EPISTLE OF PARNELL

To the Irish People of America at Last Made Public.

A STIRRING, PATRIOTIC APPEAL

Mrs. O'Shea's Charms, However, Prove Too Strong for the Irish Leader

AND HE RETURNS TO HER ARMS

O'Brien Gets the Worst of It in His Suit Against Salisbury.

LONDON, March 13.—Mr. Parnell made public his long expected manifesto today. The full text of the document is as follows: House of Commons, Friday, March 13. To the Irish people of America. Fellow countrymen—In 1880 and subsequent years, you assisted me powerfully by your influence upon American public opinion, and with your generous financial support, to create the great movement of the Land League. Without your aid so freely given and constantly maintained, Ireland could not for one moment have made headway against her oppressors; still less could she have attained the singular position of power and promise of success which she has occupied during the last five years. At the instant when victory seemed near and certain, the hasty and meddlesome interference of English politicians in the complex organization of our party, aided by a sudden movement among some young raw recruits, eagerly seconded by a few malcontent office-seekers and envious persons who crept into our ranks, temporarily destroyed the unity of our forces and sapped the independence of many Irish representatives. It now becomes my task to restore this unity and reconstruct our movement, lopping off all unsound materials, taking effectual precautions against the admission in future into our army of any weak, treacherous, self-seeking elements. Fortune has unveiled this danger and given space for this reconstruction, before the general election, and the disclosure has brought about a realization of the insufficiency of Gladstone's proposed solution of the situation to secure legitimate liberty, happiness and prosperity for your brothers and sisters in Ireland. This disclosure was an all-important one. The delegates, who at my request, are crossing the ocean to your shores are well qualified with experience, ability and patriotism to fully explain and defend my position, which all that is sound and reliable at home have assumed with me at this crisis. I commend them to your hospitality and I am confident that you will extend to them the most favorably reception and hearing. They are each and all well trained soldiers who have constantly distinguished themselves in our war against coercion and British misrule. Despite intimidation and influences of the most unscrupulous and far reaching character they have bravely defended me during the dark and trying moment. With a confidence even greater than in 1880, I appeal to you once more to assist Ireland to help me in securing a really independent parliamentary party so that we may make one more, even though it be our very last, effort to win freedom and prosperity for our nation by constitutional means. Your faithful servant, Charles Stewart Parnell.

AFFAIRS CHILIAN.

It is rumored in Buenos Ayres, that President Balmeceda of Chili has, as a resort to retrieve the government cause offered an amnesty to all rebels who desert. According to the government organ, El Provisо, the entire army of the government, with the exception of the Santiago garrison, has gone over to the rebel, Tarapaca, and the whole of Southern Chili is now under the control of the revolutionists, who, it is expected, will ask the European powers to accord them belligerent rights. In this way they hope to prevent the despatch of vessels of war and ammunition to Chili.

DISPUTED LOBSTER FACTORIES.

The Blue Book on Newfoundland shows that Lord Salisbury proposed an arbitration covering the whole scope of French rights, but M. Ribat was unwilling to go beyond the reference to arbitrators of the construction of points in the treaty, as a consequence the arbitration had to be confined to the dispute regarding the lobster factories.

AS A DOG TO HIS VOMIT.

It appears that Parnell mysteriously departed from London on Wednesday and travelled to Brighton, where he was the guest of Mrs. O'Shea at Walsingham Terrace. Tonight he reappeared in the House of Commons remaining two hours and went back again to Brighton. During Parnell's absence at Brighton a messenger boy has called daily at the House of Commons for all letters directed to Mr. Parnell, and it is said that in answer to an official enquiry the boy replied that Mrs. O'Shea sent him. The McCarthyites say that some of Parnell's followers have said that if Parnell continues to neglect Ireland for Mrs O'Shea the Irish cause will be completely ruined. The names of Parnellites making this statement have not been given. The absence of Mr. Parnell and other Irish members of both factions during Mr. Balfour's graphic narrative of Irish distress Thursday is said to have caused much surprise.

Got His Deserts.

MILAN, Tenn., March 13.—The ending of a fearful crime took place Wednesday night about four miles north of Tavonia. Last Christmas, Miss Aggie Belton, a 16-year-old girl, was dragged from her house and criminally assaulted by a neighbor named Henry Sanders, aged 20. A posse was organized to lynch Sanders, but he escaped to Texas, where he remained till a few days ago. He was taken sick while in Texas and came home last week in order that he might receive the care of his family. The relatives of the girl waited for his recovery, and on Wednesday night the mob went to his home, dragged him from bed, and, heedless of the screams of his mother and sisters, hanged him to the limb of a tree within twenty yards of the house.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

Westminster Will Have a Law Library of Her Own.

VICTORIA, March 13.—A bill was introduced in the House this afternoon to provide a law library for the city of Westminster.

The bill removing mineral royalties passed finally.

This evening the quarry mining bill was briefly discussed and passed its second reading unanimously.

Brown opposed the second reading of the supreme court bill, having for its object giving to county judges power to deal with certain details of superior work. Debate was adjourned.

On motion of Mr. Cotton the assembly bill was read a second time, and the school bill was passed through committee.

CANADIAN NEWS.

Laurier Will Complain to the Pope About the Canadian Hierarchy.

