ALL THE CLUBS ARE EVEN

Competition in the Pacific Coast League Reaches Most Interesting Stage.

Still another surprise packet in the football world! Since closing up the Standard Sporting Casuerie, Victoria have met and vanquished the representatives of Vancouver. There is nothing more encouraging than success, and if the Capital City players combine system with their vim, and vigor of play, they will make a formidable opponent.

There are as yet no particulars to hand of the game. The score is given as 3 to 0 in favor of Victoria. The Vancouver stalwarts were therefore decisively beaten, almost ignominiously beaten. A week ago they put it all over a weakened team. They never eased up for a moment, and against nine men strove to increase their score. It may be that they had something of the same luck at Victoria; but if there were no accidents, it is the worst beating of the season.

The result so far as the competition is concerned, will please everybody. All the teams are on an even footing so far as points are concerned, but Ladysmith and Nanaimo have a little the best of it in fixtures. Vancouver is perhaps the strongest home team in the League, and Ladysmith has been there, Nanaimo, Seattle and Vancouver are due to games here, while the home boys' hardest game is with Nanaimo away. In other words, the locals have one away game, Nanaimo two, Victoria three, Vancouver two, and Seattle two. If anything, therefore, the home boys have a little the best of the remaining fixtures.

There is almost certain to be a close and exciting finish to the League, which is all that much the better for the game on the coast. It is up to the home club to take the lead, and provided a success is scored on Sunday, the club should pretty near secure the pennant. Meantime not for years, if ever before has a football competition reached such a stage as is shown in the following table:

League Table.	P.	W.	L.	D.	Pts.
Nanaimo	4	2	2	0	4
Ladysmith	4	2	2	0	4
Vancouver	4	2	2	0	4
Seattle	4	2	2	0	4
Victoria	4	2	2	0	4

UNEMPLOYED AND LORD MAYOR'S SHOW.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The unemployed turned out in considerable force this morning to take part in the celebration of Lord Mayor's Day, and the procession was marked by some unusual scenes. Crowds of working men and women were massed at prominent points along the route of the parade and here and there were bands of suffragettes distributing their literature, but these demonstrations, however, were entirely outside of keeping the throngs from breaking over the sidewalks into the roadway the forces of metropolitan police that were massed along the route had little or nothing to do.

The procession was exceedingly spectacular though in all its essential features and in the chief ceremonies that followed, the programme was identical with that carried out each year on November 9 from time immemorial. The general scheme of the pageant was symbolical of literature and music, in recognition of the fact that Sir George Truscott, the new Lord Mayor is a prominent member of the Stationers' and Musicians' companies.

The procession followed the customary route to the Law Courts where the new Lord Mayor was formally received by the Lord Chancellor. Thence by a different route the pageant wound its way through the crowded thoroughfares back to the Guild Hall where the customary Lord Mayor's banquet is held this evening, and at which the foremost men in public life will be the speakers.

Sir George Truscott, the new chief magistrate of London, is fifty-one years of age. He became alderman in 1895 and sheriff in 1902. He is prominent in commercial life, being the head of a large firm of printers and manufacturing stationers, and also identified with numerous other companies. He is possessed of immense wealth and will hardly need the salary of $50,000 he will receive for his services of an year as Lord Mayor.

GETTING READY FOR THE FRAY

Home Boys will Line up Against the Champions in P. C. L. Match.

After a very quiet opening, the Pacific Coast League promises now to develop all kinds of excitement. The home team played two games without hardly any notice being taken of the fact. It was only after the disasters of last week end, that any general interest was manifested in their chances. On the whole the double defeat of the team was taken in good part, but there were some who had already known what it would be, and already had consigned the team to an inglorious position in the table.

These old croakers have lost their parrot cry now. They didn't tell us what was going to happen either at Victoria or Seattle and with all the clubs standing even they really didn't know what to think and cannot frame a word. The home club's chances are of the rosiest description if only the game can be pulled off on Sunday. The first thing to be done is to beat Nanaimo.

Of course, this is easier said than done. Nanaimo have generally something to say to whoever they are up against, and they always keep a few special jolts and jabs for the benefit of Ladysmith. Still on the home grounds they are at a disadvantage and they know it. It will be a great game; but the points should remain here.

The home team will probably not be chosen until Friday evening. Meantime the boys are going out every night and will be in the best shape for Sunday. Brass and Adam are still doubtful starters; but both are working hard to get ready if possible. If it is found impossible to play them there are plenty of good substitutes available. It is to be hoped that the day will be fine, and let the best team take the points.

ELECTION FEUD HAS A TRAGIC END.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 10 — Messages by wire and mail from various sections testify to the tremendous sensation caused throughout the state and the south by the killing of former Senator E. W. Carmack, by young Robin Jones Cooper in a street duel here late yesterday. Carmack's brilliant career as a United States senator from Tennessee had made him one of the best known of national figures. Col. Duncan Cooper, father of Robin Cooper, who was with his son when the duel occurred, has an extensive acquaintance and a legion of friends both in his own and various other states.

Carmack's race for the Democratic nomination for senator in which he was defeated by Senator Robt. Taylor, and his more recent race for the governorship in which he was defeated by Gov. Patterson, has served to draw his followers in the state closer to him, and his tragic end has spread distress and bitterness among them.

