DISASTROUS FIRE

TWO LIVES LOST

Palace Rooms, Two Dwellings and Store Destroyed.

Two men lost their lives yesterday morning in a fire that started in the Palace Rooming house owned by Tony Wedges. One of the victims was Mr. Bert Moody, timekeeper at Mile one-forty and the other is supposed to be an Austrian named Sokolowsky. At the time the fire started there were eighteen guests in the building and it was not known for sure whether any had lost their lives until their remains were found in the ruins burned almost to a crisp and beyond all chance of recognition, the remains of Moody were found directly under his room and those of the Austrian were found near the back of the building. They were removed to the undertaking rooms of Mr. Groose where Dr. Richardson, coroner, called the jury together for the purpose of viewing what was left of the two unfortunate victims The jury adjourned and met at the court house at eight o'clock last night.

So far the origin of the fire seems to be a mystery as no two tell the same story. Mr. Wedges was the first to discover it and was awakened by the crackling of flames and immediately gave the alarm. The fire was beyond control and no fire brigade could have saved the Palace building, but the fire bigade with the equipment they have at their disposal are to be congratulated upon confining it to the four buildings lost, the bucket brigade also did great work.

The Palace rooms are valued at $8,000 with $5,000 insurance dwelling house owned by Wm. Rowatt valued at $2,000 with $1,000 insurance. another dwell ng owned by Mr. Sutherland, oss about $1,000 and a second-and store owned byMr. McKewan, loss $3,000 partly covered by insurance. Those who managed to escape from the Palace rooms were: Mrs. Manmann and Mrs. Brown; Messrs Wedges, Lunny, Vayvada, Billing, Donaldson, Zuravel, Nelson, Miller, E. E. Phair, H. J. Phair, Simpson, McKay, Tierney and A. Choppel, the latt- lost $500 in bills, a diamond in, gold watch and locket nd most all his clothes, and he others lost more or less in othing.

THE INQUEST

The adjourned meeting of he jury took place at the ght with Dr. Richardson roner in the chair and the llowing jurymen: J. E. Roarts, chairman, Messrs. icolls, Fraser, G. Williams, W. Heath and Thorne.

The first witness called was r. Wedges the proprietor of e Palace rooms whose story llows: All his guests with e exception of Moody and erney were in by 12.30 and retired about same time be awakened about 2.30 Tierney knocking at front or, he got up let them in d showed them to their room o. 4. Both men were drunk d bleeding about the face, Moody was shaking and said that he got badly beaten in a fight and near killed. He left them in their room after giving them matches to light lamp, then he retired and fell asleep to be aroused by the crackling of flames and seeing a light in hall, opening door he saw hall all aflame opposite room No. 4, he then yelled fire and got out the front door. Did not see roomers get out except Mr. Chappell and Mrs. Brown. Back door was unlocked.

Mr. John Tierney who was in the room and the last to see Moody alive was the next witness: He came in on B. C. Express steamer Thursday at 11.30 a. m. and met Moody on Hamilton avenue at 2 p. m. and during afternoon they visited the bar several times and filled on booze played pool, then went to the Cache with pay-rolls, had supper at Prince George, came back to South and still continued to tank-up at the Northern. Left Northern hotel about 10.30 p. m. for the "hill" where they visited several houses and had more drinks stayed at last house probably two or three hours, after leaving were nearly run down by auto and Moody had dispute with chaffeur who finally chased them into bush where they slipped away on him and went into the parlor of a house owned by Jean Starrs, were there fifteen minutes when three men came iqamong whom was driver of auto who accused Tierney of throwing stone at auto and immediately started to beat both Tierney and himself, resulting in Moody being knocked unconscious for three minutes, he saw no sticks but said men used both fists and feet. The chinaman and two of the girls bathed Moody's head and brought him around. He said neither he or Moody hit back. They then left by auto and came down to the Palace rooms, let in by proprietor and went to bed. Don't remember who lit lamp, but says lamp was out when he went to sleep. Awakened by Siren got up and saw building was on fire, says he was feeling dazed further on he said someone came in room and awakened him, anyway he got out back door then he thought of Moody, but could not get back. Did not tell anyone Moody was still in room till sometime after. He said they were both drunk, Moody being the worst of the two and that he helped him into his room. Had no word with Moody and they were very friendly. Was surprised to hear that a clot of blood was found beside Moody's head. All through his evidence Tierney seemed hazy and seemed to have trouble to remember details. contradicting himself several times.

