ADMIRAL HOTHAM Receives Plain Instructions to Interfere if the Chilean Rebels TRY TO BOMBARD VALPARAISO

MORE BEHRING SEA TROUBLE. Earl Clancarty Goes Down to the Grave Publicly Unregretted.

From the Far North. The St. Jean, Captain Porter, arrived at Nanaimo on Tuesday morning from Alaska to load 1,400 tons of coal for San Francisco.

AN INTERESTING BELLA. Yesterday morning a well known up on the hill, perceived the points of a large anchor just above the surface of the ground.

CITY POLICE COURT. A fair docket was disposed of by Mr. Atkinson at the City Hall yesterday morning.

THE RAILWAY DISPUTE. From reliable sources the information is had that the probabilities are the work of arbitrators in the Underbrook contract case, will be completed within a very few days.

ADMISSIONS. The infantile disease popularly known as measles, is unusually prevalent among children in Westminister at present, and in many households in the city there is one or more of the little ones down with the disease.

WAITING FOR PERMISSION. In the House of Commons today Mr. Bryce asked if the Government, in view of the fact that the Behring Sea bill was fixed for a second reading Monday, would distribute the latest papers about the negotiations with the United States.

NO SIBERIAN FEEL. The Earl of Clancarty goes to the grave without any public regret. His course towards Lady Dunlop before and at the time of the divorce trial made him extremely unpopular, and he is trying to earn his son's name.

THE LIBERALS IN PARLIAMENT ARE IN A QUANDARY over the Behring Sea question. Energetic protests have been called to Bryce and others from Canada, asking them to oppose the government.

STRAIGHT TALK. Prof. Goldwin Smith has a brief letter in the Times on Tupper's article in the Contemporary Review, specially dealing with the charge of the Conservatives that at the last election the Liberals formed a conspiracy to subvert British institutions in Canada.

NO TIME STATED. In the Commons today the bill prepared by the Government, prohibiting British subjects catching seals in Behring sea, for a certain period, was introduced.

A VILLAGE OFFICER. Mr. Footenack, has completed his investigation into the operations of the Oldbury Life Insurance Club, which was charged with offering at small rates unusually large premiums payable on the death of young children and husbands, in consequence of which it was reported that there was an alarming mortality among the children so insured.

POULTRY FARMING. Many residents of the upper city, it is noticed, appear to be making a business of cultivating few breeds of poultry. Some of the poultry yards in the city contain breeds of the most kind, from noted English and Eastern strains.

LIFE'S VITAL SPARK. Glimmers Very Low in the Heart of Canada's Political Chief. SIR JOHN'S CONDITION HOPELESS. The Physicians Say the Hemorrhage is Spreading to the Brain.

HE RALLIES AND SPEAKS. The Latest Bulletin Received Reports Him Resting Quietly. MONTREAL, May 29.—A cable from London says that at a meeting of the directors of the Grand Trunk and the Chicago and Grand Trunk, it was decided to reduce salaries under $750 per annum 5 per cent and those over that amount ten per cent.

HEAVY DUTY. It is announced that Sir Almo Antoine Durlin, chief justice of the Court of Appeals, is dying. He was minister of justice under the Mackenzie regime.

EARLY DISPATCHES last night stated that Sir John McDonald was not expected to live through the night. For the purpose of further allaying public anxiety relative to the Premier's condition, an additional bulletin was issued this morning. The following semi-official statement was made in the morning: Sir John never allowed himself sufficient time to thoroughly recover from the severe strain from overwork which he experienced during the election.

FAIR PLAY THIS TIME. Jack Keating, one of the directors of the Granite Athletic Association, has announced that the club has authorized him to offer a purse of $10,000 for a glove contest between Jack McAuliffe, champion light weight of America, and Jim Carney, champion of England.

MUCH INTERESTED. WASHINGTON, May 29.—Considerable interest is being manifested here over the proposed action of the British Government in prohibiting British subjects catching seals in Behring Sea during the coming season.

AN UNIMPORTANT STEP. ST. JOHN, N. B., May 29.—It is reported that Attorney General Blair has decided to dissolve the house in the fall, and appeal to the country to endorse the abolition of the legislative council.

IGNORANCE NOT BITES. A teamster driving up Sixth street hill yesterday with an extra heavy load on, gave a pretty fair sample of how much he didn't know about driving and handling horses.

VALPARAISO THREATENED. PANAMA, May 29.—Dispatches received here from Chile state that the insurgents contrary to their promise, now threaten to bombard Valparaiso. In view of these threats the defenses of the city are being hurriedly strengthened.
