TO HEAD-OFF THE HINDUS

An Order-in-Council to be Passed Requiring Cash Qualifications

New Provinces to Have Representation Increased From 10 to 17 Members—Fight Over V. W. & Y. Extensions

(Special to The Daily News)

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—R. G. Macpherson, M. P. has promise of an order-in-council to effectually deal with the Hindu immigration problem by the insertion of a clause requiring reasonable cash qualifications for all intending immigrants before they are admitted to the country. The figure mentioned is $500.

Lemieux, minister of labor, announced today the receipt of a telegram from deputy minister King to the effect that negotiations for the settlement of the Lethbridge coal strike were progressing favorably.

The population of the two new provinces, as shown in the quinquennial census means, in the proposed readjustment of parliamentary representation this session, that Alberta will probably be given seven seats and Saskatchewan ten. At present both together have ten members.

The department of agriculture today brought down a return moved for last session by Staples, M.P. It shows that since February of last year, 1903 Manitoba horses were tested with mallein, and 1214 in Saskatchewan and Alberta. The number of horses quarantined and re-tested in Manitoba was 101. In the other two provinces 112. In Manitoba 757 horses were slaughtered after being tested and in Alberta and Saskatchewan 288. Compensation was paid on the basis of two-thirds the value of the animal. The highest compensation in any one case was $100.

The promoters of the Manitoba Radial railway are Messrs. A. Wagner, R. D. Fletcher, W. J. Donovan, J. A. Munro and Charles Hoffman, all of Winnipeg. They desire to build a railway from Winnipeg to lake Manitoba.

The Saskatchewan Valley & Hudson Bay Railway company is seeking a charter to build a railway from Edmonton to Fort Churchill, via Smoky lake, Prince Albert and Pelican lake. The incorporators are Thomas W. Rourke, John Morris, Robert Tegler and J. T. Collisson, of Edmonton, and F. J. Lougheed, of Sarnia.

A battle royal began before the Railway Commission this morning when the V., W. & Y. railway sought the right to extend its lines to the water front on Burrard Inlet.

Joseph Martin appeared for the railway company and opposing him was an array of counsel representing the city of Vancouver, the C. P. R. and the B. C. Electric railway.

The C. P. R. opposed the entire proposition on the ground that the applicant's right from parliament to build the proposed branches had altogether lapsed, and that they now had no right to build the lines in question.

The chairman considered the point well taken and it looks as though the company would have to go before parliament again for a renewal of powers in the question, or appeal, if it wishes, to the supreme court. In either case they will have to make separate application to the Commission for power to cross the nine streets the proposed spur through Vancouver would involve.

Chairman Killam made this point clear to Mr. Martin who had not understood the matter in that way.

Mayor Buscombe, who was in the city appeared and asked for construction of overhead crossings at grades.

The B. C. Electric Railway company backed up this fight as the proposed branch crosses its tracks several times.

Buscombe said the time would come when Vancouver would ask for the abolition of all grade crossings within the limits.

Before these cases were taken up Martin asked the Commission when judgment would be givin in application of the board of trade of Vancouver in regard to its complaint against the C. P. R. in respect to freight rates.

Killam said that Hardwell, the freight traffic expert of the Commission, had not all the information the Commission had asked for to enable it to give a decision, but expected to have it before long.

SITUATION IN MOROCCO

Admiral Touchard Sails From Toulon in Command of French Squadron

Paris, Nov. 27.—The cabinet met today under the presidency of M. Fallieres, president of the republic, and discussed the Moroccan situation at length. M. Jonnart, the governor-general of Algeria, who was called to Paris for the purpose, explained the local situation to the members of the cabinet and set forth the precautionary measures taken on the frontier.

Toulon, Nov. 27.—The French squadron commanded by admiral Touchard, left here at half past 12 o'clock this morning for Tangier, Morocco, upon the receipt of instructions from the ministry of marine. The fleet is composed of the battleships Sufferin, St. Louis and Charlemange, and was accompanied by the transport Lanive.

London, Nov. 28.—In a despatch from Tangier the correspondent of the Times describes the attack on his house. He says the fighting occurred in full view of the French and Spanish warships, but no assistance was given or offered. Owing to the manner in which French officers have been insulted by natives when ashore in uniform, they have been ordered always to land in civilian dress.

STRIKE AT BUCKINGHAM

ALBERT McLAREN DISCHARGED BY JUDGE CHOQUETTE

HAD RIGHT TO HIRE MEN TO PROTECT HIS PROPERTY.

(Special to The Daily News)

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—The greatest surprise in the Buckingham strike case since the coroner's verdict, came today when judge Choquette, called Albert McLaren from the crowd of spectators and told him that he was discharged.

"The only evidence against you," said the judge, "is the verdict of the coroner's jury, which finds you responsible for the deaths because you brought detectives to protect your property. I have read the evidence and I find no reason to justify your arrest. A man has a right to hire men to protect his property. I'll not discharge Alexander McLaren at present.

Hereupon arose a heated argument in which Mr. Carlemagne Rodier, for the strikers, held that the evidence was not complete and argued against the discharge of Albert McLaren.

Messrs. Aylen and McDougall, counsel for the Messrs. McLaren, pointed out that there was no charge against Albert McLaren. "If the gentleman opposite wishes to lay a charge let him," said Mr. McDougall.

The judge repeated his discharge, ruling that Messrs. McLaren had a perfect right to hire men to defend their propery. As for Alex. McLaren, he would not discharge him yet.

New facts were brought to light at the afternoon session. Judge Choquette proposed most of the questions himself and succeeded in bringing out important testimony regarding the exact original motive of the strikers in organizing on the day of the fight.

James Laforce said he had been asked to come by one of the strikers who told him to bring a gun and a stone. A. Despardins testified to being induced to attend the assembly by an offer of a $10 bill.

Mrs. Moyse Menard told of being asked by Charette, one of the accused, previous to the fight for the loan of a gun, while Joseph Landry, brother of one of the prisoners, finally admitted to the judge that he had carried a revolver with him on the day in question, knowing that the union men were going to try to stop McLaren's men from working.