MONTREAL, March 13.—Hon. Mr. Laurier, Premier of the Province of Quebec, and Hon. Mr. Sheehy provincial treasurer, left this morning for New York, where they will sail on Saturday by the La Gascogne for Europe. The main object of the delegation is to secure a provincial loan of ten million dollars. During their absence they will visit Great Britain, France, Belgium, Spain, Portugal and Italy. At Rome they will have an interview with the Pope, to whom some politicians here affect to believe Laurier will make a formal complaint concerning the zeal the heirarchy displayed in an attempt to defeat the Liberal party in the recent elections.

CROOKED WORK.

The election of Legris in Maskinonge is to be contested, and it is claimed there is ample evidence to annul the election.

POLITICS AND CRIME.

WINNIPEG, March 13.—Attorney-General Martin is again in the field for Portage la Prairie.

The sensation of the day at Brandon is the rape case, in which A. D. Bryce, contractor is charged with the serious crime of raping the eight-year-old daughter of F. Revell, the G. N. W. telegraph agent.

AN ENTERPRISING SMUGGLER.

TORONTO, March 13.—Isaac H. Radford, real estate agent of this city, has been arrested in connection with smuggling into Canada recently jewelry and precious stones valued at $20,000 belonging to persons in New York.

CANNOT SLEEP.

An Ottawa despatch to the Globe says that Hon. Edward Blake is suffering from insomnia and will refrain from work for a few weeks.

NO DOUBT NOW.

All doubt as to who is elected for South Victoria has been set at rest by the publication of the official returns which show that Fairbain, Conservative, is elected by 25 majority.

AGED WEALTHY AND RESPECTED.

E. O. Bickford, a leading Canadian financier and one of Toronto's oldest, wealthiest and most respected citizens, died last evening at the age of 56.

MAY NEVER SIT.

McNeil, member of Parliament elect for North Bruce, who broke his leg in a fall out of a buggy a week ago, is reported to be in a precarious condition.

DISTANT ALGOMA.

PORT ARTHUR, March 13.—Algoma nomination day is fixed for April 18 and polling for May 18.

SUCCEEDS GELLIES.

WINNIPEG, March 13.—It is understood that Gellies, leader of the Opposition in the Manitoba legislature, has resigned and will be succeeded by R. P. Roblin, a former supporter of the Greenway government.

Salisbury Too Strong.

DUBLIN, March 13.—William O'Brien, M. P., has been adjudged bankrupt on petition of Lord Salisbury. Mr. O'Brien sued Lord Salisbury for libel and slander, lost his case and incurred costs amounting to seventeen hundred pounds. Lord Salisbury has been pursuing Mr. O'Brien for many months.

Rough Weather in Texas.

DENISON, Tex., March 13.—A furious snow storm raged here all yesterday and snow has fallen to a depth of eight inches. It is one of the most violent storms that ever visited this section. Trainmen who arrived last night report the fall of snow in Indian Territory as unprecedented. Reports received from Paris and Sherman say the storm is general in those sections, and great fears are entertained that the fruit crop will be destroyed.

Not Required Yet.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 13.—It is stated on the highest authority that the nine circuit judges provided for at the recent session of congress will not be appointed for several months yet, the President being of the opinion that each of the new courts can be organized at the time fixed by the act (the third Wednesday in June) by the associate justice of the supreme court, the regular circuit judges and the district judges in each of the respective circuits, regardless of the fact that the new circuit judges may not then be appointed. The same authority said this disposed of the report that there would be an extra session of the senate for consideration of these appointed.

Catholics in Americs.

The Moniteur de Rome in an article on the school question in the United States, says it is the principal Catholic question in America, and although burning delicately, it does not believe that will lead to a conflict between Catholics and the civil authorities. The Moniteur adds that it has confidence in the Catholics and in the spirit of justice and toleration of the American civil powers, and says kulturkamf is impossible in the United States.

SOME COMPROMISE

Will Be Effected Between Blaine and Pauncefote Respecting

THE BEHRING SEA DIFFICULTY

Canadian Trade Reported by Bradstreet's as Much Brighter.

MESSRS. LAURIER AND SHEEHY

Go to Europe to Negotiate a Loan of Ten Million Dollars.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Minister, was at the state department today in consultation with Secretary Blaine. It is believed that their conference related to preliminary arrangements for a mutal understanding as to the questions to be submitted for arbitration in the Behring Sea question. On the return of Attorney-General Miller to Washington tomorrow from his trip to Chickamauga battle field, he will probably be consulted concerning future policy in the Sayward case, which the British Government brought before the supreme court of the United States in order to secure a decision of that body on the act prohibiting the killing of fur seals in Behring Sea. The answer of the United States district of Alaska is not due until the second Monday in April, and it is probable that an endeavor will be made in the meantime to affect some sort of a compromise so that the arbitrators and not the supreme court may render the first decision.

