CITY COUNCILLORS AND EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY

COUNCIL INCENSED AT LETTER RECEIVED LAST EVENING

Among the city's correspondence last evening was a letter from the Employers' Liabilities Insurance Co. in reference to an accident which occurred recently to William Spence, a city employee. He was engaged in driving a garbage wagon and while crossing over the street car tracks, a sudden jolt of the wagon threw him from his seat to the ground, as a result of which he sustained the injuries from which he is now suffering.

"In our minds," the letter stated, "this is not a case to whic' the Workmen's Compensation Act will apply, neither is there negligence on the part of the city authorities or those put in superintendence by them that would entitle Spence to damages under the Employers' Liability Act or Common law. We, therefore, do not consider that you are legally liable for the accident and consequently cannot authorise any settlement with Spence on our behalf.

Ald. Dick, immediately upon the reading of this letter, moved that the city solicitors should be given power to "cancel every bit of insurance we have with that company, if this kind of treatment is the kind they are going to hand out to us."

Ald. Irwin agreed that the matter should be referred to the city solicitor but pointed out that this policy did not expire until April. The alderman thought a resolution embodying the opinion of the council for the benefit of the incoming council would be sufficient.

Ald. Dick argued, however, that one council does not influence another. Very few of the present council were going to occupy the same seats next year, and those newly in authority would not be familiar with the question and would not understand the treatment received by this council at the hands of the company. "It is right up to us," said Ald. Dick, "to do the city's business and not pass it over to next year's council. As a matter of fact we do not need Employers' Liability at all. The speaker then moved that the city solicitor be written to and that notice of cancellation be given to the company.

Ald. Fraser seconded this.

The mayor advised that the matter be merely referred to the solicitor for the time being and that the motion for cancellation be held back for one week in order to look into exactly what financial obligations such action will involve.

After considerable discussion Ald. Dick agreed to this course on condition that the matter was finally dealt with one week hence and not left to the incoming council. "We do not want to pass along to the next council the graft which we have been up against this year," the alderman explained.

REEVE MAY WILL SEEK RE-ELECTION IN DISTRICT

EXPRESSES WILLINGNESS ON RECEIPT OF SEVERAL STRONG PETITIONS

Reeve W. H. May upon receipt of several lengthily-signed petitions, has agreed to seek re-election to the office of reeve of the district of North Vancouvr. So far Mr. May has the field to himself, and it is generally believed that he will be returned by acclamation.

This being so, Mr. May will enter upon his nineteenth term of office—a record quite unrivalled on the North Shore. During the last few days he has been in receipt of no fewer than six distinct petitions, containing in all over two hundred representative names.

REEVE W. H. MAY

Interviewed this morniong, the reeve said that he very much appreciated the confidence evidently reposed in him by the district electorate, and stated that as they wished, he was willing to seek office again.

PACIFIC GREAT EASTERN CONSTRUCTION IN FULL SWING

GREATEST ACTIVITY BETWEEN LILLOOET AND PEMBERTON MEADOWS

TOTE ROAD UNDER WAY FROM BRACKENDALE TO PEMBERTON

HOSPITAL SERVICE SPECIALLY COMMENDED

COMPANY'S OFFICIALS ARE NOT MAKING LAND PURCHASES AT NEWPORT AS REPORTED

Mr. A. Kellett, superintendent of works on the line of construction of the Pacific Great Eastern railway, returned yesterday from a trip of inspection. Mr. Kellett stated to an Express representative that work is now running full blast westward from Lillooet along Seaton and Anderson lake and as far west as Birkenhead summit.

Supplies are being hauled in from Lytton by forty four-horse teams which average a round trip in about five days. The company has constructed two road houses along the forty-nine mile haul, one known as twenty-mile and the other as forty-mile house at which accommodation is provided, not only for teamsters and their horses, but also for men going in looking for work.

The construction headquarters are established at the foot of Seaton lake, about three miles west from Lillooet and between that point and Birkenhead summit there are eight camps in all. Work is now opened up along the entire length of Seaton lake (fifteen miles) and a total force of about 400 men is employed. Between Seaton and Anderson lakes there is a portage of three miles and upon the latter lake considerable clearing has been done. The entire length of the lake is under contract and station men are at work at severel points on the necessary work in preparation for extensive operations. On Seaton lake the company has a gasoline tug and scow which makes a round trip daily from headquarters down the lake and back. On Anderson lake a similar tug and scow is under construction and will be in commission within three weeks.

The contract for construction from Birkenhead summit, four miles west from Anderson Lake to Pemberton Meadows, has been awarded to Mr. P. J. Sambas and one camp has already been established at the summit.

A total force of four hundred men is at work between headquarters and Birkenhead summit.

On the western end, a force of from 250 to 300 men is at work grading the first five miles from the end of the track near Brackendale, to the foot of Bear mountain It is expected that track will be laid on this five miles this winter and when that is done the headquarters will be established at Bear mountain.

Three wagon road camps, containing one hundred men are at work on the construction of a wagon road from Brackendale to Pemberton Meadows. The most difficult portion of this road building is that section at the top of Bear Mountain, but it is expected that this will be completed in January and it is the intention to push the construction as long as weather conditions and the depth of snow will permit. Work from the western end would have been much farther advanced had it not been for the necessity of building this wagon road. It was the intention to make every possible effort to hasten the completion of the wagon road in order that contractors may be at work on railway construction through to Pemberton Meadows at the earliest possible date.

