatoes 14,671,000 as against 7,042,000 bushels, of turnips and other roots, 2,161,000 as against 3,673,000 bushels last year. In the Maritime provinces there was on hand of oats 5,788,000 as against 6,089,000 bushels last year, of potatoes 10,970,000 as against 12,488,000 bushels, of turnips and other roots 2,837,000 as against 3,673,000 bushels in 1909.

The figures for 1909 are for the beginning of March, while those for this year are for the end of the same month.

The percentage of the products of the farm in 1910 which was of merchantable quality ranks high for all the crops in all the provinces, the only exception being potatoes in the Maritime provinces, where correspondents report heavy losses to this crop through rotting.

The condition of live stock in the Dominion at the end of March was uniformly high for all classes of farm animals, being 93.98 for horses, 91.42 for milch cows, 89.30 for other cattle, 92.43 for sheep and 92.77 for swine. In 1909 the condition of horses was 81.40, of milch cows 78.70, of other cattle 73.79, of sheep 78.32 and of swine 74.34. The high standard condition of live stock is attributed by correspondents to the mildness of the winter and to the very general abundance of coarse grains and roots. The standard for a healthy and thrifty condition of farm animals is 100.

Correspondents report an early opening of spring in all parts of Canada, and in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta as well as in the counties of Ontario along Lake Erie and Lake Ontario about one-half of the seeding was finished at the end of March. A very favorable account of the condition of fall wheat is given for Ontario at the same period, but in Alberta the crops suffered to some extent from drouth at the seeding season and later from winter exposure.

LICENSE COMMISSIONERS MEETING

The Board of License Commissioners at their special meeting held Tuesday afternoon in the city hall for the purpose of investigating a case of excessive drinking by a man named Atkinson, which case was recommended by the police commissioners to be worthy of investigation, found that "in view of the evidence before the commission that Mr. P. Larson be exonerated from all blame." The case grew out of a report submitted by Chief Davies that Atkinson was in a very bad state owing to excessive drinking and had to be removed to the hospital where two attendants had to be in constant watch over the sick man.

Mr. Larson explained that the man was a habitual boarder and also occupied the "back room" in question, where he was taken ill, for a considerable period, owing to his inability to get any sleep on the Cates wharf where he was employed as watchman during the time that the plant of the Northern Light, Heat and Power Co. was in storage there.

It was further explained that Mr. Atkinson was in a bad nervous state owing to habitual drinking for many years past and his breakdown at this time was due to that. Mr. Larson could not see how he could have acted otherwise than to notify the authorities when he became aware of the man's serious condition.

The Chief of Police on the other hand did not consider it a case for the police department and wanted to know if the police were supposed to care for every case of sickness of a similar nature reported in the city.

There was no testimony submitted and in view of this the commissioners considered that from evidence at hand that no irregularity had been made on Mr. Larson's part. Mr. Larson claimed he had done his very best for the man in the present instance and ever since he arrived in the city, hence the foregoing resolution which brought the enquiry to a close.

Ald. Schultz moved in connection with reports of habitual drunkards in the city being not only a nuisance to the public, but besides neglecting their families where they had any "that the hotel-keepers be requested not to supply any habitual, confirmed or notorious drunkard with whisky and further that the hotel-keepers be requested to inform the Chief of Police of any such cases so that their names might be brought before the commissioners." His Worship the Mayor presided and all the commissioners were present.

DANGEROUS PRACTICES

Some very dangerous practices are being carried on by some persons in the city, apparently the work of boys or possible the acts of grown-ups. Last Monday evening Motorman Renshaw on the Lonsdale Ave. run, ran on to an obstruction in the shape of some large stones and planking lying on the track near the corner of 13th street and again in two or three places between that and 20th street. It became known that this same thing had occurred before and that no trace whatever of the perpetrators could be found. The second occurrence in such a systematic and persistent manner led the officials to think more seriously of the case and the circumstances were communicated to the police who immediately held an investigation without results so far. The fact that these heavy and numerous obstructions were placed on the track between trips would seem that there was a premeditated and determined object behind the actions and possibly concocted by older heads than at first was thought of. The danger of such a scheme and especially on Lonsdale Ave. where the traffic is heaviest and the grade steepest naturally puts a serious side to the question and something that will bear minute investigation in the public interest.

BOARD OF TRADE

The Board of Trade convened in regular session last evening and immediately afterwards adjourned to the next meeting of the executive on June 7th out of respect to his late Majesty, King Edward VII. The meeting lasted less than five minutes during which time Alderman Schultz spoke a few words in respect of his late Majesty in moving the motion to adjourn. T. S. Nye seconded. Owing to the meeting in the city hall of the citizens, religious denominations and the fraternal organizations for the purpose of arranging for a joint memorial service to be held in the Horticultural Hall on Friday afternoon, May 20th, the members of the Board of Trade held their meeting in the office of May & Burns. President Irwin occupied the chair.

