TOOK REFUGE FROM THE HEAT

Hamilton Man Got Locked in a Refrigerator and Nearly Died.

Items of Interest From the Principal Cities of the East.

(SPECIALS TO THE MINER.)

Hamilton, July 4.—Thos. Powers, proprietor of the Mansion hotel, came near losing his life yesterday. He accidently locked himself in the big refrigerator in the cellar of his hotel. The refrigerator was a new one, holding nearly a ton of ice, and he went inside to see if the door fitted tightly. Thoughtlessly he pulled the door closed after him and the spring lock fastened it. He kicked on the door for a long time, but no one heard him. Finally he got an oak strip from the front of the ice box and pounded the door. He felt himself becoming weaker, but he renewed his efforts and finally forced open the door, which is fourteen inches thick. He fell in a faint and did not recover for several hours. He was in the refrigerator about twenty minutes.

The excessive heat still continues and many cases of prostrations on account of the weather are being reported.

Toronto, July 4.—Proprietors of the steamer Argyle will be proceeded against at once for having run an excursion on Sunday. This was the assurance given by Hon. J. M. Gibson today of a deputation representing the Lord's Day Alliance, which waited on him, composed of Rev. J. G. Shearer, field secretary, and Rev. W. H. Hincks, president of the Toronto branch. They informed him that Sunday steamer excursions were being conducted at several other points in Ontario, in Sault St. Marie, Brockville and Ottawa, and asked that action be taken to have the law observed. Mr. Gibson said he would at once instruct the city crown attorney to have informations laid against the owners of the Argyle. "If the law is on the statute books it must be observed," said Mr. Gibson.

Montreal, July 4.—The Government investigation into the alleged paper combine resumed today under the presidency of Judge Taschereau. John R. Barber, of Georgetown, Ont., who owns two pulp mills, was the first witness. He stated that the advance in the price of paper was not proportionate to the advance in the cost of production. John McFarlane, president of the Canadian Paper Co., the only other witness, stated that the reduction in the duty on paper would be a severe loss to the trade in which $20,000,000 were invested, while the removal of the duty would mean extinction in which between 5,000 and 6,000 people were directly employed.

London, Ont., July 4.—The nomination for candidates for the London bye-election consequent on the resignation of Col. F. B. Leys on the question of fishing in the Thames took place today. Leys was again nominated by the Liberal party through G. C. Gibbons, K. C. J. Darch was nominated as a candidate for the Socialistic Labor party. Leys said he had won his point with the Government and if elected again he would be equally independent in future.

Napanee, Ont., July 4.—The condition of J. W. Bell, M. P., Addington, who received a stroke of paralysis some days ago, is somewhat improved today. He is still speechless, but can move a little and it is now thought he will recover.

Toronto, July 4.—An incident of interest to Canadians occurred at the Pan-American exposition last week. It appears that the director of the Ethnological building took it upon himself to lower a festoon of 24 British flags, which had been placed over Ontario's arceaological exhibit, and when asked to replace them refused to comply with the request. He gave no satisfactory explanation of his action and could only say that someone had objected to the [illegible] of the English ensigns. Officials [illegible] charge of the display called on Director Buchanan but he was not acquainted with the details of the affair and could do nothing in the matter.

Toronto, July 4.—The committee having in charge the erection of a statue to the Queen have decided to place it half way between the statute to the late Sir John A. Macdonald and the Parliament buildings, thus obviating the removal of the Macdonald monument, the suggestion of which created so much ill feeling. The Duke of York will unveil the statue.

The board of control has drafted the programme for the reception of the Duke which has been sent to the Lieutenant-Governor to be submitted to the Governor-General. The Legislation reception committee yesterday decided to ask for $10,000 for the reception of the visitors.

Ottawa, July 4.—It is understood that the Governor-General has sent to the general officer commanding a statement of the military requirements for the visit of the Duke of Cornwall and that they involve furnishing cavalry escort, a guard of honor and artillery salutes at all points where there are receptions to the Royal party. This may involve considerable shifting of cavalry. It is stated that in Ontario and Quebec there may be only two large military demonstrations, one at the capital.

