PARLIAMENT OPENS--- PHENOMENAL SHOWING

One Million and a Half Increase--18 per cent. Increase in Provinces Revenue---Large Public Work Expenditure

VICTORIA, B. C. Jan. 12—The third session of the 12 h legislature opened at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Prabably the feature of the speech from the throne which will excite the most interest throughout the province is forshadowing of measures for further encouraging of railway construction in British Columbia. There is a double interest attaching to the new railway policy of Premier McBride because of the general belief that upon it he will go to the country in the early summer. Details of this policy are dot expected to be introduced for several weeks.

The speech also calls attention in a patriotic way to the accession of King George and the coming of the Duke of Connaught. An act will be presented to make possible a commission form of government in Vancouver Reference is also made to Premier McBride's negotiations with the federal government by which administration of the railway bills is transferred to the provincial lands department. The formal opening of the new provincial university is expected in 1913.

The public accounts for the last completed fiscal year which were presented to the provincial legislature today by Finance Minister Ellison, show the satisfactory condition of the country's business, and its substantial growth during the twelve months under review, an increase in revenue over that of last year of $1,618,150 33 being recorded, while the increase in the aggregate of public expenditure amounted to $1,811,809 68

EIGHTEEN PER CENT GAIN

Analysis of the several sources of provincial income producing the general increase of slightly better than 18 per cent in revenue indicates development and expansion in all departments proportionately well maintained.

Expenditures throughout the year have been chiefly upon public works of a permanent and reproductive nature, which remain a substantial asset to the province.

Dominion Appropriations

Ottawa, Jan 10—The main estimates were tabled in the House this afternoon, and they show, consolidated fund $104,919,304, and capital $44,870,373, a total of $149,789,677, compared with $109,616,917, $46,462,621 and $156,079,538, the corresponding figures for the current year.

For improvements to Vancouver harbor $500,000 is set down for that purpose, and a like amount is also set aside for improvements to the harbor at Victoria.

Public buildings: Ashcroft public buildings, $5,000; Chilliwack public buildings, $35,000; Cranbrook public buildings, $38,000; Dominion public buildings, renewals, improvements and repairs, $9,000; Grand Forks public buildings, $40,000; Greenwood public buildings, $25,000; Merritt public buildings, $10,000; Nanaimo public buildings, extension, $10,000; Nelson public building, additions, $7,000 Prince Rupert, public building, $50,000; Prince Rupert, quarantine station, $24,000; Quesnel public building, addition, $1,000; Revelstoke public buildings, $30,000; North Vancouver public building, $80,000; Vancouver examining warehouse, $300,000; Vernon public building, $10,000; Victoria postoffice improvements, $10,000; Williamsnead quarantine station, improvements and repairs to buildings and furniture, etc., $40,000.

Under the heading of Harbors and Rivers, in the recent Dominion estimates, we find the following from which can be seen that Revelstoke has not been forgotten:

Columbia and Kootenay rivers, improvemeats, $35,000; Columbia and Kootenay rivers, wharfs, $35,000; Columbia river, survey from boundary with view to determine cost of rendering river navigable, $30,000.

Bible Class Social

The two Bible Classes of St. Johns church held a very successful social on Thursday evening. There was a full attendance of the members of these classes, together with a number of invited guests. The first part of the program consisted of a piano solo by Miss Viola Crowe, solo, Mr. A. Thomson; violin selection, Miss Jean Little; reading, Miss M. Matheison; vocal solo, Master Willie Little, and a solo by Mr. Thomson.

Then followed a debate between the members of the young women's class and the young men's class. The ladies defended the negative of the subject, "Resolved that the Pen is mightier than the Sword..' After a keen contest in which both sides ably presented their case, showing an intimate knowledge of the subject, the decision wae given in favor of the negative. The speakers for the affirmative were, Messrs. M. Cowan and Geo. Matheson; and for the negative Misses Lyda Steed, K. Munro, and Jean Little. At the close of the debate the young people took part in a nnmber of games after which refreshments were served. These classes have been organized only a short time, but they are already showing a most progressive spirit. The young men have fitted up a class room for themselves in the basement where they will have very comfortable quarters and the young ladies are to occupy the vestry.