Another Branch.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The World this morning says: Wall Street was all agog yesterday over the revival of the old story that the New York Central had secured, or was about to secure, the control of the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg railway. Vice-President H. W. Webb, of the former road, and President Charles Parsons, of the latter, promptly denied the story. A gentleman, who is a stockholder of the Ogdensburg Co., and has his information direct from official parties, said yesterday that the last chance of the Central had escaped, and that its neglect to secure the line when it had the opportunity was likely to cost it dearly in the near future for what it didn't get the Central Pacific has secured. Some time ago a number of men quietly secured a charter for a new bridge across the Niagara river at a point below the old suspension bridge. It is said the Canadian Pacific has bought up the charter, paying $30,000 for it, though it consisted of nothing but the paper it was written on. The scheme now is to build a third bridge across the gorge. The company already has its Canadian line extending to the river on the Canadian side, while the R. W. & O. east and west line extends along the south shore of Lake Ontario to Lewiston and the American side of Niagara River. The road can can easily be deflected at some point east of the river to reach the bridge grade, and a perfect connection and almost a direct eastern line will be at the command of the C. P. R. But it seems the plans of the Canadian Pacific do not end here. It purposes to have a direct connection with New York city, and for this purpose it will form a close alliance with the Lehigh Valley Railway, to connect its Buffalo terminus with the Canadian Pacific at the new bridge over the Niagara River will require a link of about 25 miles. This link line was surveyed some time ago, and much of the right-of-way is understood to have been secured. With the new bridge built, and the short line completed, the Canadian Pacific will in the future enter as a more powerful factor into the transcontinental question and it is not unlikely will disturb the whole railway system in the north brought into existence to be unconstitutional.

CANADIAN TRADE LOOKS UP.

Bradstreet reports that Canada since the election has had an improved feeling in trade circles, though no special increase in the volume of business is noted. Millinery, drygoods and grain are relatively most active, prices firm. The Dominion reports 37 business failures this week, against 30 last week and 41 this week last year. Total number since January 1st to date 467. Last year 479.

GREAT DESTITUTION.

The Herald's Zanesville, Ohio, special says: Work at the coal mines of Rondville, Hocking county, twenty miles southwest of this place, has been suspended for several weeks. The miners are destitute and the families of many of them are suffering for the necessaries of life. This morning shortly after daylight fifty of them proceeded in a body to McCoy & Williams' store, broke open the warehouse and carried off thirty barrels of flour and several hundred pounds of meat. They have made no attempt to conceal their identity, but say that they either had to steal or starve. Active measures are being taken to enquire into the wants of the people and relieve the suffering.

TOO MUCH LOVE.

A Herald special from Chicago says: H. Dubs, an operator on the Board of Trade, had a very pretty wife. She was a loving spouse until she met William C. Albertson, a speculator of the board, with whom Dubs claims she became infatuated. Dubs asserts Albertson met Mrs. Dubs while she was down town one day, and she became associated with him in speculation, deserting her husband. Mrs. Dubs began a suit for divorce, charging her husband with drunkenness and cruelty, and asking for alimony. Dubs fought the case and secured an order compelling Albertson to produce his books in court, where Dubs was positive he could prove the relations of his wife and Albertson, and in consequence the petition for alimony was dropped. Today Dubs began a suit against Albertson for $10,000 damages for the alienation of his wife's affections.

A ROUGH TRIP.

A special to the Herald from Parkersburg, W. Va., says: The passengers on a steamboat on the Guyan River, last night, had a thrilling experience. The river is not ordinarily navigable for steamers, but is swollen by the floods, and boats ascend it for many miles. The Gazelles loaded down with freight and passengers, broke a wheel and became unmanageable while going at a rapid rate down the swollen stream. It floated on for miles. the passengers screaming to the people on shore for help. At Barboursville John Blume jumped into a skiff and went out to the boat. A line was thrown him by which he attempted to stop the boat, but he was pulled into the river and nearly drowned. At last a rope was thrown to some people on shore and made fast, checking the boat's speed. When the passengers were taken off many were crying and some had fainted.

RECIPROCITY WITH SPAIN.

The World's Washington special says: There is a well authenticated rumor here tonight that ex-Minister John W. Foster has been selected an auxilliary envoy to proceed to Madrid and assist Minister Grubb in the negotiation of the reciprocity treaty which Secretary Blaine desires to make with Spain.

Fighting Animals.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Kilrain is still the favorite in tonight's fight with Godfrey. He will fight at about a 190 pounds, and Godfrey ten pounds lighter. Both men are in excellent condition. Young Mitchell, who defeated La Blanche last month, in speaking of the Burke-Pritchard fight, said: "I am anxious for a go with Pritchard, and if he will not come to America I will go to London after him."

ANOTHER BRUTAL FIGHT.

