

THANKSGIVING DAY JOYFULLY OBSERVED IN REVELSTOKE

Bountiful Turkey Supper in Y.M.C.A. is Largely Attended—Service at Methodist Church in Evening—Appropriate Sermons Preached at All Sunday Services

The Thanksgiving day holiday was universally observed in Revelstoke on Monday. The feature of the day's celebration was the annual turkey supper at the Y.M.C.A. at which in the evening 264 persons were served with a bountiful and appropriate feast.

The day was somewhat chill, which lessened the number of hunting parties and outdoor excursions, but many family gatherings took place and quiet enjoyment was the order of the day. In the evening a joint Thanksgiving service took place in the Methodist church at which the congregations of St. John's and the Methodist churches combined. The Y.M.C.A. was thronged all day, and in the evening large crowds attended the moving picture theatres.

Sunday was a perfect autumn day. The sun shone brightly and there was an invigorating crispness in the atmosphere. The note of Thanksgiving was sounded in all churches, and appropriate sermons were preached. The service at St. Peter's church was attended by Kootenay Masonic lodge which marched in a body to the church in the evening from the Masonic temple.

Thanksgiving and a voice of satisfaction was heard throughout the city on Monday when the crowds who attended the annual Thanksgiving supper at the Y.M.C.A. given by the Ladies Auxiliary rose from the feast spread for them. "Bigger and better than ever," may truly be said of the event this year. Two hundred and sixty-four people were served and bountifully so, by Mrs. T. Kilpatrick and her efficient staff of helpers. Four tables stretched the entire length of the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium and these were a thing of beauty when the doors were opened and the first crowd filed in to take its seats. With the shining napery, gleaming silver, lighted candles and decorations of flowers, autumn berries and foliage, they were a speaking tribute to the artistic taste of those who had their preparation in hand, and their load of tempting viands upheld the already enviable reputation along culinary lines enjoyed by the ladies of Revelstoke.

The children's table was in charge of Mrs. Downs and no happier, better satisfied crowd of youngsters could have been found in the Dominion last night than those under her kindly and generous care.

The other tables were in charge of Mrs. Lyons, Mrs. C. R. Macdonald and Miss Raymond, assisted by a number of young ladies who left nothing to be desired in the way of attention and service to the guests present.

In the heavier and more arduous but none the less necessary work, material assistance was given by A. Thomson and his staff and several members of the Y.M.C.A.

While the supper was in progress several much enjoyed piano solos were rendered by Mr. Brand, the new organist of St. John's church. After all "had eaten and were filled" the people seemed loath to depart and little groups of visiting friends were found all over the building and a social time was enjoyed.

On Monday from early morning till late in the evening the Y.M.C.A. building was the centre of much enjoyment. The bowling alleys hummed to the roll of the maples. Good scores were made, 256 rolled by J. Beley being the record of the day, and also for the season. His was a great game, rolling perfect strike balls each frame. This record will be hard to beat, but it has been excelled when W. Brunet of the Business men's team rolled 263 last season.

METHODIST CHURCH

Thanksgiving services in the Methodist church were well attended. On Sunday morning the pastor emphasized some grounds for thanksgiving, pointing out that man's doings put no bar on the freedom of action of God. The world was built in the divine unchangeableness on immutable foundations, which would be seen more and more when the smoke of battle clears away. He knows the worst and has allowed for it long ago. Here is the ground of man's hope and trust in time and eternity. The all glorious Creator is true to Himself, to His own magnanimity and mercy, always. Here is the guarantee that we shall not all be consumed together.

Continuing the theme of thanksgiving at night, the pastor made appeal to the truth that the coming of Christ had lifted everything to a higher plane, given a new conception of God, introduced a new spirit into the world. We recognise it at once—the Christlike, which does not push law aside but goes quite beyond; which can have dealings even with outlaws; which goes to the rescue and delivers from the assailant; which also disarms the assailant; which can and does use force, but seeks no one's hurt but good. Its distinctive feature is the sacrificing spirit, seen in Him who is the Way, the Truth, the Life. The direct antithesis to the spirit of the world which sacrifices others to itself, the Christlike sacrifices itself for others—and for the sinful and lost! This is hard for humans to grasp—putting the law of benevolence in the foreground and sacrificing self for others. Theme of the ages, theme of the angels, placing itself at the service of the miseries of mankind!

Special anthems were sung by the choir with much appreciation.

On Monday evening Messrs. Bell, Laing, Somerville and Paulding offered prayer in the union service, Miss Dickie presiding at the piano, and F. Paulding singing a solo accompanied by Mrs. Tournier. The Rev. J. W. Stevenson called attention to the things that God withholds as being additional reasons for thanksgiving. We were inclined to think of the creature comforts—the bountiful harvest, food and shelter, friends, our favored land, when given for our enjoyment, but to forget that God's goodness might also have a part in the sorrows and afflictions sustained.