Toronto, Ont., July 4.—Prof. J. C. McLean, who holds the chair of Economics at the Arkansas University, and is a noted expert on questions of shipping and railway rates, arrived in the city to conduct on behalf of the Dominion Government an inquiry into the shipper's grievances. A report has been asked for by Mr. Blair as preliminary to promised legislation for the regulation of traffic rates by the Government. Mr. McLean will visit Ottawa, and afterward make investigations at the chief shipping centres in Canada.

Montreal, July 4.—Mrs. W. H. Franckum, 150 Elgin street, tried to drown herself in the St. Lawrence at St. Helen's Park yesterday, having been affected by the heat. She was rescued.

Rev. James Thornloe, father of the Bishop of Algoma, died at Lachine this morning, aged 86.

St. John, N. B., July 4.—The York County Conservative convention nominated Rev. Jos. McLeod as a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the unseating of Mr. Gibson. Dr. McLeod accepted the nomination. An agreement was made a few days ago that the contest would be cleanly conducted by both sides.

Toronto, July 4.—Mrs. Alphonse Dumas, a young married woman, wife of a tailor's cutter living on Strachan avenue, committed suicide tonight by taking ten grains of morphine.

Montreal, July 4.—William Turnbull, engineer of the G. T. R., was accidentally crushed to death today between his engine and a line of empty cars at Mount Stephen street.

Ottawa, July 4.—The Government has no information re reports sent out from Ottawa that the joint high commission will resume its meetings in September at Quebec.

Quebec, July 4.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier is in town. He is here respecting the transfer of the Plains of Abraham to the Dominion government for the purposes of a Canadian national park.

Brockvillte, Ont., July 4.—Rev. F. W. Turk died yesterday. He had been for 44 years pastor of the New Jerusalem church, relinquishing the pastorate a year ago.

Montreal, July 4.—Hon. G. C. V. Buchanan, former member of the Superior Court of Queen's Bench, Quebec, died yesterday. He was on the bench from 1881 to 1887.

Picton, Ont., July 4.—Fire in D. J. Baker & Co.'s foundry this morning damaged the building and contents to the amount of $2,000.

Toronto, July 4.—The Grand Orange Lodge will meet in Toronto July 23, instead of in Winnipeg.

Exeter, July 4.—Fire at Dyer & Howard's planing mills did $6,000 damage.

VICTORIA'S JOKE ON VANCOUVER

How the Latter Found Out That the Former Was Honest.

Salmon are Running Freely but Strike Is Far From Settlement.

(SPECIALS TO THE MINER.)

Victoria, July 4.—Vancouver has long held that their Chinaman on Darcey Island was dead and that Victoria was salting them for his keep. Last week Sanitary Officer Morris came over with the interpreter and went out on Sunday by train and pulled over in a boat to Darcy Island to be met by their Chinaman as the boat touched shore, with, "Hello, how's Vancouver?' from their leper. It cost Vancouver about $30 to know the truth.

Vancouver, July 4.—Salmon are reported in considerable numbers at Point Roberts. One trap caught as many as 500 sockeyes. Fish are also reported numerous on the Vancouver island coast.

The canners executive again met Mr. Bremner the Government Commissioner today, but all attempts to come to a settlement with canners on the basis of a more favorable offer failed. The canners said they had done their best. According to the canners many Indians are coming from Chilliwack and the north to fish.

According to Superintendent Marpole 119 men are coming from the east to take the place of the striking trackmen on the C. P. R. and according to Mr. Marpole he will have more men than he will know what to do with at once.

Victoria, July 4.—Not to be outdone by Skagway and Buffalo, Victoria had a flag incident of its own this morning. The Fifth regiment band was playing in the streets preparatory to embarking for Port Angeles and the patriotism of the storekeeper of the U. S. navy was roused to a fire cracker stage. Procuring the stars and stripes, he was nailing it across the door when Geo. Jeeves, a retired contractor and pronounced Briton, strode across and asked the man to take it down. The storekeeper refused and said he would lick any one who attempted to do so. Jeeves immediately tore down the flag and threw it on the floor. The storekeeper took no action. The general sentiment in the city is that Jeeves was indiscreet, although it is held that in view of the recent occurrences at Washington and Skagway the Americans will make no protest.