Young Cooper, after having his injuries dressed, spent a quiet night in a hospital last night in charge of an officer. His injuries proved to be slight, and this morning he was reported as having rested easily. His father spent the night at the police headquarters, and is reported to have slept well. Col. Cooper turned over his revolver, none of the chambers of which were empty, to a police sergeant. Robin Cooper did likewise with his and one empty shell dropped out of the magazine when the young man's weapon was unbreached. It is an automatic magazine revolver, and it is not known how many shells had been fired but it was thought that an examination would show three. Two chambers of the revolver of Senator Carmack were empty.

Only two statements were made by young Cooper while with the physicians last night. One was a request to his father to give up his pistol, and in the other he said, "I'm sorry the shooting occurred."

Col. Cooper, who was with his son when the latter shot and killed Senator Carmack, was brought before Squire Levine today. Cooper was charged with murder and carrying concealed weapons. He waived examination and was remanded to jail without bail. Warrants were sworn out today against Robin Cooper charging him with murder and carrying concealed weapons.

FAILED TO APPEAR

Salt Spring Players Disappointed the Home Intermediates Monday.

The football match advertised to take place between the Salt Spring Islanders and the local intermediates did not take place for the very sufficient reason that the men from the Island never showed up. Whether their boat refused to sail, or whether they fouled the transfer, or whatever did happen is not known here. They did not turn up and there was no game. This was rather a pity for there was quite a crowd down to see the game, and some of the boys lost a day's work to play it. However, it is only fair to assume that the Salt Spring boys were prevented from getting here by some unforeseen cause and another date can be arranged.

DIPLOMATIC VICTORY OF FRANCE.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—The foreign office regards the Casa Blanca incident the case of the German deserters from the foreign legion of the French army, which has disturbed the relations between France and Germany for ten days past, is virtually closed, and is expected that an agreement will be signed today. Instructions have been telegraphed to M. Cambon, the French ambassador in Berlin, to accept the proposals submitted by Baron Waechter, of the German foreign office, for the approval of Emperor William. It is consequently conceded here that the matter will be sent to the Hague for arbitration. While there is no disposition to crow over the French victory, great satisfaction is expressed that Germany finally has recognized the justice of the French contention that there could be no disavowal of the acts of French agents at Casa Blanca in advance of arbitration. Germany places her acquiescence to this view upon the widely divergent character of reports concerning the incident sent in by agents of France and Germany respectively.

The formula of settlement as now accepted consists of two declarations the first of which is practically identical to the one submitted by Ambassador Cambon last week and provides that after the exchange of expressions of mutual regret that the incident occurred, that the entire question of law and facts shall be submitted to the arbitration of the Hague tribunal. The second condition is that the country whose agents are adjudged at fault, shall apologize to the other.

"It used to be the height of my ambition to own a motor car," said the worried looking man.

"And what is the height of your ambition now?" asked his friend.

NO MEETING OF THE COUNCIL

There was no meeting of the City Council last night, owing to the fact that the required quorum was not present.

His Worship, the Mayor, was in his place, as were also Aldermen Matheson and Campbell. None of the others were present, although each one might have a good and sufficient reason for his absence.

Under the circumstances, it is rather a pity that there was no meeting. There was a delay of three weeks in introducing the Sewerage By-Law, and now another week has been lost. The life of the Council, in fact hastening to a close, and the record it hoped to achieve is still ahead of it. Certainly the Council has done good work on the streets, and has handled the rather extraordinary occurrences of the year with commendable energy and decision. All the same if it is to finish its term of office with the closing of saloons and billiard rooms on Sunday as its only legislative achievements, it will have come far short of what was expected of it, and may find a considerable diminution in its popularity.

RAILROAD CONSTRUCTION PUSH ED TO BOAT HARBOR

Nanaimo, Nov. 10th.

Although few people in town are aware of it, there is within six miles of this city a railroad in process of rapid construction. This is a line which is being projected by the South Wellington Coal Co. from their mine immediately on the west side of the E. & N. embankment at South Wellington, to Boat Harbor, a small but very safe little anchorage on the east coast of this island, about three miles south of Dodd's Narrows.

The company are putting this road through for the purpose of being able to ship out their own coal from their mine at South Wellington that has been in operation in a small way for a year or so. That the company are sure now that they have coal in quantity as well as quality is evidenced by the fact that, having secured the power to commence operations by the enactment of the Settlers' Rights Bill, they have secured the necessary land and placed the contract for erecting a tipline at the South Wellington mine, and for constructing the road to Boat Harbor in the hands of an enterprising and aggressive contracting firm in this city.

Mr. J. A. Baxter and his colleague in this big undertaking, Mr. Atherton, have been rushing the initial stages of the construction for the past month and at the present time have over two hundred men employed either at the frame in process of erection at the pithead or on the line of construction. A capable staff of engineers is engaged on the project, Mr. Collins being chief engineer and Ross Napier his assistant.

The road will be about seven miles in length. It is being constructed in fourteen different sections, all the timber and brush has been cleared, and at the present time there is not one-half mile in which the sod has not been thrown up in the grading. Temporary construction tracks have been laid and trucks are run in with the timber for ties and bridges.

The line starts at South Wellington, crosses the E. & N. at Fiddick's Junction and meets Nanaimo River where a large island separates its stream near McKinnell's farm. Over the main body of the river, a one hundred and fifty foot Howe truss bridge, which will contain 600 feet of trestling, will be constructed. The line will circle the Whatsheaf hotel, near where the company is instituting coal boring operations. From this place the road will lie on a fairly straight and level line to Trois Bras or Holden's Lake. The south shore is followed to the bottom which will be traversed on a trestling to a ridge, which is followed to the shore of Boat Harbor, where a bridge will connect it with Swan island, an islet in the bay, fully 30 feet in depth at low tide off the wharves.