Judge Choquette formally committed six of the men who took part in the recent rioting here to stand trial on a charge of riotous behavior. The preliminary enquiry against these men on the charge of manslaughter is now proceeding. It is expected that a number of others who were among the strikers will also be proceeded against.

Odds of 10 to 16 are offered on O'Brien and betting is extremely brisk. Against the probability of Burns lasting 20 rounds, odds of 10 to 7½ are offered.

C. P. R. OFFICIAL CHANGES

Ontario Division to Be Divided Into Three Districts.

(Special to The Daily News)

Toronto, Nov. 27.—The object of the C. P. R. in moving their superintendents around was made known today. The company intend to divide the Ontario division into three districts. The first will be from Toronto east to Smith's Falls, the second from Toronto to Windsor, and third, lines north of Toronto. The first division will be in charge of J. R. Nelson, who is coming from North Bay, the second in charge of superintendent C. Murphy, with headquarters at London, and the third will be supervised by A. L. Smith, present inspector of stations and despatchers on lines east of Port Arthur.

The changes are due to the large increase in the mileage of the division caused by the building of the Guelph and Goderich and the Sudbury lines.

A new accounting department will be necessary for the new division, No. 3, and C. L. White, of the accounting department, has been slated for the position of superintendent.

ROOSEVELT AND HEARST

TWO MOST POTENT PERSONALITIES IN U. S. TODAY

WILL BE MATCHED IN PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN OF 1908.

New York, Nov. 27.—Upon the theory that William R. Hearst will be the next democratic nominee for president of the United States the republicans are saying that it will be absolutely necessary for Mr. Rosevelt to accept the republican nomination.

The reason for the advencement of the theory that Roosevelt will be called back to harness to fight Mr. Hearst is found in incidents connected with the recent campaign in New York state.

It is argued that Mr. Hearst had Mr. Hughes "on the run" until Mr. Roosevelt sent secretary Root to Utica, in which, with all of the force behind the dignity and power of office of president, the editor-congressman was indicted before the bar of public opinion for his share is the conditions which resulted in the assassination of president McKinley.

Hence it is argued that Mr. Roosevelt is the only man in the republican party possessing a personality tremendous enough to cope with the personality of Mr. Hearst.

It is also argued that the country would forgive Mr. Roosevelt's return to the fight for the purpose of aiding in bringing about the defeat of Mr. Hearst, where it would never forgive him for return to the fight to defeat a man of the Cleveland or the Parker type.

So it begins to appear that the two most powerful personal forces in the country today are president Roosevelt and William R. Hearst. And there are some who, in victory or defeat, regard the editor-congressman as the more powerful of the two.

If the campaign in 1908 becomes one of Hearst against Roosevelt it will undoubtedly prove the most picturesque campaign in the history of the country.

The campaign just ended in New York state will be as nothing compared to it. In the first place, the interest and the excitement concerning possible results will blanket the entire country.

Hearst and Roosevelt are perhaps the two best advertised individuals in the civilized world today.

And in a campaign in which Hearst had the support of organizations like the Independence league, the national association of democratic clubs, many of the labor organizations and the regular democratic organization, while Roosevelt had the support of the regular republican organization, and was able to divide the anti-trust vote and the labor vote with Hearst, it is safe to say there would be "something doing every minute."

It is a fact that the shrewdest politico-speculators in Wall street are banking on a continuance of existing conditions for the next six years.

Hearst's most intimate friends and supporters say that they are going right ahead organizing Independence leagues all over the country. They admit that even if Hearst is defeated in 1908, that no earthly power can prevent his election in 1912.

SALE OF INDIAN GIRLS

Quite a Common Practice on North Coast Says Former Indian Agent

(Special to The Daily News)

Vancouver, Nov. 27.—Speaking of the sale of the nine year old girl at Kingsombe Inlet, ex-Indian agent Ward Debecy said today that the information was no surprise to him.

"Why, very few girls of up coast tribes are not sold to old Indians by the time they are 12 or 13 years of age," he said. "Men get tired of their wives, cast them away, and buy young girls. The traffic is getting worse instead of better every year. The Indians do it to get money for the potlatches."

'FRISCO'S JAPANESE

Roosevelt Hears Secretary Metcalf's Report on the Situation

Says Their Rights Shall be Safeguarded — Also Approves Porto Ricans' Claim to American Citizenship

Washington, D.C., Nov. 27.—President Roosevelt had a long conference with secretary Metcalf at the White House tonight regarding the alleged discrimination against the Japanese residents of San Francisco.

More than a month ago the president sent Mr. Metcalf to that city to make a thorough investigation. Mr. Metcalf's report is now ready and was considered fully by the president tonight. The secretary has uniformly declined to discuss with the newspapers any of the conclusions he has reached, but it has been understood generally that the report would show that the people of San Francisco maintained that what they had done in the matter of school accommodations was within their rights and that the matter was one of local administration. Whether the president will make Mr. Metcalf's report public has not been determined. He has expressed anxiety that all cause for complaint on the part of the Japanese be removed and has stated he will do his utmost to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the matter.

NIAGARA POWER SUPPLY

SECRETARY TAFT TO DECIDE CONFLICTING CLAIMS

APPLICANTS DIFFER AS TO QUANTITY EACH SHOULD GET

Washington, Nov. 27—The hearings upon the applications to secretary of war Taft for permission to transmit to the United States power developed on the Canadian side of the Niagara river, were closed tonight. Additional data will be filed and secretary Taft announced that he would not be able to report a decision in regard to the applications until he had conferred with secretary Root. This conference is necessary because of the effect the contracts may have upon an international treaty, providing against any perceptible interference with the grandeur of the Niagara Falls. He said he would award privileges about Jan. 1 if possible.

The hearings before secretary Taft were for the purpose of enabling him to find a way equitably to distribute 157,500 horse power, the estimated limitation on the amount of electric power to be admitted, among half a dozen or more corporations, each of which thinks it must have a third or more in order to exist.

Morris Cohen, representing the international railway company asked for only 2500 horse power immediately and additional amounts as business develops, up to 8000 horsepower.