The following is an account of the Godfrey-Kilrain fight. The gong struck for the first round a few minutes before nine. Both men sparred at long distance. Godfrey let go with both hands and fell short. Kilrain got in a light one on Godfrey's neck, both led and clinched. Kilrain shot out his left and caught Godfrey on the neck and another clinch followed. He let go twice in succession and reached the Bostonian's face. Blows were next in order; this terminated the round. In the next round Kilrain came to the scratch smiling, he was the first to lead but was stopped. a left hand swing was ducked by Godfrey, who a second later caught similar lead on the neck. A hot right then landed on Godfrey's jaw; a smash in the Boston man's breadbasket was Kilrain's next performance. Just before the end of the round Kilrain got in another right handed swing of his opponent's neck. Kilrain went right to work in the succeeding round and poked Godfrey on the chest. Godfrey now got in a short arm blow over Kilrain's heart. The work thus far been very cautious, there being little leg work. Both men standing within close range, Kilrain reached Godfrey twice on the chest and both men came together in a clinch; in the break away Godfrey gave the Baltimorean a rib roaster. Godfrey set pace next round and gave Kilrain a warm punch on the nose; this aroused Jake's ire and he rushed his antagonist to the ropes. Shortly after getting away from there Kilrain's left reached Godfrey's face twice in succession. Both fought a little wild now and the damage was trivial; this was followed by sparring. In the fifth round Godfrey again started the ball, landing twice on Jake's nose then came another clinch. Leads and clinches were now frequent. Nothing of importance marked the round. Godfrey cleverly ducked a vicious left handed swing in the opening of the following round. The men came at close range and Godfrey received a right handed upper cut on the chest, and a second later a smash on the neck. In return Kilrain received two light pokes on the face. The seventh round opened in a very scientific manner, Godfrey doing the leading and Kilrain eluding the blows. Both landed on each other's chest at the same time. Kilrain got in once again on the same place, and the men were at clinch as the round ended. After several clinches in the eighth round Jake once again poked Godfrey in the stomach. Godfrey did a little feinting and then surprised the big Irishman with a smash in the face, and then warmed up his breadbasket a little and then his chest. Both took a lively interest in each other now and it was a case of give and take, but there was nothing of a damaging character. Kilrain gave Godfrey a sharp down cut blow on the chest and received a hot smash on the jaw in return. During a clinch Godfrey used his right on Kilrain's chest. This angered Kilrain and Godfrey begged his pardon. Kilrain testily replied: "That's three times you have begged my pardon, but you are aiming for the spot all the time." After the breakaway Kilrain rushed matters a bit and got his return by planting a stiff left hander in Godfrey's breadbasket. Kilrain came up in the tenth round with blood in his eye and again landed on Godfrey's ribs. Godfrey played for Jake's head and got there several times. Kilrain fought viciously and landed a terrific smash on the Bostonian's neck, but it did not daze him. The men were now fighting very actively but wildly. Godfrey reached Jake's head with both hands. Jake rushed Godfrey to the ropes and got a smash on the ear for his pains. Kilrain had the best of the last 15 seconds of the round, landing repeatedly. Godfrey tapped Kilrain lightly on the chest and had the compliment returned by a stinger on the neck. Godfrey became very aggressive and Kilrain was receiver general. Godfrey had several good chances, but failed to take them. Clever ducking and stopping opened the fourteenth round, after this Kilrain's left did some good work.

The brutal fight continued in this fashion up to the 37th round, when Kilrain dragged Godfrey to the floor and deliberately pounded the wretched negro in spite of cries of foul. On rising Kilrain forced Godfrey to the ropes and the latter turned his back and allowed his antagonist to belabor him without attempting to defend himself. It was a sickening sight. In the 44th round Kilrain attacked the colored man with desperate fury, battered him all over the ring and finally knocked him senseless to the floor. Godfrey failing to come to time in the required ten seconds Kilrain was adjudged the victor.

The Ledger.

MR. BLAKE'S VIEWS.

The letter recently published by Mr. BLAKE giving his views on the political situation in Canada has produced a genuine sensation. In the history of this Dominion no political epistle has ever stirred the nation as this one has stirred it. It is the effect of a great mind, intensely concerned in the subject under consideration, giving forth without restraint or reservation whatever conclusion it has reached.

The full text of the letter is now at hand, and while the statement of Mr. BLAKE'S views on the various prime political questions which have arisen, is clear and concise, there is something of indefiniteness as to what the ex-leader of the Liberals would desire to see worked out as the destiny of the nation.

This is what we take his letter to mean:

(1) That national conditions have always tended to a union between the United States and Canada.

(2) That the National Policy was the first great move to bring about such a union.

(3) That unrestricted reciprocity would hasten the union and

(4) That unrestricted reciprocity should be opposed because it would give the United States all the advantages of our commerce, which advantages, when the inevitable time for union arrives, would be about the only quid pro quo we could offer or urge in securing the most favorable terms for union.

That is our reading of Mr. BLAKE'S letter; other people will have their own opinions.

When it was first announced that Mr. BLAKE had withdrawn from the Liberal ranks, the Conservative papers and orators, one and all, shouted that he had been converted to the Government side. How erroneous that statement was may be seen by a perusal of the following passage from his letter:

"The Canadian Conservative policy has failed to accomplish the predictions of its promoters. Its real tendency has been, as foretold twelve years ago, towards disintegration and annexation, instead of consolidation and the maintenance of that British connection of which they claim to be the special guardians.

"It has left us with a small population, a scanty immigration and a Northwest empty still; with enormous additions to our public debt and yearly charge, an extravagant system of expenditure, and an unjust and oppressive tariff, with restricted markets for our needs, whether to buy or to sell, and all the host of evils (greatly intensified by our special conditions) thence arising; with trade diverted from its natural into forced and therefore less profitable channels, and with unfriendly relations and frowning tariff walls, ever more and more estranging us from the mighty English-speaking nation to the south, our neighbors and relations, with whom we ought to be, as it was promised that we should be, living in generous amity and liberal intercourse.

"Worse, far worse! It has left us with lowered standards of public virtue and a deathlike apathy in public opinion; with racial, religious and Provincial animosities rather inflamed than soothed; with a subservient Parliament, an autocratic executive, debauched constituencies and corrupted and corrupting classes; with lessened self-reliance and increased dependence on the public chest and on legislative aids, and possessed withal by a boastful jingo spirit far enough removed from true manliness, loudly proclaiming unreal conditions and exaggerated sentiments, while actual facts and genuine opinions are suppressed.

"It has left us with our hands tied, our future compromised, and in such a plight that, whether we stand or move, we must run some risks which else we might have either declined or encountered with greater promise of success."