Victoria, B. C., July 4.—The Empress of China arrived today, after breaking the record from China, the trip from Yokohama consuming ten days and half. She was detained there in quarantine owing to two cases of plague being discovered on board her. Details were received of an international fracas at Tien Tsin by which it appears a small British patrol under a sergeant ordered some drunken French soliders off the roof of a house containing a woman into which they were attempting to force an entrance. The French were joined by Russians and pelted the patrol for over an hour. The British sergeant behaved splendidly in withholding fire and persuading the Japanese guard to do so also with great difficulty. Only when threatened with extermination did the patrol fire and disperse the mob at the bayonet point.

Victoria, B.C., July 4.—The schooners Oscar and Hattie, the first of the Asiatic sealing fleet to return reached Victoria this morning. They left the coast on the 2nd of April with 135 skins for the Copper Islands and struck new sealing grounds, 637 miles from the Aleutian Islands at 166 east longitude. They struck herds heading for the pass into Bering Sea and swelled the catch to 657 pelts. The sealing was good until the south winds sprang up and broke up the herds. They ran short of fuel and had to put back to port

AMERICANS IN FINAL HEAT

Pennsylvania Crew Wins Its Second Heat at Henley Regatta.

Will Meet the Leander Crew in the Final Heat This Afternoon.

(SPECIALS TO THE MINER.)

Henley, July 4.—In the regatta today the Leander crew easily disposed of the Belgians and the Pennsylvania eight beat the Thames Rowing Club's crew. This leaves the Leanders and the Americans to row in the finals tomorrow and it promises to be one of the greatest races ever rowed over the historic course.

Henley, July 4.—Theodore Cook, the well known Oxford oarsman, wrote the following today for the Associated Press: "Again the Pennsylvanians have enjoyed the best of good fortune in weather and opponents for their second victory in the way towards the final of the Grand Challenge cup. There was absolutely no wind all through the race and neither station enjoyed the least advantage. The Pennsylvanians were at the post first, on the Berkshire side which is usually not so good as the other. Stroke Gardner was sitting comfortably at his ease with his oar handle resting on his knees and the only man in the crew who looked the least worried was Capt. Flickwere, who no doubt, realized his responsibility more than the rest for the race was an easy one and a slight accident might wreck the Pennsylvanian chances. They made 41 full strokes in the first minute, though these were far from neat for there was much splashing and the first four oars were nearly all late, while seven was not doing as well as usual.

"This, however, made no difference for the Thames crew could only get 39 and had lost three-quarters of a length by the time the island was passed. The Pennsylvanians continued at full steam, going further and further away from their weak adversaries. They reduced half way in 3 minutes, 40 seconds, a time which deserves careful remembrance. Soon after this the Thames men were completely out of the hunt. The Pennsylvanians settled into that lively paddling at half steam at 36 for which they are so famous. It is extremely useful to nurse a crew which has established a good lead and save up its powers until they are wanted again, but it has now been seen in this race for the last time. While they were going thus easily the Pennsylvanians got rather careless. Four was rowing well but neither six nor seven was as good as he should have been, but Flickers was rowing with great steadiness and kept his men together capitally while Eisenbray (No. 2) also did especially good work, just when the stroke side as a whole were rolling and splashing rather badly.

"When near the Leander Lawn, about a quarter of a mile from home, both the Gardiners (No.'s 7 and 8) woke up suddenly and the whole crew got far more lively though they did not row as long as they should have done and when they quickened to 41 in order to beat the already beaten crew by a little further distance they were by no means rowing as neatly as yesterday, and the completed course was timed only 7 minutes and 22 seconds. I attach little importance to time test in comparison as a general rule and shall not emphasize that. Leanders did 12 seconds better all over, just because the Belgians were a much faster crew than the Thames, but it must be remembered that Leander had not much difficulty and though the day was dead calm it was not quite as fast as yesterday, because there was not that slight following breeze which helped every one yesterday. In spite of this Leander improved on their previous performance and their improvement has not yet finished.

"But far more important is the fact that today the Englishmen reached Fawley no less than six seconds faster than the Pennsylvanians and when the two meet each other, though there will not be that differencee because Leander never got further ahead than they can help, and the difference in pace necessitated. Pennsylvania will have a very serious effect upon that middle half mile, which has hitherto been such an easy thing for them."

