PARNELL IS HAPPY

SINCE HIS MARRIAGE TO THE BEAUTEOUS KITTY O'SHEA.

He Goes to Contest Carlow—Mrs. Parnell Remains at Home to Look After Her Interests in Lady Wood's Will—Presentation to Princess Louise of Schleswig-Holstein—Animated Discussion in the French Chamber of Deputies.

LONDON, June 26.—The United Press correspondent has had an interview with Mr. Parnell at Brighton. Mr. Parnell said that he found it impossible to procure a license for marriage in any country church, and in order to prevent delay he thought it best to marry in the registry office. The church ceremony would be performed in London as soon as he had put in a fortnight's residence there, probably after the Carlow election. He would do his best to prevent outsiders and especially reporters from being present. He would certainly go to Carlow, starting tomorrow (Saturday) night if possible. He was confident that he would win the only election since the divorce suit which he has had a chance of winning. He would take his wife to Carlow if possible, but she was a bad sailor, and was likewise compelled to remain near her lawyers owing to the coming trial of the suit over the will of her late aunt, Lady Wood, in which suit, her brothers contested her right to the Pelham property. He (Mr. Parnell) intended in future to devote special attention to Irish industrial questions, in which he was more interested than any other. He had given a general support to Mr. Balfour's Irish Land Purchase bill, believing it to be a measure well conceived, and if well carried out would greatly benefit the tenants as well as the land owners. He intended in the future, if possible, to visit the United States, where he believed the public opinion to be virtually unanimous in his favor. He would try to attend the Baltimore convention. He had not thought, nor did he intend to think upon the political effect of his marriage. His wife was perfectly happy and he was experiencing greater happiness than ever in his life previously. The correspondent never saw Parnell looking healthier nor in better spirits.

WILL QUESTION RALFOUR.

It is believed that Mr. Parnell will attend the session of the House on Monday, and question Chief Secretary Balfour as to how it is proposed to advance the money needed for the building of cottages in Ireland pending the allocation, of the funds provided for in the Land Purchase Act. On receiving a favorable reply, it is likely he will start for Carlow in the evening, with the prestige of having wrung a material concession from a reluctant government.

THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

The stock markets were generally dull today, and even rupee paper waited to advance, although silver and Indian exchanges were a shade higher. The only exception to the prevailing dulness was in the market for Canadian securities. This was owing to a meeting this afternoon of some of the representatives of the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Railways. It is understood that the meeting will result in the election of three representatives of the C. P. R. as directors of the Grand Trunk Railway, and an amicable arrangement in regard to rates and the distribution of new business. No official information has been given the public with regard to the Murietta settlement. Baron Hirsch is the capitalist who has furnished the funds, and has given all necessary assistance in the shape of a loan until February 1st, 1893, at 4½ per cent.

A PRESENTATION.

A deputation of nurses of Great Britain visited Buckingham palace this afternoon, and presented to Princess Louise of Schleswig-Holstein a diamond crescent and a set of Tennyson's works, in view of her approaching marriage. On the fly leaf of the first volume, the poet laureate has written some dedicatory lines.

TO GIVE EVIDENCE.

The well known American specialist in lunacy, Dr. Walter Kempler, has arrived in Wales, where he will testify on behalf of E. C. Duncan of Washington, D. C., who will then be placed on trial on the charge of having attempted the murder of his wife.

ROTHSCHILDS BACKING THEM.

In financial circles this afternoon, a report was circulated to the effect that the Rothschilds have come to the relief of Murietta and Company, and that they will co-operate with the trustees and other creditors in this last effort being made to sustain the firm.

Villages Destroyed.

BERLIN, June 27.—Thunderstorms have done fearful damage in Germany and Switzerland. At Coblentz, on the upper Rhine, great destruction has been wrought to crops and property. Local railways have been obstructed by floods, and a cloudburst has damaged the Soden mineral springs. It is reported that the villages of Holtendorf and Wernsdorf in Moravian Austria were totally destroyed.

Trouble in all Trades.

PARIS, June 25.—Strikes seem to be epidemic in the French capital at this time. The butchers of the city now announce that they are determined to strike for the amelioration or abolition of wrongs which they claim afflict their journeymen. The grocers, too, at half past three o'clock this afternoon, startled all Paris by joining the striking bakers and butchers in the movement for shorter hours and more money. The situation is a remarkable one, and one which in Paris in time past could hardly have had any other result than the appearance of the ominous barricade. Nothing of that kind is looked for under the present dispensation, however, and all classes seem to feel satisfied that the municipal and federal authorities will co-operate in bringing about a peaceable and satisfactory settlement of the whole trouble. The idea that the French government will detail soldiers to take the places of the striking bakers, butchers, grocers and candlestick makers is in the highest degree improbable.

