STRATHCONA SCHOOL HAS BEEN RE-NAMED

Hereafter it Will be Known as Selkirk School --- Education Department Approve

After a good deal of discussion the school board on Monday night decided that in view of the protests of Dr. Robertson, minister of education, it would be advisable to change the name of Strathcona school to some other name, and accordingly hereafter the new school will be known as Selkirk school.

It will be remembered that early in the year a competition was engaged in by the public in which $5 was offered by the school board for the most suitable name selected from a list of names sent in by the interested public. The name Strathcona was submitted by Miss Lily Daniels, and on a vote of the board this name was selected, and the money awarded her.

But some time after Dr. Robertson notified the board that a school already existed in the province with the same name, and that two schools of the same name would create considerable confusion in his department

The board, however, having taken so much trouble to select a name and considering the fact that the public had a hand in selecting it, were very loathe to make a change. Repeated protests from the Minister of Education and a general feeling among the public that the Provincial department should be taken into consideration, however, finally decided tha board in their action of Monday night. Consequently hereafter the new school will be known as Selkirk school. This name was the second choice of the board from among the list submitted

TRAIN IS DERAILED

Five Passengers Slightly Injured at Semlin Sunday Night

All of the passenger cars of No. 4 passenger train due here Monday morning at about 12:45 were derailed on Sunday night at about 6 o'clock at Semlin station, about six miles west of Walhaclin. Five passengers were slightly injured, among these being A. D. McIntyre of Kamloops, whose shoulder was badly wrenched, and a Mr. Myers of Vancouver, who is said to be somewhat seriously hurt.

The train had been sidetracked and was proceeding onto the main track at a fair rate of speed when the accident occurred. The engine and the baggage and mail cars got safely over when the first class coach following left the rails at the switch, and four tourist cars behind followed its lead. One of the sleepers, filled with American tourists, turned over on its side, precipitating the occupants in a heap, but beyond a few minor bruises and a severe shaking up,none of the passengers were injured.

The cause of the accident is thought to have been a spread switch.

Ten freight cars left the track at Cherry Creek Monday afternoon at about four o'clock, and among the freight was a large asphalt mixer weighing nearly 100 tons on its way to Victoria. A report is current that the mixer came in contaet with the roof of the tunnel and caused the mishap. A gang of laborers were immediately despatched from Kamloops, but the track was not cleared until an earlier hour Tuesday morning.

RECIPROCITY ADDRESS

Meeting Will be Held in Opera House Here July 10th

A. S. Goodeve, M. P., and Hon. Thos. Taylor, who have been in the Boundary country addressing the electorate on the reciprocity pact for the past couple of weeks, will be here on Monday, July 10th, and speak in the opera house on the same subject.

The speakers are both thoroughly versed on the question which has been agitating the minds of Canadians for past months and no doubt will be able to enlighten the citizens on many points in connection with the proposed pact.

On July 3rd the speakers will be in Arrowhead and from there Mr. Goodeve will journey to Vancouver where he and Mr. Cowan, M. P., will address a meeting on July 6th. Mr. Goodeve will then return from the coast to Revelstoke for the meeting here on July 10th. A meeting was held in Beaton on June 26th.

MINE WAS SALTED

Clever Rogues Blasted Gold Into Rock in Steamboat Mountain

Vancouver, B. C. June 3.— The recent mining boom of Steamboat Mountain camp received a jolt today when it became known to a practical certainty that the discovery had been salted. The discovery of Steamboat dates back to last October, when two mining men, Stevens and Greenwall came to Vancouver with a tale of wonderful free gold finds in the mountains southwest of Hope, B. C. They brought samples which were assayed here, and in some cases ran a thousand dollars of gold to the ton. Their holdings were taken over by Vancouver investors, who paid them $20,000. For four months no one has been able to obtain any trace of the two men. Recently hundreds of prospectors have gone into the new camp but no finds of importance have been made.

Today it was given out that the men who bought the property had discovered that the mine was salted. Probably from $500 to $1,000 in gold was shot into the rock and a scientific job was made of it. Very little of the stock was sold publicly, because the promoters who are wealthy reputable business men, became suspicious some time agof

WHO IS CORBIN?