Francis Lynde Stetson of the Niagara Power company, proposed to divide the power to be admitted equally between his company and the Electric Department company of Ontario and the Ontario Power company, the three corporations having franchises from the dominion government to develop power.

General F. V. Greene, representing the Ontario Power company, was opposed to the equal division on the ground that his comany was able to get one fourth more power from the same amount of water diverted than the other companies are getting, and he said the division should be based on the amount of water used. At the same time he declared that the three corporations named were the only ones realy entitled to consideration.

J. G. Johnston of the Electric Development company, complained of a combination between general Greene's company and one of is customers, the American-Ontario company, which is prepared to transmit power to Lockport and Syracuse. S. P. Cravath had made an arrangement for the latter concern, declaring that general Greene's company should not be limited to an extent that would interfere with a contract to furnish the American-Ontario company with 9000 horse power.

The arguments by the three companies holding franchises from the dominion government suggesetd a combination against applicants dissimilarly situated, though no representations to that effect were laid before secretary Taft.

IN UNKNOWN THIBET

English Explorer Visits Famous Thok Jaune Goldfield

Bombay, Nov. 27—H. Calvert of the Indian civil service, arrived safely at Kalu after an exploring expedition in Western Thibet along a route never before traversed by any European and marked on no existing maps. The entire jurney to Nagar extended over 1000 miles of which over 600 miles were in Thibet proper. The highest camp was pitched at 17,500 feet and for many weeks the party never got below 15,000 feet.

The Thibetans were generally friendly or indifferent and little difficulty was experienced in obtaining yaks for transport. In the course of the tour every district in Western Thibet was visited except those in the southeast corner. At Chaukang Mr. Calvert found the Indus to be a small stream, easily fordable and flowing in a narrow, steep valley, barely a half mile wide.

Thok Jaune, the famous goldfield was discovered to be practicaly deserted. Mr. Calvert made a thorough investigation of the goldfield. He is the first European who has ever been allowed to do this.

BLAZE AT FORT STEELE

POSTOFFICE AND SEVERAL STORES DESTROYED

VERY LITTLE INSURANCE CARRIED BY OWNERS

(Special to The Daily News)

Cranbrook, Nov. 27—With the exception of Carlin and Durick's and Tanhauser's stores, the entire business portion of Fort Steele was today wiped out by fire.

At about 1 p.m. a man named Cook who had moved into the house of Andy Neidig, started a big fire in an old stove with either a defective pipe or a defective flue. He went out for a few minutes and on his return found the place in flames. Inside of five minutes the fire had a grip on the block that required resolute action on the part of the people. When the lines of hose were first laid down the water pressure was too weak to produce much effect in checking the spread of the flames to the buildings on the north and south. When the fire pump got into action the fire fighters were able to show some result for their efforts. To the south the fire was cut off at the building next door to Tanhauser's store. Its spread was more easily prevented to the north as an alley way helped the men to attack the blaze on the flank. Inside of half an hour a dozen buildings had caught and all efforts were directed to limiting the fire to those already attacked. The Imperial hotel, on the opposite side of the street from the blaze, was badly scorched and was actually on fire several times. It took a sturdy fight to save it. Not a pane of glass remains in the front and the interior has been injured with water. E. C. Miller's store, Henry Kershaw's store, the postoffice, the Monte Carlo restaurant and the Strathcona hotel are the principal buildings destroyed. Altogether about 12 were burned.

So far as can be ascertained only a mere trifle of insurance was carried by the property owners affected.

The Cranbrook fire brigade offered their services by telephone on hearing of the disaster, but the Fort Steele people were well able to fight their own battle.

FOOLISH EDITORS

Indulge in Personalities and One of Them is Committed for Trial

(Special to The Daily News)

New Westminster, Nov. 27—J. C. Brown, editor of the News, was committed for trial by police magistrate Corbould this morning on a charge of criminal libel preferred by J. D. Taylor, editor of the Columbian.

The common remark on the street is that the unexpected has happened.

The charge was based on the fact that in a report of a meeting of the board of trade Brown made the statement that Taylor had misrepresented certain matters and had made a motion that was likened to the drawing of a red herring across the track. On the charge Brown can either take a speedy trial or let the matter stand over until the assizes.

WHOLESALE POISONING

Philadelphia Woman Kills Her Husband and Two Little Girls

Also Makes Away With Two Tenants in Order to Secure Small Insurance on Their Lives

Philadelphia, Nov. 27.— Mrs. Bridget Carey, aged thirty-two years was arrested tonight charged with having poisoned her husband, Patrick, her two children, Mary, aged eight years, and Annie, aged six, who died a week ago, and Patrick and Cecilia Cook, tenants in the Carey house in Hamilton street.

Two of the alleged victims died within eleven months, and the police allege that Mrs. Carey benefitted by their deaths to the extent of $1000, through the collection of insurance.

The woman's arrest followed an investigation made into the death of her children, which occurred last week. It was said at the time that their deaths were caused by eating poisoned candy. Coroner's physician, Wadsworth, made an analysis of the stomachs of the children and found the little girls had died of arsenic poisoning.

According to captain of detectives Donaghy, it was learned that the children were insured for $125 each, and that Mrs. Carey collected this amount after their deaths.

Miss Cook had been the lessee of the house, and Mrs. Carey was a tenant, the police officials say that Miss Cook was insured for $200 in favor of Patrick Cook, her brother, and that on August 13 she died. Patrick had been insured for $500 in favor of his sister. He collected the insurance on her policy after her death and Mrs. Carey took up the lease of the house. Thereupon Patrick Cook made his insurance over to Mrs. Carey, and shortly thereafter was stricken ill and died.

The police say that Mrs. Carey secured the insurance. After the death of the children, the police learned that the woman's husband had died suddenly about ten months ago, and by physicians, who were called in at various times during the illness of the victims, they were urged to make a rigid investigation. The bodies of Patrick Cook and his sister have been exhumed, and that of the woman's husband will also be disinterred.