Mr. Kellett referred in terms of the strongest commendation to the excellence of the hospital service which is being provided by Dr. Newcombe of the firm of Newcombe and Martin of this city. Mr. Kellett declared that the accommodation was excellent and the service of the best. He declared that in point of fact he considered the hospital system on the lines of the Pacific Great Eastern the best that had ever been provided on any construction work which Foley, Welch and Stewart had undertaken. Dr. Newcombe had been previously associated with the company in a similar capacity at Midway and the entire staff was greatly pleased that this important department of the work was in such capable hands. There was no feature of the provisions for construction which played a more important part in the contentment of the entire force than did the medical attendance and the hospital service and it was most gratifying to note that these were in this instance of the highest order.

Mr. E. White, business manager of the head offices of the firm of P. Welch and Co., has gathered an efficient staff and has his department thoroughly organized and in excellent working order. In conversation with an Express representative Mr. White observed that he had recently noticed a newspaper paragraph which credited a resident of Newport with declaring that officials of the Pacific Great Eastern were purchasing extensive land holdings in the vicinity of Newport. Mr. White declared that this report was altogether erroneous. To his knowledge, no officials of the company were purchasing individual holdings of property at or near Newport. The impression that such was being done was doubtless due to a confusion of the purchases of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway Company or of the Pacific Great Eastern Development Company with individual operations. The effort, therefore, to boost Newport on the strength of alleged purchases on the part of individual officials was mistaken and misleading.

Tenders for City Hall Site

SPECIAL MEETING NEXT MONDAY AFTERNOON

The question arose last evening during the meeting of the council of the tenders received and tabulated for North Vancouver's future city hall site.

Ald. Foreman was anxious, as the night was yet young, to have the tenders considered and some final action taken at the close of the transaction of the general business of the meeting.

Ald. Dick, however, pointed out that Ald. Irwin had felt obliged to leave the meeting early, and he particularly wished that alderman to be present when the matter was taken up as he believed Ald. Irwin held views on the subject opposed to his own. In any case, Ald. Dick thought the matter should be settled by a full meeting of the council.

After some discussion in order to meet as far as possible the convenience of the councillors at such a season as the present one, and in order to incur as little sacrifice as possible on their parts, a meeting was arranged to take place for the above purpose on Monday next at 4 o'clock

West Vancouver Council

FAVORS MUNICIPALLY OWNED LIGHTING SYSTEM

COUNCILLOR MERRICK SUBMITS FIGURES IN RELATION TO FERRY SERVICE

At a meeting of the West Vancouver district council, held yesterday, a letter was received from the British Columbia Electric Railway Co., Ltd., stating that the company would favorably consider the extension of their electric lighting system to West Vancouver.

Upon the reading of this communication Coun. Merrick submitted a motion expressing the council's desire for a municipal lighting system. This resolution was carried on the seconding of Coun. Mathers, who pointed out that it was the policy of the present council to have all its public utilities municipally owned.

Figures were submitted to the council showing that the West Vancouver ferries have carried 90,000 passengers since they were taken over and operated by the municipality, late in the month of June. Councillor Merrick, secretary of the ferry company, offered the following statistics: July and the last few days of June, 20,721 fares collected; August, 21,427; September, 16,546; October, 12,832; November, 10,440. Passengers for this month will about equal those of November.

The decline in the number of passengers carried as the winter sets in is given by Councillor Merrick and many property owners as one of the principal reasons why tramway connection should be inaugurated between West Vancouver and the city of North Vancouver. In the opinion of the members of the council the difference in November's aggregate and that of August is made up largely of persons who would rather, partly because of the small vessels and the rough passage through the First Narrows, travel to the municipality by land, as stated by several speakers at a recent meeting of the Board of Trade. A car service to West Vancouver would be patronized for this reason as largely in winter as in summer.

The council decided to proceed immediately with the construction of the Capilano bridge. The North Vancouver district council was asked to forward the proceeds of the $50,000 by-law as soon as possible.

The health, street and highways by-laws were given final readings.

City Council in Session Last Night

ADOPTION OF REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

The regular meeting of the city council last evening lasted only an hour and a half This was due to the rather unusually small heap of correspondence which awaited attention, the regular petitioners for sidewalks and other conveniences having, apparently, decided to now withhold any further inkslinging in this direction until the new council is in power.

Mr. J. B. Walker, however, applied for a sidewalk to his home on 16th street while Mr. T. Howard renewed a one-year-old application for a light at the corner of Sutherland avenue and 18th street. Both matters were referred to their appropriate committees.

The following reports of committees of the council were then adopted:

Finance Committee—

Recommended that the city clerk make the necessary affidavit as to loss of deed to city hall site, Hammersley to District of N. V. after making a few necessary minor alterations.

Recommended that the assessment roll be returned by the assessor to the city clerk on Monday, January 6th, at 8 o'clock p.m. and that the court of revision of the assessment roll be held on Tuesday, 25th, February, 1913, at 10 a.m. The tax notices to be printed accordingly.

Board of Works:

Re letter from Howes, Proctor & Co. asking permission to stand one of the traction engines on the boulevard on the south side of the Esplanade near the corner of St. George's avenue. Recommended that Howes, Proctor be replied that in terms of the by-law the council cannot give this permission.