At present the construction of the entire line is being pushed ahead at a rapid rate. The contractors state that no railway construction work on the island is being put through with so much energy. Sub-contracts have been let to S. York & Co., of Cedar District, and many of the farmers are engaged on the work.

The building of this road means a great deal to Nanaimo for the great bulk of supplies are being purchased in this city. A great number of the men employed on the work reside here and eventually it will do much to enliven trade and relieve the labor market in Nanaimo. It will also aid in developing a region tributary to this city.

AN AMERICAN ON THE COAST

In the October number of "Railway and Locomotive Engineering", a correspondent hands out a nice bouquet to Nanaimo. His name is George H. Jackson, and he came out to British Columbia from Philadelphia with a locomotive for the Western Fuel Company. Mr. Jackson barely mentions that he reached Ladysmith and then goes on to say:

"I was then transferred to the Esquimalt & Nanaimo railway which is operated by the C.P.R. I arrived at Nanaimo on Aug. 2. This is the great coal city on the coast of Vancouver Island. They mine approximately 5,000 tons of the finest steam coal in the world in one day. Steamships from all parts of the world come here for coal. The coal brings $4.50 f.o.b. on the dock. The population is estimated at about 8,000. They have no 'Great White Way' there, and no Singer building, and no Atlantic City, but they are a contented and happy people. Money is plentiful and they spend it as if they got it easy. Twenty-five cents a shave and everything accordingly high."

Mr. Jackson's facts and figures are something like his grammar, a little loose and elastic, but seeing that he does admit the existence of Ladysmith and he possibly never heard of Union Bay and Cumberland, the Standard need offer no apology for publishing this little boost of a near neighbor.

LABOR DELEGATES GATHER IN DENVER.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 10.—In the Denver Auditorium, where the Democratic hosts assembled last July and named William J. Bryan for president, there were gathered yesterday morning hundreds of representatives of the workingmen of America. They were the delegates to the twenty-eighth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor and among them was represented every trade and every industry of the United States. It was an assemblage of bravery, fine looking, intellectual representatives of the toilers, and one that must have immediately impressed itself on the minds of the scores of spectators who filled the galleries and balconies of the big hall.

Promptly at ten o'clock President Samuel Gompers mounted the platform, accompanied by the other officers of the Federation, members of the executive committee and fraternal delegates representing the Western Federation of Miners and the organized labor bodies of Canada and Great Britain. The appearance of President Gompers was greeted with loud and prolonged cheers, many of the delegates rising and continuing the enthusiastic greeting for several minutes. After quiet had been restored welcomes were expressed in behalf of the state of Colorado, the City of Denver and the labor unions of the municipality, and appropriate responses were made by President Gompers and several of the delegates.

The annual address of President Gompers was the chief feature of the opening day's proceedings. The address was one of considerable length. Though it required more than two hours in its delivery the delegates manifested not the slightest sign of impatience and gave it close attention from beginning to end. The salient points of the address were greeted with loud applause, and when Mr. Gompers had finished he received a hearty ovation. Naturally the most interesting paragraphs of the address were those dealing with the participation of the Federation in the recent campaign and election. Injunctions, the boycott, eight-hour legislation and undesirable immigration were treated at considerable length and in Mr. Gompers' customary vigorous style. The spread of child labor legislation was commended and the delegates were urged to renewed efforts in the work of organized labor and disseminating labor propaganda.

The address of President Gompers was followed by the annual reports of Secretary Frank Morrison and Treasurer John B. Lennon. The report of the executive committee also was presented. The convention is expected to remain in session at least a week as many matters of importance are slated for consideration and action. The indications are that the present officers of the Federation will be re-elected without opposition.

NATURALLY.

"See here, landlord," said a guest at the village hotel, as he eyed the flattened pillows and crumpled bed linen, "this bed has been slept in."

"Course it has," replied the landlord triumphantly. "That's what it's for, by grass!"

THANKSGIVING DAY.
 Monday was Thanksgiving Day. The Dominion Government, by proclamation, has set aside this second day of the week as a day of national thanksgiving. Monday was therefore a national holiday. We are not very much concerned with the reasons which prompted the government to decree a Thanksgiving Day, or with the object which such a holiday was intended to serve. Very probably there was more of cant and pretence in it and around it than any real living sentiment. In the first place we know that the holiday is not natural and that it is not nationally observed. A government holiday should be compulsory, and, as far as possible, general in its application. Here we have the shops and stores closed and the mines and other industries at work. Why is it that the miner is excluded from, or at any rate, is not brought into the scope of such a holiday, as a day of national thanksgiving? Is it because the thanks would then prove too costly? Certainly this is the explanation which most naturally and readily suggests itself. And this is not the only holiday of which the miners in this country have been deprived. Certainly they have their Labor and Dominion Days; but that is no reason why they should have sacrificed treat days which are observed all over the Christian world, and it should ever be remembered that, as a general rule, the miner is as much entitled to a holiday as a man in any other occupation or profession. Locally, also, the mines work six full days a week, a condition of employment which is thirty years behind the times. Of course, all this is rather away from the point which we were discussing. Sometimes, however, there is more in a digression than in an argument and this may be one of the times. In any case Thanksgiving Day was a working day here, and if the same half and half observance was practiced all over the Dominion the whole thing is a farce.