But while this q... tion a... tt... tive the question regarding Mr. BLAKE'S conversion to the Conservative party, we shall not say that we would not have preferred to learn that he had been so converted, rather than that he has been compelled to take the dismal view of Canadian nationality which his letter manifests.

As to Imperial Federation as a way out of the difficulty, the following passage will show how inconsiderable a thing Mr. BLAKE regards that proposition to be:

"Fair traders and federationists, Tories and protectionists to the contrary notwithstanding—there is, I believe, no reasonable prospect that the people of the United Kingdom will seriously engage in a struggle to which their whole Liberal party is opposed and which their Conservative Prime Minister likens to a civil war—a struggle to turn back for 50 years the clock of time and to achieve a social, industrial and economic revolution—in order to re-impose protective duties which shall effectively restrict, in favor of their own landlords, and of colonial producers like ourselves, the supply of their staple foods. * * *

* * * And, indeed, it seems difficult to conceive a suggestion which, coming from Canada, would be more calculated than this to alienate British feeling, even though accompanied by the sop of a delusive differential duty in favor of British manufactures."

But while Mr. BLAKE thus strongly condemns the proposal for Imperial Federation, he is equally severe on the Liberal policy. He says:

"The tendency, in Canada, of unrestricted free trade with the States, high duties being maintained against the United Kingdom, would be towards political union; and the more successful the plan the stronger the tendency, both by reason of the community of interests, the intermingling of population, the more intimate business and social connections, and the trade and fiscal relations, amounting to dependency, which it would create with the States, and of the greater isolation and divergency from Britain which it would produce; and also and especially through inconveniences experienced in the maintenance and apprehensions entertained as to the termination of the treaty. Our hopes and our fears alike would draw one way. We would then indeed be 'looking to Washington.' Nor is there any fair comparison in this aspect between the new and the old reciprocal arrangements."

Mr. BLAKE'S real view of the fiscal and political future of Canada can best be gathered from the following two paragraphs from his letter:

"Whatever you or I may think on that head, whether we like or dislike, believe or disbelieve in political union, must we not agree that the subject is one of great moment, towards the practical settlement of which we should take no serious step without reflection, or in ignorance of what we are doing?

"Assuming that absolute free trade with the States, best described as commercial union, may and ought to come, I believe that it can and should only as an incident, or at any rate as a well-understood precursor of political union, for which, indeed, we should be able to make better terms before than after the surrender of our commercial independence."

He thinks that Canada will be a series of states in the union some day, and that it would be wise to begin considering what terms we would be willing to accept to bind the bargain.

Mr. BLAKE is a great man in the best sense of the word, but even great men sometimes turn our poor prophets.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

If as reported in certain United States papers, not over thirty of the forty odd Alaska canneries will be worked this year, the number of vessels of the fishing fleet being also reduced, there should be an unusual opportunity for profitable business on behalf of our salmon canning interests, which will for the time being find competition in foreign markets considerably lessened.

The Princess Louise

The steamer Princess Louise arrived from Victoria about 9 o'clock last night. She had 12 tons of freight for the city and 20 tons for shipment per C. P. R. The following is the passenger list: Mrs. Byron, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Captain Cowper, J. Bowler, J. Marshall, W. Manifelt, J. S. Wilson, T. Marshall, J. McLean, W. Harrison, P. H. Osborne. The Louise leaves this morning for the capital with a general cargo of freight, some live stock and a few passengers.

Pure Spring Water.

Mr. P. O. Rilodeau of the Depot Hotel is laying a pipe up Douglas Street for a water supply to his hotel. Mr. Rilodeau will get his water from a spring which rises in Mr. D. Vass's garden and runs with undiminished vigor summer and winter, and will undoubtedly give him a splendid service as he has secured the sole right with the exception of the owner, of taking water from it.

A Human Ostrich.

The other evening at one of the city hotels a gentleman very well known in the Province performed a feat in ledgerdemain, or prestidigitation, or something of that sort, that would have done credit to Hermann. He sat down at the billiard table, and remarking that he felt rather hungry, deliberately devoured the four ivory billiard balls before the astonished crowd could realize what he was about. Another gentleman in the room, who had probably been "posted," then went and accused a bystander of having stolen the billiard balls. This the accused indignantly denied. Investigation, however, proved that the accuser was right, for the four balls were found stowed away in the pockets of the suspected party. His discomfiture was hailed with shouts of laughter by the crowd. The performer of the feat assured the spectators that any of them could do the trick just as well as he could—if they knew how to go about it.

The bonds are now put up, and the full purchase money has to be paid and possession taken of the property by the first of August next. The scheme has been engineered to a successful completion by Mr. Mahrer of Nanaimo, assisted by Mr. John Paulson of the same place. The amount of capital involved in the scheme will be close upon $1,000,000, and after next August beer will be a syndicate affair in this part of the world. The syndicate is the same one which secured such a great amount of brewing property in the States last year.

Wants to Know.

