ALDERMEN DISCUSS SUNDAY AFFAIRS

Ald. McKinnell Deplores the Fact of a Library, and Boldly Asserts There is No Harm in Frequenting Billiard Rooms

There was an interesting discussion at the meeting of the Council on Monday evening on the question of the observance of the Sabbath, or to be more correct, the Lord's Day. The discussion was started while the council in committee was dealing with Ald. Haworth's by-law for the regulation of places of amusement. According to the new bylaw, all places of amusement, billiard rooms and bowling alleys, are to be closed on Sundays.

Ald. McKinnell objected to the inclusion of billiard rooms in the list. A billiard room was as good a place asafootball field, and it would be more to the credit of the town to stop Sunday football than the playing of billiards. There was no library in the town and there was no harm in going to a billiard room.

Ald. Campbell did not think it was right that billiard rooms should be open in the centre of thetown on Sundays. If they were going to respect the Sunday they should respect it in the right way. Sunday billiards looked too coarse. Players had till 12 o'clock on Saturday night, and had every night of the week. They should respect Sunday if it was worth respecting at all.

Mayor Nicholson said he did not know, but he would like to see the section stand as it was. If they made the exception favored by Ald. McKinnell, they would be encouraging Sunday football. If they adopted the clause as it stood they might perhaps later be told to do away with football also. So far as he could see, it would be a benefit to all concerned to close up these billiard rooms. He was surprised at Ald. McKinnell. They had the welfare of the boys of the town to consider.

Ald. McKinnel said he spoke just as he felt on those things. He was surprised at the Mayor. There were saloons standing open all day on Sundays and His Worship was to blame for it. If they closed up the billiard rooms, where were their boys going? Billiards was a harmless amusement, and he did not see any harm in any one being in abilliard room even on a Sunday. He was a churchman and believed in the Sabbath being observed as much as any of them.

Ald. Matheson said there was certainly a danger in closing these places up tight. If they drove out the young fellows from the billiard room where were they going? That was his only fear in passing the clause as it stood—the danger of driving people to worst places.

Ald. Campbell wanted to know where they would drive the boys? The churches were open, let them go to church. Close up the hotels also, and then they couldn't get into them. He was surprised at the way in which the hotels were run. There were more drunks on Sunday than any other day and where was the liquor got? Why in the back rooms of the hotels.

Ald. Brown remarked that if the billiard room and bowling alley were allowed to remain open on Sunday, the council was really granting a licence permitting play on Sundays, and was helping to break the Sabbath.

Ald. Haworth said that without a doubt there was a lot of gambling going on in the billiard rooms, and where was there a worse evil than gambling?

Ald. McKinnell: "Then what are we paying a policeman for, if the gambling is going on with open doors? What are our police commissioners doing in not seeing that the policeman does not do his duty? What are our license commissioners doing in not seeing that the hotels are run according to the laws of the city? So far as the billiard rooms are concerned, there should be something to put in their place before they are closed. For myself, I have a boy, and I would far sooner see him in a billiard room than in a saloon or inother places in town.

This ended the discussion so far as the question of Sunday observance is concerned, and as stated in the report of the council meeting, the Aldermen, Mr. McKinnell alone accepted, took upon themselves to act the roles of a father and an earthly providence towards all the boys in town.

MISS UNDERHILL'S RECITAL

Miss Maude Underhill, who is described as the "premier reciter of the Coast," will appear in the Mission Hall of St. John's Church on Friday evening. The proceeds of the entertainment are to go towards paying off the debt on the vicarage, and in addition to Miss Underhill, there will be vocal and instrumental selections by local singers and players. Miss Underhill is a mine of amusement and entertainment in herself, and has been a great success wherever she has appeared. No doubt there will be a packed house to hear her on Friday evening.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. Hy. Pollard, of Second avenue desires to express his sincere thanks to Doctors Frost and Williams for the skilfull and unremitting attention he has received at their hands. An operation was necessary, and Mr. Pollard is pleased to state that it was entirely successful and that he is now quite recovered.

LETTER OF THANKS.

To the Editor, Standard:—

Sir:—Through the medium of your paper, Mrs. James Hill of Third Avenue would like to thank Mr. James Hill of the Cecil Hotel for his honesty and kindness in returning to her ten dollars ($10.00) which he received through mistake through the post.

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 22.— Geo. Clarke, a negro shot Constable W. H. Taylor, who attempted to arrest him at Shero, Tex., last night, and a mob hanged the negro to a tree, leaving him for dead. This morning he was found to be still alive, and was taken to jail where a second mob is now threatening to take him and finish the work of the first.

EAGLE TOOK A CHILD AWAY

SEATTLE, Sept. 22.—The little daughter of David Chisholm, of Eagle Nest Co., Alaska, was carried away by a huge American eagle the middle of July and three weeks later its torn and mangled body was found in the eagle's nest and the bird captured.

John Kalem of Seattle, bought the bird and shipped it to this city, where it has been on exhibition in his store for a few days past. This morning state game warden Henry Rief ordered the release of the captive bird.

CHINESE DEFRAUD CANADA OF BIG SUM.

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—According to the statement of F. O'Hara, ...commissioner of Chinese immigration, the Dominion has been defrauded to the extent of $150,000 by Chinese arriving at Halifax and Montreal from Mexico City in possession of certificates signed by the Chinese legation at Mexico City, describing them as merchants who were entitled to enter.

When the present season opened at Montreal, Chinese with similar certificates commenced to arrive at the city. Investigation shows that the fraud has been quite extensive and a number of arrests have been made. On Saturday the Elder Dempster lineer Bornu arrived at Montreal with over twenty Chinese and some Japanese, all of which claimed to be merchants on their way to Hong Kong via Vancouver. Commissioner O'Hara found ten of these are Chinese laborers and ordered them deported, while the remainder were allowed to land and will be sent to Vancouver in bond.