Rev. W. L. Hall said that Canada was really better off today than a year ago, or at the height of the boom. Moreover, shining pages of history had been written which would never be effaced. Back of all was the Master Hand behind the scene, which makes all things, good and bad, work together for good—to those that love God. Prayers and addresses were interspersed with the singing of suitable hymns, including the Mariners hymn, and the service closed with the benediction.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

The Harvest Festival was held at St. Peter's church last Sunday. There were large congregations at both services and especially at evensong, as Kootenay Lodge No. 15, A. F. & A. M. attended service. In the evening the pastor, the Rev. C. A. Procnier, preached on the following text: "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." The brethren were cordially welcomed because the speaker was convinced that their purpose and motives were not for ostentatious display and advertisement but for communion and fellowship with God. In the final analysis this communion with God is the solid substratum of all religions, all the diverse creeds and liturgies, prayers and symbols are individual avenues leading to the "straight and narrow way" of communion with God, and because this order was founded upon the great fundamental principle, Truth. Sovereign truth yields the eternal sceptre over the minds and destinies of men. It is greater than wine, greater than women, greater than Kings. Magna est veritas et prevalebit.

Free Masonry is a mighty river flowing through a certain section of human life with its manifold blessings and advantages, whose source is unknown—hidden in mythological shadows of distant ages. It is a real form of symbolical morality which grasps at the greater truths and teaching of revelation so near and dear to the human heart. It teaches that God is not only, but also that He ought to be the same and sole object of earthly activity in extenso. It also teaches that man is an immortal with an everlasting destiny. And it also teaches that life is duty.

"I dreamed and thought that life was beauty, I awoke and found that life was duty."

Man must be a friend. Friendship

NO LICENSE TO PEDDLE FRUIT

Chinese Said to Retail Okanagan Fruit Without Pedlar's License—Market Taxes

At the monthly meeting of the Farmers' Institute held in Smythe's hall on Saturday evening complaint was made that Chinese peddlers are now buying Okanagan apples and are retailing them to householders without paying a pedler's license. It was contended that this was illegal and was also an unfair handicap upon the white ranchers.

A committee consisting of A. P. Levesque and H. J. McKinnon was appointed to wait upon the city council to ask for a rebate of taxes on the lot now used by the institute for the purposes of a public market. The market was reported to be serving a useful purpose. The sum of $58 is still owing on the cost of the building.

is founded upon love. Love leads to sacrifice. A friend is not a friend if he be not willing to make vicarious suffering for a friend—in short to die for another. Free Masonry teaches the supreme sacrifice. Should a brother's life be endangered it calls upon one to "lay down his life for his friends." Great heroic acts are instinctive as illustrated in attempts at life saving in fires and drownings. But anyone can be a hero then. It takes courage and character to manifest that selfsame spirit of sacrifice in small and insignificant things of every day life. After all, brethren, these are small things. When we think of our soldier sons and boys our hearts ache, yet they feel that morally and spiritually they are no better than others, yet they are willing to "lay down their lives" for others.

And on the other hand we feel confident that what Masons present and at large, are thankful for is that their principle of patriotism is realised in the great wave of imperialism which has swept over the British empire. Before the great war each colony was an entity by itself, but now the great pulse of the blood tide of Britain's heart is felt in every distant extremity of our great empire.

Another thing we ought to be thankful for is a partial victory, at least, over a great foe—selfishness. This tyrant has had his heel on our neck from time immemorial. Perhaps we have been taught that since man only lives once he has a reasonable right to as much pleasure, comfort and freedom as he can get. No matter what the state needs, my privilege is pleasure. The age said: "I live for myself, I thought for myself, for myself and myself alone."

But now it is different. We and our sons are willing to die for others. The state is supreme to individual selfishness. "Who dies if England lives?" Another thing we are thankful for is that the almighty dollar, so called, has taken its proper perspective in the picture of life. Money has been the god of this world, but it is not now. The lesson has been taught "Ye cannot serve God and mammon," and also the solemn admonition of the parable of the rich man whose ground brought forth plentifully and who thought within himself "what shall I do because I have no room to bestow my fruits?" And he said, "This will I do, I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods" and I will say to my soul, "thou hast much goods laid up for many years, take thou ease, eat drink and be merry." But God said, "Thou fool, this night shall thy soul be required of thee." And finally, we ought to be thankful that the "posture of our daily supplications" has become a vital necessity. Men, sailors, soldiers and civilians, are praying as they never have prayed before.

Let the Masons not only pray for one another but also for the noble and heroic men who are daily and momentarily laying down their lives for us in practical exemplification of the profound truth, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

For the first time in years the freight traffic of the C.P.R., in the Kootenay and Boundary showed an increase last month.

On the Sunnyside farm at Grand Forks 147 tons of prunes have been gathered from 9½ acres of plum orchard. One tree produced nearly 500 pounds.

CADETS FROM AUSTRALIA ARE GUESTS OF CITY

Entertained at Luncheon by Ladies of Red Cross Society—Welcomed at Station by Mayor and President of Board of Trade—Cadets and Boy Scouts Present—Entertainment This Evening

Stepping off the train and forming up smartly on the platform the lads from the land of the Southern Cross arrived in Revelstoke at noon this morning. They were welcomed by Mayor Foote and by T. Kilpatrick, president of the board of trade. A large crowd had assembled at the station in honor of the visitors from Australia, among those participating in the welcome being a Boy Scouts patrol and the high school cadets.

Led by a smart and youthful drum major and by standard bearers carrying the Union Jack, and the blue flags with the Southern Cross, the emblems of Australia, the Australian cadets with band playing inspiring patriotic airs marched to the rear of the station building where they were saluted by the high school cadets, who, under command of Capt. Walter McRae, had been drawn up to receive them. A procession was then formed, led by the Boy Scouts, at the head of which was borne a large Union Jack. The Australian cadets came next, behind whom marched the high school cadets in their khaki uniforms and carrying rifles. With band playing and flags flying the procession marched to the Y.M.C.A. where luncheon was served by the ladies of the Red Cross society. Three large tables had been arranged in the gymnasium and a profusion of good fare was provided.