EDITOR MORNING LEDGER: Sir:—Can you or any of your readers inform the public how much longer Columbia Street will be tinkered with? The laying down and pulling up of our main street was supposed to be at an end, on the levels being taken, by our new City Engineer, and the street properly graded up; but let me ask, is there a 10-year-old boy who don't know that all the brick-dust, pieces of bricks, shavings, sand (blue and brown), and other stuff too numerous to mention that is being and has been dumped on Columbia Street within the last two weeks will have to be carted off again at the expense of the citizens? Those who are responsible for such stuff being put on our main thoroughfare ought at any rate to be compelled to do an eight-hour quick march daily through the slush. For bungling on streets and bungling in legal matters we can hold any town down on the Coast. By the way, Mr. Editor, what do we expect of the City's lawyer? Is he responsible for any of the tangling we are in? or is he supposed to look complacently on while the city father wiseacres weave the cobweb of difficulties around our fair city?

The Public Schools Bill a Political Retrogression.

EDITOR MORNING LEDGER: Sir,—The Government Bill now in committee of the Local House, repealing the existing Public Schools Act, contains several changes of great magnitude affecting the four cities in the Province.

The whole cost of education and of providing schools in the cities, is thrown upon the citizens, excepting a moiety of the teachers' salaries, to be paid by the Province. Considering the vast sums already expended in building schools in Victoria and Vancouver, and the comparatively inefficient school buildings in this city, this is a manifest injustice to Westminster. Let the Province first put all the cities on an equal footing, in proportion of course, to their population. Fair play's a jewel.

The Province hands over to the cities, the Provincial Poll Tax of $3, besides paying half of the teachers' salaries; but this is mere justice. The former amounted to only $522, in this city, last half year, the total expenditure for the same period being $5,952,05. It is evident a special school tax will be required in addition to the ordinary city taxes.

The above, however, are mere matters of policy. The change in the appointment of school trustees, is a direct infringement on the liberties of the people. The bill proposes that the Government shall appoint half, and the city councils the other half (and their chairman) thus depriving the people of their present right to elect them by ballot. Are the people of this Province so utterly indifferent to their political rights, that an attack upon them (which in an "effete European monarchy" would likely lose the king his head) can be made with impunity?

But that is not all. The 26th clause gives the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and City Council power at any time to remove from office any trustee appointed by them. It is not required to show cause. A political opponent or a municipal reformer could thus be quietly got rid of by one or the other. Are we back again in the days of the Star Chamber?

I suppose in this country, where the 200 odd sects have squabbled over creeds and dogmas and agree only in having no religion at all in the public schools, it is impossible to alter the law that no clergyman is eligible for a trustee. But it reminds one of the popular cry in a book (excluded from our schools) "Not Christ, but Barabbas. Now, Barabbas was a boodler."

True, clause 62 states "the Lord's Prayer may be read in opening or closing the school." How pleased the Almighty must be at this act of condescension by a Christian (?) people. But why does this Government permit the use of a dogmatic prayer which might be objectionable to our Hebrew fellow-subjects? Is it no wiser than the resident in British Columbia, who broke in upon a conversation on this subject with the query, "The Lord's Prayer was written by Moses, wasn't it?"

In conclusion, let us have more active work in practical politics, and less talk on free trade, single tax and other impractical theories; some religion in our schools and less Salvation Army tactics in our streets, churches and religious revivals. This is surely a platform on which every patriot can stand and hail the birth of freedom from encroaching caucus government in politics and slavish objection to sectarian bigotry and intolerance in Christianity, falsely so-called.

A Slight Mistake.

This story comes from Vancouver, and its truth is vouched for by the most respectable authority. A certain grocer in the terminal city was busy attending to a long list of orders the other day when one of his customers, a most charming and pretty young lady, who does not disdain to turn some attention to the gentle art of cookery, came into the store in rather a hurry. She had been running, and the exercise made her cheeks like roses and her lips like cherries, while her dark eyes sparkled like a pair of stars. Her sleeves were rolled up disclosing to the distracted grocer's view a pair of arms whiter than his best Hungarian flour, and in contour perfectly faultless. Little patches of dough clung to her dainty fingers and wrists, and there were traces of flour in her glorious crown of dark chestnut hair, piled up on her shapely head. Her white apron also showed signs of the dough.

"Oh, Mr. Blank," she gasped, "I've just been baking and the flour ran out, so I ran up here all the way to get some more. Would you be so awfully kind as to put it in this pillow-case? It was the only ——coo!"

While she had been speaking the charming damsel produced what appeared like a white sack or pillow slip, and as she opened it out discovered the awful mistake she had made. The article was not a pillow case, but a certain garment that in this moral tale shall be nameless. With a piercing shriek the young lady dropped the garment and fled like the wind down the street and to this day the grocer has neither seen her or heard of her again. The garment remains in his possession and if called for will be returned to its rightful owner.

LIVERPOOL
LAND AND IMPROVEMENT CO.

The Property of this Company

Will be placed on the market on the 1st MARCH next, and consists of upwards of 400 Acres of the most desirable land at the New Town of Liverpool, including the whole of the deep water frontage which extends one and a half miles on the Fraser River, from the N. W. S. Railway wharf east, and is the only really desirable location for Manufacturing and Shipping Industries near New Westminster.

Liverpool is the terminus of the New Westminster Southern Railway Company, who have bought 30 acres of the Company's land. Extensive buildings have been located at this point by the Railway Company. The Yale Road has been surveyed to this point and an excellent grade secured through sections 19 and 3, and profiles prepared for the work. This road will be opened up and graded as soon as permission can be secured. Streets running through the Company's property will also be cleared and graded, which work will be well under way before any of the property is offered for sale.