MAN KILLED IN KNIFE DUEL.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 21. — In a fight with ordinary pocket knives, Chas Dunfield, of Pennsylvania, was killed this morning by Sam Wrae, of Tennessee, as the culmination of a quarrel. The men were employed on the Hot Spring Western Railway and came to the city last night. They quarrelled, fought at first with their fists, and then with knives. Wrae was cut about the face and Dunfield was slashed on the right arm, a vein being severed, which caused him to bleed to death. Wrae escaped.

FURTHER CUTTING IN RATE WAR.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 22.—Believing there is no chance of a settlement of the rate war troubles with the Canadian Pacific, the International steamship company today announced a cut in the Vancouver rate from $2 the round trip to $1.25. The rate of 50 cents the round trip between Seattle and Victoria on the American boats is effective today being the same rate as offered by the Canadian line.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 22.—Rev. Father Welsh received a cable from Rome yesterday to the effect that Bishop Dontenwill has been elected Superior General of the Oblates of many Immaculates. In future Bishop Dontenwill will reside in Rome.

MAY HAVE MOVING PICTURES

Mayor Nicholson is making preparations to provide good entertainment at the opera house for the winter months. His Worship has for some months been contemplating ecuring a regular moving picture show. His difficulty was the old one of getting enough light. To overcome this obstacle he is getting a powerful gasoline engine which will generate enough power to run a dynamo to give the necessary electrical voltage.

The engine will soon be here, and he will set about its installation at once. He has already had a visit from Mr. L. Killick, the gentleman who has run the picture shows in Nanaimo opera house with such unqualified success. Mr. Kellick was able to satisfy himself that the machinery would work all right, and he is prepared to show down here.

Just how many nights a week the show will be on has not yet been determined, but it will at least twice a week and perhaps three.

The shows will be a great boom during the winter when time hangs so heavily during the long dark nights, and there is not the slightest doubt that they will be greatly appreciated, and that a generous patronage will reward the enterprise of Mayor Nicholson.

ITALIAN ARRESTED.

Constable Cassidy went up to Nanaimo on the noon train to take possession of an Italian arrested in Nanaimo on suspicion of having broken into a Chinaman's cabin at the smelter and stolen $15. The housebreaking is alleged to have taken place on Monday evening.

Constable Cassidy was only notified on Tuesday and at once instituted inquiries. From what he could learn he was led to believe that the suspect had gone to Extension, and a cabin there was robbed of over $90. Constable Cassidy phoned the Nanaimo police and the man was arrested.

He will be up for trial tonight.

MURDERER MAY HAVE ESCAPED.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Following the death in a Brooklyn hospital yesterday of Mrs. Francis R. McCabe, the 25-year-old wife of a manufacturer of building material, a charge of homicide was lodged against Sam Mann, 26 years old, who is alleged to have shot her.

When the police notified the Raymond street jail, where the man had been confined, of this fact, they were met by the unexpected news that Mann had been released on bail of $500, a magistrate having accepted bail when told the man was held only on a charge of attempted suicide. The charge of felonous assault was dismissed, the magistrate said he was informed.

A general alarm was then sent out for Mann but no trace of him has yet been found.

Mrs. McCabe was shot in her father's home on Aug. 29 last. She was married and the police charge that Mann during her husband's absence annoyed her with his attentions and finally shot her when she refused to elope with him.

THE HUNGRY POOR MOB CHURCHES ON SUNDAY.

Millian and a Half People Are Out of Work and Funds.—John Burns Wants $5,000,000 for Relief.

London, Sept. 21.—With a million and a half people out of work in England and Scotland, the authorities are looking around for means with which to cope with the situation.

Riots occur in the large centres of population almost daily, and valuable public buildings have been destroyed in several places. Services in various churches were broken up Sunday by unruly mobs. Attacks were made on the Canterbury cathedral and on great churches in Glasgow and Manchester.

A great army of the unemployed is being made up from recruits from Liverpool, Newcastle, Hull and other cities, and is now marching on Northampton, where it is proposed that all will throw themselves on the hands of the authorities and demand military assistance, and have given relief. The police have called for warning that trouble of a serious nature may be expected if there is any organized uprising of the poor. All over the country bodies of soldiers are being posted at convenient places.

President John Burns of the local relief board, fearing that widespread distress will occur this winter, will ask for an appropriation of a million pounds sterling for the carrying out of relief work. It is estimated that there are 928,671 paupers in England today, one person in every 38 of the population. The percentage in London s even greater than this.

DATE FIXED FOR REVISION COURT

Mayor's Request For City Levels Granted and the Question of First Avenue Settled for a Time

The thirty-sixth meeting of the City Council was held in the City Hall on Monday evening, Mayor Nicholson presided, and there were present Aldermen Campbell, Haworth, Roberts, Brown, McKinnell and Matheson.

Plans and specifications for a cottage to be built on Third avenue for Mr. Jas. Weir by Mr. W. R. Smith were submitted to the Council.

Mayor Nicholson pointed out that a 4x8 chimney was very small. He did not know whether there was anything in the by-laws covering the point, and if there were not they would just have to accept the plans. None of the other aldermen knew of any provision in the by-laws bearing on the question, although they were all of the opinion that the chimney was small enough, and the plans were accordingly approved.

Accounts totalling $43 were presented and referred to the Finance Committee to be paid if found correct.

Mayor Nicholson for the Streets Committee, reported that during the past week the steps on the sidewalk on Gatacre street had been removed, and the sidewalk put down almost to official grade. The owners of the property were willing to make any alterations to their buildings necessitated by the alteration of the sidewalk; but the city would have to pay for the work that had been done.

The Council then went into committee of the whole for the consideration of Mr. Haworth's by-law to regulate the conduct of places of amusement. The by-law was then taken up clause by clause and after some discussion was accepted without amendment and read a third time.