CANADIAN NEWS

Hamilton, July 4.—A number of men confined in the city jail for minor offences refused to work this morning saying it was too hot. Capt. Ogilvie threatened the prisoners with severe punishment and ordered Ed Murphy, leader, confined in the black hole for a few hours. Thereupon the other prisoners came to Murphy's aid. The police were notified and sent down a dozen officers who overpowered the mutineers.

TRAIL'S CELEBRTAION.

Large Crowds Go Down From Rossland to the Smelter City.

Trail had a very successful celebration of the 1st, which was also observed as the birthday of the new city. Something like 2,000 people went down from Rossland to enjoy the sports which went off well, particularly the horse racing, baseball matches, and tugs of war. In the game between the War Eagle team from Rossland and the Trail smelter team the latter won. Besides these there were a series of tugs of war, one between teams representing Italy and Austria, composed of men from the smelter, evoking much laughter and applause.

The footraces, etc., were well attended, there being a large number of entries. Besides the Rossland contingent many were present from Northport and other towns.

The Hall Mines smelter will blow in on copper in a few days, and the company is in the market for copper.

LARGEST IN OUR HISTORY

Canada's Customs Receipts are Greater Than Ever Before.

War Hero Received Memorial Service but Is Still Alive.

(SPECIALS TO THE MINER.)

Ottawa, July 4.—Financial year 1900-1901, just closed, shows the largest customs receipts in the history of the Dominion, exclusive of the Yukon and the coast, from which returns have not yet been received. Customs revenue for the year is $28,990,254. This is an increase of $81,236 over last year, and this increase will be $200,000 when all returns are in. In 1896 the customs revenue was $20,000,000. The returns for June show receipts for $148,464 more than in June of last year.

The Governor-General has been invited by Mr. Menier, owner of the Anticosti Island, who is now summering on the island, to visit him, and his excellency has sent word that he will be on hand on July 12.

London, Ont., July 4.—The people of Kirkton have been mourning the death of William J. C. Brown, a young man who lived near that place, and two weeks ago a memorial service was held for him at the village church. The young man had gone to serve in South Africa and some time ago his father, Samuel Brown, received a telegram announcing his son's death on May 28th. Now Kirktown people know that the man they mourned is not dead. His father got a letter from him on Dominion Day. This in itself would not prove that he is alive but the circumstances of his case are peculiar. When Brown left Kirktown he went with his cousin, also W. J. C. Brown, but called Caleb, while he was William. Caleb's home was in Manitoba and as his father objected to him going to war, he came down to Kirktown and went as William's brother. When the telegram announcing the latter's death was received at Kirktown, it was noticed it mentioned Caleb's army list number, not William's, but little was thought of this and the memorial service was held. The letter received on Monday settles the matter, however, because in it William J. C. Brown tells of the death of W. J. Caleb Brown.

Montreal, July 4—Montreal cigarmakers, who have been striking for eleven weeks, believe the strike is about over. Financial Secretary Sharon, of the International Union, says the union has a reserve of a million dollars and will back Montreal strikers to the end. The manufacturers, however, declare they will not give in.

Montreal, July 4.—The city hall has been placed in the hands of a small army of decorators which will make the dingy old place look beautiful against the coming of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York in September. The work will take six weeks or more to complete.

Ottawa, July 4.—The Eastern Ontario Dental Association last night discussed the necessity of the establishment of a dental corps in connection with the Canadian militia and decided to call the attention of the Minister of Militia to the subject.

Quebec, July 4.—The deed of sale of the historical Plains of Abraham by the nuns of the Ursuline monastery to the Dominion Government was signed this morning by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Prime Minister, who goes back to Arthabascaville tonight.

St. John, N. B., July 4.—Soldiers Harvey and Reddin, of the Royal regiment of Fredericton, were drowned while boating on Monday. Both were Nova Scotians, and served with the first contingent in South Africa.

Montreal, July 4—John W. Dafoe has been appointed editor of the Winnipeg Free Press, and will take hold about August 1st, Mr. A. J. Magurn retiring.

PARTIES AND POLICIES.

