Vice-President, JOHN FITZWILLIAM, Foreman War Eagle and Centre Star Mines

Treasurer, R W. HARTLEY, Merchant; Secretary, H. W. C. JACKSON

Directors:—S. J. Brailo, miner; E. J. Balfour, master mechanic War Eagle and Centre Star Mines; J. S. Clute, Barrister and Solicitor.

Managing Director, S. W. HALL.

The Bonanza Mine.

The company owns the Bonanza No. 3 a full-sized mineral claim, on St. Thomas mountain, three and a half miles from Gladstone on the main trail from Rossland.

The claim is traversed by several ledges of free milling gold ore. On the central or discovery ledge a tunnel has been driven fifty feet, in ore all the way, which has an average value of $15 per ton. The face, which is at a depth of thirty-five feet, shows nearly two feet of $22 ore.

A force of miners will be put to work in this tunnel on Monday with the intention of continuing it right through the claim (1,500 feet), as by this means the ledge will be explored and tonnage developed most rapidly. Every two feet of drifting will add at least one foot of depth.

Treasury Shares.

Of the 600,000 shares in the treasury, the directors have been authorized to sell 100,000 shares as follows:

40,000 Shares at 3c. and 60,000 Shares at 5c.

At the first shareholders' meeting held on October 18, those present subscribed for 22,000 shares at 3 cents, leaving out of the first block

Only 18,000 Shares at 3 c.

THE CAMPAIGN

"My advice to workingmen is this: If you want power in this country; if you want to make yourself felt; if you do not want your children to wait long years before they have the bread on the table they ought to have, the opportunities in life they ought to have; if you do not want to wait yourselves, write on your banner so that every political trimmer can read it, 'We never forget.' If you launch the arrow of sarcasm at labor, we never forget; if there is a division in Congress, and you throw your vote in the wrong scale, we never forget. You may go down on your knees and say, 'I am sorry I did the act,' and we will say, 'It will avail you in heaven, but on this side of the grave, NEVER.'"—Phillips.

Should Call at Committee Rooms.

All electors interested in the candidacy of Chris Foley are requested to call at the committee rooms of the Independent Labor Party. There is much practical work to be done yet and it is necessary that every man should do his part.

The Candidate's Tour.

This week the Independent Labor Party candidate, Chris Foley, Miner, has been campaigning in East Kootenay. Next week it is probable that he will go north and carry the fight into the enemy's country.

Date of Election

It turns out that the information on which the World based its prediction that the election would not be held in Yale-Cariboo until November 21st, was correct. During the returning officer's visit to Rossland he informed us that the date would be fixed as near the 21st as possible.

Silverton.

Joseph Brandon writes that in Silverton Foley will have a large majority of all the votes in that camp.

Another letter from Silverton says "Foley is the man of the hour." Criticism of him, his speech here and his party is conspicuous by its absence.

All Over.

There are several good workers in Vernon who are making every effort to poll a good vote for the Labor candidate.

Windermere in East Kootenay is being looked after, while it is believed that Peterboro will give a good account of itself.

Golden, with its railroad and saw mill men will do its duty, while reports from Field go to show that the railway vote there will be solid for Foley.

Whitewater.

Secretary McIsaac of Whitewater, writes in a most encouraging strain. There is little opposition to the Labor Party in that camp. The candidate's meeting there was a great success, the largest ever hel dthere and it unanimously endorsed the candidacy of the Labor man.

Greenwood.

The Retail Clerks' Association is pledged to support Foley. The Miners' Union is all right and the Carpenters' Union is solid. No other candidate has a ghost of a show to carry Greenwood.

Revelstoke.

"Prospects improving here every day," writes Frank Craig.

Slocan City.

The secretary of the Labor committee at Slocan City, J. A. Foley, writes that the Labor candidate will poll a large majority over both the old candidates in that city and district. Foley's meeting there was a great success.

Ymir.

Secretary Parr, Ymir, states that Foley sentiment is growing in that camp and there is little doubt at this writing that the Labor man will receive a majority of the votes cast in Ymir.

From Nelson.