Mr. A. J. Tyson, a member of the late firm of Dodds and Tyson, grocers, who until recently occupied the Flat Iron block at the junction of 8th street and Lonsdale, and family left today for Calgary where they will be domiciled for the present. Mr. Tyson, during his comparatively short residence in this city became well and favorably known both in business and social circles. At the present time the greatest loss will be felt in the North Vancouver lacrosse club in which he was a very active member and a strong player on the team.

A MUSICAL FESTIVAL

By desire of the Joint Civic Committee a public meeting of citizens of the City and District will be held in the city hall on Wednesday, the 25th inst., at 8 o'clock p.m. to consider a proposal to hold a musical festival in the city in August next. Full particulars will be put before the meeting and it is most desirable that all who are interested in furthering the interests of the city be present.

SELF HELP FOR THE WEST

The building of the west is one of the great movements of world progress today. The project is so prodigious that it affords scope for the employment of manifold forms of energy gathered from sources scattered far and wide. No one is more forcibly impressed with the fact that if the west were left to develop itself, the process would be hopelessly retarded than is the citizen of the west who is intelligently informed as to the resources and the possibilities of the vast territory designated by that familiar term. In fact the more enthusiastic and loyal the western citizen may be to the land of his adoption, the more deeply conscious will he be of the immense assistance which has been and which yet will be afforded by the east and by the older portions of the world in building the west. At the same time out of that same enthusiasm and loyalty will arise a deep conviction that the west should husband all her own resources and should reserve all her energies for the purposes of self help in order that to the last possible degree western enterprise, western energy, western thought and ideals shall shape the policy of western development, shall build western institutions and develop our magnificent resources. In this sense the maxim "The West for the West" is not the slogan of narrow selfishness, it conveys no unfriendly sentiment toward those incoming tides of helpfulness which are flowing westward from all quarters of the globe, but it voices the conviction of the men of the west, men of strong self-reliance, of sturdy independence, of alert mentality and of energetic enterprise that howsoever extensive and valuable the assistance afforded from other sources may be, yet our best interests require that western brain and brawn shall constitute the hand upon the helm and shall at all times be in control of the process in the making of the west. Any attempt from any source to minimize those characteristics which differentiate the men of the west from those accustomed to the conditions and the spirit of the east can result only in discomfiture. The spirit of the west once it possesses the man works a gradual but real change in his temperament which makes him radically different from what he was previous to his arrival in the west. The forces which make for the "westernization" of the individual are at once cogent and subtile. The process may be imperceptible even to the subject himself, but the results when accomplished are pronounced. The men who have recognized this change, who have yielded themselves to its progress, who have adapted themselves to its requirements and who have accordingly become thoroughly imbued with the spirit of the west, these ought to be and will be the real builders of the great western empire now in course of construction. Methods in vogue in other portions of the globe may be suitable in theory to the needs of the west, but in practice they must be made to adapt themselves to western conditions. Institutions which have proven of the highest value elsewhere may suggest lines of operation which would be of advantage to the west, but in their practical application they must be adjusted to conform to western thought and ideals. The ardent advocate for the importation intact of these methods and institutions to which he was accustomed "at home" is himself a misfit as for the west and will remain so until such time as his ideas have become characterized by that flexibility that will enable him to apprehend the distinctive conditions which obtain in the west and to accept the conclusion that every method or institution, borrowed in any sense from any other portion of the globe, must prove sufficiently pliable to shape itself to the mould of western thought and conditions.

The financial side of this problem presents a forceful example of the desirability of creating distinctively western institutions. The important place which outside capital has hitherto occupied and is destined to occupy in the future in the development of the west but serves to emphasize the desirability of keeping the largest possible proportion of western capital at home for the furtherance of our own interests. The difficulties which, in earlier days, were attendant upon interesting distant capital in western enterprises have happily disappeared and large sums of money are now available for investment purposes. The time was, in the not distant past, when the west occupied the position of a suppliant in the money centres of the world. Conditions in this respect have radically changed and capital to day flows westward in accordance with the commercial law—it gravitates in this direction because here are found the best available opportunities for profitable and safe investment. On the other hand, however, a great deal of western money finds its way into eastward flowing channels which could be used to better advantage at home and by means of which an appreciable impetus might be given western enterprises. For illustration, it is estimated that not less than eleven million dollars per annum is sent from the north western states and British Columbia to the treasuries of insurance companies having their headquarters in New York and this is but one of the many avenues by means of which the east because of its old, wealthy and thoroughly organized financial institutions, is levying heavy tribute upon the west. "There is now forthgathering," says a contemporary, "in the west, a tendency toward the centralization of our own capital in our own companies, the accumulation and investment of surplus at home." There is certainly no reason why western enterprise should not create western financial institutions. There are many instances which might be cited in which this has been accomplished with conspicuous success. In fact western financial institutions because of the enviable opportunities for increment upon funds invested, far in excess of the comparatively low rate which was available to eastern companies at their organization and for many years thereafter have been able to leap at once into the very forefront and have in many instances set a pace which has greatly discomfitted eastern competitors. The building of our own financial companies such as insurance companies, banks, trust companies, loan companies, building societies, etc., should mean greater advantages for those who patronize those institutions and will inevitably have the effect of keeping a very large per centage of our capital at home to be re-invested where it will prove of the greatest service in promoting western interests.