The guests at the luncheon in addition to the cadets and their officers were Mayor W. A. Foote, T. Kilpatrick, president board of trade; H. J. McKinnon, president Patriotic fund; A. McRae, president Boy Scouts; Walter McRae, captain high school cadets; Lieut. William Hanson, instructor of cadets; A. S. Martin, scoutmaster; Mrs. H. N. Coursier, president Canadian club; Mrs. T. Kilpatrick, president Red Cross society; A. Thomson, secretary Y.M.C.A.; Major R. Palmer, Capt. Rose, Capt. R. Sawyer, Lieut. Swinford, Lieut. Malins.

The ladies of the Red Cross society who served the luncheon were Mesdames C. Holten, convenor; A. B.

McClennaghan, G. S. McCarter, W. H. Pratt, N. R. Brown, B. R. Blacklock, S. G. Robbins, B. H. S. McLean, C. A. Procnier, F. Cormier. The contributions of supplies were collected by Mrs. E. Corning.

At two o'clock this afternoon automobiles assembled at the Y.M.C.A., and the visitors were taken for a drive up the mountain. At the internment camp they were the guests of Capt. Rose and the officers of the 162nd regiment. On their return the cadets were taken to their billets in the city. Those who have arranged to billet the cadets are: Y.M.C.A., 3; Mrs. C. B. Hume, 2; Mrs. Ernest H. S. McLean, 2; Mrs. B. R. Atkins, 2; Mrs. Robert Godon, 2; Mrs. R. Howson, 2; Capt. Palmer, 3; Mrs. C. R. Macdonald, 2; Mrs. C. Lindmark, 2; Mrs. W. Baws, 2; Mrs. W. H. Horobin, 2; Mrs. Kincaid, 2; Mrs. J. W. Stevenson, 2; Mrs. Rob. Urquhart, 1.

The entertainment in the opera house will commence at 8 o'clock. An address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor W. A. Foote and a copy will be presented to Lieut. Simons. The address has been engrossed by Miss Busch of the city hall staff. It is tied with red, white and blue ribbon and each page is impressed with the seal of the city of Revelstoke. A new play "Called to the Front" will be presented and songs and gymnastic exhibitions will be included in a program which has everywhere been received with hearty praise.

The cadets will leave Revelstoke tomorrow at 7.35 a.m., and all baggage must be ready for collection by 6.15 a.m. The Army Service Corps, under command of Lieut. Swinford, has volunteered to collect the baggage and deliver it at the station.

W. H. Horobin and the high school cadets are in charge of the decoration of the opera house, R. Gordon has charge of the tickets and of the general arrangements for the entertainment. W. A. Smythe is in charge of the scenery and A. E. Kincaid will act as marshal of the automobiles in which the drive up the automobile road in the park will be given.

Funeral of Charles Jeffs Held Yesterday

The funeral of the late Charles Jeffs, Canadian Pacific railway engineer, who died suddenly in the Winnipeg General hospital on Friday afternoon, took place yesterday afternoon from St. Peter's church. Rev. C. A. Procnier officiating. The remains were brought from Winnipeg on Monday afternoon and taken to the undertaking parlors of R. Howson & Co. The funeral was held under the auspices of Gold Range Lodge No. 341, B. of L. F. & E., the pall bearers being Murray White, George Depford, T. J. O'Neil, E. A. Dixon, W. Falk and G. H. Goodwin.

Mr. Jeffs came to Revelstoke from Nelson and had lived here for 18 months. He had gone to Winnipeg in connection with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers convention. He leaves a wife and two children. Rheumatism was the cause of death. His two brothers, W. H. and Alfred Jeffs of Nelson arrived in the city on Monday to attend the funeral.

The Nelson News says: Suffering from inflammatory rheumatism Charles Jeffs died at Winnipeg last Friday.

Mr. Jeffs, who was an engineer in the employ of the Canadian Pacific railway company, was well known in Nelson, where he made his home for about 15 years, taking an active part in sporting activities of the city and playing on both the local lacrosse and hockey teams. Two years ago he moved from Nelson to Castlegar and later went to Revelstoke. He was a prominent member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

He was taken ill last February and was in the Kootenay Lake General hospital during the summer. He was about 35 years of age and leaves a widow and two children. His brother, Alfred Jeffs of Nelson, has gone to Revelstoke where the funeral will take place.

Famous Malamutes on Way to France

"Scotty" Allan, one of the best known Alaska characters from the time when the name "Nome" first became synonymous with the word "gold" arrived in Revelstoke this morning from Seattle bringing a pack of 196 Alaska dogs. "Scotty" and the dogs entrained for the east. He is taking the dogs by freight as far as Quebec where they will be shipped to France.

In the pack are the famous dogs known as the Allan-Darling team, twice winners of the all-Alaska sweepstakes in the great race held annually at Nome. The dogs in the string passing through here were for the most part malamutes with several halfbreeds; that is a cross between a malamute and some of the dogs brought north from the States.