Messrs Hanover, Chappell and Nelson were called but could not give anything important.

Dr. Richardson informed the jury that Drs. McSorley and Hanier had not finished their examination, but would give their report at next meeting.

From the examination of the remains of Moody there is every reason to believe that he met With foul play. Clotted blood was found around his brain, and this might have caused his death.

The Jury adjourned to meet tonight at 8 p.m. when it is expected to have reports of the doctors also the two girls and chinaman who bathed Moody's wounds and several other important witnesses,

Hindus Go on Hunger Strike

Great interest is being taken in this province over the arrival of the Japanese Steamer Komagata Maru at Vancouver with 375 Hindus on board as it is a test of the validity of the B. C. Immigration Law. Both the B. C. Government and the Ottawa Government have refused them permission to land. At a special session of the Vancouver Board of Trade a vote was taken on the question with the result that a telegram was sent to the Minister of the Interior requesting the government to use every endeavor to prevent the landing of these undesirable immigrants. The Komagata Maru is anchoring in the middle of the harbor about one mile from shore. Their Leader Gurdit Singh refuses to pay the agents of the ship the balance of the charter money on account of the men not being landed. On the twelth of this month the ship's stay in Vancouver will end, and she will have to hoist anchor and return to Japan. In the meantime the immigration court of enquiry is still sitting; but the Hindus refuse to come ashore to be examined, and instead have gone on a hunger strike, declaring that they will starve themselves to death unless allowed to land. The Hindus as a last resort have appealed to King George to intervene; but it is not at all likely that England will intercede in their behalf. In their editorial columns the English papers are strong in their support of the determination of the British Columbia Government to keep the Hindus out ofthe province.

It is very certain that the Komagata Maruwill not remain in Vancouver very long as there seems no hope of affecting a landing of their passengers. The harbor authorities are afraid that when the announcement is made a row will break out among the Hindus as threats have already been made by them causing the armed immigration officers that have been kept on the ship to maintain order, to withdraw immediately. The boat patrol is still being maintained however in order to prevent a night landing.

BASEBALL

On Sunday May 31st the boys from the Foley Cache went down to defeat at the hands of the invincible South Fort George Baseball Team to the tune of 9—4. The fans from the Cache were present in force to encourage their team with the aid of their voices; but Willred although he claimed to be out of voice outyelled them all. From the very start the South Fort George spectators wore a smile and it was the smile that never wore off.

The game though one-sided as to the score was the best exhibition of baseball put up this year. The locals appeared in their smart new uniforms and played classy ball all the way through. Their were no stars, just good team work, the stuff that always counts. There were few errors chalked up against the locals, and if the boys keep practicing in a short time we will have the pleasure of watching errorless ball. We have the material for an a-1 baseball team but you must get down to work.

McBride Lands Opened to Pre-emption

About 40,000 acres of land was opened to pre-emptors at McBride, where a special office was established for a week for this purposeby Mr. T. W.Herne, Government Agent at Fort George, on Monday, June 1st at 9a. m., about one hundred applicants being in line to file upon the 322 tracts averaging 160 acres in extent on either side of the river in the valley of the South Fork of the Fraser River. Ninety-two applications were made by pre-emptors when the land was opened and it is expected that many other applicants will present themselves, the land being available to pre-emption at the office of the Government Agent at Fort George after the special office at McBride has been closed.

A similar amount of land approximately 40,000 acres, divided into quarter sections of 160 acres, will be thrown open in the westerly part of the valley of the South Fork of the Fraser river, situated between Willow River and Urling along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad, on June 15th at 9 a. m. at the office of the Government Agent at Fort George. The system adopted in alloting these pre-emptions is based upon the principle of first come, first principle of first come, first served. The first applicant to fall in line at the office of the Government Agent holds his position in the line, the police authorities being present to see that no attempt is made by late comers to oust the early arridals, first to reach the counter in the office of the Government Agent when the land is opened and he receives the first choice. Others take up the land in the order of their precedence in the line formed at the door of the Government Office.