The amendment to the by-law for the protection of shade trees, as introduced by Ald. Campbell was then taken up in committee. The amendment simply provides for the imposition of a penalty of $25 upon the owner of any horse or other animal which causes damage to trees, shrubs or saplings planted in the city's streets. The amendment was adopted without alteration, Ald. McKinnell alone dissenting on the ground that trees for shade purposes should be planted on private ground, and not on the public streets.

The question of the date for the sitting of the Court of Revision to go over the assessment roll, was next taken up. Aldermen Matheson, McKinnell, Brown and Haworth, and the Mayor, constitute the court, and Nov. 4, at 7 p.m., in the city hall, were agreed on as the date, hour and place.

It was decided to call for applications for the position of auditor for the city books.

The request of His Worship for the city levels for the lot on Third avenue, between the Europe hotel and Mr. Scott's premises, which has been before the Council for over a month, again came up for consideration. His Worship explained that his occupation of the Mayoral office placed him in rather a delicate position. He had however, decided that he would not commence building until after the new year. Meantime he could go on with the necessary excavation. He made the proposal to sink the trenches for the walls down to the official level, and to put in his floor to suit the grade of the present sidewalk. Then, at any time if the city lowered the sidewalk, it could lower his floor without touching the main walls.

The proposal seemed fair to most of the aldermen, but Ald. McKinnell thought that if they merely granted His Worship's request they would be doing all that could be asked of them. This started a lengthy discussion in which Ald Campbell figured very prominently. Finally the Middle Ward representative found enough of courage to second Ald. McKinnell's motion and it carried.

The Council then adjourned.

CHINESE THREATEN TO BOYCOTT FRENCH.

AS Result of Unpleasant Incident Which Occurred at Canton Yesterday.

Canton, China, Sept. 22.—There is intense indignation among the Chinese against the French over an incident which occurred here yesterday. The Chinese authorities tried to arrest some supposed native pirates who were on the Steamer Houte Beau of the Messignies Maratine Co. but the Captain backed up by the French Consul refused to permit it contending that the suspected men should be arrested on their landing. During the wrangle which ensued the supposed pirates escaped. The Captain of the Chinese guard on the steamer was recently removed by the Chinese authorities on the ground that he was too friendly with the foreigners. The native press today advocates a boycott of the French and the French Consul is severely criticized by it.

Thirty-Eight Passengers and Three Trainmen Are Injured in Head-on Collision in Nebraska.

WEEPING WATER, Neb., Sept. 22.—In a head-on collision last evening in the yards at this place, between a Missouri Pacific passenger train and a freight, 38 passengers and 3 trainmen were injured. The engineer of the passenger train in rounding a hill was unable to check his train before the crash.

Of the 49 passengers, few escaped injuries of some kind, but only a few were severely hurt.

Many of the passengers were Methodist preachers on the way to Lincoln from the Nebraska Methodist conference which concluded its work yesterday at Auburn.

Elkhorn, Man., Sept. 22.—Michael Sagar, manager of Lambert and Earle's store here, was shot and killed by a burglar early thos morning. Sagar entered the store at 3.30 this morning for the purpose of securing a gun for a hunting party and was shot down by a burglar, who was evidently looting the store and was surprised in the act. The man escaped.

A good practice game has been arranged for tomorrow night. Two good teams have been picked, and all the players have been notified to turn out in good time. The opposing elevens are as follows :

Backs—Christian and Struthers.

Halves— Grainger, Strang and Wynne.

Forwards—McMillan, Graham, Adam, Warburton, Sanderson.

B. TEAM.

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 22.—As the result of injuries received in an encounter in the real estate office of Loomis Bros., yesterday, Roxie C. Loomis, a prominent real estate dealer of this city, died last evening. His brother, C. M. Loomis, sustained serious injuries. The police arrested C. M. Karboer, southwestern agent for an auto company, who is said to have attacked both brothers and to have inflicted the fatal injuries with his fist.

White Plains, Sept. 21.—Argument on Harry K. Thaw's application for a jury trial as to his sanity in Habeas Corpus proceedings before Supreme Court Justice Mills was adjourned today until next Saturday at the request of District Attorney Jerome who had been unable to prepare his return to the writ in time for today's hearing. Charles Morschauser, attorney for Thaw agreed to the adjournment. In the meantime Thaw will remain in White Plains.

Kenora, Ont., Sept. 21.—Saturday night a hold-up occurred at Vermillion when N. Scheinman, a merchant was robbed to the extent of $2400. While one of the desperadoes held Mr. Schienman up with a revolver the other man rifled the cash register. The men then made their escape after firing two shots at a group of towns people who had at once responded to the alarm given by Mr. Sheinman and started in pursuit. The police suspect that the two men responsible for this hold-up are the same who committed the series of burglaries recently in Winnipeg.

THE WORKER WINS.

The announcement of the date of the Dominion elections has created no very great stir locally. It had been generally taken for granted that the fight would begin about the last week in October, so that there was no element of surprise in the official declaration of the date. We have had no campaign oratory since the announcement. None of the candidates has taken to the hustings; but we believe that, quietly, a good deal of work is being pushed through. The Socialists are always an active political party, and their machinery is always in good working order. The vote for Hawthornthwaite will be polled practically at its full strength. Smith also has not wasted a moment since his return from Ottawa. His first point was to announce himself as the Liberal candidate, so that later he might go through the formality of a nomination. The procedure was rather unusual; but, so far as the business of looking after himself and furthering his own interests is concerned, Ralph is a past master. Moreover, he is an experienced campaigner, and nobody is more alive to the necessity in elections of perfecting the party machinery and linking up the party organizations. We may go further in this case, and say that nobody realizes more than Smith does that, in the coming election, he is depending upon the party machinery for success. Anybody that known Ralph, therefore, will take it as a foregone conclusion that the machinery will be in the very best possible condition.