Referred It Back.

PARIS June 26.—In the Chamber of Deputies today, the Brussels convention was again taken up. M. Charmes stated that the right of search agreed upon did not apply to France; that it only permitted the verifying of ships' papers. If these were found correct, the duty of foreign officers visiting French vessels ceased. M. Pion maintained that the French plenipotentiaries at Brussels had virtually acceded to the right of search, thus violating the glorious traditions of France. Great Britain got everything she asked for, the partition of Africa, the conversion of the Egyptian debate and Zanzibar, and the Chamber ought not to permit the Government to cast them at the feet of Great Britain and Germany. M. Ribot, Minister of Foreign Affairs, said that France had acted in a spirit of disinterestedness. The Brussels Congress had dealt with a work of humanity. The action now is concluded by the right of searching. The law of nations allowed the verification of the flag which a vessel carried. The Brussels act added nothing, but merely fixed a zone wherein vessels might be visited to ascertain whether their papers were in order. Every nation had shown adherence to the clause on the simple ground that it was a work of civilization. If the Chamber rejected the convention, such action would not be without diplomatic consequences. M. Faure stated that a difference of opinion existed as to the interpretation of the clauses. Minister Kiobol suggested that the bill be referred back to the government which was agreed to by a vote of 439 to 180.

POLICE COURT.

Obstructing Columbia Street with Building Material.

The case against T. Gray, contractor, enlarged from Thursday morning, was the sole business of the court yesterday morning. The information was laid by Cunningham Bros. against Mr. Gray for infraction of the bylaw in obstructing Columbia street by depositing bricks, lumber and building material. Mr. Morrison appeared for the defendant, and Mr. Gaynor for Cunningham Bros. Mr. Morrison apologized for the delay and explained that Mr. Gray had been so preoccupied that he had not been able to put in the usual application for permission to the Council in time on Monday, but had placed it early Tuesday morning, though the counsel failed to see that the lives of the pedestrians would be in less danger by the contractor having gained the sanction of the Council. His worship pointed out that Mr. Gray had been fined $5 and costs on Saturday with the understanding that the nuisance would be removed, or permission gained, and he had had ample time to make application to the City Council on Saturday. Mr. Gaynor was anxious to have the matter amicably settled and suggested that the nuisance should be abated and no more lumber or bricks added. Mr. Morrison undertook to have the nuisance complained of moved by Tuesday evening, but objected strongly for some time to that clause of the proposed agreement which would prevent his client from placing more material there which would act against him, even if permission were gained in the meantime from the council. Some cross firing between the counsellors was the result and his honor came near losing his usual calmness. Finally it was mutually agreed that the case should be further enlarged till Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when, if Mr. Gray was complying with the agreement, and removing the nuisance a further enlargement till Thursday would be made, Wednesday being a holiday.

FIRE INVESTIGATION

Regarding the Blaze at South Westminster on Queen's Birthday.

An investigation into the cause of the fire which occurred at Crossman's Hotel South Westminster, on the evening of May 25th last, has been held during the last two days at the Falk's Hotel, South Westminster, before Captain Pittendrigh, J. P., and a special jury composed of Messrs. English, Deane, Wade and Smith. The evidence of Robert Crossman, Charles Hunt, John Falk, Thompson and Mrs. Crossman was received, but no facts were elicited which tended to throw any light upon the origin of the fire. The jury after having the somewhat voluminous evidence read to them gave as their verdict that the house was set afire by some person or persons unknown. Mr. C. E. Woods of Woods & Gamble and E. A. Jenns watched the case for the Scottish Union Fire Insurance Company, Aulay Morrison appeared for Mr. Crossman. Governor Moresby was present and examined several witnesses.

From Victoria.

The steamer R. P. Rithet came up from the capital at 7 o'clock last night. The following passengers were on board: Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Dobb, Mrs. Grimmer and family, Mrs. Stevens and family, J. Heardman, J. Hennessy, W. P. Palmer, W. J. Westmore, J. P. Prenteau, Mr. Fearney, O. Olsen, M. M. Jethright, W. H. Stone, E. H. Francis, J. Q. Justice. Freight for the city, 13 tons, for C. P. R., 20 tons, total, 33 tons. The freight consisted for a great part of groceries, provisions, and hardware. The boat had about 100 cases of coal oil on board. She goes out this afternoon with mails and passengers.

