TWO HOTELS ARE ROBBED

Selkirk and Central Hotels Each Robbed of Sixty Dollars—No Other Damage

Two hotels have this week been the victims of burglars, the Selkirk hotel and the Central hotel, each losing $60.

When Miles Custer opened the bar of the Selkirk hotel on Thursday morning he discovered that the cash register had been emptied during the night and some $60 taken.

It is believed that the robbers possessed a key of the door as nothing was broken and S. Cotes the night watchman had heard no sound. The cash register was not locked.

The robbery at the Central hotel was very similar. When Oscar Abrahamson opened the bar yesterday morning he found that the cash register had been emptied of its contents, some $60. Bert Waet, the night watchman, had heard no sound. The back door of the bar had been left open when he went off duty about six o'clock and the robbery may have taken place between that time and seven o'clock when Oscar Abrahamson came or duty.

FIELD DAY FOR HOME GUARD

Evolutions Will be Performed at Cricket Ground on Afternoon of Thanksgiving

The Home Guard accompanied by members of the Rocky Mountain Rangers and of the Canadian Pacific engineer corps will hold a field day at the cricket grounds on Monday afternoon. The men will assemble at the drill hall at 2 o'clock and will march to the grounds where drill and evolutions will be performed.

On the mornings of October 11 and 12, shooting practice will be held at the rifle range.

On Thursday evening a well attended drill took place at the drill hall which included scouting and signalling. Those who took charge of the drills were Capt. Sawyer and Capt. Smith.

Reaches Revelstoke on Tramp Round World

Eighty-five Thousand Miles is Arduous Task Set For Prominent Australian Physician—Spent Six Weeks in Siberian Prison—Explorer and Sportsman—Has Ranch in Australia.

After a walking tour of the world which has already lasted nine years, nine months and 10 days, Dr. J. Dawson of Perth, Western Australia, with an 80 pound pack on his back yesterday afternoon tramped briskly into the city and registered at the King Edward hotel.

Dr. Dawson started on his long tramp on January 1, 1905 and has already covered 70,644 of the 85,000 miles which he has undertaken to accomplish. He is in the pink of condition and confident that he will reach Perth, Australia, between midnight of Dec. 31, 1914 and Jan. 1, 1915, as necessary to fulfil his undertaking.

He is on a stability and endurance contest promoted by the National Sporting club of Australia and by the terms of his agreement he must not beg, borrow or steal while on his journey. He may not ride on trains now sell picture post cards of himself but must support himself by lecturing, writing and photography. He may only ask for water, but is permitted to accept gifts of food, money and clothing if offered. He may ride in a rig or automobile, but only if the lift is spontaneously offered.

Dr. Dawson has naturally encountered many adventures during his journey For six weeks he was in an underground cell in Siberia, being suspected of being an escaped convict. He has been nearly drowned and has had his feet frozen, among other inconvebiences. Three pedestrians left Perth together to make the tour of the world by different routes. One was killed on a railway bridge in India and the second is now in hospital in the United States.

Dr. Dawson found his trip through British Columbia agreeable and received much assistance from the bridge guards on the railway. He is favorably impressed with the province.

If he reaches his destination on time Dr. Dawson will win $25,000. He also expects to make money from books that he is writing. He is a well known explorer and has been awarded the medal of the Royal Geographical society for his work in Australia. In Spain he was given the order of Isabella, which is awarded to explorers and adventurers. In Australia he breeds horses for the British army.

During his travels Dr. Dawson has passed through China, Indo Ching, Tibet, Afghanistan, Turkestan, Siberia, Russia, Hungary, Austria, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, France, Belgium, England, Scotland and Canada.

CUP AWARDED TO KAMLOOPS

Deposits of Kamloops and Kelowna Forfeited Owing to Failure to Finish Schedule

At a meeting of the executive committee of the British Columbia Interior Baseball league held at Salmon Arm on Monday, the cup was awarded to Kamloops. Kamloops and Kelowna both lost their deposits on account of not carrying out the chedule.

Those present at the meeting were: K. C. McDonald, president, and M. Eastman, Vernon; J. C. Dobson, Kamloops and L. Howson, Revelstoke.

No representative from Kelowna was present. Below is the standing of the teams at the end of the season:

	Won	Lost
Kamloops	17	6
Vernon	14	7
Revelstoke	10	12
Kelowna	4	20

SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE GENEROUS

Public Meeting to Form Branch of Patriotic League—Ready Response Made

A public meeting will be held on Wednsday at 8 p.m. in the Masonic hall for the purpose of forming a branch of the Patriotic league.

The proposal to form a branch of the league has met with hearty approval and R. Gordon, government agent who has taken steps to call the meeting for the purpose of forming the branch and to appoint a committee has been given many assurances of financial support.

The civil servants at the court house have already subscribed liberally in anticipation of the league being formed in the city. Every employee of the provincial government at the court house has guaranteed to devote one day's pay a month to the purpose of the league so long as the war lasts, and this subscription is to apply to last month as well as for October and future months. At the public schools similar subscription lists are being signed by the teachers and the employes of mercantile firms in the city are likely to follow the good example.

The money subscribed will be devoted to the assistance of dependants of Canadian volunteers on active service.

It has been suggested that Canadian news papers would be much appreciated by the troops sent to the front from Canada or serving as bridge guards, and the Mail Herald will from time to time forward free of cost bundles of Canadian newspapers, including the Mail Herald, to any Canadian soldiers whose names may be sent to the Mail Herald office for that purpose.

It is expected that Mr. Justice Clement will preside at the Vernon assizes.

MORE TALK ON MARKET SITE

Council Again Decides to Postpone Consideration—Time Not Favorable

After the usual discussion at the meeting of the city council last night consideration of the market site bylaw was postponed until the next meeting of the council.

Ald. Needham said that he did not wish to oppose a market but he felt sure that the people would not pass the bylaw at the present time. He believed that there was room for a market near the police station and he recommended trying out the market on that site. He did not think that the property it was proposed to buy would increase in price.

Ald. Smythe thought that enough money had been spent by the city this year. He believed that there was plenty of room for a market at the police station and that the tool shed could be converted into a market at small expense.

Ald. Pradolini thought that it was too late for a market this year. He recommended getting an option on the property until next year.

The mayor thought the city might as well spend the money on submitting the bylaw as on securing an option. Ald. Bell believed that the property offered between Second and Third streets was cheap and that the city should look to the future. Now was the time to buy.

The mayor mentioned that one advantage of the market was that it would help white people to compete with Chinamen as the white men would not peddle produce.

Ald Smythe seconded by Ald. Needham, moved that the project be left until next year. Ald. Pradolini and Ald Bell voted against and Ald. McSorley and Ald. Bourne did not vote.