STILL SUFFERING.
 The Times is still suffering from election delirium tremens. It cannot find words in Webster big enough and black enough to describe the methods employed by the Colonist to defeat Templeman. This is the same journal which, in order to boost Ralph Smith in this constituency, first manufactured a conspiracy, charged Premier McBride with offering and Messrs. Hawthorthwaite and Shepherd with receiving bribes, and finally circulated the brazen falsehood that Conservatives had been ordered to vote Socialist. As a matter of fact the Times has been hoist on its own petard, and is too sore yet to laugh at the joke.

CHAMPIONS DISASTROUS TRIP.

There were more surprises in the football world last week-end. If Ladysmith's trip of the week before was unfortunate, that of the champions was simply disastrous. When the local boys left a week last Friday they knew they had the match of the season at Vancouver. What they were not prepared for were the injuries to Adam and Brass. Even after these misfortunes they still expected to be able to dispose of Seattle.

The Champions were in a different case. They left home in a passenger train and presumably took the field in good shape. They lined up against what everybody, the writer included, considered to be a weak eleven. The first half of the game bore out this opinion. What came over the game, whether the champions fell to pieces, or the Victorians found winning form, I cannot say. The point is that Nanaimo were swept off their feet, and almost on the call of time, lost the points at issue. As for the Seattle game, there are no particulars to hand except that the champions were beaten two goals to one. There is no necessity to seek an explanation for this result. It was supplied to us a week ago. I wrote in the last issue of the Standard that both clubs were seriously handicapping their chances by taking these double-header games. I knew it read like an after-the-event excuse; but that it was essentially sound this game with Nanaimo amply demonstrates. Ladysmith has taken its last trip of that sort, and, it is safe to say that Nanaimo also will try it no more.

As for the effect of these games on the competition it would be foolish to rush to hasty conclusions. Certainly up-Island football has received a serious set-back, but it will do no harm to the game. Constant success spoils a club just as much as constant defeat. Also, and to the same extent, it kills the game. The chances of both the local clubs are still good, as good as any of the other teams that are competing. But, and I am speaking particularly for the home club, there must be no more mistakes. Every player must use his utmost endeavor to get into shape and do all that is in him on the field. Then if defeat is still our portion, we must accept it like good sportsmen.

For the rest, the results of these matches will help on the game immensely both in Victoria and in Seattle. Victoria never won a game last season, and had already been twice defeated by the home boys this year. The result of Saturday's match will give a much needed fillip to the game, and put new heart into the players. It would make things particularly interesting if, following their victory of Saturday they put it all over Vancouver on Monday. For the sake of the game in the Capital City and not forgetting our own interests, I hope they will. Seattle's successive victories will also boost the game in the American city. There is no doubt in my mind that the pastime can be made immensely popular over there, and it could have received no greater boost than in these successive victories over the champions and ex-champions. Finally these games even out the competition, give every club a look-in, and keep alive the interest and excitement in the result.

SATURDAY'S GAME IN VICTORIA.

The game in Victoria last Saturday when the local team ran up against the crack aggregation of that city, was disappointing in the extreme. Except in the first few minutes of the play, Nanaimo had the game all her own way in the first half, her team did brilliant work and at half time, when the score stood 3 to nil in her favor, the chances looked bright for a walk-away for the local team.

The fact that the team was not in the best of condition, was shown in the last half. Their play appeared to lose its wanted spirit and dash and the Victoria forward line was able to completely baffle the usually invulnerable defence of the Nanaimo team. In quick succession two goals were scored by Victoria who succeeded in outwitting the magnificent defense Rogers had put up between the goal posts. As McEwan in the centre half-back line had been crippled in the first twenty minutes of the game, his line did not support the forwards, nor feed them as might otherwise have been done. Hewitt, too, had been bruised up badly and towards the end of the play, the strain told considerably on him, with the result that Graham alone had to bear the brunt of the united attack. It is to be regretted that Hewitt had not been relieved at half time on the full-back line, and placed among the halves, relegating some other player to fill his customary position. As it was the Victoria forward line rushed the Nanaimo defence off its feet and, although the local forwards made several fierce dashes for their opponents' goal, their play seemed to lose its aggressive, invincible action. The first three goals scored by Victoria were scored within twenty minutes of the time limit, and within a few minutes of the whistle's shriek, the score stood 3 to 0.

THE SEATTLE GAME.

After Ladysmith journeyed to Vancouver and Seattle last week and lost two games, the Ladysmith management announced no more double header games for them—playing two league games in two consecutive days. The management of the Nanaimo United team should follow suit with the same announcement. This thing of playing Victoria one day and then Seattle the following, sitting up all night on a steamer, unable to get berths, then going into the second game with half the team surely against our boys. The team crippled and the other half so dead tired that all the ginger is out of them, is disastrous to the winning chances of any team.

Ladysmith found it out last week, and now Nanaimo has learned the bitter lesson. There was perhaps no excuse for our boys losing the game at Victoria, but the team may be allowed to say a word for themselves regarding the Seattle game on Sunday, when they were beaten by a score of 2 to 1, and the very large crowd of old Nanaimo boys and girls in Seattle and the local followers who journeyed with the team will endorse what they have to say.