Walter Kee, secretary of the Nelson Foley committee, writes that everything is all right in that city and that he prospects for Foley carrying the city with a good majority are considerably better. Everybody is working hard.

Sandon.

W. L. Hagler, secretary of the Sandon Miners' Union, writes that the miners in that camp are becoming more and more enthused and that many outside the ranks of labor are becoming interested and that they will vote for the labor candidate.

Kimberley.

The Kimberley correspondent reports that "Foley will poll six votes here and in this district to one for either of the other candidates."

Phoenix.

"Foley will poll a large vote here. The whole Boundary is for him," writes the Phoenix secretary.

A Hot Time in Moyie.

Candidate Foley spoke to one of the largest audiences ever gathered in Moyie Tuesday night. The large crowd was wildly enthusiastic. Laborers, miners and business men, one and all are in line for the Labor candidate. Moyie is solid.

Nanaimo.

In this constituency there appears to be a serious split where there should be harmony. Ralph Smith is a candidate for the commons and is receiving the support of the labor people and one faction of the Liberals. The balance of the Liberals, headed by W. W. B. McInnis, once a good labor man, are supporting the candidacy of W. Sloan, who made a fortune in the Klondike and is now trying to break into parliament. However, it is not believed that any possible combination can be made whereby Smith will be defeated.

Auction, Wallace's, this afternoon and evening.

In Victoria.

The two present members, Colonel Prior and C. Earle, are the nominees of the Conservatives. Victoria has never returned a Liberal since it was created a constituency, but it is very probable that this election will prove an exception. R. L. Drury, one time provincial organizer for the Liberal party, a member of a trades union and with strong labor sympathies, has been placed in nomination by the Liberals. He will receive support from the labor unions and the prospects are good for his election, probably defeating Colonel Prior.

New Westminster.

Will MacClain, the Socialist candidate in New Westminster district will receive a big vote Some Liberals and a few Conservatives declare that his vote will be as big as either of the other two candidates, Ex-Governor Dewdney, Conservative, and Auley Morrison, Liberal.

Vancouver.

Six years ago there was a serious split in the Conservative party in Vancouver and many Tories voted for Rev. George Maxwell, the Grit candidate. He was returned by a small majority. This year the Conservatives are united and have chosen ex-Mayor Garden as their standard bearer. He is at present a member of the provincial legislature, and his record during the last session shows that he is not at all friendly to labor, voting against almost every measure favored by the organizations of his home city. Labor men considered themselves too weak to elect a candidate of their own, and the idea of returning Garden was not to be tolerated for a moment. Consequently a fusion was effected with the Liberals, and Mr. Maxwell was renominated. His election is a cinch. He is not, strictly speaking, a labor man, but his record on labor legislation is several degrees better than that of his opponent.

A vote for Galliher is a vote for MacNeill.

A vote for MacNeill is a vote to perpetuate wrong.

Why Workingmen Should Vote for Foley

The following is from the Labor column in the Nelson Tribune:

Workingmen's attention is called to the following ten reasons why they should vote for Foley:

1. Because he is a workingman himself and is thoroughly acquainted with the needs of his fellow-workers.

2. Because he is not pledged to either of the old parties and will be entirely free to act for the benefit of his constituents.

3. Because there are already in parliament too many lawyers for the country's good.

4. Because the welfare of the country requires beneficial legislation for the masses and not for the classes.

5. Because he will strenuously oppose all monopolies.

6. Because he did not seek the office, but the office sought him.

7. Because wage earners, the backbone of the country, ought to be more fully represented in parliament.

8. Because he is thoroughly capable of defending and promoting the cause of organized labor.

9. Because many of the privileges you now enjoy are the results of the action of organized labor and it is necessary to have a properly qualified representative to support and extend them.

10. Because you have the majority of voters and if united are bound to succeed.

SATURDAY, OCT. 27, 1900.

The interests of the farmers, the miners, the merchants and the capitalists have all been considered by Mr. Foley, the Independent candidate, and he is determined to deal justly by all sections of the community. His past record is a sure guarantee that the interests of the whole people will be attended to by electing him to the Dominion parliament. He stands for equal rights to all, special privileges to none, and an active, intelligent advocacy of the great natural resources of this country.