Sure footed, cruel, tenacious, hardy and fleet of foot the malamute is essentially a northern dog. Having to travel long distances, often without food and facing blizzards and unbeaten paths have developed the malamute into the fierce, wild dog that he is. The malamute fights for what he gets from early puppyhood. He is cunning and cruel to a degree, being part wolf in his make up. The half breeds have finer characteristics than the full-bred dogs and often times prove more useful to their owners. Hector, Tracy, Judge, Kid, Bob and Tom are the veterans and the champions of the lot. These dogs have raced in seven or eight of the classic events between Nome and Candle.

The dogs are valued all the way from $25 to $100 apiece.

Among the Grand Forks fruit shipments this year are twelve cars of Italian prunes from the Sunnyside ranch.

The Okanagan selling agency booked orders for 100 cars of apples for Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.

IMPOSSIBLE SAYS OTTER

Telegrams Sent to Minister of Justice and General Otter—Military Arrangements

The following telegrams to the Minister of Justice and to Gen. Otter signed by the mayor and by the president of the board of trade were forwarded to Ottawa on Monday: Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, Ottawa.

Dear Sir: We have an internment camp of 200 prisoners located here engaged in building road in Revelstoke park (national.) This work will have to be discontinued for a short period in midwinter and Gen. Otter has wired that he has already arranged to transfer the camp to Field. Would point out that it will cost over $3000 for removal of outcrops, in addition to expense of construction of winter camps. If the camp is left here city will provide quarters in agricultural hall and buildings and give free water and light. Cost of moving men and arranging will only be a few hundred dollars. All these men could earn at Field during the short period there would be much less than the difference. If work is necessary at Field would suggest moving some of the unemployed aliens from further east and these would be available for work on park roads at Field next summer and save duplicate expense of transportation. Revelstoke climate is much milder than that at Field. Would like to point out that Revelstoke contributed over 500 men for active service at the front. None of them have been allowed to train here, while thousands have been sent to Vernon and Kamloops. Also contributed largely to the different war funds. The citizens feel they are entitled to same consideration as given other points and ask your support on our behalf to have camp left here.

Yours sincerely,
T. KILPATRICK,
President Board of Trade
W. A. FOOTE,
Mayor

The telegram to Gen. Otter is as follows:
General Otter, Ottawa

Dear Sir: Revelstoke has contributed over five hundred men for active service at the front, yet none of these have been allowed to train here while thousands of men have been sent to Vernon and Kamloops, and now it is proposed to put the government to the extra expense of four or five thousand dollars to move prisoners from here to Field and return, for a very short period of work at that point. This expense will amount to much more than prisoners can earn while at Field. If work at Field necessary why not move some of the unemployed aliens from eastern points, when they would be available for work on roads in park at Field next summer and save the duplicate cost of transportation.

T. KILPATRICK,
President Board of Trade
W. A. FOOTE,
Mayor

The following letter from Gen. Otter, confirming his telegram received here last week, has been received by Mayor W. A. Foote. The letter amplifies the former telegram: Ottawa, 6th October, 1915.

Sir: I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 26th ultimo by the hands of our Engineer at Revelstoke, Mr. Palmer, covering copy of a resolution by the council of your city offering the free use of the fair buildings, water, electric light, and employment for at least 20 prisoners during the coming winter, provided the present internment camp is permitted to remain there.

While acknowledging the generosity of this offer and expressing the thanks of the Hon. the Minister of Justice for such, I regret to inform you that arrangements have already been made for the removal of the personnel of this camp to Yoho park for the winter, where work has already been provided for them, and therefore it will not be possible to meet the wishes of your council.

I have the honor to be, sir,
Your obedient servant,
W. H. OTTER,
Major General, Commanding Internment Operations.
His Worship,
Revelstoke, B. C.

CANADA AND AUSTRALIA

The Australian cadets are today guests of the people of Revelstoke, and none could be more welcome. They are, in some sense, ambassadors from the great sister Commonwealth, a visible link between the Dominion which has produced the heroes of Festubert and St. Julien and the land of the Southern Cross, whose sons have covered themselves with glory on the Gallipoli peninsula. Their presence brings to mind the bond that exists between Australia and Canada, and the aspirations and duties that exist equally for the two great British Dominions. On the battlefields of Europe the sons of each land have poured out their blood in the empire's cause and in the cause of freedom, each has answered the call of duty, vying with each other in a noble rivalry. And when peace reigns once more Australia and Canada will still possess duties in common. With New Zealand, they will maintain British traditions on the Pacific ocean, and insofar as the visit of the Australian cadets fosters a closer fellowship between the peoples of the premier British colonies it is performing a service, not only to Canada and to Australia, but to the empire. Many opportunities for intercourse are yet hardly appreciated. Trade between Canada and Australia offers prospects of enormous and mutually advantageous development; today it is in its earliest beginning. Information in Canada as to the methods by which Australia is grappling with the problems which arise in a vast and partially developed land is far from as comprehensive as could be desired, and Australia lacks adequate news of Canada's experiences. Each could learn from the other. The cadets themselves are examples of an Australian experiment in national defence which is of peculiar interest to the people of the Dominion. The Australian system of military training has already done much to enable the Commonwealth to play the noble part which it has assumed in the great war. The cadet system enables every young man to fit himself to bear his share in the duty of defence, and facilitates the enlistment of an efficient expeditionary force when necessity arises; and this is secured without any of the evils of militarism, so justly dreaded in a free and democratic land. In this, perhaps, Canada has a lesson to learn from Australia. Already the University of British Columbia has provided facilities for somewhat similar training and the visit of the Australian cadets will give a tangible example of what the Australian system produces.