After further discussion during which Ald. McSorley said that he did not think the bylaw would pass at the present time and the city clerk remarked that if the by-law were defeated this year it would be illegal to submit it again for 12 months, it was decided to leave the bylaw for further consideration at the next meeting so that the aldermen may have an opportunity of discovering the sentiment of the people. Ald. Bourne favored a market site, but did not think that the present was a suitable time to submit the bylaw.

LADIES WORK FOR SOLDIERS

Caps and Other Articles Made for Troops at Front—Ladies are Busy

The Relief society has held meetings since the latter part of August, which have been well attended and much has been accomplished. By the beginning of November the society hopes to send a large shipment of articles to the front and has now on hand needles and wool for Balaclava caps and bands, also flannel for shirts. Anyone volunteering to make any such articles may obtain materials from Mrs. T. Kilpatrick or the Y.M.C.A.

All work undertaken must be completed and sent in by November 1, as it is important that the shipment be sent off by that date. Directions for Balacbava caps and bands will be found below.

The society has made 50 flannel sleeping caps, and 36 hussifs were furnished the Revelstoke men leaving for the front. The following ladies have made articles: Mrs. Macdonald, 2 bands; Mrs. Campbell, 1 band; Mrs. Wood, 1 band; Mrs. Wallace, 1 band; Miss Atkins, 1 band and 2 caps; Mrs. Lawson, 1 band; Mrs. Haggen, 2 bands; Mrs. Morris, 6 caps; Miss R. Haggen, 4 caps; Mrs. Wells, 1 cap and 3 pairs of cuffs; Mrs. Sutherland 1 pair cuffs; Mrs. McCarter, 1 pair cuffs.

The society has in addition paid a hospital bill of $30, also given $10, each to two needy cases. A committee has also been appointed to look after local charities.

Council Makes Grant to Agricultural Society

Extension of Time Granted for Completion of Paving Contract—Cleaning Question Discussed—Compromise Reached on Payment of Extras on Sidewalk Contract.

The city council last night decided to make the usual grant to the Revelstoke agricultural society. Extention of time was allowed for completion of the paving contract.

T. E. L. Taylor on behalf of the Revelstoke agricultural association, asked that the council make the usual grant. He explained that the association had gone to considerable espense before it had been decided to cancel the fair and that practically every dollar had been spent in the city. The council unanimously made the grant which is $250.

J. H. Shewry on behalf of the Warren Construction company asked for an extension of time for completion of the pavement contract to November 1. He explained that the company had been operating under difficulties and that he hoped to have the contract completed before November. The request was granted, provided that the interests of the city were protected. Mr Shewry said that he would guarantee to complete the work and had made preparations to meet weather conditions by buying canvas to keep dry the gravel and to cover the street, if necessary.

Considerable discussion took place regarding extras on the sidewalk contract. An account for replacing private sidewalks that it had been necessary to move on account of the snow plow was passed and a compromise was made in respect to the bill for expansion joints, this amount being split, the council paying half and the contractor half of the amount, which was $116. Ald Needham seconded by Ald. Smythe, proposed paying for the pitch only, but Alds. McSorley, Bell and Bourne voted for splitting the bill..

H. Laughead wrote saying that the city foreman had told him that his wages as sidewalk inspector would be 50 cents an hour, and on motion of Ald. Smythe seconded by Ald. Bell the resolution passed at the last meeting of the council setting his wages at $4 a day was rescinded, the council deciding to pay the $4.50 which he demanded, Ald. Needham dissenting.

Ald. Bell brought up the question of cleaning the bilulithic pavement and Ald. Smythe vigorously urged that the pavement be cleaned. The mayor explained that the superintendent of construction wished to leave the grit on the road until construction was completed. He would then clean the roads, inspect them and hand them over to the city in perfect condition.

Ald. Smythe said that some of the alley ways were becoming filthy again. He recommended prosecutions.

The question of the purchase of a new sleigh and mackinaw coats for the fire brigade was referred to the fire, water and light committee.

The plan of the subdivision of the old Bowman mill site was again referred back for correction.

A request from G. Rossi for a sidewalk to his house at the corner of Third and Benson streets was referred to the public works committee.

FIVE HUNDRED DOLLAR PRIZE

Revelstoke Exhibit Captures First Prize by Narrow Margin—Other Successes

Revelstoke swept the board with its display at the Calgary irrigation congress and won a splendid tribute to the fertility of the Revelstoke district.

The exhibit of the Revelstoke agricultural society has won the $500 first prize for the district exhibit with its display which was despatched last week to the congress in charge of W. H. Pottruff and W. E. Smith.

On points Revelstoke won with North Battleford and Kelwood less than a point behind.

The results of the judging were as follows:

	Pct.
Revelstoke, B. C.	64.5

LADIES SERVE TURKEY SUPPER

Bowling League to be Formed at Y.M.C.A. — Gymnasium Classes Well Patronized

On Monday, Thanksgiving day, the ladies' auxiliary to the Y.M.C.A. will serve the annual turkey supper, commencing at 6.15. This gives an opportunity for those who do not care to cook a large dinner, to bring their friends to the "Y.", and enjoy the dinner which relieves them of extra work and at the same time assist the Ladies auxiliary who are anxious to pay off all indebtedness incurred in buying crockery etc. The board of directors hope that the citizens of Revelstoke will show their interest by being present in large numbers..

A meeting of those interested in bowling will be held Tuesday, to form a bowling league. It is hoped that everyone who enjoys this game, will show his interest by being present, or by having his name sent in.

A full report of the billiard tournament will be given in the next issue of this paper, after which another tournament will be commenced.

Now is the time to enroll in the gymnasium class. Each night shows an increase in numbers. The busy mens class had nine on the floor on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. The business men's class at 5.30 to 6 o'clock is growing, and the men are delighted with the exercise.

On Sunday afternoon at 3.45, the men enjoy a 15 minute song service. J. A. Ross, principal of the Selkirk school will address the meeting. A duet by Messrs. Haddon and Hay will be rendered.

It has been decided that there shall be no further extension of the moratorium in Great Britain so far as it applies to debts due to retail dealers in respect to their business and for rent, and relating to bills of exchange other than checks or bills on demand. As regards other debts under the general moratorium, there will be an extension of one month from October 4, subject to the condition that the interest due under past proclamations is paid. On November 4 the moratorium will come to an end as regards all debts.

THE RANGERS

For it's Rocky Mountain Rangers,
You're all good and hearty lads,
You're off to fight the Germans
across in foreign lands;
May your courage be unflinching,
And your spirit ever true,
God bless you, Mountain Rangers,
Here's your country's love to you!