This system worked excellently at McBride. The first man to take his position was W. J. Taylor, who spent a month waiting for the opening while several Alberta farmers who followed him remained for three weeks, and others spent from two weeks to a few days waiting the opening of the office. A roll was made of the intending pre-emptors in order of their coming and tickets signed by the police officials were given them. The roll was called several times each day and on the morning of June 1st all formedin line and came into the office to file in pairs in the order of their priority. All the pre-emptors expressed satisfaction, the system ensuring fair play to all. Mr. Gorden Smith, an official of the Lands Department at Victoria was on hand to supervise the arrangements and is at present in Fort George.

The majority of the-emptors went on their land immediately, some of the Alberta men taking implements out and seed potatoes to start work the following day.

Celebration Here July 1st

At a meeting held in the Fire hall on Monday evening last it was decided to hold a big celebration in South Fort George on July 1st. A committee of three were appointed to take charge of all arrangements who are as follows: W. F. Cook, managing director; J. R. Campbell, assistant manager; Frank O'Flaherty, secy.-treas. This committee will in turn appoint sub committees who will take charge of the different branches such as dancing, sports, decorations and advertising.

A canvass for subscriptions will be made immediately and it is hoped that all citizens will respond loyally. The previous Dominion Day celebrations have all been good ones but it is promised that this year's will outshine everything in the past.

Railroad Commissioners Pay Flying Visit Here

On Saturday last the members of the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada arrived from the East over the line of the G. T. P. Railway by special train. They were accompanied by one of the Board's engineers. The general manager of the Railway Company and several other of its officials. The Commissioners seemed to be in a hurry. They only stayed in this vicinity a couple of hours during which time they journyed simply througg the three towns. They must have been in South Fort George at least twominutes.

It is rumored that the business of the chief Commissioner Mr. R. L. Drayton and Commissioner Goodene was to look into the matter of the location of a railway station at Prince George, which vexed question has been before the public for many years now and there seems to be nothing more definite about it today than there was five years ago. Fort George people want it placed at Maple street anticipating that it will enhance the value of property which they purchased from the Natural Resources Security Company. The afore mentioned company wants it at Maple street too, in order that they may be in a better position to collect past due payments on lots sold and to sell more which have fallen back on them ,or which they have never sold. Some people want it at Victoria street, their reason being generally speaing, because they own lots there. The worst feature of back sites, is that it will be impossible to haul loads from there on account of the grades.

The site which appears to hape the most natural advantages is at the foot of George Street, a flat grade away from it in any direction is in itself an invaluable asset n its favor and in what respect it is far superior to either of the others suggetted ocations. Again the George Street site seems to be in the proper position to serve the most people, at the best convenience. The people of South Fort George were not advised that the Commission was to visit here, so had no chance to present any arguments in an organized fashion. The Natural Resources Security Company Limited, however, were on the alert to meet them probably having had some advice from their Ottawa lawyers or friends at court. The Herald would have nothing to say to their friends in the western town except to congratulate them on their alertness, were it not persistently rumored that something was put over on the people of South Fort George and the people in general who would like to see the station at its logical point, the foot of Crown grants, and one very stood that the champions of the Maple Street site argued that the only good land for settlement was north of the Nechaco River, and therefore Maple street would be the most convenient place for them, if such an argument was used it was direct mis representation or ignorance. The land north of the Nechaco river it is true is open for settlement and has a great many pre-emption claims filed on it by people who as a whole list their property for sale as soon as they get their Crown grants and one very little more used to this country in regards to the development of the land than the speculators who bought the land from the Government direct. In so far as the quality of the soil is concerned, we feel perfectly safe in saying that the best la d adjacent to Fort George is e st and south east of the Fraser river to the Cariboo mountains and QuesnelThere is a great deal of this land which has been purchased by speculators, but there is still lots of pre-emptions left and with the P.G.E. on the east side of the river taken up. We also must not forget the Mud River Valley southwest of here, though limited area, no richer soil is out of doors than it and the land around West's Lake South of here. There is good land north of the Nechaco River and also to the northwest, but it is not the best land in the district by any means.