If elected he will be entirely independent of the two great parties in Dominion politics and yet been on such friendly terms with each that he will be able to approach thir leaders and lay the needs of this constituency before them in a manner that will be received by them as coming from one who is not an opponent or supporter of either party, but who will give a cordial support to measures brought forward by any party in the interests of the people.

Consider Foley on his merits.

His record is flawless.

His personal character is above reproach.

He is on friendly terms with both political parties.

As a public speaker and debater he has few equals.

He refused to consider an offer of a government position at a big salary to work in the interests of the people.

His residence is right in the industrial heart of the constituency. He knows its needs and can and will make himself felt in parliament.

If elected he will represent not only his own constituency, but the whole of the organizd labor of Canada as well, and his influence will therefore be greater than any other representative that could be elected.

A vote for Galliher is a vote for MacNeill.

A vote for MacNeill is a vote to perpetuate wrong.

When the Labor Party decided to place a candidate in nomination the Liberals declared that it was nothing but a Conservative scheme to elect MacNeill, and that a vote for Foley would be a vote for MacNeill. Now the tables are turned, and the Liberal candidate is so hopelessly beaten by the labor candidate that many Liberals now declare that a vote for Galliher is a vote for MacNeill, and as they cannot tolerate the idea of the election of the Conservative, they are flocking to the Foley standard in shoals. At this indication of the turning tide Conservative leaders are looking glum. They recognize the fact that all that is needed to make Foley's election doubly sure is the depiction of a few supporters of the Liberal candidate. Liberals should see their duty plainly at this time, and that to defeat MacNeill Foley must be elected.

Reports from all over Yale-Cariboo are most encouraging to the supporters of Mr. Foley. It is now conceded that he will have a big lead in East Kootenay, Slocan, Nelson and Rossland divisions. It remains to be seen if one of the other candidates can poll a sufficiently large vote in Yale and Northeast Kootenay to overcome that lead. At present this seems very doubtful, and indications point to the triumphant election of the independent candidate.

A vote for Galliher is a vote for MacNeill.

A vote for MacNeill is a vote to perpetuate wrong.

F. J. Deane is travelling all over the province at the expense of the Dominion, ostensibly securing data to present to the commission which will sit shortly. The World has kept close cases on Mr. Deane in his travels. So far it has not learned of his taking much interest in the Chinese question, but has learned of his talking politics a great deal and canvassing for te Liberal candidates from Nelson to Victoria and at almost every place between.

H. W. C. Jackson, of the Rossland Liberal push, on his return from a trip to Nelson this week, declared that the campaign was going exactly as the Liberals wished it. If so, the Liberals must want to see Foley elected, for that is the way the campaign is going just now.

In voting for Foley the workers of this district will not be voting for a "Friend of Labor," which both old party candidates claim to be. Foley is not a "friend" simply. He is one of the workers. He has a union card in his pocket.

A vote for Galliher is a vote for MacNeill.

A vote for MacNeill is a vote to perpetuate wrong.

Union men should purchase from our advertisers. They appreciate the World and are your friends.

There Will Be No Wreck.

The Greenwood Miner inspeaking of the local Independent Labor Party organization, has this to say of the Greenwood men: The Independent Labor Party are fortunate in their selection of officers. With J. J. Caulfield at the helm, the Independent Labor ship will avoid those rocks that have already wrecked many good vessels of that class.

Journalistic Amenities.

The Nelson Tribune now declares itself to be politically independent. It offers its columns to Grits, Tories and Socialists alike. This is a case, apparently, in which the Tribune, having failed in an effort to be the whole thing, has decided to be everything.—Rossland Miner.

As between the Tribune and the Rossland Miner, this looks like a case of horse and horse, and the Tribune's next shake. Rossland Record.

Remember the Label.

Union men owe it to themselves to assist and protect one another. This is shown in the adoption of the Union label to be placed upon the product of their hands. The label is the badge and certificate of honest toil, fair wages and skilled workmen. It is never found on shoddy goods. How necessary it is, therefore, that the preachers of unionism practice what they preach. Don't be content with any old thing. Insist upon having Union label goods everywhere and upon all occasions.