The question for good Conservatives to answer in all this is what is his party doing? There is one thing certain that, as things are politically nowadays, elections can not be won from the platform. A man's vote is determined by the party issues of the day, the personalities of the candidates, and by the candidate's attitude towards local questions, irrespective of his party affiliations. Into all this platform oratory only enters to a minor degree. A good committee can do more work in a town than a platform packed with political notabilities. There is not the slightest doubt that the organization of the Conservative party in this constituency is a way behind that of either the Socialists or the Liberals. There is now no time to be lost in marshalling the forces for the battle. Victory will go to the party which is the best organized and which has the best workers. It is a question not of brilliant manoeuvring or of pell-mell assaults, but of steady persistent work of loyal service to the standard-bearer and honest endeavor for the party, its causes and principles.

THAT SIDEWALK AGAIN.

For a time at least the question of the grading of that part of the sidewalk on First avenue which lies between Blair & Adam's store and High street has been settled. In a way that fact is in itself a relief. When all your efforts to obstruct the National Policy and the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway ended in failure, you as leader, joined with Erastus Wyman, whose avowed policy was to induce Canada to abandon allegiance to Great Britain and become part of the United States, in advocating unrestricted reciprocity with the United States, although you knew that it involved the adoption by Canada of the American tariff against England. The Liberal Conservative party saved Canada and secured to us the priceless continuation of British institutions in that crisis, which was so grave that the Hon. Edward Blake refused to go into the battle with you, because he would not fight under false pretences and imperil British institutions. You know as well as I that Republicans and Democrats alike agreed in the desire to possess Canada, as they were well aware of its potentialities. The Hon. William A. Seward, the Secretary of State, under President Lincoln, penned the following prophetic words: "Having its Atlantic seaport at Halifax and its Pacific depot near Vancouver Island, British America would inevitably draw to it the commerce of Europe, Asia and the United States. Thus, from a mere colonial dependency, it would assume a controlling rank in the world. To her other nations would be tributary, and in vain would the United States attempt to be her rival, for we could never dispute with her the possession of the Asiatic commerce, nor the power which that commerce confers." And the late Mr. Charles Sumner, in the Senate of the United States, in 1867, in reference to the purchase of Alaska, said: "The present treaty is a visible step in the occupation of the whole North American continent. As such it will be recognized by the world and accepted by the American people. But that treaty involves something more. By it we dismiss one more monarch from this continent. One by one they have retired: First France, then Spain, then France again, and now Russia, all giving way to that absorbing unity which is declared in the national motto, 'E pluribus unum.'" In reference to the Pacific railway of the United States, completed May 10th, 1869, the late Mr. Asa Whitney assured his readers in 1845: "You will see that it will change the whole world, allow us to traverse the globe in thirty days, civilize and Christianize mankind, and place us in the centre of the world, compelling Europe on the one side, and Asia and Africa on the other, to pass through us."

When, at the request of the late Hon. Mr. Bayard, Secretary of State I visited him at Washington in 1887 he said: "Well, Sir Charles, the Confederation of British North America and the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway have brought us face to face with a nation, and we must now deal with international matters from that point of view."

No one can read these opinions of the public men of the United States without seeing the vital importance of those great measures from a national standpoint.

Beaten on every issue between the two parties, you owed your success in 1896 to a Janus-faced policy when the interests of your French co-religionists were at stake, and I think you will agree with me that under the circumstances I had reason to expect a fair share of support from Quebec.

The bye-elections in Brockville and Huron proved that in Ontario most disgraceful frauds were resorted to by Liberals in 1896. In the election of 1900 in Ontario I was opposed by two Governments, with all their patronage and unlimited means, while there was but a small subscription made by the Conservative party by a few friends in Toronto, which only admitted of a slight contribution to aid in meeting the legal expenses. however, although you had a majority of twelve in Ontario when the Dissolution took place, at the close of the election I had a majority of eighteen, and my defeat was secured by a solid French vote and the influence of the Government in the smaller provinces, all of which were supporting you except Manitoba. Am I not warranted, under these circumstances, when your opponents are in power in Ontario, Manitoba British Columbia, and New Brunswick, in expecting that the great party who have despit all the obstruction of these so-called Liberals, made Canada what it is, will receive from the electorate the support to which they are entitled?

If further evidence is wanting to show that yours is a lost cause, it is to be found in a Session wasted by the frantic efforts of your Government to conceal the information on public matters to which the House and public are entitled, and to pass an Act to enable the same frauds to be perpetrated in connection with the electoral lists in British Columbia, Manitoba, Ontario, and Quebec as were used in your support at the last Dominion election in Manitoba.

Hoping that I have satisfied you that I have sufficient reason for the confidence I feel in the triumph of my able successor, Mr. R. L. Borden, in the coming contest, I remain, Yours faithfully.

CITY LEAGUE OPENS.

The city league was successfully opened on Sunday afternoon. The attendance, however, was not as good as was expected; but the club, to some extent can blame itself for that. It is always abad blow to any sporting organization to put up a fake or a fizzle, and it tokes time to recover the confidence of the public. There was certainly no fake about the last game previous to Sunday which the club advertised and charged for, but all the same it was an awful fizzle.

The Standard explained all the circumstances at the time and there is no necessity to say anything more about it. The games on Sunday afternoon mark the beginning of the league in earnest. Already interest and speculation have been developed, and the next game will almost certainly be better attended. There may be nothing very "classy" about the matches; but they are contested in real earnest, and feeling and favoritism are bound to increase with every match.

Two games were played on Sunday and only three goals were scored, and even then only one of them should have counted. This fact is evidence enough that the executive has picked evenly matched teams, and a good struggle for the leading position is inevitable. Besides the Wasson Cup, possibly badges or valises or something of the kind will go to the winning team, and thus an additional incentive is given to the players to get in and do their best.