In a word half the team were crippled, and those who were not crippled were stiff and sore, as a result of the game the previous day. Then again the Seattle field was some twenty yards shorter than the Nanaimo field and our forward line could never get into action. Before the combination got to work at all the boys were down on the other fellows' goal net and were either off-side or centered the ball straight into the enemy's defence. Seattle are used to that field and will likely defeat any team that goes up against them on it. Then again the Seattle men were in perfect condition—trained to the minute, and had a vastly superior team to what they played here with some weeks back. Then while excuses are in order, it might be mentioned also that the boys had hard luck—the very hardest kind of luck. The ball was at the Seattle penalty line three-quarters of the play and shot after shot was made on the Seattle goal. They either went just a little wide or over the goal net.

As football goes we had it over Seattle easily, and yet the score was 2 to 1 against us. On the other hand let it be remembered Seattle's defence played a superb game. Their backs were magnificent, and their goal keeper was clever too. The Seattle team had not much of a combination, but every man was as hard as nails and played a hustling, strong-kicking game. They bored right in. The game was hard, fast and thrilling. In the bleachers were almost as many Nanaimo supporters as Seattle rooters and if rooting would have won the game Nanaimo should have got it. There were many Nanaimo girls in the crowd, and the way they begged, implored, beseeched our boys to go in would have inspired one of the Iron Lions guarding some of the swell residences on Capitol Hill. It was all to no purpose, however, for the first half ended 1-0 for Seattle. In the second half Nanaimo kicked down hill and we all said Nanaimo will turn the trick now. It looked like it too, for the game started with a rush and the Northfield blue sweaters, which the Nanaimo United wore scurried away down to the enemy's goal and there was seen one of the hardest fights ever witnessed on the Pacific coast for a goal. It was hammer and tongs. The Nanaimo forwards pressed like mad and the Seattle backs replied as gamely. The last five minutes of the attack sent cold shivers of excitement up and down the back. If you have ever seen a bunch of small boys scrambling for peanuts you will have an idea of how that last five minutes looked. Finally, Joe Blundell made one of those famous passes into centre and the trick was done. The savage cries of delight that then arose from the Nanaimo rooters was good to hear. After the face-off the boys went at it again, but try as they might could not do the trick. In a break away the Seattle forwards got a clean sweep at Nanaimo's goal and Rodgers, who played a splendid game throughout, saving sensationally, was beaten again. The exultant yells of the Seattle bunch did not dishearten the Nanaimo backers who hoped at least for a draw, but the old hoodoo got working again, and the desired goal never came, although we had the ball playing ping-pong on the Seattle backs most of the time. The times when it was not it was up doing ditto at the Nanaimo goal where Graham was putting up a herculean game with Paddy Hewitt hopping around on one leg doing his best.

To sum up, the loss of the game cannot be laid to any particular player. Rogers played reliably. Graham, despite a bad knee, delivered the goods. Hewitt was partly hors de combat, Farmer was there with bells every time, Thackeray and Harley played hard games, Cruickshanks was able to move only with difficulty from the previous game, Hurren's ankle bothered him, Hooper and Mitchell each had a chance at centre position and Joe Blundell played his usual style—a brilliant game. However, it is over now and judging by Sunday's game there is one thing Nanaimo United has to do to win the cup, that is they have to get out and drill. Vancouver, Seattle, Victoria and Ladysmith are letting no grass grow under their feet; they are practising all the time and leaving no stone unturned to secure the cup. Nanaimo United—and this is said advisedly—has a better team than any of them, but the team has got TO PRACTICE and PRACTICE OFTEN. Doing this there is no fear but we will win the Pacific Coast championship yet.

DISCUSSING THINGS AT PRINCE RUPERT.
 VICTORIA, Nov. 7.—J. W. Stewart, the active head of the big railroad contracting firm of Foley, Welch and Stewart, was in town yesterday on his way down from Prince Rupert. Discussing affairs at Prince Rupert, Mr. Stewart said: "We have about 2,500 men at work, but would like to have twice that number. However, our gang is increasing now and we want up 215 more men on the last steamer from Vancouver. We expect to work all the winter and will probably get better weather for outdoor work from now on than we have been having. The snow does not lie very deep at Prince Rupert, but there will be enough for skidding, and it will facilitate our operations very much.

"We have had a lot of rain this season, and I understand it has been one of the wettest seasons that was ever known up there. For the last week, however, we have had beautiful weather, and we ought to get better weather right along.

"I am now on my way to Edmonton, where we have the contract for building the 120 miles west of that town. We have the contract for building the 100 miles east of Prince Rupert, and the company have called for bids for the 200 miles west of our 120 mile contract out of Edmonton, and also for another 150 miles at the end of our Prince Rupert contract. This leaves a gap of 225 miles on which the contractors have not yet been asked to tender. We are tendering for the two new contracts, but they have not been awarded as yet."

Mr. Stewart expects to be back in about four weeks, when he will go up to Prince Rupert again. He left last night for Seattle en route to Edmonton.

CROWN PRINCE FLIES ALOFT WITH ZEPPELIN.

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Nov. 7.—The Crown Prince Frederick William made an ascent from here today with Count Zeppelin in the latter's airship. The start was made at twenty minutes past 11. There was a strong northerly wind and the weather is very cold. It is probable that the airship will proceed to Nanzenochingen-Baden, where Emperor William arrives in the course of the day from Austria. His Majesty will visit Prince Von Furstenburg.

Bonauzschingen Baden, Nov. 7.—The Zeppelin airship, with Crown Prince Frederick William on board, arrived over this town at twenty minutes to two, and is now engaged in a series of manoeuvres. It has made a number of trips along the railroad track while awaiting the arrival of the imperial train on which the Emperor is coming from Austria.