The Victoria Post does not think it any longer necessary to discuss the desirability or otherwise of introducing party Government in British Columbia. We already have it, it says. There are two parties in the Province, the Reactionaries and the Progressives. The Reactionaries are in power, and the Progressives, who are in the majority, want organising. That may be the present situation, and it might serve present purposes if party lines were drawn on the basis thus suggested. But for a permanent cure of the political evils now afflicting the Province we shall require to go deeper and farther than this. The natural and old established division of parties is the one we shall have to come to in time, and the belief is growing that it cannot come too soon. Let the Province have such guarantee as there is in the responsibility of a recognised party, rather than in that of any mere individual or faction, and we shall have more conservative as well as more progressive legislation. It will be these for the reason that personal interest will be largely eliminated; in due time, entirely so.

A first step towards this end, however, is no doubt the defeat of the Reactionaries who are now in power. They are a poor lot, and with any sort of organisation their defeat could easily be accomplished. The Post suggests a platform of three separate policies on which to take issue. One is an equitable redistribution of seats in the Legislature; more regard must be paid to the principle of respresentation by population. The second is a railway policy that will insure competition. As to this The Post says: "Unless the monopoly of the Canadian Pacific Railway is broken, the outlook before British Columbia is perfectly hopeless. No portion of the country has progressed where this monopoly exists; none can progress where it is maintained. Under the fostering care of the Reactionaries it is being pressed tighter and tighter upon the Province." The third is fiscal reform, with special reference to the methods of taxation. We again quote: "The taxes of British Columbia have been ingeniously designed to press severely upon industry in every shape and form, and to allow the monopolisation of the resources of the country without the intention or ability to utilise them to go free. The mine owner knows this, the sawmill owner knows this, and, most of all, the working man has had it brought home to him in bitter earnest. The iniquitous system of taxation in British Columbia is strangling industry and placing labor under a grievous injustice. Does a man wish to cut timber, he is taxed. Does a man wish to work a mine, he is taxed. Does he wish to hold a mine without working it, he is not taxed. Does he wish to work with his hands, his wages are pounced upon, while the well dressed and badly dressed bums escape. All through it is the same." Everybody will agree there is room for reform here. In the matter of taxation the Province is at least fifty years behind the times. There is neither rule nor reason in the present system; it is a mass of incongruities, inconsistencies, and inequalities, without scientific form and with no pretension to the equities.

There is no excuse whatever for that flag incident at Victoria yesterday, and if that city has the proper spirit its public sentiment will condemn it without stint. What a fool Yankee may do at Skagway or any other place is no justification for the insult offered to the American flag in Victoria. It was the Fourth of July, and for many years all over Canada the raising of the American flag in recognition of the day has been regarded with the greatest good nature and indulgence on the part of Canadians. The incident is a most regrettable one, as it is a reflection on the intelligence and liberality of our people, putting us on a level with those ignorant Americans who think it patriotic to insult the British flag whenever the opportunity offers.

From Spokane comes word that a purpose is brewing to practically rebuild the Spokane Falls and Northern railway. Curves are to be straightened, grades reduced, and wooden structures replaced with earth fills or steel bridges. This is understood to be necessary in order to handle the traffic that will result from the extension to Republic. While these improvements are in progress the management might consider whether it would not be desirable to subject the Nelson & Fort Sheppard to similar treatment.

The ministers of Nelson must be careful how they offend Mr. Houston, who has taken into his own charge all the morals of the place. This is the elegant manner in which one of them was referred to in that extra-refined gentleman's paper of yesterday: "Nelson has a sensational preacher of the Baptist persuasion, named Morgan. He is attempting in frothy sermons to show that the city of Nelson is engaged in illegal practices and winking at vice. An inspection of the police court docket of Nelson will show that there is nothing in what Morgan is ranting over." And the town stands it. What a self-respecting town it is, to be sure!

Says The Ledge, New Denver: "The $6 a day scale of wages for plasterers in Nelson has somewhat dampened building operations. Nelson has been built up largely upon borrowed money, and loan companies refuse to advance funds when houses cost more than they think is a safe risk." We are afraid the plasterers are not to be saddled with all the blame for the stagnation in the building trade. There are others, and between them the conviction has been forced that building houses in Nelson is a luxury in which it does not pay to indulge just at present. The goose that was laying the golden eggs may not be killed, but it has been frightened out of sight. In the meantime there are busy calculations as to whether it pays better to work twenty days in the season at six dollars a day, or a couple of hundred at four dollars.

LARGE MINING DEAL.