The Herald is of the opinion that when people begin to farm in this country to make their living actually off of the land, that the majority of the farming population will be found east, southeast, south and southwest of here. In conclusion we would say we hope the station site question will be settled once and for all, and that it will be put in the place where it suits the most people, where the grade will permit a team of horses to pull out a load and where street cars may get to at a reasonable cost. We hope and trust that the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada is large enough to decide the question on its merits. Although we certainly are of the opinion that more time should have been spent here and that the views of all sides should have been heard.

CHET [illegible] MEET FOR CHAMPIONSHIP OF [illegible]

HUGHES MEETS HALLIDAY

The local sports of this district will be treated to one of the best boxing contests ever staged in this part of the country and which takes place at Ritts Kefer hall, Prince George on Tuesday night. These bouts are promoted by Chet McIntyre, "the king of promoters".

The first bout will be a ten round featherweight encounter between Bert Hughes, the local boy and Len Halliday of Vancouver who met two weeks ago when Halliday got the decision, although Hughes floored him in the ninth. The scrape they put up was admitted by every one present as the best in its class ever put on here, so naturally their coming bout will be looked forward to with great interest and no doubt will be worth the price of admission alone.

The second bout will be between Chet McIntyre of Vancouver, and David McDonald of New Hampshire at present in Central for the heavyweight championship of Canada and a side bet $200. This bout will be a hummer as both men are in the pink of condition and ready to put up the fight of their lives. Chet who is well-known around here is some boxer and having so much at stake is sure to put up the best fight of his career. McDonald is a big husky chap who no doubt will make Chet go the limit. He has had considerable experience east where he figured in several heavy weight bouts and he promises to make Chet step lively for every second of their ten-round bout.

At the Fort GeorgeTheatre tonight at 10.30 Chet McIntyre will give a boxing exhibition. He will take on four of his pupils and Kid Burke a local boxer. This will be Chet's last hard workout before his bout with McDonald. No doubt a large number will take advantbge of this opportunity which will prove interesting from start to finish.

Have you ever paused to consider the great financial loss caused every year through Typoid Fever?

Typoid Fever is a filth disease although cleanly people become affected. It is carried by human excretions and gets into the drinking water through improperly constructed wells, defective drains, etc., or onto the food through the agency of flies, and so on into the mouth and stomach.

This disease is far too prevalent, the deaths in British Columbia for the year from this cause alone being eighty-five.

Apart from this loss of life the economic waste is enormous. During the same period about 700 persons were ill with this sickness in this province. If each of those cases were laid up for eight weeks, a short average this would mean a total period of 33,200 days in hospital, and with hospital expenses at $2 per day, a total cost of $78,400.

If each patient required a total of four months before he regained full strength and earning-capacity, this would mean a total loss of $4,000 days. As the majority of these cases occur in men earning $3 a day and over, the loss of earning-capacity would be about $252,000. This, together with the hospital expenses, which include doctors, and other items, gives a gross total of $330,400. Aside from this, many persons never regain their old health and this together with the loss of life, cannot be estimated in dollars.

To prevent this disease, besides cleanliness, a method of immunization is now available This consists of the use of typhoid prophylactic, which is a sterile solution for hypodermic injection. It may be used by a doctor or nurse, and will be supplied on application to the secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, Victoria.

After the first dose there is some slight reaction, the person inoculated feeling as if he had an ordinary attack of La-Grippe. This passes off in the course of a very few hours and does not prevent the person following his usual work. The second dose is given from 7 to 10 days after the first, and from this practically no reaction occurs. A third dose for still more complete protection, is given from seven to ten days after the second.—Provincial Board of Health, Victoria, B. C.

VANDERHOOF BOARD OF TRADE.

