REVELSTOKE RHODES SCHOLAR

Mr. G. L. Haggen, of Revelstoke, is to be hailed as having earned the distinction of being the Rhodes Scholar for the Province of British Columbia for the year 1913. The selection was made last night at a meeting in the Parliament Buildings of the board of examiners and the announcement was made immediately upon the adjournment.

The successful candidate who will now be in receipt of the congratulations of his competitors as well as his friends, has just completed his twenty second year, and is a student of Toronto University, having graduated this present year with honors in English literature and political science.

In addition to being a scholar, Mr. Haggen is something of an athlete, harboring a distinct penchant for the more arduous forms of exercise, such as mountain climbing and football. During his summer recesses hehas been known to spend a great deal of time in the Rocky mountains, exercising his limbs and at the same time studying the country. Tennis is anotherfavorite pastime of his, and he is reputed to be no mean exponent ofthis game either.

Appended is his record at the University of Toronto, and a glance through it will reveal the fact that this year's Rhodes Scholar for the Province has been lavish in the extent of his studies as well as notably successful in the mastery of them:

First year, May 1910—First class in general efficiency; grade A. in Latin, English, Greek and Roman History; Grade B. in French, Mathematics 1.4., and Mechanics and Physics.

Second Year—Second class honors in the department of English and History; First class honors in English; Second class honors in Mediaeval History; Third class honors in Greek and Latin; Grade B. in French; Grade C. Psychology.

Third Year—Second class honors in the department of English and History, First class honors in Latin; Second class honors in Modern English, Modern History, and History Option; Third class honors in Greek, Passed in history and philosophy.

It is of interest also to know that the successful candidate was born in New Zealand and only came to British Columbia eleven years ago.

The other candidates for the coveted honor were as follows: Mr. B. McDiarmid, of Victoria, who has completed his third year at McGill University; Mr. B.E. Atkins, of Vancouver, a graduate of McGill University, and Mr. McNaghten, of Vancouver, who has completed his third year in the mcGill courses of British Columbia.

The board of examiners for the Provincial Rhodes Scholarship were the Hon. H. E. Young, Minister of Education; Dr. Robinson, Provincial Superintendent of Education, and the principals of McGill College of British Columbia at Victoria and Vancouver.—Colonist.

Dr. and Mrs. Taylor of Nakusp, spent an anxious two days in Revelstoke on Saturday and Sunday. They came to meet their two children, boy and girl aged 11 and 12 respectively, who were travelling alone all the way from Bonnie Scotland, and should have arrived in Revelstoke Saturday. Owing to a miscalculation in the train service the kiddies actually went thru' on the Friday train and there being no one to meet them a day ahead of time, were overcarried all the way to Vancouver. The telegraph was got busy and the children taken care of at the coast and shipped back on the next day train to their anxious parents at Revelstoke.

SICAMOUS REGATTA RESULTS

The second annual regatta of above club took place at Sicamous on June 2nd and 3rd, and was a great success being numerously attended by visitors from Revelstoke, Chase, Enderby, Salmon Arm, Seymour Arm, Annis, etc.

The endurance race on Monday had seven entries, the handicap being made up at Chase. The result being L.H. Congrieve 1st, H. A. Brown 2nd, W. Charles 3rd, Wl Andrews 4th. The Fomer from Chase arrived 1st, but was disqualified by time allowance of 1 min. 41 sec.

The first event on Tuesday, Five mile open race for the beautiful silver cup presented by the Commodore, H. A. Brown, won by Mr. McGoldrick of Chase in his speeder "Wasp", 2nd L. H. Congrieve, 3rd W. Andrews, 4th M. Palmer, 5th T. Beck.

Event 3, Two mile single sculling race was won by M. Palmer, 2nd A. Cooper.

Event 4, 100 yard swimming race—won by G. Goodall, 2nd D. Finlayson 3rd Culbertson.

Event 5, Five mile handicap race, this race was full of excitement, won by Murray Palmer, 1nd L. H. Congrieve, 3rd Freeman, 4th W. Charles.

Event 6, the ladies not having had sufficient time tc practice owing to lateness of spring the race was not pulled off.

Event 7, the logging experts being dubious as to the exact temperature of the water, did not turn up to enter for this event. A double sculling race was substituted. This was won by Murray Palmer and A. Cooper, 2nd Higgs and Culbertson, 3rd Finlayson and Durrand.

Event 8, Five mile open race for the handsome challenge cup presented by Leeson, Dickie, Gross, Ltd., was an easy win for Mr. McGoldrick in his "Wasp, W. Andrews being end, and W. Charles 3rd, L.H. Congrieve did got enter owing to heated boaring.