Imperial Development Syndicate Gets Quarter of a Million For Properties.

One of the most satisfactory and important events occuring on America's great celebration day was the ratification of a quarter of a million dollar mining deal in this city, whereby a property of the Imperial Development Syndicate practically passes into the hands of the London & B. C. Goldfields company. A special meeting of the company was held in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon with the vice-president, Dr. Arthur, in the chair. The object of the meeting was to raitfy an offer made by the London & B. C. Goldfields Co., Ltd., for the purchase of the property. The property is situated on Lexington mountain in the Lardeau district and includes the Eva and Imperial groups containing in all ten claims and fractions.

The offer made for the purchase of the property is a double barelled one and consists of a straight cash payment of $250,000 or a cash payment of $150,000 and a quarter interest in the capitalized stock. A resolution was unanimouly adopted by the shareholders, who were largely represented, accepting the former offer. Dr. E. C. Arthur and W. W. Beer were appointed the representatives of the company to execute the contract and to witness all documents for the company, required in the transaction.

The property disposed of is a large free milling proposition. The Ottawa Mining Journal referring to the property says: "Until this syndicate began operations in this district it was not known that gold to any extent existed there."

A thousand feet of development work has been done on the property already and no doubt, under the new management, will soon be added to the list of shippers and dividend payers.

The Eva group is the most important property in the Fish creek camp and consists of the Eva, Iron Dollar and Last Chance, and is situated within two miles of Camborne. It was first discovered in July 1899. There are three tunnels, No. 1 being 1,150 feet in length, with a crosscut 20 feet on the vein, with an average value of $18 per ton. No. 2 tunnel is 85 feet in length and cuts the vein, the average value being $100 per ton. No. 3 tunnel is 50 feet in length and exposes very good ore. Some of the quartz in No. 2 has given assays as high as $3,000 per ton. In the Imperial group, consisting of the Imperial, Balfour and Rossland claims, the quartz is also, auriferous and the vein is said to be about 100 feet wide.

Among those interested in putting through the above deal are the following Nelson gentlemen, Geo. Kydd, Dr. E. C. Arthur, W. W. Beer, F. Burnett, E. A. Crease, A. H. Gracey and others.

ERIE COMING TO THE FRONT.

Recent Discoveries North of the Town Causing Lively Times.

Mr. J. D. Anderson, P. L. S., of Trail, was in town yesterday, having come over to Nelson from Craigtown, on the upper fork of the Salmon river, where he has been surveying twelve claims on Craig mountain. The properties are situated six miles north of Erie, and are valuable ones, a remarkable find of high grade copper ore having been made there.

Mr. Anderson states that Erie is very lively at present, and is building up rapidly, with good sales of real estate. He said that the prospects are remarkably good for Erie becoming a good town.

The mining records for yesterday were as follows: Certificates of work—Silver Clock, to Theodore Berendsen; Delaware, to Wm. Barbour; Mastadon, to E. Bigelow et al. There was only one location, which was the Jeff Davis on Bird creek, 14 miles from Nelson, and adjoining the Athlowe, located by Jeff Davis.

A quiet wedding took place at the Congregational parlors last evening in the presence of small number of friends, when Thomas Luscomb, caretaker of the church, was united in marriage to Maria Clement of Belleville. The knot was tied by the Rev. Wm. Munroe, the pastor of the church. The newly married couple will reside in Nelson. Mr. Luscomb is an old Crimean veteran, and this is not the first time he has passed through the seiges of either love or war, in which all things are said to be fair, and is receiving the congratulations of his military friends.

The Helmet of Navarre No class of fiction appeals to the well informed mind as does the historical novel. The deeds of men who lived in past ages hold an all-absorbing interest for the people of today. Miss Bertha Runkle, although a comparatively new writer, has, in The Helmet of Navarre, presented a fascinating romance which will take place among the foremost historical novels of the day. The Siege of Paris makes a strong, vivid background for a charming romance, interwoven with tales of adventure and daring. The story is well told, the plot carefully thought out and cleverly carried to its climax. Other new books are:

The Crisis, Winston Churchill, 75 cents.

Pro Patria Max Pemberton, 75 cents.

Mistress Nell, Hazelton, 75 cents.

Her Mountain Lover, Hamlin Garland, 75 cents.