The imperial train arrived about three o'clock, the airship followed it into town at an altitude of from 400 to 600 feet. The crown prince greeted his father through a megaphone and the emperor responded to this salute by waving his hand.

Upon alighting from his train his majesty drove to the castle and took up a position on the terrace. The airship then approached and when directly overhead the crown prince threw out a letter addressed to his father. Count Zeppelin then circumnavigated the castle after which further greetings were exchanged and the airship started on its return voyage to Friedrichshafen.

COSTLY SNAKE POISON.

One of the strangest as well as most costly articles of commerce is snake venom, for which there is a growing demand in medicine and other branches of science. The supply comes from Australia and a recent Sydney quotation placed the market price at 20 shillings to 25 shillings a grain, or about $30,000 a pound Troy, no attempt seeming to have been made hitherto to distinguish between the poison of snakes whose bite is usually fatal and that of reptiles that seldom kill. Dr. Tidwell of the New South Wales Health Department states that the venoms are now being classified. Laboratory experiments place the tiger snake venom first, as it is sixteen times as deadly as that of the black snake, and four times as powerful as that from the brown snake or the death adder. In average yield at a bite the death adder supplies three times as much as the tiger snake and seventeen times as much as the brown snake. So far the snakes have been mostly captured by hand to avoid loss of poison, and even at greater personal risk, have been held in the hands while being enraged and made to bite through a rubber band, ejecting upon a glass plate the venom from the two poison fangs in the upper jaw. Each snake has supplied the material from one bite, averaging about a grain.—Dundee Advertiser.

RUSSIA UPHOLDS PERSIAN PARLIAMENT.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 10.—Official confirmation has been received from Toleman of a reactionary plan to abolish the Persian parliament. Russia, which in conjunction with Great Britain, has repeatedly warned the Shah of the dangers of such a course, and has decided to renew her energetic representations against the contemplated coup d'etat. The situation in Northern Persia is a source of great anxiety to the Russian foreign office.

Negotiations to bring Austria-Hungary and Turkey into line for the proposed Balkan conference began earnest this week. Austria's reply so M. Iswaolski's suggestions with reference to the conference program, allows a wide latitude to be discussed which will probably be continued for some time.

No Honing—No Grinding

You know from daily experience, at home or in the barber shop, that the question is—Why doesn't a razor hold its edge uniformly from heel to head without honing and grinding? Whether it is a safety, with the efficient tax of new blades, or the ordinary open-bladed razor does not alter the question. You want the comfort and satisfaction of a clean, smooth shave every morning with the confident knowledge that your razor will be ready for instant use the next time needed.

The Carbo Magnetic razor is the only razor unconditionally guaranteed to do this. Thirty years of study on the razor situation has perfected a new secret process of ELECTRIC TEMPERING that positively merges every particle of carbon (the life of steel) into the metal—giving a diamond-like hardness uniformly throughout the blade—something absolutely impossible with fire tempered steel—used in making all other razors. But get the razor in your own hands—use it if you prefer, have your barber use it on you. Give us your name, or call and see the "Carbo Magnetic" razor, and we will state our proposition for testing these razors with a free demonstration on your next shaving together with our free booklet "Hints on Shaving." This book illustrates the correct razor position for shaving every part of the face.

The Crown Prince of Serbia returns from Russia as the peace maker, and no doubt in the future he will abstain from bellicose utterances, the Russian government having shown determination in the matter.

VICTORIA, Nov. 5.—The Trades and Labor Council held their regular by-monthly session last evening at the Labor Hall, when a number of routine matters were dealt with. The report of the committee which had in hand the investigation of the dismissal of A. Johnson from the post office was rendered. The following letter from Mr. Johnson was read:

Victoria, Nov. 3, 1908.

H. Buckle, Esq., City:
Dear Sir,—In reply to your enquiry as to what actually took place at the time I resigned my position in the postoffice, I will say that on Friday, Sept. 25, I was asked by a person in authority what stand I was going to take in the approaching elections. I replied that I expected that if it were a choice between Templeman and Barnard, I would vote for Templeman if only on the principle of choosing the least of two evils.

I was then asked to state what I would do if Mr. Martin came into the local field. I replied that I would unhesitatingly vote for Mr. Martin. I was then told that such a course would bring trouble, not only to myself but to the questioner as well.

The official in question had always treated me in the most kind and considerate manner, so I told him that to avoid further trouble for him I would resign as soon as I knew for sure that Mr. Martin would be in the field.

This was only one of many ways I was given to understand that I was not wanted in the position I occupied, since I failed to agree with the Liberals in the last provincial elections—both Mr. Templeman and Senator Riley at different times telling me in an insulting manner that I should have been fired. I have always held the opinion that a man should not allow his occupation to influence his opinions on public questions, and that outside of working hours he should allow no one to interfere with his free action. This, I was made to feel in many ways, was not what the Liberals of Victoria expected of me and this difference of opinion resulted in my resignation.

I have no personal grievance for having lost my position and no personal ends to serve in acquainting you with this, but it seems to me that there is a principle involved that should be of interest to all workingmen. If an employer, whether a private individual or a government, can dictate to a man what stand he should take on public questions, there is little difference between his condition and actual slavery. So I submit these facts to you for what you may think they are worth.

I cannot give you the name of the official that I have spoken of, as I wish to give him no trouble, and I am satisfied that he acted only under pressure from the Liberal association or some such source. I wish the blame, if any to fall on the right shoulders.