Sports in Council.

The meeting of the Gun Club last night was largely attended, and a good deal of interest was taken in the proceedings. Four new members were elected. Arrangements were made for the usual practice shoot today, which will take place on Lulu Island, shooting to commence at two o'clock. Mr. Stoess has kindly granted the use of a range on Lulu Island for the grand competition for prizes on Dominion Day. All the prizes, which are very valuable, have been subscribed for by the merchants of the city, and a list will shortly be published. A large number of entries will be made, and every effort will be made to make the event a success.

A New Firm.

Messrs. Phillips and Wyckliffe, who are favorably known here in connection with the electric street railway, have entered into partnership, and are now prepared to do business in building railways, tram lines, telephone and telegraph lines, etc. The senior partner of the firm is well known all over the coast, having built nearly all the street railway tracks in Southern California. The firm have the contract for tracklaying on the tramway between here and Vancouver, and also a contract to rebuild a portion of the telephone line, setting in 120 poles. Work on this will be started on Monday, and rushed through to completion within the week. See their advertisement on second page.

The Mechanics' Institute.

A meeting of those interested in the formation of a Mechanics' Institute in this city was held last evening in the City Hall, and much interest was shown in the project. The meeting soon resolved itself into business, shape and set to work to select committees and appoint officers. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, J. Peck; first vice, Thomas Turnbull; second vice, James S. Grant; Secretary, C. C. Steuart; Treasurer, G. B. McLellan; Committee, T. Owens, W. Baillie, J. A. Kendall, W. W. Forrester, James Shirley, W. J. Corbett.

The board will make application to the City Council for the privilege of meeting on Friday evenings in the City Hall until such time as the Public Library building is ready for occupation.

The report of a committee appointed to draft a constitution was received and the constitution as read adopted.

THE WORST YET

REVELATIONS IN THE M'GREEVY CASE BECOME STARTLING.

Immense Sums Appropriated for Charity—Sir Hector Langevin the Recipient of Large Amounts of the Stolen Money—The Various Contracts Out of Which the Boodle Came.

OTTAWA, June 26.—At the Tarte-McGreevy committee today, C. E. Murphy told of an interesting dispute that had taken place amongst members of the firm as to their donations for charity. Thomas McGreevy came to him to ask for $5,000, and a dispute arose as to what work it should be charged to. Robert objected to charging it to the Crosswall contract, or the Esquimalt dock, in which he had an interest, and said it should be charged to the Lewis works. Connolly confessed to him that he had already given out $10,000 on account of that work. He saw, in consequence of a letter from Sir Hector Langevin, that the first $5,000 was given to Laforce Langevin, Sir Hector's son, and a second $5,000 to Sir Hector himself. Witness had gone back to Thomas McGreevy and explained to him, and Thomas got into a passion to think that anybody except himself was getting any money, and added that he had personally given Sir Hector another $10,000. The sub-committee reported the firm's check and bill books not in the papers handed over by Connolly.

OUR PREMIER AT OTTAWA.

Premier Robson has arrived. He says now that the imperial order has been promulgated forbidding sealing in Behring Sea, it is too late to enter a protest under the circumstances. He will urge the Dominion Government to impress upon the imperial authorities the necessity of treating upon a liberal basis British Columbia sealers who fitted out schooners at great expense. He will also seek for the settlement of the Alaska boundary question. There is no dispute at present, but trouble with the United States may arise at any moment in respect to jurisdiction in the disputed territory. While in Montreal, he will ask Mr. Van Horne to build branch lines in the province, including a railway from Ashcroft to Cariboo. Robson is hopeful of a settlement of the difficulty with the Dominion Government regarding the twenty-mile railway belt on each side of the C. P. R. main line. The minerals therein belong to the Province, but no boundary limit can be easily fixed, as the belt follows the sinuosities of the railway, unless another agreement is made.

HARBOR MATTERS.

A deputation of the Montreal harbor commissioners interviewed the Government this afternoon and secured the promise of a grant, by way of a loan, for harbor works.

The bill to incorporate the Vancouver Dock and Shipbuilding Company passed the Senate today.