Wants Agricultural Grounds for Aviation Exhibition

Are we to have an exhibition of aviation in the near future? From a telegram received by Chas.M.Field, secretary of the Revelstoke Agricultural Society, it would appear that such might be the case, as the message asks if the grounds are available for that day.

The wire is from Geo. W. Corbin, of Vancouver, whoever he might be—and reads as follows:

"Are Agricultural grounds open for aviation exhibition on July 5th? State flat rental.—Geo. W. Corbin."

Mr. Field replied immediately, placing rental at a very low figure, but so far no further information has been received from Mr. Corbin.

No preparations are yet being made for the annual fall fair in Revelstoke Mr. Field stated, beyond those made at the meeting of a month ago.

THE CENSUS RETURNS.

Ottawa, June 27.— Census tabulating has commenced at Ottawa. Only a very small portion of the returns are yet in, but a start is being made on those received. It is not expected that the work of tabulating will be completed for two or three years.

Union Picnic

On Saturday, July 1st, the Baptist and Presbyterian Sunday schools will hold a pic-nic at Columbia Park.

Rigs will convey the children from the churches to the grounds. The first rig leaving the Baptist church at 9:30 a.m., and the Presbyterian at 10 o'clock. These rigs will make several trips during the forenoon and at 1:30 p.m. a rig will leave the Presbyterian church for the convenience of those who cannot go out in the morning. Returning, the rigs will leave the grounds early in the eveniag.

A program of games has been prepared for the children, and a very enjoyable day is anticipated. The management of the churches invite both children and adults to participate in this picnic.

PROSPERITY EVIDENCED THROUGHOUT THE SOUTH

Hon. Thos. Taylor Says Progress That Has Been Made in Past Few Years is Wonderful

"The progress that has been made in road building and the resultant development of the country throughout the south district has been wonderful," said Hon. Thos. Taylor to the Mail-Herald representative on Saturday, on his arrival here.

Mr. Taylor has been on his annual inspection tour and has visited Cranbrook, Fernie, Hosmer, Fort Steele, Nelson, Kaslo, Proctor, Grand Forks, Greenwood, Phoenix, Midway, Rock Creek, Beaton, Comaplix, and a number of other places, and is now in this city for three or four days taking a run over the new road development in this district.

"The roads all through the districts which I travelled are in excellent shape," he said, "and there has been an immense amount of work done since last year, and this has been the means of developing a large area of arable land and placing it under cultivation. I was indeed agreeably surprised at the exceptionally large area that is under cultivation now to what there was a few years ago. And with this land opened up the progress of the various cities and towns has kept pace correspondingly.

"In East Kootenay generally, I found conditians exceptionally good, and it was somewhat of a surprise to me to see the activity that, in spite of the coal strike, is so noticeable in Fernie. The citizens of that place seem to be most optimistic. I do not think myself though that the strike will be settled for some time yet."

At Nelson and a number of other places Mr. Taylor was associated with A. S. Goodeve, M.P., in a series of meetings where addresses were delivered on the reciprocity pact. In Nelson, Mr. Taylor said the people practically to a man were opposed to the agreement.

INTERESTING RUMOR

Sir Wm. Whyte May Become Next Lieutenant-Governor

Winnipeg, June 26.—The knighthood bestowed on vice-President Whyte of the C.P.R. has given rise to a number of rumors, one being that he will succeed Sir Daniel MacMillan as lieutenant-governor next fall when the latter may go to London as high commissioner. Quite another version is that Sir William Whyte himself is destined for the high commissionership, enjoying as he does the confidence of all sections of the public. Kenneth MacKenzie, the well-known wholesale merchant here, but now retired, refused the lieutenant-governorship about a year ago, but might accept it now.

TENDERS FOR POST OFFICE

Will Be Called for On Monday Next, July 3rd

C. R. Macdonald, president of the Revelstoke Liberal Association, this morning received a wire from the department at Ottawa, that tenders will be called for Monday for the erection of the new $75,000 post office which is to be erected here.

The lot on which the building is to put has already been cleared and it is anticipated that as soon as the contract is let the work will be proceeded with at once. This will mean that a large gang of laborers and mechanics will be employed.