W. S. Cocker, president in the chair, the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Letter from H. Vanderhoof read re visit of Essanay moving picture outfit in June or July left over to arrange at next meeting. Letters read from two newspaper men about starting a paper at Vanderhoof left to Mr. W. E. Gunn to arrange. Mr. J. H. McMillan spoke of the benefit that a sawmill would be to the town. Left to the president and secretary to see Mr. W. Rutton, Fort Fraser. Mr. J. H. McMillan on the question of a bridge said it would be a downright injustice if the bridge across the Nechaco River was not put in north of Vanderhoof. That the public works department should be put in full possession of the facts. That if ever any place needed a bridge Vanderhoof did to connect it with the north country. $300 collected from members of the executive to build a Board of Trade hall.

Meeting adjourned.

B. C. Express Company Must go to Ottawa Department

The application of the B. C. Express Company to the Supreme Court to order the removal of one bridge and the alteration of two built by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company across the upper Fraser River near Fort George, has been dismissed by Mr. Justice Morrison. His Lordship in his judgement points out that the proper parties to have brought the matter before were the public works department of the Dominion Government, or the Railway Board, and that in the meantime any damage done to navigation on the Fraser and Nechaco rivers in consequence of the bridges may be met by an action for damages.

The text of the judgement is in part as follows:

"From the material before me, I am satisfied that all the requirements of the railway Act of Canada have been complied with and that likewise the public works department of Canada having regard to the exigencies of the case sanctioned the temporary obstruction of those streams. It is a matter of pointed comment upon an application of this kind that there is every facility afforded parties aggrieved to resort to a great department of state, such as the public works department of Canada, or to the great federal railway court, known as the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada, and, notwithstanding those facilities and the fact that they have jurisdiction to deal with the subject matter of complaint, the plaintiff has passed them by and come to a judge in chambers for an order to interrupt the important public undertaking of completing a transcontinental railway.

Doubtless it may be true a navigable stream is being obstructed, the point in this application for me to consider is whether the plaintiff company is being obstructed in its navigation of those streams as urged by the concil and that thereby its business is jeopardized. Having regard again to the material before me and, particularly the correspondence, which passed between the plaintiff company, I do not think it is.. Should there be a damage to the plaintiff company's business caused by the operations of the defendant company, the aid of the courts as rendered by means of a trial may be involved if necessary.

I therefore refuse the application with costs."

Hindus Refused Landing at Vancouver

The steamer Kowagata Maru which arrived Saturday from the east carrying three hundred and seventy Hindus on board, is still anchored in Vancouver habour with the Hindus on board, landing having been refused them by the B. C. Government.

Sundar Siugh a well-known Hindu of Vancouver brought the case before the local court and not receiving satisfaction there carried to the court of appeal at Victoria this week.

In the meantime Sendar Siugh has appealed to the Dominion Government at Ottawa to intercede on behalf of his countrymen. There seems to be slight hope of his appeal being granted.

BETTER SERVICE REQUIRED AT POST OFFICE

We draw the attention of our readers to a letter in "Everybody's Column" with reference to our post office, and we agree with the writer that the service given to the public is one of the worst in Canada. In the item in last week's paper we merely quoted the Assistant Post Office Inspector, whether he meant the business done by the post office or the service to the public we are not at liberty to say, it surely could not have been the latter. It is plain to be seen that the postmaster is over-worked and is giving the public the best service possible under present conditions, therefore it is up to the post office authorities to furnish him with more help, have another wicket opened up for the sale of money orders, stamps, registered letters, etc., and keep the present wicket for distribution of mail only. The business carried on by the office here demands that above improvements be enforced at once in order that the public may receive what they are paying for—an efficient service.

STREET OPENING NECESSARY.

The opening up of Fourth Street through the Hudson Bay Reserve property connecting with Queen street of the Prince George townsite is a very important question to both Prince and South. The business men should get together and appoint a committee to confer with the Government and the Hudson Bay Co. in connection with building the bridge across the slough.

By linking up these streets we would have almost a direct route between the two townsites which would no doubt mean more business to the merchants of both towns, the saving of almost a mile on the present route around by the river road and a great saving of time to the general public of this district.

We understand, plans for this opening are all prepared and we urge the completion of same at the earliest date possible.

