

Palo Alto, Calif.

Oct. 9, 1950

CARD

Hello Tom: Had a wonderful trip. Arrived to the second. All connections to the second. Flew very low over Shasta. Got a wonderful view. Flew 16,000. Also flew low over S.F. Bay and saw the ship "Benevolence" which sunk. The weather here is perfect. Very hot the past few days. I had a very sore throat from getting wet. Yaw. list am. O.K. now. Bay.

Mr. Thos. Logie
4044 Pumble Rd.
Burnaby
New Westminster
Vancouver, B.C.
Canada

Silhouetted against a late afternoon sky a DC-6 United Mainliner 300 speeds through the smooth upper air at 300 miles an hour. This queen of the skyways flies coast to coast in just 9 1/2 hours.

Nothing is fine. All the animals are alive and well. Since they

PRINTED IN U.S.A. FROM UNITED AIRLINES PODOCHROME

CA-610

UL-1626-01-0159