At the social on Thursday evening an invitation was extended to all the young people to join one or other of these classes. Each class has its own monthly social evening and it is the intention to have these union socials at frequent intervals. The first was declared a splendid success by everyone present.

VANCOUVER'S MAYOR SNOWED UNDER

James Findlay Secures Election ---Moyor Morley is Defeated in Victoria.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 11.—After defeating the opponents in two successive years, Mayor Taylor, of Vancouver, went down to defeat to-night in his attempt to be re-elected for a third term to succeed himself. James Findlay, former president of the Vancouver Conservative Association, won by about 1200 votes. Nearly 10,000 votes were polled.

In the business districts of wards one and two Findlay secured a lead of 1,000. It was claimed by Mr. Taylor that he had the laboring men's district in the east end solid, but they did not overcome the lead that Findlay secured in the west end and the big residential districts south of False Creek, including Fairview and Mount Pleasant, which gave a decisive majority for Findlay.

MORLEY DEFEATED

SATURDAY, JAN. 13th, 1912.

A very important announcement is contained in recent coast papers, to the effect that the Provincial government are preparing to add to their already comprehensive railway policy the encouragement of a new line from Vancouver to the Peace River district.

The outstanding feature of the McBride government, has been the vast beneficial development schemes which have been initiated during their regeme, the present administration has never been famoos for political oratory, but in the held of practical business legislation they have made a record unequalled by any administration of the past and likely to remain unsurpassed in future. The period now with us in British Columbia, is a period of achievement; talk is at a discount, deeds speak more eloquently than words, and the practical trend of our people is admirably reflected in the record of the government.

In the estimates for the coming year this feature will be even more adhered to than in previous years. The Hon. Thomas Taylor, Minister of Public Works, and representative of the Revelstoke riding! who by his labors in the cause of practical development has justly earned the name of "Good Roads Taylor," announces that he will estimate this year for the largest sum ever placed at the disposal of the Public Works Department, for expenditure throughout the province.

Among the items particularly effecting this riding are:—Work will be continued on the new court house, which is to cost $150,000, and provisions will be made for heavy appropriations for roads, bridges and trails. It is intended to complete the road to Arrowhead, and the Illecillewaet bridge will also be rushed through.

We understand that the negotiations with the Dominion government respecting the throwing open to settlement of the lands in the Railway Belt, are proceeding satisfactorily.

Last, but by no means least, the Hon. Thomas Taylor has submitted to the government prosposals for a big development scheme in the Big Bend country, tributary to this city, which by covering that territory with a network of roads and trails, will open up the same to settlers, to the great advantage of the business of Revelstoke.

A development policy such as is outlined above, will meet with the approval of every citizen of this district, whatever may be his political opinions; the carrying out of these schemes means a great deal to Revelstoke, and their progress will be watched with the greatest interest.

Windemere Valley Development

What is known as the Windermere district of the Columbia valley of the province of British Columbia is one of the last great valleys of the south eastern portion of this province to be opened for settlement, and a way made for development of its industrical possibilities and the forming of a great national play ground. Windermere district proper, nestles atween the Rocky mountains on the east and the Selkirk mountains on the west. Its eastern boundary marks the western limit of the province of Alberta; its southern outlet is at Cranbrook on the Crow's Nest pass branch of the C.P.R. and its nortnern entry port is Golden, on the main line to Vancouver. At present the only means of transportation is by roads in winter or by steamer on the Columbia river in summer, but the C.P.R. are rapidly pushing forward a branch of their system, to be known as the Kootenay Central railway, which will connect the two extremes of the valley. Contracts have already been let for the building of the greater part of this line and through travel should be possible by the summer of 1914. With the completion of this railway it is expected that a branch line will be extended over the mountains up Toby creek by way of Earl Grey's pass to reach Kootenay lake at Argenta near its northern extremity. Splendid roads, suitable for automobiling, pass up and down the valleys of this district and by way of the south and east connect it with the prairie roads of eastern Canada while the trunk road goes down the Kootenay river thru' Tobacco Plains and joins one of the great international automobile highways as it passes through Montana. Other projected automobile roads for which surveys are now being made are, eastward, to enter the National park near Banff, and westward, to reach on the western shores of Kootenay lake, another main road leading to Nelson and coupling up with the roads of West Kootenay.