CANADIANS' NATIONAL HOLIDAY

Every loyal citizen of South Fort George should join heartily in the preparations for the celebration to be held here on Dominion Day and make it the best ever.

Dominion Day is the day of all days for Canadians, and should be remembered and celebrated by all true Canadians. It has also been a part of South Fort George since its birth, the first celebration being held in 1907 and continued each year ever since. Therefore it is up to everyone in this vicinity not only as citizens of Greater Fort George but as citizens of our wonderful Dominion to make this the banner day of the year.

It has been said that there is a sucker born every minute. The birth-rate has increased 100 per cent. at Calgary since the Dingman oil gusher came in.

We have just received a coloured picture from the Forest Branch of the Department of Lands at Victoria. The original of the picture is by a noted artist and entitled "A Friend of the Forest." The name is self explanitory. This picture illustrates a lesson that the Lands Department and the Press of this province have been trying hard to teach to pioneers of the Forest.

It is the protection of the forests from fires. No one can be too careful when in the forest as regards fire. Camp fires should be carefully smothered and every precaution taken to avoid the destroying of the forests as well as homes and property from fire. These pictures are being distributed broadcast throughout the province so that everyone could have a picture in their possession in a very short time.

KILLED FIGHTING FOREST FIRE

While fighting a forest fire on the Cheakamus at Summit Lake on the line of the P.G.E., A. B. Sharpe, a lumberman, was instantly killed on Saturday afternoon. Sharpe had been felling a tree in an effort to stop the progress of the fire, which was threatening the Wolse sawmill where he was employed. All at once, without warning, the tree broke off about thirty feet from the ground, the shattered trunk striking Sharpe as he stood below. He was killed instantly.

The body was brought to Vancouver and is now at Harron Brothers. An inquest has not yet been decided on. Sharpe was about 55 years of age.

Profit Sharing Between Government and Licensee.

The present Timber Royalty Act of British Columbia is chiefly significant in that it makes provision for the basing of all timber royalties, subsequent to January 1, 1920, on the sale value of the timber cut over and above an arbitrarily fixed price of $18 per thousand feet board measure. The percentage taken by the Government of this prospective value increase will be at first 25 per cent, gradually rising to 40 per cent in the succeeding 25 years.

This is no new principle, for as early as 1889 the Dominion Government required from holders of timber limits in western Canada a royalty of 5 per cent of the total sale value of the lumber cut, which value was to be based on the average price obtaining during the three months preceeding the sale. But at that time the price of lumber was not sufficiently high to bring in any very large revenue on this percentage basis, so in 1898 the stumpage dues were changed to the fixed rate of 50 cents uer thousand feet, board measure, which is the rate at present. Although the retention of the percentage royalty would have secured larger returns from this source with the steadily rising lumber price, yet the principle of selling the timber at a widely advertised public auction ensures the obtaining, through the additional bonus offered, practically the same price for the timber without the former inconvenience of constantly adjusting the stumpage dues.

As the competitive sale of timber by means of the bonus system is common throughout Canada, there is little likelihood that the Government does not secure a fair share of the present value of the timber sold and by reserving the right to alter the stumpage dues as the price of lumber increases, a share in its future value is also ensured.

Many to Death

Effect of Inrush of Sea After Side of Empress Had Been Crushed—Collier Backed Away Too Soon.

Quebec, May 29.—The story of the tremendous explosion on board the Empress of Ireland after she was hit by the Storstad was told tonight by Philip Lawler, a steerage passenger from Brantford, Ontario. Lawler was on his way to England with his wife and son.

"People were simply shot out of the ship into the sea by the explosion," Mr. Lawler said. "I was pushed overboard with my wife and boy. The boy could swim, so I tried to take care of my wife, but she slipped from my grasp and sank."

Mr. Johnston, chief officer of the Empress, said that had not the Sorstad backed out so soon from the Empress a large number of passengers would have been saved. He said when the collier pulled herself free the sea surged into the hole she had torn in the side of the Empress, and the liner quickly sank.