For we know you'll do your duty,
And your work you'll never dodge,
And every bullet that you fire will
in a German lodge;
You will carry all before you
And will put them on the run;
God bless you, Mountain Rangers,
You're the men behind the gun!

You have come from every station,
And from every little town,
From the pgrson to bartender who helps your troubles drown;
There are men who like a life of ease,
And men who work in banks,
God bless you, Mountain Rangers—
You're A 1 all through the ranks.

And when the war is over,
And to home again you come,
You will hear the people shouting that your duty was well done;
And they'll talk of Rangers' courage,
And how they fought the foe—
God bless you, Mountain Rangers,
You're all heroes, "this we know."

Riflemen Robert Lamble,

The Ontario government has established a new prison in the north on the lines of the Fort William institution. The new farm is in the township of Burwash, Sudbury district. Thirteen thousand acres of crown land have been taken over, 8,000 acres being of excellent quality, and all well suited for stock raising.

Opportunity for Mixed Farming Offered by War

The outbreak of the war in Europe and the consequent demand which is naturally to be expected for increased exports of meats, finds Canada in a very denuded condition as regards live stock.

As a result of the removal of the American tariff on cattle a heavy trade developed to the south. In some districts in eastern Canada, nearly everything has been shipped out of the country, except dairy cows. This export trade, together with many farmers selling their calves for veal, can have but one result in Canada, viz: a greater scarcity of meat than at present exists, even in a normal market.

The meat industry in Canada should not be allowed to dwindle—rather, the production of hogs, sheep and cattle on Canadian farms should be greatly increased. To obtain this increase does not mean that farmers should devote their whole attention to live stock. The majority of farmers admit that with very little extra effort and expense they could increase by several head the live stock on their farms without in any way interfering with their present system of farming.

From reports to the commission of conservation, present conditions indicate a world-wide scarcity of live stock, with little likelihood of an overcrowded market for many years to come. The opportunity for Canadian farmers is therefore apparent. To take advantage of this, farmers should save their heifer calves to produce more cattle, while the others may be turned off, not as veal but as beef.

Expert stockmen advise that there are good times ahead for those raising sheep. The high price of mutton and of wool and the comparative ease with which a flock of sheep may be sustained upon land which is otherwise unsuitable for agriculture, should suggest increase in the number of sheep raised by Canadian farmers.

Increased production in hogs can be brought about more quickly than in any other class of live stock, and consequently should receive immediate attention.

Animal production on the farm is desirable because it increases the fertility and crop-raising ability of the soil. Good prices are sure to be obtained for any surplus which farmers will have to sell on account of the inevitable shortage of supply resulting from war conditions in Europe. These two conditions should be an incentive to Canadian farmers to increase their live stock production. A little foresight now, with modern methods of feeding, will make increased production easily possible.

CAMPAIGN TO SELL APPLES

R. M. Winslow, Provincial Horticulturist, Tells of Advertising Campaign

Apropos of the press dispatch from Ottawa of a few days ago to the effect that the department of trade and commerce is proposing a Dominion-wide advertising campaign to increase the consumption of apples throughout Canada, it was ascertained from R. M. Winslow, provincial horticulturist, that British Columbia has every reasan to be especially interested in this move on the part of the authorities, and every determination to take full advantage of the new situation.

Mr. Winslow explained that, owing to the disruption of normal conditions as a result of the war, the apple producers of the Dominion find themselves deprived of their European markets, and this, unfortunately, at a time when the crop is just being gathered. It is to meet this crisis that the Ottawa Government has acted, and Mr. Winslow heartily commends the promptitude shown in this connection.

Europe, appreciating the quality of Dominion-grown apples, has been importing them in very considerable quantities, the exports to the United Kingdom running 1,500,000 barrels a year. Measured in boxes, the form of packing in British Columbia, the figures would be much larger. In addition, 75 per cent of all the apples evaporated have been exported to Germany, Austria-Hungary and other countries in continental Europe.

The war has resulted in a serious curtailment of the market for these apples in Great Britain, and it has also resulted in jeopardizing for this year the trade in evaporated apples, for Germany was the clearing house for most of that trade. The Hon. Martin Burrell, co-operating with Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce, has launched an advertising campaign in order to increase the demand for apples in the home market. This campaign is to be effective from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and already expert advertisement writers are at work. Their efforts will be directed along two lines: First, to point out the splendid nutritive value of apples as an article of diet; second, the superior qualities of the Dominion-grown apples, with a plea that national patriotism demands that at this time preference should be given to the home-grown product.

Mr. Winslow explains that, inasmuch as the conditions in Europe at the present moment affect the growers on the other side of the line to the same extent as the Canadian producer, it will be seen that some special effort will have to be directed to protect the home market for the home-grown article.

Provincial Campaign

In respect to the position of British Columbia, Mr. Winslow is of the opinion that Provincial growers will, when they understand the situation, be disposed to join hands with the provincial government in a special advertising campaign which will be supplementary to the effort of the dominion government. There are special reasons in his judgment why this should be done. In the past advertisements issued by eastern growers have always emphasized the superlative qualities of the "Canadian" apple. Should this policy be followed in the present instance by the federal government, British Columbia would be placed at a disadvantage, for the reason that the term "Canadian" is not used when allusion is made to British Columbia apples. The latter stand in a class by themselves, no doubt for their pre-eminent superiority. But it can be seen that unless the proper precautionary measures are taken consumers in the other provinces might be placed under a misapprehension, if they were told that they should buy only "Canadian" apples.

Mr. Winslow directs attention to another point. Except to some small extent in Ontario, the apples of the eastern provinces are all packed in barrels. British Columbia uses boxes. By using the words "Canadian" and "barrels" in the advertisements issued by the authority of the Ottawa government, it is clear that the British Columbia product might easily be placed at a disadvantage in the mind of the consumer.

Mr. Winslow is taking these points up with D. Johnson, dominion fruit commissioner, and is very hopeful of an arrangement being made satisfactory to the growers of British Columbia. British Columbia fruit has won the highest awards consistently for many years at such great exhibitions as the National Apple Show of Spokane, located in the heart of one of the great apple-growing districts of the United States; the National Exhibition at Toronto, and at various world exhibitions in Great Britain. All that the British Columbia apple wants is a "fair field and no favor."

Because the British board of trade has been apprised that German merchants still are disposing of sugar through Holland notwithstanding the prohibition of its export by the government of the Netherlands, the English government has forbidden the importation of all sugar from Holland.

About 1,000 horses will be shipped from Halifax every week this winter to the British army. Halifax has been closen as the depot for British army remounts and arrangements are being made with the exhibition commission whereby 2,000 horses will be housed in the exhibition grounds through the winter.