Event 9—Two and one-half mile race for members only. This race proved very clearly the fairway the handicaps of the day had been worked out, by the close finish of the race, only 1 min. 16 sec., dividing the first and last boats, Harrison and Berry being 1st, Commodore H.A. Brown 2nd, and W. Charles 3rd, with Rear Commodore W.K. Finlayson 4th.

Event 10—Being the fishing contest, only one operator of the Piscatorial art presented himself and so the event was called off. The cause may be looked for in the great catches of fish that lately have been made at and near Sicamous, and the good prices obtained for those on sale. No doubt made probable contestants somewhat lacking in interest. The well known expert R. Upper, did not enter he being engaged in looking after the clay pigeon shooting.

Event 11—This event was well supported, especially by visiting nimrods from Revelstoke The well known J. Guy Barber took the very handsome gun case aresented by the Dominion Cartridge Co., shooting 24 birds out of a possible 25 and taking the breath out of the bodies of Maha and Sicamous experts..

Event 12, 2½ mile open race, five boats entered, the owner of the Wasp kindly staying out to give the small boats under 20ft. a chance. 1st T. Peck, 2nd H.A. Brown, 3rd W.K. Finlayson. Harrison and Berry's launch run by the bearded gentleman (as our Chase contemporary had it) was disqualified by 2 min. 12 sec.

Yeoman's services were rendered by Messrs. H.A. Brown, L.H. Congrieve, W.K. Finlayson J.C. McGregor, laying out the course. and making the necessary arrangements. J,C. McGregor carried out the duties of starter in a very admirable manner. E. L. Berry being time keeper and judge and it is said a good judge too.

Thewife of the Commodore, Mrs. H A. Brown, gave away the prizes and cheques during the evening at the Bellevue hotel, owned by L.H. Congrieve. The Revelstoke Band of 18 pieces discoursed sweet music during the day, and left six pieces to perform during the very successful dance which took place at the Bellevue hotel during the evening and continued up to the small hours. Thus ended a very successful and most enjoyable second regatta of the Shuswap Lake Boating Club.

It is up to other places to wake up and do likewise. The best thanks of the Club are tendered to L.H. Congrieve for providing all refreshments for the band during the day.

REVELSTOKE v. KELOWNA

Baseball To-morrow.—Interior League Teams Battle for Supremacy Recreation Park.—Game Called at 4 p. m.—Exciting Play.—Record Attendance Expected.

Everything is in first class shape for the Big League Baseball game,, Kelowna versus Revelstoke, scheduled to take place on the recreation park at 4 p.m. tomorrow Thursday, afternoon June 12th. The diamond has again been fixed up and a speedy display of front rank baseball is confidently expected.

It was originally intended to commence the game at 5 p.m., but the hour has been switched to 4p.m. enabling the fans to watch the play and get back home in ample time to spread their legs under the supper table when six o'clock is sounded.

Most of the old standbyes with some slight addition of new talent, will appear to uphold the laurels for Revelstoke, whilst Kelowna are understood to be sending up their strongest available aggregation in an endeavor to secure the winning runs, and land themselves at the top of the League Table.

The exhibition of high class baseball furnished in the last league game, which was staged at Revelstoke, was of such such a quality as to warrant the expectations of the ticket collectors, that a record attendance would be registered this time. Everyone who pays 50c. is bound to get good value fortheir money, that is judging by the last league game, whilst Thursday is a very convenient day upon which businessmen and others may take two hours off to help root the homesters on to victory.

"Take me out to the ball game," in the good old summer time, is a plea which very few people find themselves able to resist, and given fine weather a big attendance is assured.

ADVENTURES OF TWO PINE CATS

Two Pine Cats had a pleasant little adventure down at the new government wharf on Monday night. Ever since the flood waters of the Columbia river commenced to threaten the stability of the structure, a gang of men havebeen posted there night and day engaged in clearing the logs and jams which accumulated around the piling as the swirling waters rose higher and higher over the inclined timber work.

On Saturday last the river, after several days of consistent rise, dropped nearly fourteen inches, and the wardens of the wharf breathed easily and figured out an easy day on the Sunday, but Sunday night the angry river commenced to creep persistently upward, and by Monday noon had risen eighteen inches, coming up at the rate of over an inch per hour.

Monday afternoon about 2 p.m. a big jam of logs came floating down sweeping straight on to the wharf. There the whole bunch piled themselves up, and the beating of the flood against this mass of material caused a dangerous strain to the structure. Additional help was phoned for, and the services of two husky lumberjacks were hastily requisitioned from the Oriental hotel. These two lads hurried down, caulk boots et al., and in order to justify their engagement forth with plunged into the thickest of the fray. For some hours the reinforced party labored at the big jam, but in vain. Towards 6 p.m., just when the dinner whistle was sounding over the town, the teamsters of the wharf end of the jam, hooked onto to an innocent looking end of of spruce sticking upinvitingly out of the muddy caulion. The two recruits meantime were busy fishing with pike poles and cant hooks, at the ragged end of the jam sticking out well into the river.

