Letter 1/0.99. Will write each Sunday if a day or two earlier remember

No 1 Hyde Park Place.
London. W.
Jan. 1st 1916.

Dear Brother.

There is only time for a few lines before I start my morning rounds, but want to say at least "A happy New year" to you at this the first day.
By this time no doubt Lucie has arrived safely home, will have given you all the last news. The last night as you have heard I had dinner with him & Temple @ their hall, & he very thoughtfully had a nice meal brought down & but had a most delightful Clyde flew himself up also. Was sure glad to see him, but it made conversation very general, & spent most of my time thinking. I had decided to say, Pa Sunday he turned to me very quick & ask about. Rec. your letter No. 105 O.K. but cannot find answer it was though I don't think there was anything special in it. And while I think it as well keep enquiries against regarding your health am told that if proper diet & sample it will cost usually $4. To me it seems an awful price.

Yesterday & to-day have been much cooler & really it's a treat not to have to go shivering around.
On Sat. I had my hair shampooed via the a-m. & it was late when I got to bed. Mildred returned in the afternoon from Cheyne Place.

Sunday Invert to 6 p.m. Service before Canning as daily Rec. I are going Holy Yorkshire 8 a.m. Service this a.m. being Whitsunday. It is Wed 4 a.m. To-night we are having a little dress-up Party for the Patients. Red to-morrow! Here are 5 Re Operations, 4 the following day, so I have a busy week a head. Yours.
No more to-night but just wanted to send love from the Canning yard be a Lassie as for you. Always yrs. Lovingly Lottie.

At first I had intended to have dinner here but when I found owing to there being so many convalescent patients I could stay to take there being so little to do, decided to have dinner with Mildred @ Cheyne Place Mrs Macdonald having invited me. I left here about 5.45 & started to find the place. I had been there but only after dark. Tried to get a taxi but none were to be had. Then made for a bus, but had to walk all the way when he changed at Victoria Station, & as I had a good bit round. walk after leaving the bus it was a few min. past three when I arrived.

Fortunately dinner wasn't until 7½.
This is really the first time I have really had any thing to say to Miss Macdonald & really was the 1st & last & the opportunity & finding her - she is a fearfully erudite woman, clever, & brilliantly wonderfully good company.
Invalided had an hr's hard evening gown - which is most becoming, dark (& yet bright) blue velvet, with gold & blue net trimming. She really had to have an & I think I must get one too. We were much amused - when we heard Lucile was coming through we had better get down. The Prince as might duly if wasn't necessary, but when Lucile suggested taking tea. & Heather she rushed out & brought & he told when the dishes were bought Aunt Lucile Wednesday dressing, as he planned it would necessary just bowled after all are planning. Of course Aunt let go Lucile.

They go to-morrow night.
As a matter of fact the Lus decided to stick to their story the must either go in uniform or dress as the Lus working class @ Chapin Place.

Well to go back to Le Chanel — it was plain but very nice — quite fresh — turkey, vegetables

Christmas dinner ate Plum pudding - mince pies ate. Cocktails, Champagne. Played bridge for a while & I left about 11.15 P.M. & as I make one fox.
two. They walked out one block I got in 1st car, took a transfer @ Victoria Caulfield got another - being a holiday they stopped earlier than usual.
After waiting ages, decided to walk for Caulfield got a car - when suddenly I spied some people getting out I am to fly over early to the field the man wouldn't take another take.

They all went to defend their days. Dr Lewis only a limited amt.
A gasoline always can get flashy of fuel However Lewis walked Lay & Clock he caught up & said he would take me, & Lewis where I wanted to go. Knew the place & evidently had always had good luck for there & he was most amiable.
Then came the flying time - Twas so sleepy & positively felt sick. However got through he might & to-day had a fine flight, & certainly Kinney was a great success altogether through he only absolutely satisfactory flare & found it is at dome. However the patients appreciated & what we did it made it worth while. They had quite a gay dinner here — up. Saturday Evening with with the Sisters & we were all having Champagne - & pork - Everyone went to bed with a whiskey & soda -

To-morrad I go bido a little shopping, I'll gek yuk coak or ah leush sane thing.
Si lale to munch say good bye for Ki present.
And a little pom woodie saying dem Lul