LENIENT POLICY TO DEBTORS

Events Justifying Action of Provincial Government in Not Declaring Moratorium

Much satisfaction is expressed in financial and commercial circles at the fact that British Columbia is in the fortunate position of not yet having had to resort to the principle of the moratorium, this being apropos of a London press cable setting out that British financial circles would view with alarm the introduction of the system in western Canada, in view of the fact that much British capital is invested in mortgages and other securities. The general feeling throughout the province, as far as it can be ascertained, is that the policy enunciated by the Premier, Sir Richard McBride, a few days ago, is the correct one to be followed at the present time. This is, in brief, that while the moratorium shall not just now be invoked, the government shall take cognizance of any harsh and needlessly aggressive actions against debtors, and that, if the situation demands it, legislation will be sought to provide the remedy, such legislation to be retroactive in its scope.

As indicating that this declaration on the part of the provincial government is likely to prove adequate, it may be mentioned that at Vancouver following the policy of showing consideration to parties who are undergoing foreclosure, which Mr. Justice Clement has put in force since the declaration of war, His Lordship gave several parties three months to meet a final order, where ordinarily thirty days are only given. In other cases where an order nisi only was being asked, His Lordship suggested leniency to the applicants.

In one case in which an order of foreclosure was demanded, the defendant had paid $3,700 on a $6,800 purchase of land, and the solicitor asked for foreclosure within 30 days.

"Thirty says is all right in good times, but it is not enough today. Besides this man has got a substantial interest in this property. He must have three months," declared His Lordship.

"But we have already shown him leniency. Twice we have agreed to let him have time on his promise to pay, and each time he has failed," argued the solicitor.

"That shows he is anxious to hold the property and pay you off if he can raise the money. He should have three months," retorted the judge.

In another case where a defendant had paid $1,600 on a $4,300 purchase, an enquiry showed that he had only been in default since July of this year.

"That is a clear case for allowing the defendant three months in which to meet his obligations," said the judge.

"I would feel like making the term longer, only I am aware that in many of these cases to defer justice means hardship to the plaintiff who has obligations to meet, just as to grant justice means a hardship on defendants. But I think all reasonable consideration should be shown where a plaintiff has made substantial payments," said His Lordship during the discussion of the case.

In another case where three months was allowed, the defendants had paid $1,000 on a $3,150 purchase, and was $240 and interest in arrears.

All of the above cases were in regard to agreements to purchase land. In the case of mortgages which are threatened with foreclosure, there is a statutory provision which allows a defendant six months between the time the order nisi is taken out and accounts passed and the time the final order for foreclosure is made.

It is announced by the Newcastle coal exchange that owing to the inability of the German coal owners to execute the contract for supplying the Portuguese railways, the contract has reverted to the British colliers.

Five-gallon oil cans are used for making hens' nests at the Oregon poultry station. They are cheap, easily made, sanitary and satisfactory to the hen. One end is cut out, leaving three inches at the bottom to hold the nest material in the nest. The top side may be taken off to make the nesk more roomy. The cans are then arranged on a platform two feet high, open ends toward the wall and eight inches from it, leaving a narrow alleyway along which the hens can walk to the nest. If the tops are removed, a sloping board is fastened above the nest to give seclusion and prevent other hens from standing on the nests. One nest is provided for every five or six hens. These nests are easily cleaned and sprayed, and offer little chance for mites and insects to find hiding places in.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS.

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-west Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be issued for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10.00 an acre.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal sub-divisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to the Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

THE REAL REASON

The Chicago Tribune, one of the great papers of the United States, has the following editorial:

"A wonderful wave of enthusiasm and loyalty is passing over India," said the Marquis of Crewe, secretary of state for India, in Parliament, a few days since.

"Native Indian troops will be employed in the war in Europe," is, in substance, the declaration made by Earl Kitchener, war minister.

Indian troops anxious to fight in war for Great Britain!

Irishmen, Ulsterites and Nationalists, ready to help the Empire!

Australia prohibiting the export of food anywhere except to the Mother Country!

Canada preparing to send a strong contingent!

The same story in England, Scotland, Ireland, and all the Dominions and colonies!

What a queer, queer thing the British Empire is when you come to think of it!

In ordinary times you would naturally judge from the way Ireland and the Dominions and colonies talk about Great Britain that the poor old country didn't have a friend on earth.

In ordinary times some part of the British empire is always berating the home government.

In times of peace everybody feels at liberty to assume a possible revolution in India; separation of the Dominions and all sorts of other disastrous things.

In times of peace the empire is always more or less "doomed," according to the statements of many gloomladen British subjects.

But in time of war how suddenly things look up in that queer, queer British empire!

"I haven't a thing to take back," says Ireland, "but under the circumstances, kindly show me the enemy as soon as possible. I want to get at him."

"Yours of recent date received," says Canada. "Am sending men as fast as they can be gotten ready and transportation secured."

"Reserving for a more auspicious time any hatred a part of our population justifiably bears England," says South Africa, "we are prepared to do our utmost in the present war."

"Serious local dissatisfaction will arise, sahib, unless Indians are permitted to give their lives for the honorable empire, now that it is at war with a foreign nation," says India.

It's everywhere the same story. In peace, "It's "Confound your stupid flat-headed, doomed, arrogant soul!" In time of need it's "Count on us to the limit!"

Which is why we say that the British Empire is a queer, queer institution!

In reality there is nothing queer about it.

The undoubted truth of the matter is that the words "British empire" stands for the greatest republic the world has ever seen.

AT THE THEATRES

One of the most extraordinary and spectacular films ever shown in Revelstoke will be seen at the Empress theatre on next Wednesday night. W. A. Smythe has gone to much trouble and expense to secure this feature which everyone in the city should see, as he says that it is only by the public patronizing these first class shows that it is made possible to bring the production here.

James O'Donald Bennett, proclaimed as Chicago's greatest dramatic editor, writes in the Record Herald under date of May 13-

"It is all extraordinarily vast and vivid in its way, and it is unfolded with sufficient dramatic skill to produce a thrill. At the close of the two and a half hours of triumphal entries; love scenes; funeral rites, chariot races, marches, counter-marches, and combats, the spectators, replete with Rome, applaud the vanishing films and depart in the glad certainity that they have got their quarter's worth. After a view of it the beholder is ready to believe the statement of supernumeraries, not by the hundreds, but by the thousands, in the original staging of the play before the camera, and that they galloped their people over leagues of Italian countryside. When the film shows Spartacus leading the gladiators against the Roman army, 60 miles of territory around Rome are covered, and the combat sweeps across streams, over hills and down precipices.