The matches yesterday were between the Beavers and Nationals and Nationals and Thistles. In the latter match, which was arranged at the last moment, Struthers, who is working in the country and had not been notified, failed to turn up, Joe Sanderson of the Corinthians was put on in his place. D. Morrison, the Canuck goal-keeper, was also an absentee, and Hartley also of the Corinthians, took his place. What the committee will do with the game has yet to be decided; but but the arrangement was as fair for one side as the other. If there is any dissatisfaction it can be counted as a friendly match and played over again.

The first game that between the Beavers and Nationals, was fought out to a draw, and was fairly evenly contested. Captain Hewlett made a bad mistake by keeping T. McMillan at outside left in the second half. He should have put Tom into his regular position, and would have had a much more effective forward line. Dunbar is all right in goal and Hewlett has the makings of a strong team. The Nationals hardly played up to expectations. They have a strong forward line, and endeavored to make it stronger at the expense of their halves. The experiment was not a success, and Captain Christian who played a strong game himself, will have to reshuffle some of the players.

The second game, that between the Canucks and Thistles, was also fairly even, although there were some pretty dry and tame streaks. Still it was fast enough for some of the men who were playing. The C[illegible] forward line settled down to some really good movements. Mike O'Connell and Punch Simpson played the best wing game of the day, and if Jimmy had been in the humor, he could have improved on the score from some of the work the boys did. However, he got through twice, and cinched the game. Celle played a whale of a game, and with a little coaching will develop senior form. Jimmy Shang plays a "heady" back game, and his play has all the earmarks of class. He is light for the position; but it will surprise the writer if he is not out in front of Hartley before the season is over. The game was won by the Canucks by two goals to one.

There is need for a word or two about the refereeing of these games. Of course they are friendly encounters and one does not look for any harsh decisions. All the same the very object for which the games are played would be defeated if the referee does not insist upon the games being played according to the rules. It is not always an easy matter to enforce the offside law; but it is not hard to spot the player who makes a practice of laying behind the opposing backs. Of course, such a player with a good referee is nothing but a drawback to his side, and the city league can be used to drive that lesson home.

Again, the rules are very strict, and necessarily so, against holding or handling an opponent. Yet pushing, barring and obstructing with the arms are all offences common to a lot of players.

Another wholesale fault is the habit of jumping with the feet or boring with the back into an opponent who is clearing a ball. There are times when two players get tothe ball so nearly together that a collision or mix-up of some kind is unavoidable. There are other times, and the offender knows it, when there is no earthly chance of touching the ball, and so he bumps into the man who has cleared or attempts to kick him. It is a bad fault and needs to be broken off, and the surest way to get it broken off is for the referee to penalize every offence of the kind.

Andy Hailstones refereed both games on Sunday, and got through his thankless office without any very violent criticism. Andy is absolutely impartial, and as good a sport, in the highest sense of that very much abused word, as there is to be found in the town or in the Province. Still he is a little slack on the offside business, and he should make these league games serve as practice for him in the big league games in which he is down to officiate.

LOCAL MAN SAW FIGHT

Among the interesting things which Steve Decker saw during his trip to California were the two championship battles between Nelson and Gans and Attell and Moran. Steve's opinion of the two latter, is that Attell is much the cleverer; but that the Britisher is the stronger and might wear Attell out in a finish fight. There is no doubt, he says, about Nelson being Gan's master. The terrible Dane never lost his grin and showed no traces of exhaustion, being as fresh in the 21st as in the first round. Gans, he says, has Nelson skinned at long range but the Dane won't stand at long range and Gans can't keep him there.

Joe was all the time mightily afraid of his ribs and stomach, with the result that he left his face unguarded and got his eye closed in the third round. And at his best he never could stop the rushes of Nelson or cover up from the latter's fierce pummelling. The old master was all in in the 15th round, and he was helpless all through the20th round. Only the money at stake kept him on his feet, and even at that it was an act of cruelty, so helpless he was, and so strong and vicious was Nelson.

ASHMAN CHALLENGED.

Sam Jordan, the new manager of Billeter, the Toledo wrestler, writes a forcible letter to the Nanaimo Free Press, in which he issues a challenge to Tommy Gay to wrestle Billeter in Nanaimo for any amount from $500 up to $1,000. He also states that after getting through with Gay he is willing to take on Ashman at 133 or 134, matside, for any part of $1,000 a side and the winner to take all the gate receipts.

TUPPER'S LETTER TO PREMIER LAURIER.

Venerable Statesman Addresses Open Letter on the Issues to Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Winnipeg, Sept. 14.—Sir Charles Tupper has given to the public the following open letter to Sir Wilfrid Laurier:

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 9, 1908.
To the Right Honorable Sir Wilfrid Laurier, G.C.M.G.

Dear Sir Wilfrid,—In your recent speech at Sorel, I find the following reference to myself: 'My old friend, Sir Charles Tupper, who, after many defeats, has withdrawn from the struggle, has come out from his retreat to predict our defeat. He has done this regularly since 1896."

I do not know what you mean by my "many defeats," as I was elected in my native County of Cumberland fourteen times and twice in Cape Breton, being defeated only once there, owing to my having devoted practically all my efforts to other constituencies. If you refer to the defeats of my party, which carried the country in 1867, 1872, 1878, 1882, 1887 and 1891, I would remind you that the Liberal party has only been successful in the elections of 1874, 1896, 1900 and 1904. It is a matter of history that the Liberal party only obtained power in 1873 by giving six of their opponents seats in the cabinet, and that in 1896 you defeated the Conservative party by denouncing the Government for not having disallowed the Manitoba School Act, which took away the rights of the Catholics, and when the Government brought in a measure declared necessary by the Judical Committee of the Privy Council to restore those rights you joined with the Orange men in defeating that measure by obstructing a large majority of the House of Commons, and then securing the support of Quebec by declaring the act did not go far enough, and that if you obtained power, you would, if necessary to secure their "rights in their entirety", bring in a stronger measure.