LEPROSY IN VICTORIA.

Dr. Smith, Government specialist in leprosy, reports that he found three positive cases of leprosy amongst the Chinese in Victoria. Two others who have been living with them show symptoms, but not sufficiently advanced to enable a correct diagnosis to be made. He says no other cases exist in the Province, so far as he can ascertain.

MOUNT-STEPHEN CONTRIBUTES.

MONTREAL, June 26.—Lord Mount-Stephen has cabled to Mr. Van Horne to put his name down on the subscription list for erecting a monument to the memory of Sir John A. Macdonald, for any amount the Canadian Pacific president may see fit. In a letter to the Hon. Henry Starnes, Lord Mount-Stephen says he sails for Canada on August 12th.

THE RECORD SMASHED.

KINGSTON, Ont., June 26.—At the Renfrew games yesterday, McConachie of the Ottawa lacrosse club threw a lacrosse ball 147 yards, 7 inches. If this is correct it is the longest on record.

A Big Balance.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—The Treasury statement today shows a net balance in addition to fractional silver and deposits in the National Bank, of $2,450,000.

Gone to Chicago.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Hon Warren Myer will leave tonight for Chicago in company with General Alger and will not return to the west until the autumn, when he will visit Portland, Seattle and Tacoma.

A Schooner Wrecked.

SAN PEDRO, Cal., June 26.—The schooner Nellie was wrecked on Tuesday while going from Wilmington to Redondo, on the shore about half a mile east of Point Vincent. Her master, John Culinane, was the only one on board. In a heavy swell he was struck by the main sheet and knocked overboard. Before he could get aboard again, the schooner drifted on shore, struck bottom and was soon pounded to pieces. It is a total wreck. The boat was owned by G. P. Gifford of this city and was valued at $600, no insurance. Capt. Culinane reached shore safely.

Down on Davitt.

OAKLAND, Cal., June 25.—There is a marked difference between the state of public feeling here now in regard to Michael Davitt and his appearance here some years ago. Then the Irish citizens of Oakland tendered him a reception, there was a procession, a mass meeting and banquet, and a purse of $800 was raised for Davitt. Now no one notices him. A great majority of the Irish residents here are still in sympathy with Parnell and they look upon Davitt with distrust. One man, who was a member of the recognition committee when Davitt was here last, is reported to have told Davitt to his face recently that he was a contemptible ingrate, for if it had not been for Parnell, Davitt would still be serving out his long sentence in prison.

A Nineteenth Century Deluge.

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, June 26.—Rain continued to fall all last night and was still coming down at noon today. The work of patching broken telegraph wires is much delayed in consequence. The greatest destruction by floods is confined to an area of 50 square miles in extent directly east of this city. Communication with Cherokee has been opened by the Western Union Telegraph Company which has one wire working slowly to Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Cherokee was the centre of the storm, and the place where most of the damage was done. No accurate estimate of the loss of life or property can be made, however, until communication is fully restored.

Arrested for Arson.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 25.—W. R. Huff, the proprietor of the Pacific Slope restaurant which was in the Solomon Block on Spring street, which was burned shortly after 12 o'clock on Monday morning, causing a loss of $30,000, was arrested last evening on a charge of arson and locked up in default of $5,000 bail. A fire broke out in the restaurant just a week before at the same time, but was extinguished before any damage was done. When the second fire occurred, suspicion was aroused, and Huff's arrest followed. The police say they have a strong case against him. Huff formerly resided at Lower Lake, Lake county, where he ran a hotel which was burned last December. It was insured for $4,000, and Huff received $3,000 for his loss. He was insured here for $1,700, and had but five hundred or six hundred dollars' worth in his place. The insurance people will vigorously prosecute the case.

Still More Mischief.

OMAHA, Neb., June 26.—The very heavens seem to have opened, and a perfect deluge of water has been falling since 3 o'clock this morning. The newly graded streets are washed out, sewers have burst, and pavements washed out, and thousands of dollars have been lost by the cloudburst. Not a train has arrived in the city since this morning, and none on the Union Pacific and Elkhorn since yesterday. All the telegraph wires have gone down, and the lightning has played havoc with the electric lines. Owing to the bad condition of the wires but little can be heard from the interior of the state.