SHOE FACTORIES.

A Shut-Down of the Manufacturers—1,000 Men Involved.

Quebec, Oct. 25.—There is trouble on again between the Quebec shoe manufacturers and the men. It grew out of the refusal of a union man to work for weekly wages instead of piece work. He was discharged and a non-union man engaged. As a result all the men in the factory went out. The manufacturers' committee thereupon decided to shut down until a better understanding is obtained. About thirty factories and a thousand men are involved.

Militia Called Out.

Montreal, Oct. 25.—The local militia has been called out to go to Valleyfield to suppress trouble among workingmen on the new buildings of the Montreal Cotton company, who went on strike a few days ago for an advance in wages.

MINERS' UNION MEETING.

A Big Attendance—Growth of the W. F. M.—The Sick List.

As a result of the advertising given it and the notices posted calling attention to the fact that there was business of importance to come up for consideration, Wednesday night's meeting was a record breaker, so far as attendance goes. Not a seat was vacant when the president rapped for order, and the whole meeting proved a most interesting and instructive one.

The sick committee reported the following brothers sick: Larry McKelvey, Frank Albo, Alfred Kennard, R. Croft, John Regnier, all with fever, save one, who is suffering with an injured foot.

A communication was received from the manufacturers of the "Boss of the Road" overalls, calling attention to the fact that the product of their factory bears the label of the Garment Workers' Union, and that their factory is union throughout. Union men were requested to remember this and ask for "Boss of the Road."

The semi-annual report of the Western Federation of Miners was read and ordered filed. The report was filled with good news for members of the local unions, showing the financial condition of the federation, its receipts and expenditures.

Not the least interesting was the paragraph of the report relating to the progress made in organization during the past half year. It reads:

"Since the last report there has been a great deal of activity shown in organizing, and we are glad to inform you that 16 new unions have been added to the federation since the last report."

The report shows a most satisfactory increase in the membership of all the older unions.

A new design of button has been made and can now be furnished by the secretary of the federation.

The secretary of the board of trustees was instructed to let a contract for the installation of a furnace in the hall, and to have the work commenced at once. The furnace and fittings will cost an even five hundred dollars.

After voting a goodly amount of money for sick benefits, the routine business of the meeting was finished, and several of the members turned themselves loose and made rattling good speeches on several questions of interest to union men.

A vote for Galliher is a vote for MacNeill.

Who Fails to Get the Magazine?

President O'Brien of the Miners' Union wishes to have all subscribers who have failed to receive the Miners' Magazine regularly notify him at once, and says that he will see that it is received. He is in receipt of a letter from the publisher stating that there has been a great deal of trouble in the Denver postoffice in getting the magazine sent out. It was found that in some cases the paper was thrown into the waste basket in bundles by the postoffice people instead of starting them on their journey to almost every part of the earth where gold is mined.

Carpenters' Union Purchase Real Estate.

Monday the Carpenters' Union paid over the purchase price of the lot lying on the west side of the Marsh building on Second avenue. The parcel of real estate cost the carpenters just $1,300. It is the intention of the union in the near future to erect a fine three-story business block on the lot, with a hall and lodge rooms on the upper floor.

Young Men's Institute.

The Young Men's Institute now has comfortable club rooms over the "Bank," Columbia avenue. This society is a social, educational and beneficial organization, and its membership now numbers 65. Its official title is Rossland Council No. 545, Y. M. I. The Institute will give a dance in Miners Union hall on the evening of November 19th.

Cigars and Cigars.

When you ask for a cigar why don't you insist on a good one? Nine cases out of ten you will be offered a cheap, scab made cigar unless you name the kind wanted. They all cost you the same money, good or bad. Now why not get a good one. Ask for the best Crown Giant or W. B. You will then be encouraging a home industry, too. Think of this the next time you ask for "a cigar."

The Carpenters' Union.

Last night the Carpenters' Union held a most interesting and largely attended meeting. Business of the greatest importance to the craft in Rossland was discussed, so the World is informed. The officers report everything going smoothly with the knights of the plane, and that the enthusiasm in favor of the Labor candidate for the commons is remarkable, and that the members to a man will vote for their fellow workman.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

W. C. Preston, treasurer of the Miners' Union, who has been very ill with fever for several weeks is sufficiently recovered as to be able to work again going on shift Sunday.

