NAVIGATION OPENS ON COLUMBIA RIVER

First Steamer Sails Saturday—
Activity Looked Forward to
Up Big Bend This Year

The steamer Revelstoke will begin regular sailings for the season of 1911 on Saturday the 6th instant, leaving the city wharf at 6 a.m. and returning on Sunday. Thereafter regular trips will be made every Tuesday and Friday as in the past.

Capt. Forsland, who has been in charge for several years, in fact ever since the steamer was operated, will again be at the wheel, and Engineer Colbeck, and Fireman Vaggon will furnish the power, while Capt. Fred Swanson will again act as Mate and purser. A large logging camp will be opened at once at Peterson's Landing, and a large number of men will be employed.

The C.P.R. survey parties are expected to arrive shortly to complete the surveys commenced last year of the road around the Bend. A party of timber cruisers and surveyors will go up on the first boat to cruise timber claims and survey lands.

Several mining deals are being made for properties in the Big Bend and a season of activity is looked forward to by those interested in properties in the district.

BORGLARS ARE BUSY

Butcher Store of C. F. Lindmark
Broken into Last Night

This city had another burglary last night, the butcher shop of C. F. Lindmark being broken into and a bicycle, a watch, a Mauser revolver, a number of cartridges and about $2 in stamps stolen.

Entrance was gained to the store by a side window in the rear of the building, while to gain an entrance to the front shop and office, the perpetrator of the deed sawed a square hole through the intervening door, thereby removing the latch. The tools used were a bit and a keyhole saw.

Every drawer in the office desk had been rifled, but the safe in which the cash and valuable papers are kept was untouched. The burglar apparently not having the necessary tools for opening that.

The police are working on the case and it is quite probable the miscreant will be captured, as so far the local force has succeeded with unerring accuracy in locating their quarry. As will be seen in another column Collier the man upon whom suspicion fastens itself as being the man who broke into Alex Hobson's store last week was given five months in Kamloops.

Attempts were also made to break into the drug store of C. R. MacDonald and the barber shop of Roy McDonald. At the former place the side door was partly broken away, but the miscreants were evidently frightened away by the barking of dogs in the store before the heavy iron bolt could be drawn. From there they tried the other side door of the store but were again unsuccessful. Roy McDonald's barber shop was apparently the next scene of action, but the burglars could not effect an entrance.

FIVE MONTHS AT KAMLOOPS

Hobo Who It Is Believed Broke
Into Hobson's Store

Had a charge of burglary been laid against S. J. Collier, it is pretty certain that he would have been convicted for the offence of breaking into Alex Hobson's store on Thursday night last. The evidence was all there when he appeared in police court yesterday morning on a charge of vagrancy, and the police were absolutely certain they had the man who did the deed, but unfortunately for justice the charge of burglary was not pressed. The corduroy trousers which left their tell-tale mark on the bag of flour at the broken window of Hobson's store were there; flour besmeared the smock which the prisoner had worn and it was evident from his own statements that he was in and around the city on Thursday night. So taking all things into consideration, circumstantial evidence at least was very strong against him.

However, the charge of burglary was not pressed, but rather a charge of vagrancy laid instead. Collier had, of course, the usual hard luck story of not being able to get money that he had worked honestly for. He had come from California and had worked in camps and on railroads, and the usual difficulties which hoboes and criminals conjure up for times of emergency were recited over and over again. But it was no go this time as the court was absolutely certain that he was a "bad one" and would not work if he was let out.

"If you can fix it up some way so that I can pay my fine when I get to work at a job I have promised me Monday, I will be much obliged," he pleaded to the magistrate.

But the court was obdurate and sentenced him without the option of a fine to five months in Kamloops jail.

CENSUS MAN WILL ASK QUEER QUESTIONS

At Least They Will Appear So to Average Revelstoke People—
Get Your Answers Ready

When the census enumerator knocks at your door next month and commences to ask you a whole lot of questions which you may consider impertinent, don't slam the door in his face or otherwise insult him or maltreat him.

He will only be doing his duty. He will be working for the government, and wants to know all about you. The government intends to take a very special census of the people of the Dominion this year, and in addition to counting them wants to know all about them.

Here are some of the questions the census man will ask you:—

Are you blind deaf or dumb?
Are you crazy, lunatic, idiot or silly?

Are you insured, and if so, in what company?

Can you read and write? If so, where were you taught? What was the cost of obtaining your education?

What is your age? (Ladies are not excused from answering this question)

Are you a colored person?