A Desperate Leap. VER

CHICAGO, June 26.—Mrs. E. the handsome blonde aged 28 was arrested here today on sworn out by deputy sheriff NT Denver, Colorado, was turned Denver officer, who started wi Denver at 6 o'clock last evening the train was near Ashton, a sta miles below Chicago, the woman jumped through the open window of the car and escaped. The train was running at full speed at the time, and Reno was dozing, not thinking that his fair prisoner would attempt to escape. The train was quickly brought to a standstill, but no trace of the woman could be found. Mrs. Philo was wanted in Denver for bail jumping. She had been arrested for a large forgery and the case was called for hearing, the bond being fixed at $5,000, and as soon as bail was furnished the woman disappeared.

HAULED OFF.

The Duke of Argyle is Retrocted From Her Awkward Predicament.

Last night about 8:30 the barque Duke of Argyle was towed off the mud bank on which she had been lying for the past three days. The powerful tugs Pilot and Active and the steamer William Irving went out to the vessel, the Pilot and Active hitching on to the stern, the Irving being firmly lashed alongside. Great crowds gathered along the docks to watch the process and betrayed the deepest interest in the operations. At 9 o'clock it was noticed that the ship was slowly but surely gliding off the mud bank. Almost as the Argyle began to move the hawser from the Active snapped with a terrific twang, the two ends flashing back to ship and steamer like lightning. The Pilot and Irving continued steaming vigorously forward and soon brought the big boat into the channel which is 80 feet deep, and about half a mile wide from the Gulf to Westminster docks. As she swung round to the current the crowds set up a hearty cheer, which was re-echoed from the ship and steamers. The Argyle was then brought up to Messrs. Bell-Irving, Paterson & Co.'s wharf and securely tied up. The work of unloading her will be proceeded with at high pressure to make up for lost time, and it is expected that all her Westminster freight will be unloaded before the end of next week.

A Cogent Enquiry.

EDITOR MORNING LEDGER: Sir,—I see at the half holiday meeting the committee appointed to arrange the matter did not see the laborers, carpenters or bricklayers, or saw mill men, put on the committee. If it is to be a half holiday, why not have it for all instead of for a few businesses?

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The revelations of the committee of the House of Commons appointed to enquire into the charges brought by Mr. Tarte against Robert McGreevy, M. P., and with which the name of Sir Hector Langevin is also intimately associated, are becoming startling. They threaten to equal the Pacific scandal disclosures. Our Ottawa despatches today indicate ministerial corruption of the most flagrant description. The Minister of Public Works, that is Sir Hector Langevin, is shown by the evidence to have received large sums of money from the contractors whom he had employed to construct certain public works. The presumption will be that this money was paid in carrying out the terms of a corrupt agreement between the minister and the contractors. This plundering of the Dominion Treasury by the Ministers of the Crown appears to have been proceeding for a long time. The resignation of Sir Hector Langevin will undoubtedly be demanded, and what further action may be taken remains to be seen. We are sorry to find the name of our Victoria contemporary, the Colonist, figuring in this unsavory matter. "We must give something to the Colonist" looks bad, and although there is no evidence that the Colonist received anything, the fact that it kept company on the terms of a "pretty decent fellow" with this brood of boodlers will not be regarded as extremely praiseworthy. Things appear to be daily going from bad to worse with the Conservative party at Ottawa, and a total collapse of the ministry is a thing that would not excite great wonderment even if it occurred before the close of the present session.

It is highly satisfactory to see that the gentlemen who have undertaken the work of organizing a Mechanics' Institute in this city are applying themselves with so much energy to the scheme. This Institute is not being formed on the ordinary lines of mechanics' institutes. What it will seek mainly to accomplish will be work in furthering the aims and objects of the Public Library scheme. In this way it will afford immense assistance in an undertaking that will require the most cordial co-operation of the mechanics to make it all that it should be. The Institute, it is designed, will take charge of the educational features of the Library, arranging the evening classes, supplying teachers, etc., and it is intended to have the arrangements so far advanced that by the time the long evenings of the autumn have arrived, they will be ready to begin the actual work of teaching. A great deal of hard and intelligent work will be involved in making these classes the success that is being mapped out for them, and we hope to see a generous and hearty concurrence in the work by the public generally. Let every young man in the city, who desires to improve his idle hours by the acquisition of such useful knowledge as will give him a long lift in the struggle for success in this world, come forward and join the Institute.