The Observations of Henry, Jerome K. Jerome, 75 cents.

The amateur lacrosse teams that played such a wonderful game last Saturday will try conclusions at baseball a week from tomorrow and promise to give the Trail, Sandon, and Nelson teams a great many pointers on the great American game.

The following books have been added to the public library: The Sky Pilot, by Ralph Connor; The Crisis, by Churchill; Her Mountain Lover, by Hamlin Garland; Uncle Jerry, by Charles Clark Munn; The Helmet of Navarre, by Bertha Runkle; Mistress Nell, by G. C. Hazelton.

An Indian medicine man, "Hoe-in-the-Sun," of the Mohawk tribe, is in the city and holding street corner meetings where he attracts large crowds by his eloquence. He is a nephew of the celebrated Dr. Oronhateka of the I. O. F. and is an educated and forcible speaker.

Sheriff Tuck will offer for public auction at his office on Saturday next at 11 o'clock, on a judgment of the Harvey Van Norman and Balfour companies, for the sum of $1,387.50, on the Hampton group property consisting of the Hampton, Ethel K., Plunger, Camp Fire, and Silver Bow, near Slocan City.

Chief Lillie, of the Nelson fire department, has in his possession a couple of rara avis at the fire hall which is the most recent addition to his menagerie. They are a pair of untamed bald-headed American eagles. They are rare specimens of ornithology and are much prized by their possessors. They were captured at one of the ranches along the lake by some boys and purchased from them be the chief.

On Sunday next there will be communion service at the Presbyterian church. The new individual communion cups, which arrived a day or two ago, will be used on that occasion for the first time. A hundred and twenty-five cups have been procured and are neat, handy little glasses with a capacity of about a thimbleful. They will be handed around on nicely gotten up trays.

Bin Joe, who on Saturday last laid a complaint against young Howell failed to appear at the police court yesterday morning to defend his charge. The court disposed of all the business on the docket, and after waiting some time to give him a chance to put in an appearance, and as he failed to do while the court was sitting, the magistrate charged up the costs of the court to the plaintiff, which were paid.

A large number of men left the city yesterday for the Lardo district to work on the railway construction now proceeding in that district. With the opening up of the work on these railway contracts the large army of unemployed who have been waiting for something to turn up will be materially depleted, and it is probably safe to say that at the present time there are no idle men in the city.

Charles Hunt, a tinhorn gambler who was run out of the city two years ago, hoped that he had been forgotten and returned to the city during the late celebration. He renewed his old tricks and was promptly arrested. He was made to appear before the police magistrate yesterday morning to answer to the charge of having fleeced a man at dice throwing, by using loaded dice. He pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs.

The carpenters commenced work on the new postoffice yesterday when a number of them went to work on the construction of the derrick which will be used on the works for moving of the stone for the building. The contractor's plant arrived on Tuesday evening and yesterday the outfit was moved to the works, and the contract may now be said to be in full swing, and will continue steadily from this on.

J. White went down to see some friends off on the steamer for Kootenay Landing, Wednesday night. As it was raining he had on a long ulster, and while waving an adieu to the departing boat, in some manner tripped and went off the wharf backwards. He quickly came to the surface to be instantly grasped by Duke McIntyre, who had observed the accident and reached over the edge of the wharf in readiness for a rescue, and was pulled up on the wharf none the worse for the ducking.

Frank Tamblyn, the secretary of the Tiger vs. Muffer lacrosse contest, has handed to the secretary of the General hospital, H. Byers, the sum of $94.75 as the profits of the match on the recreation grounds on Saturday last. The total gate receipts were $104.75. Of this sum $10 was spent in printing and other expenses, leaving the above handsome amount to the credit of the hospital. In addition to this no casualties are reported as the result of the game to swallow up any of the proceeds.

The remodelled C. P. R. offices on West Baker street have been completed, the last sign of the mechanic work being seen yesterday by the notice being nailed up on the entrance "Wet Paint." The remodelled offices will in future be used exclusively for the C. P. R. Provincial land department and will be open for business this morning for the first time. Mr. A. Taylor of the C. P. R. land offices of Winnipeg, and H. Waters of the same place and from the same department of the company's service will be in charge of the work at the Nelson offices. They will have charge of all the work connected with the company's land and townsite properties. Mr. Taylor is in charge.