Re letter from Thompson & Stuart asking for settlement of the balance due them in respect of the contracts for grading 13th and 15th streets. Recommended that engineer report as to what would be the cost of removing the boulders left by Thompson & Stuart on those streets when the weather is more suitable for doing so.

Re petition from W. J. Patton and others asking for the repairing of 18th street between Mahon and Jones ave. Referred to incoming council.

Re letter from the city engineer recommending the payment of the sum of $15,480.38 being the cost of the filling in and bulk heads in D. L. 265 at the foot of Fell and Bewicke avenues. Recommended that this payment be made.

Re letter from Russel, Russel & Hancox regarding claims by laborers against Tolosoy and Varr. The matter was left in the hands of the chairman and the engineer to see the city solicitor and report.

Re letter from Herbert Day asking for the repairing of 18th street near his house at 344 18th street west. Left in the hand of the city engineer to report.

Re letter from Thos. Irwin asking for the continuation of a sidewalk on 2nd street from lot 15-155 easterly to St. George's avenue. Recommended that this work be carried out.

Park Committee—

Re offer from Sydney Jefferd to purchase the cord wood in Mahon Park amounting to 15 cords more or less for the sum of $2 per cord

Recommended that this offer be not accepted.

Recommended that the cord wood in question be purchased by the fire and light committee for use in the fire halls and that the fire and light committee be debited and the parks committee be credited with the value of the same calculated at the rate of $2.50 per cord.

Fire and Light Committee—

Recommended that arc lights be installed in the following locations:

15th street between Delbrooke and Bewicke, the exact position to be indicated by the fire and light committee; 17th and Ridgeway, 24th and Larson Road.

Re recommendation from the fire chief that Driver Bennett be insured against accident. Recommended that this be done.

Re letter from J. N. Boult regarding arc lamp at the corner of 23rd and Grand Boulevard. Recommended that Mr. Boult be replied to that owing to shortage of cut in switches the B. C. E. have been unable to install all lamps ordered of which this was one, but that it is expected that the lamp will shortly be installed.

K. P. Concert and Christmas Tree

The K. P. hall last night was the scene of a most enjoyable concert and Christmas tree given for the families of the members of the Knights of Pythias Order and their friends. The hall was very prettily decorated with strings of evergreens, holly, Christmas bells and colored lights. The program consisted of choruses, solos, recitations and step dancing contributed principally by the children. Mr. Herbert Reid performed the duties of chairman. The first chorus and dance by a number of little girls prettily costumed in white was beautifully rendered and received great applause. Their pretty performance was the result of the training of Miss Annie Heard.

Miss Dolly Heard appeared in a dainty Spanish dance, while two very small youngsters, Miss Helen Stone and Master Jimmy Reid, gave recitations. Mr. T. Fawcett Rowe sang with excellent effect "The Star of Bethlehem" and an encore. Miss Stratton, who is a visitor to the city, played the accompaniments and was accorded due thanks through the chairman. Mr. Murphy played the role of Santa Claus most efficiently in the distribution of prizes.

Bylaws to be Voted on at Coming Election

TO BE CONSIDERED AT NEXT MEETING OF COUNCIL

At the next meeting of the council attention will be given to the by laws which it is proposed to submit to the electors at the coming election These are for the following purposes:

Vancouver subway, $28,000.

Purchase of plant for street improvements, $15,000

Making, repairing and improving roads and streets and the construction of new sidewalks, $25,000.

A recommendation was received from the Board of Works to this effect last evening but for technical reasons, this recommendation was not adopted along with other recommendations of the committee The matter will be decided at the next meeting of the council, and instructions given to the city clerk accordingly.

Police Court Cases

Geo. Parker, a Hawaiian, was last Thursday charged with having assaulted a lady on Sunday night at 3rd street west and Mahon avenue. The evidence of the lady was very strong and positive as regards identification. The witnesses for the prosecution put forward such conflicting evidence the nature of which was contrary to that given by them on the previous day, that the whole thing appeared to be a frame up.

In summing up Magistrate Ruggles stated that he considered the evidence strong enough to put the accused on his defence. The evidence of the accused was already conflicting and on the evidence of the assaulted lady, which was unquestionable in every way, the party accused was found guilty and sentenced to one year in the provincial gaol. He was taken to New Westminster on Friday.

Mr. J. H. Pilling May Contest Ward Five

The name of Mr. J. H. Pilling is mentioned as a probable candidate for alderman for Ward Five. It is understood that Mr. Pilling has been approached in this regard, but has not yet definitely announced his willingness to stand.

Open Forum Meetings

The subject discussed at the open forum in K P. Hall last Sunday afternoon was the ever-present one of residents receiving preference on all local work. As most of those present were residents a resolution was carried to urge the city fathers to take action in this matter.

The members being unanimous in favour of the meetings being continued, and held at 7:30 p.m. instead of in the afternoon as formerly, it was so ordered.

The subject for discussion next Sunday evening is "Belief vs. Knowledge." The meetings are mass meetings of citizens conducted by themselves. Admission is free to all.

BOTTLE LICENSE PLEBISCITE

To the Editor of the Express

Sir:—About nine months ago I wrote to the city council suggesting it was desirable that in the possible event of a bottle license being granted the wishes of the citizens should be ascertained beforehand, as I knew that a number of citizens were anxious that the Norwegian system of fixed and limited profits (with all surplus profits above 5 per cent being donated to objects of public utility) should be given a trial in this city. In order to obtain some record of public opinion on this point, I at the same time offered to pay for such a plebiscite.