James Wilks, the well-known secretary of Nelson Miners' Union, and president of the District Association, W. F. M., was in town Wednesday, conferring with the local executive of the Independent Labor Party. He returned to Nelson on the next morning's train.

The Eagles are making great preparations for their masquerade ball to be given in Miners' Union hall on halloween night. There is no doubt the affair will prove a great success. Tickets can be secured at Spring's jewelry store, and Morrow's drug store.

Don't forget the "Boss of the Road" is a union overall. It is sold By the Crescent Dry Goods company.

"Billy" Spellman and Miss Alice Northey were married at Northport Tuesday. Their many friends are offering congratulations while "Billy" is buying the cigars.

It is not too early to remind the electors that a municipal election is not far away. Householders who have not registered should remember that they can register only in November, and that commencing next Thursday the registration office will be open and applications can be made.

"GOODEVE'S BRILLIANT SPEECH."

Editor World: The philosopher and guide of the newly formed Liberal-Conservative Club delivered an address to his political friends at the Board of Trade rooms on Saturday night last, in which he prattles merrily of the pure-souled patriotism of his heaven-born party and winds up with an appeal for pie for his candidate, thusly: "The members should as MacNeill men, agitate the relation of the mining industry to the Dominion of Canada and work for the creation of a minister of mines, who should be Mr. A. H. MacNeill, the future member for this riding." Is not that neat and goodevelike, to not forget the "pap." Then said oracle Goodeve, "One of the chief things to be considered in the development of the country and its resources the education of the electorate along Liberal-Conservative lines." I quite agree with the speakers that a study of the reign of the so-called Liberal-Conservative party, especially in relation to the manner in which they have dealt with the land and resources of Canada, would present a most interesting theme for education, but where will the "young man" voter get the facts? On studying the campaign literature of both the old parties will not the young man marvel—as he reads the long catagory of crimes that each of them is charged with by their opponents—how the leaders have escaped the penitentiary.

Four years ago the people found the Conservative party reeling with the intoxication of wealth and power. It had boasted of having created monopolies, which, while enslaving the nation, the party openly bargained with for support. Today it puts forward no program of reform and incidently has few convictions that are not born of selfishness, arrogance and corruption.

The Liberal party has not proved altogether the ideal party that the electors fondly hoped for. This is in a great measure due to the obstruction of their opponents in the house and in the senate, where proposed reforms asked for by the masses were mutilated and rejected. Certain it is that the Liberal party is today nearer the heart of the mass of the people than its adversary.

But the young man student of present conditions is becoming convinced that today both parties are being tried on the balances of national needs and possibilities and are found wanting. Therefore it is that a new party has come for the NEW TIME—the present. With little heralding of trumpets, without observation by many of the mighty and wise and noble, silently, irresistably, brightly as the morning, it has come.

The existence of this part was partially expressed in the words of Lord Salisbury in 1894:

"I am certain that a party in this country—unnamed as yet—that is disconnected with any existing political organization; a party that is inclined to say a plague on both your houses! a plague on all your parties a plague on all your politics! a plague on all your unending discussions that yield so little fruit."

And that can be more fully pictured in the words of Andrew Reid:

"Its body is being grown; it cannot be made; it will become the most comprehensive, picturesque, historical, ideal, ethical, political party which has ever stepped foot on Gods earth. Universal, as well as national, its commanding and baptising parties are social. It is the party of the inspired peoples."

I do not insist that one of the now existing parties who have been so long playing fast and loose with the people, may not be "reborn" to meet the present demands; but if that should be the case it would be so complete a transformation that its former devotees would not recognize it, and it certainly would not recognize them. For one of the first indications that we need a New Party is, that the old parties have become deadened in their moral nature and linger only as cumberers of the ground.

Revelstoke, B. C., Oct. 23rd.