A movement is on foot for the construction of a race track before another year's celebration. It is claimed that there never will be much hope of procuring the crowds until some such attraction is provided, an illustration of that condition of things being the fact that Grand Forks secured a large crowd of visitors while Nelson was given the go-by. It is proposed to raise enough money by debentures or as a joint stock company to purchase a race track and lease it to a responsible company. It is proposed to hold a meeting in the city some time next week for the purpose of discussing the matter and to make some arrangement for organizing the scheme. Already a large amount of capital has been subscribed provisionally for the backing of the scheme and there is little doubt that it will go through.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

Americans Assisted By Some Good Canadians, Have a Celebration.

Nelson had by no means recovered from its two days' celebration of the Confederation of the Dominion before the glorious Fourth of July—the great day in the year of the United States, came around. In Nelson there are many Americans and a great many more Canadians and Britons generally who are quite pleased to turn in and help their American cousins fittingly observe the natal day of the greatest republic on earth. Yesterday was the Fourth. To the Americans it meant a great deal. Max Crowe is a good American and he laid plans for a great celebration early in the day. In this he was heartily seconded by J. B. Pollard, secretary of the Rocky Mountain Rangers Band, himself a good Canadian, and a better Canadian because he is perfectly content to help anybody else celebrate that anybody-else's greatest day. About eight o'clock the band marched forth and took up its place in front of Mr. Crowe's store where for over an hour some excellent music delighted many hundreds of people who crowded the sidewalks between Ward and Stanley streets. The electric lights overhead, used in Canada's celebration, were again turned on by the Tramway company, whose generosity during the past week has been very marked. Fire crackers of huge size—calculated to blow into a lot of little pieces any venturesome small boys who went too near them—brilliant skyrockets and gorgeous fire balloons added greatly to the scene.

The band music was certainly the greatest feature of the celebration. Among the selections played were: Independentia March, Yankee Doodle, Marching Through Georgia, La Rose de Castilla, Golden Crescent Overture, Sousa's Stars and Stripes, Gems of Scotland, Weaver's Triumph March, Louisana Buck Dance, God Save the King.

At the conclusion of every selection the band was loudly applauded. The organization is one that Nelson has every reason to be proud of and it is safe to say that no town in Canada of the same population can boast such an excellent band. The music last night strikingly showed the lack of wisdom on the part of the celebration committee in having such mediocre music when such a high class quality was available.

After it was all over the members of the band and those who risked life and limb in setting off the fireworks, were the guests of Mr. Crowe at an impromptu but sumptuous banquet. The Union Jack and Stars and Stripes were entwined and were symbolical of the good feeling that was manifest between the good Britons and the good Americans who joined to make the celebration a great success.

YOUNGSTERS CELEBRATE.

Merry Army of Children Observe the Glorious Fourth of July.

C. Augustus Waterman celebrated the 4th of July in a right merry style, which makes the Dominion Day celebrations a four day event. All the afternoon he spent in entertaining the youth and beauty of the city and succeeded in providing lots of sport for the boys and girls, who followed him around like so many trained animals, and were most implicit in their obedience to the instructions of their champion. About the middle of the afternoon they were taken for a street car ride to the park, the car having been placed at the disposal of Mr. Waterman by the Tramway company. After the ride a number of races were run on Baker street when the children, winners and losers, boys and girls, one and all received prizes of oranges, candies, fruit and flags. Some of the mothers of the city are loud in their thanks to Mr. Waterman for his action in providing amusement for the "bairns," thus relieving the parents of the care of them and thereby setting them at liberty to enjoy the other events of the day without the worry of the children. Away back in the dark ages, before the historic cow kicked over the historic lantern which swept out Chicago, Mr. Waterman was born in the Windy City and although he has been in Canada some few hundreds of years, he has not forgotten that he is an American and therefore asked the youngsters to help him celebrate the glorious Fourth. Donations were received by Mr. Waterman as follows: W. A. Thurman, two pipes; Wallace Browne of the Palm, one box of oranges; J. A. McDonald, a box of peaches; Hudsons' Bay Company, maple candy and flags; Gilbert Stanley, Thomson Stationery Co. and Canada Drug & Book company, flags; executive committee of celebration, two cases of fruit extract for the Siwash races.