It will scarcely be necessary for us to make any reply to the leading editorial article in the Columbian last night, headed "Trade in the Empire." A few days ago The Ledger discussed this identical article and attacked the Toronto Empire (in the columns of which paper it originally appeared under the heading, "Inter-British Trade"), for having made a number of very foolish and disingenuous statements in it. We have no fault to find with the Columbian for cribbing its leaders from the big dailies, and no doubt the readers of our cotem. will be thankful for the editor's compassion on them, but it was too bad to change a good heading for a bad one, and to chop off the tail of the article at the very point where its writer intended it should be most interesting and convincing. But the article, even without the tail chopped off, was a poor sort of thing. If our cotem. had cribbed The Ledger's reply to that article, instead of the article itself, we have no manner of doubt at all its readers would have been infinitely better pleased. Our cotem. need not be delicate on this score, because it matters not a straw to us whether it clips our articles after having been reprinted in some other paper or scissors them direct from The Ledger columns.

At the last general elections the Province of Nova Scotia returned a large majority of members to support the Dominion Government and its "protectionist" policy. Still the fact remains that Nova Scotia is undoubtedly opposed to the high tariff. The position of affairs down there and the prevalent feeling were very well hit off by an American traveller who narrated in the New York Evening Post the following incident which took place at Yarmouth:

"I was sitting under the lee of a hill by the seashore yesterday talking to a sunburnt fisherman whose crew had just pulled ashore from the mackerel trap with three huge boats loaded to the gunwales with fish. We had been talking for half an hour about the artificial restrictions placed on trade by both our Governments, when suddenly he laid his hand on the American-made knife with which I was idly whittling and he exclaimed: "I want a jack-knife like that and you want some of my fish. If we can make a trade between us, why should the Government step in between us and interfere?" That's the way the people feel and talk about here, and so it happens that while Sir John is lying dead at Ottawa and the flags of both countries are drooping at half-mast, the thought uppermost in every mind is, "Will the new Ministry throw open to us the market which lies at our very gates?"

Official statistics, says the Toronto Empire, have been published in the United States on the divorce subject. According to the report the number of divorces granted there in 1885 was 23,472, a number larger than the rest of Christian civilization can show for the same period. That the "divorce mill" has operated more actively in the years since 1885 may be safely taken for granted, although we have not the exact figures. Estimating, however, on the basis of the annual increase of population, the average increase of divorces between 1885 and 1890 is supposed to be at the rate of five per cent. It is unnecessary to preach sermons from these figures. The report does not deal with the number of divorced people who have been remarried, but it is admitted that new marriage was in view in most cases. To bring the fault home to the door of the law, we have but to point to the fact that the country which discourages divorce knows only an insignificant number of separations between married people. In the United States there is the additional and conspicuous disadvantage of the multiform state laws.

The Ledger.

AN 'ORRIBLE TALE.

A Rural Milton Narrates in Verse his Hero's Woes.

THE MORNING LEDGER has been requested to publish the following 'pome' by a poet residing in the classic territory yclept Clayton. What the piece is about THE LEDGER leaves its readers to conjecture, but the 'pome', snake and horse editors, who had a slight confab. over the matter, think it is a masterful imitation of Browning. Mr. Browning is unfortunately dead or he would no doubt feel proud to see how his fame has extended. The author's bold and original orthography and punctuation are left intact, and as they add considerably to the beauty of the verse, the kindness of the editor in this respect is sure to be appreciated:

Their came a party out from town
Just as full as they could hold
And with them they had a bottle of old Tom
For to drink on the way

But long before they reach their home,
The waggons cruel wheels
Past over one and left him there,
To die upon the road

But by chance their was an honest man
Who has never drank a drop
Had pity on the helpless man
And runed to call some help

But when he return'd and found him their
His state was getting worse
But with little help they got him up
Into the waggon box

The neighbors come from far and near
To help a lending hand
And then he took a solumn oath
That he would driuk no more

But then he went to the fort last week
And got parrelised once more
But his cousin maed him worst of all
He crushed him on the seat

And then a man like him to go
And teach in sunday,s school
Oh devil take such christian men
That teach in sunday,s school

Oh man I say take my advice
And try to mend your ways
Before you teach in Sunday,s school
Go try and teach yourself

THE STRANDED SHIP.

A Visit to the Duke of Argyll Yesterday.