GREAT DEVELOPMENT.

Great development is taking place throughout the district. In the way of agricultural development several irrigation companies—the more important of which are Columbia Valley Irrigated Fruit Lands, Limited, of Wilmer, B.C., and Columbia Valley Orchards, Limited, of Athalmere B.C., are putting in irrigation works subdividing land, and in the case of the former are carrying out a strong successful immigration policy. The industries of the irrigation company and the prosecution of the lumber interests are largely responsible for the establishment and upkeep of the market centres of Wilmer, Athalmere, Windermere and Invermere. At least one of these is destined to become a place of some importance when the through railway line is completed. In the way of agricultural development little has yet been done but experiments which have been carried out satisfactorially prove that vegetables, all foder cereals, apples, cherries and every variety of small fruit will grow in abundance. The valley is very wide and there are large areas of bench lands which are open for settlement and development at once.

The Selkirk mountains contain many large deposits of low grade ore some of which have been extensively developed and wifl, it is hoped commence shipment with the advent of the railway company.

With the coming of this means of transportation the district will also be opened up and become more widely known as a tourist resort. Great beauty of scenery is most marked, there are unrivaled opportunities for mountain climbing, splendid springs of hot mineral water are located at convenient points, most excellent boating is afforded by the lakes and large game is to be found in the upper valley of the Kootenay river which parallels that of the Columbia The district possesses a general hospital, board of trade, farmers' institute, banks, churches and hotels. In the way of winter amusements there are curling and hockey clubs, and the opportunities for skiing, tobogganing, ice boating and skating are unrivaled.

The history of the district also has its local interests, as it was here that David Thomson, one of the early explorers of British Columbia, built his fort "Kootenai" and wintered in the year 1807. The remains of his fort may still be seen on the banks of Toby creek. Among other things which have their story of romance and lore may be mentioned the remains of an Indian cemetery, and rock writing.—Nelson News.

LACROSSE SITUATION

Special to the Mail-Herald by Joe Lally

I notice by Coast papers which I take pleasure in reading every morning, that you are in touch with the lacrosse fight in the East between the much mooted "Big Four" and N. L. U. At a distance this fight and the talk of alluring salaries are intensely magnified, and when it comes to be boiled down and properly percolated you will find that there will be more sedements than beel broth. In this connection I just thought I would drop a line to my many good lacrosse friends in the province of the "Setting Sun," to say to them to go slow, and that before jumping at any contracts which might be offered them, they should give the matter mature consideration before affixing their signatures thereto, and treking East in the fond hope of finding a more lucrative position and additional fame in this part of Canada. The old saying, that "The far off fields look verdant" is a true one and I know of no case where it will apply more aptly than in the present one. I have travelled in every quarter of the Globe where lacrosse is played, with the exception of Australia and New Zealand, and I want to say frankly ann truthfully, that there is no place on this ball of clay where there is as much enthusiasm; as many true followers of the game; as much loyalty to their clubs; or as much respect shown to players, as there is right in the province of British Columbia, and more especially in the good little sporting town of New Westminster, to which even Cornwall the home of lacrosse, must doff its hat. A lacrosse player who cannot succeed in laying the foundation of a solid business future in Vancouver or New Westminster, need never expect to find a solid footing in the East, because the elevator is the only lifting machine which we use in this section of the country to give such people a rapid ascent, and then it is only in lifting him to the top floot for a fifteen cent meal, instead of planting him at the right hand of the general manager. Some people do not know when they are well off, and it sometimes takes a sudden jolt to bring them to their senses, and remind them it is too late; when they waken up they are quite satisfied to edge in and become a rubber or a stick carrier. The other fellow who was not looking for the earth, but who was endowed with enough horse sense to know that you can pull the string once too often, and who dug in and played the game of lacrosse on the side, and the game of business as a future asset, has taken his place and made good. It is then that the "hold-up man" and the disgruntled fellow realises he is a back number. I have followed lacrosse and the game of life closely enough to find out that the successful lacrosse player and the future business man is the fellow who figuratively speaking sleeps under the counter and lives in the back room until he gets a start. That fellow knows how many pennies there are in a dollar, and how he got them and how hard the floor was.