I was present at the council meeting when my offer was brought up, and this is what happened. Alderman Dick at once moved that the matter should be referred to the licensing commission. This was seconded by Alderman Foreman and carried unanimously.

When my offer was thus brought before the licensing commissioners, they unanimously recommended that it should be accepted and that the plebiscite suggested should be taken at the same time as the civic elections.

Though I have had no notification of the fact, I see from the press that the city aldermen, notwithstanding the unanimous recommendation of the licensing commissioners, to whom they unanimously referred the matter, have by a vote of four to two refused to allow the plebiscite to be taken, two of these negative votes being given by the very aldermen who moved that the question should be referred to the licensing commissioners; while a third negative vote was given by an alderman who gave me a positive assurance that the recommendation of the licensing commissioners would be accepted by the council. As I submit that this is a matter of public interest, I shall be obliged if you will make these facts public.

In regard to the general issue I desire to add a few words That a bottle license must inevitably be granted before long in this city will hardly be disputed by any unprejudiced person; and it becomes a matter of vital importance that such a license, when granted, shall be granted in such a way as shall least endanger the cause of temperance.

I would urge that both on moral and also on economic grounds the Norwegian system of fixed limited profits should be given a trial. From the economis at avoid the re-opening of com[illegible] standpoint, there can surely be no question as to the advantage of such a system. Instead of all the profits going into the pocket of some private individual, employment would be given to a trustworthy manager at a good (fixed) salary; while all the surplus profits above 5 per cent. would be available for objects of public utility; and after making inquiries from reliable sources I understand that the sum so available would be from $2000 to $5000 a year. As such a license would have a practical monopoly I can quite believe these figures are not exaggerated.

The moral gain would, it appears to me, be equally great. Under this system there is no temptation to "push" the sale of alcohol, as the profits are limited to a bare return on the capital invested; while the supervision of a committee of independent citizens (such as have already offered to serve in this capacity) would insure the strict enforcement of the act. Lastly, the fact that all the accounts would be open to public inspection would be an additional safeguard. I hope, there-

Yours, etc.,
RUSSELL E. MACNAGHTEN.

Langho, 1451 Mahon Avenue,
North Vancouver, Dec. 21, 1912.
The Editor North Vancouver Express.

Dear Sir:—The ratepayers of North Vancouver ought to be much obliged by Mr. S. Humphreys' explanation that a loss of $800 is not a loss. Up to now the ratepayers have understood that the debentures floated were 4½ per cent.; we are now informed that they are 4⅞ per cent.

If an owner sold his property to the city say for $12,000, the ratepayers pass the bylaw for it, would the owner be content to accept $11,200? We voted a short time ago for the Burrard Inlet Bridge and Tunnel Company $150,000. Will they be content to receive $140,000? If not, the bylaw was misrepresented to the ratepayers and they ought to have been asked to vote $160,000, so that $10,000 could be spent in handing the $150,000 over to the bridge company. If this had been put before the ratepayers plainly it is quite a question if all the bylaws would have received the hearty support that they have up to the present time.

So far our candidates for mayor all pin their faith in the interest they take in the Second Narrows bridge, yet not one up to now has pointed out a single advantage that North Vancouver or any other municipality is going to receive from this undertaking This is one of the most prominent interests, not only to North Vancouver and the municipalities that have invested money in it, but it ought to become a question of interest to the whole of Canada It cannot support itself for years to come and, will require perpetual help, both from Ottawa and Victoria. Other schemes have been gently mooted, and it ought to be the duty of every candidate to keep a very open mind on so important a project. There must yet be in Canada many good engineers that are capable of solving the Narrows question in a much less risky way.

Yours truly,
HUBERT KITCHIN.

To the Editor of the Express.

Sir:—As year after year I have been asked to allow my name to be put in [illegible] for nomination for municipal positions and in your issue of the 10th note that a request is being circulated for signature asking me to represent Ward V for 1913, I take this opportunity (in order that no time may be lost in bringing out a representative for the ward) to emphatically state that under no circumstances whatever would I assume any position on behalf of the ratepayers of the North Shore after the unwarrantable treatment received at their hands ten years ago. It would hardly agree with my idea of right and wrong to represent any place that repudiates its own signed, sealed and confirmed documents; moreover, more so after learning that the Court of Appeal had been given in error and that the ratepayers have never taken any steps whatever to have same rectified.

Yours truly,
WILLIAM L. KEENE.

Election Platform

SEWERAGE QUESTION IS CITED AS CHIEF PLANK

Mr. Alexander Smith, who last week consented to enter the field for the pending mayoral election, has formulated a comprehensive "platform," which will be found below, embodied in a letter addressed to the city's electorate:—

To the Electors of the City of North Vancouver

Ladies and Gentlemen:

After much pressure and repeated solicitation of a very large number of friends, comprising ratepayers and citizens, I have consented to accept nomination, and beg to offer myself as candidate for the office of mayor. I respectfully and earnestly ask your support at the forthcoming election in January, 1913.