A PARTY OF LITTLE ISSUES

In the course of his speech at the recent Montreal banquet, finance minister Fielding said:

"An important lesson which I think may be learned from the recent elections in the dominion is that the verdict of the electorate is to be given with a due regard to the larger things of government rather than to the petty things. It is the misfortune of the conservative party that it seems now to devote itself chiefly to the little things of politics. Whatever might have been said of the conservative party of olden times, in the day of sir John Macdonald and his associates, none could deny that that party had large views and gave prominence to the larger questions."

The pertinency of the foregoing remark was well instanced in the address delivered in this city on Monday evening by Mr. Rufus Pope, ex-M.P. for Compton, Quebec, heralded as a conservative "statesman." He may be regarded as a statesman by small-fry tory politicians in this province, but he is certainly not so regarded by the leaders of the conservative party in the east and we have no hesitation in saying that among his audience on Monday evening were those who felt very uncomfortable at some of Mr. Pope's silly slanders. His charge that the vacancy on the supreme court bench of British Columbia, occasioned by the promotion of Mr. justice Duff to the federal supreme court bench, was being offered for sale at a price of $7000, can only be characterized as infamous and as stamping the man who made it as utterly unworthy of serious consideration by right thinking people. Mr. Pope undoubtedly knew that he was either giving expression to an absolutely false and malicious lie, manufactured for the occasion, or that he was repeating a lie gleaned from some blackguardly pothouse politician. On the platform, at the time this lie was uttered and emphasized, were two members of the legal profession, R. S. Lennie, chairman of the meeting, and W. A. Macdonald, K.C., one of the speakers of the evening. It might have been expected that Mr. Pope would have refrained from making such an atrocious statement in the presence of these gentlemen, the honor of whose profession was thus impugned, but he evidently had forgotten, if he ever knew, that his chairman and associate were members of the legal profession. The remarkable thing is that these gentlemen allowed the insult to pass unchallenged. It will strike most men that partisanship must be extreme indeed that will tolerate such a slur. We venture to say that neither Mr. Lennie nor Mr. W. A. Macdonald placed the slightest credence in Mr. Pope's charge and what we cannot understand is that they should have permitted an outsider to give utterance to such a libel on the legal profession in British Columbia without challenging his authority.

It is to be hoped that the Law Society of British Columbia will not allow this insult of Rufus Pope's to pass unnoticed. That organization is largely made up of conservatives and a pronouncement by them on the subject would, at least, not be influenced by any desire to hide the misdoings of the department of justice at Ottawa. For our part we should heartily welcome an investigation into this matter by the Law Society, or even by any three conservative lawyers in the province, who place the honor of their profession above consideration of any possible party gain to be secured by slander.

Until Mr. Pope justifies his charge that a British Columbia supreme court judgeship has been offered for sale in this province, we fancy no British Columbian, liberal or conservative, will pay much attention to what he says in criticism of the Laurier administration or in praise of the McBride-Socialist government. Praise from men of his stamp is a sorry compliment.

ELECTORAL PURITY.

The resignation of Hon. Chas. S. Hyman is made the text of a very proper little sermon on electoral purity by the Victoria Colonist. But the Victoria Times thinks that the Colonist might have found a text for such a disquisition in an event of more local interest and to afford its contemporary an opportunity to air its views on this case it briefly recalls some of the particulars in the famous Fernie ballot box incident.

The conservative candidate for Fernie was W. R. Ross. The returning officer appointed by the McBride government was Mr. Alexander, the business partner of Mr. Ross. At the election then held the liberal candidate received a majority of the ballots cast, but the returning officer in making the official count threw out a number of ballots and declared his law partner, the minority conservative candidate, elected.

The liberal candidate, who received a majority of the votes cast, aplied under the statute for a recount before the county court judge. But in the meantime the returning officer shipped the ballot boxes to Victoria and the McBride government refused to deliver them up.

Now under such a set of circumstances one would have thought any government which was actuated by a spirit of justice and "British Fair Play" (to use a favorite expression of premier McBride), would have done everything in its power to facilitate the ends of justice, would have immediately complied with the request formally made by the county court judge, and forwarded the ballot boxes for the purpose of having the recount before the judge. Not so, however, with the McBride government. Two of the cabinet ministers had been defeated, the socialists had not yet declared their intentions, the member for Nelson had revolted, the very life of the government depended upon that Fernie seat, and we find that Mr. McPhillips, who, though defeated, was still holding the position of attorney-general, employed counsel at the expense of the people of this province to fight for the retention of those ballot boxes so as to prevent the recount being held by the judge. The telegrams sent by Mr. McPhillips on that occasion serve to show in some measure the anxiety of the government to prevent the recount.

Attorney-General's Office, Oct. 28, 1903.

"W. A. Macdonald, Nelson, B. C.—

"Re Fernie ballot boxes and order upon deputy provincial secretary. Bring ex-parte move before judge Irving to set aside at once, so that if necessary can appeal to full court, Vancouver, next week. Also apply judge Irving for stay pending appeal.

(Sgd) "A. E. McPHILLIPS,
"Attorney-General."

Here, then, we find the McBride government refusing to deliver up those ballot boxes and using every means to prevent the recount taking place, and doing so not at the expense of the conservative party, but at the expense of the province in order to retain in his seat a supporter who had been rejected by the people at the polls, and who has since held his seat to maintain McBride in power. Does the Colonist approve of such conduct, and does it think that under such circumstances the member for Fernie should have retained his seat and the McBride government be kept in power by such means?

If the Colonist is sincere and consistent in its appeal for electoral purity, it should lose no time in pronouncing its condemnation of such unworthy and discreditable means as were employed in the Fernie election case, which will go down to history as one of the most monstrous abuses of political power in the annals of British Columbia.

Couldn't that Kingston genius who floated the Bavarian get R. L. Borden & Co. off the rocks? asks the Toronto Telegram, conservative.

FIELDING AT MONTREAL

FINANCE MINISTER DEALS WITH LIBERAL RECORD.

NO DEFICITS UNDER LAURIER AND CREDIT IS IMPROVED.