His snrplus soon begins to assert itself, and he has it working at 8 per cent or 10 per cent instead of having the bank figure his interest quarterly at 3 per cent. Just figure it out for yourself. Look back on the lacrosse players of the past with whom you were acquainted, and see if you can't pick out a few "old Abes," and notice if they are not nicely settled, and able to meet their tax bill when the collector comes around. These men knew enough to know when they were at the zenith of their fame; that their lacrosse days were short at the best, and then after that comes the struggle for life. But, the fellow who is never satisfied and don't know when he has a good thing, generally wakens up to find, alas and alack he is too late and he is a down and outer. If there is anything that is worse than knowing too little it is knowing too much, and there is no cure for a big head. Given plenty of scope he will just naturally bust, and I am inclined to think that some of these kites in the East that you read about, will have very dramatic descents. They imagine they are going to just pull all the top notchers to their little picture gallery, and that every one of them will be tumbling over each other in their eagerness to sign; but there are always certain "conditions" attached to these alluring contracts, such as "If you don't make good," and as many other "ifs" as you'll find in an auctioneers vocabulary, with which lacrosse players generally will not comply, he will then be dropped and can trek for home. I have always heard it said, that "it is better to deal with the devil you know than to go experimenting with the devil of an unknown quantity," and in this connection I want to say that Con Jones isn't a bad old devil after all to hook up with. If you will just stop and consider the brand of lacrosse the people of Vancouver were having served up to them before Con Jones broke into the game, and the quality of the article put up during the past season, it is a safe bet that a man acquainted with the mathematical side issues of our National game, would be satisfied to leave the reins in Cons hands. And when the lacrosse players who made up the two greatest lacrosse teams in the world, Vancouver and New Westminster, begin to put on their war paint for the opening game next season, it is a safe bet also that they will sign up with their respective teams.

Yes, I say that Con Jones deserves more credit for the solid footing that lacrosse is getting in the city of Vancouver, than he will ever be given credit for. But for the sturdy opponents he had in New Westminster, he could never have accomplished what he has in the lacrosse world, and I would strongly advise the players on these two teams to stay where they are notwithstanding the rosy overtures that may be offered them. I remember the days when Cornwalls were the champions of the world, when there was a little side money handed to some of the boys, and if they got a "divy" at the end of the season of $75 or $80 there was great jubilation! Take Vancouver and New Westminster, especially the latter town, where lacrosse players can pursue business vocation and count on a divy of $1500 a year and all the comforts of home; living in one of the greatest provinces in the world; playing for the glory of their town and having the respect of the entire community, yes I might say Kings in their own home towns. Are they not better off than the majority of lacrosse players in the East who have no business connection, draw a salary not even as great as they of the West can command at home, and given to a life of ease. No doubts tempting offers will be made, and in isolated cases larger offers than be obtained in the West, in some cases from irresponsible people and in others from irresponsible people, but I will guarantee from the experience of others whom I have followed, that the boy who sticks to his own club, plays for his own town, keeps plugging at his work and banks his lacrosse salary will be much better off by sticking to home and the old feather bed.

Sincerely yours,

JOE LALLY.

HEAVY DRINKER CURED

Samaria Cured Him, and He Helps Others

A man who has been released from the awful cravings of drink, and whose first thought is to help others, shows the spirit of true brotherhood and philanthropy. Read his letter:

"The Samaria Remedy Co. Toronto Ont.:

"Will you please send me book on drink, also circulars relating to your valued remedy for the drink habit. I wish to hand these to a friend who is going to ruin through drink. You will remember that I have taken your remedy, and I find it all you claim it to be. I never think of taking or using strong drink in any way, as all desire for it has left me. I cannot speak too highly of your wonderful remedy. You may use my name in any way you wish in public.