My qualifications for this high office are known to you all, and I am led to believe that my long residence and experience of the city's needs, my business connection with the city and my record during the previous four and one-half years that I conscientiously served you, fully qualify me and warrant my candidature

Sewerage.—The question of a comprehensive and efficient system of sewerage for all time is to my mind of the most vital importance. I really believe it is essentially necessary that we engage the services of an expert engineer in this special department of engineering to examine the present system without further delay and to set our minds at rest that such a system is or is not the best for this city. A comparatively small outlay now would save many times the expense in the future. I am convinced we should profit by the mistakes made by the city of Vancouver, which now, after twenty years' experience and acting on the advice of numerous engineers, finds it imperatively necessary to rearrange its system. Considering the future health of the citizens, as well as the small cost financially now, I am confident the expenditure would be a wise one.

Streets.—I am of the opinion that wherever possible streets should be made of a permanent nature. In the main streets of the city I would advocate the laying of cement sidewalks and utilizing the plank sidewalks at present in use for the extension of side

Public Utilities.—I am a firm believer in municipal ownership, especially as regards all undertakings of public utility, and it has pleased me to see that the present council has already turned their attention to the terms of the present lighting agreement, which expires shortly.

Second Narrows Bridge.—I have consistently worked to help forward in every possible manner the speedy construction of the Second Narrows bridge and shall continue to use my best efforts to this end.

Civic Centres.—The early establishment of a permanent civic centre for the city is to my mind of the highest importance; but as the present council has this matter now under consideration, I consider any further remarks would be ill-timed.

Tramway Services.—The representation recently made by the District of West Vancouver seeking the co-operation of the Board of Trade and citizens of the North Shore generally to aid them in getting the B. C. Electric Railway Company to extend their car service into West Vancouver is of great importance and will receive my support, for in my opinion much benefit and business to the merchants of this city would result.

Public Parks and Open Places.—I may state that it was at my suggestion that Mahon Park was purchased by the city in 1911. In the past I have strongly upheld such policy, and did all I possibly could to induce the city to purchase the Lonsdale Gardens in conjunction with the ferry system, but unfortunately without success.

Mayor's Salary.—As I interpret the statutes, no provision is made for a mayor's salary, except in cities having a population of 20,000. I am far from desirous of placing the responsibility on the council of voting me any emolument by resolution, and if elected I can promise to serve the electors to the best of my ability without such unprovided remuneration.

Yours faithfully,
ALEXANDER SMITH.

GOVERNMENT NAVAL POLICY

Canada includes among her citizens those who hold all sorts and shades of opinion with reference to a naval policy for the Dominion and each person is entitled to the privilege of any opinion which he holds and advocates in sincerity

It is not desirable, however, in the national interests that opinions should be formed and advanced upon the basis of political expediency The issue is one of grave import to Canada as the inauguration of a militant naval policy will mark an epoch in the national development of this country. It is one, therefore, in the consideration of which the clear and unbiased judgment of the Canadian citizenship should be supreme. Any attempt to appeal to political partizanship or to other prejudices cannot be too strongly condemned. The issue is one which should be faced and decided in the clear and unmixed light of national interests and by the unclouded judgment of broad unprejudiced citizenship.

The legislation introduced in the Dominion House by Right Hon. R. L. Borden will carry with it, not only the support of a large majority of the members of the House, but of Canadian citizens as well, in all parts of the Dominion. The bill provides for an immediate contribution, the proportions of which are becoming the position of Canada, as the first of the overseas dominions and it also indicates the out lines of a permanent policy, the development of which will launch Canada on a naval career upon a sane and solid basis.

The British Admiralty has unmistakeably intimated that in their opinion an emergency exists at the present time in the relation of the British navy to those of other countries. In the opinion of all well informed British subjects this opinion will be accepted as final and any Canadian legislator who attempts to assail that opinion will succeed only in heavily discounting his own reputation.

In the face of an emergency, the bill presents Canada's response in the form in which it will prove most significant and most effective. It is idle to contend that the ships provided by Canada should be built in this country and under no circumstances in England. To attempt to follow such a course under existing conditions would neutralize the purpose of the contribution and destroy its effect. Ships of the type designated in the Bill (specifically suggested by the Admiralty as the sort required) could not be built in Canada, and to undertake to build such portions as could be constructed in this country would entail such slow progress as to cast ridicule on the whole undertaking, as an emergency contribution. In order to prove an effective measure, it is imperative that the bill make such provision for speedy construction as can be met only by having recourse to the facilities which the ship building industry of Great Britain alone provides.

At the same time, the bill contains clauses which point conclusively to the incorporation of Canadian built ships, in the British navy, in that it is agreed that the Admiralty will place orders for light cruisers with Canadian builders This is a businesslike policy. It will not be at all a formidable task to place the Canadian shipbuilding industry in position to produce vessels of this class within the near future and at the same time, from this beginning the industry can be developed along safe and intelligent lines to the point at which it is on a par with the best plants in the world for the production of the largest battleships. This is a process, however, for the completion of which a considerable number of years will inevitably be required. It places Canada in a position of tremendous advantage, in that this country will be privileged to build up this great national industry under the aegis of the greatest shipbuilders in the world, the British naval yards. The bill now before parliament, therefore, makes adequate provision for the production of a Canadian built navy at the earliest possible date compatible with sound common sense.

The position that Canadian warships should be manned by Canadian seamen is likewise one with which all citizens will sympathize, without respect to political or class distinctions. This likewise is a desideratum which can be attained only by a process of education and the lapse of time. The effort to procure Canadian enlistments for the Rainbow and the Niobe as the nucleus of a Canadian navy proved a dismal failure. It was very unfortunate that the ships were of a type practically discarded by the British navy and in themselves were therefore designed to give Canadian youth at the outset an unfavorable impression of naval service and to prejudice their minds against a naval career. The mischief is done however and this unsuccessful experiment will but render it the more difficult to accomplish ultimate success in procuring Canadian recruits for a Canadian navy.