A TRIBUTE FROM SIR CLIFFORD

The annual report of the Commission of Conservation has been just received and gives a good idea of the valuable and varied work being performed for Canada by the commission under the presidency of Sir Clifford Sifton.

At the annual meeting of the commission, held in Toronto last January, a particularly interesting address on "Essential Features of a Successful Fire Protection Organization" was delivered by H. R. McMillan, chief forester of the department of lands in British Columbia. His address was followed by a tribute from Sir Clifford Sifton to the splendid work being performed by the McBride government in the protection of the forest wealth of the western province, a tribute which, coming from a former member of the Laurier cabinet, will no doubt be regarded by Liberals as an honest, disinterested and well considered opinion. Sir Clifford said:

"I wish to put myself on record as saying that while not an expert on the matter that has been discussed just now, it is perfectly clear that British Columbia is doing better than any other province in the Dominion at the present time in regard to fire protection and taking care of her forests. It is pretty clear that they are spending their time and their money and are working at the problem in a serious way. In connection with our own work they have shown the most liberal and reasonable spirit in co-operating with us. I had occasion to write to Sir Richard McBride and I expressed to him my thanks on behalf of the commission for the way in which his government has co-operated with us."

FROM THE SANCTUMS

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

Golden Star: Beginning with this issue The Golden Star passes under new control and management. It is the plan of the new management to make The Star not only the champion of the best interests of Golden but of the entire Columbia valley. To do this co-operation on the part of the public is as necessary as the talent and labor directed toward the accomplishment of our objective. A newspaper is what the public makes it, therefore we shall ask the public to co-operate not only with financial support, but by assisting in keeping the news columns alive.

TWO FAILURES.

Nicola Valley News: John T. Robinson, of Kamloops, Conservative candidate elect for Cariboo riding is now known to have two Liberal aspirants for the seat he seeks. One is Joseph Martin of Vancouver, and M. P. of the British house of commons; the other John P. McConnell, late Liberal candidate of the provincial riding of Yale, also late editor of the Vancouver "Sun." The latter is only too well known as a political adventurer, with a past such as even Cariboo Liberals respectfully are going without his services as official candidate. Mr. Joseph Martin is a personage widely acknowledged as an extremely able man, a clever lawyer, powerful speaker and ready debater, but a complete failure in politics.

WANTS LIBERAL POLICY CREMATED

Kamloops Inland Sentinel (Liberal)—Mr. Joseph Martin's candidature for Cariboo is duly being welcomed in some quarters, and it is significant to note that this genial tolerance does not come from where the interests of the Liberal party are much valued. But one of the oddest of blessings offered is contained in some remarks of the "Tribune" of Winnipeg. It opines that if elected it is inconceivable that Mr. Martin would "attempt to defend the misrule of Sir Wilfrid Laurier," or that he would countenance the continued neglect of the platform of 1894. It raises a profoundly interesting issue. Apparently Mr. Martin is expected to revolt against the one Dominion leader, and to be interested in Noah's Ark men and measures, as well as the methods of the past which modern opinion wants cremated.

A SERMON TO HUSBANDS

Cranbrook Herald: We are not a minister, or even the son of a minister, so pardon us if we make a dismal failure of our first attempt to preach a sermon. You will find our text in the Bible. It is not necessary to give the chapter and verse, but look for it. In brief it is this: Spend some of your evenings at home with your wife and children. If you have an amiable, gentle wife, surely your home must be a pleasant one, but if, from increasing cares or other reasons, she has grown fretful or sullen, who knows but a little more attention or kindness on your part might do a great deal towards the return of the amiability you so much admired in her girlhood. If you would stay at home oftener evenings, treating her with something of the old tenderness, making her believe, at least, that you are not wholly indifferent to her happiness, you would soon see a change for the better in your wife.

AT THE THEATRES

The balance of this week's program at the Empress theatre is above the average and tomorrow night "The Fakirs Ring" in 3 parts, also the "Diamond from the Sky" episode No. 15 will be shown. On Friday "The Troubadour" with Murdoch McQuarrie, a Mexican drama. Billie Ritchie in one of his best comedies "Love and Surgery" in 3 parts, Saturday and matinee "Captain Alvarez," a vitagraph masterpiece in 3 parts with Edith Storey. A fine picture of the Argentine Republic and a drama of thrills, war, love, and intrigue.

What is Doing in the Province

A 14½ pound turnip is being exhibited at Kaslo.

Mirror Lake ranchers report a splendid yield of potatoes.

Nelson growers will have an export of six carloads of fruit this year.

The alien internment camp at Fernie has been transferred to Morrissey mines.

To date 75 new residences have been built at Trail and several more are under way.

Trail has 50 Italian reservists and recruits awaiting the call home for active service.

There are 156 aliens in the internment camp just transferred from Fernie to Morrissey.

The Kaslo and district branch Red Cross society raised $1,197 during the year ending Sept. 30.

Starting on Friday last the curfew at Rossland is ringing at 8 instead of 9 o'clock these evenings.

For carrying the mail to and from the Natal postoffice and depot P. Zorath receives $300 yearly.

Lee Yuen, a Rossland Chinaman, is the first Chinese auto owner in the Kootenay. He runs his own car.

The Crow's Nest Pass Lumber company is shipping from eight to twelve cars of lumber per day by rail from Galloway.

During the year ended Sept. 30, Blairmore raised $966 for Red Cross purposes. 3,254 articles were shipped.

