

VICTORIA, Nov. 12.—Plans have been filed with the provincial government locating the station grounds of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway on the Fort George Indian reservation. This seems to clear up any uncertainty regarding the location of the railway station. The company has also applied for an order restraining "wildcaters" from using "Fort George" on their literature. Otherwise, the railway claim, they must look for a new name.

The Sunset dog has returned to his vomit.

The Vancouver press agent of the Natural Resources Security Company, a scheming organization non-suited and exposed in a Canadian court by the Toronto Saturday Night, is swinging a double-bitted axe in the Canadian Development camp because the latter company has not seen fit to advertise in his weekly picture paper. "Bruce" prints two columns of front-page rot on the ethics of poker-playing in Cariboo by members of the latter company in support of his lame argument that the Canadian Development is made up of "tin horns." This may be good logic in the office of the B. C. Eye-Opener, but it will not save him in a court of law. During the last campaign Richard McBride dubbed the Sunset writer a "joke." A better definition is a journalistic p-i-m-p.

R. Senior, leader of the South Fort George string orchestra, and possessor of the only harp within a radius of five hundred miles, left for Quesnel Wednesday with two of the Fort George Timber and Navigation Company's teams, and will not be back for ten days. On his return he will open a music store in the McGachran-Thorne building, next to the Herald printing establishment.

W. E. Roberts, the game warden, won the mammoth cake raffled by Gordon Dyke at Blair's store last week with a throw of 34. In consequence of this stroke of fortune Mr Roberts has been regaling with cake all those who have abstained from eating moose meat out of season, and judging by the number who have availed themselves of the generosity, there appears to have been no violation of the game act by patriotic and law-abiding Georgians.

The rush to the newly-discovered Australian goldfields at Bullfinch continues unabated. Thousands from every quarter of Australia are arriving day by day, and accommodation for the diggers is hopelessly inadequate. As regards the value of the discovery it may be mentioned that half a million sterling has been offered for a lease of the fields and has been refused.

W. T. Ewing, of Quesnel, arrived in Thursday with twenty-five head of cattle for the local market. They will be slaughtered and placed in refrigerators.

W. Blair, the merchant, was another inward passenger this week. He has been to the coast and says he was tired of losing umbrellas in sacred edifices and prefers living in dear old Cariboo where umbrellas and rubbers are not necessary adjuncts in man's daily apparel. Mr. Blair was an attendant at the million-and-a-half apple show recently held at Vancouver.

The last shift of one and a half miles of steel rails, for the completion of the first hundred miles of the railway from Prince Rupert, went out on the train yesterday morning. This will take the lig track laying machine less than a day to put on place, and there will be nothing left but the ballasting. This leaves in the yards here seventeen tons of rails, or practically one hundred and thirty miles of single track, nearly sufficient for the second section to Hazelton, all of which will be laid this winter.—Prince Rupert Optimist.

William Fletcher is appointed by the Dominion government as census enumerator, Barkerville section, Cariboo district, under Abraham Barlow of Quesnel.

Editor J. B. Daniell of the Cariboo Observer and Fort George Herald, passed through town on Tuesday night on his way to the coast. He will probably take a month's holiday to Honolulu before returning.—Ashcroft Journal.

George N. Bailey of Ashcroft, was married to Miss Elsie Annie Kembley of Toronto, at Ashcroft, Nov. 15.

Alexander Lucas, of Agassiz, is contesting Yale in the Conservative interest. Stewart Henderson will oppose him. The land policy of B. C. is one of the strong planks.

A new monoline type-setting machine for the Fort George Herald, arrived by freighter Wednesday morning and was taken across the river and unloaded. Later on, when the sleighing is better, the machine will be taken to the paper in South Fort George.—Observer, 12th.

Wallace M. Cunningham was one of the three passengers on the mail coach Monday. He will remain in South Fort George till the end of January looking over his numerous interests in the district. He owns five sections in the Chilaco, besides extensive acreage east of the Fraser, opposite the Hudson's Bay. Mr. Cunningham intends opening a real estate office in South Fort George next April.

F. C. Swannell's survey parties left South Fort George on Wednesday for the coast, after having spent five months in the field, conducting operations for the government in the upper Nechaco. Mr. Swannell did not accompany his men, having remained at Tula lake.

THE STORY OF THE APPLE

The story of the apple is an old story, and goes back to original sin. But since Vancouver had one million five-hundred thousand apples on display at the large-show building recently, the following lines about apples are appropriate:

A farmer picked this apple in his orchard in the west

And put it in a barrel with some others of his best;

Because they were so splendid he declared the price must climb

And so he raised his figure on that barrel by a dime.

The man who bought that barrel stuck a label on the top,

Then told the interviewers of a shortage in the crop;

And when he came to sell it to a buyer on the floor

He added on his profit and half a dollar more.

The man who shipped that barrel stuck his label on it, too,

And talked of early freezes and the damage that they do;

The man to whom he shipped it said the grower's price was high

And raised the price two dollars more than in other days gone by.

The man who stored that barrel told of shortage in the pick,

Of scale and other pests that make the apple orchards sick,

And he put five dollars on to the cumulative price—

And so it went, each handler taking out his little slice.

O, when you eat this apple, may it fill you with delight

To know that some one profits on each nibble and each bite

And, O, be glad you do not live so very far away

From where the apple started, for think what you'd have to pay!

—Chicago Post.