How much money are you worth?

The questions which the enumerator will have to ask are classified under a number of different sections. The first and most important is the population, and under this section comes age, color and how much you are worth.

The next deals with morality, disability, and compensation, while Sections 5 and 6 are for statistics relating to the seed and fruit crops of 1910 and the number of animals raised during a given number of years.

Section No. 7 seeks information for all kinds of farm statistics and No. 8 under the forestry department, asks for the kind and quality of trees raised and their value in dollars and cents.

Another section deals with factory statistics, and the questions under this head include the money invested the values of land, buildings and plants, the number of employees and the number of working hours each day, and the size of the pay rolls.

The heads of churches, colleges, public and private schools will be required to answer a long list of questions, and under another section, information pertaining to fisheries is sought.

The government also wishes to get statistics relating to the mining development in the Dominion. Under this heading managers of the mining companies will be required to tell how much capital is involved in their enterprises, and how many employees are kept at work and the number of hours they work.

SHOT THROUGH LUNG

Resident of Golden Victim of Shooting Accident

While out gopher shooting with a number of companions, on Sunday last Dan McGinnis, bridgeman, was accidentally shot through the lung by one of his friends, and his condition in the hospital at Golden is considered anything but encouraging.

Dr. Hamilton was summoned from the city on Monday for consultation with the Golden physicians and states that the occurrence was purely an accident, and from the statements of those who were with the victim at the time of the accident it is impossible to tell who was responsible for the affair.

A football match between two picked teams will take place on the Y. M.C.A. ground tonight at six o'clock. All football players who want to get into the game are requested to turn out prepared at the time mentioned.

ATTEMPT TO HOLD UP THE CENTRAL HOTEL BUS

Man With Revolver Orders the Driver to Throw Up His Hands and Stop Rig

Was a holdup intended or was it only as a joke that four men ran out from the sidewalk near Central school on Sunday night between 11 and 12 o'clock and at the point of a revolver ordered the driver of the Central hotel bus to throw up his hands and stop his rig?

The driver at that time of night was Oscar Abrahamson, the eighteen year-old son of Chas. Abrahamson. On his way to the station he was driving leisurely along to meet the incoming midnight train, when suddenly four men sprang from the sidewalk near the Central school and one of them with a revolver in his outstretched hand ordered the driver to throw up his hands and stop the rig. The driver in consternation, dropped the lines, and the rush of the men to the horses' heads frightened the animals so that they took to their heels and made a getaway. No shots were fired, but the driver considered it no pleasant experience to look along the barrel of a shining revolver at that hour of night.

The affair may have been intended as a holdup as sometimes the Central bus carries a large number of guests to the station at that hour of the night, or it may have been but an attempt to frighten the driver. In either case the affair would have been none the less serious for the culprits had they been caught.

PRETTY WEDDING

Popular Young Couple United in Matrimony Monday Evening

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Loesch on Monday evening a pretty wedding took place when Rev. J. W. Stevenson in the presence of about twenty guests, united in matrimony Mr. E. S. Butler, and Miss Maude Robinson, the latter one of Revelstoke's popular young ladies.

The event occurred at about 8:30 when the bride entered the parlor of the house to the music of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Gladys Urquhart. She was attired in a becoming gown of embroidered white satin with tunic effect and was supported by her sister, Miss Olive Robinson, in a gown of pale blue novelty silk with lace trimmings. Mr. G. S. Pickering supported the groom as best man.

After the ceremony a wedding dejeuner was served and the happy young couple left on the 12:30 train for Harrisburg, Pa., and Truro, N. S., where they will spend a couple of months before returning to the city to reside.

The contracting parties were the recipients of a large number of handsome and useful presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautifully engraved watch with chain attached; to the best man a pair of engraved cuff links; to the bridesmaid engraved gold bracelets, and a gold bracelet to the pianist of the occasion.

MANY NATIONALITIES HERE

B. C. Bible Society Prints the Book in 18 Languages

That there are at least eighteen different nationalities in the Province of British Columbia is a fact brought out by the recent visit to this city of Rev. J. Knox Wright, district secretary of the Bible Society of British Columbia. This is the number of foreign languages in which the Bible is printed for distribution, and Mr. Wright declares that still more versions of the Book are required as many other nationalities are taking up their residence here.