"R. Lilywhite, Brigden, Ontario."

Samaria Prescription is tasteless and odorless, and dissolves instantly in tea or coffee, or can be mixed with food. It can be given with or without the patient's knowledge. It removes the craving for drink, builds up the system and restores the nerves. Drink becomes distasteful and even nauseous.

Drink is a disease, not a crime. One drink of whiskey always invites another. The inflamed nerves and stomach create a craving that must either be satisfied by more whiskey or removed by scientific treatment like Samaria Prescription. Samaria Prescription has been in regular and successful use by Physicians and Hospitals for over ten years.

If you know of any family needing Samaria Prescription, tell them about it. If you have a husband, father or friend that is drifting into drink, help him save himself. Write to-day.

A FREE TRIAL PACKAGE of Samaria Prescription, with booklet, giving full particulars, testimonials, price, etc., will be sent absolutely free and postpaid in plain sealed package to anyone asking for it and mentioning this paper. MALAKWA NOTES

As a result of the advertiseing Malakwa and the Garden of Eden has been receiving lately, several inquiries for fruit lands are already to hand.

The fact that prizes were won recently by L. M. Johnson and other settlers at Malakwa at the recent poultry show at Revelstoke, demonstrates the fact that the poultry industry can be successfully prosecuted in the Garden of Eden. It is stated that this spring several more ranchers in this valley will embark in the poultry business.

The new year has begun, and we all welcome its arrival with our usual thankful hearts and bowed heads. Even the thermometer bowed so low that I fear it will take hours for it to raise again, but its fall will undoubtedly be of short duration, as its tendencies are usual upwards in this mild climate of ours, and soon the robbins chirp will be giving us warning of coming spring, whether they are late this year or not I can not say I have noted no signs of nesting as yet, but old timers tell me they never begin nesting until after the new year has begun. So perhaps their is no cause for alarm as yet.

It appears that the Garden of Eden would not be complete without a Satan and this gentleman seems to dearly love to rattle his chains very frequently. The objection to the statement that there is a good opening at the Garden of Eden for an hotel is obsurd. Is it not a fact that almost weekly strangers arriving are at a loss where to go and very frequently by an unfortunate mistake, call at the snug residence of his Satanic majesty only to be told that strangers were not admitted, frequently the weary traveller is directed to some more hospitable home amidst the timber probably a mile distant—yes indeed there is a good opening at the Garden of Eden for a good road house or hotel, one that can provide food and shelter to the public. The matter of a license for the hotel for a few months would be immaterial, accommodation for the public is what is wanted and what the public demand.

What right has any one individual who has already gained the reputation of being the most inhospitable settler in the valley to assert that there is no room for a hotel at the Garden of Eden.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Editor Mail-Herald:—

Dear Sir,—I being a rancher and interested in the Garden of Eden valley it pains me to note the early appearance of Satan in your correspondence and the smallness of his intellect is very apparent. In his discrepancies he points out to an intelligent mind it would seem, that the majority of doctors or medical men are as capable of plowing and working out the problems of life, as this would-be wise and conceited Satan is. Then again he displays his smallness of mind and narrow vision in the population of this fair valley with his limited knowledge and weak intellect he can only bring eight miles of territory under his snortsighted vision, and as to the population of this vast eight miles of territory, which he pictures as his empire from his lordly perch, and no doubt in his infinite mule satanic mind, we are in great doubt if he sees but one, great I am, as he tries to be, it is only Satan or degenerate mind that tries to block the progress of the world, and only a cloven footed monster that would not help to encourage the advancement of his own town or country.

Again this same demon has shown his neighborly love and greatness of spirit by attacking orscoffing the hotel proposition. As this is the place where his satanic head and cloven feet get mixed and it is hard to distinguish one from the other, but that is a small matter. Concerning the hotel at or near Malakwa it is only necessary for the stranger to call on this Satanic Lord for a meal or a bed and note the pleasure expressed in his lordly face as he digs out an old pair of dusty blankets for a weary rancher and sits him down in a deserted cabin for a place to sleep, and trusting to the timely arrival of the train to take them out before breakfast. This is the freak of degeneration, a disgrace to the monkey race theory, that fills his shinny skin with foul air and belches out these scoffing sneering criticisms that would shame a snake to utter.