I am, yours respectfully,
A. JOHNSON.

It is regarded as highly probable that the large anthracite mining concerns will adopt the idea of providing educational facilities for their employees, giving practically every mine worker in the anthracite region an opportunity to learn. The door to promotion will thus be thrown open to the humblest toiler. One of the effects of the plan, the mining officials think, will be to lessen the number of accidents in the mines, which in most cases are due to the ignorance as well as the carelessness of the workers.

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 7.—Hon. Goldwell has resigned as Provincial Secretary, and Hon. J. H. Hawden, Minister of Telephones sworn in as Provincial Secretary. Mr. Goldwell is Minister of Education and will devote his time to that department. One commission will have full charge of the telephone department.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—With all the bustle and confusion that usually accompanies the opening of a large exhibition, the first national flower show under the auspices of the Society of American Florists began in the Coliseum this afternoon. There was a large attendance, and considering the magnitude of the exhibition the big show was in fairly good order. By tomorrow it is expected to have every exhibit installed, and the whole affair in the most attractive shape possible.

The exhibition is the largest affair of its kind ever attempted in this country. Nearly fifteen thousand dollars in cash prizes and hundreds of medals will be distributed among the successful exhibitors.

Among the interesting features of the display are choice exhibits from private estates in Chicago and vicinity, from the famous country places in New Jersey and along the Hudson and the country surrounding Boston and Philadelphia. Among the noted exhibitors are Thomas W. Lawson of Boston, H. C. Frick, of Pittsburgh, and Samuel Untermyer of New York. The flowers exhibited include almost every variety known to the American fancier. Especially noteworthy, however, for the number and variety of the exhibits are the departments devoted to roses, orchids and caryanthemums.

DORANDO WILL COME TO U. S.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The lovers of athletic sports in this city may soon be given an opportunity to witness a contest for supremacy between John J. Hayes, winner of the Marathon race in the Olympic games at London last July, and Dorando Petri, the Italian runner, who finished first in the great race, but was disqualified because of being helped across the line.

Pat Powers, who is endeavoring to bring the two fast runners together, has received a cable despatch stating that Dorando sails for New York today. If Hayes can arrange his theatrical engagements the race will probably be held the latter part of this month in Madison Square Garden. It will be over the same distance as the Marathon race, that is, 26 miles 385 yards.

If Hayes and Dorando meet it will be the real sporting sensation of the winter and undoubtedly will attract an enormous crowd. No athletic contest of modern times created such feeling as the finish of the Marathon race in London last summer. Dorando, who was leading by about four minutes, collapsed after entering the stadium. Half a mile or so before reaching the finish Dorando, it was said, received a drink of wine which caused his legs to give way under him. At any rate he was in a frightful shape and sprawled on the track, but the spectators in their excitement helped him to his feet and he managed to crawl across the line. A protest was lodged by the Americans and Hayes got the race. A special prize was presented to Dorando by Her Majesty Queen Alexandra.

FRIGHTFUL DISASTER ON VANCOUVER TRAM.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8.—A horrible accident occurred shortly after midnight when a head-on collision took place between the 11 o'clock New Westminster car and the 11:30 car from Vancouver, bound for Central Park.

Motorman Murdoch McDonald, of the Vancouver car, was killed; Motorman Jameson, of the Westminster car, had his skull badly fractured and will probably die, and about 15 or 20 passengers were injured, a number of them seriously, while others escaped with cuts about the head and a bad shaking up.

The accident occurred between Beaconfield and Gladstone. The cars from Vancouver were let through at Cedar Cottage, and the one in front collided with the Westminster car, which was travelling very fast towards Vancouver. The Westminster car ran into the other and drove through it as far as the second compartment. Both cars were badly wrecked, the track being strewn with pieces of wood and the seats smashed up. The people were thrown to the floor and those in the front part were severely hurt. The list of

STORY OF A PASSENGER.
Mr. J. Delya, of this city, who was a passenger on the car from New Westminster, was sitting in the rear compartment. He stated that he heard a whistle and then there was a roar as the two cars crashed into each other. He was thrown across the aisle, but escaped unhurt.

Mr. W. F. Gardiner, the well known local architect had a marvelous escape. He was sitting in the last seat of the front compartment and when the collision occurred his head was forced through the partition window. Fortunately his hat saved his face and he was not hurt.

The scene was heartbreaking; the lights went out and added to the horror. Dr. Storr was picked up at Cedar Cottage and at once attended to the injured, rendering every possible assistance. The through Westminster car was brought back to the city as fast as possible, all the injured people being placed in it. George McArthur, the motorman, and Dave Miller, the conductor, were of great assistance in caring for those who were hurt and the former brought the car to the city in splendid style.

It was 12:40 o'clock when the car reached Vancouver and medical men at once attended the sufferers. The General Hospital ambulance, the police patrol and five hacks were needed to take the people to the hospital.

The news of the accident had spread very quickly and the B.C. Electric Railway Company's station was besieged by a crowd of people anxious to know if friends were safe. The second car from Vancouver, which was bound for New Westminster, is the one which usually goes ahead of the other at Cedar Cottage but last night, for some unknown reason this was not done and the cars kept their respective positions. The result was that the car bound for Central Park was in the smash-up, while the other escaped. Most of the people who were hurt were residents of Central Park on their way home. The car for Westminster had a large number of passengers, many of them ladies, but none was hurt. Mr. W. N. Carly, of the New Westminster Columbian was in the second car and rendered great assistance, being very active in the rescue work.