Among the exhibits at the New Denver fruit fair was an Alexander apple grown at an elevation of 3488 feet.

Interest is waning in the Phoenix home guard and the company is liable to disband.

Owing to war conditions the Invermere community finds itself entirely without the services of a medical practitioner. The nearest doctor is situated at Golden, 80 miles to the north.

PLANS GREAT HIGHWAY.

W. A. Maclean Wants Fine Road From Windsor To Montreal.

Mr. W. A. Maclean, head of the Highways Department of the Ontario Government, and a technical expert of the Ontario Good Roads Commission, which brought in the report at the last session of the Legislature outlining a scheme for the building of a comprehensive highway system in Ontario, is now succeeding in interesting some influential public bodies and leading good road advocates of Ontario in a plan for the construction of a splendid trans-provincial highway from Windsor to Montreal, and Ottawa, or some point on the Quebec boundary, with proposed branch lines.

The development of the plan is, of course, an exceedingly large undertaking, and as yet is only in the embryo stage, but in view of the almost complete development of railway transportation, and the immense sums of money which have necessarily been expended thereon, and in view of the successful issue to which Hydro-Electric development in this province has been carried, it would seem to follow that the next logical activity should be road transportation, which is demanded by the increasing population of the province, and the increasing need for good market roads and good main highways.

The estimated length of the proposed roadway in the Province of Ontario is about five hundred and thirty-five miles, and if constructed of permanent concrete or strongly macadamized, as the Toronto-Hamilton section is to be, will cost in the neighborhood of ten million dollars.

The proposed route of this roadway lies through the midlands of Ontario, presumably from Windsor through London, and Hamilton to Toronto, then follow the original Indian trail down the Kingston road and from there to the Quebec boundary, with a branch line to Ottawa.

While Ontario has some excellent roadways, they are nearly all located north of the district through which this road would be built, and frequent complaints are heard regarding the condition of roads along this proposed route, and the building of such a trans-provincial highway would form the backbone for a chain of better roads all across the province.

The location of this road would seem to serve the best purpose, following the line indicated previously, not only because it would lie through the most thickly-populated section of the province, but because there are a number of smaller sections of roadway already planned by municipalities along the route, which would form part of the finished scheme. The Toronto-Hamilton road, which is now well under way, would thus be made use of, as would the Ottawa-Prescott road which is being taken up very actively by citizens of Ottawa, and in the building of which the Government will assist. From the proposal to build a Toronto-Hamilton highway, the movement spread to Port Hope and Cobourg, where the citizens were interested in the construction of a lake shore system between those two cities. The project is now tak-

The smelter at Greenwood is treating 890 tons of copper ore daily now.

Tenders are called for the erection of a new one-room schoolhouse at Midway.

The sawmill at Jaffray is being operated with both night and day shifts at present.

Rossland's new Roman Catholic church will be opened for service on Oct. 31.

Fruit shipments out of Penticton this year will show an increase of 30 per cent over 1914.

So far this season 22 carloads of fruit have been shipped from Grand Forks to prairie towns.

Any surplus will be donated to the Patriotic fund, after the expenses are paid at the Greenwood fair.

Fernie Free Press: Percy Bean shot a beautiful silvertip in the mountains behind the Three Sisters yesterday.

Regular buyers of milk are now paying 12½ cents a quart for it at Rossland. If you buy only occasionally the price is 15 cents.

Fernie Free Press: Ten guards at the internment camp have been released this week on account of being over military age—45 years.

Misses Cummings, and Cattle of Robson are accused of catching a 40 pound char in Syringa Creek last week—the fourth big one this year.

Trail's hotel accommodation is proving inadequate for the amount of business offering. Hall room cots and even chairs have been necessary lately.

Robert Graf and William Casey have taken a contract to cut and deliver 2,000 car sticks for the Crow's Nest Pass Lumber Company of Wardner.

Two extra trains per week have just been put on to handle the increased output of ore between the Centre Star and Le Roi mines at Rossland and the Trail smelter.

ing shape not only as a scheme, but also practically, in the movements of different municipalities along the line. Representatives also of the townships between Toronto and Oshawa have held gatherings to consider the building of a road from Toronto. These roads mentioned, and others already planned, would be included in the trans-provincial highway by special arrangement.

The Government will make arrangements for maintenance, at least for a time until arrangements can be made for permanent maintenance.

The Mayor Was Mad.

Mayor Mederic Martin, who has been roaming the cities of the United States recently on a "smelling" jaunt, made his bow to the Board of Control upon his return in a towering rage. When Mederic was on the tour someone usurped some of his civic authority with disastrous results to his worship's temper. One of the first things that his eagle eye saw when he returned was the unadorned doors of the civic automobiles. Some one during his absence issued an order to paint the civic crest and big letters "City of Montreal" off the civic cars. Mederic was mad when he saw what had been done.

He made his attack first in the Board of Control.

"Who did that?" he demanded.

"Please, sir, I didn't," four controllers were quick to reply.

"Things have come to a pretty pass in this city when things like that happen when I go away. But I'll find out who did it, and then—" and he stormed until he was tired. So someone is going to join the unemployed of the streets if the mayor is a good Sherlock Holmes.

Bridge Builders to Go?