In 1900 you maintained yourself in office by trampling under foot all the principles to which your party had been pledged, and resting upon the support of your race and religion.

In 1904 you sustained by fastening upon the country gigantic debt for the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, which you declared would involve a charge of $13,000,000 on the public exchequer, whereas it has now been proved that the cost will be nearly $200,000,000.

NEGOTIATION OF TREATIES.

Your statement that you had achieved something in the negotiation of treaties not previously obtained, requires no notice from me, as it has already been emphatically contradicted by the declarations of the Colonial secretary, Lord Crewe, in the House of Lords, and by Sir Edward Grey in the House of Commons, who was the under secretary in the Foreign office when I negotiated the treaty with France in 1898, and is now Secretary of State for Foreign affairs. He said in the House of Commons, that "The Plenipotentiaries for the conclusion of the Commercial convention between France and Canada, of September 19, 1907, were Sir Francis Bertie, H. M. Ambassador at Paris, the Hon. W. S. Fielding, and the Hon. L. P. Brodtur. They were not appointed by letters patent, but were furnished with full powers under the Royal Sibn Manual, similar 'mutatis mutandis' to those furnished to the late Marquis of Dufferin and Ava and to Sir Charles Tupper in 1893." Nor must it be forgotten that by boasting of what you had accomplished for Canada, you have prevented the adoption of your treaty up to the present time, and that the only treaty in existence today is that negotiated by me in 1893.

THE ALL-RED LINE.

You claim great credit for your efforts to secure the All-Red line, whereas you should apologize for killing that enterprise after I had secured from the British Government a subsidy of £75,000 a year for ten years, and made a contract with the Messrs. Allan, of Montreal and Glasgow, which would have given a 20-knot service to Montreal in summer and Halifax in winter, on the 1st day of May, 1898.

Your claim that you have promoted harmony between different races and religions, is best answered by your speech at Richmond, Nova Scotia, when you were obliged to admit that you found greater harmony between those of different races and religions in Nova Scotia than in any other part of Canada. I read that admission with much pleasure, as from the first hour of my public life I had made equal rights for all, irrespective of race and creed, a cardinal principle.

Allow me now to tell you on what I base the opinion I expressed when asked what I thought would be the result of the impending General-Election. The political history of Canada shows that all our great prosperity is due to the policy of the Liberal Conservative party, carried in the very teeth of the most bitter and persistent opposition of the Liberal party.

No intelligent man can be found who can question the fact that our present position has been attained by Confederation, the adoption of a protective policy, and the construction of an inter-oceanic railway.

Some Political History.

The proposal to complete the confederation of British North America by the inclusion of British Columbia on the only terms by which that could be obtained, giving that province railway communication with the rest of Canada, was fiercely denounced by the Liberal party as ruinous. The result of this opposition was a large reduction of the Conservative majority in the election of 1872 and the party thus weakened, was defeated in 1873 by the action of six of its supporters, who thus obtained seats in the Liberal Cabinet.

The Liberal Government then formed, dissolved the House and obtained a large majority. They pursued a Free Trade policy, which brought the country to a deplorable condition. The Opposition propounded a protective policy and carried the country in 1878 by an overwhelming majority. That policy was established in the face of the most determined opposition. The increasing prosperity enabled the Government to vigorously prosecute the construction of the railway to the Pacific ocean. In April, 1880, Mr. Blake, the leader of the Liberal Party, moved a resolution in the House of Commons to compel the Government to suspend all construction beyond the eastern side of the Rocky Mountains and implored the House not to ruin Canada for the sake of 12,000 white people in British Columbia. He was supported on that motion by the entire Liberal Party, including yourself. In October of that year the Government entered into a contract with the Pacific Railway syndicate, for the completion of the railway, and it was opened for traffic from ocean to ocean in 1886. That contract was strenuously opposed by the Liberal party, although no man can deny that it has resulted in untold benefit to Canada. The company is now operating more than 13,000 miles of railway, and has provided a fleet of steamers affording the most rapid communication between Canada and Great Britain. Who, then I ask, will dare to say that without these great measures which you and your party have so bitterly opposed, Canada could have attained the great position it now occupies?

Unrestricted Reciprocity.

But that is not all. It will never be forgotten that our position as an important part of the British Empire was imperilled by your party.

In appeals for assistance, assistant Chief Forester Woodruff telegraphed the nearest fire warden to get to the fire as many men as possible. It is understood that the fires in the Catskill are under control.

London, Ont., Sept. 19 — Percy Patton, of Toronto, who registered as merchant and dealer in bankrupt stocks, is arrested on charge of misappropriating $750, preferred against him by George Head, also of Toronto. OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 19.—An order in council provides that this year's Juvenile Delinquents act can be enforced only in cities where there are proper detention homes, conducted on the lines of a family residence, situated a distance from the jail, that there be an industrial school to which delinquents may be court or county court judge to officiate in juvenile courts, that there is a municipally supported staff or probation officers and some society or committee to act as juvenile court committee.

VALLEJO, Cal., Sept. 19.—A gasoline fire in the navy yard yesterday, wherein Theodore May, chief machinist lost his life, and several men were injured, is now believed to have cost three lives in all. Fred. Martin, a bumboat boy and an Italian laborer, whose name is not known, are missing, and there is every reason to believe that they perished in the water into which they plunged when the flames surrounded the floating workshop containing nearly thirty men. It is generally believed that a lighted match was thrown into the water ignited a quantity of refuse gasoline afloat on the surface and the flames were communicated to several hundred gallons of the inflammable fluid which had been pumped out of the tanks of the submarines S. Peake and Grampus, which were moored alongside the float.