Mr. Wright, who is making his annual trip through the upper country, the boundary country and the Okanagan, addressed a meeting of the Baptist church last night and his report showed a year of very satisfactory progress. One year ago there were but ten branches of the organization in the province, now there are 32. Contributions last year $6,000, of which amount Revelstoke contributed $77 to the ordinary fund. During the year there were 8,024 copies of the Bible distributed. Reference was made at last night's meeting to the resolution of the B.C. Board to erect a Bible house in Vancouver this year to mark the tercentenary of the authorized version of the Bible.

BUYS IN CARLOTS.

That the secret of success in poultry raising lies in the judicious buying of foodstuffs was the statement made at the Hume last night by William Neilson of Fruitvale, a director of the Farmers' institute at that point and a successful poultry fancier

"I find that by purchasing foodstuffs in carload lots," said Mr. Neilson, "that I can save very nearly 100 per cent of the prices that I should have to pay if I bought in small lots. I was pleased to see that the West Kootenay Poultry association at Nelson was endeavoring to make some arrangements to buy goods in this manner. If arrangements could be made I have no doubt that the members of that organization would find that they would save a great deal of money on their expense accounts and consequently reap far greater profits. Properly handled I believe that hens should pay at least $3 each per annum.—Nelson News.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1911.

Petitions are being circulated this week to change the location of the new court house from the present location decided upon to a more convenient one closer to the centre of the city. These are being largely signed, and it is apparently the consensus of opinion that from a business standpoint there could be a better location than the one which the government has in its all seeing wisdom, selected.

From a scenic point of view too doubt there could not have been a better choice than the one decided upon, but from a business standpoint the location is doubtful as being the very best that could be selected. In the summer it is a nice little walk all right, but in the winter at times, it is most inaccessible. This apparently is the argument for a change, but whether this will be sufficient to induce the government at this stage of the game to consider a protest is doubtful.

Excuse us for again harping on the subject of a city beautiful, but every man has his hobby and this is apparently ours. Paint is a cheap commodity, and if it is not asking too much of the city council we might suggest a liberal coat of cheap paint to the hydrants throughout the city. They might look better if they were toggled out in a brand new set of scenery for the summer, and if perchance the city treasury will stand it the city light poles, telegraph and telephone poles, would be the better for the same treatment. It would enhance the appearance of the streets by at least fifty per cent.

On the first day of April the city council met at the city hall and purchased a brand new watering cart, so it was reported. But a whole month has passed and the citizens are beginning to assume the attitude of the man from Missouri and want "to be shown." Was it an April Fool joke that the city council was practicing on them or not? At the time of the purchase it was reported that the agent of the firm purposed the machine to be in Calgary where it had been delivered, but owing to the numerous hills of that city and the extraordinary size of the cart it could not be used there. Now it shouldn't take any more than a week at the most to get a cart from Calgary. This paper pointed out that fact a week or so ago, and then we were told the machine was in Winnipeg instead of Calgary. In fact one of our city fathers told us that he had seen it in that city. Can it be that the cart has wandered still farther away than Winnipeg, and will some one come in now and kindly tell us its latest habitat is Toronto, Montreal or even Halifax. The big ten ton roller has already reached here from Brantford, Ont., so that if the watering cart is in Winnipeg and every legitimate effort is being made to get it here at once, the only assumption that can be made is that it is being led to Revelstoke over the prairies and mountains. Perhaps some day it may appear on the summit of the Selkirk and roll into the city of its own volition.

Heaven only knows that if this city ever needed a watering cart it is right now. The dust flies in clouds at the swish of a woman's skirts, while the roll of a wagon literally obscures the vision. All this time the sand is getting deeper and deeper and the dust much harder to allay, and they do tell us that sometimes there is a scarcity of water in the city. Will the cart or the water machine get here first?

Surely some extra effort should be made to get the cart here right away. The money to pay for it is ready and street sprinkling is needed.

Will there be anything doing here on Coronation Day? The day has been proclaimed a public holiday, though to what purpose has not yet been hinted at in the proclamation. Is it to be a day of sports in the city or will there be some sort of celebration in commemoration of the crowning of a new sovereign? Perhaps it is rather early yet to begin preparations for any parade or ceremony but we merely mention the matter in order to find out if any person or body of persons has any idea at all as to the nature of a coronation ceremonial. At least one thing should be done on that day, and that is to decorate every public building with the good old Union Jack and possibly the royal colors. Perhaps some general service could be conducted in some public building or theatre in commemoration of the event. Public spirited loyalists should at least begin to think the matter over.