Then the unexpected happened. The innocent spruce butt, lengthened out into a full fledged fifty foot key log, the jam cracked and broke in the middle, one half sailing gaily down stream whilst the smaller portion eddied around the outposts of the wharf, separated by some forty feet of raging current, from the topmost section of the structure rising invitingly within sight., leading to safety, shore, and supper.

Our two pine cats, scrambled amid the wreckage one each to the outposts upon the ends of which they secured a precarious seat, and sat thereon gracefully for upwards of five hours, whilst the rolling waters ran between.

At about 11 p.m. after some exciting incidents, the prisoners were rescued by means of a tethered canoe, none the worse for their terrible experiences.

A peculiar feature of the affair is that whereas prior to the event the wharf wardens were constantly receiving advice and offers of assistance from experts and spectators, there has been a marked decline of these offerings, a general disposition being displayed to keep as far away from such a nasty looking proposition as possible.

WOODMEN AT DIVINE SERVICE

Last Sunday evening the local Woodmen of the World, attended St. Peter's church for the annual divineservice in connection with the Decoration day of the order, and there was a good attendance of the members,

The choral part of the serivce was beautifully rendered by the choir of some twenty-five trained voices, and was further enriched with the singing by Mr. H. V. Morgan of the sacred solo "Oh! May my Walk be Close With God," rendered with much feeling and sustained vocal power.

Upon ascending his pulpit the vicar cordially welcomed the assembled Woodmen, both for himself and on behalf of the church committee, and taking his text from Psalms 1st chap., 3rd ver, "And He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers ofwater that bringethforth his fruit in his season. His leaf also shall not wither, and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper." was remarkable for its simple direct force and its suitability to the religious occasion.

In brief the preacher stated the presence of the lodge at divine worship, was amongst other things a recognition of the churches importance as a sacred institution guarding the lives and morals of the people, he referred to the merits of the Canadian Order Woodmen of the World, as a fraternity operating for the protection of the home and providing for the welfare of the bereaved and the orphaned. Reference too was made to themonument feature of the Order. It was beautiful so to mark the grave of the departed Woodman, but, urged the preacher—be active also in welldoing to each other during life. Every day do some good act, day by day let us love our neighbor as ourselves. Every man should be as a good tree and his life should bring forth good fruit.

Addressing the Woomen and taking as an illustration a forest as a beneficent and active force in nature, the reverend gentleman urged the Woodmen likewise to make of themselves—"a resovior of good that should permeate society with benefits." Continuing the preacher spoke for purity in thought, never allow badness to control the mind, but let all strive to live pure, upright and useful lives.

Those grandly inspiring hymns—"Rock of Ages" and "Eternal Father Strong to Save" was sung by the choir and congregation at the close of the service.

Upon reassembling in the lodgeroom Sov. R. Tapping moved, second by Sov. WlD. Armstrong, that a vote of thanks be tendered Rev. C.A. Procunier for the sermon, the same being worthily endorsed by all present.

Con. Com. Sov. James McIntyre, then dismissed the meeting.

TEN YEARS OF PARTY GOVERNMENT

New Westmioster, June 9—The conclusion of ten years of party government in British Columbia under the leadership of Premier Sir Richard McBride was celebrated in New Westminster, the birthplace of the Premier, on Monday evening. A mass meeting was held in the Horse Show Arena at Queens Park which was attended by 5,000 people. Interesting addresses were delivered by Sir Richard McBride Hon. W. H. Ross, minister of lands; Hon. Dr. Young, minister of education and provincial secretary, and Hon. A. E. McPhillips, president of the council. Hon. W.J. Bowser, who was on the program to speak, was unable to attend owing to illness. Hon. Thomas Taylor, minister of public works, was also absent as he in on his way to England.

"Tomorrow we celebrate the anniversary of the birth of King George. How proud and happy we would feel were we able to say to His Majesty tomorrow morning:— 'Here is a gift from Canada of three Dreadnoughts—three ships of the line, to be used wherever they may be needed in defence of the Empire.' I do not believe it is the will of the people of Canada that King and Empire should be deprived of these ships but rather through the accident of the Senate, I think the people of Canada may be safely left to deal with the upper chamber so soon as proper opportunity offers to prevent a repetition of the national calamity perpetrated the other day by the Senate under the leadership of Sir George Ross."