Wedding Reception

A very pretty wedding reception took place on Sunday afternoon last at the residence of Mr. J. Shaw, J. P., Galena Bay, in honor of the recent marriage of his second daughter Petress May and Mr. Oswald Boutilier. The guests, many of whom arrived by launches and rowboats from Arrowhead, sat down on the lawn at 6 p.m. to a most hospitable spread, at which luscious strawberries and cream figured prominently. After supper appropriate speeches were made and the heartiest wishes were expressed for the future welfare and happiness of the newly-wedded pair, who are well-known and highly respected throughout the district, which was shown in particular by the maay useful and handsome presents contributed by local friends.—Com.

UNION LABEL

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1911.

The smallest penalty for any infringement of the Bush Fire Act is $50. This is little enough considering the damage usually done.

The city of Greenwood has a movement on foot for the destruction of all the noxious weeds within the city limits. Revelstoke should do so at once.

Collier's ask:—"If the Steel Trust makes rails for Australia at $24 a ton and for the United States at $28 which country is getting the benefit of the tariff?" At a guess we should say the Steel Trust.

Knoxville, Tenn., will have a Union church, where union religion will be preached by a union parson. The music will be written in the union scale and all bachelor members must apply for a union card.

Those abominable thistles, burdocks and a host of other noxious weeds are still flourishing along the sides of the streets and on vacant lots. In a few days they will be out in bloom and ready to cast their seed in every direction, while next year the menace will be probably ten times as bad as this year. It is a custom for the municipality to destroy these pests, but we are told they usually do it after the weeds have bloomed, and their seed spread over the country from east to west. If this is true then it is little wonder that the streets now look like those of a cow town with the weeds almost breast high wherever you go. If the municipality fails to cut its weeds before they have gone to seed it is scarcely likely the citizens will do so as they will consider it of little use. When ten feet from their gardens and lots the pests are allowed to grow and thrive. Then too there are a large number of vacant lots that are simply rife with thistles. If a man holds property he should be willing to keep it in proper shape and not a menace to his neighbors. But the municipality cannot conscientiously go to the owner and either ask or insist of him that he clear his lot until the weeds adjacent to him along the roadside are cut, and if the municipality wait till the weeds are in bloom before cutting them, then it will be some considerable time afterwards that the ratepayers can be notified. Then the mischief will have been done. It would be well for the city to eradicate these weeds at once and then see to it that every yard and vacant lot is cleared. It is little encouragement to one man to keep his garden clean if his next door neighbor's yard is a veritable bed of weeds and thistles spreading their seed broadcast in every direction.

In a Montreal despatch J.W.B. Pease, of Lloyd's bank in England, is reported to have said that the Dominion bank act would prevent his bank from establishing a bank in this country unless they took over some existing bank.

Talk about protection! Is there any institution in this country which enjoys the "lead pipe cinch" accorded to the chartered banks? Certainly the farmer has no such protection. Neither has the workingman nor the manufacturer nor the printer nor any other business interest. Any of these are subject to competition if the consumer pays the duty on the commodity but the banks, upon whose stock-in-trade no duty is levied are protected in another way—the Canadian banking act which puts into the hands of a few Canadian bankers the power to say whether or not any more banks shall be chartered in this country.

What this country needs more than anything else just now is money, real bankbills and gold coin. Yet when the business man of Vancouver or Toronto or Montreal approaches his banker for an "extension of his line" at this time of the year he will be told the bank is curtailing its loans, it is husbanding its resources "to handle the crop" of the northwest. We have become so used to hearing this fable that we now accept it as gospel. It is candidly confessed that Canadian banks have not the wherewithal upon which to conduct the business of the country, yet under the banking act one of the strongest financial institutions in England is prevented from establishing a new bank in Canada unless it takes over some existing institution.

Canadian bank stocks are among the highest priced securities in the world. Canadian banks are prosperous, safe and arrogant. Their methods enable them to play safe at all times. Their losses through bad debts or defalcations are infinitesimal though through bad management there have been some very disgraceful failures.

The system of central banks has its weaknesses as well as its advantages One of the latter is the facility with which funds may be centralized at stratgetic points but that same facility also very often is a drawback as it enables the banks to starve a community by withdrawing local deposits to distant points.