To boost is said to be one of the principal characteristics of Westerners. If it snows in June it is generally conceded by the citizens of Western Canada that the snow is just what the crops needed. If it freezes the citizens put on a most optimistic air and still assume that it won't do any harm anyway. If not carried too far this boosting spirit is a good characteristic to possess. Calgary boasts its municipally owned street railway for a fair, and it gets a whole lot of free advertising from this boosting, but does Revelstoke boost as much as she should. Whether our power plant is anything to boost about Newman only knows, and he won't tell, but anyway it cost us well on to $125,000 and we should let people know it exists.

People going by on the trains both east and west bound look out of the windows of the day coach or the sleeper at the dam with the water rushing over its crest and admire it no doubt, but they wonder what in the world it is all about. It looks pretty, but what in the world is it they wonder?

If, after Newman gets what he wants, there should be enough left out of the $50,000 the people voted for finishing the plant, would it not be a good idea to erect a sign at the front of the gate house to let people in passing know that Revelstoke owns the dam and that it is not a private enterprise. And would it not be good advertising to erect an electric sign over the dam to inform people passing at night that we are an enterprising people. Neither of these would cost a fortune, and scarcely anything for maintenance as we could use our own power for the night lights. Some expressions of opinions from our readers would be in order on this question.

There seems to be an inclination to pay no attention to the Toronto Telegram's story about the $50,000 bank account and Hon. Frank Oliver, because it is thought that the charges were hatched in animosity. It doesn't make any difference who tells the story, if it is a real one. If there is a sum total of $50,000 unaccounted for and if the people know about it and are asking questions, who is Hon. Frank Oliver that he is too good to tell where he got it? The Mail-Herald has no doubt in the world that there is too little regard for the value of money. There always is when a government is left in power a few terms. They get to thinking that the country is their own, to have and to hold forever, and they do not check the expenditures as carefully and minutely as good business requires. But it is reported Mr. Oliver will explain.

SWISS VILLAGE IN
ROCKY MOUNTAINS*C.P.R. to Establish Community Mountain Guides Will Make it Their Home

A glimpse of Swiss life in Swiss settings is to be given the people who live on this continent of America without their having to cross the Atlantic to obtain it. It is not intended to remove the little European republic bodily from where it is, though room in plenty could be found for a score or more of Switzerland in the Canadian Rockies but a typical Swiss village is to be created that will give visitors to that wonderful sea of mountains a very comprehensive idea of the home, the habits and the customs of the hardy mountaineers from across the sea.

The corps of Swiss guides who are annually brought over by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to assist mountain climbers in their ascents are to be furnished permanent homes by the railway company in a part of the Rockies that will suit their native characteristics and afford them, during the months of otherwise comparative idleness, ample opportunities for further development of strenuous outside athletic sports. It will give them and their families a new home in this new land, and while commencing on an unpretentious scale, will doubtless develop into a large settlement, peopled by a hardy class of self-reliant adventurous men who know the ways to summits of untrodden peaks as the average man knows the highways and byways of his own city. It will add to the picturesqueness of the surroundings, and furnish a pleasing and interesting sight to that great brotherhood of tourists who are continually passing through the mountains on Canada's pioneer transcontinental road. It will be a development of great interest, this growth of the new Switzerland in Canada.

The site which has been chosen for the future Swiss villages of Canada, lies in the Province of British Columbia on the north side of the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the first village will be situated at the first western milestone, adjoining the quaint Canadian village of Golden. Golden embraces within its borders the point of union of the Kicking Horse and the Columbia rivers.

Within close range of the western reaches of the Selkirk, on the north bank of the Columbia river, lies sloping to the south the old farmstead on which the romance pictured Swiss cottages are to be erected. Along its eastern side flows Hospital Creek, while through the centre trickles a small stream fed by limpid springs from the foothills. The wooded mountains to the south are favorite haunts of deer and bear; the Columbia river teems with fish; the high rocky peaks to the north, which for nearly every month in the year are snow capped, are famous as the home of mountain goat, mountain sheep, and the grizzly bear. A movement is on foot to try the introduction of the chamois into the mountainous region, which would give further zest to the sportsman. In the nearby mountain fastnesses in every direction, there are splendid chances for easy hunting during the proper season, and for snowshoeing, skiing and tobogganing, while skating and curling are already popular pastimes at Golden during the months of snow. Further afield are high virgin peaks, yet unclimbed and unnamed, which offer great temptations to the experienced Alpinists.