In this manner Sir Richard McBride Premier of British Columbia, referred to the action of the Canadian Senate in turning down the Borden naval bill He expressed the opinion that when the views of the people of Canada was sought they would be found prepared to back up Premier Borden and his proposal of a Canadian contribution to aid in the defence of the Empire.

"The time has come," said Sir Richard, in speaking of the Naval Bill,—"when we should do our part in the defence of the Empire. Never before have we been given an invitation to assist and if an invitation is not strong enough it is a sad and sorry day for Canada. We have been accused of 'flag-waving' whenever reference is made to our flag and country. Well give me the man who waves the flag every time to the man who scarcely ever hoists it. Let us teach our boys and girls and men and women what our flg means.

"I am sure that if the people of British Columbia had to settle the naval question it would have been adjusted long ago and the keels laid for those battleships. I am satisfied that when the people ofCanada are called upon to vote on this question, there will be stronger support behind premier Borden."

Reference was made to past years, when Great Britain stood behind Canada as she does today. Canada turns to England for financial aid in developing her vast resources and the speaker considered it but right that Canada should be willing to contribute to the defence of the treasure chests in London town. The recent Liberal convention at Revelstoke had passed a resolution supporting Sir George Ross' resolution regarding the naval bill, but the Premier thought that outside the Liberal convention Sir George Ross would not find a corporal's guard in British Columbia to back him up.

Sir Richard then briefly reviewed some of the outstanding events in the political history of the past ten years He touched on the period of depression when he became Premier in 1903, and told of the early struggles of his administration to improve conditions and place the Province on a sound financial basis. Taxes had been increased and expenses cut down, when he introduced party government in British Columbia, in spite of a small majority. So successful had the policy of the government been that they had every time since been returned to power, with increased majorities, until now the opposition had almost entirely disappeared. Today British Columbia ranks very high in the money markets of the world.

The vigorous railway policy of the government was dealt with at some length. The Canadian Northern Pacific had been assisted in building a line to the Pacific coast through Brit-

WEDDING BELLS ARE RINGING

The wedding of Miss Mary Irene Poyer and Mr. Leonard A. Howson to be celebrated this afternoon at the Howson residence, McKenzie avenue, will be an event surrounded with more than the usual local interest.

The bride is the charming only daughter of Mrs. Ida Poyer Maxon, of Bradford, Pa., and has made a large circle of friends in this district where she has resided for some years; the groom, in addition to being the popular son of one of Revelstoke's pioneer business men, possesses the added distinction of being a genuine Revelstokeian, in fact the very "first" native son, for he was the first boy born within the limits of our fair city.

Whilst many worthy sons of Revelstoke have sought and found fame and fortune in distant fields, Len has always stuck closely to his old home town, and is today one of our leading young businessmen, taking an active part in the affairs of the well-known firm of R. Howson & Co., which business was commenced by his honored father now Alderman Howson, in those early days when the foundations of Revelstoke were being laid.

The very many friends of the young couple, and citizens of Revelstoke generally both old boys and new, will join with the Mail-Herald in wishing the bride and groom a long and prosperous married life.

A full report of the happy event will appear in our Saturday issue.

June Wedding

At Rosendale, B.C., the home of the bride's sister, a quiet wedding was solemnized last Wednesday, June 4th, when Miss Minnie D. Hastie, formerly of Creako, Nova Scotia, became the bride of Mr. R.R. Hodson, of Revelstoke. The happy couple left on a trip to Victoria and to visit friends in Nanaimo. Mr. and Mrs. Hodson are expected back the last of this week and will make their home for a time with Mrs. English, the bride's mother on Boyle avenue.

Mr. Hodson is the obliging baggage master of Revelstoke depot.

Pretty Wedding

A pretty wedding ceremony took place on Monday, June 9th, at 9p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Macdonald, when Mr.Robert McMillan Johnstone, of Golden B.C., son of Mr. John Johnstone of Glasgow, Scotland, was united in marriage to Miss Jessie Don Robertson, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Robertson of Dundee, Scotland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W.C. Calder.

Mrs. C.R. Macdonald assisted the bride who looked very pretty in her travelling suit of navy blue cloth, and Mr. Harry Robertson of Golden brother of the bride, supported the groom.

After a dainty wedding supper, to which fifteen guests sat down, Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone left on the midnight train for Glacier and Banff.

Mr. Johnstone is a nephew of Mrs. M. Corley, of Third street, west, and holds the position of accountant for Mr. W.A. Warren of Golden, at which place they will reside.

WALTER BEWS, Treas.

In the history of the Methodist church of Revelstoke this is the first time a clean sheet has been shown as all debts are wiped out. This is highly creditable to the church workers here. The church annex which is not an item of the balance sheet was erected at the expense of Mr. C.F Lindmark and was an item of some $561. This is another of the many kindnesses shown by this worthy member.