No object has attracted so much general attention on our waters as has that iron clad Duke of Argyll which has found a soft resting place after 172 days of tossing on the deep deep blue. A LEDGER reporter spent a portion of yesterday afternoon roaming about the busy decks of the stranger. As viewed from the tug, she is not an object fair to see; her sides show signs of some bad scraping, though for a twenty-six-year-old she stands the storms well. It cannot be said, though, that she is spick and span, the turmoil of the present unforeseen accident has interfered with the lubricating and general cleaning up which is the rule on these vessels. Business was brisk when the LEDGER man arrived; the last scow, No. 5, being loaded up in rapid style with consignments of a very varied character, including mineral waters and stout. Arrangements were being made for the second effort to release the Duke from the muddy bed, and the seamen regarded the coming event with some degree of apprehension of danger. The result of the first effort was still painfully real to them and they felt sure that something would have to give if two strong tugs brought their power to bear. She is not such a heavy vessel as generally supposed being only 960 tons, carrying about 1,400 tons. The result of the wrenching she received is the loss of about 12 feet of rail at the bow, a shock split; cap of the foreward bitts a wreck, and the manrope on bowsprit lost. More was expected by the men from the second effort. The Duke of Argyll left the West India Docks, London, Eng., on Jan. 1st., at 4 o'clock in the morning, "a bitter cold 'un." She made the line in 28 days and sighted the Horn at 72 days, making the remainder of her trip in 100 days. The passage was a rough one. Her crew consists of ten seamen, "a. bs," five apprentices, three mates, captain who is accompanied by his wife and her favorite collie dog. Besides, the ship has a ship carpenter, sail maker, and the indispensable cook. The crew speak very highly of the captain and his wife. All are eager to get ashore after being cramped up nearly six months, and are anxiously waiting the permission to land. Of course the grounding is the topic on board, but little comment is made, and wisely. That Westminster has not a river pilot seems a matter of surprise to the men.

Business on the Rail.

On the special train which arrived yesterday over the C. P. R. the following freight was received: 2 cars glass from the east for Messrs. Campbell and Anderson; 1 car machinery for Messrs. Reid & Currie; 1 car machinery for the Canadian Pacific Lumber Company; 1 car stoves for Messrs. Shirley and Hoy; 1 car of general freight; 1 car of flour for Victoria. The special which went out last night at 5 o'clock took the following: 3 cars canned salmon from Lulu Landing; 3 cars general freight for the interior; 2 cars lumber from the Royal City Planing Mills Co.

Once More Convalescent.

Last evening about 9:30, just after the shades of evening had actually fallen and there was a good deal of dampness falling dew, people along the river front were startled to see a vast and monstrous object slowly making its way up stream, panting and puffing like a wounded Cyclops; it looked for all the world like the big fellow, for one deep red fiery eye shone like a carbuncle in the centre of the mass, blinking occasionally. As it came creeping nearer and nearer and the onlookers became more and more frightened, it was seen to take form and assume the shape of a pyramid built of gigantic drygoods boxes and a long black funnel stuck on at the apex. Then everybody heaved a sigh of relief and said with a considerable intonation of disgust, "Oh, it's only the Surrey." This palatial scow will once more cater to the fastidious public today, and, having experienced a liberal share of patronage in the past, will hope by strict attention to business to merit a liberal a share in the future, etc., so forth and so on.

A Celebrated Lecturer.

Major George A. Hilton, the noted Temperance Evangelist, will arrive in the city today, and on Sunday evening he will hold a service in Herring's Opera House and then begin on Monday a series of services in the Central Methodist Church, Sixth street, to be held every evening next week. Major Hilton has made an ample apology for the remarks which he let fall lately at a meeting in Vancouver regarding the Queen and royal family. He explained that he did not understand the feeling of the people and was not aware that his words would fall with such force. The remarks made were merely en passant The Vancouver News-Advertiser passes the following encomuim upon the Major. Another large audience assembled in Homer Street Methodist Church last night to hear Major Hilton, the great temperance orator. A large number of clergy were present, amongst them being Rev. Mr. Robson, of New Westminster. Great interest was taken in the proceedings, and the meetings are being attended by a large number every evening. The Major is a powerful orator, and from beginning to end the greatest amount of attention was paid by the audience. He has come here under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., and Miss Bowes, the energetic President of that organization, is daily adding a large number to the membership roll. The meetings today will be held in the same place, also at the usual time.

Still Proceeding.