Manchester, Eng., Sept. 18.—A lockout of 200,000 workers engaged in the Lancashire cotton trade is threatened by the proposal of the Master Cotton Spinners' Federation to reduce wages by 5 per cent. With the view of enforcing this demand, the employers sent out notices to the operatives stating that the reduction would come into force on Sept. 21. At a meeting of the general committee of the Operative Spinners' Amalgamation in this city it was decided to take a ballot on the question. The operatives will be asked whether they will accept or resist the reduction, and it is believed that the returns will show an overwhelming majority in favor of the latter course.

Altogether 80,000 members of the union will participate in the ballot, and if a lockout takes place there is a possibility of 500,000 operatives becoming involved. As one way out of the difficulty, it is suggested in some quarters that the operatives should be asked to accept a reduction of 2½ per cent.

WILL MEET IN CANADA.

Berlin, Sept. 19.—The Interparliamentary Union which is now in session here has accepted the invitation extended from Canada to meet in Quebec in 1909.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—A special to the World from Middletown N.Y., says: "An employee of an ice company here was delivering a cake of ice to a customer on Orchard Street today when he discovered a frog in the centre of the cake. The ice was melted and the frog taken out. After it had been exposed to the sun for about ten minutes, the frog commenced to hop around apparently none the worse for its ice imprisonment. It is a remarkable fact that the ice from which the frog had been taken was in storage for two years. The frog was exhibited about the city for some time.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—A Tribune special from Newport, R.I., says. In accordance with figures that have leaked out here there appears to be a shortage of torpedoes in the navy, especially the Whitehead variety, as compared with those on hand in the navies of other countries. It is said the United States is far behind Great Britain, Germany or Japan.

It is understood that this country has less than 5,000 submarine torpedoes on hand, while Great Britain has ten thousand stored away. Germany and Japan are each said to have four thousand. The government supply has been increased one hundred during the year and will go up more when the torpedo factory here is started about the first of the year.

COLONEL LESLIE IS COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

Toronto, Sept. 18.—Colonel John Knox Leslie, former treasurer of the Canadian National exhibition, was committed for trial in a sensational judgment by Magistrate Dennison yesterday on the charge of stealing $18,946 of the exhibition funds.

The city's legal department comes in for unmerciful criticism in the judgment because of the alleged squeezing as the result of which Leslie's wife gave her name to a note for $11,000 and gave also a $25,000 motrgage to make good her husband's shortage. The magistrate characterized the proceedings as improper, illegal and discreditable use of the police force to squeeze money from a lady who had done no wrong who owed the city nothing, and who was not responsible either for the defective auditing which made possible defalcations extending over a year and a half.

His Worship warned the public against the dangerous idea that city money may be stolen and the offence be changed into a civil liability by the aid of rich relatives.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 21.— Fully 5,000 delegates and visitors of the order are in the city to attend the 84th Annual session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd-Fellows. The convention began its deliberations this morning in the Auditorium and will conclude Saturday morning.

TRIPLE MURDERER IS ON TRIAL

FREEHOLD, N.J., Sept. 21.—The case of Frank Zesteras, the self-confessed triple murderer, was called for trial today. That insanity is to be the basis of the defence became apparent in the initial proceedings in court. A number of witnesses, among them several who formerly employed the defendant, are expected to testify to their belief that the youthful murderer is of unbalanced mind.

The crime for which Zesteras is to stand trial was committed at Marlboro on May 16 last. His victims were his employer, William B. Sheppard, and his wife, Josephine Sheppard, and their servant, Jennie Brady. The murders were committed in the night and apparently were without any definite motive. The first victim was Mrs. Sheppard, who was killed as she was warming milk for her baby. The murderer shot her three times and she died almost instantly. The husband was shot as he was coming down stairs to rescue his wife. The servant girl met her death as she was trying to escape from the house. After the triple crime the youthful murderer went to the house of a neighbor and told him that all were dead in the Sheppard home. Zesteras, the same afternoon, was taken into custody because of his conflicting statements, and after his arrest a confession was soon obtained. During the period he has spent in jail he has displayed no concern over his probable fate and in court he appeared smiling and unperturbed.

CELEBRATION AT SCENE OF MASSACRE.

MALVERNE, Pa., Sept. 19.— The 131st anniversary of the Paoli massacre, where Gen. "Mad" Anthony Wyne's troops were slaughtered by the British soldiers, was celebrated with interesting exercises on the battlefield near here today. MacElree, district attorney of Chester county, and several other persons of prominence.

NINETY LIVES LOST IN STORM

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The steam ship San Juan which arrived yesterday from Ponce, followed the trail of the hurricane all the way up the coast. Just before she left Ponce on the 15th one of the officers said last night, a wireless message was received, saying that 90 persons in Matthewtown, Ga., had lost their lives there in a hurricane. That is nearly one-half of the population of the Island, which is nearly all negroes

RELIGIOUS PARADE BROKE INTO RIOT.

When a Street Car Attempted to Pass Through its Lines. Crew Is Injured.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 21.—A street car was demolished and its crew injured yesterday when a religious parade of 12,000 persons led by Bishop Paul Rhode became a maddened mob in Chicago Heights. It was with difficulty that the Bishop, who was on his way to dedicate a new cemetery, prevailed upon the marchers to restore order. The riot took place near the City Hall of a suburb, when the motorman of the car attempted to pass through the line of the parade. The marchers became offended when their ranks were disturbed and in an instant the air was filled with flying stones and missiles. The windows of the car were smashed, the woodwork broken and the crew hurt. The passengers in the car fled in terror and several suffered slight wounds from broken glass and crowding.

LABORERS STRIKE.

REGINA, Sask., Sept. 21.—Twenty-one laborers employed on the parliament buildings went on strike today and something in the nature of a free fight took place. One man was thrown off the works by a foreman, and all strikers allege they were forced from the grounds at the point of a revolver, This story is considered unlikely, however. The men claimed they were getting twenty cents an hour, but when paid off were given from thirteen to seventeen cents for 12 hours. This caused the strike.