Hurdle Racing

There are two distances which have become very popular among athletes and the promoters of athletic meets. The shorter distance which is 120 yds is run over 10 hurdles 3ft. 6in. high, placed 10yds. apart, the first and last obstacles being 15yds. from the starting and finishing lines respectively. The longer distance is 220yds. the 10 hurdles being 20yds. apart, and in this case only 2ft. 6in. high, and the first and last hurdle being 20yds. from the starting and finishing lines respectively.

These distances are generally spoken of as the high and low hurdles, the distance being understood as given above.

Hurdling requires skill, strength, spring, nerve and a cool head, and to meet with a fair measure of success you must devote several years of hard and faithful practice.

A little might be said on training, but of course space will not permit going into it fully.

First, the training for a beginner should be begun in the gym in the winter, with light calisthenics, rising on the toes, rising on heels, and practising the double jump on the toes, in other words all round work in the gym should be made part of the preliminary training.

One of the best exercises that a hurdler can indulge in is to jump up and down on the spring board about 20 times a day, this tends to develop a very necessary quality of spring and suppleness.

A few words on jumping the hurdles themselves, let us take the high hurdles for instance.

First, speed between the hurdles is of the utmost importance, the secret of obtaining this is in starting the foot which has crossed last over the hurdle forward for the first step before the forward foot has reached the ground, thus making the first step after the jump a very short one yet a very quick one, this you will find a very difficult movement to master, but the athlete will find it will lower his time.

Now the ideal distance between the steps in the high hurdles is this, after clearing the first hurdle you alight about 7ft. 6in. from it, your first step would be about 4ft. 4in., your second step would be about 5ft 10in., your third and last 7ft. 6in. over your next hurdle.

Now a good way to accomplish this is to put down a mark and practice stepping on the marks until you have mastered the step well.

Training for the low hurdles is in general the same as for the high but the jump over the obstacle itself is altogether different. In clearing the low hurdles the athlete should endeavor not to jump, he must put as little spring as possible into his effort. In the low hurdles the shoulders should be kept on as constant a level as possible. The low hurdles being 20yds. apart it would of course be necessary to take a greater number of strides or steps between obstacles, about 7 or 9 strides is the number aimed at. The hurdles whether high or low should be cleared by as little a margin as possible. Of course no cast iron rules could be laid down for anyone. By aiming at this ideal the hurdler will gradually work into a stride best suited to himself. As to the standing or crouching start, many athletes differ, so that no set rule can be laid down.

As a parting word let me say that under no circumstances should the hurdler look back over his shoulder to see the position of his opponents this fault has lost the leading man many a prize.

A hurdle race is a constant drive from start to finish.

Canadian Pulp in United States

In a Pulpwood Forest Products Bulletin shortly to be published by the Dominion Forestry Branch, statistics are given of the amount of pulpwood exported from Canada into the United States during 1910. Nine hundred and forty-three thousand cords of pulpwood (sixty per cent of the total Canadian pulp log cut) worth six million, two hundred and ten thousand dollars, were shipped across the border in a raw state without undergoing any form of manufacture. This pulpwood export was cut from the various provinces in the following amounts and values; 779,000 cords worth $5,090,000 from the timber limits of Quebec; 90,000 cords worth $647,000 from New Brunswick, and 74,000 cords worth $473,000 from Ontario. It is interesting to note to what extent provincial industry would have been increased if the pulpwood exported to the United States had been converted into woodpulp on Canadian soil. The seven hundred and seventy-nine thousand cords exported from Quebec would have supplied material for a year to fifty-six pulpmills of the average size operating in Quebec. In Ontario, five mills of the average size could have been kept running with the pulp logs exported from this province. The ninety thousand cords shipped from the ports of New Brunswick would have produced the most startling results if the amount had been domestically manufactured into pulp. The amount exported was sufficient to supply with wood twenty-four mills of the average size, with the result that five times the number of mills operating, would have been at work if Canadians in New Brunswick had been far seeing enough to manufacture their own raw products.

