My dear Miss Nightingale

I am so very sorry that there has not been time to send you a second Revise but all your corrections will be carried out & I think that Spottiswoode's are so careful as that you need not feel uneasy about their accuracy this time —

As regards the paper on 'Remedies' — I beg to send what you say in your last note on this subject & hope to write about it to you as soon as the present

Bishops" of getting out the pathway too: is best—

If on the whole it should seem better policy to wait a month I rather think not so far as you are concerned you may put the delay rather a relief & the matter is so vastly important that it must not be hurried I know well—

Within a few days I shall put down as to whether we not it had better wait till October— as I am at present rather disposed to think may be best—

Thank you so very cordially for all your kind words & wishes— Believe me
my dear Miss Nightingale
Yours very sincerely
James Knowles