At a banquet in Montreal last week tendered Hon. W. S. Fielding, dominion minister of finance, by the liberals of the Canadian metropolis, Mr. Fielding made an admirable address, dealing in the most lucid manner with the financial record of the Laurier administration. The excerpts from his speech given hereunder will repay careful consideration at this time:

"One important lesson which I think may be learned from the recent elections in the dominion is that the verdict of the electorate is to be given with a due regard to the larger things of government rather than the petty things. It is the misfortune of the conservative party that it seems now to devote itself chiefly to the little things of politics. Whatever might have been said of the conservative party of olden times, in the days of sir John Macdonald and his associates, none could deny that that party had large views and gave prominence to the larger questions. Today it would seem the conservative party expends its strength in the discussion of what percentage of profit a shopkeeper should get upon the things he sells to the government. I have just passed through a campaign in which I have heard representatives of the conservative party discuss what they were pleased to regard as public questions of the day. I do not recollect hearing a single word on such questions as the tariff, or the Transcontinental railway, or the development of the Northwest. Our conservative friends seem to have made up their minds to try and inflame the country by attacks on the expenditure of the government in the smaller matters of administration. Far be it from me to undervalue the little things of public affairs. People have a right to expect that in the smaller as well as in the larger affairs of government their representatives and officials shall exercise all possible care and diligence and fidelity.

"But in the expenditure of $80,000,000—for our expenditure of all classes has now reached that sum—in the expenditure of this vast sum of money from ocean to ocean it is hardly to be expected that there will be no room for criticism or fault-finding. But it is satisfactory to know that, while the people will not be indifferent to these smaller matters of administration, they will give them their proper weight only, and will not let them become a cloud to shut out the splendid record of ten years of good government under the administration of sir Wilfrid Laurier. There is no part of that administration which I would discuss with greater pleasure than that which relates to the financial policy of the country. There is no place in Canada where such questions would receive a more intelligent hearing than here in the city of Montreal. Your beautiful city is the commercial metropolis of the dominion, the centre of its great banking, railroad, mercantile and manufacturing interests. All these interests are particularly concerned in the fiscal policy of the country. Whether in public affairs or in private affairs sound finance is essential to successful business. We invite with the fullest confidence a study of our financial policy. Our opponents were somewhat ungenerous in their expectations when this government came into power. They predicted our failure with the utmost confidence. Compare their predictions with the result.

"Compare our financial administration with their own. This government must be content to stand on its own record, irrespective of what may have been the record of other administrations. But comparisons are exceedingly useful to us in the study of questions of this kind. I remember as a boy seeing the steamship Great Eastern coming into Halifax harbor. It has taken the shipping world 40 years to catch up to the lead which the Great Eastern gave. But while anyone looking at the ship as she came up the harbor could have some sense of her greatness, her size was best understood and appreciated when one of the ferry steamers crossing the harbor came alongside of her. We may be permitted to use comparisons by way of illustration, by way of showing the difference between the Great Eastern record of the liberal administration and the ferry boat record of the previous period.

"For three years before the change of government in 1896 our conservative friends had deficit after deficit. In the first year of liberal administration, the broken year for which there was divided responsibility, there was a small deficit. Then the liberals obtained a firm grasp on public affairs, and from that day to this Canada has never known a deficit. Take the whole period of ten years of the present administration and the whole period of eighteen years of our predecessors, and what do we find? That while they had an average surplus of a little more than half a million dollars per annum, we have had an average surplus of over seven millions and a half. They had very modest surplusses; we have surplusses running into millions.

"Take for another comparison the question of our public debt. I do not regard it as a great virtue that we have had such a small increase. In a country like Canada, with a vast territory to open up, with great works in all directions requiring consideration, it is hardly to be expected that we can conduct our public affairs at all times without some addition to the public debt, but we are able to present a remarkable record. During our ten years we have had to provide not only for ordinary expenses of government, chargeable to what is known as consolidated fund, but we have had to provide for capital and special expenditure. In ten years our expenses of that character chargeable to capital and special account amounted to $97,000,000, and, after providing for all necessary expenditures, at the end of the ten year period we find that the net increase of the public debt of Canada is eight and a half million dollars, or an average of about eight hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year, as against an average of six and a half million dollars for the period of our predecessors. Indeed, viewed in the correct light, our net debt is actually less today than it was when our government came into power. If we make allowance for the increase in population we find that the net debt of Canada today is several dollars less per head than it was ten years ago. Should any liberal feel it necessary to apologize for the debt increase of eight million dollars under such circumstances? Surely not here in Montreal, at all events, for in these ten years we have spent more than eight millions of dollars in operations at Montreal, in dredging the ship channel, in aids to navigation, in the general improvement of that magnificent waterway which brings the commerce of the world to your doors."

"A record like this, of sound and prosperous finance has, I am sure, impressed the business world of Canada and it has impressed the business world of other countries. The result is found in the high state of Canada's credit. Our credit was good before and it is much better now. Ten years ago Canadian securities were not thought good enough to be purchased by trustees in England. Our conservative friends tried in vain to have them placed on the trustee list, but after a period of liberal administration, that which our predecessors failed to do we have accomplished and now Canadian stocks are ranked among the gilt edged ones which trustees may buy. This improvement in Canadian credit is of the utmost importance in view of the fact that we are approaching a time when large sums of old loans will mature and will have to be renewed. Our opponents consantly harp upon our increased expenditure, assuming that it should be regarded as evidence of mismanagement. This is unwarranted. It has been well said that 'wise expenditure is true economy.' The expenditure of the country has increased because the business of the country has increased. I think it was sir William Van Horne who once said that Canada had been doing business on a back street. Canada is no longer on the back streets of the world. She is in the forefront and is fast taking her place among the great countries of the earth. Our very expenditure is to a certain extent a measure of the prosperity and progress of the country. A statement that the expenditure of the country has increased without any inquiry as to the circumstances of the increase, is certainly unfair and misleading. With the immense development that has been going on, increased expenditure has been unavoidable. Individual merchants have been obliged to increase their establishments to respond to the expansion of their trade, and the nation in a like manner has been obliged to enlarge its establishment to meet the rapid growth of the business of the country.