The Private Secretary

Mr. C. James Bancroft, one of the best known of England's younger players, and a protege of the late Sir Henry Irving, is presenting this season a sumptuously staged revival of one of the most famous of all farce comedy successes "The Private Secretary. This play—pronounced by many to be the funniest ever writ ten—has lived for many years and has never been equalled from the standpoint of humor. Not to have seen "The Private Secretary" is regarded as just as much of an omission by lovers of farce as not to have seen Hamlet is to Shakespearean enthusiasts. Mr. Bancroft has been surrounded by a splendid group of players and those who have witnessed his great production say that it is as thorough as was the original, which stirred New Yorkers as no other comedy has done.

"The Private Secretary" will be seen at the Opera House on Monday Jan. 15th.

"The Private Secretary" has already delighted almost a generation of mankind, and now is going forth is unto the end ol the world, for we are told that when Mr. Bancroft reaches Vancouver at the end of the present tour, every country and almost every considerable town in the world will be able to answer the inquiry, "Do you know?" in the affirm ative.

He could certainly have no complaint to lodge as to his reception at the Lyric last night, for a full and enthusiastic house applauded him and the other members of that historic house party. C. James Bancroft, of course, took the part of the Rev. Robert Spaulding, in the traditional manner, and showed himself worthy of a name much honored in the theatrical world. The terrific uncle, Mr. Cattermole, with liver eaten up by the peprery sauce of India, was one of the chief mainstays of the play, as represented last night by Alexander Frank, and Shirley Braithwaite as the tailor from Bond street who would be a gentleman, was equally successful.

SECOND ANNUAL POULTRY SHOW

Many Prizes are Awarded and a Magnificent Showing of Prize Birds

The report of the premiums won at a Score Card Show differs somewhat from the report of a show conducted on the comparison plan. The poultry show recently conducted by the Revelstoke Poultry and Pet Stock Association was conducted on the score card plan, whilst the poultry awards at the Agricultural Society show in September last were made on the comparison plan.

On the score card birds must come up to a certain standard before they are eligible for a first, second or third prize as the case may be. The list published below indicates that in the solid color varieties first prize birds have scored 90 points or over, second prize birds 89 points, and third prize 88 points. Thus a bird which might score too low to take a third prize might in a comparison show take a first prize because the others competing were still inferior.

The object of conducting the show upon the more exacting principle was to indicate to exhibitors which, if any, of the exhibits were fit to compete in the large shows held on the coast, as it is considered useless to send a bird to the Provincial Show unless it is capable to take a first prize on a score card competition

A number of the exhibits shown at Revelstoke were well over the ninety mark and several of these will compete at Vancouver next week.

It would be almost invidious to single out any one exhibitor where the class of the exhibits was so high but special mention must be made of the class of the exhibit made by Mr. F. C. Waddell of Enderby, in the White Wyandotte and White Leghorn classes. As will be seen from the special awards, Mr. Waddell takes the cup and a special prize for the largest and best display in the whole show. He also took the two cups for the best male and the best female in the whole show.

For kindness in assisting with the work of the show and handling the birds between the coops and the score room, the Poultry Association is indebted to Messrs. Edwards of Wallachin, Mr. B. F. Sommerville of Malakwa, F. Soames and J. Malcolm of Revelstoke. These gentlemen worked hard to assist the officers of the association in getting through the work of the show as expeditiously as possible.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

The Royal Templars, met in the lodge room on Thursday evening, for installation of members.

MUSIC—Miss Johnson, pupil of A. Miller, F.R.A.M., London, is prepared to take a limited number of pupils for tuition in music. For terms apply at the residence of J. K. Johnson, first house west of the hospital, First street.

The annual meeting, of the board of trade will be held on Tuesday evening next the 16th inst, at the City Hall.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will hold a tea and sale of home cooking at the home of Mrs. Lindmark's on Thursday, Jan. 18th, afternoon and evening. Admission afternoon 15c., evening 25c.