Daughter of A. S. Goodeve is Nurse at Front

In addition to the large representation of volunteer soldiers sent from Rossland to the front, Miss Myra M. Goodeve and Miss Cicely Galt, both ormer residents of Rossland, are members of the volunteer force of nurses and have sailed for England with the first Canadian contingent of roops.

Miss Goodeve is the daughter of A. S. Goodeve, a sister of Mrs. G. C. Chubb and H. T. Goodeve. She entered hospital work in Ottawa where she was in training some time, afterward going to Montreal for a short time. She took a course at the Military hospital in Halifax and from there went to a Boston hospital for a time. She was later appointed to a responsible position in the Sick Children's hospital, Toronto, where he was when the call came for volunteer nurses to go abroad.

Miss Galt is the daughter of Alexander Galt, formerly practising law in Rossland and now Mr. Justice Galt, of Winnipeg. In Rossland they resided in the house now occupied by R. J. Clegg. Miss Galt was trained in the Royal Victoria hospital, Montreat.

Information received in Rossland was to the effect that the two young ladies expected to sail September 29, n the steamer Franconian. The nursing corps numbered one hundred

The Canadian War Contingent association has accepted the generous offer of Sir Arthur and Lady Markham to place their large country home near Folkestone at the disposal of the association free of charge. The hospital, which will provide for at least fifty beds at the outset, will be equipped forthwith under the direction of Dr. Armour, who hopes to have everything ready by Saturday.

The admiralty's official estimate of number who perished in the sinking of the Aboukir, Hogue and Cressy, is placed at 1624. This estimate followed a compilation of all available information and is believed to be correct. The cruisers were supposed to carry crews of 700 each. This would make the survivors number 476. The dead, it is understood, include nearly all the officers of the three ships.

The proposed deal between Toronto nd the Toronto street railway for the purchase of the system is now officially dead. The contracting parties have decided that owing to the war this is an inopportune time for the placing of such heavy financial burden on the shoulders of the citizens Mayor Hockin, who was its sponsor, pronounced its valedictory at the city council meeting.

Cast on 120 stitches, 36 on 2 pins, 48 on 3rd pin, knit 50 rows of 3 plain and 3 purl, cast off 24 stitches, knit plain backwards and forwards for 16 ridges. Cast on 24 stitches and join up again, (this forms the place for the eyes) knit 30 rows 3 plain and 3 purl. Arrange stitches so as to have 40 on each pin, knit 4 rows purl in the 4th row knit together, every 9th and 10th stitch; 1 rows plain on the 4th row knit together the 8th and 9th stitches, 1 rows purl on the 4th row knit together the 7th and 8th stitches; 4 rows plain on the 4th row knit together the 6th and 7th stitches, 4 rows purl on the 4th rows knit the 5th and 6th stitches together; 4 rows plain on the 4th row knit the 4th and 5th stitches together, 4 rows plain on the 4th row knit the 3rd and 4th stitches together. Now work, row quite plain, 1 row with every 2nd and 3rd stitches knit together, 1 row quite plain, now narrow as fast as you can and cast off.

Canadian Pacific Stock Will Be Increased

The directors of the Canadian Pacific railway company have the same implicit faith in the future growth and prosperity of Canada that they have had from the beginning. This was the note struck at the annual meeting of the shareholders held on Wednesday by Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the company and the report he presented, despite the setback caused by the European war was of an optimistic nature throughout.

The resolution to increase the authorized ordinary capital stock of the company from $260,000,000 to $335,000,000 as a precautionary measure, was passed unanimously. The board of directors was re-elected with the addition of J. K. L. Ross, who was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of Lord Strathcona.

Notes from the Mines

The Kootenay Central railway between Golden and Fort Steele will be completed early next year.

The Standard Silver-lead company, his month paid only half the customary monthly dividend, namely, at the rate of 1¼ cents a share on its 2,000,000 issued shares, instead of the usual 2½ cents a share. The reason for the reduction in the dividend is that for more than a month no ore has been shipped to the smeltery, consequently the company has not received revenue from production, as it does when conditions are normal.

W. B. De Witt, formerly operating the Porto Rico mine and well known in mining circles in this district, has taken over a lease and bond on the ummit and Ore hill mines at Sheep creek and both of these properties, it is stated, will be operated on a fairly extensive scale during the winter months. Both of the properties are stated to be rich is free milling gold and it is the intention of Mr. De Witt to at once rebuild the Ore hill mill and treat the ore from both properties through it. A force of eight men has already started getting in the winter supplies to the properties.

Mining men are by no means certain that the resumption of ore buying by the Consolidated upon the asis announced, will put mining around here on an active basis at once. It is pointed out that under the present arrangement, it will be possible for the high grade silver-lead shippers only to operate at a profit. This of course, is not the fault of the smelter, as the Consolidated is doing the best it can under the circumstances, as they have to base their payments on the New York prices, which are lower than what formerly ruled in London.—Kaslo Kootenaian.

George Sharp, a miner of Pedro Creek, Alaska lived on a fortune more than nine years before he knew hat the fortune existed. Sharp when he first came to the Fairbanks district, located a claim on the right limit of Pedro Creek opposite No. 2, nd prospected for gold on the claim at different times ever since. He spent most of his time searching for the yellow stuff on his other holdings, apparently neglectful of the possibilities right under the floor of his cabin. A few weeks ago Sharp sank a shaft near his cabin, got some prospects and then tunneled to bed rock for 10 feet or so. He encountered coarse gold, some fair sized nuggets being included in the dust obtained after sluicing a small dump.

It is reported on reliable authority that J. C. Ryan, owner of the Eureka property above Sproules, and which has been under development for the past three years by E. R. Davidson, of Spokane, has refused to grant a further extension of time on the bond although Mr. Davidson has the funds ready to continue the development of the mine.

A well-known mining paper of the western states says: "Because of the European war, notwithstanding the fact that all metal quotations have been suspended for the past two or three weeks, there is every reason to believe that the price of silver will advance to such an extent as to permit of the profitable operation of nearly every silver-producing property in the West."

Harry Park came down from Goldhill a few days ago and has since been exhibiting a small bottle containing a small quantity of rather encouraging gold nuggets, one of tham big enough to be worth a dollar and a half at least. These were secured on the Lardo river bed rock on the spot where his placer ground is rather shallow, the dirt being scraped away and the nuggets dug out of cracks in the bedrock with a knife.

Mining men throughout the western States are assuming a very optimistic air as a result of the war and the result it will have on the price of metals. Considerable attention is being paid to silver and it is pointed out that as soon as the atmosphere has cleared up the price of ilver will rapidly advance to sixty-five cents. One of the big operators even ventured the opinion that dollar silver was not out of the question. All are agreed that the price will advance to such an extent that all the silver mines will be re-opened and that hundreds of prospectors will take to the hills in search of silver.