In 1906 we expended $1,480,0000 in our customs department, against $896,000 in 1896. But in 1896 $19,000,000 of customs revenue was collected, and in 1906 we collected $46,000,000. In the excise department we expended last year $555,000, against $470,000 in 1896. In 1896 this department collected less than $8,000,000 and last year it collected over $14,000,000. We expended last year on the postoffice department nearly $5,000,000 as against $3,665,000 in 1896. But in 1896 the postal revenue collected was under $3,000,000 while in 1906 it was close to $6,000,000. The liberal government has given the people a two cent rate, largely increased the postal service and instead of having half a million deficit as the conservatives had, it has a clear surplus on the postoffice account of about a million dollars.

"The operation of our railways and canals in 1906 cost $8,750,000 against $3,750,000 in 1896. Our opponents emphasize this, but forget to add that the revenue from these works has in the meantime increased from less than $3,500,000 to over $8,000,000.

"In the service of the dominion lands including the Yukon, we spent last year $433,000, against $119,000 in 1896, but while there was only $183,000 of revenue in 1896, there was last year a revenue of nearly $1,500,000.

"In all these great services, therefore, the increased expenditure does not mean increased burdens upon the treasury, but an increase of business of the country, which has brought very large increases of revenue to the country."

"Our trade statistics present a similar gratifying evidence of progress.. In the ten years from 1896 to 1896 our total trade increased a little over $50,000,000. In the last ten years our total trade increase was over $311,000,000. In the previous ten years our trade increased 26 per cent. In our ten years the trade increase was 130 per cent. Time will hardly permit me to refer, as I should like to the remarkable development of our northwest country under liberal rule. To the vigorous administration of the liberal ministers of the interior is undoubtedly due to a great extent the credit for the tremendous progress of the Northwest country. Ten years ago but few immigrants were coming to the country, and unfortunately a great many people were going out. Last year there came into Canada 160,000 immigrants, including a large number from the neighboring republic. Why ten years ago C.P.R. stock was quoted in the fifties and sixties. Today it is quoted in the one hundred and seventies. Perhaps that fact indicates more clearly than anything else the immense development that has taken place."

IN TIME OF PEACE

In the first months of the Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation ond the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared for a successful combat with the first cold you take? A cold can be cured more quicky when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by all druggists and dealers

Boils and Pimples

Red Rash, Eczema, in fact any skin disease, disfigures the complexion because the bowels are constipated—or because the kidneys do not rid the system of waste—or because the skin itself is unhealthy.

Owing to defective action of bowels, kidneys or skin, the blood becomes laden with impurities. If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent failing and baldness can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide "Destroys the cause, and you remove the effect." A METHODIST PREACHER'S EVIDENCE.

ECZEMA AND SKIN DISEASES

Eczema is a disease of the skin which does not allow the outer layer to mature, thus causing the watery portion of the blood to exude and form scabs or running sores. Zam-Buk cures eczema, because it is a skin food. It stimulates the skin, gives it tone, and this ends the painful and disfiguring disease finally.

Mr. John Millett Harris, a well-known Methodist preacher, of Lyng (Norfolk), gives his testimony to the value of this great herbal balm. "Eczema started on my arm," he says, "and eventually spread over my whole body in patches. The sores were very painful and at night they itched terribly. At other times they seemed to burn like fire. Zinc ointments, salves and internal remedies alike proved useless and my state was one of agony and misery. When Zam-Buk was introduced I feared that it would prove like the other things I had tried, but I was pleasantly surprised. The first few applications gave me ease, and right from that time the improvement set in. My skin is now quite cleared of all trace of eczema. I am cured completely and I owe it to Zam-Buk."

BABY'S SORE CURED

Mrs. Elliff, of St. John's West, Welland County, says:—"My baby had a rash—quite a number of small red spots and pimples which itched and became sore. I tried Zam-Buk and was delighted with the result. My husband also used it for a cut which it healed splendidly."

HEALED SEVERE CUT IN 3 DAYS

Mrs. Wm. Scott, of Portland, Ont., says:—"I cannot speak too highly of Zam-Buk. I have used it in the home for some time, and found it a splendid healing balm. My little boy got a severe cut on his forehead. I applied Zam-Buk and in three days the wound was healed up. Zam-Buk takes the soreness out of wounds almost as soon as it is applied, and heals them up in quick time. You can publish this if you wish, as there is no doubt Zam-Buk is an excellent remedy."

AN IMPORTANT POINT!

Don't get the impression that Zam-Buk is good only for very serious skin troubles, such as eczema. It cures all diseases and injuries of the skin. Chapped hands, cuts, bruises, burns, chilblains, sore feet, cold sores, these disappear before Zam-Buk as well as ulcers, open sores, and poisoned wounds. Zam-Buk is a household balm, keep it handy. Don't fear to use it on children; it is absolutely pure.

All druggists and stores at 50c. a box, or post-paid from ZAM-BUK CO., TORONTO for price, 6 boxes for $2.50.

LORDS MUST GIVE WAY

BANNERMAN WILL NOT SACRIFICE EDUCATION BILL.

POLITICAL CRISIS IN BRITAIN IS IMMINENT.

London, Nov. 27.—The intensity of the political feeling caused by the treatment of the Education bill in the house of lords found expression today in an emergency meeting of a general committee of the national liberal federation, at which a resolution was unanimously adopted urging the government to reject the lord's amendments to the bill and "resolutely to determine that the present parliament shall not come to an end until steps are taken to bring to a final arbitrament the question whether the house of peers should any longer possess the right to veto the will of the people as declared by the house of commons."

The meeting was the largest and most representative of its kind which has assembled during the last 20 years.

The speakers warmly denounced the action of the peers, declaring that the house of commons should not waste another day in considering the amendments to the bill, which should be returned to the house of lords without debate, and the liberal government ought to apply the only remedy, which must be drastic and final.

A letter from sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman was read in which the premier said that it was realized by all liberals, "that the house of lords would hasten to assert itself as the instrument of unionism as soon as the country rendered a verdict against the unionist government and the unionist policy."