PRELIMINARY ESTIMATES

At a special meeting of the City Council held last week the following preliminary estimates were prepared:

Finance (general)	$16,690
" (loan)	43,533
" (police)	4,856
" (schools)	13,390
Board of Works	33,000
Waterworks	6,500
Fire and light	7,400
Public health	2,000

The consideration of these estimates was deferred to a later meeting. As before noted it is probable that the rate will not exceed 20 mills net.

RUNAWAY

Mr. R. Tarn and friend were the heroes of a runaway accident at the terminus of the Capilano car line Sunday afternoon which resulted with very slight injuries to the occupants of the buggy but considerable damage both to horse and rig. Mr. Tarn was driving a rather spirited animal down the steep hill leading from the Capilano road to the Keith road. When nearly at the bottom an auto came up and the horse started to show his dislike for his new rival. The consequences were that he made a mad rush down the remainder of the slope and failed to make a good turn at the bottom and the rig was upset and Mr. Tarn and his friend submerged in the abundance of loose sand which lies to a considerable depth on the road at that point. The animal charged into the bushes at the side of the road and got so tangled up that his capture was easily affected. Beyond a severe shaking up the two individuals in the buggy were none the worse for their adventure.

TEA GARDENS

Quite a number of visitors took in the Japanese Tea Gardens last Sunday and enjoyed the refreshing coolness of the shady nooks to be found through the park and grounds. The tea house was the objective point for many of the callers and refreshments and tea were served there in a most tasty and refined manner. To the many attractions and novelties already in existence in the gardens is to be added a still more popular piece of architecture and an oddity in Western Canada. Around one of the largest trees in the ground is to be erected a winding stairway up a distance of about 100 feet. There a house observatory 10x16 feet will be built capable of accommodating 30 people. The affair will be unique in these parts and will be a most interesting attraction. Work on this was commenced yesterday.

PRESENTATION

On the occasion of his resignation as secretary of the Seymour Lumber Co., recently Mr. H. C. Wright was presented with a handsome Morris chair as a token of the high esteem in which he was held by the employees of the mill. Mr. Wright has been identified as one of the firm of the Seymour Lumber Co., formerly known as the Diplock Wright mill for a considerable period having been one of the principal factors in engineering it through its early financial strain till now it represents one, if not the largest and soundest concerns in the city. While Mr. Wright has retired from the managing board he still retains his interests in the company which will be carried on in the usual way by Mr. Diplock, one of the principal owners. Mr. Wright is still connected with the lumbering business but only in a private capacity and on his own hook.

The report will be compiled during the week and next Monday evening the official document will be placed before the Aldermen for their consideration. It is understood that the decision of the commission will be final as each of the aldermen have intimated their willingness to abide by the engineers' report.

LYNN VALLEY ATTRACTIONS

Lynn Valley was the objective point of a great number of visitors last Sunday. The new Lynn Valley extension of the B. C. Electric Railway, opened to the public on the Saturday previous, was the attraction and many people took the ride out and back without getting out of the cars just to experience the pleasure of the long ride and enjoy the scenery along the route. The line after leaving the old terminus at the corner of 19th street and Queensbury Avenue first traverses a short piece of thickly wooded territory, delightful to the eye in its primeval beauty. The line then follows the Lynn Valley pipe line road to the terminus located at a point 1200 feet north of the junction of the Hoskins road. This portion is mainly through the cultivated and opened parts of the district with the picturesque Lynn creek and canyon to the east and the long range of snow capped mountains piercing the horizon to the north and west. Much prosperity and advancement is being looked forward to in the Valley as a result of these adequate transportation facilities afforded by a company which has never shown any inclination to be behind the times and in entering into any district with their lines where there was a possibility for growth and development.

The contract for the supplying of 17,000 feet of 16-inch wood main for the Lynn Valley main which was awarded to the Canadian Wood Pipe Co. of Vancouver at Monday evening's meeting of the city council will be delivered through Messrs. Paine & McMillan, local agents. The consignment will occupy 17 cars and will be supplied to the city in lots according to their needs.