McCrimmon and Stewart, who are working on the lease on the Black Prince and Skagway groups of the Silver Standard, have excellent showings in two tunnels. In the face of the Skagway tunnel they have four feet of ore, with one foot solid and high grade. At this work the boys also have nearly a carload of ore either sacked or ready to sack, and this ore was all secured in development work. On the Black Prince they also have a fine showing in the tunnel and a lot of ore ready to sack. During the winter they will be able to take out several carloads of high grade silver-lead.—Omineca Herald.

Panama Canal Will be Benefit to Mines

"The rate established for shipping passing through the Panama Canal, $1.20 per ton, is regarded by shipping companies on the North Pacific coast as sufficiently low to result in great benefit to British Columbia in the transportation of products of the province to the eastern markets," observes "Shipping Illustrated," the leading United States shipping publication. "This is especially true of copper and other minerals. The toll assessment is made on the basis of the register ton, the standard measure of which is 100 cubic feet of space, and not on the ton weight of 2240 pounds. The canal toll charges will thus add a comparatively smaller amount per net ton weight to the freight rate of commodities of lesser bulk than on those occupying greater space. A ton of copper, large quantities of which are shipped from British Columbia, occupies only 18 cubic feet of space, so that approximately 5½ tons of this metal can be carried in one vessel-ton space of 100 cubic feet, which will be equal to a cost of about 22 cents per ton weight.

It should be carefully noted, however, that the amount of tolls charges per weight ton of cargo as here given does not represent the actual additional charge that will be made by the steamship lines on account of the canal tolls. Every vessel passing through the canal carrying any cargo at all must pay the same tolls as if it were fully loaded, the charge being made on the vessel itself and not on the cargo, and being paid by the owners of the vessel. The amount added to the shipping rate on account of the canal tolls will, therefore, be higher than the figures given which assumes that every ship is loaded to capacity.

Sir Walter Runciman, Liberal, and Robert Octhill, Labor, were returned unopposed for Hartlepool and Bolton respectively.

Okanagan and Kettle River Now Connected

Sir Richard McBride has received the following telegram from J. J. Warren, president of the Kettle Valley railway company:

"We connected up the Kettle River and Okanagan Valley on Friday last, the steel meeting at Mile 45, east of Penticton. We now have almost 225 miles of steel laid, of which 175 miles are continuous from Midway to Osprey Lake, via Penticton. Over 90 per cent. of the grading of the entire line is completed. All grading will be finished in another month. At the beginning of winter there will remain only sixty miles of track to be laid next year."

Consistent Advertising is Especially Profitable

Reasons are given by "Economic Advertising"

"It is keeping everlastingly at it—the quiet, continuous brand of publicity that worries its way through to success in the long run and it is difficult to find any justification for breaking the continuity of advertising during hot weather.

"Clothes have to be worn and the necessaries of life provided for, and almost every article with the exception of purely seasonable goods is in equal demand in the summer as in the winter.

"Then, again, in the summer people do not work so hard—there is more leisure time, and just because they have more time for reading it is logical to state that they have more time for reading advertising.

"To the modern housewife any respite from the glaring pavements is welcome. She reads the advertising columns of the local paper, and makes it her shopping guide, especially in the summer. Missing at this time is losing momentum which will take considerable time and expense to regain at a later date."

The Mail-Herald reaches the permanent, earning classes. In the home it stays, the newest edition of buying guides. It contains the leading merchants' latest announcements.

The wise military commander changes his plan of campaign to fit conditions as the progress of events dictates. The wise business commander does the same.

Firms that have never before seen the tremendous power of well directed, skilfully-prepared advertising based on a plan that is fundamentally right, will make use of this modern merchandising force now; old advertisers, wise and experienced, will expand along new lines—by means of advertising.

Canada is face to face today with enormous opportunities. new markets are opening, new opportunities are unrolling before established business. What is required is quick re-adjustment, a change of the plan of campaign to fit the new conditions.

Newspaper advertising will be the right-hand assistant of those who forge ahead in this crisis, not ordinary advertising however; the efficiency will have to be high, the plan and copy carefully laid out and skilfully prepared.

WORLD NEWS TERSELY TOLD

The French national debt is $160.24 per capita, that of Great Britain is $76.35, of Russia, $27.02, and of Germany, $17.81.

Sir William Mackenzie says that while the war will ultimately be a good thing for the whole population of Canada, the farmer is the individual who will profit most.

The legislative council of Trinidad has voted $200,000 for the purchase of Trinidad cocoa as the colony's contribution to Great Britain. A subscription to the Red Cross fund of $504,000 has already been made.

A despatch from Lyons, France says that five thousand Italian volunteers under Guiseppe Garibaldi, son of Gen. Ricciotti Garibaldi, have received their red shirt uniforms and are leaving for an unknown destination to attack the Germans.

England has forgotten the Sultan of Zanzibar. The ruler has been hard hit by the war. He is marooned in Paris with only $5 and has 15 dusky wives to feed. His regular pension has not been paid by England, and the Sultan applied to Ambassador Herrick for relief. The latter will take it up with Sir Edward Grey.

It is reported that when the German general Friesc who was captured by the French and brought into Paris was searched there was found in his pocket his nomination to the governorship of Paris, signed by Emperor William. The general attempted to commit suicide when ordered to retreat, and later was taken prisoner.

Since mobilization began not a drop of liquor has been allowed to be sold throughout the Russian empire, writes the Petrograd correspondent of the London Times. The Russian army in the field has been a sober one and in this respect it forms a striking contrast to its foes. It is on record that many prisoners and wounded have reeked with spirits This circumstance has further helped to explain the difference between the behaviour of the Russian troops and their foes.

Vice-admiral Kochi Fujii, who was accused of bribery in connection with the naval commission case last year, has been sentenced to imprisonment for a term of four years and six months. Fujii was at one time Japanese naval attache at Berlin. He was ordered before a court martial in February of this year. It was alleged that he received illicit commissions for influencing the allotment of an admiralty contract of a German firm.

Following the completion and operation of its line across British Columbia, the Grand Trunk Pacific railway has been preparing its hotels for the accommodation of tourists travel. A new six-storey hotel has been opened at Prince Rupert and at Skeena Crossing, Mile 164, the Copper Tavern has been opened with 23 bedrooms. New station buildings are being erected at the rate of one a week. Developments are reported as being very rapid, settlers following the steel-laying gangs.

The Petit Parisien prints a story of a bull, which, it says, killed 18 Germans. It appears that when the peasants in the neighborhood of Sezanne were warned of the approach of the Germans they opened the gates of the cattle pens and endeavored to drive the cattle to a place of safety. One enormous bull, it is said, becoming enraged by the sound of the cannon, broke away and charged the Germans, who looked on in stupefaction, believing it some trick of the French. At the first dash the bull gored six throwing them high in the air. Others shot and wounded the animal, which, however, gored twelve more before succumbing.