Continuing the letter said: "Still we may plead guilty to a certain sense of surprise at the violence of the manifestation now, that it has come. The Education bill as passed by the house of commons, was a bill which the country demanded in unmistakable terms ot the general elections. It now seems to have been turned into a travesty of its original form. As amended, it perpetuates, if it does not extend, the very grievances and wrongs fixed upon the country by the act of 1902. Of one thing you may rest assured, we will have no tampering with the main principles upon which our bill is founded. If within those limits an arrangement can be reached all well and good. If not, it will be for us to see that on this question of education and on others a way is found by which the wishes of the country may be made to prevail."

COUNTY COURT.

Three Cases Heard at Sittings Yesterday—Trials Go on Today.

Just three cases were disposed of on the opening day of the county court sittings which began yesterday before his honor judge Forin. There were no jury cases heard and the cases tried were only of passing interest.

In the Montelius Piano Co. vs. Pierre, the piano people claimed $450 from a local tailor for an instrument they claimed to have sold him through D. J. Robertson the local representative of the house. The defendant claimed that the piano was only sent him on trial and the transaction was not a sale outright. After hearing the evidence his honor reserved judgment. S. S. Taylor, K. C., for plaintiffs, and A. M. Johnson for defendant.

Glasgow vs. French; plaintiff claimed $60 for four pigs, sold but not delivered. Judgment was given for $32 and costs. S. S. Taylor, K. C., for plaintiff, and W. A. Macdonald, K. C., for defendants.

McDaniel vs. C. P. R., two suits consolidated wherein the plaintiff claimed, in all, $315 for the killing by the railway of a bull, horse, heifer and colt on the line of railway near Castlegar during the past summer. The C. P. R. claims it is not liable and the question of the right to make the company fence its line in unsettled and unimproved localities is involved. The case was partially heard and the court adjourned at 5.30 until 10 o'clock this morning. S. S. Taylor, K.C., for the plaintiffs. W. A. Macdonald, K. C., for the defendants.

REALLY RAPID TRANSIT

FROM LONDON TO VANCOUVER IN LESS THAN ELEVEN DAYS

NEW TRANSCONTINENTAL RECORD ESTABLISHED BY C. P. R.

Montreal, Nov. 27.—The Overseas mail, which arrived on the Empress of Ireland at St. John last Friday, reached Vancouver at 8.38 o'clock Tuesday morning, having made the run from St. John to Vancouver in 86 hours and 56 minutes, and from Montreal to Vancouver in 75 hours. This establishes a new record across the continent from St. John to Vancouver and also from Montreal to Vancouver. The Canadian mail, which was delivered at Halifax and carried by special train over the regular route to Montreal, will reach Vancouver by the Canadian Pacific Imperial Limited on Thursday morning, more than 48 hours behind the Overseas mail. The call at Halifax delayed the Empress nearly seven hours in reaching St. John. The Pacific Empress of China left port at Vancouver one hour after the arrival of the Overseas mail. Passengers who lunched in London on Friday, the 16th instant, have crossed the Atlantic ocean and continent of America and breakfasted on the Empress of China on the Pacific, all in less than eleven days, which is certainly rapid transit.

20,000 CLUB

Monthly Meeting Last Night—Progress on New Folder

The monthly meeting of the 20,000 club was held in the board of trade building last evening with vice-president T. G. Procter in the chair. The attendance of members was not so large as the occasion warranted.

After the minutes of the previous general meeting had been read and approved, the secretary read a number of communications from the population clubs elsewhere in Canada acknowledging the receipt of advertising matter from Nelson and agreeing to co-operate wherever possible.

F. M. Black, president, wrote saying his business arrangements prevented his taking an active part in the work of the club and tendering his resignation in consequence.

Owing to the slim attendance it was thought wise to leave the standing committees without alteration for the present.

J. M. Lay moved that the question of Mr. Black's resignation be laid over as the year was so nearly ended.

M. S. Parry objected, where officers were unable to do their share of the work, their places should be filled by others who were both able and willing to attend to their duties.

The chairman said that only those who could and would work should accept office.

Mr. Parry moved that Mr. Black's resignation be accepted and the motion was carried.

Mr. Procter was unanimously elected president amid applause. In returning thanks for the honor, Mr. Procter said there was a great deal of work to be done and he would do all he could to make the club's work highly successful. J. Fred Hume was elected vice-president.

Treasurer Lay announced that the cash balance in the bank was $80.39, and so far as he knew all indebtedness had been paid to date.

The entertainment committee reported that in their opinion a series of dances would not be successful and recommended that a ball be given in the opera house a week after the Christmas holidays, about January 8.

Mr. Parry offered some explanations as to the non-financial success of the Roscian entertainment given in the agricultural hall last month.

The advertising committee reported progress and produced the dummy folder which it is proposed to issue. The committee is now engaged in soliciting subscriptions, the club having undertaken to raise $500 in consideration of which the city council has agreed to grant $200.

Mr. Beeston said the additional work asked for by the city council would increase the cost of the folder by about $100. The additions, however, would increase the value of the publication considerably.

Mr. Lay suggested that the city be asked to furnish cuts of the power plant and the high school, and the bank of Commerce a cut of their new building. The secretary was instructed to write and ask for the additional cuts. The meeting then adjourned.

THE INSIDE HISTORY

Covering Eight years of Splendid Energy in Introducing New Systems and Methods

When the history of Semi-ready tailoring comes to be written, as it should be written, now that the company has conquered and overcome every obstacle, there will be a proud story of Canadian enterprise and energy. The development of an original conception is also easy matter when one has arrayed against a new project many men of power and much capital and when one has to surmount the apathy of men who prefer former customs to better ones.

A year ago, after spending $100,000 in developing the American field, the affairs of the Semi-ready company reached a crisis, the inner history of which may never be told.

Today the Semi-ready company is in a stronger and better position than it ever was, and chiefly because men everywhere have accepted the system of tailoring which has proven itself. The popular verdict is a great asset. The Semi-ready trade mark label on a suit is the emblem of correct form, of good style and of superb tailoring, whether that label is on the $15, $20 or $25 garment.