Editor World: Things are quiet here; the Independents are the only ones working at all. Our cause is looking up. The opinion here is that Galliher should withdraw in the interest of the Laurier government, as those working men who were Liberals conclude that as long as Laurier does what is right the Labor men will support him; but if he holds his candidate in the field he reduces the chance of his getting any support at all, by tending to insure the election of a Conservative, because they justly claim that there is more working men who are Liberals than there are Conservatives and while Mr. Foley will draw from both, he will draw most from the Liberals.

The Conservatives here claim that with three men in the field their fight is won. Well, I cannot but admit that it increases their chances, but that our man Foley is more than a negative factor, and therein lies the error of their calculations.

If the Laurier government want a man who will support them when they do right as against a man whose party is in opposition as a party policy, and a man to whose interest it will be to oppose and decry the Laurier government at all times let them withdraw Mr. Galliher.

The Labor candidate is in the field to stay, and he is in the field to win; and he bases his hopes of victory on the intelligence of his fellow workers, and on the knowledge that most working men are aware that they can be better represented by a working man than they can by anybody else, a lawyer in particular, and he knows that out of the bitter experience of the past that working men have come to regard pre election promises to be like pie crust (intended to be broken). You can't fool all the people all the time, even in Yale-Cariboo.

Up to the present no one has the hardihood to oppose Mr. Putte in Winnipeg. How is that for a Labor member. The same may almost be said of Mr. Smith in Nanaimo, for Mr. Sloan comes as near being as good a definition of nothing, in this connection, as a footless stocking without a leg. And when the next election rolls around it will be hard to get a man in Yale-Cariboo silly enough to fancy he would stand a ghost of a show against Chris Foley.

On the other hand we have here in Yale-Cariboo a working men's constituency. It is safe to claim that three-fourths of the voters are working men. Now what would you think if Chris Foley was to be a candidate in this district, supposing that instead of this three-fourths being working men they were lawyers, and of his wanting to go to parliament to represent them. Well, there is just this in it, either Foley would be a fool or most of those lawyers would be idiots.

Now look at the other side; is there not as little sense in a lawyer wanting to represent workingmen, as workingmen wanting to represent lawyers. In that case either the lawyer is a fool or most of the workingmen are idiots.

Some may say a lawyer's business is to make laws. Is it? A lawyer's business is to fish for suckers and to bin them when he gets hold of them; most of them can do that. But make laws; lawyers have made most of the laws all over the civilized world and you can get almost as many different opinions on any law as there are lawyers. You know that as well as I do.

I suppose that comes of it being their business to make the laws.

F. CRAIG.

PLATFORM

Of the Independent Labor Party of British Columbia.

Following is the platform adopted by the Nelson convention of the Independent Labor party of British Columbia on which Candidate Chris Foley squarely stands:

1. Free compulsory education.
2. Legal working day of eight hours.
3. Government inspection of all industries.
4. Abolition of contract system on all public works.
5. Public ownership of all franchises.
6. Prohibition of Asiatic immigration and the regulation of all immigration by an educational test as to immigrant's fitness, and the abolition of all special inducements and privileges to foreign immigrants to settle in the Dominion.
7. Abolition of child labor under 12.
8. Abolition of the $250 deposit required of all candidates for the Dominion house.
9. Compulsory arbitration of all labor disputes.
10. Prohibition of prison labor in competition with free labor.
11. All election days to be made public holidays
12. Abolition of Dominion senate.

FOLEY - - - - - - - TO THE ELECTORS

To the Electors of Yale-Cariboo:

In requesting your support to my candidacy for the Dominion House of Commons, it is due to you that I give public expression to my views on the several planks of the platform of the Independent Labor Party:

1. Compulsory education has become a recognized necessity in most countries and as such has my hearty endorsement
2. Legal work day, 8 hours.

Modern invention has so enormously increased the productive power of man that his wants can be supplied with a fraction of the time and effort heretofore necessary for that purpose. Labor as well as capital should benefit by these changed conditions. The 8-hour law is a step in that direction and I shall heartily enforce any legislation looking to that end.