The fine showing of this balance sheet is largely due to the energetic services of Mr. Walter Bews, secretary treasurer.

CHURCH UNION DEBATE

Toronto, June 6—After spending the day discussing church union with the greatest display of feeling and interest shown in the general assembly, that body adjourned this afternoon with the understanding that all Saturday morning would be devoted to the matter and that a vote would not be taken until Monday morning at the earliest. From all indications, it would appear that there are scores of members of the assembly who are anxious to be heard and there is no apparent possibility that the assembly would be ready for a vote tomorrow if the body had not decided that a decision would not be reached until Monday. From a slight canvass made of the commissioners today it would appear that the assembly will divide pretty much as the church divided, when the vote was taken a few years ago. Out of every 10 commissioners it appears that on the average there were three against and seven for the change. About one in 10 are considered irreconcilable.

The evening meeting was given over to the discussion of the foreign missions of the denomination, all business matters being dropped. The moderator presided and a number of active workers on the field told their stories.

Two reports were presented from the union committee, a majority report favoring the change and a minority asking for delay.

OF INTEREST TO CATTLE RANCHERS

Cattle raisers in almost all parts of Canada are familiar with the small lumps that appear on the backs of their animals during the winter months and from which white grubs or maggots emerge at a later date. Many thories exist as to the exact life history of the insect, known as the Warble Fly, of which the white grub is the larva. The opinion generally held that the eggs are lain on the backs of the cattle, and when hatched work their way beneath the skin, is proved by careful investigation to be incorrect. Dr. Seymour Hadwin, first assistant Pathologist of the Health of Animals Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, who has studied the subject, claims that the eggs are not laid on the back but on the legs of the cattle. This appears to bear out the theory that the newly hatched insects are licked by the animals and thus taken into the system and ultimately find their way to the backs where they develop beneath the skin.

The matter of chief importance to the cattle raiser is not the exact course taken by the insect within the body of the cattle beast but rather the economic effect of the grubs upon the business of cattle raising. To throw light on this phase of the subject Dr. Hadwin has written a bulletin, which is numbeced 16 of the Health of Animals Branch, dealing with the economic aspect of warble flies. In this it is shown that enormous losses occur each year through damage to hides caused by these insects. Tanners consulted on the subject claim that during the "grubby season," extending from January to July from 25 to 75 per cent of hides are warbled and that about 50 per cent of Canadian hides are more or less damaged. The extent of damage is variously estimated by 16 large tanners to be from about 50 cents to $1 per hide; the estimate of one Ontario tanner was 10 per cent which is equal to $180,000 per annum. The author observes that the man who undoubtedly loses is the farmer; the tanner does not want warbled hides at any price, and several of them testify that they buy hides only during the season when hides are not grubby. He estimates the annual loss to be between 25 to 50 per cent.

This bulletin of twenty pages, which is the first to have been issued on the subject in Canada, is helpfully illustrated. Copies will be mailed in response to applications made for it to the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

WOOD LOTS FARMER'S ASSET

With the increasing inaccessibility of the forests and the consequent high price of wood, the small wooded areas common on the farms of eastern Canada are also increasing in economic value. They frequently occupy soils unfitted for agriculture and with a little care can be made to furnish the farmer with a continuous revenue in fuel, fence-posts, rails, poles and structural timber.

Unfortunately these wood-lots are frequently allowed to deteriorate thru carelessness or lack of knowledge on the part of the farmer. He takes great care to farm his agricultural lands to the best advantage, but often fails to realize that by farming his wood-lot with the same care, he could get the same increase in productiveness. Cattle and weeds are not permitted in a wheat-field, yet in the woodlot the cattle range at will, and instead of removing the weed-trees, the farmer allows these to increase in numbers, removing only the trees best suited to his purpose.

To save the farmer from himself, the Dominion government has appointed a technical forester with head-quarters at the Forestry Branch, Ottawa, whose principal duty is to answer all inquiries, and give advice on these matters. If necessary, arrangements can be made for a personal inspection of woodland properties by this expert No conditions are imposed on the owner of the woodland, it being assumed that he who is anxious for advice will accept it when given. The expert looks over the stand, determines what species of trees are best suited to the soil and to the local market, shows how to improve the character of the crop and its rate of growth byproper thinnings, and, if desired, gives advice regarding tree-planting, hardwood coppicing, felling-methods and the most profitable sizes to be grown.

Further information on this subject can be obtained by writing to the Forestry Branch, Ottawa.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS.

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-west Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10.00 an acre.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal sub-divisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each applicant must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to the Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

REID & YOUNG

The great "Columbia" river these days presents a fascinating spectacle, well worthy of more than a passing glance from the citizens of Revelstoke whose homes are perched high upon its banks. Through fall and winter, the world's seventh largest river lay dormant, a sinuous serpent of low muddy water, sluggish amid ravines of ice and snow.

