In the year 1880. I went North with my Brother to stay with ~~the~~ people the Tomlinsons. My Brother to assist in farm and agricultural work when the Tomlinsons, the missionary, was starting to help the Indians improve their mode of life - and had settled at a little place called Antahkkast - about 150 miles from the Coast and 30 miles from Hazelton near the head of Navigation on the Skeena. I too - to try and help my Sick-wife - the Children (2 in number) - in the year of 80. & 81. Bp & Mrs Ridley having been sent by the CMS to the head of the Missions were living at what we called "The Forks" - (The Junction of the Bulkley & Skeena). Now I believe called Hot Hyelm - Nothing to do all possible to help the Whites. - Mrs Ridley stated what she called pleasant days

On every Tuesday and her house was open house specially for the men who came out from America. An evening of readings. music & general social intercourse. — This social evening developed into a desire for a weekly paper. Both the Bp & Mrs R were talented & had taken many sketches locally — Mrs R & I going out together sketching up the Hagwilget valley — There was no news coming in for the winter months from the outside world we were absolutely cut off till spring would come. So every one was expected to help in gathering items of interest a riddle. a story anything. My brother sent weather readings from our mission station. I contributed a few sketches for our paper was an illustrated one and we looked forward to receiving it on Sat.

The Bp wrote it out & transferred it on a gelatine press for sufficient numbers for the regular customers. about 10 or 12 I suppose the Hankins ourselves & the miners ~~to~~ ~~the Bp~~

Mrs. H. K. Andrews

Memo with Hazelton Queek. ~~Miss Wood~~'s writing?

"In the year 1880, I went North with my brother to stay with our people the Tomlinsons. My brother to assist in farm and agricultural work which Mr.Tomlinson the missionary was starting, to help the Indians improve their mode of life. And had settled at a little place called Ankihtlast - about 150 miles from the Coast and 20 miles from Hazelton, near the head of Navigation on the Skeena. I went to try and help my sister with the children (four in number). In the year of 80 & 81 Bp. and Mrs.Ridley having been sent by the C.M.S. to be head of the Missions were living at what we called "The Forks" (the junction of the Bulkley & Skeena), Now I believe called Old Hazelton. Wishing to do all possible to help the whites, Mrs.Ridley started what she called pleasant evenings on every Tuesday and her house was open house specially for the men who came out from Omineca. An evening of readings, music and general social intercourse. This social evening developed into a desire for a weekly paper, both the Bp. and Mrs.R. were talented & had taken many sketches locally. Mrs.R. and I going out together, sketching up the Haguilket Valley. There was no news coming in for the winter months from the outside world, we were absolutely cut off till spring would come. So everyone was expected to help in gathering items of interest, a riddle, a story, anything. My brother sent weather readings from our mission station. I contributed a few sketches, for our paper was an illustrated one, and we looked forward to receiving it on Saturday.

The Bp. wrote out and transferred it on a gelatine press, sufficient numbers for the regular customers - about 10 or 12 I suppose; the Hankins, ourselves, & the miners. ~~The Bp.~~"

Mrs. H.K. Andrews

Memo with Hazelton Queek. ~~Miss Woodis~~ writing.

"In the year 1880. I went North with my brother to stay with our people the Tomlinsons. My brother to assist in farm and agricultural work which Mr. Tomlinson the missionary was starting to help the Indians improve their mode of life. And had settled at a little place called Ankihllast.(?) - about 150 miles from the Coast and 20 miles from Hazelton, near the head of Navigation on the Skeena. I went to try and help my sister with the children,(four in number). In the year of 80 & 81 Bp. & Mrs Ridley having been sent by the C.M.S. to be head of the Missions were living at what we called "The Forks". (the junction of the Bulkley & Skeena.) Now I believe called Old Hazelton. Wishing to do all possible to help the whites. Mrs Ridley stated what she called pleasant evenings on every Tuesday and her house was open house specially for the men who came out from Omenica. An evening of readings, music and general social intercourse. This social evening developed into a desire for a weekly paper. both the Bp. & Mrs R. were talented & had taken many sketches locally. Mrs. R. and I going out together, sketching up the Haguilket Valley. There was no news coming in for the winter months from the outside world we were absolutely cut off till spring would come. So everyone was expected to help in gathering items of interest, a riddle, a story, anything. My brother sent weather readings from ~~out~~ our mission station. I contributed a few sketches for our paper was an illustrated one, and we looked forward t

(Helen Kate Woods)

to receiving it on Saturday.

The Bishop wrote out and transferred it on a gelatine press sufficient numbers for the regular customers. About 10 or 12 I suppose. the Hankins, ourselves, & the miners. ~~the Bp.~~