Sections 2, 3, 4 and 10 have been laid out and staked on the ground. The lots are all 66 feet wide and front on streets one chain wide. Every inducement will be offered to manufacturers and investors. Whoever has money to invest will do well to consider Liverpool before investing elsewhere.

REMEMBER MARCH 1st
AND LIVERPOOL

REASONS FOR INVESTING IN LIVERPOOL

LIVERPOOL is considered by parties who are authorities on the subject to be The Best Speculative Property in sight today.

Liverpool is the terminus in B. C. of the American system of railways. In two years, if present arrangements are matured, three railways will terminate at Liverpool. In a few weeks all traffic for Sound points over the C. P. R. will go by way of Liverpool.

All material for the railway from Sedro to Seattle will be transferred in bulk by the Railway Company's Ferry at Liverpool.

Passengers and Freight from Seattle and Portsmouth for the East, per Great Northern, will be booked via Liverpool, and New Westminster over the C. P. R. Seattle, in a few days, will be reached by an all-rail route in seven hours from Westminster, via Liverpool, without the inconvenience of a sea voyage.

Freight for the Sound points, over the C. P. R., can be shipped by Liverpool without breaking bulk. Lumber and all manufactures can be shipped from mills at Liverpool to all points in the Northwest at the same rates as from New Westminster.

Capitalists have a better and surer chance of making money at Liverpool than at any other point.

A Sawmill and Shingle-mill will be erected at Liverpool immediately. The Company's property at Liverpool is excellent value; their lots are large and terms easy. All particulars of

The lower part of Front street near the C. P. R. station is sadly in want of a sidewalk. There is a considerable amount of traffic along this street, and the mud is too dep for anything but gum boots, although the road is built on piles.

Look out for Lot 12, Group II, South Westminster, which will be placed on the market on the 12th inst. Prices range from $100 to $275 per lot. Mowat & Turner, Agents. *

Mr. G. A. McTavish, of the Invertavish Nurseries, Victoria, has just issued his handbook for the year, and a very interesting little volume it is. The book contains a vast amount of useful information for florists and gardeners, giving descriptions and prices of almost every flower, fruit and vegetable grown in the temperate zone.

J. G. McDonald, Vancouver, has made an affidavit, which was read at Victoria council last night, and in which are contained some serious charges of collusion to defraud the city of Victoria in the matter of the sewerage contract. The names of prominent citizens both in Vancouver and Victoria are mentioned in it; and in the latter city a sensation has been created thereby. Actions for criminal libel have been threatened.

Messrs. Lyal & Co. and J. E. Phillips have received from the Queen's Insurance Co., through their agents F. J. Coulthard & Co., prompt payment on their claims for losses through the late fire. (Signed), D. Lyal & Co., J. E. Phillips. *

On Thursday afternoon Mr. Joseph Rhode, a well known farmer of Happy Valley, near Metchosin, was shot accidentally in the right leg and sustained a very severe and painful wound. A rifle he was carrying was discharged by some unknown means, and the bullet struck just above his right ankle, shattering it and causing a bad hurt. Mr. Rhode was at once taken to Victoria and placed in St. Joseph's hospital where he received medical attendance, and today he was resting as easily as could be expected, but being an old man the shock to his system is a severe one.

In Martial Array

There was a splendid turnout of the battery last evening, there being about twenty-five rank and file present, under command of Lieutenants Cotton and E. H. Port. Company drill and the manual exercise were gone through in very creditable style, the men working together admirably. The battery numbers among its members some young men of really herculean proportions, and when attired in the smart artillery uniform and either in stationary alignment or moving through the various evolutions, they present a most striking appearance. The annual inspection this year will assuredly prove perfectly satisfactory to the commanding officer.

Imported Jerseys

Four Jersey cattle, from Flood's Menlo Park stock, were brought up from California by Mr. William Dalby of Victoria on the last steamer from the South. Three of these cattle will be sold, but one will be kept by Mr. Dalby for breeding purposes. The four cattle, all of which are young cows, have a fine record and are classed in the pedigree books. The introduction of stock of this sort is a good idea, and Mr. Dalby, who takes a lively interest in such matters, will no doubt soon have a splendid herd.

Clothing Combine.

The Victoria tailors met the other day and drew up a schedule of prices of clothing to be adopted by all the tailoring establishments of that city. The following is the proposed scale of rates: For frock coats the bill proposes, first-class, about $17, second-class, $15.50. There is no such article as a "third-class" in these goods. Morning coats, first-class, $14; second-class, $12; double-breasted saque coat, first-class, $12; second-class, $11; third-class, $10. Overcoats, first-class, $14; second-class, $13; third-class, $11. Pants and vests start at $3 and with extras in the various styles run up to $4.50.

CORONER'S INQUEST

On the Body of the Infant Lately Found in the Woods.

An inquest on the body of a child, name unknown, was held at the City Hall yesterday. The following are the names of the jury: George L. Clark (foreman), J. T. McRory, Angus Morrison, Lanelot Grimmer, J. La Billois, Marcus G. Prossor.