3. Government inspection of industries.

Under modern economic conditions the management of industrial concerns figure on results, not the methods by which they are to be obtained. An oversupplied labor market enables them to impose on employes any conditions they may deem necessary. Protest as a rule means dismissal from service and probable want to their little ones. In throwing the strong arm of the law about these children of misfortune you are simply following the teachings of the meek and lowly Jesus, who said suffer the little ones to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

4. Abolition of contract system.

The abuses that have grown up under the contract system as outlined in the first issue of the Dominion Labor Gazette should convince even the hide-bound partizan of the necessity of the enactment of such a law.

5. Public ownership of franchises.

Our experience in the control of the postal department, public schools, public highways, municipal lighting plants and waterworks is sufficient ground for the extension of the same system to railroads, telegraph, telephone, and express business. The experience of people in New Zealand, Australia, Germany and elsewhere has demonstrated that these functions can be performed by the government with a very great advantage to the people and I most heartily endorse legislation looking to that end.

5. Prohibition of Asiatic emigration and educational test.

The presence here in large numbers of this non-assimilating race robs Canadian labor of its birthright. Every Mongol landing puon our shores lessens rather than increases our population. The white laborer which he replaces would as a rule marry and settle among us, increasing the population by at least three. This means to the merchant less mouths to feed, and less backs to clothe, to the doctor less demand for his services, to the transportation companies less traffic, to the dentist less teeth to fill, to the mechanic less buildings to erect, to the real estate dealer less demand for property including less force for the same, to the farmer less sale for produce, to the newspaper man less papers to be sold, to the preacher smaller congregations, and to the bootblack fewer shoes to shine. Their presence works injury to all branches of the economic system. I oppose their coming here on the same grounds I would oppose the taking of more passengers into an open boat already loaded to the sinking line in mid-Pacific. Every Chinaman occupying a position in domestic services interferes with the natural laws as applying to the industrial body, robing our women of employment naturally belonging to them to the extent that for every Chinaman so employed some one's sister or daughter is driven to prostitution, evolving a race problem destined to breed seas of blood and that will some day mantle the Canadian cheek with a blush for his country's shame.

7. Abolition of child labor.

An economic system that drives the child from the cradle to the factory to compete with its own father is certainly the legitimate child of an industrial system having greed as its basic principlee. Legislation along lines opposed to this will receive my hearty support.

8. Abolition of the $250 deposit.

Under conditions where all are amenable to the law and assume the responsibility of defending the country's flag and institutions all should be entitled alike to aspire to the highest position in the gift of their countrymen without being taxed for the privilege of so doing. I would repeal that law.

9. Compulsory arbitration.

Compulsory arbitration as applied in New Zealand looms up on the horizon of progress not as a dream, but as a practical method of reconciling the conflicting interests of labor and capital, and is destined, I think, in the near future (if applied) to prevent those periodical industrial wars and lend a security to all branches of business such as is impossible under existing conditions and as such receives my hearty approval.

10. All election days to be made public holidays.

I would also favor the passage of a law making the exercise of the franchise compulsory for the following reasons: First—Money can and does purchase the votes of the drunkard, the sewer hog and criminal, the vote of the intelligent but indiffrent citizen would counterbalance this evil, and I believe it is as much the duty of every citizen to poll his vote as it is to pay his taxes. In making this a compulsory duty you are simply compelling him to do that by the ballot which he is already compelled to do by the bullet—defend the institutions of his country.

12. Abolition of the Senate.

I look upon the upper house as a useless and extremely annoying political luxury, as a stumbling block to progressive legislation, as a home for political imbeciles, who seem to have resolved themselves into a political inquisition, who pounce upon every progressive measure that passes the lower house, brand it as heresy and proceed to pronounce the sentence of political damnation upon all accordingly, and if any little effort I can make can assist in exterminating that aristocracy in politics I can assure you it will be exercised with the greatest of pleasure.

Trusting that my ideas on the several subjects will meet your views, and that I will receive your support, I remain,

CHRIS FOLEY.

If you are looking for a location for a home you cannot do better than consult E. Charles, land agent for the N. & F. S. railway. He can suit you in every particular. Lots in the new addition, suitable for any purpose can be purchased just now on very reasonable terms. The lots he is now selling are on the sunny side of Trail creek.