CORRECTION—In the list of Coming events elsewhere in this issue the J.B.C.'s are reported to give a concert on the 22nd of February in the Edison theatre. It should have read in the opera house.

The annual congregational meeting of St. John's Presbyterian church will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 23rd, at 8 o'clock, when the various reports for the past year will be presented and the regular business of the congregation transacted.

It is understood that the annual meeting of the Agricultural Society will be held at the same date and place. Would it not be possible for one of the meetings to simply meet and adjourn for say a week. No doubt both meetings are important, but the fact of them both being called the same evening makes it rather awkward.

The Seige of Calais at the Star theatre on Monday—This is the most wonderful motion picture ever seen in Revelstoke. It shows over two thousand men and horses in action, and contains over half a mile of land painted film. It would cost you half a dollar to see this in the Vancouver opera house, but at the Star it is only 15 cents and 10 cents.

Mr. F. W. Laing, director of the B. C. Poultry Association, left today for Vancouver, where he will attend the B. C. Poultry Association annual exhibition.

Mrs. Murray, of Vancouver, who has been visiting Revelstoke for the past few days as the guest of her sister Mrs. Greenwood, returned to the coast on Saturday.

Mrs. F. W. Laing was hostess at a "Thimble Party" at her residence on Sixth street on Thursday afternoon. Some twenty guests were present, and a most enjoyable time was spent.

The executive of the Baptist Young People's Union, gives a very favorable report on the progress of the work of the society. All find a personal interest and an opportunity of self-help in the way the topics are discussed. Special attention being given to the practical. The Literary committee is busy and promise some interesting evenings during the course of the winter.

There was a large and enthusiastic gathering of the canvassers for the "Thousand Dollar Fund" in the Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening. As stated in our last issue the managers of St. John's church purpose raising a thousand dollars in a week. The names of all the Presbyterians in the city haae been all located to the canvassers who will start on Monday to make a personal call on those assigned to them. This seems a most reasonable and feasible method of raising the desired fund and we feel sure that the managers of St. John's church will realize even more than the amount mentioned. The work of collecting has been undertaken by the ladies and if the meeting on Wednesday evening is any indication of the spirit in which they intend to carry on the canvass their efforts cannot fail to be successful.

SECOND SECTION.

Owing to the large number of members wishing to participate in the bowling, it was pressed upon us to form a new league. Four teams constitute the league, and the games will be played off on the alleys on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, commencing at 8 p.m. sharp. Thus it will give all others who have not been placed on any team an opportunity to have a game before eight o'clock.

Vestry Meeting

The annual Vestry meeting of St. Peter's church was held in the Rectory on Wednesday evening last. There was a large gathering of zealous and enthusiastic parishioners. Excellent financial and statistical reports were presented. Mr. Chas. M. Field, as People's Warden, deserves great credit for his work; also the Ladies' Guild gave an excellent account of their stewardship.

The election of a Select Vestry for the current year was keen and spirited, and in many cases, it was necessary to resort to the ballot.

The church committee is as follows

Rector's Warden—Mr. F.M. Gibson.

People's Warden—Mr. W. H. Wallace

Sidesmen—Messrs. Field, Dr. McLean, Lee, Sibbald, jr., Hardman and Trebeck.

Lay delegates to Synod—Messrs. R. Gordon, Paton and Field.

Alternates—Messrs. Trebeck, Dr. McLean and Hardman.

Votes of thanks were passed to Mr. Field and the Ladies' Guild. Also a resolution was passed expressing the appreciation of the Vestry of the kind offices and advices of the Rector There was a bright musical and literary program, pleasant and profitable to all.

THE man who carries a HOWARD Watch finds himself in good company.

Leaders in American affairs since Lincoln's young manhood have relied on the HOWARD. "HOWARD Time" has been a determining factor in every phase of the nation's advance.

The first HOWARD was also the first American watch. It was made in 1842 and the finest models cost $500. To-day the price is lower—and the watch is better.

Every HOWARD is made and adjusted as a fine watch. Cased and timed in its own case at the factory and a printed price ticket attached. Price fixed—$40 to $150.

Let us show you this distinctive watch.