J. A. Gilker, the pioneer merchant of Nelson, secured the agency for the incomparable Semi-ready.

COURT HOUSE BUILDING

Will be Moved to Site at Foot of Ward Street—Mr. Crease's Offer

The city council held a short special session yesterday afernoon to finally decide upon a site for the old court house building.

E. A. Crease, in place of holding the corporation up, made a public spirited offer to part with a portion of his recently acquired property on Ward street, opposite the provincial jail office, wanted by the city, for $1200.

The mayor and alderman Irving consulted with H. and M. Bird, local agents for C.P.R. lands, and ascertained that the lots at the foot of and to the west of Ward street, which it was proposed to lease and place the court house building on, could be profitably purchased outright. A further inspection of these lots yesterday and of the view up and down the lake to be obtained from the building if placed there, decided the mayor and Mr. Irving to report very favorably on this, the original site.

These facts being laid before the assembled council yesterday afternoon, it took that body only a few moments to decide. It was pointed out that if Mr. Crease's good offer was accepted, many wires would have to be cut, thereby increasing the cost of mving the building considerably. Ald. Rose withdrew his opposition and the council unanimously decided to move the building to the lots at the foot of the street, the lots, if possible, to be purchased outright from the C.P.R.

PRESENTATION AT MOYIE

St. Eugene Timbermen Express Goodwill to Retiring Boss.

Editor, The Daily News: We, the timbermen of the St. Eugene mine, wish you to insert in your daily paper the enclosed address which we presented to our late timber boss, Mr. Jos. Trainer. Mr. Trainer in response to the address made a feeling reply in which he stated that he always did what he thought was just and right by those under him and it gave him great pleasure to know that his efforts to satisfy were appreciated. He thanked the timbermen for their address, and presentation, which consisted of a valuable meerschaum pipe, a cigar holder, and a box of cigars to himself, and a set of cut glass ware to Mrs. Trainer.

Mr. Trainer is leaving for Spokane on Monday next. Hoping that you will find space for our address and above, we remain, yours, etc.—Committee of Timbermen.

Moyie, B. C., Nov. 25.

Mr. Joseph Trainer, Moyie, B. C.—

Dear Sir:—We the undersigned, employees of the St. Eugene Mining company, desire to express our great sorrow at hearing of your approaching departure for another sphere of operations, and our unqualified approval of your treatment of us during the time you have had charge of the department of mining work to which we belong.

We desire to record the fact that during the time that you have had charge over our work there never has been the slightest friction between you and us, and that your course toward us has always been marked by justice, kindness and a sympathetic consideration for our welfare.

In testimony of the sincerity with which we express those sentiments, we present you with a small gift which, though it cannot adequately express our feelings, will in some small measure convey to you a knowledge of the respect which we entertain for you.

Hoping that Mrs. Trainer and you have many years of happiness yet before you, we remain your sincere wellwishers.

MILLIONS FACE STARVATION

Shanghai, Nov. 27—An international committee composed of the consuls, merchants, missionaries and Chinese officials has decided to appeal to Europe and America to assist in relieving the distressed inhabitants of the province of Kiang Suk where the floods have completely destroyed the crops in an area of over 40,000 square miles, resulting in ten million people being on the point of starvation.

MUNICIPAL POLITICS

Mayor and Aldermen May Offer For Re-election—Ald. Selous.

In about six weeks time the municipal elections will take place and the questions as to who will be Nelson's next mayor, and who the aldermen will probably be, are beginning to be discussed around town.

There appears to be very general satisfaction with the work done by the present mayor and council and it is not unlikely that some understanding may be arrived at before election day that will do away with a contest this year and result in the re-election of mayor Gillett and the great majority of the existing aldermen if not all of them.

It is understood that his worship the mayor is willing to stand aside if any of the present aldermen would step into the vacancy and in this regard the name of alderman Harold Selous is mentioned. If mayor Gillett retired and the election of his successor were left to the council, Mr. Selous would very probably be selected. The mayor and council have worked harmoniously and well throughout the year and Mr. Selous has taken a prominent part in all the deliberations. As a real estate owner and one of the oldest residents in the city Mr. Selous has undoubted qualifications for the position of chief magistrate as his past services in the council demonstrate.

No decision has yet been reached in the matter and possibly the mayor and all the aldermen will offer themselves for re-election.

ONTARIO BANK FAILURE

Toront ,oNov 27—Applications made by the crown this morning before judge Winchester for the appointment of a commission to go to New York to examine brokers there with whom Charles McGill, formerly manager of the Ontario bank, had dealings. The applications were approved by counsel for McGill and president Cockburn and the argument was adjourned until next Monday.

The police court proceedings in the McGill case befre magistrate Dennison, were very brief today. A. E. Ames, broker, explained a few entries in his books and the proceedings were adjourned till tomorrow morning.

Some 80 sacks of newspaper matter for points west of Brandon, including British Columbia, which left Winnipeg for the west over the C.P.R. on Nov. 17, were destroyed by fire at Melbourne, Man., on the morning of the 18th. The engine was detached from the train and was bucking a snow bank. In backing down to the postal car a heavy jar given upset some parcels, which in turn upset the stove, causing the loss of the mail in the fire which followed.

Thomas Melrose, a well known railroad man of this city, has returned from a trip to Spokane, where he took unto himself a wife, formerly Miss Rose Meyers. Mr. and Mrs. Melrose have been cordially welcomed home by the bridegroom's many friends.

John Bunyan purchased the residence and lot on the south side of Silica street two doors west of Stanley for $1500 on Monday. Yesterday Mr. Bunyan sold the property to H. R. Dawson for $1800, making a fair day's profit. D. J. Robertson has purchased the two lots on the northeast corner of Kootenay and Victoria streets, including the board of trade building and that used by the electrical supply company next door. Including his residence and grounds, which adjoint to the east, Mr. Robertson now owns a block of four lots runing east from the corner. E. H. H. Applewhaite was the vendor in yesterday's transaction.