With the advent of springtime warm th and sunshine, the sleepy snake awoke to new life, and now, stirred by summer sultry heat, it is swelling into a ravenous gigantic octupus. Fed from the ten thousand icefields and snowy peaks of the backbone of the continent, rushing waters sweep down the hillsides, finding their nearest way by rill, stream and river, into the great parent artery.

The thrill of a leaping jumping life inflates the swollen veins through which the snows of a long drawnout winter freed at last, swirl in mad one month dash to the Columbia and the sea. Today sees almost high water; its tentacles filled to bursting point twisting and twining over the vast area of watershed, spreading out into mighty lakes, roaring through fathomless canyons, tearing over cataracts, hurling overwhelmingly in rapids, the Columbia river forces its way like a liberated giant, resistlessly thru British Columbia, crosses the border, to find a rest at last through atwenty mile wide estuary at Portland Or., in the peaceful depths of the Pacific ocean.

In 1894, so oldtimers say, the river broke all records rising to a height and fury never before or since experienced. This spring everything points to another similar flood. The bosoms of our mountains still show white with the thick coverings of congealed moisture accumulated during a winter unparalleled these twenty years for its weight of the seasons downfall. After a cold spring, comes the sudden warmth of an early summer. With the hills full of aqua in suspension, the water today stands well above the highest point to be expected in normal times. Settlers along the lakeside are even now anxiously watching the rising flood and preparing to move at short notice onto the hillsides, with their families and valuables.. And still the rushing waters show no signs of abatement, hour by hour the licking waves creep up the guage, with still seven feet to go ere touching the mark of disastrous '94.

Standing on the big bridge at Revelstoke, even the most unimaginative of humans is under the spell of the mighty stream, and gazing at the rising relentless tide, becomes lost for a while to his surroundings, fascinated by the wondrous spectacle presented "when Columbia-s Waters rise"

Dropped in the Mail-Herald Post-Box

Editor Mail-Herald—

It was with a great deal of interest I read the letter signed "Sufferer" in your issue of June 7th, regarding cow stables and dairies in the city limits and especially in and near residential districts.

This is a matter that needs immediate attention, especially as the hot weather is rapidly approaching. Last year the wrier had a friend staying at the house whose intention was to make a visit of a month's duration. During this time the hot weather was on and as the house was about a block away from a large cow stable, the smell was quite bad on that side of the house. To make a long story short, as the guest's room was on the stable side of the house our friend stayed only ten days instead of a month the wind carrying in an odor through the open windows making her quite ill. The writer cannot see why the city should allow this nuisance to continue when there is a bylaw, No. 15, I believe, regulating the matter.

Thanking you for your valuable space, Mr. Editor, I remain

CLOSING SCENES IN PARLIAMENT

Ottawa June 6.—The second session of Canada's 12th parliament, in many ways the most remarkable since Confederation, came to a dramatic conclusion today. Prorogation day is usually quiet, the chief interest attaching to the military display which marks the closing ceremonies. Today the developments and discussions so interesting that the fuss and feathers were practically forgotten by those closely associated with the proceedings, although the populace turned out in considerable numbers to see Deputy-Governor Fitzpatrick 6arrive with the usual escort. They were scattered shortly after by a sharp downpour of rain.

The most interesting development occurred at the morning sitting when there was a sharp final debate on the naval bill and a pronouncement by Premier Borden as to the future action of the government in view of the fact that the naval bill had been killed. Mr. Borden announced that, assuming that the cable despatches stating that Mr. Churchill proposed to build three additional ships, is correct, parliament would again be asked to vote the $35,000,000 and the ships would be purchased for the use of his majesty. Mr. Borden was severe in his comments on the action of the senate.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in his reply, said that the senate had acted within its constitutional rights, and had really protected the people by refusing to pass a bill put through the house by a servile majority. He declined to take seriously Mr. Borden's references to senate reform, because he said Mr. Borden did not propose to act along constitutional lines. He was going to be governed by the action of the members of the upper house. If they were good and did as he wanted them to do nothing would be done to them. Sir Wilfrid affirmedthat the Liberal policy was for a Canadian navy, and he challenged the prime minister to take the issue to the people.

Hon. W. T. White, who followed, asserted that the Liberal leader was not serious when he asked for an election. He intimated that owing to the existing financial conditions it was not desirable to have an election at this time. The debate was continued by Hon. L. P. Pelletier and E. M. Macdonald. The former said he had been convinced while in London last summer that Canada should do something to aid the mother country. Mr. Macdonald asserted that the government was trying to enforce a policy which would mean that for all time Canadians must do as ordered by the officials of Downing street

At the short afternoon session there was a short discussion on white slave traffic. Mr. Borden promising that the government would do everything in its power to lessen the evil.