The new village is to be called "Edelweiss," the bridal flower of the Swiss, and its location is on a plateau which rises two hundred feet from the bottom lands, and within unobstructed view of the passing trains. The spot is a most picturesque one. The plateau and the hillsides are dotted with clumps of poplar, whose light-greenish leaves pleasantly contrast with the darker shades of fir and spruce, these combining to form an unusually pretty picture.

The cottages, half a dozen to start with, will naturally be distinctively Swiss in architectural design, construction and surroundings; in fact, they will breathe the Swiss atmosphere. In the rich alluvial soil the dwellers will find opportunities for gardening in the small individual holdings which are attached to the cottages and these will contribute materially towards the upkeep of the household, and doubtless will eventually expand into sources of supply for the profitable local market.

The Columbia river, which flows from Lake Windermere, and the other mother lakes about one hundred miles south of Golden, is one of the most tortuous waterways in the world. Its course is northwest to a point past Golden called Boat Encampment, where it makes what is called the Big Bend, and turns south again crossing under the C.P.R. track at Revelstoke, the railway having cut across the mountain range to meet it. From here it flows on into Arrow Lakes, and into United States territory, finally emptying itself into the Pacific ocean in Oregon, nearly 2000 miles distant, by its meanderings from its source. Between Golden and Windermere there are splendid roads, now much used by motors, and these will be extended to Banff and Calgary on the main line of the C.P.R., and to Fort Steele and the Crow's Nest Pass branch of the railway on the south.

METHODISTS ARE ROUSED.

Toronto, May 2.—The Methodists are aroused over the "No Temere" decree of the Roman Catholic church, and the matter will be taken up by every Methodist conference from British Columbia to Newfoundland, at their meetings in May and June. Between 40 and 50 representative men of the Dominion of Canada and Methodism have been appointed a committee to follow up the resolutions asking for government intervention.

NEW MANAGER.

The hotel King Edward has a new manager in the person of Thomas French, and if experience counts for anything then he is a good one. Mr. French has been in the business eighteen years and knows hotels from A to Z. For five years he was manager of the Beaumont at Aray, Colorado. During the world's fair at Chicago he managed the Columbia Club, a hotel with 400 rooms, while for six years he ran summer resorts at Rock Point and Cascade Park. For three years he ran an hotel at Stag Island, a favorite summer resort five miles down the St. Clair river, and has also managed hotels at Marine City and at Port Huron.

Mr. French is a Canadian by birth, claiming Toronto as his home city, and his varied experiences both in Canada and the United States, beseem him a large measure of success in Revelstoke.

TREAT FOR REVELSTOKE.

To hear this party.

1. Mr. Ruthven MacDonald (Canada's greatest baritone.)
2. Miss Bertha May Crawford (Leading Soprano—Toronto)
3. Miss Mildred Gordon (Gold Medalist—Reader.)
4. Mrs. MacDonald (Pianiste.)

Edison theatre tomorrow night. Moving pictures at the Edison theatre Friday and Saturday.

Ruthven MacDonald Concert

Tomorrow evening at the Edison theatre the H. Ruthven MacDonald Concert Co. will appear here for one night only. Supporting Mr. MacDonald are Miss Mildred Gordon, reader and Miss Bertha Crawford, soprano. Speaking of Mr. MacDonald, the well-known Canadian baritone, the Edinburgh Evening Despatch says:

"Mr. H. Ruthven MacDonald is a celebrated baritone, who has delighted audiences in England, Scotland, and Wales. The magic of his cultivated voice exercised a wonderful effect upon the audience, who listened with intense delight. His singing sends one home with that sensation of mind and heart that makes one feel happier for living. We doubt if there is his equal in Scotland."

NEW STATION FOR VERNON.

Taking advantage of the presence of Supt. Kilpatrick of the C. P. R., who was in town on Saturday, the Transportation Committee of the Board of Trade interviewed him regarding the vexatious delays which frequently occur in handling freight shipped from this city to points down the lake. M. J. O'Brien, Jas. Vallance, S. C. Smith and Chas. Wilson, along with President MacRae laid the matter very fully before Mr. Kilpatrick who took copious notes of the points raised and promised to do all in his power to remedy the defects in the service which had been brought to his attention. He expressed the opinion that the best solution of the problem would be to start a daily car from Vernon, which the yard engine, that he will put on, will run down at 10 o'clock each morning. He also informed the committee that plans for the new station are ready, and he expected that tenders would be called for in the course of a week or two. He assured them that the building would be a credit to the city and would far exceed in cost the sum estimated last year by the Board as being sufficient to meet their requirements.—Vernon News.