It is quite evident that the chief source of supply for manning such a navy must be sought in Canada's seafaring population. On the Atlantic coast there is a very large population of this order, but on the Pacific the situation is altogether different. Time was when our Pacific coast fisheries were in the hands of a white population and gave promise of rapid development along these lines. The ill advised policy adopted by the Laurier administration, however, had the effect of forcing the white men to abandon the fisheries and in their place, handed the fisheries over entirely to the Japanese, who have not lost any opportunity to turn this circumstance to their own advantage and to that of their nation as well. The result is that at the present time our population making their homes on the waterfront and their living out of the waters, is composed altogether of an alien people, who are anything but disposed to enlist in a Canadian navy. From recent regulations which have been passed, legislation which is to be enacted and other movements which have been set on foot by the present government, it is evident that a determined effort is about to be made to rescue our fisheries from their present foreign ownership and to restore them to representatives of our own race. In the course of a few years, there is a probability therefore that British Columbia will again boast a large and prosperous white population, engaged in our coast fisheries, and one formidable obstacle in the way of obtaining Canadian seamen for Canadian war ships will have been removed.

Even although every encouragement be extended to building up a large population accustomed to the sea, as a basis of supply for naval forces, it can not be expected that it will be found an easy task to induce individuals from among that population to forsake their occupation for a naval career The strict discipline of the navy bears the aspect of a curtailment of personal liberties which does not appear inviting to one who has not been accustomed thereto. In fact it would seem that the only successful way of attacking this problem would be by means of inducements offered to boys in early years to join training ships and thus by a gradual process to build up a source of supply for manning Canadian ships.

To talk glibly about "Canadian built ships manned by Canadian seamen" is easy enough, but to work that some problem out upon a successful basis in the face of the practical difficulties by which it is beset, is an entirely different matter The policy of the Borden government takes serious cognizance of these difficulties and is a sincere and businesslike effort to perform Canada's immediate duty to the Empire, while also setting in motion a process from which Canada will emerge in due course, strong and self reliant as a real naval power.

CANADA'S MUNICIPAL BORROWINGS

A writer in a recent number of the "Dominion Magazine" makes some forceful and pertinent observations under the heading "Is Canada Overborrowing?" with reference to the assertion that is made in some quarters that Canadian municipalities are exceeding the limits of sound business in the large issues of debenture bonds which they are constantly placing on the market.

Although the statistics given in the article refer mainly to the city of Winnipeg, the principles and circumstances involved are common to practically all Canadian municipalities

The recent census, declares the author of the article, affords a valuable basis of comparison for approaching the

"Within a period of 40 years Montreal shows a population gain of 355,480; Toronto a gain of 317,538; Winnipeg a gain of 135,794 Vancouver's growth within a 30-year period was 100,401. The growth of these cities has been largely due to immigration, accordingly the question is in order as to whether the same cause is to continue to operate in the decades just ahead. In any event it is apparent that the flow of European immigration into the United States has reached its flood-tide and may be expected to show a gradual ebb from this time forward. But in 1911 over 300,000 immigrants came to Canada, and the record for 1912 will be considerably larger. Expansion and development must advance hand in hand with population increase. Has any other country at any period of its growth ever received such gigantic and continuous accretion to its productive resources as has Canada during a single decade? Could Winnipeg or any other Canadian city have stood back or declined to accept the responsibilities of such a situation as has presented itself during the past decade? With assessable property increasing in value from $28,615,810 in 1902 to $172,677,250 in 1912, could the city's management have adopted any other course than to come back repeatedly year after year with the request for further and still further extensions of credit from the money markets? Was not the situation an almost unparalleled tax upon the commercial ability of those in charge of the city's affairs? And especially shall it not be recorded to their perpetual honor that the civic records of Winnipeg have never been blotted with a single stain of unfaithfulness or scandal in the handling of this colossal financial programme?"

Taking up in detail the proposals of the critics of Canadian municipal finance, the correspondent continues: "Granting, however, that our pace is a rapid one, have we yet heard one reasonable suggestion for stopping it? Is it proposed to pass laws prohibiting certain pieces of land from becoming worth more than a certain amount? Is it proposed to limit the railways to a certain percentage of betterments and new mileage based on present physical valuation, at a time when they are absolutely unable to handle the traffic actually being offered them? Is it argued that large and small municipalities throughout the west, with established records of population increase running all the way from 100 to 1500 per cent per year should draw in their horns, take shelter in the storm cellar, and refuse to provide further for the absolutely urgent requirements of the new population in the way of streets, sewers, transportation, lighting, schools and public buildings? These and such proposals all appear childish when stated in their simplest terms—yet upon analysis the majority of the proposals of the self appointed critics of Western municipal finance will be found to resolve themselves into the guileless simplicity of the suggestions just outlined."