A scheme is being considered by the Militia Department for sending with the next Canadian contingent a strong engineering corps of experienced bridge builders and bridge repair men, as there is a pressing need for these in France and Belgium for such corps are wanted in large numbers to meet the damage done by the retreating armies. There are hundreds of excellent bridge builders in Canada available for this work and as there is a comparative cessation of railway building at present many skilled engineers, it is thought, will volunteer.

Whitefish In New Country.

With a view to developing the fisheries of Hudson and James Bays upon the completion of the Hudson Bay Railway and the establishment of a line of steamers from Port Nelson to the outside world, the naval service department sent three expeditions last summer to report on the fisheries of these northern waters. The party which went to the east coast of James Bay has returned and reports having found conditions north of the east Maine river excellent for establishing a white fish fishery.

At Penticton the local-made dairy butter sells at 40 cents a pound while the imported prairie article retails at 29 cents.

Tabloid Rations For Soldiers.

Each British soldier on active service carries in his kit a small package containing what is known as an "emergency ration."

The "emergency ration" is wrapped in a small package. When the emergency arises the centre band of the package is torn off and two small tin cans are disclosed. One can contains a quarter of a pound of concentrated beef and the other the same quantity of cocoa paste. The combination of the two foods is sufficient to maintain the strength of the average man for 36 hours, if consumed in small quantities.

The beef and the cocoa paste may be eaten dry but greater flavor is gained without loss of nourishment if the beef is allowed to simmer in water over a fire, and the cocoa paste be made into cocoa. The amount of beef in the tin will make two quarts of beef tea and the cocoa paste can be converted into the same quantity of cocoa.

Another Veteran Gone.

A Crimean veteran of the East Yorks Regiment, named McCarty, died recently at Aldrie, thus reducing by one the rapidly diminishing band of Crimean veterans. With his regiment he took part in every engagement before the dreaded Malakoff Tower, Sebastopol, and after months of hardship in the trenches, he with his comrades of the French and British armies at last took the batteries after a fearful bayonet assault. His honors were the British and Turkish medals with clasps, and the rare distinction of wearing his company's French Crimean medal.

Cost of Rat Destruction.

The destruction of rats costs the Presidency of Bombay a pretty substantial figure every year. On the recommendation of the advisory board of the Indian Research Fund Association, the Government has sanctioned the employment of Maj. Kunhardt, I.M.S., for another year at the cost of Rs. 58,000 (about $9,335) to carry on experiments in eradicating or mitigating the prevalence of plague by systematic rat destruction in the off season. The experiment will extend over four districts this year.

Crusade Against Mosquitoes.

Malaria is on the increase in Madras, India, and the Medical Officer has invited the co-operation of all residents of the Fort in preventing, as far as possible, the breeding of mosquitoes.

Ceylon's Offer Accepted.

Ceylon's offer to provide a contingent has been accepted by Lord Kitchener. The contingent will be used for service in Egypt. Ceylon will pay the cost of the transport.

Capt. N. H. Foulkes has been notified by the adjutant of the 107th regiment that the company located at Golden will be transferred to Nelson. The cause for the change is given that the company is not recruited to strength, and it is hoped by the transfer to accomplish this at Nelson.—Golden Star.

The Womens' Canadian Club having received word that the 54th battalion will probably be going overseas before the end of October request the help of any who are willing to help with the knitting of a pair of socks for each of the boys recruited at Revelstoke. Wool for this purpose may be secured from Mrs. S. G. Robbins or Mrs. J. D. Sibbald.

Orders are being sent out to the various officers in charge of the registration and the internment camps for alien enemies throughout the Dominion to prepare to place Bulgarians under the terms of the regulation dealing with those of enemy nations. Every effort will be made to prevent such men leaving the country so that no reservists may have an opportunity to get away. There are upwards of 25,000 Bulgarians in the Dominion, most of them being engaged as laborers.

Owing to the non-appearance of Alphonse De Feo of Revelstoke, when called upon to appear at the assizes at Nelson on Friday afternoon to answer to the charge of attempted abduction, the case was transferred to the next assizes. The charge is based upon information laid against De Feo by Domenico Maglio of Nelson to the effect that on Aug. 11 he endeavored to abduct a 16 year old girl from Nelson to Revelstoke by means of a letter, which was one of a series written to her by him. De Feo is at present out on $2000 bail. He has left Revelstoke and his whereabouts are unknown to the police.

This afternoon has been declared a civic half holiday in honor of the visit of the Australian cadets.

Among the guests at the King Edward hotel yesterday were W. H. Jeffs and Alf. Jeffs of Nelson.

Miss Marian Bostock, eldest daughter of Senator and Mrs. Bostock left Monte Creek on Monday for the Old Country.

The Y.M.C.A. gymnasium classes are now under organization. The ladies class scheduled for Wednesday evening will not be held this week on account of the visit of the Australian cadets to the city.

H. H. Currie, R. F. Irvine, Roy Stocks, R. Foley and Bassel Ivery of Nelson registered at the Hotel Revelstoke on Sunday. They left on Monday for Vernon to join the 54th battalion in which they have enlisted.

The death occurred on Monday morning of Mrs. Edward Seriana, wife of Edward Seriana of Revelstoke, at the age of 33 years. The late Mrs. Seriana had lived in Revelstoke for a number of years and leaves her husband and five children. The funeral was held from St. Francis church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. J. C. McKenzie officiating.

Word has been received that Capt. Marcus Pott, formerly of the Salmon Arm company of the 102nd R.M.R., but now of the 74th battalion, had been wounded and that Sergt. Swends formerly of the 102nd R.M.R., who left with the 30th battalion had also been wounded. Both of the men are well known in the district. Capt. Pott was in command of the detachment in which were the first Revelstoke volunteers.