WEALTH OF THE FRENCH

The gold stock of the Imperial Bank of Germany is $200,000,000. That of the Bank of England is $180,000,000. But the gold stock of the Bank of France is $700,000,000, and at one moment last year it touched $800,000,000. Take the humble folks of France. Out of a total of 40,000,000 inhabitants 16,000,000 Frenchmen (and women) have government savings bank accounts aggregating $1,000,000,000. As no account may exceed $300 and the average is less than $100, you perceive these are part of the savings of the poor.

It is a world-phenomenon of the hour.

France has become the land of capital, the land of gold.

Automatic processes are making her the world's banker. Of the 10,000,000,000 francs of coined gold in existence, France already has six of them.

M-L The Paint It Pays To Use

THE way M-L Paints are made, the factory-tests they get, and the materials that make them, gives you most for your money in a can labelled

Made in 40 shades, for every use paint can serve, indoors or out. Cover as much and last LONGER than other paints. Ask your dealer why—and read the guarantee in his store.

M-L Pure Paints

Never sold in bulk—always in tins. Made by Imperial Varnish and Color Co., Limited, of Toronto. Sold locally by North Vancouver Hardware Co.

The process is simple. Three hundred and sixty-four days a year the average Frenchman (or woman) "puts aside" something; and that something is coined gold.

Their industries not employing their gold savings, they loan them to neighboring governments on one condition, that the interests be paid in gold. From this source they draw, each $180,000,000 more gold.

DOMINION DAY

Messrs. Irwin and Billings have plans completed for a two story block to be erected on their property at the south-west corner of Lonsdale avenue and 15th street. The new structure is designed for stores or offices on the street floor and flats above.

A PROSPECTOR'S TRUST

Human nature is an unknown quantity in a great many cases but here in the west even among men whose early history was wild and woolly, for such is the reputation that is claimed for them, the better part of human nature has not been crowded into obscurity by the rush for the almighty dollars as the following story illustrates in connection with the bonding of the Elsie group of claims in the Bayonne district, by William Maher, the famous prospector and miner of Nelson and the Sheep Creek country. About two years ago Eddie Doolan, son of Larry Doolan, one of the old timers of the C.P.R., and during his lifetime well known and respected in all parts of the Kootenays, was out for a holiday with William Maher and his partner, Angus Curry. Along toward August, 1908, they were away up in the wide spaces amongst the lakes, glaciers and peaks above the Bayonne group. The ground about them looked promising and an examination proved it was far better than its appearance. A group of five claims was marked off, the Elsie, Wilson, Tennie, Ore Hill and Gold Nugget, the first being staked in the name of William Maher.

A Claim for the Boy

"This claim is for you, Ed," said Maher to young Doolan, who was with him. "You are too young to get a miner's certificate, but I'll keep the claim for you." "I'll pay for the recording and have the work done on it anyhow," replied Doolan. "That is the least I ought to do."

"You'll do nothing of the sort Ed," said Maher. "Didn't I tell you the claim was yours that I was giving it to you?"

Without a line of writing, there the matter stood, on the bare word of Wm. Maher. But he comes of the stock of Mahers of Tipperary, Ireland, who are renowned for pluck and loyal to the death.

The whole thing had almost passed from young Doolan's mind when his attention was most sharply and pleasantly recalled to it by the receipt of a letter recently from Wm. Maher dated from Vancouver on the 30th April and running as follows:

An Agreeable Letter

"Dear Eddie—Enclosed please find bank cheque for $225, being 25 per cent paid on the price of the Elsie, the claim I staked for you. I have bonded the group. Hoping you are prospering. Yours, William Maher."

Which means that Wm. Maher has made young Doolan (he has barely turned his 18th year) a present of $4,500.

Big Hearted Prospectors

It makes one feel better to have the pleasure of recording an act like this, when from end to end of the land men sworn and pledged to do right are doing wrong for the dollar that is in the selling of their oath and their honor. They dread the public shame more than the secret guilt. It gives one an abiding faith in average human nature to know there are men of the Maher character amongst us. Wherever else one may find them, they certainly are to be found amongst the big-hearted prospectors. More luck to their picks. Burns was gowd for a' that."

right: "The rank is but the guinea's stamp, the man's the

Those who know Doolan and hear of the matter say: "Well done for young Ed. He is worthy of Maher's friendship; and Maher must be a prince." That is about the right of it.

CONFLAGRATION

The residence of Mr. Harry Page on 14th street west of Jones Avenue was totally destroyed by fire last evening about 5 o'clock. The fire is supposed to have originated in the roof near the chimney and before the local brigade could reach the scene the flames had gutted the building.

Through the assistance of neighbors most of the house effects were removed, including the range which was taken through a hole which was broken in the side of the house. The loss is estimated to be between $500 and $800. It was not covered by insurance.

ASSESSOR WANTED