With the object of extending their markets the British Columbia Manufacturers' association is planning a trade campaign in South America, to be conducted through the American Express company. James Hart, secretary of the British Columbia organization has made an announcement to this effect. Following the non-success of the agitation for the appointment of a trade commissioner by either the Dominion or provincial governments to undertake the special work, the local manufacturers' association arranged with the American Express company, to make an investigation of the opportunities for developing trade between this province and the republics of South America. Special representatives will leave New York on October 1 to start the work.

The subsidized Norweigan press of Christiania has been publishing pro-German reports of atrocities by the French and Belgians. The Norwegian people were very indignant when they received the accounts in British papers showing how untrue the German reports were. Norway is the only European country where there is no censor.

The secretary for agriculture of New Brunswick, in a return to the board of trade, says that New Brunswick will have for export this year approximately 8,000,000 bushels of potatoes, 25,000 tons of hay and 800,000 pounds of cheese, besides small quantities of motton, swine, poultry, oats and apples. In wheat, the province has raised this year 25 per cent of the amount required for home consumption. Large quantities of live pork will also be shipped this year to Montreal and Toronto.

Taking deliberate aim at the back of the man whom he had repeatedly threatened with death, Mario Montenaro, an Italian shot and fatally wounded Angelo Teti, a rich Italian contractor and broker, as he stood in the office of the H. Mackinnon company, in Vancouver. Montenaro was arrested by P. C. Rotus. With the smoking gun still in his hand he turned and fled north on Main street. The shooting was the result of a quarrel over a mortgage held by Teti on property belonging to Montenaro's wife.

Bishop Lucas, of Mackenzie River district, is in Ottawa seeing the government in regard to the Indians and Eskimos of the far north who are seriously affected by the war owing to the disturbance of the fur trade. The Indians are likely to suffer severely from want unless effective steps are taken by the government to tide them over the difficulty. It is probable that an arrangement may be entered into whereby the Hudson's Bay company will see that the natives are provided for by the payment for such supplies as the Indians cannot pay for themselves.

The Vancouver board of trade is in receipt of a copy of the following resolution passed at a special meeting of the chamber of commerce, Liverpool, on September 9, last; 'Resolved: That the Liverpool chamber of commerce desire to place on record their deep sense of admiration and gratitude for the magnificant rally made by the colonies to the side of the Mother country in this time of trial for the whole British empire. They desire especially to state that the splendid contributions the colonies are giving to England in men and material are appreciated, not only of the city of Liverpool, but throughout the whole of the United Kingdom."

Germans state that the subscription to their war loan amounts now to £350,000,000. A private message from Berlin says the Krupps have taken up £2,500,000 and the Westphalian manufacturers about $4,000,000. The sum, it is claimed, has been obtained by a press campaign, advertising German victories and suggesting to the people that after the war Germany will get any amount of money from the allies, which will enable them to pay big bonuses on war loan stock.

A Belgian relief committee, formed in Montreal, issued an appeal to the Canadian public on behalf of destitute Belgians. Contributions in both money and goods are asked for, including clothes, old or new, for men, women and children, and food of all kinds that can be shipped across the Atlantic. Cash contributions, it is announced, will be used for the purchase of goods in Canada and shipment to Belgium. M. Boor, Belgian consul-general at Ottawa, is president of the committee.

The two German papers published in Yohohama, the Japan Daily Herald and the Deutsche Japen Post, have been suppressed. Their editor, Martin Oswald has been ordered to leave that country. Oswald has been violently attacking the Japanese ever since Japan declared war against Germany. The Japanese government repeatedly warned him against publishing false news with regard to both Japan and friendly nations such as England and France, but Oswald paid no attention to such warnings and continued to publish news and editorials violently assailing Japan and her allies.

In consequence of the reported action of the British parliament in canceling Austrian, German and Hungarian patent rights in the British isles, the Hungarian cabinet has empowered the ministry of commerce to adopt immediate extraordinary rules regarding patent rights and trade marks in Hungary. It is asserted that 3,838 British patents have been granted in Hungary as against 780 Hungarian patents granted in Great Britain. Owing to the constantly increasing demands of the army for meat, the supply of cattle arriving in Vienna has considerably diminished with a consequent advance in prices.

A conservative estimate of the number of soldiers who can be placed in the field during the next six months is: Russia five million; Germany four million; Austria, one and half million Great Britain, two million; France three and half million; Belgium, half million; Servia, quarter million; Montenegro, seventy-five thousand; Japan, a negligible force, which may become as great as that of Great Britain in the event of the war being carried to a point where the allies will need further aid in Europe. Without considering the Mikado's army, the belligerents seem able to place 16,575,000 men in places where hey may battle for supremacy. In the event of the war being prolonged, this number might be increased.

The British postmaster-general has taken the first step in the direction of an all round reduction in the cost of cablegrams and announces that as a temporary measure, the text of full rate extra-European plain language messages, including the signatures, written in English and exchanged between Great Britain and the overseas dominions and colonies served by the eastern and associated telegraphic companies systems will be counted and charged as if written in groups of 10 letters to the word; figures and commercial expressions, such as c. o. f., f.o.b., etc., will continue to be counted as at present. He proposes the extension of a similar arrangement to Canada and the Unuted States and is communicating with the cable companies concerned.

On account of the scarcity of wheat in Holland the association of Dutch bakers has sanctioned the use of a so-called "tulip bread," in which one-third of the flour used is made from ground tulip bulbs. This bread is said to be very nourishing, and the war ministry has recommended its use in the army.

Offers of assistance from many states of India continue to pour in. The viceroy reports that contingents of the Imperial Service troops have already been accepted from fifteen states and that similar offers from 10 other states will be accepted if the need arises. The joint offers of the other states the viceroy adds, is under consideration. The tribesmen of Kurram and the Swat valley are anxious to participate in behalf of the empire. Arab chiefs in the Aden hinterland have expressed their loyalty and desire to be of service.

James Gordon Bennett, proprietor of the New York Herald, born in New York on May 10, 1841, was married recently in Paris to the Baroness de Reuter, a widow, and formerly a Miss Potter of Philadelphia. After the civil ceremony was performed in the American Protestant Episcopal church, Mr, Bennett having been christened there the previous day. Mr. Bennett was baptized in the Catholic church in infancy, his parents having been Roman Catholics. In religious matters, however, he has always been a liberal and an anti-clerical, and as to a denominational choice an independent. Consequently it was with considerable surprise that his friends in New York learned that he had been baptized in Paris preceding his marriage, which was his first.