The position taken above is one which will command the approval of all those who base their conclusions on conditions as they actually exist. The increase in population and the corresponding development of the country is such as to lay obligations upon municipal governing bodies such as only crass stupidity could ignore or seek to evade. Allegiance to the rudimentary principles of sound business procedure renders any other course impossible than that every effort should be made to keep municipal progress throughout Canada well abreast of the general growth and development of the country. In endeavoring to procure the money which is necessary for this purpose the city and district municipalities are following the only sane and sound judgment and the enterprising spirit of the ratepayers but manifests likewise the fact that Canadian citizens are fully convinced that such is the only course which will enable Canada to overtake the immense benefits which are to be derived from the opportunity for national development and enrichment which a focus of peculiarly favorable world conditions has placed at her very doors

Canadian offerings will necessarily be subject to the fluctuations of the money market, but upon the basis of the security offered it is safe to say that Canadian credit will remain second to none on the London market, and further that Canadian issues will hold their place as prime favorites among the municipals which are offered from time to time

On a charge of "Mal-administration of a Public Trust," to wit, the Institute Hall, the trustees of the Institute are to undergo an enquiry in the Institute shortly The court will be presided over by S D. Scoultz, with Mr. Dan McNairnie acting as clerk of the court. The jury will be chosen from the residents of Lynn Valley. Many witnesses have already been subpoened, and counsel for the prosecution claims to have some very damaging evidence regarding the mismanagement of the public's hall. It has been discussed for some time past, but has now reached a climax and the trustees have to face the result of their alleged misdeeds being brought to light in a court of justice.

Masquerade Ball

The masquerade ball last Friday evening was an unqualified success, from the standpoint of numbers, costumes, music and supper. The committee are to be congratulated that they were able to attract such a large company so close to Christmas, and more especially seeing the hall had been so regularly in use of late. The success of the other attractions, however, took nothing from the ball, for besides many visitors there was a large representation of Lynn Valley folk. The costumes were various to a degree, and some very beautiful as well as some ludicrous ones were in the parade The judges were Messrs. The first prize for ladies was awarded to a local lady, Mrs. Burrows, dressed as Queen of Hearts, while the second was given to a North Vancouver lady dressed as a cowboy. The first prize for men was awarded to Mr C. Duff, conductor on the B. C. E. R., who gave an excellent representation of a hobo, while the second prize winner in the men's section was won by a visitor dressed as a courtier. Supper was presided over by Mesdames Fromme, Shaw, Adams and Westover, and was much enjoyed. The party broke up about two o'clock and so good was it considered by those present that it was decided to extend the season for another week, and instead of last Friday being the last dance of the season, as was intended, there will be another next Friday night and in the hall as usual.

It was a girl from Iceland who was sent to a Harlem flat by an employment agent to do the housework. The mistress asked her to state her accomplishments. She could not cook, it seemed, nor wash dishes, nor do the weekly wash, nor make beds, nor sweep, nor dust. "Then, what in the world can you do?" asked the exasperated housewife. "Vell," said the girl, shyly. "Ay skoll milk do reindeer."

Estimating the population at 200,000, Vancouver has a greater number of policemen per capita than any other city in Canada. Vancouver has 1 policeman for every 445 inhabitants; Montreal, 1 for every 666, and Winnipeg 1 for every 1151.

That Vancouver will soon become the second largest city in Canada is the firm conviction of T. H. The city council has endorsed a scheme of the park board for the erection of a $300,000 re-inforced concrete stadium seating 50,000 persons, and parking 200 motors This structure will be used for athletic and military contests, and for all open-air assemblies. It will be the largest structure of its kind in the world, and will be built at one of the entrances to Stanley Park. This is a part of the Mawson City Beautiful plan which will take years to complete; the stadium will be ready for use in the fall of 1913.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-west Territories and in a portion of the province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 an acre.

For full information application should be made to the secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior.

NOT ENOUGH OPERATORS

Railway and Wireless Concerns Short of Keymen to Transmit Messages

With new federal laws in effect requiring railways and ships to be provided with more telegraph and wireless operators, there is a widespread scarcity of men and women to work the keys. The commercial telegraph companies are also feeling the shortage. All sea-going vessels are now required to carry two operators, where one was deemed sufficient before. Schools for telegraph operators are finding it extremely difficult to meet the demands of all branches of the service. The Morse Telegraph Company, opposite the Orpheum theatre, Seattle, will gladly mail you, upon request, a catalogue outlining the courses for men and women. This is the largest school of the kind in the Northwest. 6-1-13

Utilization of By-Products

An Important Feature of Modern Industry

By-products are a very important factor in modern industry. The old practice of discharging industry by-products into the nearest stream, is not only a disgusting one, but it is exceedingly unprofitable as well. The modern manufacturer seeking for increased dividends looks about him for means to use his waste materials.

For example; the refuse of the oil refinery is converted into perfumes, flavouring extracts and mineral oils. The slag of iron furnaces is utilized as ballast on railroads, or is converted into paving stones, slag-brick or cement. The by-products of the meat-packing industry are so turned to account as to actually pay for converting the animals into food. The blood is transformed into albumen for bleaching, the offal into fertilizers, the hoofs into glue, the horns into buttons, knife-handles, etc., the bones become ivory and gelatine, the hair is made into mattresses and felting, and the various fats into butterine, oleomargarine, etc. The by-products from the coking of coal may be transformed into gas for power, ammonia for refrigeration, ammonium sulphate for fertilizers, pitch for paving, roofing and as a binder for coal briquettes, carbolic acid, benzol, benzine, lubricating and other oils and aniline dyes. Recently too, a European forestry engineer has made the boast that he can utilize every particle of the tree but the rustle of the leaves.