That Canadian banks have not suffered heavy losses through dishonest employes is a tribute to the high character of the men who handle their affairs. It is almost a national disgrace that these young men, in proportion to their responsibilities are the poorest paid employes of any mercantile class in the country. As a rule the laborer in the streets is as well or better paid than they. The Canadian banking system commands the respect and confidence of the world and the banks should be sufficiently self respecting to pay their staffs a decent, living wage.—Saturday Sunset.

In Saturday's issue of the coast papers a long despatch came from Los Angeles telling of the meeting there of some medical association whose membership wanted the newspapers to suppress reports of crime, and suicide on the ground that they served as an inspiration to the mentally unbalanced to go and do likewise.

In discussing this phase of the question the Vancouver Province remarks wisely and well:—

The contentions advanced by the medical gentlemen is probably correct—at least there are a great many instances on record which go to show such a state of affairs. But it must not be forgotten that what is true of newspapers is also true of books and plays and motion pictures and all the educative influences of the age. Nor must it be forgotten, either, that the weak-minded we have always with us; and even with the strong-minded there are temperaments so constituted that under certain conditions suicide is inevitable.

And as with suicide, so with homicide. In one of the most interesting of his stories of Italian life, the late Marion Crawford describes with great detail an attempt to commit murder by scarlet fever germs introduced to the victim by means of a table napkin. Memory fails to recall whether the design was successful or not; but it is a fact that following the publication of this book several bungling efforts were made to remove unsuspecting persons by what facetious young physicians term "bugs," the latest being the notorious Swope case in Kansas City, where a whole family was supposedly put out of the way by the attendant physician's philanthropic efforts to fatten 'em up on the typhoid bacillus. Readers of the newspapers will recall that this extraordinary case ended by the conviction of the accused who, according to the best practice of the United States courts, has recently been granted a new trial and is now probably well on his way to freedom.

There is probably no doubt that this case and its less horrible predecessors owe their origin to the Crawford story; and, if they do, what? Intelligence will be disseminated, if not in one way in another, and the fanciful ideas and wild imaginings of today are the stubborn facts of tomorrow. The submarine boats which have come to play an important part in modern naval warfare were "invented" by the late Jules Verne a generation ago in one of his scientific romances—Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea, we think it was—only the modern makers have not yet caught up to the riotous imagination of the man who first thought of them. And so it goes. If all the newspapers in the world were to agree to meet the wishes of the Los Angeles doctors it would not be a year before we should have a new crop with more stories of crime and folly than ever. Let us all agree that it is too bad. Still it can not be helped. So runs the world away.

COMMUNICATIONS

Editor Mail-Herald:—

Dear Sir,—I think it is about time the city council took some steps to harvest the thistles and other obnoxious weeds growing in our city. The streets and avenues are literally lined with them, and if some steps are not taken immediately they will bloom and scatter their seeds all over. There should not be a moment's delay. What's the matter with putting the prisoners to work at it. Something has to be done, and at once. Don't let it be the same as other years, wait until they have seeded and then send men round to cut them. I believe there is a By-law compelling owners of property to clear it of all noxious weeds, but I fail to see anyone taking steps to do so. Why not the city do it and charge the owners with it? It's for our (I mean the peoples benefit) to make Revelstoke look as neat and tidy as possible. I also think the Provincial government should be asked to cut down all outside the city limits within a reasonable distance of the city. Anyway something ought to be done at once.

Thanking you Mr. Editor for trespassing on your valuable space.

ANTI THISTLE.

Revelstoke, June 27.

Editor Mail-Herald:—

Dear Sir,—In your editorial in the issue of the 24th inst. relating to the care of forest fires, you take the position, referring to the conflagration across the river on the lands of Messrs. Calder, McIntosh and Lindmark, that the responsibility should be fixed on either the Dominion or the Provincial officials, and that who ever else may be in doubt, you for a certainty know what you are talking about. Let us see. You boldly assert that "there is either ignorance or friction existing among those officials" or things would not be as they are. This Mr. Editor is rather robust language; not too forceful, however, if true in the connection used; too strong though when applied contrary to actual facts, especially when uttered by a "moulder of public opinion" through the medium of an unbiased and influential public press such as the well-known and widely circulated Mail-Herald.