R. E. Hemphill of North Arm, sworn, said: I went to the North Arm to reside on March 5th, and took my family; I took the house from H. A. Bull; I have lived there ever since; the day before yesterday my wife called my attention to a parcel rolled up in a shawl like a pillow, and placed under a big fir log, close to a stump; she said, "Here is something you had better look at"; I took the parcel and tore open the sewing with which the shawl was held and opened the package and saw a white bed spread saturated with blood; I opened it and found the body of a child; I examined the child's head and saw a mark just above the right eye; I saw no other marks; I then covered the child up in the same wraps and left it in the same place, covering it with a square box. Then I sent my boy to town to notify the authorities. That is the same child that we brought up to Westminster. I took Mr. Moresby to the place where the child was found, and saw a wound on the right side which he pointed out. I did not notice the sex. I don't know whom it belongs to. It was frozen; I cannot state the age of the child. My boy, Richard, called my attention to a bundle lying there, but I thought it was only some bedding the out going people had thrown out, and took no further notice of it. This was when I first went to the house.

By the jury—There are no neighbors within a mile and a half; we are within a quarter of a mile of the river. I have known the Bulls about four years, they have no family; they left the day we moved in; they had lived on the place two years before I went there.

William Hemphill, sworn, deposed: I live at the North Arm. I was standing on a log with my mother the day before yesterday when I saw a bundle under another log wrapped up in a striped shawl. I called my father and he came; I was present when my father broke the stitches and saw a white cloth. My father looked inside, but I did not see the body as I was about ten feet away. I have been living with my father since he went to the house; the Bulls were there the day we went in. I never to my knowledge saw the shawl before.

By the coroner: I came to Westminster to give information to the police. There is very little traffic on the trail past our house, which is distant from the road about 30 feet. The body was about ten feet from the trail. The case was remanded until Monday next at 3 o'clock for medical examination.

The Chinese Method.

A LEDGER reporter in conversation with a boss Chinaman yesterday, heard a new explanation of the hold the large labor contractors of that race have over their slaves, for such the coolies virtually are. The Chinaman asserts that there is no such influence brought to bear on them as the whites usually ascribe to the highbinders, but that the coolies are kept in subjection by the following means: Every Chinaman, however poor, owns some small plot of land, to lose which would be equivalent to destroying all hope of happiness hereafter, as this holding is in some way mixed up with ancestral worship, which, among this people, is held very sacred. Here the power of the labor employer comes in, for in order to better his position the coolie gives in China, a mortgage on this property, for which he is taken to this country, with the understanding that he pays off the debt with his wages, and although the agreement made in China is not binding in this country, still, under the laws of China, the mortgagee can foreclose on his helpless victim whenever he can bring evidence to show that he has not fulfilled his agreement.

Burglarized the Penitentiary.

One would think that the place in this city most secure from the operations of the bold burglar or the stealthy thief would be the penitentiary. But this idea receives a rude shock when the fact is made known that a robbery was committed in that institution last Thursday night. It cannot be ascertained how the robber or robbers obtained entrance to the premises, but substantial proofs of their nocturnal visit are found in the fact that a promissory note for a large amount and a pair of boots were taken out of the harness room of the establishment. Also that two sheep have since died from the effects of illusage they suffered at the hands of the thief. Someone thoroughly familiar with the premises, besides being an adept at burglarious work, must have committed the deed, and the opinion held by those who know something of such matters is that some recently discharged convict returned to wreak his revenge upon the penitentiary people, and finding nothing but the poor sheep vented his spite on them. A clue is now being followed up.

offer the following as good, safe investments, some of them sure to yield a big profit in a very short time:

Northeast Quarter of District Lot 339—40 acres, situated on Westminster Road, about halfway between Vancouver and New Westminster, adjoining Public Park and only 10 chains of the route just selected for the Westminster and Vancouver Electric Tramway Co. This property is beautifully situated, and commands a fine view of Vancouver. Very little timber on it—$30 per acre would clear it fit for a garden. Price $150 per acre. Terms can be had if necessary. Adjoining land held at $250 per acre.

10 Acres in District Lot 322, on North Arm of Fraser River, 4 miles south of Vancouver, and about 6 miles from New Westminster. There is a good graded road from Vancouver, and a road is to be opened to New Westminster soon. There is a schoolhouse within a quarter of a mile. Land slopes gently from road to river, on which it has 10 chains frontage; is surrounded by market gardens. Steamers pass daily to New Westminster. Price $1,500—which is $50 per acre less than adjoining land.

North Half of District Lot 657—[illegible] acres, for $[illegible]. Terms one-third cash, balance in 6 and 12 mos. Suitable for fruit ranch. Fine view of Fraser and straits of Georgia. Graded road past land.

9 Lots (including 2 corners) on New Westminster Avenue, Vancouver, for $2,250, ⅓ cash, balance in 6, 12 and 18 mos. Size of lots 33x132, to lane. Vancouver Electric Railway runs to within a few blocks. This is a good buy.

Block 199, subdivision 472—C. P. R. Co.'s "Fairview" addition to Vancouver. Price, $[illegible]. Contains 24 lots, 33x132. Is cleared and commands magnificent view of English Bay, the city and Burrard Inlet.

9 Acres within the city limits of Vancouver in subdivision 264 "A," on line of Westminster-Vancouver Electric Tramway. Price, $[illegible], ⅓ cash, balance in 6 and 12 mos. Surrounding land is subdivided into town lots. This piece can be subdivided into 72 lots, which should readily sell at $125 per lot, showing a profit of nearly $[illegible] on the deal.

We have the largest list of city property in Vancouver, and a large list of acreage. Farms in every part of the Province. Homesteads located.

Our carriage is at the disposal of investors to view property in and around Vancouver.

It will pay investors to call upon us before buying.