More and more will the industry of the future seek to prevent waste. Competition demands it. Commonsense demands it. "Industrial wastes" must become an obsolete term.

Children Entertain

A clever and attractive entertainment was provided on Friday evening by the children of St. Edmund's Catholic school.

The programme, which was offered to a crowded attendance, included an operetta entitled "The Coming of Santa Claus," which was seasonable and beautifully dressed. The numerous characters were well acted, especially by the little tots, who gave a series of dances, of which there was an Irish jig, Highland fling and sailor's hornpipe, and the dances and songs were beautifully rendered. Another item of exceptional merit was a sketch, "William Brown's Luggage," recited by Dorothy McHugh. The concluding number was a tableau, "The British Empire," in which all the children were representing some part of the Empire. At the opening of the tableau "Rule Britannia" was sung, then followed Irish, Scotch, Welsh, English and Canadian national songs with choruses, concluding with the "National Anthem."

During the evening Mayor McNeish in a neat speech complimented the children highly for their splendid performance and the Sisters of Mercy for the care exercised in teaching and organizing so brilliant a performance

After the entertainment Father Bedard distributed presents to the children from a heavily laden Christmas tree, after which he gave a speech of thanks to all who had taken part and those who patronized so liberally. He hoped next year that a much larger hall would be secured in order to accommodate the large crowd more comfortably.

Increase in Local Post Office Business

The increase of business in the post office of this city this season has more than doubled over that of the corresponding period of last year, and that notwithstanding the new substation since opened, which is also experiencing an abnormal rush. Postmaster McMillan has, at the present time, nine men assisting him in the duties of the city office, and states that then there is no time to spare, while last year four handled the heavy issue of money orders and registered parcels inevitable at Christmastide.

Discuss Socialism

The North Shore Literary and Debating Society held its weekly session at the Central school on Tuesday evening last, when the subject of Socialism was earnestly and interestingly debated. Its advocates were found in Mr. A. E. Anders and Mr. James Layland, while opposite views were voiced by Mr. J. N. Boult and Mr. A. Barclay. The latter side were awarded the victory on points, the score being eight to nine. Mr. G. H. Morden, vice-president, occupied the chair in the absence of the president, Ald. McRae. The society's next meeting will be on January 7th, since the next two scheduled meetings happen to fall upon Christmas and New Year's eves successively.

The usual statutory resolutions were passed by the council last evening in relation to the forthcoming elections. It was formally resolved that, the nominations for mayor and aldermen shall be received at the city hall on January 13th, 1913, that in the event of a poll being required same shall be taken at the city hall for the city and for all the wards of the city on January 16th, 1913; and that W. ## Hockey

The Mainland League hockey match played between Vancouver and North Vancouver teams on Saturday afternoon on Boulevard Park resulted in a win for the local players by three goals to two. The match was an excellent one from point of play, and was contested to an exciting finish. At half time the score stood two goals to one in favor of Vancouver, but in the second half the North Vancouverites made a rally and succeeded in equalling the score and finally adding the winning goal.

The North Vancouver second team on Saturday defeated the Vancouver second team by three goals to one.

Football

The association football match played on Saturday between the Lonsdale and Lynn Valley teams resulted in a win for the former by five goals to nil. The ground was very heavy through the recent rains and the game consequently slow. By winning this match the Lonsdale and Caledonian teams are now on level terms and will play the final match for the cup on January 4. The winners will carry the title of league champions and therefore considerable interest is already being manifested in the result.

Closing Debate and Entertainment by H. S. Students

The high school Literary and Debating society brought its first session to a close with a miscellaneous program of music and elocution and a final debate on the effects, advantageous or otherwise, of examinations. The affirmative speakers were Wallace Shaw and Colin Cameron, the negative, Douglas Rae and John Woods. Rev. A. J. Prosser was judge with Alma Shore as critic. The program which followed included recitations by Madge Gill and Edward Little, instrumental solos by Isobel Campbell and Harold Bream, and a song by the school.

Speeches were made by Principal Kellar, the Rev. Van Munster and Mr. James Hay, a member of the local board of school trustees.

The first session of the debating society has embodied a series of most successful debates on very diversified subjects. A very commendable record has been established by the local high school students, who, however, are determined to do better work still in a controversial sense, when the society enters upon its second session.

St. Edmund's School Concert

The children of St. Edmund's school gave a most successful concert in the school house, Mahon avenue, on Tuesday night. The audience was most enthusiastic throughout, and all voiced the opinion that the little musicians and vocalists did great credit, both to themselves and the sisters and teachers whose able tuition was plainly noticeable in the little performers throughout the entire evening.

The hall was crowded to overflowing and everybody came away hoping that the time is not far distant when they may be treated to another such enjoyable night's entertainment

The members of the Lynn Valley Choral society continued their carol singing in the Valley last evening west of Centre road They were given a hearty welcome by the residents who did their part in providing refreshments The carol singing will be continued tonight east of Centre road. Much praise is due the society for the excellent way in which they are carrying out the old custom of carol singing at Christmas time.

Donald and Jeannie were putting down a carpet. Donald slammed the end of his thumb with a hammer and began to pour forth his soul in language befitting the occasion.

"Donald, Donald!" shrieked Jeanie, horrified. "Dinna swear that way!"

"Wumman!" vociferated Donald, "gin ye know ony better way now is the time to let me know it."