Is it possible, Mr. Editor that you, Mr. Calder and Mr. McIntosh do not know that there is a statutory Act governing the responsibility and liability of starting forest fires, even on private property? As after all you really do not appear to, then let me suggest that you acquaint yourself with the subject by persuing chapter 84 of the Provincial Statutes, and that Messrs. Calder and McIntosh before again accusing anyone of want of knowledge or care, will read some one of the numerous fire notices posted up by Dominion Fire Wardens contiguous to their own premises. Apart from the warnings displayed in those notices, as a matter of fact the Dominion Wardens have no more

Twenty years ago she was but a little village of four or five hundred. You could in half an hour count every house. Then you had no faith in her possibilities for growth and you didn't invest your earnings. You passed the opportunity up and to-day you are not much further ahead.

A Regret

Have you been a Rip Van Winkle and slept for these past twenty years? If so you must now wake up to the possibilities of the next twenty years and regret your inaction. Sit down and look yourself in the face, ask yourself if you have acted wisely. Be honest about it and answer the question in all seriousness.

THE USE OF FLAGS

An Exchange Tells Where and When They Should be Flying

The use of flags at sea is regulated by strict law and need not be commented upon here.

The Union Jack may be flown by all British subjects on land, the white border required by the Merchant Shipping Act is unnecessary on land. It used to be supposed that the Union Jack was an official flag only, but in July, 1908, the Home Office, London, formally pronounced that the Union Jack was the national flag for general use on land.

The Red Ensign may also be flown by all British subjects on land (as well as at sea), and in Canada we may use, at our pleasure, either the Red Ensign, common to all British subjects, or the Canadian Red Ensign bearing the badge of the Canadian arms. The Canadian Red Ensign was formally authorized by Admiralty warrant, 1892.

Flags which the ordinary citizen must not fly at sea, and should not fly on land, are the White Ensign (registered to the royal navy and royal yacht squadron), the Blue Ensign (registered to certain government services, the naval reserve and specially authorized yacht clubs),and the Royal Standard (the Sovereign's personal flag.)

HISTORY MAKES SLANG PHRASE

The phrase "Let George do it" is likely to be succeeded in this city at least by the phrase "Let Mary do it" since as a result of the coronation Mary has proven herself much the more capable of the two at a ratio of about five thousand to one. Movements have been underway both abroad and in this country to secure contributions from all women named Mary to purchase a gift for the queen and from all men named George to buy something for the king As a result Queen Mary has been presented with a check for $62,500, as a result of the industrious efforts of her legion of namesakes. Part of this will be used by her in the purchase of gems and part will be devoted to charity. But to the shame of the local Georges must be told the fact that contributions from them in this city so far amount to only thirteen dollars coming from ten contributors. Just why the Georges have made such a poor showing is a mystery, some authorities holding that in view of the present equal suffrage movement it is up to Mary to do things. The fund of $13 will however be duly forwarded though there is considerable doubt as to what sort of a coronation present will be purchased with it. One of the local Georges has suggested a special coronation cigar as the most appropriate gift. The thousands of Georges who did not contribute however, will be happy if the incident results in retiring the current slang phrase associated with their name.—Montreal Star.

TO BUST BREAD TRUST.

Montreal, June 26.—The proposed bread merger has bumped up against good live opposition in these parts. It comes from Mother and what Mother votes along the cooking and eating line usually carries. Mother says that if there is any bread trust in Montreal she'll just turn to and bake a batch or so of those homemade ones we have all heard so much about. A meeting of housewives has been called to discuss the situation and to draw up a strongly worded resolution against any proposition which would tend to corner the staff of life.

But there is not much danger of a bread merger enhancing the price of the product. The housewife cannot make sugar, or kerosene oil, or a number of other things that make for "sweetness and light" inthe home but she can make bread, or at least can learn the art, for an art it certainly is, and it would be an unmixed evil should more of our young women be induced, even by the processes of commercial ever reaching to cultivate it. Two young college women in a neighboring city several years ago started in the business, having first acquired an expert knowledge of it. They charge twice the prises of the regular baker's loaves, and they get it. What would they care about a baking trust so long as there was no "gentlemen's agreement with the flour kings?" As long as we can have home made bread there will be nothing more than the nightmare of the bread combine.

NO MORE SUMMER FROSTS.