Senator Hewitt Bostock of Monte Creek, leader of the opposition in the Senate, arrived in the city on Monday and yesterday morning went to Comaplix returning yesterday afternoon. Senator Bostock is owner of the Comaplix townsite and was also owner of houses burned in the recent fires at Comaplix. On Monday afternoon Mr. Bostock conferred with some of the local Liberal leaders and he was entertained in the evening by W. A. Anstie.

Plunging four hundred feet over a cliff on Moberley Peak, near Golden, L. G. Wyder of Moberley, was instantly killed on Friday last. Wyder climbed the peak on Thursday while hunting goat and, after killing two, returned to his home. On Friday he climbed the peak to secure his kill and started on the return journey. While endeavoring to negotiate an exceptionally dangerous ledge of rock he slipped and in an instant later plunged to the bottom of the canyon. Ole Oldberg, an experienced mountain climber, has been detailed by the provincial police to remove the body, which is wedged in a crevasse and difficult to reach. Wyder leaves a wife and six children. Two of his sons are somewhere on the prairies, working as harvesters.

Liberal Donations at Jam and Pickle Shower

The annual jam and pickle shower on behalf of the Queen Victoria hospital was largely attended and was productive of hundreds of bottles of fruit and pickles and other donations. Tea was served by Mesdames W. M. Lawrence, B. A. Lawson, E. W. B. Paget, R. H. Urquhart and H. H. Goddard, C. Holten and W. A. Foote. The list of donations was tabulated by Mrs. C. R. Macdonald while the floral decorations were provided by Maley's nursery and by W. H. Pottruff.

The ladies hospital guild wishes to express its thanks for the generous response to its request for jam and pickles and also to F. H. Young for cheque. Among the much appreciated

This Church Was Filled by Advertising

Rev. J. Richmond Craig, the pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, has trodden stony paths since his arrival some years ago in B. C. The story is related of an incident which occurred during Mr. Craig's incumbency at Princeton, B. C.

Mr. Craig was holding services in Princeton, and Sunday after Sunday he was faced with a very small congregation. Princeton in those days was not inclined strongly towards serious things and Mr. Craig was a trifle downhearted.

Jim Wright was at that time editor of the "Princeton Star," and Mr. Peck McSwain was superintendent of the mechanical department. Mr. Craig called at the Star office one day and told the editor and Mr. McSwain what his troubles were.

McSwain sat upon a stool setting type, chewing tobacco and smoking a cigarette. He turned to Mr. Craig and said, "Parson, you don't advertise, that is what is wrong," then Peck told him how he could fill the church every Sunday if he wished through the medium of the advertising columns of the Star.

Mr. Craig seized the suggestion. He and McSwain drew up a wonderful advertisement that week setting forth the following Sunday the new pastor would preach on Princeton's peculiar people and tell them what he knew and set forth the truth.

The advertisement took up nearly a page in the 'Star,' and was of a highly sensational character. The paper was issued, quite a sensation was caused through the Similkameen.

The following Sunday at both services the church was packed to the door, men being present who had never darkened the door of a church in years—and brother Craig was sent on his way to fame and one of the leading ministers in B. C.

Mayer of Kamloops in Automobile Accident

What must be considered as well nigh a miracle took place half a mile off the main Shuswap road on Sunday afternoon, when a large automobile driven by W. H. Stevens and accompanied by Mayor and Mrs. Crawford and the Misses Emily and Harriet Beattie, backed down a steep ravine and literally turned two complete somersaults without causing fatal results says the Kamloops Inland Sentinel. Mayor Crawford is a brother of Hogan Crawford of Revelstoke.

The party started out for an hour's after dinner run and it was not until after the river had been crossed that a destination was decided upon—a visit to the Harper Camp Ranch being chosen. After following the river about five miles due east, a steep road to the left, leading to the higher benches and thence to the ranch, is flanked on its left-hand side by a steep ravine. When about half a mile of the ascent had been made the car, for some as yet unexplainable reason refused to budge, and while in a vain endeavor on the part of Mr. Stevens to regulate the necessary levers the machine took a sverve to the right and the back down the ravine. At this moment the mayor, who was seated next to Mr. Stevens, rapidly took in the seriousness of the situation and promptly took some measure to scramble out which he, providentially accomplished, more or less successfully, landing near the top of the incline. It was from this eminence that he saw, what had every appearance of certain tragedy, enacted before him below. The car, to use the mayor's own words, literally turned turtle twice, and his feelings may be more easily imagined than described, when the other occupants were seen to be roughly deposited from the auto in its mad career down the hillside. Mr. Crawford, badly shaken up himself, acted with all promptness, and was considerably relieved when he found that the worst had not happened. Mr. Stevens was seen to be badly hurt and the rest suffering from severe shock and temporarily unconscious, from which state Miss Harriet Beattie, who received a nasty blow on the head, was the first to recover and gave Mr. Crawford all help in her power to remove her sister and Mrs. Crawford to the roadside, administering as much comfort as possible, until further help arrived was too much injured to be moved. It was obvious that Mr. Stevens until medical aid could be obtained. On arrival at the Royal Inland hospital an examination by Dr. Archibald revealed the fact that Mr. Stevens' shoulder was broken and that his foot had received considerable hurt.
