POSTAL CARD

NAME AND ADDRESS OF CORRESPONDENCE

Miss Ethel Wallace,
Clayton,
N. B.

Dear Ethel:- Thank you ever so much for "Lucas". I was very glad to get her, also to hear from you. Is the [illegible] old womans at Clayton again this year or has she gone the way of all the rest of them? Oh, I forgot you did not like Indians. You certainly must be lonesome without the boys. Are the Mitchells there this year? Does Mrs. G. still want you to meet the woman with the "dip" or isn't it necessary to take you away from anybody this year? Did you get Mr. B's. suggestion and have an "ad." for Nabob tea painted on the boards below the porch, or is it all to be brown and cream? How is the weather this summer? I hope it is better than last year. Have your mother and Agnes gone back yet? I suppose somebody on the Skeena will be lonesome without her. Of course you know I mean the one who "wonders who's pissing her bow." Don't you miss Ma. Parizeau this year? You surely must feel horribly lonesome without so many of the people you knew in the North. Know what Jack told me, you still have H. M. and the "Jetagamet" crowd. They help a little to make it less lonesome for you, I'm sure. Think I have written a letter on this card, and it will probably be returned for lack of postage. Lots of love from

Bess.