Montreal, June 25.—That summer frosts, the bane of the farmer and orchardist, would soon become a thing of the past if the trees of the Dominion continue to disappear as rapidly as they have of late, and that Canada in not many years from now will be as renowned for her semi-tropical products as she is today for her timber, are two rather startling and interesting announcements made by climatological experts who have been comparing notes on the weather during the annual convention of the American Climatological Association held here.

This does not mean that the juicy "fameuse" apple, known to all as being just about the most succulent edible the Province of Quebec produces, will be supplanted by Jamaican yams, nor that Montreal melons will be superseded in their glory by Florida oranges, but it does mean that there is a change coming over Canada's climate. One of the reasons given is that the thinning out of our forests makes the air less stagnant, that the snow melts more rapidly and that the thermometer rises earlier than in the old days when piles of snow might have been seen in the woods while the fields were bare and dry. On the other hand it was pointed out, deforestration tends to drought, as the snow then melts quickly causing a flood with no reserve of moisture.

The fact that there is a climatic reciprocity between Canada and the United States, by virtue of which the latter export their heat waves to us, Canada providing them with cold feet in winter in return, was also alluded to despite the fact that the organization is non-political and there was nobody present to urge legislation for or against the exchange. Dr. A. D. Blackader of Montreal, was elected president of the association, the first Canadian to receive such an honor. The organization is composed mostly of Government weather prophets and soothsayers stationed in all parts of the continent, the gentlemen from whom the newspapers receive the forecasts of the days' doings amongst the stars.

COUNTING THE ABSENTEES

If a man has gone swimming is he still food for the census man? Many people in Montreal have already started off on their summer vacations, their houses are closed and there is no way of the census enumerators obtaining the information he requires. But that does not matter. If a man is wandering where the surf beats or whipping a stream for trout or even attending the Coronation he is still a Canadian and his head is to be counted with his less fortunate stay-at-home neighbor. How to count him. That is the question. Census enumerators here have written for instructions. If they cannot find out from the neighbors a special report is to be made out and an attempt made to tag the delinquent when he returns. Most of the enumerators report swift progress with their work, although one poor fellow had the misfortune to be taken for a rent collector. A tumble down a long pair of tenement stairs and a bucket of water on his prostrate form as he lay on the sidewalk was all the answer he received to his list of questions.—Montreal Star.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

Breaking the Sabbath is just a matter of how you look at it. Some will run an auto on Sunday who would not saw wood on that day, because they think it would be sinful. Here is an instance told by Hub that will illustrate the subject:

"In California I went out camping for a few days. There was a preacher with us in the party. On Sunday the dominie declined to fish, and moreover, gently admonished the rest of us so doing. And what do you suppose he did while we were fishing?

"I'll tell you, Terese; he went out and caught grasshoppers for bait, so he could fish on Monday."

HIS WORK CUT OUT.

A judge in Los Angles was moved to mercy when a man of 21 was convicted of embezzling $5,000 of the funds of a theatre and spending the money in riotous living. The court pronounced this sentence. "You shall stay at home nights; you shall remain within the limits of this country; you shall not play billiards or pool; frequent cafes or drink intoxicating liquor, and you shall go immediately to work and keep at it until you have paid back every dollar you stole. Violate these terms and you go to jail." This is sage and fatherly advice, although some culprits would rather go to jail than comply with it.

DISCUSSING SETTLEMENT.

Banff, Alta., June 23.—The process of diplomatically handling the situation regarding the resumption of operations by the miners in this district is now absorbing, the studious though and action of Dr. Gordon,

He has been in close consultation with the operators during this morning and at the close of his interview with them at once went to the mine workers, with whom he is now in secret consultation.

WINNIPEG'S BIG DOCKET.

Winnipeg, June 23.—One hundred and seventeen cases figured on the police court docket this morning; a new record, 33 being drunks and 559 bylaw cases.

REMOVAL OF BIRTHMARKS.

In less than a year the carbonic acid snow treatment for birthmarks, warts, and rodent ulcer, first introduced at Charing Cross hospital, has gained an accepted place in modern therapeutics.

The early experiments with the new remedy, described in these columns last June, have been so successful in suitable cases that now practically every hospital in the country, as well as thousands of general practitioners and skin specialists, is making use of the new medicament.