The power of Freemasonry is illustrated by a story told by a citizen of Louvain, who with the Masonic sign, says he saved 50 of his fellow citizens from being shot to death by German troops. This group of citizens had been lined up for execution. The German firing party had their rifles at "present arms" when the narrator gave a Masonic sign. The German officer commanding the firing squad happened to belong to the craft. He recognized a brother Mason and ordered him to leave the ranks. This meant sparing his life. The Louvain citizen, however, refused saying, "My fellow citizens are no more guilty than I am. If you are going to kill them, I shall be killed with them." The German officer then ordered the release of the entire party.

That London will not be visited by the German Zeppelin raiders of the night is witnessed by the precautions which are being taken in keeping the skies lit up with the rays of powerful searchlights. The photo shows the sky illuminations at Charing Cross. On the left is the House of Parliament with the tower containing the famous clock known as "Big Ben." Westminster Abbey's tower is seen faintly outlined against the sky to the right of "Big Ben." In the foreground is the Obelisk known as Cleopatra's Needle, and many hotels famed the world over are shown in the light ray which flashes along the heavens and lights up the celebrated "Embankment" as this avenue skirting the Thames at this point is known.

Clothes are Shipped for Belgian Destitute

The call for the Belgian relief has been splendidly responded to, already a number of parcels have been received, and through the kindness of W. Hornell have been packed and shipped free of charge by the Dominion Express company. The first shipment weighed 200 pounds.

Owing to the bombardment of Antwerp, where thousands of Belgians had taken refuge and have now with the inhabitants, been advised to leave, the number of homeless must be appalling. In order to assist these sufferers an appeal has been made and is being splendidly responded to everywhere.

Extraordinary Production

EMPRESS THEATRE

Wednesday, Oct. 14th

George Kleine, the wizard importer of spectacular films, again demonstrates his ability in selecting nothing but masterpieces, and is now offering at the Auditorium, Chicago, as well as at leading theatres in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Minneapolis, New Orleans, the Pasquali 8-reel feature, SPARTACUS, or The Revolt of the Gladiators.

In reviewing this production the Chicago Daily News says, in part:

"Added the human voice and the stage presentation, the early Roman story of Spartacus at the Auditorium would have been Grand Opera. It is more than good entertainment; it is a great show. 7500 people were employed by Pasquali & Company at Rome and Turrin, Italy, where the pictures were made; 8,000 feet in length; and the most noted athletes in Italy were posed in the roles of the great fighters.

"Everybody will want to see the Revolt of the Gladiators. Bloody scenes of combat take place; great concourses of people assemble; gladiatorial games are shown; long triumphal processions and the final appearance of the lions in the arena where Spartacus faces death, but eludes it in time to send the audience away cheerful and proclaiming the greatness of the George Kleine film as it unrolls in the Auditorium."

ASSISTANCE FOR BELGIUM

Funds Urgently Needed For Victims of War—Appeal from Belgian Consul

The following letter, which speaks for itself, has been received by the Mail Herald from the Belgian consul at Vancouver. The Mail Herald will be glad to receive any subscriptions to the fund for the relief of the Belgian victims of the war and will remit the money to the proper destination. The letter is as follows:

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 6, 1914

To the Editor of the Mail-Herald,
Revelstoke, B. C.

Sir:—May I solicit your assistance n collecting a British Columbia fund for the relief of the appalling estitution and misery of the Belgian eople.

I should like to bring forcefully to the attention of your readers that Belgium, mindful of her obligation o observe strict neutrality, is today n a state of unmeasurable suffering.

Seven out of her nine provinces have been devastated by the most dreadful war known to history. The eaceful countryside is strewn with the dead and the dying. Thousands of people have nothing in the world left, not a roof over their heads, no money, no clothes, and no chance of earning a living of any sort. I am told the sight of these poor refugees, wandering over the country seeking ood and shelter is more pitiable than words can express, and that it is scarcely possible to exaggerate the calamity which, with overwhelming uddenness, has fallen upon this peaceful, thrifty and self-reliant people.

I realize that we in British Columia may expect more or less hard times this winter, and that the old dage "charity begins at home" may ithin limitations well apply, but, Sir, I feel sure you will agree with me that a broader interpretation of this principle is now warranted. The Belgian people have, in our cause, and to our great benefit, committed homes to this nobler view of the their lives, their families, and their obligations we also owe to the world at large, and we in Canada who are spared the awful sufferings of our brave allies, may well show them that, in their time of great need, we extend the helping hand so much required and so fully justified.

In Montreal a strong central executive committee has been formed to ollect relief for the homeless and destitute Belgians. H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, Premier Borden, Sir Wilfred Laurier, Sir Thomas Shaughessy, and many prominent in the political and commercial life of the astern provinces having given their ctive and generous support.

In Vancouver, we have a representtive local committee for the mainland of British Columbia under the atronage of His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Paterson, H. H. Stevens, M.P.: Mayor Baxter, Sir Chas. H. Tupper, K.C.M.G., the Hon. Richard McBride, the Hon. W. J. Bowser, K.C., and many of the leading professional and business men of he city.

I believe the many other important points of the mainland will answer this appeal of our allies, and on behalf of the people of Belgium I ask your valuable aid in making up a substantial contribution to help heir distress.

Will you open a subscription list, and invite your readers to donate what they think proper and can afford. As this call for help is urgent, and with the winter months close at hand, I should like to remit the British Columbia relief fund by the end of this month, and would therefore ask you to remit me any proceeds of your subscription list by the 31st, inst., if possible. Cheques hould be made payable to the "Belgian Relief Fund," and I will send you my consular receipt and grateful cknowledgement. In remitting proceeds to the Montreal executive, ach district contribution will be separately mentioned.

Thanking you in anticipation of your great service to this cause, I am, Sir

Yours respectfully,
JOHN M. WHITEHEAD
Consul for Belgium, Vancouver, B.C.

Officers Elected by St. John's Bible Class

The Adult Bible class of St. John's church met on Friday evening and elected officers for the ensuing year. Plans for aggressive work were also discussed and adopted. The result of the election was as follows:

President, Mr. F. P. Creech; Vice-president, Mrs. C. Fossett; Secretary, Mrs. C. W. Kipp; Treasurer, Mrs. E. J. Stewart; Teacher, Rev. J.W. Stevenson. Conveners of committees: Devotional, Mr. W. A. Bell; Social, Mrs. J. McDonald; Membership, Mrs. F. W. Laing.

It was decided to start a campaign to increase the membership of the class, and also to help recruiting for the Sunday school. The members will visit the sick in the city, especially strangers who may be in the hospital.