When the news of the accident arrived in the city a special car was ordered, but for some time a crew was unavailable. Meanwhile, the car arrived with the injured people, and after seeing that everything possible was done for them, Mr. R. H. Sperling, general superintendent, Mr. E. Glover, general manager, and Mr. W. Woodroffe went out to the wrecked cars. The body of Murdoch McDonald had been left lying beside the track where he was thrown when the cars collided. His remains were carried to the special car and conveyed to the city on that car, while others bound for New Westminster were sent there on another car.

The accident was probably caused by a mistake in the switching, combined with the exceptionally thick fog which prevailed. A full inquiry will be held.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.

Wm. Fitchner, a lawyer with an office on Wall street was sentenced Friday to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary for grand larceny. Fitchner is 66 years old and has been a prominent church man. Hundreds of letters asking for clemency were submitted in his behalf. Despite these the court said: "As a warning to others, I will sentence him to one year. Lawyers who take their clients' money have no right to expect mercy. Fitchner was convicted of having intrusted to risky speculation $8,000 intrusted to him by two women for safe investment."

The Union men of Walla Walla, Wash., have decided at recent meetings to ask the Board of Education to submit to the people at the next municipal election the proposition of free text books.

EMPEROR OF CHINA IS WORSE.

PEKIN, Nov. 10.—The emperor of China who has been suffering for almost two weeks from an intestinal disorder is worse today. He showed some improvement yesterday, but it did not last. His majesty refuses foreign medical aid or to take foreign medicine. Public business has been suspended on account of the indisposition of the Dowager Empress. The death of the emperor would bring into existence a situation in the empire both serious and complicated. The emperor is a Manchou, which means that he is regarded practically as a foreigner by his subjects and his demise would be followed by a strong effort by the present dynasty to suppress the installation of a Chinese ruler. There is today no designated heir to the throne.

thing as had Emperor William, he would be brought before the imperial court for trial. The speaker explained that the reference was to the trial for treason of Prof. Geffenker for publishing the diary of Frederick III. Herr Singer was greeted by Socialist applause.

CRITICAL JUNCTURE IN GERMAN REICHSTAG.

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—The opening of the debate in the Reichstag today on Emperor William's interview, as published in the London Daily Telegraph, found the chamber fuller than it has ever been before on the occasion of an important debate. All the ministers, with the exception of Foreign Secretary Von Schoen were present. The royal, diplomatic and public galleries were crowded and there was not a vacant seat on the chamber benches.

The interpellations regarding this interview which has been characterized as highly-indiscreet, were taken up also by Herr Bassermann, a National Liberal, who opening the debate, expressed a hearty desire for the continuance of friendly relations with foreign countries and said he thought that only a small proportion of the German people was unfriendly to Great Britain. The personal element in foreign politics was dangerous, he declared, and the higher a man stood the greater care he should take of his utterances. Responsible officials should examine his remarks. The National Liberals did not desire the resignation of Chancellor Von Buelow, but they did want the elimination of the personal element from the conduct of foreign affairs as its continuance was bound to bring failure. Great Britain had been stirred to greater naval preparations by the Emperor's utterances, he said, and Germany's relations had become worse with well nigh all the principal powers, but especially with France, Russia, Japan and Great Britain.

Herr Singer, Socialist, declared that Emperor William ought to be brought before a high court and tried for treason because of this interview. Herr Singer was greeted by Socialist applause.

Quite a lot of interest is being taken in the training work of the boys these nights. It should, however, be understood that the dressing room on training nights is reserved exclusively to the players, trainers and officers of the club. There is no room for anyone who has nothing to do but smoke, and smoking above things is forbidden. Perhaps this hint will suffice.

REICHSTAG WILL DISCUSS FAMOUS INTERVIEW.

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—It is expected that the debate on the subject of the emperor's interview which was recently published in a London paper will be exceedingly lively, probably taking up two days in the Reichstag. Chancellor Von Buelow, it is understood, will make his explanation soon after the opening of the debate.

The feeling among the various Socialists who have called 200 mass ties is strong, and also among the meetings for this evening to protest against "absolutism." Members of other parties in preparation for today's interpellation regarding measures that will hereafter prevent similar occurrence, met at the Reichstag yesterday and discussed privately their respective attitudes and nominated speakers to express their views in the debate.

Herr Bassermann, speaking for the National Liberals, said the party did not desire the resignation of Chancellor Von Buelow, but it wanted the elimination of personal element from the conduct of foreign affairs and the observance of provisions of the constitution relating to the interference of the Emperor therein without the co-operation of the chancellor.

Chancellor Von Buelow, who explained the circumstances preceding the telegraph interview, declared he had decided to remain as chancellor, but he could not say for how long.

Herr Singer, Socialist, declared that Germany had sunk low in foreign opinion through the incapacity of persons in responsible positions, in the constitutional composition of Germany, the Emperor was the first of state, and if another servant of state, he declared, had done such a

We cannot say who will be elected on the 26th; but there is any amount of money to bet that the Grand Duke Cigar will beat the combined vote of all its rivals in the constituency. Smoke the winning cigar even if you do bank on the losing candidate.

After a long and strenuous week-end, Messrs. Walters & Akenhead got ready for Tuesday according to advertisement. It meant a hustle, but the boys put it through, and they invite inspection in their new premises.

Mrs. J. E. Smith received word on Saturday of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Gibson, at Kamloops.