The snow is prepared by allowing a thin spray of carbolic acid gas, liquefied under pressure, to escape into a felt covering slipped over the tap of the iron cyclinder containing the gas. The gas is deposited on the felt as a very fine powdered snow at a temperature of about 100 deg. below zero The snow is then solidified into an icy pencil by being tightly packed into a hard rubber cyclinder with a plunger.

Treatment consists of pressing this intensely cold pencil of carbolic acid ice for a few seconds against the birthmark, wart or rodent ulcer to be removed. The resulting intense cold freezes the part, setting up severe local inflammation which makes to a breaking down and absorption of the frozen tissues. There is very little pain and the wound heals naturally in a few days, leaving the skin practically normal. — London Daily Mail.

The contract for the erection of the parish hall and R.C. Club house has been let to Osborne and McDonald at a figure approximating $6,000. The work will be proceeded with immediately, and for that purpose the present building there is being removed.

At the time of going to press the Revelstoke Gun Club trapshoot is in progress, at which a large number of outside marksmen are present from all over the interior. The most interesting features of the day will be the competition for the Taylor cup and the Kootenay Agencies cup. These, which are for general averages will occupy the whole day.

The funeral of the late Jas. Long took place on Wednesday last. Deceased was an old timer here having come to the city in 1892 or 3 and for some time was employed as manager of Bourne Bros. grocery store, where he made many acquaintances and friends. He afterwards took over the Kootenay Brewery business which he conducted up to the time of his death. Deceased was a member of St. Peter's church. The pallbearers were Dr. Hamilton, Dr. McLean, F. H. Bourne, F. B. Wells, T. Maloney, and G. Anderson.

Fire Warden J. K. McLean secured convictions of B. B. Boyd and Karl Neubrand at Nakusp for contravention of the Bush Fires Act. Boyd was fined $50 and costs, it being his second offence and Neubrand was let off on suspended sentence.

The stores of the city will all be closed on Saturday next which is July 1st, Dominion Day, and a public holiday, but the merchants have all agreed to open up at seven p. m. in the evening. This is thought advisable to convenience the public and also on account of the large quantities of fruit kept in stock at this time of the year.

The Kaslo man rushed up and grabbed the census enumerator excitedly. "Say, old man," he said, "did I tell you that I had fifty apple trees at my place?" "Let's see," replied the enumerator, referring to his figures, "I think you did. Yes, here it is. Why did you ask?" "Why I made a mistake. I should have said fifty-one," and the Kaslo citizen went away glowing with the consciousness of a duty well done.

Miss M. M. Cunningham, of Vancouver, has been engaged by the Nor' West Talking Co. as travelling representative of the company, which acts as distributors for the provinces of Alberta and British Columbia for the Victor and Berliner gramophones and records.

At a meeting of the city council last night the contract was let for pulling down the old flume. During a discussion on sewer connections, Ald. Sibbald is reported to have left the hall in disgust. The press however, not being invited nor given any intimation of the special meeting did not attend, and cannot verify the current report.

The order of service has been printed and the children are taking a prominent part in the exercises. The parents and friends are cordially invited to attend this service. In the evening both the music and sermon will be of patriotic nature.

Mr. Chas. Aman returned last night from Victoria where he, in company with Mr. Robt. Gordon has been for the past couple of weeks attending the Masonic Grand Lodge. Mr. Gordon will not return till tomorrow. Mr. Aman reports a large attendance and a very successful convention. The Coronation parade in that city last Thursday Mr. Aman says, was quite the largest and most enthusiastic it has ever been his good fortune to witness.

On Saturday next, July 1st, the R. M. R. annual shoot will take place at the company's butts and for the occasion a large number of vieitors will be in the city. A number of interesting events will be pulled off including the competition for the Kamloops cup, which at present is held by Revelstoke Co. Spectators are invited to attend the shoot and ladies are particularly requested by the company to visit the grounds on that day.

The 12th of July will be celebrated at Salmon Arm this year. Revelstoke L.O.L. 1658 and lodges from Kamloops east to Golden and all Okanagan points will attend with their friends and a first class outing is expected, as Salmon Arm has the finest grove in the interior for a celebration. All kinds of boating and driving. Speeches in the grove by prominent speakers. Revelstoke City Band will accompany the local lodge. Fare for the round trip is $1.95.