Chief Marconi Operator Hayes, of the Empress, told of the sinking of the vessel. "As soon as I felt the shock," he said, "I was ordered to sound the danger signal, and the flash of my 'S. O. S.' was immediately picked up by the operator at Father Point and answered. But I could not talk with him, for five minutes after the impact my dynamos failed me and seventeen minutes after the collision our boat went down."

To pluckily leap from the deck of the sinking liner and swim around for nearly an hour in the river, and then to fall dead from exhaustion on deck of the pilot boat Eureka was the fate of an un identified women.

ONLY FOUR DISASTERS SIMILAR IN 100 YEARS

Montreal, May 30.—The loss of life on the Empress of Ireland has been equalled or exceeded only by four marine disasters in the last century. These were the loss of the Rhone, Wye, and other vessels at St. Thomas, in the great hurricane of October 29, 1867, when 1,000 persons perished; the burning of the excursion boat General Slocum in the East River, New York, on asters of modern times, the loss of the Titanic on April 14, 1912, which sank after collision with an iceberg with 1,490 of her company; the loss of the Kike Maru off the Japanse coast on September 28, 1912, with 1,000 lives.

Other disasters that approximated in the loss of life the fatality list of the Empress of Ireland were the Princess Alice, sunk in collision in the Thames river, September 3, 1878, with a loss of 700; the Ertogrul, foundered off the Japanese coast, September 28, 1890, loss 574; the Norge, stranded off Rochall Reef, June 25, 1894, with a loss of 600; La Bourgegne, lost in collision in the North Atlantic, July 14, 1898, with a loss of 571; the Japanse battleship Mikasha, blown up on September 12, 1905, with a loss of 599.

PROFESSIONAL AGITATORS RESPONSIBLE

"Professional agitators connected with the Independent Workers of the World are directly responsible for the large influx of unemployed laborers in Edmonton at this time," said W. J. Magrath, president of the Edmonton Industrial Association, today. "These fire-brands are doing everything possible to embarrass our city and provincial authorities," he continued, "but these officials are determined that the experiences of the cities in the United States and elsewhere shall not be repeated here. We have never invited or encouraged unskilled laborers or artisans to come to Edmonton unless they desire to engage in farming either as laborers or settler. We have offered to place 1,000 men on farms in central Alberta at once, but that is not what the ring-leaders of the I. W. W's want. There sole aim and purpose is to start trouble and nothing else will do."

My Dear Readers:

Don't think because we haven't been making a big noise in this paper for the past few weeks that we have gone out of business. It is merely a calm before a great storm. We have been laying our plans and studying your wants, and it has been with difficulty that we have been able to suppress what has been taking place at the Kennedy-Blair establishment.

But now that our goods have arrived we feel that an open confession will result in not only profit tempors! but good to our immortal souls. During the past three days we have unloaded three cars of goods at our warehouse.

Two cars of Groceries, which consist of the delicacies of every nation. Space will not allow us to quote you prices here, or describe our goods, but we wish to extend you a most cordial invitation to visit our grocery counter during the coming week, where we shall talk to you with the same interest as father to son.

Our car load of Dry Goods and Shoes assorts our stock to perfection.

We would like to draw your attention to our most beautiful fur sets, consisting of marten, mink and fisher muffs, sioles and hats, manufactured by Fairweathers from our own native furs.

We would also invite you to inspect our lace curtains, window blinds, carpet squares, summer underwear—and our converfation.

We remain,
Your most humble servants,

The Editor of Herald,

Dear Sir:

Regarding an item in Saturday's publication to the effect that the post-office inspector was in Fort George last week, saying the conditions existing at the post-office at South Fort George and Central Fort George were in perfect condition.

In reply I would say that it is very evident the inspector has not been receiving his mail through the George District and also that it must have been an off day when he conducted his inspection. Can you conceive of anything more choice than waiting for mail, behind alot of boohunks who (the boohunks) are getting money-orders, which in almost every instance happens the day after the mail arrives.

It being impossible to procure boxes at either of the above mentioned offices, there certainly should be a seperate wicket for money-orders, the writer has had the privilege (I said privilege) of waiting one hour and a half for his mail and certainly something should be done to remedy this.

Yours truly
A Future Resident.