Messages were received from the senate declining to accede to the request of the commons, that the amendment to the highways and intercolonial railway branch lines bills should be withdrawn. This means that both bills are killed.

At twenty minutes to four o'clock, when the house had finally closed its deliberations, a surprise was sprung by the Hon. W. Pugsley, who rose in his place and asked the finance ministerwhat he meant when, in the course of his naval speech, he said stated that the condition of affairs in the country did not demand an election. Did he mean that the financial condition of the country was in a serious condition? Mr. White stated that he meant no such thing; he meant that the condition of affairs of the country were so favorable to the Conservative party that the leader of the opposition did not want an election.

Sir Wilfrid—I want an election and I can tell the finance minister that I will open the campaign in Toronto.

Mr. White—The leader of the opposition always gets a courteous hearing in Toronto, but on vote getting he is always short. He will not get many if he pursues still further his naval policy.

Mr. Pugsley continued that if the Conservative party had confidence in the electorate they should dissolve parliament, and then if they came back with a clear mandate the senate would quash their naval bill amendment.

R. B. Bennett, Calgary, enlivened matters by breaking in on the member from St. John by askng him to resign his seat in St. John, and he would do the same in Calgary, and so test the feeling of the electorate.

Mr. Pugsley would not accept, as he stated that the senate would not regard such an expression of opinion as a mandate from the people. He continued by asking Mr. White what he meant by saying that providence was on the side of theConservative party. Did he mean by that in a short time vacancies would occur in the senate, and when they did they would come with a Conservative majority in the house, and that justice would be done to the empire?

Mr. Pugsley then diverged on the question of the financial state of Canada, saying that it had not been so bad for 20 years. The reason lay in the excess of imports over exports

Arthur Meighen asked how could we cure it.

Mr. Pugsley—By larger markets.

The ex-minister of public works again took up the navy question and was in the midst of an eulogy of Canadians as fighting men in comparison with others, when the black rod from the senate arrived on the scene.

Mr. Hazen created a roar of laughter by preventing the black rod from proceedings for a moment as he endeavored to reply to the ex-minister of public works.

The Hand That Moves The Lever Saves 16 2-3 Per Cent. of Your Coal Bill

Here is the opportunity for the housewife to deal the high cost of living question a hard jolt without any effort on her part.

The way is to make sure that her new range is controlled by a Gurney Economizer, which will save 1 ton of coal in every 6 burned in an ordinary range.

The Economizer is to the stove what the control lever is to the engine or automobile. Without control neither is efficient.

With the Gurney Economizer it is possible to quickly vary the heat of the oven. Various foods require different temperatures. The Economizer keeps this desired temperature absolutely uniform.

It also means that when cooking is over, you may have a cool kitchen and still have your fire going—while you can have the fiercest heat in a few minutes by a slight pressure on the lever.

If you possess a Gurney-Oxford your advantages are innumerable. The Divided Flue means heat for every hole on the stove. The New Special Grate guards the lowest fire. The Broiler exposes every inch of the coals.

These features are exclusively "Gurney-Oxford."

It will furnish your kitchen handsomely—it will do your work adequately.

TEN YEARS' PARTY GOVERNMENT

ish Columbia, making another transcontinental link. Vast stretches of new and fertile country were being opened, and the line when completed, would be one of the best in America. He had recently taken a trip over the line from New Westminster to Spuzzum. By late September the railway would be built from the Pacific coast up the Thompson river for 100 miles, and by early spring next year would be finished. New Westminster, along with other sections of the province, would benefit greatly. Competition among railways was needed, and already the C.P.Rf was showing signs of greater activity in British Columbia.

The Pacific Great Eastern would be another big factor in the development of British Columbia. This line, which is now under conltruction, would open that rich territory lying between here and Fort George and beyond. Within eighteen months trains would be running between Lillooet and the coast and the suggestion was made that in time the Canadian and United States governments might unite to extend this railway line through Northern British Columbia into Alaska.

Sir Richard expressed the opinion that if the Liberals through their party organs would cease their snarlings and carpings at the present government they would more readily gain sympathy and support. He made reference to the government land policy and education system dealt with by other speakers and to other departments of provincial expansion. Tribute was paid to the heads of the various departments and to the members of the House and his supporters at large who had assisted him during the past ten years. A reference was made to the lull in real estate circles at the present time and the Premier expressed the opinion that it would prove a wholesome period. Industrial life in British Columbia was never healthier, lumbering, mining and fishing were flourishing.