LOCAL NEWS

The Grand Duke Cigar cha[illegible] all brands. It is made in town, and is the best smoke in town. Don't forget to call for it. X

There will be a practise game on Thursday evening commencing at 5.30. As many of the players as can are requested to turn out. The team opens up its league season on Saturday against Victoria, and it is the men who train who will get the places.

Don't forget the dramatic recital by Miss Underhill at St. John's Mission Church on Friday evening.

You can help a worthy cause and at the same time, spend a very delightful evening, by attending the dramatic recital to be given in the Mission Hall of St. John's church on Friday evening, by Miss Underhill, the celebrated reciter.

If any Standard subscriber who happens to have retained a copy for Aug. 29 will either give or sell it to the editor he would be greatly oblig ed.

There is one good thing to be got in Victoria. That is Winch's Grand Duke Cigar which is on sale at Westerndale Railway Cigar Store, opposite the E. & N. station, at the James' Bay Cigar Store, opposite the C. P. R. Hotel and at the Hub Cigar Store on Government Street run by Lewis and Evans. X

The Nanaimo Athletic Club has made a splendid deal with the Cricket grounds. The club has acquired the grounds which run to something like eight acres, from the Western Fuel Company for $1,500, $300 down and the balance in four payments of $300 a year. The club has been well advised in making the deal, and deserves every success for its enterprise.

all cleared away; but the smoke from Winch's Grand Duke Cigars is gaining in volume all the time. The more you smoke them the more you like them. X

Mr. and Mrs. Lowe and family after several months' absence in the Crow's Nest Pass country, returned to town yesterday.

Fresh Groceries are arriving daily at Gear's Ideal Store. x

A hunting accident is reported from Cumberland. It seems that a hunter saw a brush move and fired into it. the shot badly injured Wm. Colpits, a Northumbrian, who is well-known in Ladysmith. Surely it is time that the man who will fire at every waving tree or bush was prevented from carrying anything more dangerous than a stick of candy.

The value of advertising in the Standard was fully realized by a prominent business man this week. Mr. Trembath, the manager of the Big Store, advertised a stove for sale in Saturday's issue. Before noon on Monday he had seven callers and he had to tell the last six that the range was sold.

A. Portrey was kicked by a mule yesterday and so badly hurt that he had to be brought home.

Mr. John Thomas is advertising the sale of the Ahren boot for which he has secured the sole agency. The Ahren is a famous boot, durability being its chief recommendation. That there is nothing cheap or shoddy in its make-up can be seen from the purposely mutilated samples in Mr. Thomas' show window. Mr. Thomas is asking for inspection and guarantees that the boot will give satisfaction.

Mr. Alex. Dunsire landed in Ladysmith yesterday from the Old Country. Alex. was here a couple of years ago and is back again to take up residence here.

OnSaturday the Standard will publish a very unique story which cannot fail to attract the attention of every reader. Several prominent Ladysmith people are to figure conspicuously in a real live romance on which account the story will be of particular interest. Don't miss it, for if you do you'll miss a good thing.

The local story to be published in the Standard Saturday will be an eye-opener to all bachelors and will show very plainly that, in some cases at least there need be no terrors in matrimony.

OYSTER BAY LOSES IROUD SUMMER TITLE.

OYSTER BAY, N.Y., Sept. 22.—Theodore Roosevelt's final summer vacation during his present term of office as president of the United States came to an end this morniog, when he and his family, who have been at the summer White House, and his executive, departed amid cheers from a throng of residents, for the White House at Washington.

At the same time Oyster Bay ceased to be the summer capital of the United States, a title it proudly held for seven years.

There is not a resident in this little village from the youngest, in whom the president has always been greatly interested, to the feeble white haired old men who have known the president for years, that does not look with regret upon the close of the last presidential summer vacation and the departure of their esteemed citizen to his last term of the duty of guiding the nation.

In several respects this has been an exceptional vacation for the President. He has entertained at Sagamore Hill more visitors than before and at the same time has done much more work than on previous vacations. The present situation, both national and state, has made a tremendous amount of work for him and kept the staff of the executive office busy day and night.

MISS BOND AT THE WALKEM TRIAL.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 22.—The Walkem case developed no sensational features this morning. Miss Bond is physically in much better shape than at the time of the previous trial. She brok? down once and sobbed violently but soon regained her composure. Her testimony was a reiteration of that related at the last trial. The only new feature was the statement that she had broken off her engagement with a young man named Frank Bigelow at the suggestion of Walkem.

William Gould Pays in All $58.20 for Shooting Cock and Hen Pheasants on Sunday.

The case of Wm. Gould, of Cedar District, against whom special game warden Gidley laid an information for shooting pheasants on Sunday, came up before Police Magistrate Yarwood this morning for hearing. The principal did not appear being at work in Ladysmith, but his father was present, saying that the son had gone out to shoot a deer he had seen the Sunday previous, but had run across the birds and shot them.

The magistrate remarked that it was peculiar he should hunt deer with a gun and dgg. A fine of $25 was imposed for shooting a hen pheasant and another fine of $25 for shoating a cock pheasant. Costs of $8.20 will also have to be paid by Mr. Gould, making in all $58.20.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 21.—Twenty-fourth annual convention of trades and labor congress of Canada, opened this morning in the Provincial parliament building with about 70 delegates in attendance from Halifax to Victoria. President Verville declared the session open, and addresses were made by Pres. Scott, Halifax Trades Council, welcoming delegates; J. Keir-Hardie and Fraternal delegate Franey, of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Keir-Hardie, who was welcomed with cheers said in the capacity of a wandering agitator he was connected with the labor movement in England for the past forty years and past quarter of century Socialist. He hoped the day not far distant when these elements blended in Canada. He conveyed the good wishes of England's labor party to Congress.