TENESSE TROUBADORS.

Varying the usual run of entertainment at the Edison theatre the management has engaged a troupe of dusky entertainers travelling under the name of the Tenesse Troubadors. For the past two nights this troupe has delighted large audiences with their singing, their dancing and frolics. Invariably those who have attended have convulsed themselves with laughter and enjoyed the fun just as much as the entertainers themselves

The dusky troupe are splendid singers and excel themselves in the old plantation songs of long ago. Way Down Upon the Swanee River, Old Black Joe, My Old Kentucky Home, and a number of other songs which touch the heart are sung in real plantation style, and interspersed with these is some splendid burlesque acting and step dancing.

The troupe give an entire change in their vaudeville stunts tonight and are expected to be here all the rest of the week.

Motion photograahy is interspersed throughout the program.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

The greatest treat of the theatrical season is the appearance of Williard Mack, Maude Leone and an excellent company including Miss Jeanne Russell in Mr. Mack's own play "God's Country." The story of God's Country is one of life in Montana, and the author has spent years in the West and is well equipped to write what many critics have proclaimed the best Western drama in years.

Mr. Mack is seen as a sheriff and Miss Russell as Ruth Crockett has a role particularly well suited to her. The company carries a complete production in every particu,ar and an enjoyable evening is assured all those who attend the performance on Thursday night. Mr. Mack & Co., are on their way to the Vancouver opera house playing but two stands between Calgary and Vancouver, and local theatre-goers may well congratulate themselves on having secured an attraction of this class.

authority nor responsibility regarding fire ravages on private property in the bush than they have in a city or town, unless such fires threaten Dominion property. Whoever started the fire without a permit or in the event of having such permit from the proper authority failed to observe adequate precaution against its spread and is guilty of an offense punishable by law and may be held accountable for damages incurred.

It may be inferred from the printed communication of Messrs. Calder and McIntosh that they have a strong suspicion as to the identity of the culprits in connection with the fire in question, and this being the case, they certainly are to this extent accountable if an effort be not instituted to bring the offenders into court, and in such case let me say there would be no costs to the informants. But to say that Dominion Fire Wardens are responsible for fires on private property is just as reasonable as to assert that the Revelstoke fire brigade should run off to Kamloops or any other town where there may be a blaze and the beneficiaries to expect Revelstoke to bear the responsibility and expense.

Let me state in conclusion that the Act and Departmental Rules governing the care of fires, are so plain that even the Dominion Fire Wardens notwithstanding your inestimable proferred opinion to the contrary, thoroughly understand their duty; and further that there is no friction so far as I am aware, between the Dominion and Provincial Forest Fire Protection Departments in any particular. In fact, up to date these two branches of public service have worked together very harmoniously, and will, I trust, continue to do so. I might here state that I am aot personally versed in either the instructions or the responsibi,ity of the Provincial Wardens as to damage to private holdings but no doubt you can obtain this information by application to the proper source.

Of course it may be possible for Messrs. Calder and McIntosh, together with your influential aid to impress on the authorities the necessity of eliminating personal responsibility in the starting of various kinds of conflagrations, but in the meantime these gentlemen, like other self-reliant citizens, must depend upon their own care and vigilance in the matter of local fires.

We have them in ladies' sizes from 2½ to 7, and in misses' and children's Oxfords from 5 to 2. See them in our window.

Correct Summer Neckwear

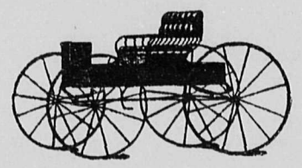
Save Your Horses!



Provender is dear and so is horse flesh, but light running wagons and buggies are cheap.

The evolution of the Farm and Road Vehicles has kept pace with modern science and now we are offering fitted out with perfect roller-bearing running gear just as cheap as the old-fashioned wooden framed wagon. They run lighter and easier and wear longer.

All Spring-Steel Wagons

Those who purchased them are our most satisfied customers. You don't have to take off the wheels to grease them; they are dust proof caps and carry a much heavter load than the ordinary wagon.

A full supply of buggies of the newest makes also garden and farm implements, ask us about them.