The waterworks arbitration in Vancouver is still proceeding. Evidence was given by Silva Thorson and Mr. Schussler, relative to the water mains crossing Burrard Inlet at the First Narrows, and the relative value of the works. At nearly five o'clock, the examination-in-chief was ended, and the cross-examination was postponed until yesterday. Particulars of the company's claim were filed as evidence. Yesterday morning, Mr. Schussler was cross examined by Mr. Bodwell, and the examination continued all day. In the course of the evidence, a statement was put in showing that the company charged up $18,000 expenses of organization, and Mr. Schussler denied all knowledge of this, and declared it had nothing to do with the value of the works. The examination will be continued today.

"The Meteor's Path."

Last Wednesday, 15 minutes after sundown, Mr. G. P. Swanson, a rancher of Aldergrove, observed a beautiful meteor appearing in the east at about the same place as the sun would occupy at 7 a. m. In size and brilliancy the phenomenon closely resembled the rising sun, although there was not the universal diffusion of light observable upon the upcoming of the king of day. The flight of the meteor was easily visible as it described a vast parabola through the mid heavens for fully two minutes. As it passed through the ether in its tremendous flight it left in its trail a stream of dazzling meteoric fragments, which shone with a nebulous lustre far surpassing any possible effect of pyrotechny. Mr. Swanson's sons and neighbors were fortunate enough to obtain a full view of the beautiful spectacle and they say it was the grandest sight they ever witnessed. The soft shimmering radiance of the meteor illumined the country for miles around.

NEW BRIDGE and ROAD

Leads directly to this property. For market garden purposes this land has no superior.

ONLY A FEW LOTS FOR SALE

This property is being sold in blocks of the convenient size of five acres, which is about the right area for a fruit or market garden.

The gravel road running westward from the new Lulu Island bridge leads up to this property, thus placing it within a few minutes drive from the centre of the city.

The land is all cleared and under cultivation. There is no better soil in the world for general garden and fruit purposes and its closeness to a live market renders it particularly eligible for gardening purposes.

An acre of this delta land faithfully tilled will produce more money in a year than ten or twenty acres of ordinary farming land cultivated after the ordinary farm method. Its extraordinary productiveness is a positive wonder.

Here is an opportunity for any man to acquire what will afford him a lucrative living and a good deal more. It is an opportunity not likely to occur again for a long time. It is far cheaper than uncleared bush land at $5 an acre. Get some of it.

SIR, One man is better than another, just in proportion as he dresses well. Talk as you will, it is the external appearance by which we judge a man at first sight, and first impressions are the most lasting. No man who can afford to buy a suit of clothes, can afford to have that suit ill fashioned. That is sound philosophy, and it can be lived up to only by ordering your garments from the Famous Westminster Tailor Manson

The Matter of a PERFECT FIT is, more than even the quality of the material of which a suit of clothes is made, the most important consideration. The finest cloth badly conformed to the shape of the wearer is worse than shoddy.

A large gathering of the best citizens of Whatcom, presided over by President Baker of the Chamber of Commerce, met and condemned the proceeding of the "irresponsible boys, intoxicated with liquor and mistaken patriotism" who interfered with the British ensign. Philanthropic Motives.

The Chronicle bulletin board went up yesterday arrayed in a fine new coat of paint and with a cleverly executed design by way of head piece. It is a case of pro bono publico all the time with Chronicle this residence in New Westminster being altogether from philanthropic motives and for the benefit of his health), therefore the bulletin is open to any citizen who wishes to let folks know all about it. Now is the chance for "the man with an idea," for the gentleman who "can see it coming as plain as the view of South Westminster from the top of the City Hall." For the kicker (good old kicker); for those "agin the government," and them what's down on the perlice. Come one, come all; the more the merrier. Polish up your lucubrations and Chronicle will give you bold advertisement. *

A Pointer to the Public.

District Lot No. 78 lies immediately adjoining the city limits. The continuation of Mary Street goes directly through it, and the Electric Tramway will in a couple of months be running its cars every hour of the day through the centre of this property. The lot (No. 78) is composed of 128 acres of land as level as a table. Contracts have been let to clear and grub the ground, and leave it in perfect condition for building purposes. Already six citizens have decided to erect handsome residences there, ranging in price from $4,000 to $7,000 each. The whole of this splendid piece of property (except some limited portions already disposed of) will be put on the market in a few weeks. One great advantage in buying a lot and erecting a residence on this property is that the owner will avoid heavy municipal taxation. Make a note of it, and wait till the property is put on the market before buying. *