In conclusion he thanked the New Westminster Conservative Association for having arranged this celebration, at the close of ten years of bisadministration and expressed the hopes that the future might hold in store even bigger and better things for British Columbia than had the successful past.

POPULAR COUPLE WEDDED

"What is so rare as a day in June, then, if ever come perfect days, then Heaven tries the earth if it be in tune and over it softly her warm ear lays, whetherwe look or whether we listen, we hear life murmur, or see it glisten."

One of the most perfect of these June days, Wednesday, June 4th, shone over a beautiful marriage ceremony, when Miss Mabel Louise Hay became the bride of Mr. Neil Angus Ross. The wedding was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hay, at "Willow Creek Farm," which at this season of the year is looking its loveliest. Garden and orchard were fragrant with their annual wealth of blossoms, and a lilac hedge in full bloom perfumed the lawn with its rich odors.

At one-thirty to the strains ofMendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Mamie Fleming, the bride appeared leaning on the arm of her father. Dressed in cream silk poplin, trimmed with silver embroidery and lace and carrying a spray bouquet of white carnations she appeared a perfect picture of brunette beauty. Her younger sister, little Frances Hay, dressed in white and carrying a basket of pansies made a dainty flower girl Miss Ida Claire Hay (Jessie) acted as bridesmaid and was also a pretty picture. They took their places beside the groom, who accompanied by Mr. H. Mulholland, as groomsman, awaited them, before a blossoming crab-apple tree, which had been planted by the bride herself when she was a little girl.

Rev. W.C. Calder performed the ceremony. The bridal party with their background of blossoming trees and far distant snow clad mountain peaks made so lovely a picture that Mr. Tucker the photographer, took a photo of them while the rites were being spoken. Another picture was taken of the bridal party and guests, about 40 in number, and then all adjourned to the house where the tables were discovered spread with a splendid wedding breakfast. The bride's cake was particularly admired, five storeys of delicious cake made by Mrs. Hay and beautifully iced by Hobson & Co.

Rev. Mr. Calder proposed a toast to the health and happiness of the bride and groam to which all present heartily responded. The bride then cut the cake and Miss Fleming and Miss Young cut the ices.

Shortly after three o'clock the happy couple left in the automobile for the west-bound train amid a perfect shower of rice and "lucky" old shoes. The bride looked very handsome in a travelling suit of navy blue with a whiteleghorn hat. They have gone to the coast cities for their honeymoon trip and will be away for a couple of weeks, after which they will take up their residence on Seventh St. where Mr. Ross has recently purchased Mr. Crick's house.

The groom's present to the bride was a handsome silver table service, on a silver tray. To the bridesmaid, he gave a gold bracelet, and to the groomsman a pair of I.O.O.F. cuff-links. The following list of presents give some idea of the popularity and esteem in which this young couple are held:

New Methodist Minister

Rev. Lashley Hall arrived in town last Saturday afternoon from Vancouver, and occupied the pulpit at both services on Sunday. In the morning address he spoke on "The Place of the Christian Ministry." The evening sermon delivered to a large congregation on the subject of "Some Unnecessary Fears of Man," was listened to with deep interest.

When interviewed this morning by our reporter Mr. Hall expressed himself as delighted with the scenery of the city and was surprised a place so charmingly situated as Revelstoke is not more widely celebrated as one of the most ideal tourist resorts in America. He was assured that much is being done along that line and that great development will be noticed in the near future.

Mr. Hall sees maay changes since the date of his first visit in 1894 when he held services in the old church on the river bank.

Mrs.Hall will not arrive until after the W.C.T.U. convention next week in Vancouver and in the meantime while the parsonage is being renovated, Mr. Hall is the guest of Mrs. Walter Bews

BEGGAR PRINCE COMING

Among the members of the Beggar Prince Opera Company, which appears here June 17th at the Empress theatre, the following galaxy of talent will participate in exploiting the merits of this popular melange of music, mirth and melody. Miss Bertie Palmer, a cousin of the famous generation of singers, is the proud possessor of a magnoficent soprano voice and she knows how to use it to the best of advantage.

Although Miss Palmer has been trained to sing in higher grade of music, she is not adverse to rendering the more modern style and introduces with tefling effect such songs as "Every Woman's Eyes," "Because, Because," and others.

Mr. L. Barton Evans, the wonderful baritone singer, is another grand opera singer, who has forsaken that high plane, for the environment of comic opera, and interpolates as such numbers as "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold," and others equally as popular.

The jaded play-goer who has been surfeited with musical comedy which hardly professes to do more than exploit a single waltz tune will always welcome a comic opera, Anyone of the twenty singing numbers would in itself be sufficient to insure the success of the so-called opera nowadays and it is hard to believe that so many popular melodies could be heard during the course of one play.
